5129. Fire department relief association. The confirmed members of the fire department or departments, together with the volunteer fire department or departments recognized by the city or town council in each incorporated city or town of this state are hereby authorized to form themselves into a local association, to be known as the fire department relief association of the city or town of (naming the city or town), and when so formed, it shall incorporate under the laws of this state. In the event of the formation of such fire department relief association, there shall be elected by a majority vote of the members thereof, the following officers, to wit: A president, a secretary, a treasurer, and three members to serve as members of the board of trustees, which said board of trustees shall consist of five members, of which the chief of the fire department, and the president of the fire department relief association shall be ex-officio members thereof. After the incorporation of any such fire department relief association, the said elective officers shall be elected annually on or before the fifteenth day of April of each year.

Amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5130. Report of secretary and treasurer of fire departments relief association, examination of books and accounts. The secretary and treasurer of every fire department relief association so formed shall annually prepare a detailed report of its receipts and expenditures for the preceding year, showing to whom and for what purpose the money has been paid and expended, and file it with the association, and a duplicate with the state auditor. No money shall be paid to the treasurer of such fire department relief association until such report is so filed. No one serving as a substitute or on probation, nor any fireman in the city having such association who is not a member thereof shall be deemed a member of the association within the meaning of this act. No treasurer of any such association shall enter upon his duties until he has given to the association a good and sufficient bond of not less than double the amount of all funds and securities in the hands of said treasurer for the faithful discharge of his duties according to law. The amount of such bond to be approved and paid for by such association. All of the financial books and accounts of such association with reference thereto shall be subject at all times to examination by the state examiner. And the state examiner is hereby authorized, empowered and required to make such an examination at least once in each year, or upon complaint being duly made to him that the money or any part thereof paid under the provisions of this act to the treasurer of such association has been or is being expended for any unauthorized purpose, and if such money upon examination is found to have been expended contrary to the authority given, he shall so report to the governor, upon whose direction to the state auditor no further warrants shall be issued to such fire department relief association treasurer until the money so expended has been returned.

Amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5131. Duties of association and city treasurers. Whenever such fire department relief association is formed as provided by law and when the treasurer of such association has furnished the bond as provided by law, such city treasurer shall pay to said fire department relief association treasurer all money in the hands of the city treasurer to the credit of said disability and pension fund taking the receipt of said treasurer and said city treasurer shall thereafter from time to time, as moneys are received by him for the credit of said fund or association turn the same over to the treasurer of said relief association, taking proper receipts therefor.

Amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5132. Pensions to retired firemen. Every fire department relief association whenever certificate of incorporation or its by-laws so provide may pay out of any money in the disability and pension fund a service pension in an amount not to exceed one-half of the monthly salary last received by such pensioner as may be provided for, to each of its members who has heretofore retired, or may hereafter retire, and has reached or shall hereafter reach the age of fifty (50) years, and who has done active duty for twenty (20) years or more as a member of a volunteer, paid or partly paid and partly volunteer fire department in the municipality where such association exists. Such pension may be decreased or increased within the amount specified, whenever the amount of funds on hand or the lack of funds render such action advisable or necessary. No such pension shall be paid to any person while he remains a member of the fire department and any person receiving such pension shall not be entitled to other relief from such association.

In case of volunteer or call men the compensation shall not exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) per month.

Validity of statute or ordinance providing for pensions for firemen, note, 37 A. L. R. 1162.

5133. Payment of service pension. Every fire department relief association now or hereafter organized in this state which is now incorporated or which may hereinafter be incorporated may pay out of the disability and pension fund, service pensions in such amounts and in such manner as its by-laws shall designate, under the provisions of this act, not exceeding, however, one-half of the sum last received as a monthly salary by such pensioned member monthly. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as permitting any member of a fire department relief association receiving benefits or allowances under the provisions of this act, and, at the same time, for the same casualty, an allowance under the Montana Workmen's Compensation Act. In case of volunteer or call men such pension shall not exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) per month.

Amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5134. Pension to widows and orphans. Such fire department relief association may pay to the widow and orphans of deceased firemen in such sums and under such limitations and conditions as its by-laws shall provide, and not contrary to the laws of this state, a pension not exceeding however, a sum equal to one-half of the monthly salary last received by such deceased fireman, monthly to each pensioner or to any one family, with the right to increase or decrease the amount of such pension when on account of the amount of funds, or lack of funds on hand, or for other good cause, such reduction or increase seems to the association advisable or reasonable. In case of volunteer or call men the compensation shall be the same as paid firemen and not to exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) per month.

Amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5135. Use of disability and pension fund of fire department relief association. Said fund shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever, other than for the payment of the following:

1. A service pension to a member who, by reason of service, has become entitled to a service pension.

2. A pension to a member who has become maimed or disabled in line of duty.

3. A benefit or allowance to a member who has suffered injury in line of duty.

4. A benefit or allowance to a member who has contracted sickness in line of duty.

5. To defray the funeral expenses of a member, in an amount not to exceed however the sum of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

6. Payment of a pension to the widow, orphan or orphans of a deceased member.

7. All claims shall be paid by warrant duly authorized, drawn by the secretary, and countersigned by the president of the association and on presentation thereof, the treasurer shall pay the same out of the said disability and pension fund.

Amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5135.1. Effect of decision holding any part of act unconstitutional. If any section, sentence, clause, paragraph, or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or void, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act, so long as sufficient remains of the act to render the same operative and reasonably effective for carrying out the main purpose and intention of the legislature in enacting the same, as such purpose and intention may be disclosed by the act.

Amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 58, L. 1927.

5138. Hours of work of members of fire department in cities of first and second class. No fireman, or member or employee of the fire department of cities of the first and second class, shall be required to be on continuous duty to exceed fourteen (14) hours of each twenty-four (24) hour day, save and except the chief of such department, who shall be subject to call at any time; provided, that the chief of any department, or a captain thereof, may in his discretion, in cases of necessity, recall to service any member or employee of the fire department then off duty who shall be needed by such department at the time called; (provided, however, that each and every salaried fireman shall be allowed one day off duty in each eight-day (8) period after the taking effect hereof, without loss of compensation).

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 135, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 51.

FIRE PROTECTION IN UNINCORPORATED TOWNS.

5143. Fire companies—How organized.

Cited as section 2076, Revised Codes, in State v. Board of County Commrs., 62 Mont. 69, 71, 202 Pac. 1108.

5148. Fire protection—Establishment of fire districts.

Where a board of county commissioners in its discretionary power had by resolution established fire limits in an unincorporated town under this section, and directed the levy of a special tax as therein provided, it could, in its discretion, properly rescind its action, no one in the meantime having taken any action to his prejudice in reliance upon the resolution first passed. State ex rel. Peninsula Security Co. v. Board of County Commrs., 62 Mont. 69, 202 Pac. 1108.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 148, L. 1925.

5149. Directors of fire districts—Issuance bonds. Whenever the board of county commissioners shall have established a fire district in any unincorporated town or village, said board of county commissioners shall be and is hereby constituted ex officio a board of directors of such fire district. The board of directors of any duly established fire district in unincorporated towns or villages within this state shall, whenever a majority of the directors so decide, submit to the electors of the district the question of whether the board shall be authorized to issue bonds to a certain amount, not to exceed three per cent of the per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property in such district, and bearing a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent, for the purpose of purchasing fire equipment, necessary lands, erecting buildings for fire purposes, acquiring a water supply, purchasing or otherwise acquiring or constructing a water system and establishing pipe-lines. No such bonds shall be issued unless a majority of all the votes cast at any such election shall be cast in favor of such issue. Such bonds may be either amortization or serial bonds, but shall not extend over a longer term than ten years.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 130, L. 1925.

5150. Conduct of election—Voting—Bonds. The time fixed for holding such election must be at least thirty days after the date of the order calling such election. Notice of such election must be given by the board of directors by posting notices thereof, at least ten days before the day of election, in three public places within such district, one of which must be at the polling place. The board of directors must designate a polling place within such district and name three persons residing therein, and who are qualified to vote at such election, as judges and clerks of such election, and a copy of the order fixing the day of election must be delivered to the county clerk and recorder of the county in which such district is located immediately after the same is made. Upon receipt of the copy of such order the county clerk and recorder must, at least twenty days before the day fixed for holding such election, cause a notice to be posted in at least three public places in such fire district, stating that the register of voters for the precinct in which such district is located will be closed on a day to be specified therein, and which must be the tenth day before the day for holding such election, and on the day specified therein the register of voters for such precinct must be closed and remain closed until after the holding of such election. The county clerk and recorder shall, immediately after the closing of registration for such precinct, make a copy of the register of voters for such precinct and deliver the same to the county treasurer who shall compare the same with the assessment-books for the last assessment for state and county taxes, and note after the name of each person contained in such register whether such person's name appears on such assessment-books, and make out and sign a certificate giving the names of all such persons whose names do appear on such assessment-books and attach the same to such register, and the treasurer must then return such register to the county clerk and recorder who must deliver the same to the persons named as judges, and clerks of such election. At such election no person whose name does not appear in such treasurer's certificate as a taxpayer whose name appears on the last assessment-books shall be permitted to vote, and no person whose name does so appear in such certificate shall be permitted to vote unless he shall reside within the limits of the fire district, and every person offering to vote at such election, and otherwise qualified to do so, must make and subscribe an affidavit, before one of such judges of election, stating that he actually resides within the limits of such fire district, and all such affidavits shall be preserved and delivered to the board of directors of the district at the same time the returns are delivered to such board. The polls for such election shall be opened at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and remain open until 6 o'clock in the afternoon. The judges and clerks shall count the votes cast at such election and shall make a return thereof to the directors of district, who shall canvass and declare the result of such election. The board of directors shall cause the affidavits herein provided for and the ballots to be prepared for such election in a number equal to the total number of registered electors in the precinct in which the district is located, which ballots shall be substantially in the following form:

"Shall bonds be issued and sold to the amount of dollars and bearing not to exceed six per cent interest per annum and for a period not exceeding years for the purpose of (state purpose)."

☐ Bonds—Yes.

☐ Bonds—No.

The elector shall prepare his ballot by making an X in the square before the proposition for which he desires to vote. If a majority of the votes cast at such election is in favor of issuing bonds the board of directors shall issue such bonds; such bonds shall be issued in substantially the same manner and form as bonds of school districts of the third class, shall bear the signature of the chairman of the board of directors, and of the county recorder, as ex-officio secretary of the fire district; if coupons are attached to the bonds they shall also be signed by such chairman and secretary, provided that a lithographic, printed or engraved facsimile signature of the president and secretary may be affixed to the coupons if so recited in the bonds, and the seal of the fire district shall be affixed to each bond. Each bond shall be registered in the office of the county treasurer in a book provided for that purpose, which shall show the number and amount of each bond and the person to whom the same is issued or sold; and the said bonds shall be sold by the board of directors as hereinafter provided.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 130, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 52.

PUBLIC PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS.

5159. Public parks and grounds—Additional indebtedness of municipalities to provide. A city or town council, or commission, in addition to the power it now has under the law, has and is hereby granted and given the further power to contract an indebtedness on behalf of a city or town, upon the credit thereof, by borrowing money or issuing bonds for the purpose of purchasing and improving lands for public parks and grounds; provided, that the total amount of indebtedness authorized to be contracted in any form, including the then existing indebtedness, must not at any time exceed three per centum of the per centum of the total assessed valuation of the taxable property of the city or town, as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes; and provided, further, that no money must be borrowed on bonds issued for the purchase of lands and improving same for public parks and grounds until the proposition has been submitted to the vote of the taxpayers of the city or town affected thereby, and a majority vote cast in favor thereof.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 114, L. 1923.

Taxation for public parks as within constitutional provisions prohibiting legislature from imposing taxes for city, county or corporate purposes or providing that legislature may invest power to levy such taxes in local authorities, note, 46 A. L. R. 707.

CHAPTER 53A.

DISPOSAL OF IMPOUNDED ANIMALS.

5176. Contents of notice. Said notice shall be in writing and shall give the number, description, marks and brands of such stock when impounded, seized, restrained or held, with the reasons therefor, together with the amount of charges, if any, which shall be reasonable, and in no case exceed the actual cost of holding, and costs in event of sale, and what disposition will be made of said stock if such charges are not paid, and when and where such disposition shall be made.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 69, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 55.

TAXATION AND LICENSES.

5194. Amount of tax for municipal purposes—Distribution of funds—Levy for park purposes. The amount of taxes to be assessed and levied for general municipal or administrative purposes in cities of the first class with a population of thirty-five thousand or over must not exceed one and two-tenths per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property in all such cities of the first class, and all other cities and towns must not exceed one and one-half per centum on the per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property of the city or town; and the council in each city or town may distribute the money collected into such funds as are prescribed by ordinance; provided, that for the purpose of maintaining public parks, the council in any city or town may assess and levy, in addition to the said levy for general municipal or administrative purposes, not exceeding two mills on the dollar on the per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property of the city or town.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 156, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 175, L. 1925.

To the extent of any repugnancy between them, this section is controlled by sections 1999, 2000, which fix the taxable value of property and prescribe the standard for computing taxes on real property and therefore a tax in excess of ten mills on the dollar of taxable value was invalid. Wibaux Improvement Co. v. Breitenfeldt, 67 Mont. 206, 215 Pac. 222.

v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 5, 6, 210 Pac. 900.

Obligation for local improvements as within municipal debt limit, note, 33 A. L. R. 1415.

5195. Cities and towns may raise money by taxation in excess of levy now permitted, how.

5200. Special taxes and assessments.

Under this section a city had the power to levy special taxes for the purpose of paying interest on bonded indebtedness and creating a sinking fund, and the contention that the taxing power of a city of a class other than the first class was limited to a ten mill levy for all purposes by section 5194, has no merit. First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 210 Pac. 900.

5201. Taxes in cities which have exceeded the constitutional limit of indebtedness. All taxes heretofore levied and collected, or to be collected for municipal and administrative purposes by any city or town, the indebtedness of which equals or exceeds the limit provided in section 6, article XIII of the constitution, may be used in payment of current expenses during the fiscal year for which said taxes were levied, the same as though a special levy had been made for each of said purposes. And the council of any such city or town is hereby authorized to designate the amount of said general levy applicable to each of said purposes, and the amount so designated shall constitute a special fund for the special purpose of paying the expenses incurred for such purpose, and such expenses shall be payable out of such fund and not otherwise; provided, that the aggregate of all taxes authorized for general municipal and administrative purposes shall not exceed one and one-half per cent annually upon the per centum of the assessed value of all taxable property in such city or town.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 175, L. 1925.

5203. Annual tax—Equalization and collection.

By the general repealing clause found in chapter 96, L. 1923, both this section and subdivision 2 of section 5039, giving authority to cities to levy and collect taxes, as well as the ordinances enacted in pursuance thereof, were repealed.

Thomas v. City of Missoula et al., 70 Mont. 478, 226 Pac. 213.

Cited as section 3346, Revised Codes, in First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 6, 210 Pac. 900.

5214. Collection of taxes—Delinquent taxes.

Under this section, the county treasurer must collect taxes for a city or town which has not by ordinance placed the duty of collection upon its own treasurer, no provision, however, being made as to when the money so collected must be turned over to the city or town treasurer. Held, that the county treasurer must within a reasonable time after collection compute the amount due the city or town and pay it over to the proper custodian, and that the lapse of one month after collection of the bulk of the city or town taxes is not a reasonable time within which to perform that duty. State ex rel. City of Cut Bank v. McNamer, 62 Mont. 490, 205 Pac. 951.

The county treasurer who collects taxes for a city and which constitute city and not county funds is without authority to prorate such funds among banks designated by the board of county commissioners as depositaries for county moneys. Cited in State v. McGraw, 74 Mont. State v. McNamer, 62 Mont. 490, 205 152, 156, 240 Pac. 812. Pac. 951.

5215. Duties of city treasurer.

Cited in Gagnon v. City of Butte, 75 Mont. 279, 287, 243 Pac. 1085.

5215.1. Certification delinquent special improvement taxes to treasurer. Whenever, in a city or town whose treasurer collects its own taxes or special assessments, or both thereof, any such taxes or assessments shall become delinquent, no tax sale shall be held by such city or town treasurer therefor, but such city or town treasurer must, within ten (10) days after the date the same become delinquent, certify all such delinquent taxes and assessments to the county treasurer of the county in which the city or town is situated. Such certificate shall contain the description of each lot or parcel of land on which any tax or assessment has become delinquent, the name and address of the person to whom assessed, the date when the same became delinquent, the amount of the delinquent tax or assessment, the penalty to be added thereto, and the total amount of such delinquent tax or assessment with penalty added. If any special assessment is payable in installments and any installment thereof becomes delinquent, the amount of such delinquent installment shall be included in such certificate, provided, however, that if the city or town council, by the adoption of an appropriate resolution shall declare the whole of the assessment remaining unpaid to be delinquent, as provided in section 5251 Revised Codes of Montana, 1921, then the whole of the assessment remaining unpaid shall be included in such certificate.

Upon receipt of such certificate the county treasurer shall enter such delinquent taxes and assessments in the delinquent tax list of the county, and the county treasurer in selling property for delinquent taxes must include all such city and town delinquent taxes and assessments, there being but one sale for each piece of property, such sale to cover the aggregate of such city or town, county and state taxes and special assessments, with the penalties, interest and costs provided by law.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 148, L. 1927.

5216. Annual tax levy. The council must on or before the second Monday of August of each year, by resolution, determine the amount of the city or town taxes for all purposes, to be levied and assessed on the taxable property in the city or town, for the current fiscal year and the city or town clerk must at once certify to the county clerk a copy of such resolution and the county treasurer must collect said taxes as in this chapter provided: Provided, that in cities where the council has provided by ordinance for the collection of such taxes by the city treasurer, the city clerk must certify a copy of such resolution to said city treasurer.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 49, L. 1925.

The words "levy" and "assess" as used in sections of the codes authorizing cities to levy and assess taxes are used interchangeably and not in a narrow or technical sense, both referring to the act of determining the amount and levying the rate of taxation—the doing of all those acts required for the imposition of a tax to be paid by the property owners. First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 210 Pac. 900.

5217. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of cities and towns commences on the first day of July of each year, and ends on the last day of June of each year.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 25, L. 1927.

5218. Annual appropriation ordinance. The council must, during the month of July in each fiscal year, pass an ordinance to be known as the "annual appropriation for the of for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 19....," in which ordinance there must be appropriated enough money to defray the expenses or liabilities of the city or town for such fiscal year, and there must be specified therein the amount appropriated for each separate object or fund, and the salary or compensation to be paid to each officer of the city or town.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 25, L. 1927.

5224. License tax may be levied.

For discussion of authority of cities to impose license tax under the police power, reasonableness of license schedules, etc., see City of Bozenman v. Nelson, 73 Mont. 147, 237 Pac. 528.

CHAPTER 56.

SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS—LIGHTING DISTRICTS—STREET SPRINKLING.

5226. Special improvement districts—Placing wires underground.

Cited in Ricker et al. v. City of Helena et al., 68 Mont. 350, 358, 218 Pac. 1049.

5227. Resolution of intention—Notice—Materials.

Under this section a city has the power to fix the boundary of a special improvement district at any distance from the front line of a street and is not required to include the whole platted area of each lot. Ricker et al. v. City of Helena et al., 68 Mont. 350, 218 Pac. 1049.

In an action to set aside the proceedings of a city council had in the creation of a special street improvement district and to enjoin the carrying out of a paving contract entered into, on the grounds that the city had joined in one district property abutting on several streets, that the character of work to be done on one street was different from that to be done on others, and that property on several streets would not be benefited by the paving on another, proceedings reviewed and held, in view of the power lodged in the city council by this section to include in one district and in one contract any number of streets, any kind of work, etc., that the council did not abuse its discretion. Ricker et al. v. City of Helena et al., 68 Mont. 350, 218 Pac. 1049.

Under a resolution of intention to create a special improvement district for the purpose of paving streets, with the necessary excavations, cutting, filling, etc., and "incidental work," defendant city was properly enjoined from entering into a contract the provisions of which departed substantially from the purposes set forth in the resolution, in that they included reduction in the street widths and the construction of new parking, curbing and storm sewers, each of which constitutes a distinct city improvement under this section, and none of which was therefore subject to inclusion under the term "incidental work." Evans et al. v. City of Helena et al., 60 Mont. 577, 199 Pac. 445.

In its resolution of intention to create a special improvement district, the city council must describe the character and nature of the contemplated improvements with sufficient particularity to advise the taxpayer affected, and the improvements to be made must correspond substantially with those set forth in the resolution and no material change or departure therefrom can be made. Evans et al. v. City of Helena et al., 60 Mont. 577, 199 Pac. 445.

A resolution of intention to create a special improvement district the title of which stated that it was a "resolution of intention," etc., the body of which substantially contained the recitals required by statute and advised the taxpayers of the time and place where their objections to its creation would be heard, was sufficient as against the objection that in it the city council had not declared its intention to create it. Aiken et al. v. City of Glendive, 60 Mont. 1, 197 Pac. 1003.

Cited in Almas v. City of Havre, 70 Mont. 33, 35, 223 Pac. 896.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 233.

5228. Charges of cost of improvement upon extended district not fronting on street improved. Whenever the contemplated work or improvement, in the opinion of the city council, is of more than local or ordinary public benefit, or whenever, according to estimates furnished by the city engineer, the total estimated costs and expenses thereof would exceed one-half the total assessed value of the lots and lands assessed, if assessed upon the lots or lands fronting upon said proposed work or improvement, according to the valuation fixed by the last assessment-roll whereon it was assessed for taxes for municipal purposes, the city council may make the expense of such work or improvement chargeable upon an extended district, and which may include other lots not fronting on the improvement, and which the said city council shall, in its resolution of intention, declare to be the district benefited by said work or improvements, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof; provided such extended district shall not include any property situate more than one thousand (1,000) feet from the contemplated work or proposed improvement.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 135, L. 1923.

In an action to recover improvement taxes paid under protest, this section not so providing, a resolution of intention to create an extended improvement district including lots not fronting on the improvement, for the purpose of installing water-mains and fire protection apparatus, need not recite that the contemplated work was of more than local or ordinary public benefit, the adoption of the resolution being a sufficient finding that in the opinion of the city council the proposed improvement was of that character. Almas v. City of Havre, 70 Mont. 33, 223 Pac. 896.

5229. Protests against proposed work. At any time within fifteen days after the date of the first publication of the notice of the passage of the resolution of intention, any owner of property liable to be assessed for said work may make written protest against the proposed work, or against the extent or creation of the district to be assessed, or both. Such protest must be in writing, and be delivered to the said clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its receipt by him. At the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the time within which said protest may be so made, the city council shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests so made, and its decision shall be final and conclusive; provided, however, that when the protest is against the proposed work, and the cost thereof is to be assessed upon the property fronting thereon, and the city council finds that such protest is made by the owners of forty per cent of the property fronting on the proposed work, or when the protest is against the proposed work, and the cost thereof is to be assessed upon the property within an extended district, and the city council finds that such protest is made by the owners of more than forty per cent of the area of the property to be assessed for said improvements, no further proceedings shall be taken for a period of six months from the date when said protest was received by the said clerk of the city council; except in case the improvements are the construction of sanitary sewers, when the said protest may be overruled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the city council; unless such protest is made by the owners of more than sixty per cent of the property affected as herein provided, in which event the protest must be sustained as to the construction of such sanitary sewers.

In determining whether or not sufficient protests have been filed on a proposed district to prevent further proceedings therein, property owned by a county, city, or town shall be considered the same as other property in the district. The city council may adjourn said hearing from time to time.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 135, L. 1923.

In determining whether forty per cent of the owners of property affected by a proposed special improvement have filed protests against it, the city or town council is authorized by this section, as amended by chapter 135, L. 1923, to take into consideration property owned by it and included in the district, such property being subject to assessment therefor the same as privately owned property. Ricker et al. v. City of Helena et al., 68 Mont. 350, 218 Pac. 1049.

5238. Methods for payment of improvements. To defray the cost of the making of any of the improvements provided for in this act, the city council shall adopt one of the two following methods of assessment:

(a) The city council shall assess the entire cost of such improvements against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within such district to be assessed for that part of the whole cost which its area bears to the area of the entire district, exclusive of streets, avenues, alleys, and public places; provided, however, that the city council, in its discretion, shall have the power to pay the whole or any part of the cost of any street, avenue, or alley intersections out of any funds in its hands, available for that purpose, or to include the whole or any part of such costs within the amount of the assessment to be paid by the property in the district. In order to apportion the cost of any of the improvements herein provided for between the corner lot and the inside lots of any block, the council may, in the resolution creating any improvement district, provide that whenever any of the improvements herein provided for shall be along any side street, or bordering or abutting upon the side of any corner lot of any block, that the amount of the assessment against the property in such district, to defray the cost of such improvements, shall be so assessed that each square foot of the land, embraced within any such corner lot, shall bear double the amount of the cost of such improvement, that a square foot of any inside lot shall bear.

(b) The city council shall assess the cost of such improvements against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within such district, bordering or abutting upon street or streets whereon or wherein the improvement has been made, in proportion to the lineal feet abutting or bordering the same; provided, however, that this method of assessment shall not apply to assessments in improvement districts created under the provisions of section 5228 of this code; and provided, further, that the city council, in its discretion, shall have the power to pay the whole or any part of the cost of any street, avenue, or alley intersections out of any funds in its hands, available for that purpose, or to include the whole or any part of such costs within the amount of the assessment to be paid by the property in the district.

Whenever any portion of the surface of a paved street is occupied or used for railway or street railway purposes, it shall be and continue to be the duty of the owner or operator of such railway or street railway to fully repair any injury or damage to such pavement caused by such railway or street railway either in the operation of its cars or in the laying or repair of its tracks, and in case of a failure or refusal of such owner or operator so to repair such pavement within a reasonable time after notice by the city council, the city council is authorized and empowered to cause such repairs to be made and to assess the cost thereof to such owner or operator and to enforce collection thereof as in the case of taxes.

Whenever any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the United States, or mandatory of the government, shall front upon the proposed work or improvement, or be included within the district declared by the city council in its resolution of intention to be the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, said council shall, in the resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall be omitted from the assessment thereafter to be made to cover the costs and expenses of said work or improvement, and the cost of said work or improvement in front of said lots, pieces or parcels of land shall be paid by the city from its general fund.

It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or land fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which shall have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading exclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in such grading, and proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the city engineer, which certificate the engineer shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever thereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and contracts must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners and his or their successors in interest shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said street for the grading thereof, to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading; and the city clerk shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and land owned respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street, and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street shall have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do any work (excepting grading) on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense, and the city council shall subsequently order any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering work to be done; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the city engineer at the time said order is passed.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 163, L. 1925.

5238.1. Inclusion unplatted lands in special improvement district.

That whenever any unplatted, undedicated or unsurveyed lot, piece or parcel of land that separates one platted part of the city from another platted part of said city, lying wholly within the boundaries of any city or town, except land owned by the United States, shall abut or border upon any special improvement district, or be included within the boundaries of any special improvement district of such city or town, the council of such city or town may cause the same to be included within and made a part of such special improvement district, in the same manner as other property within such special improvement district and may assess the same for its proportionate share of the cost of making or maintaining such improvements in the same manner as other property within such special improvement district.

5239. Sewer systems.

A "trunk" sewer, i. e., one which receives the discharge from district sewers, is a public sewer within the meaning of this section. Rush v. Grandy et al., 66 Mont. 222, 213 Pac. 242.

The cost of constructing a public sewer, as distinguished from a district sewer, must be provided for, under this section either from the general or sewer fund or by the sale of bonds, and may not be assessed on the basis of area under the special improvement district plan provided by section 5238. Rush v. Grandy et al., 66 Mont. 222, 213 Pac. 242.

5240. Assessment to pay cost of improvements.

Throughout the special improvement district statute, exactions for special improvements are referred to as taxes (sections 5240, 5244, 5245, 5247, 5248, 5251, 5253, 5266, 5267, 5276), thus indicating a legislative intent to include under the term "taxes" special improvement taxes as well as general and ad valorem taxes. Thomas v. City of Missoula et al., 70 Mont. 478, 226 Pac. 213.

5249. Form of bonds and warrants.

Under the rule that the law which subsists at the time a contract is entered into forms a part of the contract and measures the extent of the obligation incurred, held that where a city incurred no primary liability for the payment of special improvements at the time they were made and bonds issued therefor (in 1907) under the then special improvement statute by which the bondholder was required to look to the assessments made for their payment, its liability in that respect was unaffected by any change made in the law by the enactment of chapter 89, L. 1913, even though the bonds did not mature until 1920. Gagnon v. City of Butte, 75 Mont. 279, 243 Pac. 1085.

A holder of bonds issued for a special street improvement in 1910 under sections 3367-3429, Revised Codes of 1907, providing inter alia that the holder or owner of bonds issued under the act should not have any claim against the city except from the special assessments made for the improvement, the bonds themselves providing that they were payable out of the particular improvement district fund, and not otherwise, cannot hold the city liable for their payment for the failure of its treasurer to make collections from delinquent property owners. Gagnon v. City of Butte, 75 Mont. 279, 243 Pac. 1085.

Cited as section 25, L. 1915, page 340, in Evans et al. v. City of Helena et al., 60 Mont. 577, 592, 199 Pac. 445.

5250. Payment under contracts. The city or town council may provide for making payments for improvements in any special improvement district in one of the two following methods:

1. The council may provide in the contract for the making of the improvements that such contract shall be payable in bonds or warrants issued under the provisions hereof, and that such bonds or warrants shall be delivered to the contractor, or contractors, either in installments as the work progresses, or upon the entire completion thereof; provided, however, that no bonds or warrants must be delivered to the contractor or contractors in excess of the amount of work actually done at the time of delivery, nor shall the total amount issued be in excess of the total cost and expense of the improvements, and no bond or warrant shall be delivered or received in payment of a less sum than its face value.

2. The city or town council may sell bonds or warrants issued under the provisions hereof, in an amount sufficient to pay that part of the total cost and expense of making the improvement which is to be assessed against the property within the district, to the highest and best bidder therefor for cash, and may use the proceeds of such sale in making payment to the contractor, or contractors, and such payment may be made either, from time to time, on estimates made by the engineer in charge of such improvements for the city or town, or upon the entire completion of the improvements and the acceptance thereof by the city or town council.

When it becomes necessary to pay for private property taken for the opening, widening or extending of any street, avenue, or alley, or to pay any amount awarded or recovered on account of damages to any property caused by the making of any improvements, in money in cases where the person whose property is so taken or damaged refuses to receive his pay in warrants or bonds, then the council shall have the power, under such regulations as it may prescribe, to sell such bonds or warrants, for not less than par, and devote the moneys derived therefrom to the payment of the damages assessed or agreed upon for such property or the damages thereto.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 46, L. 1927.

Under this section, before amendment, the city council had no power to issue bonds or warrants at a discount in payment of special improvement work; therefore a contract let to a person who added to his bid ten per cent of the actual cost, on the theory that the warrants he would receive were worth only ninety cents on the dollar, was invalid as an attempt to do indirectly what the council was prohibited from doing directly. Evans et al. v. City of Helena et al., 60 Mont. 577, 199 Pac. 445.

Agreement to pay in bonds as importing face or market value, note, 10 A. L. R. 835.

5251. Certification and collection of special assessments in cities and towns. It shall be the duty of the city or town treasurer of every city or town whose taxes for general, municipal and administrative purposes are certified to and collected by the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions of section 5216 of this code, immediately after the second Monday of August of each year, and at the same time the copy of resolution determining the annual levy for general taxes is certified by the city or town clerk to the county clerk as required by said section 5216, to certify to the county clerk of the county in which such city or town is situated all special assessments and taxes levied and assessed in accordance with any of the provisions of this act, and the county treasurer must collect the same in the same manner and at the same time as said taxes for general, municipal and administrative purposes are collected by him.

In every city or town which shall provide by ordinance for the collection of its taxes for general, municipal and administrative purposes by its city or town treasurer, such city or town treasurer shall collect all special assessments and taxes levied and assessed in accordance with any of the provisions of this act, in the same manner and at the same time as said taxes for general, municipal and administrative purposes are collected by him; and all of the provisions of section 5215 of this code shall apply to the collection of such special taxes and assessments in the same manner as such provisions apply to the collection of other city or town taxes. When one payment becomes delinquent all payments shall, at the option of the city or town council, by appropriate resolutions duly adopted become delinquent, and the whole property shall be sold the same as other property is sold for taxes.

Cited in Gagnon v. City of Butte, 75 Mont. 279, 287, 243 Pac. 1085.

5257. Posting and publication of notices by clerk—Effect of errors in proceedings.

Under this section any error in or departure from the mode of publication of any notice incident to the creation of a special improvement district is insufficient to invalidate the proceedings, when it appears that the notice was actually published for the time required by the act. Aiken et al. v. City of Glendive et al., 60 Mont. 1, 197 Pac. 1003.

5259. Special improvement districts for lighting streets. The city or town council of any city or town is authorized to create special improvement districts embracing any street or streets or public highway therein, or portions thereof, and property adjacent thereto, or property which may be declared by said council to be benefited by the improvement to be made, for the purpose of lighting such street or streets or public highway, and to require not more than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) and no less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the cost of installing and maintaining such lighting system to be paid by the owners of the property embraced within the boundaries of such districts, and to assess and collect such portion of such cost by special assessment against said property.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5260. Proportion to be borne by abutting property. The portion of the entire cost of erecting and maintaining the posts, wires, pipes, conduits, lamps and other suitable or necessary appliances for the purpose of lighting said streets or public highways and of the annual cost of supplying electrical current for and maintaining the lights thereon in such districts, not less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) nor more than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) as shall be determined by the city or town council, shall be borne by the property embraced within said district, and the city or town council for the purpose of making the assessment shall adopt one of the two (2) following methods:

(a) The city council shall assess the entire cost of such improvement against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within such district to be assessed for that part of the whole cost which its area bears to the area of the entire district, exclusive of streets, avenues, alleys and public places; provided, however, that the city council, in its discretion, shall have the power to pay the whole or any part of the cost of any street, avenue or alley intersection out of any funds in its hands, available for that purpose, or to include the whole or any part of such costs within the amount of the assessment to be paid by the property in the district. In order to apportion the cost of any of the improvements herein provided for between the corner lot and the inside lots of any block, the council may, in the resolution creating any district, provide that whenever any of the improvements herein provided for shall be along any side street, or bordering or abutting upon the side of any corner lot of any block, that the amount of the assessment against the property in such district, to defray the cost of such improvements, shall be so assessed that each square foot of the land, embraced within any such corner lot, shall bear double the amount of the cost of such improvement that a square foot of any inside lot shall bear.

(b) The city council shall assess the cost of such improvements against the entire district, each lot or parcel of land within such district bordering or abutting upon the street or streets whereon or wherein the improvement has been made, in proportion to the lineal feet abutting or bordering the same; provided, however, that the city council, in its discretion, shall have the power to pay the whole or any part of the cost of any street, avenue or alley intersection, out of any funds in its hands, available for that purpose, or to include the whole or any part of such costs within the amount of the assessment to be paid by the property in the districts.

5261. Resolution of intention—Procedure. Before creating any special improvement lighting district in any such city or town, for the purpose of lighting any street or streets or public highway, or section thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this act, the city council shall pass a resolution of intention so to do, which resolution shall designate the number of such district, describe the boundaries thereof, and state therein the general character of the improvement or improvements to be made and an approximate estimate of the cost thereof; also an approximate estimate of the cost of maintaining such lights and supplying electrical current therefor for the first (1st) year, and the proportion of such cost to be assessed against the property embraced within the district.

Upon having passed such resolution, the council must give notice of the passage of such resolution of intention, which notice of the passage of such resolution must be published for five (5) days in a daily newspaper or in some one issue of a weekly newspaper in the city or town, or in case no newspaper be published in such city or town, then by posting for five (5) days in three (3) public places in the city or town, and a copy of such notice shall be mailed to every person, firm or corporation having property within the proposed district, at his last known address, upon the same day such notice is first published or posted. Such notice must describe the general character of the improvement so proposed to be made and state the estimated cost thereof; also the estimated cost of maintaining the lights and supplying the electrical current therefor within such district for the first (1st) year, and designate the time when and the place where the council will hear and pass upon all protests that may be made against the making of such improvement or the creation of such district, and such notice shall refer to the resolution on file in the office of the city clerk for a description of the boundaries.

At any time within fifteen (15) days after the date of the first publication of the notice of passage of the resolution of intention, any owner of property liable to be assessed for said work may make written protest against the proposed work or against the extent or creation of the district to be assessed or both. Such notice must be in writing and be delivered to the said clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its receipt by him.

At the next regular meeting of the city council, after the expiration of the time within which said protests may be so made, the city council shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests so made, and its decision shall be final and conclusive; provided, however, that when the protest is against the proposed work and the cost thereof is to be assessed upon property embraced within the boundaries of the district, and if the city council finds that such protest is made by the owners of a majority of the property embraced within the district to be assessed for the proposed work, no further proceedings shall be taken for a period of six (6) months from the date when said protest was received by the said city clerk of said city council.

In determining whether or not sufficient protest has been filed in a proposed district to prevent further proceedings therein, property owned by a county, city or town shall be considered the same as other property in the district. The city council may adjourn said hearing from time to time.

When no protests have been delivered to the clerk of the city council within fifteen (15) days after the date of the first publication of the notice of the passage of the resolution of intention, or when a protest shall have been found by the city council to be insufficient or shall have been overruled, or when a protest against the extent of the proposed district shall have been heard and denied, immediately thereupon the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the proposed improvements; but before ordering any of said proposed improvements, the city council shall pass a resolution creating the special improvement lighting district in accordance with the resolution of intention theretofore introduced and passed by the city council.

The city or town council may cause the posts, wires, pipes, conduits, lamps or other suitable and necessary appliances, for the purpose of lighting said streets, to be procured and erected by contract or by the street commissioner, or by any other official of the city or town, in such way and manner as the council shall provide, and after such lighting system has been installed, may, by contract, in such way and manner as the council shall elect, cause the lights to be maintained thereon and electrical current furnished therefor; provided that the posts in any such district shall be of uniform size and character and shall be distributed uniformly upon the street or streets or public highways, or section thereof, to be lighted in any such district.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5265. Resolution assessing cost—Notice—Hearing. It shall be the duty of the city or town council to ascertain the cost of installing such lighting system, and on or before the first Monday in October pass and finally adopt a resolution levying and assessing all of the property embraced within said district with not less than one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) nor more than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the entire cost of installing the same; each lot or parcel of land in said district to be assessed in accordance with the method adopted by the city council as provided in section 5260 hereof. Any such resolution shall contain a list in which shall be described each lot or parcel of land, and either the total number of square feet of property contained therein or the total number of linear feet abutting the improvement as may be required to determine the total assessment in the district, and the amount levied against each lot or parcel of land set opposite. Such resolution, signed by the mayor and city clerk, shall be kept on file in the office of the city clerk, and a notice signed by the city clerk, stating that the resolution levying the assessment to defray the portion of the cost of installing and maintaining said lights and supplying electrical current therefor for the first (1st) year, as determined by the city or town council, is on file in his office subject to inspection for a period of five (5) days, shall be published at least once in a newspaper published in the city. Such notice shall state the time and place at which objections to the final adoption of such resolution shall be heard by the city or town council, and the time for such hearing shall not be less than five (5) days after the publication of such notice. At the time so fixed the council shall meet and hear all such objections and for the purpose may adjourn from day to day, and may modify such resolution in whole or in part. A copy of such resolution as finally adopted, certified by the city clerk, must be delivered within two (2) days after its passage to the city treasurer. All moneys derived from the collection of such assessments shall constitute a fund to be known as "special improvement lighting district No. fund."

Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5266. Contract for maintenance—Assessments. The lights in each district shall be maintained by contract for such period of time and in such way or manner as the city or town council shall elect; provided, however, that the city or town council shall not let a contract for a period to exceed three (3) years. It shall be the duty of the city or town council to estimate, as nearly as practicable, the cost of maintaining such lights and furnishing electrical current therefor each year, and the portion thereof to be assessed against the property embraced within the district, and before the first Monday in October pass and finally adopt a resolution levying and assessing said property within said district with an amount equal to the proportion of the cost of such maintenance and electrical current so determined to be specially assessed against said property. Said resolution levying and assessing said portion of the cost of maintenance, and for furnishing electrical current therefor, shall be prepared and certified to in the same manner as the resolution provided for in the preceding section, and the same notice and hearing shall be given thereon, and shall be adopted and certified, and the assessment collected, in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as in the case of the resolution provided for in the preceding section. All moneys derived from the collection of the assessment provided for in such resolution shall be paid into a fund known as "special improvement lighting district No. maintenance fund" and the number of which shall correspond with the number of the lighting district, for the maintenance of and the supplying of electrical current for which the tax is levied, and such fund shall be used to defray the expense of maintaining and furnishing electrical current for the lights in said district, and for no other purpose. Provided, however, that the city or town council shall have the power not more than once in a year to change by resolution the boundaries and number of any maintenance district. Any special assessment levied and made for any purpose aforesaid, together with all costs and penalties, shall constitute a lien upon and against the property upon which assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the final passage and adoption of the resolution levying the same; which lien can only be extinguished by payment of such assessment, with all penalties, costs and interest.

Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5269. Petition for discontinuance district. If at any time after the creation of any special improvement lighting district a petition shall be presented to the city or town council, signed by the owners or agents of more than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the total amount of property embraced within the district, asking that the maintenance and operation of such special lighting system and the furnishing of electrical current therefor, in such district, be discontinued, the city or town council shall thereupon, by resolution, provide for discontinuing the maintenance and operation of the lighting system; provided, however, that if the city or town council shall have, prior to the presentation of such petition, entered into any contract for the maintenance and operation of such lighting system, such maintenance and operation shall not be discontinued until after the expiration of the contract.

Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5271. United States lands excepted. Whenever any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the United States, or mandatory of the government, shall be included within the boundaries of the proposed special improvement lighting district declared by the city or town council in its resolution of intention to be the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, said council shall, in the resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall be omitted from the assessment thereafter to be made to cover the costs and expenses of said work or improvement and the cost of said work or improvement which would have been assessed against said lots shall be paid by the city from its general fund.

Amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 143, L. 1927.

5272. Street sprinkling. Whenever the council of any city or town desires to sprinkle all or any part of the streets or avenues of its city or town with water, oil, salt, or any other dust pallative, as provided in this chapter, it shall provide, by ordinance, a method of doing said work, and of paying for the same under the following restrictions and regulations.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 97, L. 1927.

Sections 5272-5275 were cited in Griffith v. City of Butte et al., 72 Mont. 552, 562, 234 Pac. 829.

5276. Same—Method of assessment. The assessments for the cost and expense of sprinkling streets shall be made against all of the property embraced within each sprinkling district by one of the three following methods:

1. Frontage basis. Each lot or parcel of land within such district, abutting upon some street upon which sprinkling is done, shall be assessed for that part of the whole cost which its street frontage bears to the street frontage of the entire district.

2. Area basis. Each lot or parcel of land within such district shall be assessed for that part of the whole cost which its area bears to the area of the entire district, exclusive of streets, avenues, alleys and public places.

3. Combination of frontage and area basis. A portion of the total cost, to be assessed in each sprinkling district, may be assessed against the several lots or parcels of land within the district by Method No. 1 on a frontage basis, and the remainder of such cost by Method No. 2 on an area basis. The proportion to be assessed in each district by each such method shall be determined and fixed by the city or town council.

MUNICIPAL BONDS—FUNDING DEBT.

5283. Tax for interest and sinking fund—Place of payment.

An irregularity of the city council in making a levy of a special tax by resolution instead of by ordinance as required by this section did not render the tax invalid, since the irregularity did not injure any taxpayer. First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 210 Pac. 900.

While under this section it is made the duty of the city council to levy a tax each year for paying interest on its bonded indebtedness and creating a sinking fund, its power in that respect, in the absence of statutory provision, would be implied from the power given to create the indebtedness. First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 210 Pac. 900.

5285. Funded debt. The council of any city or town having a floating indebtedness of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or more, may fund the indebtedness and issue bonds with coupons attached thereto, as herein-after provided in this chapter.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

5373. Laws governing city—Ordinances—Territorial limits and property.

This and the following section were cited as sections 8 and 9, chapter 57, L. 1911, in State v. Dryburgh, 62 Mont. 36, 45, 203 Pac. 508.

Cited as section 19, chapter 57, L. 1911, in State v. Dryburgh, 62 Mont. 36, 45, 203 Pac. 508.

5390. Civil service.

The chief of the fire department of a city operating under the commission form of government was removed by the council, his name, however, being restored to the roll of members, thus entitling him to the safeguards afforded him as such member under the civil service rules of the Firemen's Act. He later was suspended under this section, but a hearing on his appeal was not accorded him. Held, that failure to hear his appeal rendered the order of suspension of no effect, automatically reinstated him, and entitled him to compensation during the period of his suspension. State v. Dryburgh, 62 Mont. 36, 203 Pac. 508.

Where an acting chief of police merely recommended to the council that a police officer be removed from office, but did not actually suspend or discharge him in conformity with this section, there was no order from which he could appeal, and his attempted appeal was ineffectual for any purpose. State ex rel. Lease v. Wilkinson et al., 59 Mont. 327, 196 Pac. 878.

Where a city council itself preferred charges against a police officer, conducted a trial ex parte, determined the guilt of the accused, discharged him from office, and then for the first time gave him notice that charges had been preferred and that he was dismissed, in disregard of the course prescribed by this section, its action was illegal and the officer was entitled to reinstatement. State ex rel. Lease v. Wilkinson et al., 59 Mont. 327, 196 Pac. 878.

A police officer may be suspended or discharged for neglect of duty or disobedience of orders by the chief of police under this and following sections, subject to review by the superintendent of the police department, from whose order of approval the accused may appeal to the city council; or by the council under sections 5099, 5100, upon charges filed with it, a copy of which must be furnished to him, after a trial had on at least two days' notice. State ex rel. Lease v. Wilkinson et al., 59 Mont. 327, 196 Pac. 878.

CHAPTER 64.

COMMISSION-MANAGER PLAN OF GOVERNMENT.

5404. Mayor to transmit certificate. If such proposition is adopted, the mayor shall transmit to the governor, to the secretary of state and to the county clerk and recorder, each a certificate stating that such proposition was adopted.

If such proposition shall not be adopted at such special election, such proposition shall not again be submitted to the electors of such municipality within a period of two years from the date of the last submission.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5405. Special election—Proclamation and calling. If the majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of such proposition, the city or town council must hold a meeting within one week thereafter and at such meeting order a special election to be held for the purpose of electing the number of commissioners to which such municipality shall be entitled, which order shall specify the time of holding such election, which must be within ninety days after the making of such order, and the mayor shall thereupon issue a proclamation setting forth the purpose for which such special election is held and the day of holding the same, which proclamation shall be published for ten successive days in each daily newspaper published in such municipality if there be such, otherwise for two successive weeks in each weekly newspaper published therein, and a copy thereof shall also be posted at each voting place within said municipality and also in five of the most public places in said municipality.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5409. Powers of municipalities under commission-manager plan.

For discussion of authority of cities to impose license tax under the police power, reasonableness of license schedules, etc., see City of Bozeman v. Nelson, 73 Mont. 147, 237 Pac. 528.

5411. Terms of office of commissioners—Elections, when held. The commissioners elected at the first election shall qualify and their terms of office shall begin on the first Monday after their election, and the terms of office of the mayor and councilmen or aldermen in such city or town in office at the beginning of the term of office of the commissioners first elected under the provisions of this act shall cease and terminate, and the terms of office of all of their appointed officers, and of all of the employees of such city or town, shall cease and terminate as soon as the commissioners shall by resolution declare.

All commissioners shall serve for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and have qualified; except that at the first election the two candidates having the highest number of votes shall hold office for a period of four years, less the time elapsed since the thirty-first day of December of the odd-numbered year last preceding. The terms of office of all other candidates shall expire on the thirty-first day of December in any odd-numbered year following the special election provided for in this act, at which the first commissioners are elected.

If any city or town, having adopted the plan of government provided for by this act in the year 1921, shall have held no election to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of the commissioner whose term of office expired on the first day of January, 1922, then at the election held in such city or town in November, 1923, there shall be elected three commissioners. The term of office of the commissioner elected by the smallest number of votes at such election shall expire on the thirty-first day of December, 1925, and the terms of the other two shall expire on the thirty-first day of December, 1927.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5413. Qualifications of commissioners—Forfeiture of office—Limitations. Members of the commission shall be residents of the city or town and have the qualifications of electors, and own real estate situated therein to the assessed value of not less than one thousand dollars. Commissioners and other officers and employees shall not hold any other public office or employment, except in the state militia, as school trustees, or notary publics [notaries public], and shall not be interested in the profits or emoluments of any contract, job, work, or service for the municipality. Any commissioner who shall cease to possess any of the qualifications herein required, shall forthwith forfeit his office, and any such contract in which any member is or may be interested, may be declared void by the commission.

No commissioner or other officer or employee of said city or town shall accept any frank, free ticket, pass or service directly or indirectly, from any person, firm or corporation upon terms more favorable than are granted to the public generally. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall also be sufficient cause for the summary removal or discharge of the offender. Such provisions for free service shall not apply to policemen or firemen in uniform or wearing their official badges, where the same is provided by ordinance, nor to any commissioner, nor to the city manager, nor to the city attorney, upon official business, nor to any other employee or official of said city on official business who exhibits written authority signed by the city manager.

Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5415. Ballots—Form—Voting—Qualifications voters—Challenges—Returns. All ballots used in all elections held under authority of this act shall be without party mark or designation. The ballots shall be printed on plain, substantial white paper.

Except that the crosses here shown shall be omitted, and that in place of the names of persons here shown, there shall appear the names of the persons who are candidates for nomination, the primary ballots shall be substantially as hereinafter designated. Primary, regular and special election ballots provided under authority of this act for the nomination or election of commisisoners shall not bear the name of any person or persons or any issue other than those of candidates for the nomination or election to the office of commissioner.

Clerk of the Commission.

Having caused said ballots to be printed, the clerk of the commis- sion shall cause to be delivered at each polling place a number of said ballots, the per cent in excess of the number of such voters registered in such polling place at the last general municipal election. The persons who are qualified to vote at the general election, shall be qualified to vote at such primary election, and any person offering to vote, may be orally challenged by any elector of the municipality upon any or all grounds set forth and specified in section 706 of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, and the provisions of sections 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, and 714 of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1921, shall apply at all chal- lenges made at such election. Judges of election shall immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of such votes cast in such precinct for each of the candidates, and make return thereof to the clerk of the commission upon proper blanks to be furnished by the clerk of the commission within twelve hours of the closing of the polls. Not later than the first legal day after he shall have received such returns, the clerk of the commission shall canvass said returns so received from all the polling precincts and shall make and publish in all the newspapers in said municipality, at least once, the result thereof. Said canvass by the clerk of the commission shall be made publicly.

The candidates for nomination to the office of commissioner who shall have received the greatest vote in such primary election shall be placed on the ballot at the next regular municipal election, in number not to exceed double the number of vacancies in the commission to be filled.

Except as otherwise in this act provided all electors of municipalities under this act, who, by ordinances governing cities and towns incorporated under the general municipal incorporation law, or by charter, would be entitled to vote for the election of officers at any general municipal election in such cities or towns, shall be qualified to vote at all elections under this act; and the ballots to be used at such general municipal elections, shall be in the same general form as for such primary election so far as applicable, and in all elections in such municipalities, the election precincts, voting places, method of conducting the elections, canvassing of votes and announcing the results, shall be the same as by law provided for the election of officers in such cities or towns so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5418. Candidate's expense accounts—Penalties. Every candidate for commissioner shall, within thirty (30) days after the election, file with the clerk of the commission his sworn statement of all his election and campaign expenses, and by whom such funds were contributed.

Any violation of the provisions of this section, shall be a misdemeanor and if committed by a successful candidate, give ground for the removal from office.

Amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5442. Preliminary authority commissioners—Qualifications voters. In case a petition be filed requiring that a measure passed by the commission providing for an expenditure of money, a bond issue, or a public improvement be submitted to a vote of the electors, all steps preliminary to such expenditure, actual issuance of the bonds, or actual execution of the contract for such improvement, may be taken prior to the election; and at such election only resident taxpayers of such city or town whose names as such appear upon the assessment-roll and who are also qualified electors of said city or town, shall be entitled to vote at such election. And at any and all elections in such city or town at which questions relating to bond issues, tax levies, or the expenditure of money shall be submitted, no person shall be entitled to vote unless qualified as in this section provided.

Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5443. Commissioner's oath and bond—Premium. Every person who has been declared elected commissioner, shall within ten (10) days thereafter take and file with the clerk of the commission his oath of office in the form and manner provided by law, and shall execute and give sufficient bond to the municipal corporation in such sum as the judge of the district court of the county in which such municipality is situated, not, however, exceeding $5,000 for commissioners in cities of the first class and $3,000 for commissioners in all other cities and towns, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be filed with the clerk and recorder of the county in which such municipality is situated. The premium on such bond as may be required, shall be paid by the municipality.

Amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5444. Mayor—Duties—Vacancies—Procedure on tie vote. The mayor shall be that member of the commission, who, at the regular municipal election at which the commissioners were elected, received the highest number of votes. In case two candidates receive the same number of votes, one of them shall be chosen mayor by the remaining members of the commission. In event of a vacancy in the office of the mayor, by the expiration of his term of office, the holdover commissioner having received the highest number of votes shall be the mayor. In the event there is a vacancy in the office of the mayor for any other cause, the remaining members of the commission shall choose his successor for the unexpired term from their own number by lot. The mayor shall be the presiding officer, except that in his absence, a president pro tempore may be chosen. The mayor shall exercise such powers conferred, and perform all duties imposed upon him by this act, the ordinances of the municipality and the laws of the state, except that he shall have no power to veto any measure. He shall be recognized as the official head of the municipality by the courts for the purpose of serving civil processes, by the governor for the purposes of the military law, and for all ceremonial purposes.

Amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5448. Meetings of commissioners—Absences. At ten o'clock A. M. on the first Monday after the first day of January, following a regular municipal election, the commission shall meet at the usual place for holding the meetings of the legislative body of the municipality, at which time the newly elected commissioners shall assume the duties of their office. Thereafter, the commissioners shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution, except that in municipalities having less than five thousand inhabitants, they shall meet regularly at least once and not more than four times per month, and in municipalities having more than five thousand inhabitants, they shall meet not less than once every two weeks. Absence from five (5) consecutive regular meetings shall operate to vacate the seat of a member, unless such absence be authorized by the commission.

The commissioner acting as mayor, any two members of the commission or the city manager, may call special meetings of the commission upon at least twelve (12) hours' written notice to each member of the commission, served personally on each member or left at his usual place of residence. All meetings of the commission shall be public and any citizen shall have access to the minutes and records thereof at all reasonable times. The commission shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall keep a journal of its proceedings.

Amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5449. Ordinance and resolutions—Form and passage. Each proposed ordinance or resolution shall be introduced in written or printed form, and shall not contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly stated in the title; but general appropriation ordinances may contain the various subjects and accounts for which moneys are to be appropriated. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the commission shall be, "Be it ordained by the commission of the (city or town) of (name of city or town)." The enacting clause of all ordinances submitted by the initiative shall be, "Be it ordained by the people of the (city or town) of (name of city or town)."

No ordinance, unless it be declared an emergency, shall be passed on the day on which it shall have been introduced, unless so ordered by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the commission in cities with five commissioners and two-thirds of the members of the commission in all other cities and towns. Every ordinance or resolution passed by the commission shall be signed by the mayor or two members, and filed with the clerk within two days, and by him recorded.

No ordinance or resolution or section thereof shall be revised or amended, unless the new ordinance or resolution contains the entire ordinance or resolution or section revised or amended.

Amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5465. Department of public safety. Subject to the supervision and control of the city manager in all matters, the director of public safety shall be the executive head of the division of police and fire. He shall also be the chief administrative authority in all matters affecting the inspection and regulation of the erection, maintenance, repair and occupancy of buildings as may be ordained by the commission or established by the general law of the state of Montana. He shall also be charged with the enforcement of all laws and ordinances relating to weights and measures.

The chief of police shall have exclusive control of the stationing and transfer of all patrolmen and other officers and employees constituting the police force, under such rules and regulations as the director of public safety may prescribe. The provisions of sections 5095 to 5108, both inclusive, Revised Codes of Montana 1921, and of section 5007, Revised Codes of Montana 1921, shall not be applicable to cities and towns operating under the plan of government provided for in this act. The police force shall be composed of a chief of police and such officers, patrolmen and other employees as the city manager may from time to time determine. In case of riot, emergency, at time of elections or similar occasions, the director of public safety may appoint additional patrolmen and officers for temporary service who need not be in the classified service.

No person shall act as special policeman, special detective or other special police officer for any purpose whatsoever, except upon the written authority of the director of public safety. Such authority shall be ex-exercised only under the direction and control of the chief of police and for a specified time.

The fire chief shall have exclusive control of the stationing and transfer of all firemen and other officers and employees constituting the fire force under such rules and regulations as the director of public safety may prescribe. The fire force shall be composed of a chief and such other officers, firemen and employees as the city manager may from time to time determine. In case of riot, conflagration or emergency, the director of public safety may appoint additional firemen and other officers for temporary service who need not be in the classified service.

The chief of police and fire chief shall have the right to suspend any of the officers and employees in the police and fire department, who may be under their management and control, for incompetency, neglect of duty, immorality, drunkenness, failure to obey orders given by proper authority or for any other just and reasonable cause. When such suspension is made, the chief of police or fire chief shall forthwith report such suspension in writing to the director of the department of public safety, together with the facts and reasons for such suspension. Upon receipt of said notice the director of public safety shall fix a date and time for hearing such suspension, which shall be within thirty days from the receipt of such notice, and cause to be given to the person suspended and the officer suspending at least three days' notice thereof. Upon a hearing of said matter before the director of public safety, he shall be authorized to administer oaths, take testimony and to render a decision thereon either sustaining the order of suspension or overruling the same. An appeal may be taken within ten days from the date of judgment from said decision of the director of public safety to the city manager by the party suspended or the officer making the suspension. If no appeal is taken, the judgment rendered by the director of public safety shall be final, except that the city manager shall in all cases have the authority to remove any employee or officer of the police or fire department. If an appeal is taken to the city manager, he shall fix a date and time for hearing the same within thirty days of the receipt of such notice of appeal and give at least three days' notice thereof to the parties, and he shall have the right to swear witnesses, take testimony and render judgment therein and his judgment shall be final.

The city manager shall have the exclusive right to suspend or dismiss the chief of police and the fire chief for incompetence, neglect of duty, immorality, drunkenness, failure to obey orders given by proper authority, or for any other just and reasonable cause. If either of such chiefs be so suspended or dismissed, the city manager shall forthwith certify the fact, together with the cause of suspension or dismissal to the commission, who, if demand therefor be made by the person so suspended or dismissed within five (5) days from the date of receipt of such notice, shall proceed to hear such charges and render judgment thereon, which judgment shall be final.

The commission may provide by general ordinance for the relief out of the police or fire funds of members of the division of police and fire temporarily or permanently disabled in the discharge of their duty. Nothing herein shall impair, restrict or repeal any provision of general law authorizing the levying of taxes to provide for firemen, police and sanitary police pension funds, and to create and perpetuate boards of trustees for the administration of such funds.

Amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 31, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 173, L. 1925.

5466. Duties of the department and director of finance. Department of finance. The duties of the director of finance shall include the keeping and supervision of all accounts and the custody of all public money of the municipality; the purchase, storage and distribution of supplies needed by the various departments; the making and collection of special assessments; the issuance of licenses; the collection of license fees and taxes and such other duties as the commission may, by ordinance, require.

He shall install and have supervision over the accounts of all the departments and officers of the municipality. Whenever practicable the books of financial accounts shall be kept in the office of the department of finance. He shall require daily departmental reports of money receipts and the disposition thereof; and shall require of each, in such form as may be prescribed, current financial and operating statements exhibiting each transaction and the cost thereof.

Upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of any officer, he shall examine the accounts of such officer and report his findings to the city manager.

Accounting procedure shall be devised and maintained for the municipality adequate to record in detail all transactions affecting the acquisition, custodianship and disposition of values, including cash receipts and disbursements; and the recorded facts shall be presented periodically to officials and to the public in such summaries and analytical schedules in detailed support thereof as may be necessary to show the full effect of such transactions for each fiscal year upon the finances of the municipality and in relation to each department of the municipal government, including distinct summaries and schedules for each utility publicly owned and operated.

He shall have charge of the preparation and certification of all special assessments for public improvements; the mailing of notices of such assessments to property owners and all other duties connected therewith; the collection of such assessments as are payable directly to the municipality and the preparation and certification of all unpaid assessments to the county treasurer for collection. He shall issue all licenses and collect all fees therefor and shall pay the same into the treasury in the manner provided by ordinance.

No warrant for the payment of any claims shall be issued unless such claim shall be evidenced by a voucher approved by the head of the department for which the indebtedness was incurred and countersigned by the city manager. Before issuing such voucher, the supplies and material delivered, or work done, shall be duly inspected and certified to by the head of the proper department or office or by a person designated by him. The head of each department or office shall require proper time reports from all service rendered to be certified by those having cognizance thereof, to serve as a basis for the preparation of pay-roll vouchers. Each director of a department and his surety shall be liable to the municipality for all loss or damage sustained by the municipality, by reason of the negligent or corrupt approval of any claim against the municipality in his department. Prior to the drawing of a warrant for the payment of any voucher or claim, the director of finance may at his discretion cause an investigation or inspection to be made by a person designated by him, and shall have power to summon persons and examine them under oath or affirmation, which oath or affirmation he may administer.

The director of finance shall be the custodian of all public money of the municipality and all other public money coming into his hands. He shall keep and preserve such money in the place or places determined by ordinance or by the provisions of any law applicable thereto. Except as otherwise provided in this act he shall collect, receive and disburse all public money of the municipality upon warrant, and shall also receive and disburse all other public money coming into his hands in pursuance of such regulations as may be prescribed by the authorities having lawful control over such funds.

The director of finance or city manager shall, in manner provided by ordinance, purchase all supplies for the municipality, sell all real and personal property of the municipality not needed or unsuitable for public use or that may have been condemned as useless by the director of a department. He shall have charge of such storerooms and storehouses of the municipality as may be provided by ordinance, in which shall be stored all supplies and materials purchased by the municipality and not delivered to the various departments.

He shall inspect all supplies delivered to determine quality and quantity and conformance with specifications, and no voucher shall be honored unless the accompanying invoice shall be indorsed as approved.

He may require from the director of each department at such times as contracts for supplies are to be let, a requisition for the quantity and kind of supplies to be paid for from the appropriations of the department.

Upon certification that funds are available in the proper appropriations, such goods shall be purchased and shall be paid for from funds in the proper department for that purpose. However, this procedure shall not prejudice the director of finance or city manager from purchasing goods for cash to the credit of the stores account, to be furnished the several departments on requisition, goods so furnished to be paid for by the department furnished therewith by warrant made payable to the stores account.

He shall not furnish any supplies to or purchase any supplies for any department unless there be to the credit of such department an available appropriation balance in excess of all unpaid obligations sufficient to pay for such supplies.

Before making any purchase or sale, the director of finance or city manager shall give opportunity for competition, all proposals to be upon precise specifications, and under such rules and regulations as the commission shall establish. Each order of purchase or sale to be approved and countersigned by the city manager or his deputy.

In cases of emergency purchases may be made without competition, if a sufficient appropriation has theretofore been made against which purchases may lawfully be charged. In such cases, a copy of the order issued, shall be filed with the director of finance, together with a certificate by the head of the department, stating the facts of the emergency. A copy of this certificate shall be attached to and filed with the voucher covering payment for the supplies. The director of finance shall have such assistants and force of office employees as may be necessary to properly carry out his duties under the provisions of this act. If it is found desirable, he may divide his office into divisions presided over by the following officers: Accountant, treasurer and purchasing agent.

Amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5470. Police judge. The commission shall appoint a police judge who shall have the power and authority now conferred by existing laws and shall hold his office at the will of the commission.

Amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5471. Civil service board—Appointment and organization. The commission may appoint three electors of the municipality as a civil service board; one to serve for two years, and one for four years and one for six years, to take office on the first day of January after the municipality comes under the provisions of this act, or as soon thereafter as appointed and qualified. Thereafter members of the civil service board shall be appointed to serve for six years and until their successors have been appointed and have qualified. Members of the board shall not hold any other public office. The commission may remove any member of the board upon stating in writing the reasons for removal and allowing him an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. Any vacancy shall be filled by the commission for the unexpired term.

Immediately after appointment, the board shall organize by electing one of its members chairman. The board shall appoint a chief examiner who shall also act as secretary. The board may appoint such other subordinates as may by appropriation be provided for. It is intended hereby that the establishment of a civil service board shall be permissive and not mandatory. If appointed the board may be abolished at any time upon resolution to that effect by the commission and thereafter any civil service board appointed under the provisions of this act shall cease to exist, but so long as any such civil service board shall exist its operations and proceedings shall be controlled as in this act hereinafter provided.

5487. Plat of lots—Survey and filing. Any owner of the lots or grounds within the municipality who subdivides or lays them out for sale, must cause to be made an accurate survey and plat thereof, conforming in all things to the provisions of section 4980 to 4993, inclusive, of this code, and shall also file with the clerk of the commission a duly certified copy of such plat or plats.

Amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5502. Fiscal year—Submission of budget. The fiscal year of the municipality shall begin on the first day of January. On or before the fifteenth day of January of each year, the city manager shall submit to the commission an estimate of the expenditures and revenues of the municipal departments for the ensuing year. The estimate shall be compiled from detailed information obtained from the several departments on uniform blanks to be furnished by the city manager. The classification of the expenditures shall be as nearly uniform as possible for the main functional divisions of all departments and shall give in parallel columns the following information:

(a) A detailed estimate of the expenses of conducting each department as submitted by the department;

(b) Expenditures for corresponding items for the last two fiscal years;

(c) Expenditures for the corresponding items for the current fiscal year, including adjustments due to transfers between appropriations plus an estimate of expenditure necessary to complete the current fiscal year;

(d) Amount of supplies and materials on hand at the date of the preparation of the invoice;

(e) Increase or decrease of requests compared with the corresponding appropriations for the current year;

(f) Such other information as is required by the commission or that the city manager may deem advisable to submit;

(g) The recommendation of the city manager as to the amounts to be appropriated with reasons therefor in such detail as the commission may direct.

A sufficient number of copies of such estimate shall be prepared and submitted, that there may be copies on file in the office of the commission for inspection by the public.

Amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 31, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 173, L. 1925.

5503. Appropriation ordinance—Details concerning. Upon receipt of such estimate, the commission shall prepare an appropriation ordinance in such form as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution. Before finally acting upon such tentative appropriation, the commission shall fix a time and place for holding public hearings upon the tentative appropriation, and shall give public notice of such hearing. Following the public hearings and before its final passage, the appropriation ordinance shall be published with a parallel comparison with the recommendation of the city manager. The commission shall not pass the appropriation ordinance until ten days after its publication, nor before the first Monday in February.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 173, L. 1925.

5507. Determination salaries city manager and employees. The commission shall fix by annual salary ordinances the salary or compensation of the city manager, the heads of the departments and its own employees.

The city manager shall fix the number and salaries or compensation of all other officers and employees.

In cities where there is a civil service board as provided for in this act, the salary or compensation so fixed shall be uniform for like service in each grade of the service as the same shall be graded or classified by the city manager in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the civil service board. All such salaries and rates of pay, shall be reported to the secretary of the civil service board. All fees and moneys received or collected by officers and employees shall be paid into the city treasury.

Amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 31, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 173, L. 1925.

5515. Laws continued in force. Except as otherwise in this act provided, all acts and parts of acts and all laws now in force or hereafter enacted relative to municipal corporations, are hereby continued in full force and effect and shall be considered and construed as not repealed by this act, except in so far as the same may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

5516. Exceptions to repealing clause. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed; provided, however, that this act shall not repeal or modify any of the provisions of an act approved March 4, 1913, entitled, "An act making the board of railroad commissioners of the state of Montana ex officio a public service commission for the regulation and control of certain public utilities, etc.," or any amendment or amendments of said act, or section 6645 of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, and neither shall this act in any manner curtail or impair the power or authority of said public service commission and any order made, action taken, or regulation provided, by said commission shall supersede and nullify any order, regulation, ordinance or other action authorized by this act in conflict with any such order, regulation, or action, of said public service commission; provided, that the annual report relating to the operation of any public utility owned by any municipality operating under the provisions of this act, to be made to said public service commission, shall conform to the fiscal year of such city or town as established by this act.

Amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 31, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 64A.

MERGER OF COUNTY AND CITY GOVERNMENT.

5520.1. Merger of county and city government authorized. The separate corporate existence and government of any county and of each and every city and town therein may be abandoned and terminated and such county and each and all of the cities and towns therein may be consolidated and merged into one municipal corporation and government under this act by proceeding as hereinafter provided.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 18 Cal. Jur. 703.

5520.2. Question, how submitted. The question of the abandonment and termination of the separate corporate existence and government of a county and of each and every city and town therein and the consolidation and merging of the existence and government of such county and each and all of the cities and towns therein into one municipal corporation and government, under the provisions of this act, shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such county if a petition be filed in the office of the county clerk of such county, signed by at least twenty per centum (20%) of the electors of said county whose names appear on the official register of voters of the county on the date of the filing of such petition, requesting that such question be submitted to the qualified electors of the county.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.3. Form and certification of petition—Special election. Such petition shall be substantially in the form and shall be signed, verified and filed in the manner prescribed in this act for initiative, referendum and recall petitions, and shall designate therein the name by which such consolidated government is to be known, which must be either that of the county or of some one of the cities or towns therein. If the county clerk shall find that such petition, or amended petition, so filed, is signed by the required number of qualified electors he shall so certify to the board of county commissioners of such county at their next regular meeting, and such board shall thereupon, and within ten days after receiving the clerk's certificate, order a special election to be held at which election such question shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the county. Such order shall specify the time when such election shall be held, which shall be not less than ninety nor more than one hundred and twenty days from and after the day when such order is made, and the board of county commissioners shall immediately upon making such order issue a proclamation setting forth the purpose for which such special election is held and the date of holding the same, which proclamation must be published and posted in the manner prescribed by section 535 Revised Codes of Montana of 1921.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.4. Form of ballots. At such election the ballots to be used shall be printed on plain white paper, shall conform as nearly as possible to the ballots used on general elections, and shall have printed thereon the following.

"Shall the corporate existence and government of the County of and of each and every city and town therein be consolidated and merged into one municipal corporation and government under the provisions of Chapter (giving the number of this Act), Acts of the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana, to be known and designated as 'City and County of'?"

☐ YES.

☐ NO.

Such election shall be conducted, vote returned and canvassed and result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to general elections.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.5. Special election — Proclamation — Nominations. If the majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of such consolidation and merging, the board of county commissioners of such county must, within two weeks after such election returns have been canvassed, order a special election to be held for the purpose of electing the number of members of the commission to which such consolidated municipality shall be entitled, which order shall specify the time when such election shall be held, which shall be not less than ninety nor more than one hundred and twenty days from and after the day when such order is made, and the board of county commissioners, immediately upon making such order, shall issue a proclamation setting forth the purpose for which such special election is held and the date of holding the same, which proclamation must be published and posted in the manner prescribed by section 535, Revised Codes of Montana, 1921; provided, however, that if any general election is to be held in such county after three months but within six months from the date of the making of such order then such order shall require such special election to be held at the same time as such general election. No primary election shall be held for the purpose of nominating candidates for members of the commission hereinafter provided for, to be voted for at such special election, but such candidates shall be nominated directly by petition which shall be in substantially the same form and be signed by the same number of signers as hereinafter required for primary nominating petitions. Such election shall be conducted, vote returned and canvassed and result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to general elections.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.6. Powers of consolidated municipality. The inhabitants of every consolidated municipality organized under the provisions of this act, as its limits are at the time of such organization, or as they may be thereafter established as provided by law, shall be a body politic and corporate under the designation and name as adopted at the election providing for such consolidation and merging, and as such shall have perpetual succession; may use a corporate seal; may sue and be sued; may contract and be contracted with; may acquire property within or without the boundaries of the municipality for any municipal purpose, in fee simple, or lesser interest or estate, by purchase, gift, devise, appropriation, lease or lease with privilege of purchase, and may sell, lease, hold, manage and control such property as the interest of the municipality may require; levy and collect such taxes as are authorized by this act or by the general laws of the state; and, except as otherwise provided in this act, such municipality shall have and may exercise all other powers that are now or hereafter may be conferred on counties, cities and towns by the laws of this state. All powers of the municipality, whether expressed or implied, shall be exercised and enforced in the manner prescribed in this act, or in the general laws of the state, or when not so prescribed, then as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution of the commission.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.7. Commission—Number—Term—Vacancies—Qualifications. Except as otherwise provided in this act all powers of the consolidated municipality shall be vested in a commission, and for the purpose of determining the number of members composing such commission, consolidated municipalities organized under the provisions of this act shall be classified and all of the provisions of sections 4741 and 4742 of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, governing and controlling the classification of such consolidated municipalities. In consolidated municipalities of the first class such commission shall consist of seven members; in consolidated municipalities of the second, third and fourth classes of five members; and in consolidated municipalities of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes of three members. The term of office of members of the commission shall be four years and shall commence on the first day of July following their election; provided, however, that the terms of office of the members first elected at such special election shall commence on the first day of the third month following their election, and the terms of office of a majority of such members first elected, to be determined by lot, shall expire on the last day of June in the first year following their election, and the terms of the remaining members first elected shall expire on the last day of June in the third year following their election. If a vacancy occur in the commission, except as the result of a recall election, some eligible person shall be chosen by a majority vote of the remaining members to fill the place for the unexpired term. Members of the commission must be qualified electors of the consolidated municipality and must be the owners of real estate situated therein to the value of not less than one thousand dollars, and shall not hold any other public office except that of notary public or member of the state militia. A member of the commission ceasing to possess any of the qualifications specified in this section shall immediately forfeit his office.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.8. Meetings and organization of commission. At 2 o'clock P. M. on the last day of June following a regular municipal election the commission shall meet at the courthouse in the consolidated municipality and the newly elected members shall assume the duties of office; provided, however, that the first meeting of such commission, after the special election at which the first members of the commission are elected, shall be held at two o'clock P. M. on the first day of the third month following such special election, and at such meeting the members of such commission shall determine by lot the members whose terms will expire on the last day of June in the first year following such special election and the members whose terms will expire on the first day of July in the third year following such election. Thereafter the commission shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution, but not less frequently than once in each month. Special meetings shall be called by the clerk of the commission upon written request of the president, the manager, or a majority of the members of the commission. Any such notice shall state the subject to be considered at the meeting and no other subject shall be considered at such meeting. All meetings of the commission, and of committees thereof, shall be open to the public and the rules of the commission shall provide that citizens of the municipality shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard at any such meeting in regard to any matter considered thereat.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.9. Commission to make rules—Expulsion members. The commission shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall keep a journal of its proceedings. It shall have power to compel the attendance of absent members, may punish its members for disorderly behavior and, by vote of not less than two-thirds of its members, may expel a member for disorderly conduct or the repeated violation of its rules; but no member shall be expelled unless notified of the charge against him and given an opportunity to be heard.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.10. Election officers—Powers of president. At the first meeting of the commission following the special election at which the members thereof are first elected and thereafter at its meeting on the first day of July following each general election at which members of the commission are elected, the commission shall choose one of its members as president and another as vice-president. The president shall preside at meetings of the commission and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed by this act and the ordinances of the municipality. He shall be recognized as the official head of the municipality for all ceremonial purposes, by the courts for serving civil processes, and by the governor for purposes of military law. In time of public danger or emergency he shall, if authorized by vote of the commission, take command of the police, maintain order and enforce the law. If a vacancy occur in the office of the president, or in case of his absence or disability, the vice-president shall act as president for the unexpired term or during the continuance of the absence or disability.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.11. Director of finance clerk—Powers. The director of finance shall be ex-officio clerk of the commission and shall either in person or by deputy keep the records of the commission and perform such other duties as may be required by this act or by the commission.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.12. Quorum and voting. A majority of the members elected to the commission shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the commission shall be necessary to adopt any ordinance, resolution, order or vote; except that a vote to adjourn, or regarding the attendance of absent members may be adopted by a majority of the members present.

En. Sec. 12, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.13. Compensation of commissioners—Compulsory attendance. The commission may by ordinance provide compensation for its members to be paid in equal monthly or quarterly installments; but the total amount of any such compensation for each member, shall not exceed the sum of ($400) per year.

Any member absent from a regular or regularly called meeting of the commission, except on account of his own illness, shall forfeit two per centum (2%) of his annual compensation for each such absence. Absence from all regular meetings for a period of ninety days shall operate to vacate the seat of a member unless such absence be authorized by the commission. In addition to any compensation authorized by this section each member of the commission shall receive ten cents per mile for any distance, in excess of ten miles, necessarily traveled in going from and returning to his residence because of attendance upon a regular, or regularly called meeting of the commission.

En. Sec. 13, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.14. Ordinances, how enacted. Ordinances and resolutions shall be introduced in the commission only in written or printed form. All ordinances or resolutions, except ordinances making appropriations, shall be confined to one subject which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except as provided in the next succeeding section of this act. Ordinances making appropriations shall be confined to the subject of appropriations. No ordinance shall be passed until it has been read on three separate days, unless the requirement of reading on three separate days has been dispensed with by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the members of the commission. The final reading shall be in full unless a written or printed copy of the measure shall have been furnished to each member of the commission prior to such reading.

The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the commission shall be "Be it ordained by the city and county of, " and the enacting clause of all ordinances submitted by the initiative shall be "Be it ordained by the people of the city and county of"

En. Sec. 14, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.15. Publication of ordinances. Ordinances may be revised, codified, re-arranged and published in book form under appropriate titles, chapters and sections and such revision and codification may be made in one ordinance containing one or more subjects. The publication of such revision and codification in book form as aforesaid shall be held to be a sufficient publication of the ordinance or several ordinances contained in such revision and codification. Any such publication of a revision or codification of ordinances in book form shall contain a certificate of the president and clerk of the correctness of such revision, codification and publication; and such book so published shall be received in evidence in any court for the purpose of proving the ordinance or ordinances therein contained, the same and for the same purpose as the original book, ordinances, minutes or journals would be received.

En. Sec. 15, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.16. Ordinances, how revised. No ordinance, resolution or section thereof shall be revised or amended unless the new ordinance or resolution contains the entire ordinance, resolution or section thereof as revised or amended.

En. Sec. 16, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.17. Ordinances, effective date — Emergencies — Submission to freeholders. Ordinances making the annual tax levy, ordinances and resolutions providing for local improvements and assessments, and emergency measures shall take effect at the time indicated therein. All other ordinances and resolutions enacted by the commission shall be in effect from and after thirty days from the date of their passage. Ordinances adopted by the electors shall take effect at the time fixed therein, or, if no time is specified, thirty days after the adoption thereof. An emergency measure is an ordinance or resolution to provide for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, in which the emergency claimed is set forth and defined in a preamble thereto. The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the commission shall be required to pass an emergency ordinance or resolution. No measure making or amending a grant, renewal or extension of a franchise or other special privilege shall ever be passed without first submitting the application therefor to the resident freeholders in the manner provided by section 5075 and 5076 of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921.

En. Sec. 17, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.18. Recording and publication ordinances. Every ordinance or resolution upon its final passage shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose and shall be authenticated by the signatures of the president and clerk. Within ten days after its final passage each ordinance or resolution shall be published at least once in such manner as the commission may by ordinance provide.

En. Sec. 18, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.19. Submission ordinances by petition. Any proposed ordinance, except an ordinance making a tax levy or appropriation, may be submitted to the commission by petition signed by ten per centum (10%) of the qualified electors of the municipality whose names appear on the register of voters on the date when the proposed ordinance is submitted to the commission. All petition papers circulated with respect to any proposed ordinance shall be uniform in character and shall contain the proposed ordinance in full.

En. Sec. 19, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.20. Initiative petitions, submissions of. If an initiative petition, or amended petition be found sufficient by the clerk he shall so certify and shall submit the ordinance therein set forth to the commission at its next meeting, and the commission shall at once read and refer it to an appropriate committee, which may be a committee of the whole. Provision shall be made for public hearings upon the proposed ordinance before the committee to which it is referred. Thereafter the committee shall report the ordinance to the commission, with its recommendations thereon, not later than sixty days after the date on which such ordinance was submitted to the commission by the clerk. Upon receiving the ordinance from the committee the commission shall proceed at once to consider it and shall take final action thereon within thirty days from the date of such committee report.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.21. Changes in proposed ordinances—Submission to voters. If the commission fail to pass an ordinance proposed by initiative petition, or pass it in a form different from that set forth in the petition therefor, the committee of the petitioners hereinafter provided for may require that it be submitted to a vote of the electors either in its original form or with any change or amendment presented in writing either at a public hearing before the committee to which the proposed ordinance was referred or during the consideration thereof by the commission. If the committee of petitioners require the submission of a proposed ordinance to a vote of the electors they shall certify that fact to the clerk and file in his office a certified copy of the ordinance, in the form in which it is to be submitted, within ten days after final action on such ordinance by the commission.

En. Sec. 21, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.22. Certification by clerk—Submission to electors. Upon receipt of the certified copy of a proposed ordinance from the committee of the petitioners the clerk shall certify the fact to the commission at its next regular meeting. If a municipal election is to be held within six months but more than ninety days after the receipt of the clerk's certificate by the commission, such proposed ordinance shall be submitted to a vote of the electors at such election. If no such election is to be held within the time aforesaid the commission may provide for submitting the proposed ordinance to the electors at a special election to be held not sooner than ninety days after receipt of the clerk's certificate. If no municipal election be held within six months as aforesaid, and the commission does not provide for a special election, the proposed ordinance shall be submitted to the electors at the first election held after the expiration of such six months. If, when submitted to the electors, a majority of those voting on a proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, it shall thereupon be an ordinance of the municipality.

En. Sec. 22, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.23. Effective date of initiative ordinances. When an ordinance proposed by initiative petition is passed by the commission in a changed or amended form, and the committee of the petitioners require that such proposed ordinance be submitted to a vote of the electors as hereinbefore provided, the ordinance as passed by the commission shall not take effect until after such vote, and, if the proposed ordinance so submitted, be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the ordinance as passed by the commission shall be deemed repealed.

En. Sec. 23, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.24. Initiative repealing ordinances. Proposed ordinances for repealing any existing ordinance or ordinances, in whole or in part, may be submitted to the commission as provided in the preceding sections for initiating ordinances. Initiated ordinances adopted by the electors shall be published, and may be amended or repealed by the commission, as in the case of other ordinances.

En. Sec. 24, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.25. Submission ordinances to electors—Referendum petitions—Suspensions. The electors shall have power to approve or reject at the polls any ordinance passed by the commission, except an ordinance making a tax levy or an emergency measure, such power being known as the referendum. Ordinances submitted to the commission and passed by the commission without change, or passed in an amended form and not required by the committee of the petitioners to be submitted to a vote of the electors, shall be subject to the referendum in the same manner as other ordinances. If, within thirty days after the final passage of an ordinance, a petition signed by ten per centum (10%) of the qualified electors whose names appear on the register of voters on the date when such petition is filed, shall be filed with the clerk requesting that the ordinance, or any specified part thereof, be either repealed or submitted to a vote of the electors, it shall not become operative until the steps indicated herein have been taken. Referendum petitions shall contain the text of the ordinance, or part thereof, the repeal of which is sought.

En. Sec. 25, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.26. Certification petitions—Reconsideration ordinances—Submission to voters. If a referendum petition, or amended petition, be found sufficient by the clerk he shall certify that fact to the commission at its next regular meeting and the ordinance or part thereof set forth in the petition shall not go into effect, or further action thereunder shall be suspended if it shall have gone into effect, until approved by the electors as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of the clerk's certificate the commission shall proceed to reconsider the ordinance or part thereof and its final vote upon such reconsideration shall be upon the question "Shall the ordinance (or part of the ordinance) set forth in the referendum petition be repealed?" If upon such reconsideration the ordinance, or part thereof, be not repealed it shall be submitted to the electors at the next municipal election held not less than ninety days after such final vote by the commission. The commission by vote of not less than two-thirds of its members may submit the ordinance, or part thereof, to the electors at a special election to be held not sooner than the time aforesaid. If when submitted to the electors any ordinance, or part thereof, be not approved by a majority of those voting thereon it shall be deemed repealed.

En. Sec. 26, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.27. Ballot title—Voting. Ordinances, or parts thereof, submitted to vote of the electors in accordance with the initiative and referendum provisions of this act shall be submitted by ballot title which shall be prepared in all cases by the director of law. The ballot title may be distinct from the legal title of any such proposed or referred ordinance and shall be a clear, concise statement, without argument or prejudice, descriptive of the substance of such ordinance or part thereof. The ballot used in voting upon any ordinance, or part thereof, shall have below the ballot title the two following propositions, one above the other, in the order indicated: "For the ordinance" and "Against the ordinance." Immediately at the left of each proposition there shall be a square in which by making a cross-mark (X) the elector may vote for or against the ordinance or part thereof. Any number of ordinances, or parts thereof, may be voted upon at the same election and may be submitted on the same ballot, but the ballot used for voting thereon shall be for that purpose only.

En. Sec. 27, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.28. Preliminary acts. In case a petition be filed requiring that an ordinance passed by the commission providing for the expenditure of money, a bond issue, or a public improvement be submitted to a vote of the electors, all steps preliminary to such actual expenditure, actual issuance of bonds, or actual execution of the contract for such improvement, may be taken prior to the election.

En. Sec. 28, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.29. Signatures to petitions—Form affidavit. The signatures to initiative, referendum or recall petitions need not be appended to one paper, but to each separate petition paper there shall be attached an affidavit of the circulator thereof as provided by this section. Each signer of any such petition paper shall sign his name in ink or indelible pencil and shall indicate after his name his place of residence by street and number, or other description sufficient to identify the place. There shall appear on each petition paper the names and addresses of five electors of the municipality, who, as a committee of the petitioners, shall be regarded as responsible for the circulation and filing of the petition. The affidavit attached to the petition paper shall be as follows:

City and County of

....., being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the circulator of the foregoing paper and that the signatures appended thereto were made in his presence and are the genuine signatures of the persons whose names they purport to be.

Notary Public for the State of Montana, Residing at, Montana.

My commission expires

En. Sec. 29, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.30. Filing and certification of petitions. All petition papers comprising an initiative, referendum or recall petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk as one instrument. Within ten days after a petition is filed the clerk shall determine whether it is signed by a sufficient number of electors and shall attach thereto a certificate showing the result of his examination. If he shall certify that the petition is insufficient he shall set forth in his certificate the particulars in which it is defective and shall at once notify the committee of the petitioners of his findings.

En. Sec. 30, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.31. Amendment of petitions. An initiative, referendum or recall petition may be amended at any time within ten days after the making of a certificate of insufficiency by the clerk, by filing a supplementary petition upon additional papers signed and filed as provided in case of an original petition. The clerk shall, within five days after such amendment is filed, make examination of the amended petition and, if his certificate shall show the petition still to be insufficient, he shall file it in his office and notify the committee of the petitioners of his findings and no further action shall be had on such insufficient petition. The finding of the insufficiency of a petition shall not prejudice the filing of a new petition for the same purpose.

En. Sec. 31, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.32. Manager—Appointment—Powers—Compensation — Removal. The commission shall appoint a manager, who shall be the chief executive officer of the municipality. He shall be chosen by the commission solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications and need not when appointed be a resident of the municipality. No member of the commission shall, during the time for which elected, be chosen manager. The manager shall not be appointed for a definite term, but shall be removable at the pleasure of the commission. In case the commission determine to remove the manager he shall, if he so demand, be given a written statement of the reason alleged for the proposed removal and the right to be heard thereon at a public meeting of the commission prior to the date on which his final removal shall take effect, but pending and during such hearing the commission may suspend him from office. The action of the commission in suspending or removing the manager shall be final, it being the intention of this act to vest all authority and fix all responsibility for any such suspension or removal in the commission. In case of the absence or disability of the manager the commission may designate some responsible person to perform the duties of the office. The manager shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the commission.

En. Sec. 32, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.33. Appointment of officers by manager. The manager shall be responsible to the commission for the proper administration of the affairs of the municipality placed in his charge and to that end shall appoint all officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality, except as otherwise provided in this act and except as he may authorize the head of a department or office, responsible to him to appoint subordinates in such department or office. Appointments by or under the authority of the manager shall be confined to citizens of the municipality, except in such specific cases as the commission may suspend this requirement, and shall be on the basis of the ability, training and experience of the appointees in the work which they are to perform. All such appointments shall be without definite term unless for temporary service not to exceed sixty days.

En. Sec. 33, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.34. Removal of officers—Procedure. Any officer or employee of the municipality appointed by the manager, or upon his authorization, may be laid off, suspended or removed from office or employment either by the manager or the officer by whom appointed. Verbal or written notice of lay-off, suspension or removal given to an officer or employee, or written notice left at or mailed to his usual place of residence, shall be sufficient to put any such lay-off, suspension, or removal into effect unless the person so notified shall, within five days of such notice, demand a written statement of reasons therefor and the right to be heard thereon before the manager. Upon such demand the officer making the lay-off, suspension or removal shall supply the person notified thereof with a written statement of the reasons therefor and the manager shall fix a time and place for the public hearing. Following the public hearing the manager shall either confirm the lay-off, suspension or removal as specified in the notice, reinstate the person so notified in the service, or make such other disposition of the matter as, in his opinion, the good of the service may require. The decision of the manager in any such case shall be final, and there shall be no appeal therefrom to any officer, body or court whatsoever. A copy of the written statement of reasons given for any lay-off, suspension or removal, and a copy of any written reply thereto by the officer or employee involved, together with a copy of the decision of the manager, shall be filed as a public record in the office of the clerk.

En. Sec. 34, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.35. Control of administrative service. Neither the commission nor any of its committees or members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to, or his removal from, office or employment by the manager or any of his subordinates, or in any manner take part in the appointment or removal of officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the commission and its members shall deal with that portion of the administrative service for which the manager is responsible solely through the manager, and neither the commission nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the manager either publicly or privately. Any violation of the provisions of this section by a member of the commission shall be a misdemeanor, conviction of which shall immediately forfeit the office of the member so convicted.

En. Sec. 35, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.36. General duties of manager. It shall be the duty of the manager to act as chief conservator of the peace within the municipality; to supervise the administration of the affairs of the municipality; to see that the ordinances of the municipality and the laws of the state are enforced; to make such recommendations to the commission concerning the affairs of the municipality as may seem to him desirable; to keep the commission advised of the financial conditions and future needs of the municipality; to prepare and submit to the commission such reports as may be required by that body; and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this act or be required of him by ordinance or resolution of the commission.

En. Sec. 36, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.37. Who to attend sessions of commission. The manager, the directors of all departments, and all other officers of the municipality shall be entitled to be present at all sessions of the commission. The manager shall have the right to take part in the discussion of all matters coming before the commission and the directors and other officers shall be entitled to take part in all discussions of the commission relating to their respective departments and offices.

En. Sec. 37, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.38. Enumeration of departments — Changes. In consolidated municipalities of the first, second, third and fourth classes there shall be a department of finance; a police department, a department of public work, a department of health, a fire department, and such other departments and offices as may be established by ordinance. In consolidated municipalities of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes there shall be a department of finance, a police department, a department of public works and a department of health and such other departments and offices as may be established by ordinance. The commission may change or abolish any department or office established by ordinance and may prescribe, combine, distribute or discontinue the functions and duties thereof. Additional functions and duties may be by ordinance assigned to departments and offices created by this act, but no function or duty assigned by this act to any such department or office shall be discontinued or assigned to any other department or office. If the manager so recommend, and the commission so authorize, the manager may appoint one person to act, as the head of two or more departments or offices; but the department of law must not thus be joined with any other department, nor shall the manager be authorized to act as head of the department of finance, or of any office therein other than of purchasing agent or assessor.

En. Sec. 38, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.39. Employees, how regulated. The number of assistants and other subordinates to be employed in or by each administrative department or office shall be fixed by the commission, but the commission may authorize the manager to determine the number of such assistants and subordinates in and for a specified department or office subject to the appropriations made thereto.

En. Sec. 39, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.40. List of employees—Payment salaries—Recovery. The director of finance shall maintain in his office a list of all persons in the administrative service of the municipality, showing in connection with each name the position held, the date of appointment, the character of employment, and the rate of compensation. Each appointing officer shall promptly transmit to the director of finance such information regarding his department or office as may be necessary to keep this list accurate in all respects at all times. The treasurer shall not pay, nor shall the director of finance issue, any warrant for the payment of, any salary or compensation to any person whose name does not appear upon such list, nor shall payment be made at a rate other than that specified on such list. Any sum paid contrary to the foregoing provisions of this section may be recovered from any officer paying or authorizing the payment thereof or from the surety on his official bond. If through the failure of any officer to give information to the director of finance as required in this section, or through omission or error in such information, payment is made to any person whose name should not be on such list, or payment is made in excess of the amount which any person whose name is rightfully on the list should receive, then the amount of any such payment or excess payment may be recovered from the officer by reason of whose failure, omission or error the payment or excess payment was made, or from the surety on his official bond.

En. Sec. 40, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.41. Compensation of employees—Schedules. The compensation of officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality shall be fixed by ordinance, but all positions in such service except those of heads of departments and heads of offices not included within regular departments shall, for purposes of compensation, be graded and classified by the manager according to duties and responsibilities. The commission shall by ordinances establish a schedule of compensation for the positions so graded and classified which shall prescribe uniform compensation for like service as determined by the grading and classification of the manager. Such schedule of compensation may establish a minimum and maximum for any grade, and an increase in compensation within the limits provided for any grade may be granted by the manager upon the basis of efficiency and seniority.

En. Sec. 41, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.42. Advisory board—Compensation—Meetings. The manager may appoint a board of citizens qualified to act in an advisory capacity to the head of any specified department or office. The members of all such boards shall serve without compensation and it shall be their duty to consult and advise with the officer in charge of the department or office for which they are appointed but not to direct the conduct of such department or office. Public meetings of such boards may be called for the consideration of the affairs of the department or office for which they are appointed.

En. Sec. 42, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.43. Investigation affairs of municipality—Service of subpoenas.

The commission, the manager, or any person or committee authorized by either of them, shall have power to inquire into the conduct of any department or office of the municipality and to make investigations as to municipal affairs, and for that purpose may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the production of books, papers and other evidence. It shall be the duty of the manager to designate a police officer to serve subpoenas. The commission shall provide by ordinance the penalty or penalties for contempt in refusing to obey any such subpoena, or to produce such books, papers and other evidence and shall have the power to punish any such contempt in the manner provided by ordinance.

5520.44. Department of law—Duties of director.

The department of law shall be in charge of a director to be appointed by the commission without definite term, who shall be a resident and elector of the municipality and who shall possess all of the qualifications required of county attorneys. He shall have all the powers and, either personally or by such assistants as he may designate, shall perform all the duties that now are or hereafter may be prescribed for county attorneys, city attorneys and public administrators and, in addition thereto, he shall be chief legal advisor of and attorney and counsel for the municipality and of all departments and offices thereof and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the commission. He shall qualify by taking the oath of office prescribed by the constitution and giving a bond in the amount required of a public administrator in a county of the same class. He shall receive from the state as part of his salary the same amount which is paid by the state to county attorneys in counties of the same class, and the remainder of his salary shall be paid by the municipality. For all purposes in connection with criminal prosecutions he shall be known and designated as "County Attorney of the City and County of 5520.45. Director of finance—Powers.

En. Sec. 44, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

The director of finance shall have charge of the administration of the financial affairs of the municipality including the keeping and supervision of all accounts; the custody and disbursement of municipal funds and moneys; the making of special assessments; the assessment of property for taxation; the issuance of licenses; the collection of license fees; the control over expenditures; the purchase, storage and distribution of supplies needed by the municipality; and such other duties as the commission may by ordinance require. He shall also have all powers and perform all duties imposed upon county clerks, recorders and auditors by general law.

En. Sec. 45, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.46. Director of finance—Duties as to revenue and expenses.

The director of finance shall prepare and submit to the commission each month a summary statement of revenues and expenses for the preceding month, detailed as to appropriations and funds in such manner as show the exact financial condition of the municipality and of each department, and office thereof as of the last day of such month.

En. Sec. 46, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.47. Division of audit and account. There shall be in the department of finance a division of audit and accounts of which the directors of finance shall himself be the head. As head of such office he shall be charged with keeping the books of financial account for all departments and offices of the municipality and, whenever practicable, such books and accounts shall be kept in the office of the division of audit and accounts. Report shall be made daily to the division of audit and accounts by each department and office showing the receipt of all moneys and the disposition thereof.

En. Sec. 47, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.48. Officer's accounts to be audited when. Upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of any officer of the municipality the director of finance shall cause an audit and investigation of the accounts of such officer to be made and shall report to the manager and the commission. Either the commission or the manager may at any time provide for an examination or audit of the accounts of any officer or department of the municipal government. In case of the death, resignation or removal of the director of finance, the manager shall cause an audit to be made of his accounts. If, as a result of any such audit, an officer be found indebted to the municipality the director of finance, or other person making such audit, shall immediately give notice thereof to the commission, the manager and the director of law and the latter shall forthwith proceed to collect such indebtedness.

En. Sec. 48, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.49. Division of the treasury. There shall be in the department of finance a division of the treasury, the head of which shall be treasurer of the municipality, and who shall have the powers and perform the duties prescribed for city treasurers and county treasurers by general law and who shall be required to qualify by giving a bond in the same amount required of county treasurers of counties of the same class. All moneys received by an officer or employee of the municipality for or in connection with the business of the municipality shall be paid promptly into the treasury. The commission shall by ordinance provide for the prompt and regular payment of such money into the treasury, and shall also, in the manner hereinafter provided, designate the banking institutions with which it shall be deposited.

En. Sec. 49, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.50. Division of purchases and supplies — Purchasing agent. There shall be in the department of finance a division of purchases and supplies at the head of which there shall be a purchasing agent. The purchasing agent shall make all purchases for the municipality in the manner, and with such exceptions, as may be provided by ordinance and shall, under such regulations as may be provided by ordinance, sell all property, real and personal, of the municipality not needed for public use or that may have become unsuitable for use. He shall have charge of such storerooms and warehouses of the municipality as the commission may by ordinance provide.

En. Sec. 50, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.51. Supplies, how purchased—Limitations. Before making any purchase or sale the purchasing agent shall give opportunity for competition, under such rules and regulations as the commission may by ordinance establish. Supplies required by any department or office of the municipality may be furnished upon requisition from the stores under the control of the purchasing agent, and whenever so furnished shall be paid for by the department or office furnished therewith by warrant made payable to the credit of the store's account of the division of purchases and supplies. The purchasing agent shall not furnish any supplies to any department or office unless there be to the credit thereof an available unencumbered appropriation balance sufficient to pay for such supplies.

En. Sec. 51, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.52. Division of assessment. There shall be in the department of finance a division of assessment the head of which shall be the assessor. The assessor and his deputies shall have the powers, qualify in the manner, and perform the duties prescribed for county assessors and deputy assessors by general law.

En. Sec. 52, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.53. Powers of assessor. The assessor shall also be in charge of the preparation of all special assessments for public improvements; the giving of notice of such assessments to property owners; and the certification of all unpaid assessments to the director of finance.

En. Sec. 53, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.54. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the municipality shall begin with the first day of July and shall end with the next succeeding thirtieth day of June, and all of the provisions of the general laws of the state in respect to budgets for cities and counties shall apply to such municipality.

En. Sec. 54, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.55. Limitation on tax levy. No ordinance making the annual tax levy shall be passed fixing the rate to be levied upon all property within the municipality to defray current expenses, including salaries otherwise unprovided for, in excess of sixteen mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation.

En. Sec. 55, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.56. Tax limit. The tax limit provided by section 55 of this act shall apply only to taxes for the purposes therein specified. Taxes required by this act to be levied on account of the debt of the municipality, or any district thereof, and special taxes authorized by this act or by the general laws of the state, shall not be affected by such limits nor shall such taxes be considered in determining the limits of taxation fixed by section 55 of this act.

En. Sec. 56, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.57. Special tax levy. The municipality shall have the power and authority to levy special taxes for all purposes which counties, cities and towns are authorized to levy by general laws of the state, and all of the provisions of such laws shall be applicable to and shall govern and control, the municipality in the levying and collection of such special taxes.

En. Sec. 57, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.57A. Designation districts—Tax. The commission may by ordinance designate clearly specified districts in or for which special services are to be performed and may levy upon the property in any such district such tax, in addition to any taxes authorized by section 55 of this act as may be necessary to pay the cost of such special service or services. Any such additional tax levied under the authority of this section upon the property within any district shall not exceed fifteen mills unless the question of levying a higher rate for a specified year or years shall have been submitted to the electors of the district and approved by a majority of those voting therein; but in no case shall such additional levy be more than twenty mills.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 162, L. 1925.

5520.58. Collection of taxes. All taxes levied by the municipality shall be collected and payable in the manner, at the time and under the penalties prescribed by law for the collection and payment of state and county taxes.

En. Sec. 58, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.59. Continuation of special districts—Special tax levies. The district comprised within the boundaries of any city, town or district, existing within the county at the time of the adoption of this act by the electors thereof shall, for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of any debt incurred by such city, town or district prior to such adoption, be continued as a special district until such debt shall have been paid, and the commission shall, in the annual tax levy ordinance, levy upon the property within each such district such tax, in addition to all other taxes, as the director of finance shall report to be necessary to provide for paying the interest on each such debt as it falls due and the principal thereof as it matures, and no other property within the municipality shall be taxable or made liable for the payment of any such debt. The commission shall likewise provide in the annual tax levy ordinance for the levy of such tax upon all property within the municipality as the director of finance shall report to be necessary to provide for paying the interest as it falls due and the principal as it matures of any debt of the municipality as a whole. The tax levy for the debt of the municipality as a whole, and the tax levy for the debt of each such district, shall each be a separate levy and shall be distinct from and in addition to all other tax levies, and the proceeds of each such tax levy shall be placed in a separate fund for the payment of the interest and principal of the debt for which the tax was levied, and no part of any such fund shall be used for any other purpose whatever.

En. Sec. 59, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.60. Claims—Vouchers—Issuance warrants. No claim against the municipality shall be paid except by means of a warrant on the treasury issued by the director of finance. The director of finance shall issue no warrant for the payment of a claim unless the claim be evidenced by a voucher approved by the head of the department or office for which the indebtedness was incurred, and each such officer and his surety shall be liable to the municipality for all loss or damage sustained by reason of his negligent or corrupt approval of any claim.

En. Sec. 60, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.61. Examination of claims—Liability director. The director of finance shall examine all pay-rolls, bills and other claims and demands against the municipality and shall issue no warrant for payment unless he finds that the claim is in proper form, correctly computed and duly approved; that it is legally due and payable; and that an appropriation has been made therefor which has not been exhausted. He may investigate any claimant and for that purpose may summon before him any officer, agent or employee of the municipality, any claimant or other person, and examine him upon oath or affirmation relative thereto, and if he finds a claim to be fraudulent, erroneous or otherwise invalid or that the appropriation out of which such claim is payable has been exhausted, he shall not issue a warrant therefor. If the director of finance issue a warrant on the treasury authorizing payment of any claim in contravention of the provisions of this section he and his sureties shall be individually liable to the municipality for the amount of such warrant if paid.

En. Sec. 61, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.62. Certification of certain contracts. No contract, agreement or other obligation, other than contracts pertaining to work or improvements to be paid for by special assessments, involving the expenditure of any funds shall be entered into, nor shall any order for such expenditures be valid, unless the director of finance shall first certify to the commission that the object or purpose for which such expenditure is to be made and the amount thereof is provided for by an appropriation in the annual budget, or in a supplemental budget, and that the same has not been expended. The certificate of the director of finance shall be filed and made a matter of record in his office, and the appropriation for such purpose shall thereafter be considered as having been set aside and expended to the amount of such contract, agreement or obligation.

En. Sec. 62, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.63. Contracts, when void. All contracts, agreements or other obligations entered into, all ordinances and resolutions passed, and orders adopted, contrary to the provisions of sections 62 of this act shall be void, and no person whatever shall have any claim, or demand against the municipality thereunder, nor shall the commission or any officer of the municipality waive or qualify the limitations fixed by such sections, or fasten upon the municipality any liability whatever in excess thereof.

En. Sec. 63, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.64. Depositories—Bonds. On or before the first day of August of each year the commission shall designate the banks subject to state or national supervision in which the funds of the municipality shall be deposited. In designating such banks the commission shall specify the maximum amount of municipal funds that may be kept at any time in each. Unless a bank designated as a depository shall elect to deposit securities with the treasurer, as provided in the next succeeding section, it shall give good and sufficient bonds, with sureties to be approved by the commission, conditioned for the safe keeping and payment of the municipal funds deposited therewith and the interest thereon. Any such bonds of a depository shall be in the aggregate equal to the amount designated by the commission as the maximum of municipal funds which may at any time be kept by such depository.

En. Sec. 64, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.65. Deposit of securities—Interest. In lieu of the surety bonds specified in the next preceding section any bank designated as a depository of municipal funds may deposit with the treasurer bonds of the class and kind in which, by the provisions of this act, the sinking fund of the municipality may be invested. Bonds so deposited shall be in an amount equal to the amount of municipal funds permitted at any time to be deposited with such bank, shall be approved by the commission and shall be accompanied by proper assignment, to the end that the bank so depositing and assigning such bonds will safely keep and pay over to the treasurer, or his order, on demand and free of exchange, all moneys at any time deposited therein with interest thereon at the rate agreed upon, and that in case of default on the part of such bank the commission shall have power and authority to sell such bonds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to realize the full amount of the funds deposited therein. The bank shall be entitled to interest on the securities so deposited with the treasurer, when paid, and to the return of the securities at the termination of such trust so long as the bank is not in default. With the approval of the commission a bank may at any time substitute other like securities of equal value for those so deposited.

En. Sec. 65, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.66. New bonds, when required. Whenever for any cause the commission shall deem the bonds or securities of any bank insufficient security for the municipal funds deposited or likely to be deposited therein the commission shall require new bonds to be given or new securities to be deposited with the treasurer. If any bank shall fail promptly to execute and present such new bonds, or deposit such new securities, the treasurer shall at once withdraw all deposits therefrom and no further deposit of municipal funds shall be made therein until such bank shall have been redesignated by the commission as a depository.

En. Sec. 66, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.67. Surety bonds—Record of securities. All surety bonds given by a bank in accordance with the provisions of this act shall continue in force so long as funds of the municipality deposited therein shall be unpaid. Nothing herein provided shall impair the rights and remedies of the municipality on such bonds under the laws of the state. Bonds and other securities given by banks in accordance with this act shall be entered in a record to be kept for that purpose by the director of finance and deposited with the treasurer for safe keeping. The record of such bonds and securities kept by the director of finance, or copies thereof certified by that officer, shall be competent and prima facie evidence of the contents and tenor thereof.

En. Sec. 67, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.68. Deposit of funds. All funds received by the treasurer shall be deposited by him in the designated banks in the name of the municipality subject to the order of the treasurer, and shall be distributed among the designated banks as nearly as may be in proportion to the maximum amounts which they have been authorized to receive by the commission.

En. Sec. 68, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.69. Interest on deposits. Banks designated as depositories shall pay interest on daily balances of municipal funds at a rate approved by the commission, which shall in no case be less than two and one-half per centum. The interest due on such deposits shall be paid to the treasurer by check on the last day of each quarter of the fiscal year. If the treasurer shall at any time receive, or have in any bank, funds which will probably remain on deposit three months or longer he may, with the approval of the commission either take therefor certificates of deposit from a designated depository, payable to his order on demand, and bearing a higher rate of interest, or invest such funds in any bonds maturing within six months in which the sinking fund of the municipality may be invested. The treasurer shall make a monthly statement to the director of finance of the municipal funds in each bank, and the interest received thereon, as of the last day of each month.

En. Sec. 69, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.70. Disbursement of moneys by check. No bank receiving funds of the municipality on deposit shall have authority to pay out any such money except upon checks drawn upon that bank signed by the treasurer.

En. Sec. 70, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.71. Liability of treasurer and sureties. When the funds of the municipality are deposited and kept in designated banks according to the provisions of this act the treasurer and the sureties on his official bond shall be exempt from all liability for the loss of any funds so deposited if such loss is caused by the failure, bankruptcy, or any other act or default of such banks, but the want of care or due diligence on the part of the treasurer or commission in protecting the municipality against loss, shall not exempt the treasurer, the members of the commission or sureties on their respective bonds from liability. Nothing herein provided shall deprive the municipality of any right or remedy against any defaulting bank or against its officers or stockholders.

En. Sec. 71, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.72. Limitation of indebtedness. The municipality shall not become indebted in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate exceeding five per centum (5%) of the value of the taxable property therein as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes prior to incurring such indebtedness, and all warrants, bonds or obligations in excess of such amount given by or on behalf of the municipality shall be void.

En. Sec. 72, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.73. Borrowing money. The consolidated municipality may borrow money or issue bonds for any municipal purpose to the extent and in the manner provided by the constitution and laws of Montana for the borrowing of money or issuing of bonds by counties and cities and towns.

En. Sec. 73, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.74. Sinking fund board—Investment sinking funds. The sinking funds of the municipality shall be in charge of a sinking fund board consisting of the president, the director of finance and the director of law. The president shall be the chairman and the director of finance the secretary of the board. By and with consent of the commission the sinking fund board shall invest the sinking fund in bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the United States; state bonds or certificates of indebtedness of Montana or any other state of the United States; bonds of the municipality; registered warrants on the treasury of such municipality; bonds of any city in the state of Montana; and in such county or school bonds of Montana as may be approved by the commission. In case the sinking fund be invested in bonds of the municipality such bonds shall not be canceled before maturity but shall be held by the sinking fund board and the interest thereon paid over and applied to the increase of the sinking fund. Whenever the principal of any of the bonds of the municipality shall become due the sinking fund board shall, with the consent of the commission, dispose of such of the bonds belonging to the sinking fund as, with the money on hand belonging to the sinking fund, shall be necessary to pay the bonds so becoming due.

En. Sec. 74, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.75. Letting of contracts—Advertising—Execution. All contracts entered into by the municipality for supplies or materials, for any public work, or for the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance or operation of any public works or improvements for which must be paid a sum exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, after public advertisement and competition as may be prescribed by ordinance, but the manager shall have the right to reject all bids and advertise again. All advertisements as to contracts shall contain a reservation of the foregoing right. All contracts entered into by the municipality shall be signed by the manager after approval thereof by the commission.

En. Sec. 75, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.76. Alteration of contracts. When it becomes necessary in the opinion of the manager to make alterations or modifications in any contract entered into by the municipality such alterations shall be made only when authorized by the commission upon the written recommendation of the manager. No such alteration shall be valid unless the new price to be paid for any supplies, material or work under the altered or modified contract shall have been agreed upon in writing and signed by the contractor and the manager prior to such authorization by the commission.

En. Sec. 76, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.77. Police department—Director—Officers. The police department shall be in charge of a director who shall be chief of the police force of the municipality. Officers and patrolmen of the police department, subordinate to the director, shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of police officers and patrolmen in cities and towns by the laws of this state and such powers and duties as may be conferred and required by the ordinances of the municipality. The director shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of sheriffs and police officers and patrolmen shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of deputy sheriffs by the general laws of the state. For the purpose of serving and making return on all criminal and civil process, executing judgments, decrees and orders of court and making sales thereunder and returns thereof, the director shall be known and designated as "Sheriff of the City and County of" and each police officer and patrolman shall be known and designated as deputy sheriff.

En. Sec. 77, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.78. Director of public works—Powers and duties. The department of public works shall be in charge of a director who shall manage and have charge of the construction, repair, improvement and maintenance of all public buildings, of roads, streets, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, viaducts and other public ways; of sewers, drains, ditches, culverts, streams and watercourses; and of boulevards, parks, playgrounds, cemeteries and other public places and grounds dedicated to public use. He shall manage and control all public cemeteries, crematories, market places or houses, garbage and sewage disposal plants and farms, and all public utilities belonging to the municipality, or any subdivision thereof, and shall have charge of the enforcement of the obligations to the municipality of all privately owned or operated public utilities enforceable by the municipality. He shall have charge of the cleaning, sprinkling and lighting of the streets and the collection and disposal of garbage and waste. He shall also be responsible for the making and preservation of all surveys, maps, plans, drawings and estimates for such public work, and for the preservation of contracts, papers, plans, tools and appliances belonging to the municipality and pertaining to the functions of the department.

En. Sec. 78, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.79. Director of public works—Qualifications. The director of public works shall have the qualifications prescribed by law for county surveyors and, in addition to the duties required by this act and by the ordinances of the municipality, he shall have the powers and shall, either in person or by a deputy having the qualifications prescribed by law for county surveyors, perform the duties required of county surveyors by the laws of the state.

En. Sec. 79, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.80. Director department public health—Powers. The director of the department of health shall be a physician legally authorized to practice medicine and surgery in the state of Montana. Except as otherwise provided in this act the director of the department of health shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of coroners and county health officers and local health officers by the general laws of the state. He shall also have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

En. Sec. 80, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.81. Commission county board of health. The commission shall be the county board of health in and for the municipality, but in performing the duties and exercising the powers prescribed by law for such boards the commission shall act by ordinance, resolution or vote and according to the procedure prescribed by this act to be followed when acting as commission of the municipality, and it shall not be necessary to the validity of any such action for the commission to declare, or for the records thereof to indicate that it is acting in other than its usual capacity. Regulations affecting the public health, additional to those established by general law, and for the violation of which penalties are imposed, may be prescribed by ordinance and enforced as provided therein.

En. Sec. 81, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.82. Fire department chief. The fire department of the municipality shall be in charge of a director who shall be chief thereof and who shall manage and control the department in the manner prescribed by the ordinances of the municipality.

En. Sec. 82, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.83. Firemen's disability funds. Any disability fund, or funds, of the fire department or departments, established as required by law in any city or town of the county prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, shall be continued as one such fund for the fire department of the municipality. The board of trustees of such disability fund shall consist of the president, the director of finance, the director of law, the director of the fire department, and one member of the fire department selected by a majority of the members of such department between the first and tenth day of July of each year in which the municipality shall elect members of the commission. Except as provided in this section, the disability fund of the fire department shall be continued and administered in the manner prescribed by law for such funds established in cities and towns.

5520.84. Municipal superintendent of schools—Compensation—Powers.

The commission shall, by majority vote of all its members, appoint a municipal superintendent of schools to serve without definite term, but subject to removal at the pleasure of the commission. The superintendent of schools for any district within the municipality may, with the consent of the trustees of such district, be appointed to serve as municipal superintendent. The compensation of the municipal superintendent shall be fixed by the commission, and he shall have the powers and perform the duties prescribed for county superintendents of schools by the laws of the state.

En. Sec. 84, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.85. Police court and judge. A police court is hereby established in and for each municipality with the jurisdiction, powers and duties within the municipality provided by general law for police courts in cities and towns, and for justices of the peace. The commission shall, by majority vote of all its members, appoint a police judge or judges to serve during the pleasure of the commission. No person shall be appointed police judge unless at least twenty-five years of age and admitted to practice law in the state of Montana. The compensation of the police judge or judges shall be fixed by the commission.

En. Sec. 85, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.86. Public works, how constructed. Any local public work may be done or any local public works or improvements may be constructed, reconstructed, repaired, maintained or operated either by contract or directly by the municipality as may be determined by the commission. Before authorizing that any local public works or improvements be directly constructed, reconstructed, repaired, maintained or operated, detailed plans and estimates for each such work or improvement shall be submitted to the commission by the manager, and there shall be separate accounting for each work or improvement so executed.

En. Sec. 86, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.87. Special improvement districts. The municipality shall have the same power and authority to create special improvement districts and for like purposes, and to create special lighting districts and sprinkling districts as provided by the laws of the state for cities, and towns.

En. Sec. 87, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.88. Control of public works—Special improvement districts. The director of public works shall be the engineer in charge of all such work, works or improvements. The provisions of the general law of the state regarding special improvement districts, special lighting districts and sprinkling districts in cities and towns shall apply to and control the establishment under this act of special improvement districts, special lighting districts and sprinkling districts in and for the municipality and the procedure according to which any local public work or the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance or operation of any local public work or improvement is to be provided for when the cost thereof is to be paid in whole or in part by assessments upon the property within any such district, and such general law shall also apply to the manner of levying and collecting such assessments.

En. Sec. 88, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.89. First election—What officers to act. For any election held on the question of the adoption of this act, and for the first election of members of the commission thereunder, if adopted, the county clerk and board of county commissioners shall exercise the powers and perform the duties respecting elections prescribed for county clerks and boards of county commissioners by the general laws of the state. After the adoption of this act by the electors of the county, and the election and qualification of a commission thereunder, the powers and duties of county clerks and boards of county commissioners under the general election laws of the state shall devolve upon the clerk and commission of the municipality and, except as otherwise provided in this act, the provisions of such laws shall continue to apply to all elections held within the municipality.

En. Sec. 89, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.90. Municipal primary elections—Polls—Voting. A municipal primary election for the choice of members of the commission shall be held on the last Tuesday in April in each year in which members of the commission are to be elected. All candidates for the commission receiving a majority of the votes cast at the municipal primary election shall be deemed and declared elected to the commission. If candidates equal to the number of members of the commission to be elected do not receive a majority of the votes cast at such primary election, a municipal primary election shall be held on the first Tuesday in June next following the election. At all municipal elections the polls shall be open from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. The time, manner and method of establishing election precincts and polling places and appointment of judges of election and the method of conducting election, registering voters therefor, counting the votes cast thereat, and canvassing the returns thereof, shall be as prescribed by the general election laws of the state.

En. Sec. 90, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.91. Nominating petitions—Signatures. Any elector of the municipality eligible to membership in the commission may be placed in nomination therefor by petition filed with the clerk and signed by at least two per centum (2%) of the qualified electors whose names appear upon the official register of voters of the municipality. The signatures to a nominating petition need not all be attended [appended] to one paper, but to each separate leaf of the petition there shall be attached an affidavit of the circulator thereof stating that each signature appended thereto was made in his presence and is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Each signer of a petition shall sign his name in ink or indelible pencil and, after his name, shall designate his residence by street and number or other description sufficient to identify the place, and give the date when his signature was made, No elector shall sign petitions for more candidates for the commission than the number of places to be filled therein at the forthcoming primary election.

5520.92. Form of petitions. The form of nominating petition papers shall be substantially as follows:

We, the undersigned electors of the city and county of, hereby nominate whose residence is for the office of commissioner, to be voted for at the primary election to be held on the last Tuesday of April, 19..., and we individually certify that we are qualified to vote for candidates for the above office and that we have not signed nominating petitions for more than candidates for the commission.

En. Sec. 92, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.93. Assembling and filing petitions—Notification nominees. All separate leaves comprising a nominating petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk as one instrument at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding last Tuesday in April. Within five days after the filing of the nomination petition the clerk shall notify the person named therein as a candidate whether such petition is signed by the required number of qualified electors. Any eligible person placed in nomination as here-inbefore provided shall have his name printed on the ballots and placed upon any voting machine used at the primary election, if within five days after such nomination, he shall have filed with the clerk a written acceptance of the nomination.

En. Sec. 93, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.94. Party marks forbidden—Form of ballot. No party mark or designation shall appear on the ballots, or in connection with the names of candidates on any voting machine, used in the election of members of the commission. Each elector may vote for as many candidates for the commission as there are places to be filled therein; but any ballot marked for more candidates than the number of places to be filled shall not be counted for any of the candidates for which marked. The ballots shall be in form substantially as follows:

En. Sec. 94, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.95. Determination order of names on ballot. At 2 o'clock P. M. on the tenth day before any election at which members of the commission are to be nominated and elected, the clerk shall publicly determine by lot the order in which the names of candidates for election to the commission shall be printed on the ballots, or appear on any voting machine, to be used at such election.

En. Sec. 95, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.96. Names may be written on ballot. As many blank spaces shall be left on the ballots below the printed names of candidates for the commission as there are places to be filled therein. In any such space an elector may write the name of any eligible person, and a vote cast for such person shall be counted as though for a candidate whose name is printed on the ballots.

En. Sec. 96, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.97. Notice of primary election—Publication. On the tenth day prior to the municipal primary election the clerk shall cause notice thereof to be published in such daily newspaper or newspapers, printed and published within and of general circulation in the municipality as the commission may have designated, and if there be no daily newspaper then in such weekly newspaper or newspapers as may be so designated. In case the commission fail to designate such newspaper or newspapers, the clerk shall cause the notice to be published in such newspaper or newspapers printed and published within and of general circulation in the municipality as he may select. Such published notice shall contain a list of the candidates for the commission nominated as hereinbefore provided, and state the time of holding the election. On the tenth day prior to a municipal election held on the first Tuesday in June the clerk, under like conditions, shall cause a similar notice to be published concerning that election. The commission may also provide for giving notice of such elections by other means.

En. Sec. 97, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.98. Names, how placed on ballot. At any municipal election held for the choice of members of the commission of [on] the first Tuesday in June following a municipal primary election there shall be printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines the names of the candidates receiving the highest number of votes at the municipal primary election, except the names of those elected to the commission thereat, and the number of names so printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines shall be equal to double the number of places remaining to be filled in the commission. If, by reason of their having received the same number of votes, it cannot be determined which of two or more candidates shall have his name, or their names, printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section the names of all such candidates receiving the same number of votes shall be printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines. The candidates for the commission at an election held on the first Tuesday in June, equal in number to the places remaining to be filled in the commission, who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected. A tie between two or more candidates shall be decided by lot in the presence of such candidates and under the direction of the clerk.

En. Sec. 98, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.99. Removal commissioner by recall. Any member of the commission may be removed from office by the electors of the municipality. The procedure for effecting such a removal shall be as follows:

Any elector of the municipality may make and file an affidavit with the clerk requesting that petition be issued demanding an election for the recall of any member of the commission. Any such affidavit shall state the name of the person whose removal from the commission is sought and the grounds alleged for such removal. Upon the filing of such an affidavit the clerk shall deliver to the elector making the affidavit copies of petition papers for demanding such an election, printed copies of which the clerk shall keep on file for distribution as herein provided. In issuing any such petition paper the clerk shall enter in a record to be kept in his office the name of the elector to whom issued, the date of issuance, the number of papers issued, and shall certify on each paper the name of the elector and the date of issuance. No petition paper shall be accepted as part of a petition unless it bear such certification of the clerk and unless filed as hereinafter provided.

En. Sec. 99, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.100. Recall petitions—Return and filing. A petition for a recall election to be effective must be returned and filed with the clerk within thirty days after the filing of the affidavit as provided in last preceding section, and to be sufficient must be signed by at least twenty per centum (20%) of the qualified electors of the municipality whose names appear on the official register of voters of the municipality on the date when such petition is returned and filed with the clerk. If any such petition is insufficient as originally filed it may be amended as provided in this act.

En. Sec. 100, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.101. Election on recall petition. If a petition for a recall election, or an amended petition, shall be certified by the clerk to be sufficient he shall at once submit it to the commission with his certificate to that effect and shall notify the member of the commission whose removal is sought of such action. Unless the member whose removal is sought resign within five days after such notice, the commission shall thereupon order and fix a day for holding a recall election. Any such election shall be held not less than ninety nor more than one hundred and twenty days after the petition has been presented to the commission and may be held at the same time as any other election held within such period; but, if no other election be held within such period, the commission shall call a special recall election to be held within the time aforesaid.

En. Sec. 101, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.102. Questions to be submitted on recall—Nomination candidates. The question of recalling any number of members of the commission may be submitted at the same election, but as to each member whose removal is sought a separate petition shall be filed and provision shall be made for an entirely separate printed ballot. Candidates to succeed any person whose removal is sought shall be placed in nomination by petition signed, filed and verified as provided for nominating petitions for a municipal primary election; except that each petition paper shall specify that the candidate named therein is a candidate to succeed a particular person whose removal is sought.

En. Sec. 102, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.103. Use of voting machines prohibited—Form of ballot. Voting machines shall not be used in recall elections, and the printed ballots shall be in form substantially as follows:

.....

En. Sec. 103, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.104. Effect of recall election. If a majority of the votes cast on the question of recalling a member of the commission as hereinbefore provided be against his recall he shall continue in office for the remainder of his unexpired term, but subject to recall as before. If a majority of such votes be for the recall of such member he shall, regardless of any defect in the recall petition, be deemed removed from office. When a member is removed from the commission by recall the candidate to succeed such member who receives the highest number of votes shall succeed the member so removed for the unexpired term.

En. Sec. 104, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.105. Resignation pending election. If a person in regard to whom a recall petition is submitted to the commission shall resign from office after notice thereof no election shall be held and some eligible person shall be chosen by a majority vote of the remaining members to fill the place for the unexpired term; but the member so resigning shall not be chosen by the commission to succeed himself.

En. Sec. 105, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.106. Limitation on recall petitions. No recall petition shall be filed in respect to any member of the commission within three months after he takes office nor in case of a member subjected to a recall election and not removed thereby, until at least six months after that election.

En. Sec. 106, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.107. Officer's perquisites—Limitations. No person elected or appointed to any office or position under the municipal government established by this act shall be entitled to or receive for his own use any fees, emoluments, commissions or perquisites other than the salary or compensation fixed by this act or by the commission, and all such fees, emoluments, commissions and perquisites ensuing out of the performance of official duty shall belong to the municipality and be paid into the treasury thereof at the times and in the manner provided by the general laws of the state.

En. Sec. 107, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.108. Political solicitation prohibited. No person holding an appointive office or position in the municipal government shall directly or indirectly solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political party or purpose whatever. No person shall orally or by letter solicit, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting, any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political party or purpose from any person holding an appointive office or position in the municipal government. No person shall use or promise to use his influence or official authority to secure any appointment, or prospective appointment to any position in the service of the municipality as a reward or return for personal or partisan political service. No person shall take part in preparing any political assessment, subscription or contribution with the intent that it should be sent or presented to or collected from any person in the service of the municipality, nor shall he knowingly send or present directly or indirectly, in person or otherwise, any political assessment, subscription or contribution to, or request its payment by any person in such service.

En. Sec. 108, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.109. Other political activities prohibited. No person in the service of the municipality shall discharge, suspend, lay off, reduce in grade, or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any person in such service or threaten to do so, for withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or service or any valuable thing for any political service. No person holding an appointive office or place in the municipal government shall act as an officer in a political organization, or serve as a member of a committee of any such organization, or circulate or seek signatures for any petition provided for by primary or election laws.

En. Sec. 109, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.110. Penalty. Any person who, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, wilfully or corruptly violates any of the provisions of sections 108 and 109 of this act shall be guilty of misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and if he be an officer or employee of the municipality he shall immediately forfeit his office or employment.

En. Sec. 110, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.111. Commissioner to hold no other office. No person elected to the commission shall, during the term for which elected, be appointed to any office or position in the service in the municipality. If a member of the commission shall become a candidate for any public office, other than that of commissioner, he shall immediately forfeit his place on the commission; and any appointive officer or employee of the municipality who shall become a candidate for nomination or election to any public office shall immediately forfeit the office or employment held under the municipality.

En. Sec. 111, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.112. Bonds of commissioner and other officers. The members of the commission, the manager, the director of finance, the purchasing agent, the director of law, the director of police, and such other officers and employees of the municipality as the commission requires so to do, shall, immediately upon taking office, give bonds with such surety as may be approved by the commission; but no officer or employee shall become surety upon the official bond of another officer or employee. Members of the commission shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars and other officers and employees shall give bonds in such amounts as the commission may require. The premium on all official bonds shall be paid by the municipality. All such bonds, except those of the manager and the director of finance, shall be filed with the director of finance. The official bonds of the manager and the director of finance shall be filed with and kept by the director of the department of law.

En. Sec. 112, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.113. Oath of office. Every officer of the municipality shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath or affirmation required of officers by the constitution of the state of Montana, which oath or affirmation shall be filed and kept in the office of the clerk.

En. Sec. 113, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.114. Interest of officers in contracts prohibited. No officer or employee of the municipality shall have a financial interest direct or indirect, in any contract therewith, or be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale to the municipality of any land, materials, supplies, or services except on behalf of the municipality as an officer or employee. Any wilful violation of this section shall constitute malfeasance in office, and any officer or employee found guilty thereof shall thereby forfeit his office or position. Any violation of this section with the knowledge, actual or implied, of the person or corporation contracting with the municipality shall render the contract involved voidable by the manager or the commission.

En. Sec. 114, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.115. Existing contracts continued. All contracts entered into by the county or by any city or town therein, or on behalf of any improvement district by such county or by any such city or town, prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, shall continue in full force and effect subsequently thereto. Public improvements, for which initial steps may have been taken under laws effective in the county prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, may thereafter be carried to completion in accordance with the provisions of such laws.

En. Sec. 115, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.116. Continuation of existing ordinances. The commission first elected may, at its first meeting, make an order that all existing ordinances and resolutions of some one city or town within the consolidated municipality, and which are of general application in such city or town, shall be continued in force and be extended throughout the consolidated municipality, and a copy of such order must be published at least once in each newspaper printed and published within the consolidated municipality within ten days after the making of such order. All other ordinances and resolutions of such city or town, and all ordinances of all other cities and towns within the consolidated municipality, save and except ordinances and resolutions relating to public improvements to be paid for in whole or in part by special assessments, shall, upon the making of such order, be deemed repealed.

En. Sec. 116, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.117. Temporary continuation existing officers. The members of the board of county commissioners of the county and members of the council of every city and town therein, holding office on the date when any election is held at which the question of the consolidation and merging of the county and city and town governments is approved and adopted by the qualified electors of the county, shall continue in office and in the performance of their duties until the first commission shall have been elected have qualified, whereupon such board of county commissioners and city and town councils shall be deemed abolished. All other persons holding offices or positions, whether elective or appointive, under the government of such county, or under the government of any city or town therein, at the date of such election, shall continue in the performance of the duties of their respective offices and positions until provision shall be made by the commission for the performance or discontinuance of such duties, or the discontinuance of such offices or positions.

En. Sec. 117, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.118. Official declarations—Merger, when effective—Legal status municipality. At the first meeting of the commission whose members are first elected under the provisions of this act, such commission shall adopt a resolution reciting the filing of the petition provided for in section 2 of this act, the ordering and hold [holding] of a special election as requested in such petition, the result of such election, and the holding of the special election for and the election of the members of the first commission, and the name and designation of the consolidated municipality, which resolution must be in duplicate, and signed by all of the members of the commission and also entered at length on the journal of the commission. One copy of such commission must be filed in the office of the clerk of the commission and the other copy thereof must be transmitted to and filed in the office of the secretary of state. Immediately upon the adoption of such resolution by the commission the separate corporate existence of the county and of each and every city and town therein shall be deemed to be consolidated and merged into one municipal corporation under the name selected, designated and adopted as provided in this act, and such consolidated municipality shall thereupon be deemed to have succeeded to, and to possess and own all of the property and assets of every kind and description and shall, save as herein otherwise provided, become responsible for all of the obligations and liabilities of the county, cities and towns so consolidated and merged. As a political subdivision of the state, such consolidated municipality shall have the status of a county, and for the purpose of representation in the legislative assembly, as provided by the constitution and laws of this state, and for all other purposes, it shall replace and be the successor of the county and shall be attached to the same judicial district.

En. Sec. 118, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.119. Transfers authorized. The commission shall have power to make all necessary regulations, not inconsistent with this act, for the transition from the several governments of and within the county to the government provided by this act, including the transfer to the treasury of the consolidated city and county of all funds and moneys of such several governments.

En. Sec. 119, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

5520.120. Effect partial invalidity act. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this act shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of the act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

En. Sec. 120, Ch. 121, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 64B.

CITY AND COUNTY OF BUTTE.

5520.121. Scope of act. The provisions of this act shall apply to the county of Silver Bow and to all cities and towns therein after the question of its adoption shall have been submitted to the electors of the county and approved by a majority of those voting thereon as hereinafter provided. Upon the adoption of this act by the voters of the county, and the election and qualification of a commission thereunder, the separate corporate existence and government of the county of Silver Bow and of each and every city and town therein shall be deemed consolidated and merged into one municipal corporation and government under the corporate name "city and county of Butte," which shall have the powers and be governed in the manner provided by this act. As a political subdivision of the state the city and county of Butte shall have the status of a county, and for the purpose of representation in the state legislature, as provided by the constitution and laws of Montana, and for all other purposes, it shall replace and be the successor of Silver Bow county. Until otherwise provided by law the city and county of Butte shall constitute the second judicial district of the state.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

This act, authorizing the consolidation of Silver Bow county and the city of Butte into one municipal corporation under section 7, article XVI, of the constitution, is not objectionable as depriving the people of that county and city of the power of local self-government, nor as denying to a creditor of either the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the fourteenth amendment to the federal constitution. State ex rel. Corry v. Cooney et al., 70 Mont. 355, 225 Pac. 1007.

The objection that under this act, inter alia providing that the question of the adoption of its provisions for the consolidation of the county of Silver Bow and all cities and towns therein shall be submitted to the electors of the county, residents of the city may vote away the property of the county, and residents outside of it may do the same with property of the city, held to be without merit State ex rel. Corry v. Cooney et al., 70 Mont. 355, 225 Pac. 1007.

The petitions filed with the county clerk of Silver Bow county asking for the submission to the electors of the question of the adoption of the plan for the consolidation of the county and the city of Butte under one government were not required to have a copy of chapter 160, L. 1923, authorizing such consolidation upon a favorable vote, attached to them, it being presumed that the electors had knowledge of the act, and the provisions of section 21 of the act relating to the referendum, having reference to ordinances passed by the consolidated government and not to the act itself. State ex rel. Corry v. Cooney et al., 70 Mont. 355, 225 Pac. 1007.

5520.122. Powers. The inhabitants of the municipality organized under the provisions of this act, as its limits are at the time of such organization or as they may thereafter be established as provided by law, shall be a body politic and corporate by name "city and county of Butte," and as such shall have perpetual succession; may use a corporate seal; may sue and be sued; may contract and be contracted with; may acquire property within or without the boundaries of the municipality for any municipal purpose in fee simple or lesser interest or estate by purchase, gift, devise, appropriation, lease or lease with privilege to purchase, and may sell, lease, hold, manage and control such property as the interest of the municipality may require; and, except as otherwise provided in this act, such municipality shall have and may exercise all other powers that now are or hereafter may be conferred on cities, towns and counties by the laws of this state. All powers of the municipality, whether expressed or implied, shall be exercised and enforced in the manner prescribed in this act, or when not so prescribed, then as may be provided by ordinance or resolution of the commission.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.123. The commission. Except as otherwise provided in this act all powers of the municipality shall be vested in a commission of seven members nominated and elected as hereinafter provided. The term of members of the commission shall be for two years and shall begin on the first day of July next following their election. If a vacancy occur in the commission, except as the result of a recall election, some eligible person shall be chosen by a majority vote of the remaining members to fill the place for the unexpired term. Members of the commission shall be qualified electors of the municipality and shall not hold any other public office except that of notary public or member of the state militia.

A member of the commission ceasing to possess any of the qualifications specified in this section shall immediately forfeit his office.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.124. Meetings. At two o'clock P. M. on the first day of July following a regular municipal election the commission shall meet at the courthouse in Butte and the newly elected members shall assume the duties of office. Thereafter the commission shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution, but not less frequently than once each month. Special meetings shall be called by the clerk upon the written request of the president, the manager, or a majority of the members of the commission. Any such notice shall state the subject to be considered at the meeting and no other subject shall be there considered. All meetings of the commission, and of committees thereof, shall be open to the public and the rules of the commission shall provide that citizens of the municipality shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard at any such meeting in regard to any matter considered thereat.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.125. Powers of commission. The commission shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall keep a journal of its proceedings. It shall be judge of the election of its own members and, in such cases, shall have power to subpoena witnesses and compel the production of all pertinent books, records, and papers. It shall have power to compel the attendance of absent members, may punish its members for disorderly behavior and, by vote of not less than six members, may expel a member for disorderly conduct or the repeated violation of its rules; but no member shall be expelled unless notified of the charge against him and given an opportunity to be heard.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.126. President—Election and powers. At its meeting on the first day of July following a regular municipal election the commission shall choose one of its members as president and another as vice-president. The president shall preside at meetings of the commission and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed by this act and the ordinances of the municipality. He shall be recognized as the official head of the municipality for all ceremonial purposes, by the courts for serving civil processes, and by the governor for purposes of military law. In time of public danger or emergency he shall, if authorized by vote of the commission, take command of the police, maintain order and enforce the law. If a vacancy occur in the office of president, or in case of his absence or disability, the vice-president shall act as president for the unexpired term or during the continuance of the absence or disability.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.127. Duties of director of finance. The director of finance shall be ex-officio clerk of the commission and shall either in person or by deputy keep the records of the commission and perform such other duties as may be required by this act or by the commission.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.128. Quorum and voting. A majority of the members elected to the commission shall constitute a quorum to do business but a less number may adjourn from time to time and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the commission shall be necessary to adopt any ordinance, resolution, order or vote; except that a vote to adjourn, or regarding the attendance of absent members, may be adopted by a majority of the members present.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.129. Compensation and mileage of commissioners—Absences. The commission may by ordinance provide compensation for its members to be paid in equal monthly or quarterly installments; but the total amount of any such compensation for each member, except the president, shall not exceed eighteen hundred ($1800) dollars per year. The compensation of the president shall not be less than that of other members of the commission and may be fixed at a rate not more than twenty per centum (20%) in excess of that provided for such other members. Any member absent from a regular or regularly called meeting of the commission, except on leave of the commission or on account of his own illness, shall forfeit one per centum (1%) of his annual compensation for each such absence. Absence from all regular meetings for a period of ninety days shall operate to vacate the seat of a member unless such absence be authorized by the commission. In addition to any compensation authorized by this section, each member of the commission shall receive ten cents per mile for any distance, in excess of ten miles, necessarily traveled in going from and returning to his residence because of attendance upon a regular, or regularly called meeting of the commission.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.130. Ordinances—Regulation of. Ordinances and resolutions shall be introduced in the commission only in written or printed form. All ordinances or resolutions, except ordinances making appropriations, shall be confined to one subject which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except as provided in the next succeeding section of this act. Ordinances making appropriations shall be confined to the subject of appropriations. No ordinance shall be passed until it has been read on three separate days, unless the requirement of reading on three separate days has been dispensed with by a vote of not less than six members of the commission. The final reading shall be in full unless a written or printed copy of the measure shall have been furnished to each member of the commission prior to such reading. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the commission shall be "Be it ordained by the city and county of Butte." The enacting clause of all ordinances submitted by the initiative shall be "Be it ordained by the people of the city and county of Butte."

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.131. Publication of ordinances. Ordinances may be revised, codified, re-arranged and published in book form under appropriate titles, chapters and sections and such revisions and codification may be made in one ordinance containing one or more subjects. The publication of such revision and codification in book form as aforesaid shall be held to be a sufficient publication of the ordinance or several ordinances contained in such revision and codification. Any such publication of a revision or codification of ordinances in book form shall contain a certificate of the president and clerk of the correctness of such revision, codification and publication; and such book so published shall be received in evidence in any court for the purpose of proving the ordinance or ordinances therein contained, the same and for the same purpose as the original book, ordinances, minutes, or journals would be received.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.132. Ordinances, how revised. No ordinance, resolution or section thereof shall be revised or amended unless the new ordinance or resolution contain the entire ordinance, resolution or section thereof as revised or amended.

En. Sec. 12, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.133. Effective date of ordinances—Emergency measures. Ordinances making the annual tax levy appropriation ordinances, ordinances, and resolutions providing for local improvements and assessments, and emergency measures, shall take effect at the time indicated therein. All other ordinances and resolutions enacted by the commission shall be in effect from and after thirty days from the date of their passage. Ordinances adopted by the electors shall take effect at the time fixed therein or, if no time be specified, thirty days after the adoption thereof. An emergency measure is an ordinance or resolution to provide for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, in which the emergency claimed is set forth and defined in a preamble thereto. The affirmative vote of at least six members of the commission shall be required to pass any ordinance or resolution as an emergency measure. No measure making or amending a grant, renewal or extension of a franchise or other special privilege, shall ever be passed as an emergency measure.

En. Sec. 13, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.134. Recording and authentication ordinances. Every ordinance or resolution upon its final passage shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose and shall be authenticated by the signatures of the president and clerk. Within ten days after its final passage each ordinance or resolution shall be published at least once in such manner as the commission may by ordinance provide.

En. Sec. 14, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.135. The initiative. Any proposed ordinance, except an ordinance making a tax levy, may be submitted to the commission by petitions signed by electors of the municipality equal in number to at least ten per centum (10%) of those who voted at the last regular municipal election. All petition papers circulated with respect to any proposed ordinance shall be uniform in character and shall contain the proposed ordinance in full.

En. Sec. 15, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.136. Certification and submission initiative petitions. If an initiative petition, or amended petition, be found sufficient by the clerk he shall so certify and shall submit the ordinance therein set forth to the commission at its next meeting, and the commission shall at once read and refer it to an appropriate committee, which may be a committee of the whole. Provisions shall be made for public hearings upon the proposed ordinance before the committee to which it is referred. Thereafter the committee shall report the ordinance to the commission, with its recommendations thereon, not later than sixty days after the date on which such ordinance was submitted to the commission by the clerk. Upon receiving the ordinance from the committee the commission shall proceed at once to consider it and shall take final action thereon within thirty days from the date of such committee report.

En. Sec. 16, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.137. Submission of ordinances to electors. If the commission fail to pass an ordinance proposed by initiative petition, or pass it in a form different from that set forth in the petition therefor, the committee of the petitioners hereinafter provided for may require that it be submitted to a vote of the electors either in its original form or with any change or amendment presented in writing either at a public hearing before the committee to which the proposed ordinance was referred or during the consideration thereof by the commission. If the committee of petitioners require the submission of the proposed ordinance to a vote of the electors they shall certify that fact to the clerk and file in this office a certified copy of the ordinance, in the form in which it is to be submitted, within ten days after final action on such ordinance by the commission.

En. Sec. 17, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.138. Time for submission. Upon receipt of the certified copy of a proposed ordinance from the committee of the petitioners the clerk shall certify the fact to the commission at its next regular meeting. If a municipal election is to be held not more than six months or less than thirty days after the receipt of the clerk's certificate by the commission, such proposed ordinance shall be submitted to a vote of the electors at such election. If no such election is to be held within the time aforesaid the commission may provide for submitting the proposed ordinance to the electors at a special election to be held not sooner than thirty days after the receipt of the clerk's certificate. If no municipal election be held within six months as aforesaid, and the commission does not provide for a special election, the proposed ordinance shall be submitted to the electors at the first election held after the expiration of such six months. If, when submitted to the electors, a majority of those voting on a proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, it shall thereupon be an ordinance of the municipality.

En. Sec. 18, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.139. Submission of amended ordinances. When an ordinance proposed by initiative petition is passed by the commission in a changed or amended form, and the committee of the petitioners require that such proposed ordinance be submitted to a vote of the electors as hereinbefore provided, the ordinance as passed by the commission shall not take effect until after such vote and, if the proposed ordinance so submitted, be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the ordinance as passed by the commission shall be deemed repealed.

En. Sec. 19, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.140. Submission of repealing ordinances. Proposed ordinances for repealing any existing ordinance or ordinances, in whole or in part, may be submitted to the commission as provided in the preceding sections for initiating ordinances. Initiated ordinances adopted by the electors shall be published, and may be amended or repealed by the commission, as in the case of other ordinances.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.141. The referendum. The electors shall have power to approve or reject at the polls any ordinance passed by the commission, except an appropriation ordinance, or ordinance making a tax levy or an emergency measure, such power being known as the referendum. Ordinances submitted to the commission by initiative petition and passed by the commission without change, or passed in an amended form and not required by the committee of the petitioners to be submitted by a vote of the electors, shall be subject to the referendum in the same manner as other ordinances. If, within thirty days after the final passage of an ordinance, a petition signed by electors equal in number to at least ten per centum (10%) of those who voted at the last preceding regular municipal election be filed with the clerk requesting that the ordinance, or any specified part thereof, be either repealed or submitted to a vote of the electors, it shall not become operative until the steps indicated herein have been taken. Referendum petitions shall contain the text of the ordinance, or part thereof, the repeal of which is sought.

En. Sec. 21, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.142. Certification petitions—Reconsideration—Submission. If a referendum petition, or amendment petition be found sufficient by the clerk he shall certify that fact to the commission at its next regular meeting and the ordinance or part thereof set forth in the petition shall not go into effect, or further action thereunder shall be suspended if it shall have gone into effect, until approved by the electors as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of the clerk's certificate the commission shall proceed to reconsider the ordinance or part thereof and its final vote upon such reconsideration shall be upon the question "Shall the ordinance

En. Sec. 22, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.143. Ballot title—Voting. Ordinances, or parts thereof, submitted to vote of the electors in accordance with the initiative and referendum provisions of this act shall be submitted by ballot title which shall be prepared in all cases by the director of law. The ballot title may be distinct from the legal title of any such proposed or referred ordinance and shall be a clear, concise statement, without argument or prejudice, descriptive of the substance of such ordinance, or part thereof. The ballot used in voting upon any such ordinance, or part thereof, shall have below the ballot title the two following propositions, one above the other, in the order indicated: "For the ordinance" and "Against the ordinance." Immediately at the left of each proposition there shall be a square in which by making a cross-mark (X) the elector may vote for or against the ordinance or part thereof. Any number of ordinances, or parts thereof, may be voted upon at the same election and may be submitted on the same ballot, but the ballot used for voting thereon shall be for that purpose only.

En. Sec. 23, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.144. Preliminary acts. In case a petition be filed requiring that an ordinance passed by the commission providing for an expenditure of money, a bond issue, or a public improvement be submitted to a vote of the electors, all steps preliminary to such actual expenditure, actual issuance of bonds, or actual execution of the contract for such improvement, may be taken prior to the election.

En. Sec. 24, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.145. Initiative referendum and recall petition. The signature to initiative referendum or recall petitions need not all be appended to one paper, but to each separate petition paper there shall be attached an affidavit of the circulator thereof as provided by this section. Each signer of any such petition paper shall sign his name in ink or indelible pencil and shall indicate after his name his place of residence by street and number, or other description sufficient to identify the place. There shall appear on each petition paper the names and addresses of five electors of the municipality, on each paper the names and addresses of the same five electors, who, as a committee of the petitioners, shall be regarded as responsible for the circulation and filing of the petition. The affidavit attached to the petition shall be as follows:

State of Montana,

City and County of Butte,

} ss.

..... being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is the circulator of the foregoing paper and that the signatures appended thereto were made in his presence and are the genuine signatures of the persons whose names they purport to be.

Signed
Subscribed and sworn to before me this day of 19.....

Notary Public.

En. Sec. 25, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.146. Assembling, certification and filing of papers. All petition papers comprising an initiative referendum or recall petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk as one instrument. Within ten days after a petition is filed the clerk shall determine whether it is signed by a sufficient number of electors and shall attach thereto a certificate showing the result of his examination. If he shall certify that the petition is insufficient he shall be set forth in his certificate the particulars in which it is defective and shall at once notify the committee of the petitioners of his findings.

En. Sec. 26, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.147. Amendment of petition. An initiative, referendum or recall petition may be amended at any time within ten days after the making of a certificate of insufficiency by the clerk, by filing a supplementary petition upon additional papers signed and filed as provided in case of an original petition. The clerk shall, within five days after such an amendment is filed, make examination of the amended petition and, if his certificate shall show the petition still to be insufficient he shall file it in his office and notify the committee of the petitioners of his findings and no further action shall be had on such insufficient petition. The finding of the insufficiency of a petition shall not prejudice the filing of a new petition for the same purpose.

En. Sec. 27, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.148. Administrative service—Appointment and removal of manager. The commission shall appoint a manager who shall be the chief executive officer of the municipality. He shall be chosen by the commission solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications and need not when appointed be a resident of the municipality. No member of the commission shall, during the time for which elected, be chosen manager. The manager shall not be appointed for a definite term but shall be removable at the pleasure of the commission. In case the commission determine to remove the manager he shall, if he so demand, be given a written statement of the reasons alleged for the proposed removal and the right to be heard thereon at a public meeting of the commission prior to the date on which his final removal shall take effect, but pending and during such hearing the commission may suspend him from office.

The action of the commission in suspending or removing the manager shall be final, it being the intention of this act to vest all authority and fix all responsibility for any such suspension or removal in the commission. In case of the absence or disability of the manager the commission may designate some responsible person to perform the duties of the office. The manager shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the commission.

En. Sec. 28, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.149. Responsibility of manager—Appointments. The manager shall be responsible to the commission for the proper administration of the affairs of the municipality placed in his charge and to that end shall appoint all officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality, except as otherwise provided in this act and except as he may authorize the head of a department or office responsible to him to appoint subordinates in such department or office. Appointments by or under the authority of the manager shall be confined to citizens of the municipality, except in such specific cases as the commission may suspend this requirement, and shall be on the basis of the ability, training and experience of the appointees in the work which they are to perform. All such appointments shall be without definite term unless for temporary service not to exceed sixty days.

En. Sec. 29, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.150. Procedure for removal or suspension officers or employees. Any officer or employees of the municipality appointed by the manager, or upon his authorization, may be laid off, suspended or removed from office or employment either by the manager or the officer by whom appointed. Verbal or written notice of lay-off, suspension or removal given to an officer or employee, or written notice left at or mailed to his usual place of residence, shall be sufficient to put any such lay-off, suspension, or removal into effect unless the person so notified shall, within five days of such notice, demand a written statement of reasons therefor and the right to be heard thereon before the manager. Upon such demand the officer making the lay-off, suspension or removal shall supply the person notified thereof with a written statement of the reasons therefor and the manager shall fix a time and place for the public hearing. Following the public hearing the manager shall either confirm the lay-off, suspension or removal as specified in the notice, reinstate the person so notified in the service, or make such other disposition of the matter as, in his opinion, the good of the service may require. The decision of the manager in any such case shall be final, and there shall be no appeal therefrom to any officer, body or court whatsoever. A copy of the written statement of reasons given for any lay-off, suspension or removal, and a copy of any written reply thereto by the officer or employee involved, together with a copy of the decision of the manager, shall be filed as a public record in the office of the clerk.

En. Sec. 30, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.151. Restrictions on power of commission. Neither the commission nor any of its committees or members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to, or his removal from office, or employment by the manager or any of his subordinates, or in any manner take part in the appointment or removal of officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the commission and its members shall deal with that portion of the administrative service for which the manager is responsible solely through the manager and neither the commission nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the manager either publicly or privately. Any violation of the provisions of this section by a member of the commission shall be a misdemeanor, conviction of which shall immediately forfeit the office of the member so convicted.

En. Sec. 31, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.152. Duties of manager. It shall be the duty of the manager to supervise the administration of the affairs of the municipality; to see that the ordinances of the municipality and the laws of the state are enforced; to make such recommendations to the commission concerning the affairs of the municipality as may seem to him desirable; to keep the commission advised of the financial conditions and future needs of the municipality; to prepare and submit to the commission such reports as may be required by that body; and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this act or be required of him by ordinances or resolutions of the commission.

En. Sec. 32, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.153. Who entitled to be present at meetings. The manager, the directors of all departments, and all other officers of the municipality shall be entitled to be present at all sessions of the commission. The manager shall have the right to take part in the discussion of all matters coming before the commission and the directors and other officers shall be entitled to take part in all discussions of the commission relating to their respective departments and offices.

En. Sec. 33, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.154. Departments—Control by commission. There shall be a department of law, a department of finance, a police department, a department of public works, a department of health, a fire department and such other departments and offices as may be established by ordinance. The commission may change or abolish any department or office established by ordinance and may prescribe, combine, distribute or discontinue the functions and duties thereof. Additional functions and duties may be assigned by ordinance to departments and offices established by this act, but no function or duty assigned by this act to any such department or office shall be discontinued or assigned to any other department or office. If the manager so recommend, and the commission so authorize, the manager may appoint one person to act, or may himself act, as the head of two or more departments or offices; but neither the department of law nor the police department, nor the office of assessor, shall thus be joined with any other department, nor shall the manager be authorized to act as head of either of said departments or offices, or of the department of finance, nor shall he be permitted to conduct any office in said department of finance other than that of purchasing agent.

5520.155. Employment assistants. The number of assistants or other subordinates to be employed in or by each administrative department or office shall be fixed by the commission or by the manager under direction of the commission; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize said commission or manager to reduce the number of deputies allowed by the general laws of the state to the officers of said municipality performing the duties of county attorney, sheriff and assessor.

En. Sec. 35, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.156. List of employees—Duty of treasurer. The director of finance shall maintain in his office a list of all persons in the administrative service of the municipality, showing in connection with each name the position held, the date of appointment, the character of employment, and the rate of compensation. Each appointing officer shall promptly transmit to the director of finance such information regarding his department or office as may be necessary to keep this list accurate in all respects at all times. The treasurer shall not pay, nor shall the director of finance issue any warrant for the payment of, any salary or compensation to any person whose name does not appear upon such list, nor shall payment be made at a rate other than that specified on such list. Any sums paid contrary to the foregoing provisions of this section may be recovered from any officer paying or authorizing the payment thereof or from the surety on his official bond. If through the failure of any officer to give information to the director of finance as required in this section, or through omission or error in such information, payment is made to any person whose name should not be on such list, or payment is made in excess of the amount which any person whose name is rightfully on the list should receive, then the amount of any such payment or excess payment may be recovered from the officer by reason of whose failure, omission or error the payment or excess payment was made, or from the surety on his official bond.

En. Sec. 36, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.157. Compensation of officers and employees—Schedules. The compensation of officers and employees in the administrative service of the municipality shall be fixed by ordinance, but all positions in such service except those of heads of departments and heads of offices not included within regular departments, shall, for purposes of compensation, be graded and classified by the manager according to duties and responsibilities. The commission shall by ordinance establish a schedule of compensation for the positions so graded and classified which shall prescribe uniform compensation for like service as determined by the grading and classification of the manager. Such schedule of compensation may establish a minimum and maximum for any grade, and an increase in compensation within the limits provided for any grade may be granted by the manager upon the basis of efficiency and seniority. Provided, however, that no such ordinance shall authorize the reduction of any salaries fixed herein or by the general laws of the state for the officers of said municipality performing the duties of county attorney and his deputies, sheriff and his deputies, and assessor and his deputies.

En. Sec. 37, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.158. Citizens' advisory board. The manager may appoint a board of citizens qualified to act in an advisory capacity to the head of any specified department or office. The members of all such boards shall serve without compensation and it shall be their duty to consult and advise with the officer in charge of the department or office for which they are appointed but not to direct the conduct of such department or office. Public meetings of such boards may be called for the consideration of the affairs of the department or office for which they are appointed.

En. Sec. 38, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.159. Investigation of departments—Subpoenas. The commission, the manager, or any person or committee authorized by either of them, shall have power to inquire into the conduct of any department or office of the municipality and to make investigations as to municipal affairs, and for that purpose may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the production of books, papers, and other evidence. It shall be the duty of the manager to designate a police officer to serve such subpoenas. The commission shall provide by ordinance the penalty or penalties for contempt in refusing to obey any such subpoena, or to produce such books, papers and other evidence, and shall have the power to punish any such contempt in the manner provided by ordinance.

En. Sec. 39, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.160. Department of law—Attorney, salary and duties. The department of law shall be in charge of a director who may be styled city and county attorney; he shall be a resident elector of the city and county of Butte, at least thirty (30) years of age, and a member of the bar of this state in good standing; he shall be elected by the electors of said municipality at the same time and in the same manner as members of the commission are elected, shall hold office for two years, and shall receive an annual salary of four thousand ($4,000) dollars, including any amount paid by the state; he shall have all the powers, either personally or by such deputies or assistants as he may designate, and shall perform all the duties that now are or hereafter may be prescribed by law for county attorneys and for public administrators, and in addition thereto he shall be the chief legal advisor of and attorney and counsel for the municipality and all departments, and offices thereof, and shall perform such other legal duties as may be required by the commission.

En. Sec. 40, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.161. Director of finance—Powers and duties. The director of finance shall have charge of the administration of the financial affairs of the municipality, including the keeping and supervision of all accounts; the custody and disbursement of municipal funds and moneys; the issuance of licenses; the collection of license fees; the control over expenditures, the purchase, storage and distribution of supplies needed by the municipality; and such other duties as the commission may by ordinance require. Except as herein otherwise provided, he shall also have all powers and perform all duties imposed upon county clerks, recorders and auditors by general law.

En. Sec. 41, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.162. Statement of revenues. The director of finance shall prepare and submit to the commission each month a summary statement of revenues and expenses for the preceding month, detailed as to appropriations and funds in such manner as to show the exact financial condition of the municipality and of each department, and office thereof as of the last day of such month.

En. Sec. 42, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.163. Division of audit and account. There shall be in the department of finance a division of audit and accounts of which the director of finance shall himself be the head. As head of such office he shall be charged with keeping the books of financial account for all departments and offices of the municipality and, whenever practicable, such books and accounts shall be kept in the office of the division of audit and accounts. Report shall be made daily to the division of audit and accounts by each department and office showing the receipt of all moneys and the disposition thereof.

En. Sec. 43, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.164. Audit of books of officers when made—Suits to recover. Upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of any officer of the municipality the director of finance shall cause an audit and investigation of the accounts of such officer to be made and shall report to the manager and the commission. Either the commission or the manager may at any time provide for an examination or audit of the accounts of any officer or department of the municipal government. In case of the death, resignation or removal of the director of finance, the manager shall cause an audit to be made of his accounts. If, as a result of any such audit, an officer be found indebted to the municipality the director of finance, or other person making such audit, shall immediately give notice thereof to the commission, the manager and the director of law and the latter shall forthwith proceed to collect such indebtedness.

En. Sec. 44, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.165. Division of treasury. There shall be in the department of finance a division to the treasury, the head of which shall be treasurer of the municipality, and who shall also perform the duties required of county treasurers by general law. All moneys received by any officer or employee of the municipality for or in connection with the business of the municipality shall be paid promptly into the treasury. The commission shall by ordinance provide for the prompt and regular payment of such money into the treasury and shall also, in the manner hereinafter provided, designate the banking institutions with which it shall be deposited.

En. Sec. 45, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.166. Purchasing agent. There shall be in the department of finance a division of purchases and supplies at the head of which there shall be a purchasing agent. The purchasing agent shall make all purchases for the municipality in the manner, and with such exceptions, as may be provided by ordinance and shall, under such regulations as may be provided by ordinance, sell all property, real and personal, of the municipality not needed for public use or that may have become unsuitable for use. He shall have charge of such storerooms and warehouses of the municipality as the commission may by ordinance provide.

En. Sec. 46, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.167. Supplies, how purchased. Before making any purchase or sale the purchasing agent shall give opportunity for competition, under such rules and regulations as the commission may by ordinance establish. Supplies required by any department or office of the municipality may be furnished upon requisition from the stores under the control of the purchasing agent, and whenever so furnished shall be paid for by the department or office furnished therewith by warrant made payable to the credit of the stores account of the division of purchases and supplies. The purchasing agent shall not furnish any supplies to any department or office unless there be to the credit thereof an available unencumbered appropriation balance sufficient to pay for such supplies.

En. Sec. 47, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.168. Assessor — Election — Qualifications — Duties — Salary. The assessment of all property within the municipality shall be performed by the assessor thereof; the assessor shall be elected by the electors of said municipality at the same time and in the same manner as members of the commission are elected; he shall possess all the qualifications prescribed by the general laws of the state for county assessors; he and his deputies shall have the powers and shall qualify in the manner prescribed by general law for county assessors and deputy assessors; he shall perform all the duties prescribed by the general laws of the state for county assessors, and in addition thereto such other duties as may be prescribed by this act; he shall hold office for two years and receive an annual salary of three thousand five hundred ($3,500) dollars.

En. Sec. 48, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.169. Tax maps. It shall be the duty of the assessor in assessing property within the municipality to install tax maps and land value maps and to record separately the value of each parcel of land and the value of any building or structure thereon. The tax maps shall show the dimensions of each separately assessed parcel of land, and the land value maps shall show the value per front foot, according to a standard unit of depth, of all land abutting on any street, public way or place within the municipality; but as to acreage tracts and land which does not so abut the land value maps shall show the value per acre. All such maps and other records of the assessor shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

En. Sec. 49, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.170. Duties assessor as to special assessments. The assessor shall also be in charge of the preparation of all special assessments for public improvements; the giving of notice of such assessments to property owners; and the certification of all unpaid assessments to the director of finance.

En. Sec. 50, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.171. Financial procedure—Budget. The fiscal year of the municipality shall begin with the first day of July and shall end with the next succeeding thirtieth day of June. On or before the fifteenth day of May of each year the manager shall prepare and submit to the commission a budget estimate of the expense of conducting the affairs of the municipality for the ensuing fiscal year. The budget shall be compiled from detailed information obtained from the several departments and offices on uniform blanks furnished by the manager. The classification of the estimate shall be as nearly uniform as possible for the main functional divisions of such departments and offices and shall give the following information:—

(1) A detailed estimate of the expense of conducting each department and office of the municipality for the ensuing fiscal year;

(2) Expenditures for corresponding items for the current and last preceding fiscal years with reasons for increases or decreases recommended as compared with appropriations for the current year;

(3) The value of supplies and materials on hand at the date of the preparation of the estimate;

(4) The total amount of general municipal debt outstanding and also the total debt outstanding of each special district, together with a schedule of maturities of bond issues;

(5) A statement of the amounts which should be appropriated to the sinking fund,

(a) For interest on the general municipal debt,

(b) For paying off any serial bonds maturing during the year,

(c) For the aggregate of the equal installments required to be appropriated annually during the life of all other bonds of the municipality in order to accumulate a fund sufficient to pay off such bonds at maturity.

(d) For similar items on account of the principal and interest of the debt of each special district.

(6) A separate statement indicating any deficiency in the sinking fund and the amount to be appropriated to replace such deficiency as a whole, or the amount of the equal annual installment thereof to be appropriated each year for a specified number of years in order that obligations based on the sinking fund shall be retired as they mature;

(7) An estimate of the amount which should be appropriated for contingent or emergency purposes;

(8) An itemization of all anticipated revenue of the municipality from sources other than taxes;

(9) An estimate of the amount of money to be raised from taxes which, with revenue from other sources, would be necessary to meet the expenditures proposed;

(10) Such other information as the manager may think desirable or as may be required by the commission.

The commission shall provide for printing a reasonable number of copies of the estimate thus prepared for distribution to citizens. Copies shall also be furnished to the newspapers of the municipality and to each library thereof which is open to the public.

En. Sec. 51, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.172. Appropriation ordinance. Upon receipt of the budget estimate the commission shall at once prepare an appropriation ordinance using the budget estimate as a basis. The form, arrangement and itemization of the appropriation ordinance shall be determined and prescribed by the director of finance. Provision shall be made by the commission for public hearings upon the appropriation ordinance before the commission sitting as a committee of the whole. Following the public hearings the appropriation ordinance shall take the same course in the commission as other ordinances but shall not be passed before the first meeting of the commission in July. Upon final passage the appropriation ordinance shall be published in the manner provided for other ordinances.

En. Sec. 52, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.173. Tax levy. After the passage of the annual appropriation ordinance by the commission, and as soon as may be after the state board of equalization shall have transmitted to the municipality its statement of any changes made in the assessment-book of the municipality or of any assessment contained therein, the director of finance shall report in writing to the commission the rate of tax levy required for the municipality in general, and for each special district, to produce an amount of revenue which, together with estimated revenue from other sources, will equal the appropriations made for the municipality as a whole and for each such district. Upon receipt of the report of the director of finance, the commission shall by ordinance levy taxes upon all the taxable property in the municipality, and upon each special district thereof, at the rate specified in such report unless, by amendment of the appropriation ordinance and a reduction of the appropriations the levy of a lower rate be made possible; but no such amendment shall reduce the appropriations made to the sinking fund as recommended by the manager. If the commission determine by amendment and reduction of its appropriations to provide for a lower rate of tax levy the director of finance shall, upon the completion of such amendment and reduction, likewise report to the commission the rate of tax levy required under such amended ordinance, and the commission shall not levy taxes at any other rate than that reported to be required by the director of finance in accordance with the provisions in this section.

En. Sec. 53, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.174. Limitation on tax levy. No ordinance making the annual tax levy and fixing the rate to be levied upon all property within the municipality at more than fifteen mills on each dollar of the taxable valuation shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of at least six members of the commission, and such tax levy made by the commission shall not exceed twenty mills unless the question of levying a higher tax rate for a specified year or years be submitted to the electors of the municipality and approved by a majority of those voting thereon; but in no case shall such total tax levy be more than twenty-five mills.

En. Sec. 54, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.175. Special districts—Limitation on taxes. The commission may by ordinance designate clearly specified districts in or for which special services are to be performed and may levy upon the property in any such district such tax, in addition to any taxes authorized by section 54 of this act, as may be necessary to pay the cost of such special service or services. Any such additional tax levied under the authority of this section upon the property within any district shall not exceed ten mills unless the portion of the annual tax levy ordinance providing therefor shall have been separately voted on and passed by the affirmative vote of at least six members of the commission, and shall not exceed fifteen mills unless the question of levying a higher rate for a specified year or years shall have been submitted to the electors of the district and approved by a majority of those voting thereon; but in no case shall such additional levy be more than twenty mills.

En. Sec. 55, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.176. Tax limits, application of. The tax limits provided by sections 54 and 55 of this act shall apply only to taxes levied for purposes other than to provide for paying the interest and principal of the debt of the municipality or any district thereof. Taxes required by this act to be levied on account of the debt of the municipality, or any district thereof, shall not be affected by such limits nor shall such taxes be considered in determining the limits of taxation fixed by sections 54 and 55 of this act.

En. Sec. 56, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.177. Collection of taxes. All taxes levied by the municipality shall be collected and payable in the manner, at the time and under the penalties prescribed by law for the collection and payment of state and county taxes.

En. Sec. 57, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.178. Continuation existing districts—Tax levy for. The district comprised within the boundaries of any city, town or district existing within the county at the time of the adoption of this act by the electors thereof shall, for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of any debt incurred by such city, town or district prior to such adoption, be continued as a special district until such debt shall have been paid, and the commission shall, in the annual tax levy ordinance, levy upon the property within each such district such tax, in addition to all other taxes, as the director of finance shall report to be necessary to provide for paying the interest on each such debt as it falls due and the principal thereof as it matures, and no other property within the municipality shall be taxable or made liable for the payment of any such debt. The commission shall likewise provide in the annual tax levy ordinance for the levy of such tax upon all property within the municipality as the director of finance shall report to be necessary to provide for paying the interest as it falls due and the principal as it matures of any debt of the municipality as a whole. The tax levy for the debt of the municipality as a whole, and the tax levy for the debt of each such district, shall each be a separate levy and shall be distinct from and in addition to all other tax levies, and the proceeds of each such tax levy shall be placed in a separate fund for the payment of the interest and principal of the debt for which the tax was levied.

En. Sec. 58, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

Under this section creditors of the county, city and town consolidated under one government who became so before consolidation are fully protected, and that therefore the claim that the effect of the act is to deprive them of their security for the payment of their claims and thus to impair the obligations of their contracts has no merit. State ex rel. Corry v. Cooney et al., 70 Mont. 355, 225 Pac. 1007.

5520.179. Effect of general tax laws. The provisions of any general law authorizing counties, cities or towns to levy taxes for a specified purpose and at not to exceed a specified rate shall not limit the city and county of Butte in its expenditures for any purpose so specified. Any tax for county purposes required by the general laws of Montana to be levied by counties shall be included in the tax rate fixed for all property within the municipality, and the commission shall include in the annual appropriation ordinance an appropriation for the purpose for which such tax is required to be levied in the amount which the director of finance estimates that such tax would yield if separately levied.

En. Sec. 59, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.180. Transfer of balances. Upon the written recommendation of the manager the commission may at any time transfer an unencumbered balance of an appropriation made by the commission to a purpose or object for which the appropriation for the current year has proved insufficient, or may authorize a transfer to be made between items appropriated for the same department or office.

En. Sec. 60, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.181. Money, how drawn from treasury—Reversion of balances. No money shall be drawn from the treasury of the municipality, nor shall any obligation for the expenditure of money be incurred, except in pursuance of the annual appropriation ordinance as passed by the commission, or of such ordinance changed as authorized by the next preceding section of this act. At the close of each fiscal year any unencumbered balance of an appropriation shall revert to the fund from which appropriated and shall be subject to re-appropriation; but appropriations may be made by the commission, to be paid out of the revenues of the current year, in furtherance of improvements or other objects or works which will not be completed within such year, and any such appropriation shall continue in force until the purpose for which it was made shall have been accomplished or abandoned.

En. Sec. 61, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.182. Accounts to be kept. Accounts shall be kept for each item of appropriation made by the commission, and every warrant on the treasury shall state specifically against which of such items the warrant is drawn. Each such account shall show in detail the appropriations made thereto, the amount drawn thereon, the unpaid obligations charged against it, and the unencumbered balance to the credit thereof.

En. Sec. 62, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.183. Claims, how paid. No claim against the municipality shall be paid except by means of a warrant on the treasury issued by the director of finance. The director of finance shall issue no warrant for the payment of a claim unless the claim be evidenced by a voucher approved by the head of the department or office for which the indebtedness was incurred, and each such officer and his surety shall be liable to the municipality for all loss or damage sustained by reason of his negligent or corrupt approval of any claim.

En. Sec. 63, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.184. Examination of pay-rolls. The director of finance shall examine all pay-rolls, bills and other claims and demands against the municipality and shall issue no warrant for payment unless he finds that the claim is in proper form, correctly computed and duly approved; that it is legally due and payable; that an appropriation has been made therefor which has not been exhausted; and that there is money in the treasury to make payment. He may investigate any claim and for that purpose may summon before him any officer, agent or employee of the municipality, any claimant or other person, and examine him upon oath or affirmation relative thereto, and if he finds a claim to be fraudulent, erroneous or otherwise invalid, he shall not issue a warrant therefor. If the director of finance issue a warrant on the treasury authorizing payment of any claim in contravention of the provisions of this section he and his sureties shall be individually liable to the municipality for the amount of such warrant if paid.

En. Sec. 64, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.185. Certification of director before making contracts. No contract, agreement or other obligation, other than contracts pertaining to work or improvements to be paid for by special assessments, involving the expenditure of money out of appropriations made by the commission shall be entered into, nor shall any order for such expenditure be valid, unless the director of finance shall first certify to the commission that the money required for such contract, agreement or obligation is in the treasury to the credit of the appropriation from which it is to be drawn and that it is otherwise unencumbered. The certificate of the director of finance shall be filed and made a matter of record in his office, and the sum so certified as being in the treasury shall not thereafter be considered unencumbered until the municipality is discharged from the contract, agreement or obligation.

En. Sec. 65, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.186. What to be credited to appropriations. All unencumbered moneys actually in the treasury to the credit of the appropriation from which an obligation is to be paid, and all moneys applicable to its payment that, before the maturity thereof, are anticipated to come into the treasury to the credit of such appropriation from taxes or assessments; from sales of service, products or by-products of any municipal undertaking; from the sale or lease of lands or other property; and from the sale of bonds lawfully authorized at the date of the certificate of the director of finance shall, for the purpose of such certificate, be deemed in the treasury to the credit of the appropriation for which the obligation is to be paid.

En. Sec. 66, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.187. Contracts, when void. All contracts, agreements or other obligations entered into, all ordinances and resolutions passed, and orders adopted, contrary to the provisions of section 65 and 66 of this act shall be void, and no person whatever shall have any claim or demand against the municipality thereunder, nor shall the commission or any officer of the municipality waive or qualify the limitations fixed by such sections, or fasten upon the municipality any liability whatever in excess thereof.

En. Sec. 67, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.188. Designation of depositories—Bonds. On or before the first day of August of each year the commission shall designate the banks subject to state or national supervision in which the funds of the municipality shall be deposited. In designating such banks the commission shall specify the maximum amount of municipal funds that may be kept at any time in each. Unless a bank designated as a depository shall elect to deposit securities with the treasurer, as provided in the next succeeding section, it shall give good and sufficient bonds, with sureties to be approved by the commission, conditioned for the safekeeping and payment of the municipal funds deposited therewith and the interest thereon. Any such bonds of a depository shall be in the aggregate equal to the amount designated by the commission as the maximum of municipal funds which may at any time be kept by such depository.

En. Sec. 68, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.189. Deposit of securities — Interest. In lieu of the surety bonds specified in the next preceding section any bank designated as a depository of city funds may deposit with the treasurer bonds of the class and kind in which, by the provisions of this act, the sinking fund of the municipality may be invested. Bonds so deposited shall be in an amount equal to the amount of municipal funds permitted at any time to be deposited with such bank, shall be approved by the commission and shall be accompanied by proper assignment, to the end that the bank so depositing and assigning such bonds will safely keep and pay over to the treasurer, or his order, on demand and free of exchange, all moneys at any time deposited therein with interest thereon at the rate agreed upon, and that in case of default on the part of such bank the commission shall have power and authority to sell such bonds or so much thereof as may be necessary to realize the full amount of the funds deposited therein. The bank shall be entitled to interest on the securities so deposited with the treasurer, when paid, and to the return of the securities at the termination of such trust so long as the bank is not in default. With the approval of the commission a bank may at any time substitute other like securities of equal value for those so deposited.

En. Sec. 69, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.190. New bonds, when required. Whenever for any cause the commission shall deem the bonds or securities of any bank insufficient security for the municipal funds deposited or likely to be deposited therein the commission shall require new bonds to be given or new securities to be deposited with the treasurer. If any bank shall fail promptly to execute and present such new bonds, or deposit such new securities, the treasurer shall at once withdraw all deposits therefrom and no further deposit of municipal funds shall be made therein until such bank shall have been redesignated by the commission as a depository.

En. Sec. 70, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.191. Continuation of security. All surety bonds given by a bank in accordance with the provision of this act shall continue in force so long as funds of the municipality deposited therein shall be unpaid. Nothing herein provided shall impair the rights and remedies of the municipality on such bonds under the laws of the state. Bonds and other securities given by banks in accordance with this act shall be entered in a record to be kept for that purpose by the director of finance and deposited with the treasurer for safe keeping. The record of such bonds and securities kept by the director of finance, or copies thereof certified by that officer, shall be competent and prima facie evidence of the contents and tenor thereof.

En. Sec. 71, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.192. Deposit of funds. All funds received by the treasurer shall be deposited by him in the designated banks in the name of the municipality subject to the order of the treasurer, and shall be distributed among the designated banks as nearly as may be in proportion to the several maximum amounts which they have been authorized to receive by the commission.

En. Sec. 72, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.193. Interest on daily balances. Banks designated as depositories shall pay interest on daily balances of municipal funds at a rate approved by the commission which shall in no case be less than two and one-half per centum (2½%). The interest due on such deposits shall be paid to the treasurer by check on the last day of each quarter of the fiscal year. If the treasurer shall at any time receive, or have in any bank, funds which will probably remain on deposit three months or longer he may, with the approval of the commission, either take therefor certificates of deposit from a designated depository, payable to his order on demand, and bearing a higher rate of interest, or invest such funds in any bonds maturing within six months in which the sinking fund of municipality may be invested. The treasurer shall make a monthly statement to the director of finance of the municipal funds in each bank, and the interest received thereon, as of the last day of each month, and the director of finance shall include such information in his monthly statement to the commission required by section 42 of this act.

En. Sec. 73, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.194. Payments by check. No bank receiving funds of the municipality on deposit shall have authority to pay out any such money except upon checks drawn upon that bank, signed by the treasurer.

En. Sec. 74, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.195. Liability of treasurer. When the funds of the municipality are deposited and kept in designated banks according to the provisions of this act the treasurer and the sureties on his official bond shall be exempt from all liability for the loss of any funds so deposited if such loss is caused by the failure, bankruptcy, or any other act or default of such banks, but the want of care or due diligence on the part of the treasurer or commission in protecting the municipality against loss, shall not exempt the treasurer, the members of the commission or sureties on their respective bonds from liability. Nothing herein provided shall deprive the municipality of any right or remedy against any defaulting bank or against its officers or stockholders.

En. Sec. 75, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.196. Limitation on indebtedness. The city and county of Butte shall not become indebted in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate exceeding five per centum (5%) of the value of the taxable property therein as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes prior to incurring such indebtedness, and all bonds or obligations in excess of such amount given by or on behalf of the municipality shall be void. Bonds, notes, or registered warrants on the treasury, may be authorized by the commission to be issued during the first five months of the fiscal year in anticipation of the collection of taxes for such year and shall not be deemed the creation of a debt within the meaning of this section; but any such bond, note or warrant so authorized and issued shall specify that it is payable solely out of the revenues of the fiscal year in which issued, and before the close of such year, shall not bear a higher rate of interest than six per centum (6%) and the total amount authorized and issued in any fiscal year shall not, in the aggregate, be more than thirty-five per centum (35%) of the total appropriations of the municipality for such year.

En. Sec. 76, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.197. Procedure to borrow money—Funding obligations. The city and county of Butte may borrow money for any municipal purpose to the extent and in the manner provided by the constitution and laws of Montana for the borrowing of money by counties. Any debt of the county or any district thereof outstanding at the beginning of the first fiscal year after the adoption of this act by the electors of the county may be funded, or refunded, by the issuance of bonds for such period, or periods, not exceeding twenty years as the commission may authorize, and thereafter the debt so funded or refunded, and any debt subsequently incurred, shall be paid as it becomes due without refunding.

En. Sec. 77, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.198. Appropriations for sinking fund. An appropriation to the sinking fund of the municipality at least equal to the amount, or amounts, estimated by the manager to be required for that purpose in conformity with subdivisions (5) and (6) of section 51 of this act, shall be included in each annual appropriation ordinance passed by the commission. If, for any reason, the commission fail to include such an appropriation in its annual appropriation ordinance, or shall appropriate to the sinking fund less than that estimated by the manager to be required for that purpose, the director of finance shall nevertheless cause to be set up an appropriation account for the full amount so estimated by the manager and shall, notwithstanding any other appropriation made by the commission, transfer to such account out of any moneys of the municipality derived from taxes and paid into the treasury such amount, or amounts, as may be necessary to bring the appropriation for the sinking fund up to the full amount of the manager's estimate. Any taxpayer of the municipality, or the owner of any bond thereof, may bring suit against the director of finance in the district court to enforce the provisions of this section and if, upon such suit, it be found that the commission has failed to make an appropriation for the full amount estimated by the manager to be required for the sinking fund and that the director of finance has failed to set up the appropriation account and provide for transfers thereto as required by this section, the court shall order the establishment of such appropriation account and the necessary transfers thereto as hereinbefore provided. Any such action by the court shall have the same force and effect in regard to appropriations to the sinking fund as though taken by the commission in its annual appropriation ordinance.

En. Sec. 78, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.199. Sinking fund board—Appointment and powers. The sinking fund of the municipality shall be in charge of a sinking fund board consisting of the president, the director of finance and the director of law. The president shall be the chairman and the director of finance the secretary of the board. By and with consent of the commission the sinking fund board shall invest the sinking fund in bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the United States; state bonds or certificates of indebtedness of Montana or any other state of the United States; bonds of the city and county of Butte; notes and registered warrants on the treasury of such city and county issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes as authorized by section 76 of this act; bonds of any city in the state of Montana; and in such county or school bonds of Montana as may be approved by the commission. In case the sinking fund be invested in bonds of the city and county of Butte such bonds shall not be canceled before maturity but shall be held by the sinking fund board and the interest thereon paid over and applied to the increase of the sinking fund. Whenever the principal of any of the bonds of the municipality shall become due the sinking fund board shall, with the consent of the commission, dispose of such of the bonds belonging to the sinking fund as, with the money on hand belonging to the sinking fund, shall be necessary to pay the bonds so becoming due.

En. Sec. 79, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.200. Award of contracts—Advertisement. All contracts entered into by the municipality for supplies, or materials, for any public work, or for the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance or operation of any public works or improvements shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after public advertisement and competition as may be prescribed by ordinance, but the manager shall have the right to reject all bids and advertise again. All advertisements as to contracts shall contain a reservation of the foregoing right. All contracts entered into by the municipality shall be signed by the manager after approval thereof by the commission.

En. Sec. 80, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.201. Alteration in contracts. When it becomes necessary in the opinion of the manager to make alterations or modifications in any contract entered into by the municipality such alterations shall be made only when authorized by the commission upon the written recommendation of the manager. No such alteration shall be valid unless the new price to be paid for any supplies, material or work under the altered or modified contract shall have been agreed upon in writing and signed by the contractor and the manager prior to such authorization by the commission.

En. Sec. 81, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.202. Police department—Director, powers, duties and salary. The police department shall be in charge of a director who may be styled the sheriff; he shall be elected by the electors of the municipality at the same time and in the same manner as members of the commission are elected; he shall possess all the qualifications prescribed by general law for sheriffs, shall hold office for two years, and shall receive an annual salary of five thousand ($5,000) dollars; he shall be chief of the police force of the municipality, and shall also have the powers and perform the duties prescribed for sheriffs by the general laws of the state. Officers and patrolmen of the police department, subordinate to the director shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of policemen in cities and towns by the laws of the state, such powers and duties as may be conferred and required by the ordinances of the city and county of Butte, and shall also have the powers and perform the duties by law conferred on and required of deputy sheriffs. The provisions of the Metropolitan Police Laws of the state shall be in full force and effect so far as practicable under this act.

En. Sec. 82, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.203. Department of public works—Director. The department of public works shall be in charge of a director who shall manage and have charge of the construction, repair, improvement and maintenance of all public buildings, of roads, streets, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, viaducts and other public ways; of sewers, drains, ditches, culverts, streams and water-courses; and of boulevards, parks, playgrounds, cemeteries and other public places and grounds dedicated to public use. He shall manage and control all public cemeteries, crematories, market places or houses, garbage and sewage disposal plants and farms, and all public utilities belonging to the municipality or any subdivision thereof, and shall have charge of the enforcement of the obligations to the municipality of all privately owned or operated public utilities enforceable by the municipality. He shall have charge of the cleaning, sprinkling, and lighting of the streets and the collection and disposal of garbage and waste. He shall also be responsible for the making and preservation of all surveys, maps, plans, drawings and estimates for such public works, and for the preservation of contracts, papers, plans, tools, and appliances belonging to the municipality and pertaining to the functions of the department.

En. Sec. 83, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.204. Qualifications and powers. The director of public works shall have the qualifications prescribed by law for county surveyors and, in addition to the duties required by this act and by the ordinances of the municipality, he shall have the powers and shall, either in person or by a deputy having the qualifications prescribed by law for county surveyors, perform the duties required of county surveyors by the laws of the state.

En. Sec. 84, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.205. Department of health. The director of the department of health shall be a physician legally authorized to practice medicine and surgery in the state of Montana. Except as otherwise provided in this act the director of the department of health shall have the powers and perform the duties conferred on and required of coroners and county health officers by the general laws of the state. He shall also have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

En. Sec. 85, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.206. County board of health. The commission shall be the county board of health in and for the city and county of Butte, but in performing the duties and exercising the powers prescribed by law for such boards the commission shall act by ordinance, resolution or vote and according to the procedure prescribed by this act to be followed when acting as commission of the municipality, and it shall not be necessary to the validity of any such action for the commission to declare, or for the records thereof to indicate, that it is acting in other than its usual capacity. Regulations affecting the public health, additional to those established by general law, and for the violation of which penalties are imposed, may be prescribed by ordinance and enforced as provided therein.

En. Sec. 86, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.207. Fire department. The fire department of the city and county of Butte shall be in charge of a director who shall be chief thereof and who shall manage and control the department in the manner prescribed by the ordinances of the municipality.

En. Sec. 87, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.208. Continuation firemen's disability funds. Any disability fund, or funds, of the fire department or departments, established as required by law in any city or town of the county prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, shall be continued as one such fund for the fire department of the city and county of Butte. The board of trustees of such disability fund shall consist of the president, the director of finance, the director of law, the director of the fire department and one member of the fire department selected by a majority of the members of such department between the first and tenth days of July of each year in which the municipality shall elect a commission. Except as provided in this section, the disability fund of the fire department shall be continued and administered in the manner prescribed by law for such funds established in cities and towns.

En. Sec. 88, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.209. Superintendent of schools. The commission shall, by majority vote of all its members, appoint a municipal superintendent of schools to serve without definite term but subject to removal at the pleasure of the commission. The superintendent of schools for any district within the municipality may, with the consent of the trustees of such district, be appointed to serve as municipal superintendent. The compensation of the municipal superintendent shall be fixed by the commission, and he shall have the powers and perform the duties prescribed for county superintendents of schools by the laws of the state.

En. Sec. 89, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.210. Police court and police judge. A police court is hereby established in and for the city and county of Butte, with jurisdiction, powers and duties within the municipality provided by general law for police courts in cities and towns. The commission shall by a majority vote of all its members appoint a police judge to serve during the pleasure of the commission; no person shall be appointed police judge unless at least twenty-five (25) years of age; the compensation of police judge shall be fixed by the commission. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as in anywise interfering with the existence, election, powers or duties of justices of the peace as provided by the general laws of this state.

En. Sec. 90, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.211. Public work and improvements. Any local public work may be done or any local public works or improvements may be constructed, reconstructed, repaired, maintained or operated either by contract or directly by the municipality as may be determined by the commission. Before authorizing that any local public works or improvements be directly constructed, reconstructed, repaired, maintained or operated, detailed plans and estimates for each such work or improvement shall be submitted to the commission by the manager, and there shall be separate accounting for each work or improvement so executed.

En. Sec. 91, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.212. Creation special improvement districts—Procedure. The city and county of Butte shall have the same power and authority to create special improvement districts, and for like purposes, as provided by the laws of the state for counties, cities, and towns. Before creating any special improvement district, or proceeding with any work or improvement to be paid for in whole or in part by assessments upon property benefited thereby, the commission shall declare by resolution its intention so to do. Any such resolution shall set forth the boundaries of the proposed district, give a general description of the work or improvement contemplated and shall direct the manager to have a report prepared thereon. The resolution shall also specify the portion of the cost of the work or improvement to be assessed against the property within the proposed district and the number of installments, not exceeding ten, in which the assessments are to be paid.

En. Sec. 92, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.213. Report. The report prepared as provided in the next preceding section shall include all necessary surveys, plans, profiles and specifications; estimates of the value of any land or other property proposed to be taken; estimates of the cost of any proposed action, work or improvement; and estimates of the amount of benefits or damages which should be assessed against or in favor of any property affected. A copy of the report, when completed, shall be placed on file for public inspection in such office of the municipality as the manager may designate.

En. Sec. 93, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.214. Notice to property owners. Upon the completion and filing of the report as provided in the next preceding section the assessor shall give notice to every person, firm or corporation having property within the proposed district, or the agent thereof, by mailing a notice to each such person, firm, corporation or agent, at his last known address, and shall also publish such notice at least once in a daily paper of general circulation in the municipality. The notice so mailed and published shall contain a description of the boundaries of the proposed improvement district, a description of the work or improvement contemplated, shall state where the report has been filed and that it is open to public inspection, and shall designate the time when and the place where the commission will hear and pass upon all protests that may be made against the making of the improvement, the doing of the work, the creation of the district specified in the notice, or against any assessment of benefits or damages as set forth in the report of the manager. Any such meeting of the commission shall not be sooner than ten days after the assessor shall have completed the mailing and publication of notice as provided in this section.

En. Sec. 94, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.215. General laws applicable. Except as hereinbefore provided, and except that the director of public works shall be the engineer in charge of all such work, works or improvements, the provisions of the general law of the state regarding special improvement districts in cities and towns shall apply to and control the establishment under this act of special improvement districts in and for the city and county of Butte, and the procedure according to which any local public work or the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance or operation of any local public work or improvement is to be provided for when the cost thereof is to be paid in whole or in part by assessments upon the property within any such district, and such general law shall also apply to the manner of levying and collecting such assessments.

En. Sec. 95, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.216. Powers and duties of officers before and after adoption act. For any election held on the question of the adoption of this act and for the first election of officers thereunder adopted, the county clerk and board of county commissioners of Silver Bow county shall exercise the powers and perform the duties respecting elections prescribed for county clerks and boards of county commissioners by the general laws of the state. After the adoption of this act by the electors of the county and the first election of officers hereunder, all the duties prescribed by the general laws of this state relating to the registration of electors, shall devolve upon the clerk of the commission, and all the powers and duties of city and county clerks, boards of aldermen and county commissioners, relating to elections under the general laws of this state shall devolve upon an electoral board, constituted as hereinafter provided; except as otherwise provided in this act all the provisions of the general laws of this state relating to elections shall apply to all elections held within the city and county of Butte.

En. Sec. 96, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.217. Electoral board—Precincts—Judges—Conduct of elections. There shall be an electoral board for the municipality consisting of two members who, with the clerk of the commission, shall comprise the electoral board. The said members shall be elected for a term of four years, provided, however, that at the first election after the adoption of this act one member shall be elected for a term of two years and one shall be elected for a term of four years (candidates shall designate the term desired when filing); after which one member of said electoral board shall be elected every two years, for a term of four years. No member of the electoral board shall be employed by the municipality in any other capacity while holding such office. It shall be the duty of the electoral board to divide the municipality into election precincts, each to include not more than five hundred qualified electors. The electoral board shall appoint three judges in each precinct, all to be qualified electors and all over twenty-five (25) years of age, and one of opposite political faith from the other two. Precinct judges shall appoint two clerks of opposite political faith. The board shall, for the period of forty (40) days next preceding any election, have general supervision of the registers and precinct poll-books and it shall be their duty to purge therefrom and from all published lists of electors all names improperly appearing thereon; the said board shall also have exclusive control, subject to the provisions of the general laws of the state, of the holding of elections, canvassing of returns and the issuing of certificates of election. Within five (5) days after an election the said board shall meet to canvass returns and shall issue the certificates of election required by law; such meetings shall be open to the public, and in the case of a tie vote the said electoral board shall cast lots among those persons having tie votes, to decide the result. The two members of said board to be elected shall be electors of the municipality at the time of their election, and shall be not less than twenty-five years of age; they shall be paid ten ($10) dollars per day for such time as they are actively employed in the preparation of elections, the conduct of elections, the canvassing of election returns, and the issuing of certificates of such elections, and shall receive no other compensation. Additional rules and regulations governing the services and functions of the said electoral board and providing the necessary equipment therefor may be provided by ordinance.

En. Sec. 97, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.218. Municipal primary elections. A municipal primary election for the choice of officers to be elected under this act shall be held on the last Tuesday of April next following the adoption of this act by the voters of Silver Bow county and on the last Tuesday in April of every second year thereafter. All candidates for the commission receiving a majority of the votes cast at the municipal primary election shall be deemed and declared elected to the commission. A municipal election shall be held on the first Tuesday in June next following the primary election to fill the remaining places on the commission and elect the other officers provided for herein. At all municipal elections the polls shall be open from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

En. Sec. 98, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.219. Nominations by petition—Affidavits. Any elector of the city and county of Butte eligible to any office of the municipality to be filled by election may be placed in nomination therefor by petition filed with the clerk and signed by at least three hundred (300) electors of the municipality. The signatures to a nominating petition need not all be appended to one paper, but to each separate paper there shall be attached an affidavit of the circulator thereof stating that each signature appended thereto was made in his presence and is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Each signer of a petition shall sign his name in ink or indelible pencil, and, after his name, shall designate his residence by street and number or other description sufficient to identify the place, and give the date when his signature was made. No elector shall sign petitions for more candidates for any office than the number of places to be filled therein at the forthcoming primary election.

5520.220. Form of nominating petition. The form of nominating petition papers shall be substantially as follows:

We, the undersigned electors of the city and county of Butte, hereby nominate whose residence is for the office of commissioner, to be voted for at the primary election to be held on the last Tuesday of April, 19....; and we individually certify that we are qualified to vote for candidates for the above office and that we have not signed nominating petitions for more than seven candidates for the commission.

En. Sec. 100, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.221. Filing papers—Notice to nominee. All separate papers comprising a nominating petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk as one instrument at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding last Tuesday in April. Within five days after the filing of the nominating petition the clerk shall notify the person named therein as a candidate whether such petition is signed by the required number of qualified electors. Any eligible person placed in nomination as herein-before provided shall have his name printed on the ballots and placed upon any voting machine used at the primary election if, within five days after such notifications, he shall have filed with the clerk a written acceptance of the nomination.

En. Sec. 101, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.222. Party designation forbidden. No party mark or designation shall appear on the ballots, or in connection with the names of candidates on any voting machine, used in the election of members of the commission. Each elector may vote for as many candidates for the commission as there are places to be filled therein; but any ballot marked for more candidates than the number of places to be filled shall not be counted for any of the candidates for which marked. The ballots shall be in form substantially as follows:—

MUNICIPAL ELECTION City and County of Butte. (Month and day of month) 19.... FOR COMMISSIONERS. Do not vote for more than

En. Sec. 102, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.223. Order names of candidates. At 2 o'clock P. M. on the tenth day before any election at which officers of the municipality are to be chosen, the electoral board shall publicly determine by lot the order in which names of candidates for election shall be printed on the ballots or appear on any voting machine, to be used at such election.

En. Sec. 103, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.224. Voter may write names on ballot. As many blank spaces shall be left on the ballots below the printed names of candidates for the commission as there are places to be filled therein. In any such space an elector may write the name of any eligible person, and a vote cast for such person shall be counted as though for a candidate whose name is printed on the ballots.

En. Sec. 104, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.225. Publication notices of election. On the tenth day prior to the municipal primary election, the electoral board shall cause notice thereof to be published in such daily newspaper, or newspapers of general circulation in the municipality as the said board may have designated. In case the said board shall fail to designate such newspaper or newspapers, the clerk shall cause the notice to be published in such newspaper, or newspapers, of general circulation in the municipality as he may select. Such published notice shall contain a list of the candidates nominated as hereinbefore provided, and state the time of holding the election. On the fifth day prior to a municipal election held on the first Tuesday in June, the electoral board or the clerk, under like conditions, shall cause a similar notice to be published concerning that election. The electoral board may also provide for giving notice of such elections by other means.

En. Sec. 105, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.226. Elections—Contents of ballot—Tie vote. At any municipal election held for the choice of officers of the municipality to be elected under this act, and following a municipal primary, there shall be printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines the names of the two candidates who at said primary received the highest number of votes for city and county attorney, and the names of the two candidates who at said primary received the highest number of votes for sheriff, and the names of the two candidates who at said primary received the highest number of votes for assessor; and the names of the two candidates who at said primary received the highest number of votes for members of the electoral board, if there be two or more candidates for the respective offices voted for at said primary election; except at the first election the names of the four candidates for members of the electoral board, if there be so many voted for at the primary election, receiving the highest number of votes shall be placed upon the ballot; there shall also be printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines the names of the candidates for members of the commission who at said primary received the highest number of votes, except the names of those elected at said primary, and the number of names so printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines shall be double the number of places remaining to be filled in the commission. If, by reason of their having received the same number of votes, it cannot be determined which of two or more candidates shall have his name, or their names, printed on the ballots or places on the voting machines, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the names of all such candidates receiving the same number of votes shall be printed on the ballots and placed on the voting machines. The candidates for the commission at an election held on the first Tuesday in June, equal in number to the places remaining to be filled in the commission, who receive the highest number of votes, shall be declared elected. A tie between two or more candidates shall be decided by lot in the presence of such candidates and under the direction of the electoral board.

En. Sec. 106, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.227. The recall. Any member of the commission may be removed from office by the electors of the municipality. The procedure for effecting such a removal shall be as follows:—

Any elector of the municipality may make and file an affidavit with the clerk requesting that petitions be issued demanding an election for the recall of any member of the commission. Any such affidavit shall state the name of the person whose removal from the commission is sought and the grounds alleged for such removal. Upon the filing of such an affidavit, the clerk shall deliver to the elector making the affidavit copies of petition papers for demanding such an election, printed copies of which the clerk shall keep on file for distribution as herein provided. In issuing any such petition paper the clerk shall enter in a record to be kept in his office the name of the elector to whom issued, the date of issuance, the number of papers issued, and shall certify on each paper the name of the elector and the date of issuance. No petition paper shall be accepted as part of a petition unless it bear such certification of the clerk and unless filed as hereinafter provided.

En. Sec. 107, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.228. Return and filing of petition. A petition for a recall election to be effective must be returned and filed with the clerk within thirty days after the filing of the affidavit as provided in the next preceding section, and to be sufficient must bear the signatures of electors equal in number to at least twenty per centum (20%) of those who voted at the last preceding regular municipal election. If any such petition be insufficient as originally filed it may be amended as provided in this act.

En. Sec. 108, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.229. Submission of petition—Election. If a petition for a recall election, or an amended petition, shall be certified by the clerk to be sufficient he shall at once submit it to the commission with his certificate to that effect and shall notify the member of the commission whose removal is sought of such action. Unless the member whose removal is sought resign within five days after such notice, the commission shall thereupon order and fix a day for holding a recall election. Any such election shall be held not less than forty nor more than sixty days after the petition has been presented to the commission and may be held at the same time as any other election held within such period; but, if no other election be held within such period, the commission shall call a special recall election to be held within the time aforesaid.

En. Sec. 109, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.230. Submission of two or more recalls. The question of recalling any number of members of the commission may be submitted at the same election, but as to each member whose removal is sought a separate petition shall be filed and provision shall be made for an entirely separate printed ballot. Candidates to succeed any person whose removal is sought shall be placed in nomination by petition signed, filed and verified as provided for nominating petitions for a municipal primary election; except that each petition paper shall specify that the candidate named therein is a candidate to succeed a particular person whose removal is sought.

En. Sec. 110, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.231. Form of ballot—Prohibition use of voting machines. Voting machines shall not be used in recall elections, and the printed ballots shall be in form substantially as follows:—

Vote for but one.

.....
.....

En. Sec. 111, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.232. Effect of election. If a majority of the votes cast on the question of recalling a member of the commission as hereinbefore provided be against his recall he shall continue in office for the remainder of his unexpired term, but subject to recall as before. If a majority of such votes be for the recall of such member he shall, regardless of any defect in the recall petition, be deemed removed from office. When a member is removed from the commission by recall the candidate to succeed such member who receives the highest number of votes shall succeed the member so removed for the unexpired term.

En. Sec. 112, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.233. Effect of resignation. If a person in regard to whom a recall petition is submitted to the commission shall resign from office after notice thereof no election shall be held and some eligible person shall be chosen by a majority vote of the remaining members to fill the place for the unexpired term; but the member so resigning shall not be chosen by the commission to succeed himself.

En. Sec. 113, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.234. Limitation as to time of recall. No recall petition shall be filed in respect to any member of the commission within three months after he takes office nor, in case of a member subjected to a recall election and not removed thereby, until at least six months after that election.

En. Sec. 114, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.235. Special perquisites forbidden. Any person elected or appointed to any office or position under the municipal government established by this act shall be entitled to or receive for his own use any fees, emoluments, commissions or perquisites other than the salary or compensation fixed by this act or by the commission, and all such fees, emoluments, commissions and perquisites arising out of the performance of official duty shall belong to the municipality and be paid into the treasury thereof.

En. Sec. 115, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.236. Political solicitation prohibited. No person holding an appointive office or position in the municipal government shall directly or indirectly solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political party or purpose whatever. No person shall orally or by letter solicit, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting, any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political party or purpose from any person holding an appointive office or position in the municipal government. No person shall use or promise to use his influence or official authority to secure any appointment, or prospective appointment, to any position in the service of the municipality as a reward or return for personal or partisan political service. No person shall take part in preparing any political assessment, subscription or contribution with the intent that it should be sent or presented to or collected from any person in the service of the municipality, nor shall he knowingly send or present directly or indirectly, in person or otherwise, any political assessment, subscription or contribution to, or request its payment by any person in such service.

En. Sec. 116, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.237. Other restrictions on officers. No person in the service of the municipality shall discharge, suspend, lay off, reduce in grade, or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any person in such service or threaten to do so, for withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or service or any valuable thing for any political purpose. No person holding an appointive office or place in the municipal government shall act as an officer in a political organization, or serve as a member of a committee of any such organization, or circulate or seek signatures for any petition provided for by primary or election laws.

En. Sec. 117, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.238. Penalties. Any person who, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, wilfully or corruptly violates any of the provisions of section 116 and 117 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and if he be an officer or employee of the municipality he shall immediately forfeit his office or employment.

En. Sec. 118, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.239. Restrictions on commissioners. No person elected to the commission shall, during the term for which elected, be appointed to any office or position in the service in the municipality. If a member of the commission shall become a candidate for any public office, other than that of commissioner, he shall immediately forfeit his place in the commission; and any appointive officer or employee of the municipality who shall become a candidate for nomination or election to any public office shall immediately forfeit the office or employment held under the municipality.

En. Sec. 119, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.240. Board of equalization. The commission shall constitute the board of equalization for the city and county of Butte, and, except as otherwise provided in this act, shall have all other powers and perform all other duties prescribed for boards of county commissioners by the laws of this state.

En. Sec. 120, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.241. Bonds required—Payment premiums. The members of the commission, the manager, the director of finance, the treasurer, the purchasing agent, the director of law, the director of police, and such other officers and employees of the municipality as the commission require so to do, shall, immediately upon taking office, give bonds with such surety as may be approved by the commission; but no officer or employee shall become surety upon the official bond of another officer or employee. Members of the commission shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars and other officers and employees shall give bonds in such amounts as the commission may require. The premium on such official bonds may be paid by the municipality. All such bonds, except those of the manager and the director of finance, shall be filed with the director of finance. The official bonds of the manager and the director of finance shall be filed with and kept by the president of the commission.

En. Sec. 121, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.242. Oath of office. Every officer of the municipality shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath or affirmation required of officers by section 430 of the Revised Code of Montana, 1921, which oath or affirmation shall be filed and kept in the office of the clerk.

En. Sec. 122, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.243. Interest of officers in contracts forbidden. No officer or employee of the municipality shall have a financial interest direct or indirect, in any contract therewith, or be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale to the municipality of any land, materials, supplies, or services except on behalf of the municipality as an officer or employee. Any wilful violation of this section shall constitute malfeasance in office, and any officer or employee found guilty thereof shall thereby forfeit his office or position. Any violation of this section with the knowledge, actual or implied, of the person or corporation contracting with the municipality shall render the contract involved voidable by the manager or the commission.

En. Sec. 123, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.244. Existing contracts continued. All contracts entered into by the county of Silver Bow or by any city or town therein, or on behalf of any improvement district by such county or by any such city or town, prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, shall continue in full force and effect subsequently thereto. Public improvements, for which initial steps may have been taken under laws effective in the county prior to the election and qualification of a commission under this act, may thereafter be carried to completion in accordance with the provisions of such laws.

En. Sec. 124, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.245. Existing ordinances continued. All existing ordinances and resolutions of the city of Butte of general application therein and not inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall, upon the election and qualification of a commission under this act, be continued in force and their application extended throughout the city and county of Butte until amended or repealed by the commission. All other ordinances and resolutions of the city of Butte and of any city or town within the county, except ordinances and resolutions relating to public improvements to be paid for in whole or in part by special assessments, shall, upon the election and qualification of a commission under this act, be deemed repealed.

En. Sec. 125, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.246. Duties of officers to commence and cease when. The members of the board of county commissioners of Silver Bow county, and the members of any city or town within the county, holding office on the fifteenth day of April next preceding the first election of a commission under the provisions of this act, shall continue in office and in the performance of their duties until such commission shall have been elected and have qualified, whereupon such board of county commissioners and all such city and town councils shall be deemed abolished. All other persons holding offices or positions, whether elective or appointive, under the government of such county, or under the government of any city or town therein, at the time of the adoption of this act, shall continue in the performance of the duties of their respective offices and positions, until such duties are assumed by officers duly appointed or elected and qualified under the provisions of this act. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed as in anywise affecting the election, tenure of office, powers, duties or compensation of the clerk of the district court, but the compensation of said clerk of the district court and his deputies shall be charges upon and be paid by said city and county of Butte.

En. Sec. 126, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.247. General regulations for effecting transfer and collecting taxes on consolidation. Upon the adoption of this act by the voters of the county, and the election and qualification of a commission thereunder, the separate corporate existence and government of Silver Bow county and of each and every city and town therein shall be deemed consolidated and merged into the municipality established by this act, which shall succeed to, possess and own all the property and assets and shall, save as herein otherwise provided, become responsible for all obligations and liabilities of the county, cities and towns as consolidated and merged. The city and county of Butte shall, immediately upon the adoption of this act by the electors thereof, succeed to, possess and own all the property of the county of Silver Bow, all the property of the city of Butte and all the property of the city of Walkerville, including choses in action; but as soon thereafter as may be possible the commission must, through the city and county attorney, petition the district court of said county to appoint three appraisers to fix the value of said property. Upon the filing of said petition the said court shall appoint three competent persons resident in the county, as appraisers to ascertain and determine the value of said property, and shall specify the time and place of the first meeting of such appraisers. The word "property" or "properties" as used herein shall not, for purposes of appraisement or compensation, include streets, alleys, roads, public parks, playgrounds, or sewers. The appraisers must before entering upon their duties, severally take and subscribe an oath before some person qualified to administer oaths, to faithfully, honestly and impartially discharge the duties of their appointment, and shall each receive the sum of $10, payable out of the treasury of said municipality, for every day actually and necessarily employed in said appraisal. Within twenty days after their appointment and qualification, the said appraisers must file a verified report showing separately the value of all the property of the city of Butte, and the value of the property of the city of Walkerville, to which the city and county of Butte succeeded and became entitled, in virtue of the adoption of this act, except as hereinbefore set forth. Any taxpayer of the municipality may, within five (5) days after the report is filed, object to the same on the ground that the appraisement so made is too high or too low, or that property which should have been appraised is not included in the property appraised, or that property included in the property appraised did not belong either to the city of Butte or to the city of Walkerville or to the county of Silver Bow. The district court must, within fifteen (15) days after the report is filed, hear the testimony of witnesses concerning the correctness thereof, and following such hearing may, in its discretion, confirm or reject the same; if the court reject the report it shall, itself, from the facts in its possession, make an appraisal of all the property which belonged to the city of Butte, to the city of Walkerville, and the county of Silver Bow, up to the time of the adoption of this act, except as hereinbefore set forth, and render its judgment accordingly; and the action of the court in that behalf shall be deemed final, except in case of manifest error or abuse of discretion. When the report of the appraisers is confirmed by the court, or when the court itself shall have made the appraisement, the city and county of Butte shall be responsible for the payment of so much of the indebtedness of the present city of Butte as equals the appraised value of the property owned by it at the adoption of this act, and shall be responsible for the payment of so much of the indebtedness of the city of Walkerville as equals the appraised value of the property owned by it at said time, and the indebtedness of the city of Butte and the indebtedness of the city of Walkerville shall be reduced to the extent of the appraised value of the property held and owned by them respectively at said time. Thereafter, and on the second Monday in August of each year, the commission shall levy upon the property in the district comprised within the present boundaries of the city of Butte, a tax, in addition to all other taxes, for the purpose of paying the interest on the then existing indebtedness of the city as it falls due, and the indebtedness itself as it matures, and no other property within the county shall be taxable or made liable for the payment of such indebtedness or the interest thereon; the proceeds of such tax levy shall be kept in a separate fund and shall be used only for the purpose for which the levy was made, except as hereinafter provided. And on the said second Monday in August of each year, the said commission shall levy upon the property within the district comprised within the boundaries of the city of Walkerville, a tax, in addition to all other taxes, for the purpose of paying the interest on the indebtedness of said city as it falls due, and the indebtedness itself as it matures, and no other property within the county shall be taxable or made liable for the payment of such indebtedness or the interest thereon; the proceeds of such tax levy shall be kept in a separate fund and shall be used only for the purpose for which the levy was made, except as hereinafter provided. The taxes levied under the provisions of this section shall be collected and paid in the manner, at the time and under the penalties prescribed by law for the collection and payment of state and county taxes.

5520.248. Transition of government—Regulation of. The commission shall have power to make all necessary regulations, not inconsistent with this act, for the transition from the several governments of and within the county to the government provided by this act, including the transfer to the treasury of the city and county of Butte of all funds and moneys of such several governments.

En. Sec. 128, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.249. Submission of act to electors. The question of the adoption of this act shall be submitted to the electors of the county if a petition, signed by at least fifteen hundred (1500) electors thereof requesting such submission, be filed with the county clerk. Any such petition shall be signed and filed, and shall be verified by the clerk, in the manner prescribed in this act for the signing, filing and verification of a referendum petition. If the county clerk find that any such petition, or amended petition, so filed, is signed by the required number of electors, he shall so certify to the board of county commissioners at their next meeting, and such board shall thereupon order and fix a day for holding such election which shall not be less than forty nor more than one hundred days after receipt of the clerk's certificate.

En. Sec. 129, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.250. Form of ballot. Voting on the question of the adoption of this act by the electors of the county shall be by printed ballot only, and the ballots shall be in form substantially as follows:

SHALL CHAPTER 160 OF THE MONTANA SESSION LAWS OF 1923, AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER OF THE SESSION LAWS OF 1925, BEING AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONSOLIDATION AND MERGER INTO ONE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND GOVERNMENT OF THE COUNTY OF SILVER BOW AND ALL CITIES AND TOWNS THEREIN, BE ADOPTED?

En. Sec. 130, Ch. 160, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 44, L. 1925.

5520.251. Effect of election. If when submitted to the electors of the county, the adoption of this act be approved by a majority of those voting on the question it shall be deemed adopted and for the purpose of nominating and electing members of the commission this act shall be in effect from and after the election at which adopted, and in all other respects it shall be in effect immediately upon the election and qualification of a commission thereunder.

En. Sec. 131, Ch. 160, L. 1923.

5520.252. Effect of partial invalidity act—Proviso. The finding of the invalidity of any provision of this act shall not be deemed to invalidate the remaining provisions thereof. Provided, however, that when two or more city and county consolidation measures have been enacted into law applying to the same city, cities or towns, and counties they must be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors in the territory affected by them at one and same time and the plan securing a majority of the votes cast at such election will be declared adopted.

ADOPTION REVISED CODES OF 1921.

5546.1. Adoption Revised Codes of 1921. That the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921 as compiled, numbered and arranged by the code commissioner appointed by authority of chapter 195 of the Laws of the Sixteenth Legislative Assembly of 1919, and as certified to by said code commissioner are hereby, as to both form and substance, approved, legalized and adopted as the laws of Montana now in force and effect and the same are hereby declared to constitute all of the laws of Montana now in force and effect except such laws as were enacted by the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly of Montana, and such as may be adopted by the present session of said legislative assembly.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 54, L. 1925.

Cited as chapter 54, L. 1925, in State ex rel. Urton v. American Bank & Trust Co., 75 Mont. 369, 382, 243 Pac. 1093.

5546.2. Changes legalized. All changes made by said code commissioner in the language or arrangement of any law of the state embodied in said codes and all additions of new sections made by said commissioner to said code, are hereby legalized, approved and given validity.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 54, L. 1925.

5546.3. Exception. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed as invalidating or in any manner affecting the legality of any act or thing heretofore or hereafter done by authority of any enactment, which is not included in said Revised Codes of Montana of 1921.

CHAPTER 5.

EDUCATIONAL BONDS.

5606. Educational bonds authorized.

State educational bonds issued under sections 5606-5614 are valid and not affected retroactively by chapter 38, L. 1923, providing that public bonds shall be made payable on the amortization plan, if bonds in that form can be sold at a reasonable rate of interest. State ex rel. Tatem v. Dixon et al., 70 Mont. 90, 223 Pac. 832; State ex rel. Mills v. Dixon, 68 Mont. 526, 219 Pac. 637.

The provisions of chapter 38, L. 1923, are not retroactive and are not therefore applicable to the series of bonds issued April 18, 1923, under the Educational Bond Act. Educational Bonds Case, 68 Mont. 526, 219 Pac. 637.

The constitutionality and regularity of enactment of Initiative Measure No. 19, now sections 5606-5614, were sustained in State ex rel. Bonner v. Dixon et al., 59 Mont. 58, 195 Pac. 841. The case is annotated under appropriate sections of the constitution and code sections relating to initiative laws.

Sections 5606-5614 are self-executing, and an appropriation of the moneys placed in the fund created by them is not requisite as a condition precedent to their being paid out on proper warrant. State ex rel. Bonner v. Dixon et al., 59 Mont. 58, 195 Pac. 841.

CHAPTER 6.

THREE MILLION DOLLARS TREASURY CERTIFICATES.

5615. Preamble—Authorization three million dollars treasury certificates.

The issuance and sale of treasury notes authorized by this and following sections, in anticipation of the payment of taxes levied, to procure funds with which to pay outstanding valid claims against and current expenses of the state, do not constitute the incurring of a "debt or liability" within the meaning of section 2, article XIII, of the state constitution. State v. State Board of Examiners, 59 Mont. 557, 197 Pac. 988.

CHAPTER 6A.

TREASURY NOTES.

5623.1. Preamble. It appearing that there are now outstanding and unpaid valid warrants chargeable against the general fund of the state of Montana in an amount in excess of three million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($3,750,000), bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum; and it appearing that said warrants can be refunded by the issuance of treasury notes at a much lower rate of interest and without creating any new indebtedness on the part of the state of Montana, and that there is not available for the payment of said outstanding warrants actual cash on hand in said general fund, and that in addition thereto the current expenses of the state and interest charges against said fund are constantly accruing, and that by the refunding of said warrants and the issuance of said treasury notes for a limited period of time, a saving in large amounts can be made to the state of Montana by reason of the reduced rate of interest which will be required to be paid upon said treasury notes; now, therefore,

Issuance treasury notes authorized. That for the purpose of redeeming and paying outstanding warrants against the general fund of the state of Montana, the state board of examiners is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and sell treasury notes for the use and benefit of and in the name of the state of Montana in the sum of three million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($3,750,000), lawful money of the United States of America, the proceeds from the sale of which notes shall be deposited in the treasury of the state of Montana and credited to the general fund, and shall be used exclusively for the payment of warrants now outstanding and drawn upon the general fund of the state of Montana, and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 176, L. 1925.

Sections 5623.1-5623.8, authorizing the sale of state treasury notes to secure funds for the payment of outstanding warrants, attacked on constitutional grounds is valid. State ex rel. Toomey v. Board of Examiners, 74 Mont. 1, 238 Pac. 316.

NOTE.—The holdings of the court on the several points of constitutional law involved in the above case will be found under the annotations to the constitution.

The treasury notes authorized by sections 5623.1-5623.8 to take up outstanding state warrants, constitute evidences of indebtedness, but stand in no different position as an obligation of the state than do the warrants themselves, and therefore do not change its obligation in any way. State ex rel. Toomey v. Board of Examiners, 74 Mont. 1, 238 Pac. 316.

Courts will not declare a statute void for uncertainty if it is possible to ascertain its meaning and give it an intelligible construction, and under that rule, sections 5623.1-5623.8 are not open to the objection that they are so inherently indefinite and uncertain that they cannot be enforced. State ex rel. Toomey v. Board of Examiners, 74 Mont. 1, 238 Pac. 316.

5623.2. Series and interest. Such treasury notes shall be issued in series and in such denomination as may be determined by the state board of examiners, shall bear date as of the day of the issuance thereof and shall become due and payable as follows:

Series A—$1,000,000	January 15, 1926
Series B—$1,250,000	July 15, 1926
Series C—$1,500,000	January 15, 1927, and shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed four per cent per annum payable semi-annually.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 176, L. 1925.

5623.3. Form and registry. The state board of examiners shall prescribe the form of such treasury notes, and each series shall bear upon its face the words: "Refunding Treasury Notes of the State of Montana," with a letter to designate the series thereof, and shall be signed by the members of the state board of examiners, and the great seal of the state of Montana shall be affixed to each note, and the notes shall be registered in the office of the state treasurer. Said treasury notes shall have interest coupons attached thereto, payable semi-annually on January 15 and July 15 of each year; provided, that the first interest coupon on each of said treasury notes shall be payable on July 15, 1925, and shall be for the interest from the date of the issuance of said treasury notes to said date. Said coupons shall be executed with the facsimile signatures of the members of the state board of examiners, and the signing of said coupons with said facsimile signatures shall be a sufficient execution of such interest coupons on behalf of the state of Montana.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 176, L. 1925.

5623.4. Disposal of notes. The treasury notes provided for in this act shall be disposed of by the state board of examiners in such manner as they shall deem for the best interests of the state for the carrying out of the purposes and provisions of this act; provided, that no treasury note shall be disposed of for less than par value and accrued interest to date of sale.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 176, L. 1925.

5623.5. Where and how payable. All of said treasury notes and interest coupons thereto attached shall be made payable to the bearer at the office of the state treasurer of the state of Montana at Helena, Montana, on maturity, and the notes of each series shall be entitled to payment in the order of their presentation, otherwise without preference or priority one over the other; provided, however, that the state board of examiners may provide that the said notes and interest coupons shall be payable at some bank or trust company in New York City to be selected by such state board of examiners.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 176, L. 1925.

5623.6. Treasury note redemption fund. For the purpose of paying said treasury notes, as the same become due and of paying interest maturing thereon, there is hereby created in the treasury of the state of Montana a special fund to be known as the "treasury note redemption fund," and so much of the moneys accruing to the general fund in the treasury of the state of Montana as will equal the amount of said treasury notes and interest coupons issued and outstanding, and due at any interest paying period are hereby apportioned to, set apart to, and shall be paid into and transferred to said treasury note redemption fund, and the said treasury note redemption fund and all moneys accruing, or to accrue therein are hereby appropriated exclusively to and for the payment of such treasury notes and the interest thereon; provided, that apportionments to said treasury note redemption fund shall be made semi-annually and only in such amounts and at such times as shall be necessary to meet each semi-annual charge.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 175, L. 1925.

5623.7. Place of payment. The state treasurer of the state of Montana is hereby authorized, directed and empowered, upon the maturity of any of said treasury notes or interest coupons, to pay to the bearer thereof on presentation and surrender of the same at his office, or at the bank or trust company in the city of New York selected or designated by the state board of examiners, the amount thereof; all of which payments of treasury notes or interest coupons shall be made in the order of presentation, and all of which shall be paid from the treasury note redemption fund, and upon the surrender of any coupons or treasury notes, the treasurer shall cancel and mark the same paid.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 175, L. 1925.

5623.8. Appropriation. That for the purpose of paying the expense of making said loan and the preparation and sale of said treasury notes and the registration of the same, and all legal and other incidental expenses in connection with said loan and the repayment thereof, there is hereby appropriated from any moneys of the general fund of the state of Montana, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or so much thereof as may be necessary.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 175, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 9.

PREFERENTIAL EMPLOYMENT SOLDIERS AND SAILORS—SOLDIER BONUS.

5653. Preference of soldiers and sailors in public employment. In every public department, and upon all public works of the state of Montana, and of any county and city thereof, honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors and their widows of the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, and of the late war with Germany and her allies, and any disabled civilian recommended by the state rehabilitation bureau, shall be preferred for appointment and employment; age, loss of limb or other physical impairment, which does not in fact incapacitate, shall not be deemed to disqualify them, provided they possess the business capacity, competency and education to discharge the duties of the position involved; provided, however, that none of the benefits of this act shall accrue to any person who refused to serve on active duty in the military service to which attached, or to take up arms in the defense of the United States; provided, however, that no person, not a citizen of the United States, shall be employed by any state, city or county officer in any capacity if competent American labor is available; and, provided, further, that no person who has not been a resident of Montana for at least one (1) year immediately preceding an appointment shall be entitled to such preference; provided further, that for city or county employment no preference will be granted unless applicant under this act is also a resident of the city or town or county in which employment is sought.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 133, L. 1927.

NOTE.—Referendum measure No. 25, being Chapter 162, Session Laws of 1921, which appears at pages 615 et seq. Session Laws of 1923, the so-called Soldier Bonus Law, is omitted from this Supplement, having been held unconstitutional in the case of State ex rel. Mills v. Dixon et al., 66 Mont. 76, 213 Pac. 227.

THE CIVIL CODE.

PART I.

The Definition and Sources of the Law.

CHAPTER 1.

LAW—THE CONSTITUTION, STATUTES AND COMMON LAWS.

5672. Common law, when rule of decision.

The common law of England declared by this section to be the rule of decision in Montana so far as it is not repugnant to the federal or state constitution or the state laws, is that body of jurisprudence as applied and modified by the courts of this country up to the time it was made a rule of decision by the first Montana territorial legislature. Herrin v. Sutherland, 74 Mont. 587, 42 A. L. R. 937, 241 Pac. 328.

Cited in Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 182, 215 Pac. 224; Simonsen v. Barth et al., 64 Mont. 95, 100, 208 Pac. 938; Gas Products Co. v. Rankin, 63 Mont. 372, 389, 24 A. L. R. 294, 207 Pac. 993; as section 3552, Revised Codes, in LeMunyon v. Gallatin Valley Ry. Co., 60 Mont. 517, 523, 199 Pac. 915.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 255.

PART II.

Persons and Personal Relations.

CHAPTER 1.

PERSONS—MINORS, ADULTS AND PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

5673. Minors and adults defined.

The controlling element in juvenile laws is age, not minority; hence the contention that a female cannot be held under a commitment in the State Vocational School for Girls after she reaches the age of majority fixed by this section at eighteen years, cannot be sustained. State ex rel. Foot v. District Court, 77 Mont. 290, 49 A. L. R. 398, 250 Pac. 973.

5680. When minors may disaffirm.

Where from the very nature or character of a consideration received by a minor for the execution of a contract (services performed by attorneys under a contract of employment to institute an action) it cannot be returned by him as required by this section as a condition precedent to disaffirmance, he may disaffirm though unable to make return.

Downey et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry Co., 72 Mont. 166, 232 Pac. 531.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 124.

Return of property purchased by infant as condition of recovery of purchase money paid, note, 16 A. L. R. 1475; 36 A. L. R. 782.

5681. Minor or person of unsound mind cannot disaffirm contract for necessities.

A party desiring to rely upon the exception to the rule that a minor may disaffirm a contract provided for by this section, to the effect that he cannot dis-affirm a contract to pay the reasonable value of things necessary for his support, must plead that the things furnished were necessities in his complaint or reply. Downey et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 72 Mont. 166, 232 Pac. 531.

Quaere: Is the employment of an attorney by a minor to prosecute an action for false imprisonment a "necessary" within the meaning of this section a contract for which he cannot disaffirm upon obtaining majority? Downey et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 72 Mont. 166, 232 Pac. 531.

5683. Contracts of persons without understanding.

A contract made with a person entirely without understanding is void ab initio, while one made with a person of unsound mind "but not entirely without understanding," is voidable only at the suit of one seeking to rescind on one of the grounds mentioned in the chapter of the codes relating to rescission. Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

In an action by an incompetent by his guardian ad litem for the cancellation of a contract of sale of an automobile, complaint alleging, in substance, that plaintiff, at the time of the transaction, was entirely without understanding and without mental capacity to understand business transactions of the nature of that involved, and specifically charging that he did not understand, and was without mental capacity to understand, the transaction in question, stated a cause of action under this section. Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

Evidence held insufficient to sustain a finding that plaintiff, an alleged incompetent, was entirely without understanding at the time he executed a contract sought to be canceled under the provision of this section. Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

Where a contract is sought to be canceled on the ground of incompetency under this section on the ground that the incompetent was "entirely without understanding" at the time he made it, the proof need not show an entire lack of understanding on any subject, i. e., that his mind was an absolute void, it being sufficient to show such a degree of mental deficiency as to render him incapable of understanding a transaction of the nature involved in the action. Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

Testimony of lay witnesses that plaintiff was of unsound mind is not sufficient to establish that he was "entirely without understanding" within the meaning of this section, making such a contract absolutely void. Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

Plaintiff having based her action on the ground that at the time the deceased grantor executed the deed sought to be set aside she did not have capacity to make a contract under this section and not on the ground that she was entitled to rescind under section 5684, an allegation that she had restored or offered to restore everything of value deceased had received from defendant was not required. Kiley v. Dahaney, 61 Mont. 608, 202 Pac. 1110.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 32.

5684. Contracts of other persons of unsound mind.

Cited as section 3596, Revised Codes, in Kiley v. Dahaney, 61 Mont. 608, 613, 202 Pac. 1110.

5685. Power of persons whose incapacity has been adjudged—Effect certificate discharge from asylum. After his incapacity has been judicially determined, a person of unsound mind can make no conveyance or other contract, except where such contract confers a beneficial interest to his estate, nor delegate any power, nor waive any right, until his restoration to capacity; but a certificate from the medical superintendent or resident physician or other officer of the insane asylum to which such person may have been committed, whether said insane asylum is in this state or elsewhere, showing that such person has been discharged, released or paroled therefrom, cured and restored to reason, or discharged, released, or paroled in an improved condition shall establish the presumption of legal capacity in such person from the time of such discharge, release or parole.

lunatic's power to execute contract, note, 7 A. L. R. 579, 598.

CHAPTER 2.

PERSONAL RIGHTS—LIBEL AND SLANDER—PROTECTION TO PERSONAL RELATIONS.

5690. Libel defined.

Language of a newspaper article examined and held not libelous per se in Rowan v. Gazette Printing Co., 74 Mont. 326, 239 Pac. 1035.

Language of a newspaper article charging wrongdoing on the part of a road supervisor examined and held libelous per se in Manley v. Harer et al., 73 Mont. 253, 235 Pac. 757.

A newspaper article headed "The White-livered Shyster," which in its body imputed grossly criminal conduct to an attorney, and charged him with "creating sham issues," "preaching violation of the law and defiance of the Constitution he had sworn to defend," "inciting anarchy," etc., was libelous per se. Nolan v. Standard Publishing Co. et al., 67 Mont. 212, 216 Pac. 571.

5692. What communications are privileged.

A communication addressed by taxpayers to the board of county commissioners asking for the removal of a road supervisor and containing a libelous statement was not privileged under this section, subdivision 3, where made with malice. Manley v. Harer et al., 73 Mont. 253, 235 Pac. 757.

CHAPTER 3.

PERSONAL RELATIONS—MARRIAGE, HOW CONTRACTED AND AUTHENTICATED.

5695. What constitutes marriage.

Since there is no common law in Montana where the law is declared by the codes or the statutes, and under this section, consent of the parties to marry is not alone sufficient to bring about the relation but in the absence of a solemnization there must be a public assumption of the relation, there is no common-law marriage in this state where such public assumption was absent. State v. Newman, 66 Mont. 180, 213 Pac. 805.

5724. Declaration of marriage—How made.

The purpose of a declaration of marriage provided for by this section and section 5725, is to authenticate, and does not itself constitute, a marriage, and therefore such an instrument executed by defendant charged with rape and the prosecuting witness and filed on the day before the commencement of the trial and stating that the parties had married on the day on which the alleged crime was committed, was not sufficient to show marriage. State v. Newman, 66 Mont. 180, 213 Pac. 805.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 916.

5725. Contents of declaration.

Applied with section 5724 in State v. Newman, 66 Mont. 180, 213 Pac. 805.

CHAPTER 5.

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE—DIVORCE.

5734. Marriage—How dissolved.

By the enactment of sections 5734-5781, and sections 5800 and 5801, and others in pari materia with them, the subjects of divorce, separate maintenance, as well as the rights, duties and obligations of husband and wife were intended to be fully covered, and hence all rules there-before in force are thereby supplanted. Grimstad et al. v. Johnson et al., 61 Mont. 18, 25 A. L. R. 351, 201 Pac. 314.

5743. Consent to separation revocable.

Under this section, consent to a separation between husband and wife is a revocable act, and where thereafter one of the parties in good faith seeks a reconciliation, and restoration, refusal by the other is desertion. Giebler v. Giebler, 69 Mont. 347, 222 Pac. 436.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 670.

5745. Husband may select home.

Where husband and wife were living apart under a separation agreement, an offer of reconciliation made by the husband was not open to the charge that it was not made in good faith in the absence of a showing that at the time it was made he had secured and furnished a home for himself and wife, the statute not imposing such burden, and this section, providing that it is the privilege of the husband to choose any reasonable place of abode or mode of living, and if the wife does not conform thereto it is desertion. Giebler v. Giebler, 69 Mont. 347, 222 Pac. 436.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 676.

5747. Wilful neglect, what constitutes.

State ex rel. La Point v. District Court, 69 Mont. 29, 31, 220 Pac. 88.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 680.

5766. Period of residence required to entitle plaintiff to divorce.

In a divorce action the allegation in the complaint that plaintiff was at the time of its commencement, and had been for at least one year prior thereto, a resident of the state, is indispensable, as is also proof satisfactory to the court of that fact. Clark v. Clark, 64 Mont. 386, 210 Pac. 93.

Where in a divorce action the complaint contained the necessary allegation of plaintiff's residence within the state and the court had regularly obtained jurisdiction of the subject matter and the parties, and defendant made no appearance but allowed decree by default to be entered against her, she was in no position to attack the decree for fraud on the ground that the allegation in the complaint that plaintiff had been a resident of the state for the time required by this section was false, such fraud not having been extrinsic or collateral to the matter tried by the court as above defined. Clark v. Clark, 64 Mont. 386, 210 Pac. 93.

5768. Relief may be adjudged, when divorce is denied.

Cited in State ex rel. La Point v. District Court, 69 Mont. 29, 36, 220 Pac. 88.

5769. Expenses of action—Alimony.

The district court in the exercise of its equity jurisdiction may grant a wife a decree for separate maintenance, together with alimony, suit money and attorney's fees pending suit, asked for on the ground of wilful neglect, independently of an action for divorce, and it is not divested of such jurisdiction under the maxim "expressio unius est exclusio alterius" by the provision of this section, that in case of wilful desertion the wife may, without applying for a divorce, maintain such an action. State ex rel. La Point v. District Court, 69 Mont. 29, 220 Pac. 88.

An action against the husband for legal services rendered the wife in instituting divorce proceedings, which were dismissed by her soon after their commencement, did not lie under this section, which provides that while a divorce action is pending the court or judge may require the husband to pay suit money to enable the wife to prosecute (or defend) the action, the power thus conferred being exclusive and ancillary to, and not independent of, the divorce action. Grimstad et al. v. Johnson et al., 61 Mont. 18, 25 A. L. R. 351, 201 Pac. 314.

Plaintiff, in an action for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, had no property in her own right or means of support and was in ill health; the estate of defendant amounted to approximately $20,000 over and above his just debts and liabilities; the court awarded plaintiff $50 per month permanent alimony. Held, in view of the provision of this section, vesting in the district court absolute discretion as to the alimony to be paid by the husband, and the fact that the trial court had jurisdiction to modify its order relating to alimony at any time when considered necessary or desirable, that the decree in this respect was not open to reversal in the absence of a showing of abuse of discretion. *Boles v. 5770. Orders respecting custody of children.

While a decree fixing the custody of minor children in a divorce proceeding is final upon the conditions then existing, the court may modify it upon a showing that the then conditions have changed, the welfare of the children being the paramount consideration. Jewett v. Jewett, 73 Mont. 591, 237 Pac. 702.

5771. Support of wife and children on divorce or separation granted to wife.

In awarding alimony in a final decree of divorce, the amount which the wife should receive is not measured by the value of any certain portion of the husband's estate, but is to be determined by the equities of the case, having due regard for the financial condition and necessities of the parties. Wandel v. Wandel, 76 Mont. 160, 248 Pac. 864.

Under this section, and in the absence of legislation permitting it, the district court is without authority to compel the husband to whom a divorce has been properly granted for offense of the wife to make provision for her support, but that such support can only be awarded where divorce is granted the wife for the husband's offense. Bischoff v. Bischoff, 70 Mont. 503, 226 Pac. 508.

5786. Husband and wife may make contracts.

While a husband who borrows money from his wife with the understanding that it shall be repaid will be treated as her debtor, the unexplained payment of money by a wife to her husband does not raise a presumption that a loan was intended and she cannot enforce payment, the law on the contrary presuming that the advance was a gift not thereafter recoverable by her. Bast v. Bast et al., 68 Mont. 69, 217 Pac. 345.

Under this section and sections 5792 and 7895, the law presumes that the delivery by a married woman to her husband of two cashier's checks owned by her, which he cashed, were trusts or loans. Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

Cited in Harrison v. Riddell et al., 64 Mont. 466, 479, 210 Pac. 460.

5787. Extent to which their legal relation may be altered by contract—Separation agreement.

An agreement by husband and wife for immediate separation, making provision for the support of either and of their children, authorized by this section if fairly made and executed and free from fraud or imposition, coercion or duress, will be enforced, and is not ordinarily a bar to an action for divorce for cause then existing or arising subsequently thereto, in the absence of a covenant, express or implied, not to sue for past offenses. Sherman v. Sherman, 65 Mont. 227, 211 Pac. 321.

An agreement between husband and wife authorized by this section is void if entered into with the intent of bringing about or facilitating a divorce. Sherman v. Sherman, 65 Mont. 227, 211 Pac. 321.

An agreement between husband and wife providing for a property settlement between them must, under this section, be in writing. Clary v. Fleming, 60 Mont. 246, 198 Pac. 546.

Applied with sections 5786 and 7895 in Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

5793. Inventory of separate property of wife.

Evidence in an action for the conversion of restaurant fixtures claimed by the wife of a judgment debtor as her separate property and seized by the attaching creditor with constructive notice of plaintiff's claim by reason of an inventory filed by her under this section, over plaintiff's protests and objections, thus destroying a prosperous business in an effort to coerce her to pay her husband's debt, held sufficient to warrant an award of exemplary damages. Wray v. Great Falls Paper Co., 72 Mont. 461, 234 Pac. 486.

5797. Work and labor of wife.

The common-law rule that the wife owes the duty to the husband to attend to all ordinary household duties and labor in the advancement of the husband's interests without compensation was not changed, but is recognized, by this section in providing that all work and labor performed by a married woman for a person other than her husband and children is presumed to be performed for her own account. Gates v. Powell, 77 Mont. 554, 252 Pac. 377.

An action to recover for legal services in instituting divorce proceedings is not maintainable under this section, impliedly conferring authority upon the wife to charge her husband, as his agent, for the value of articles necessary for her support, a want of funds with which to prosecute a suit for a divorce not being a "necessary" as that term is employed in that section. Grimstad et al. v. Johnson et al., 61 Mont. 18, 25 A. L. R. 351, 201 Pac. 314.

CHAPTER 7.

DOWER.

5813. Dower.

In view of the code provisions relative to the right of dower depending upon eventualities which cannot be foreseen, it is impossible to place a valuation upon a widow's right in advance of her husband's death, and therefore plaintiff in an action for specific performance of a land contract to which the vendor's wife was not a party, requiring defendant to convey all his right, title and interest in the premises for the agreed price less the determined value of his wife's dower right, cannot claim abatement from the contract price. Rosenow v. Miller et al., 63 Mont. 451, 207 Pac. 618.

Cited in Mathews v. Marsden et al., 71 Mont. 502, 507, 230 Pac. 775; In re 5818. Absent wife need not sign deed.

In an action to compel a vendor to convey all his title and interest in property at a price stipulated in a contract to which his wife was not a party, less the determined value of latter's dower right, a complaint was defective which did not allege that plaintiff contracted in ignorance of the fact that defendant was a married man, or that his wife was or ever had been in the state, since, under this section, if she was never in the state she had no dower interest in the property. Rosenow v. Miller et al., 63 Mont. 451, 207 Pac. 618.

5819. Widow may elect.

5821. Rights of widow when no issue.

The remarriage of a widow did not deprive her of the right to elect to take a one-half interest in the estate of her deceased husband, under this section, in lieu of dower granted by section 5813, the word "widow" as used in those sections referring to the person and not to her then state or condition. Mathews v. Marsden et al., 71 Mont. 502, 230 Pac. 775.

Administrator's fees, attorney's fees and taxes on the estate for the current year remaining unpaid are not "just debts and claims against the deceased husband," within the meaning of this section, which must be paid before the widow is entitled to have one-half of the real property of which the husband died seized, set aside to her in lieu of dower. Mathews v. Marsden et al., 71 Mont. 502, 230 Pac. 775.

Under this section the father and mother of a legitimate unmarried child are equally entitled to its custody, and where a father, deeming the mother unfit to have charge of a child, had placed it in the care of his sister and her husband, the latter were his agents empowered to resist attempts of the mother to regain its custody by habeas corpus and the court could properly permit an investigation into facts which would have been available to the father if attempt had been made to take the child from him. In re Thompson, 77 Mont. 466, 251 Pac. 163.

5859. Consent of child's parent.

Under this section, providing that a legitimate child cannot be adopted without the consent of its parents, and section 5861 declaring that consent must be in writing, the court was without jurisdiction to enter an order of adoption where, the father consenting, the written consent of the mother was absent. State ex rel. Thompson v. District Court, 75 Mont. 147, 242 Pac. 959.

son v. District Court, 75 Mont. 147, 242 Pac. 959.

The provision of this section that a legitimate child cannot be adopted without the consent of its "parents," refers only to the lawful father and mother by blood, and not to a stepfather or stepmother, and that therefore the consent of a stepfather to the adoption of children of his deceased wife by their aunt is not necessary. *State ex rel. CHAPTER 9.GUARDIAN AND WARD.*5878. Rules of awarding custody of minors.

In awarding the custody of a minor, the welfare of the child is to be regarded more than the technical rights of the parents, and the decision of the district judge ought not to be disturbed except upon a clear showing of abuse of discretion lodged in him. In re Thompson, 77 Mont. 466, 251 Pac. 163.

Courts look upon settlements made by guardians with wards recently coming of age, as well as transactions between them, with distrust, and from the confidential relation existing between them it will be presumed that the ward was acting under the influence of the guardian and such transactions held constructively fraudulent and set aside unless shown to have been the deliberate act of the ward with full knowledge. 1895, is hereby authorized to amend its articles of incorporation so as to hereafter have and enjoy the privilege of continual succession conferred upon corporations thereafter organized under the provisions of the act approved March 5, 1903, (Laws of Montana 1903, chapter LXX, entitled: "An act to amend sections 860, 861, 862, 863 and 865 of the Civil Code, relating to religious, social and benevolent corporations"), or under laws amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, by resolution to that effect, adopted (a) at any regular annual meeting of the members of the corporation, or (b) at any special meeting of the members regularly called for the purpose by the directors or governing committee, or (c) at any meeting of the directors or governing committee upon the written consent of the majority of the members of the corporation; provided, that such resolution is adopted prior to the expiration of the period of forty years from and after the date of the filing of the original articles of incorporation. The resolution of amendment may be adopted at a meeting of the members upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then present, provided that a quorum of the members, as defined by the constitution or by-laws of the corporation, are present.

CHAPTER 2.

CHANGES IN CORPORATE ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT.

5918. Amendment articles of incorporation. Any corporation now existing or hereafter organized under the laws of the state of Montana may, in the manner herein provided, amend its articles of incorporation by changing the name, place of business or number of directors, by changing the number, par value, character, class or preference of its shares of capital stock, by increasing or decreasing the capital stock, by changing or extending its business to embrace any purpose for which corporations may be organized under the laws of Montana, by extending its term of existence within the limits provided by law, or by an amendment in respect to any other matter which might lawfully have been originally provided in such articles of incorporation.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 28, L. 1925.

5926. Extension term of corporate existence. Any corporation organized under the laws of the territory or state of Montana, whether organized previous to or after the taking effect of the codes of July 1, 1895, shall have power to extend the term of its existence, in the manner provided by law, for consecutive periods of not to exceed forty years each; provided, that at the time of any such extension the unexpired portion of its then authorized term of existence plus the term of the proposed extension shall not exceed forty years and sixty days; and provided further that nothing herein shall limit the existence of any corporation that may be by law permitted continual existence; and, provided further, that the state reserves the right to at any time alter, revoke or amend the powers and privileges herein granted to corporations.

DIRECTORS.

5933. Corporate powers and business exercised by board of directors—Number and membership of board—Quorum.

Where the ends of justice require it, corporate entity will be disregarded by a court of equity, as where the business of the corporation is being conducted by dummies, or where it is used as a mere fiction under the cloak of which business is being transacted. Scott v. Prescott, 69 Mont. 540, 223 Pac. 490.

The directors of a corporation act for it only as a body and therefore admissions or declarations of an individual director are not binding upon it unless authority to make them was duly conferred. Raish v. Orchard Canal Co., 67 Mont. 140, 218 Pac. 655.

Declarations of an officer or agent of a corporation bind the principal only when made by him while acting within the scope of his authority, and then only as part of the res gestae, if made at the very time the transaction to which they related took place. Raish v. Orchard Canal Co., 67 Mont. 140, 218 Pac. 655.

5939. Dividends to be made from surplus profits.

This section, before amendment, making the directors of a corporation individually liable to the corporation and its creditors, in the event of its dissolution, to the full amount of debts contracted by them in excess of its subscribed capital stock, was penal in character and their liability was not created by contract. Continental Oil Co. v. Montana C. Co., 63 Mont. 223, 207 Pac. 116.

Where an existing statute is amended "to read as follows," etc., the legislative assembly evinces an intention to make the new act a substitute for the old one and that so much only of the original act as is repeated in the new one is continued in force, and all portions omitted from the new act are repealed. Continental Oil Co. v. Montana C. Co., 63 Mont. 223, 207 Pac. 116.

The repeal of a statute without any saving clause takes away all the remedies existing under the repealed act and defeats all actions pending under it at the time of its repeal, and particularly so where the repeal is of a statute which creates a cause of action and provides a remedy not known to the common law. Continental Oil Co. v. Montana C. Co., 63 Mont. 223, 207 Pac. 116.

Under the above rules, in an action for the appointment of a receiver for a corporation by a creditor for the purpose of enabling the latter to prosecute an action against its directors to recover on their personal liability imposed upon them by this section before amendment, for incurring debts in excess of the subscribed capital stock of the corporation, the effect of chapter 37, L. 1919, amending section 3837, was to repeal that portion of the section imposing personal liability upon the directors, and, in the absence of a saving clause in the amendatory act, to take away the right of action against the directors. Continental

Oil Co. v. Montana C. Co., 63 Mont. 223, 207 Pac. 116.

The liability of directors under this section, not being founded in contract and there being no vested interest in an unenforced penalty, chapter 37, L. 1919, taking away the right of action against the directors of a corporation for incurring debts in excess of its subscribed capital stock, held not invalid as impairing the obligation of contract or interfering with vested rights. Continental Oil Co. v. Montana C. Co., 63 Mont. 223, 207 Pac. 116.

This section in relieving directors of the penalty imposed by section 3837, Revised Codes, 1907, is not objectionable as in contravention of section 13, article XV, of the constitution or violative of section 3 of the code, providing that no law is retroactive unless expressly so declared. *Continental Oil Co. v. ages? Aetna C. & S. Co. v. American B. Co., 63 Mont. 474, 208 Pac. 921.

5942.1. Authority to change insurance on officers of corporations how evidenced. (a) Whenever a corporation, organized under the laws of this state, has heretofore caused or shall hereafter cause to be insured the life of any director, officer, agent or employee, or whenever such corporation is named as a beneficiary in or assignee of any policy of life insurance, due authority to effect, assign, release, relinquish, convert, surrender, change the beneficiary, or to take any other or different action with reference to such insurance, shall be sufficiently evidenced to the insurance company by a written statement to that effect, signed by the president and the secretary or other corresponding officers of such corporation, under its corporate seal. Such statement shall be binding upon such corporation and shall protect the insurance company concerned in any act done or suffered by it upon the faith thereof without further inquiry into the validity of the corporate authority or the regularity of the corporate proceedings.

(b) No person shall be disqualified, by reason of interest in the subject matter, from acting as a director or as a member of the executive committee of such corporation on any corporate act touching such insurance.

Every corporation, having a capital stock, except banks, trust companies, and building and loan associations, shall by March 1st of each year hereafter, file in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of such corporation is situated, (and a certified copy thereof in the office of the secretary of state,) a report of the condition of said corporation on December 31st preceding, which shall state the amount of the authorized capital stock, the proportion thereof actually paid in, and the amount thereof actually paid in in cash, and the amount issued, if any in payment of property purchased, services rendered, or labor performed, and the amount of existing debts, and also the names and addresses of the directors or trustees, and of the president, vice-president, general manager (if any) and secretary and treasurer of the corporation. Such report shall be signed by the president or vice-president, and a majority of the directors, inclusive of the president or vice-president. The report shall be verified by the oath of the president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer of such corporation. If the directors or trustees of any corporation shall fail to file such report, the directors of the corporation shall jointly and severally be liable for all debts or judgments of the corporation which may thereafter be in anywise incurred until such report shall be made and filed; provided, however, that if within twenty days of such failure a director or directors shall make and file, as aforesaid, an affidavit or affidavits stating that the failure was due to no fault or neglect of his or theirs, and stating also that, after the thirty-first day of December of the preceding year and before said March 1st he or they requested the president or a sufficient number of the other directors, whose residence was known to the affiants, to join them in making report, such director or directors shall not be liable under this section. If the required report be made and filed after the time herein specified, the directors shall not, on account of the prior failure to make report, be liable for the debts thereafter contracted. Where such corporation, on account of insolvency or for any other reason, has ceased to be a going concern, and has ceased voluntarily to incur financial obligations, the directors may include a statement to that effect in their report, giving the reasons for cessation of the corporate activities of such corporation, and after two annual reports containing such statement have been filed, the directors shall not be liable for a failure to file annual reports during the time of such cessation of corporation activities.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 5, L. 1927.

The basis of an action to recover on the statutory liability of a director of a corporation for failure of the corporation to file the annual report of its financial condition required by this section is an antecedent debt due to plaintiff; the liability commences with and is dependent upon such debt at the time of the first default, is direct and primary and, having once attached, is not affected by the renewal of a note evidencing the debt, and is not renewed by subsequent defaults. Williams v. Hilger et al., 77 Mont. 399, 251 Pac. 524.

Since chapter 140, L. 1909, making it the duty of corporations to file an annual report of their financial condition under the penalty of the directors being held liable for the debts of the corporations, was repealed by chapter 189, L. 1919, without a saving clause, directors sued in 1923 on their statutory liability under section 6003 for failure to file a report for 1921 were precluded from setting up the omission of their company to file a report for 1918 under the repealed act as the foundation for a plea that the action against them was barred by section 9061, Revised Codes, providing that an action to recover the penalty in question must be brought within three years. First National Bank of Plains v. Barto et al., 72 Mont. 437, 233 Pac. 963.

The provisions of this section declaring that the directors and trustees of a corporation who fail to file with the county clerk and recorder of the county of its principal place of business an annual report of its condition shall jointly and severally be liable for all corporate debts or judgments then existing, or which may thereafter be incurred, until such report is made and filed, are applicable to co-operative associations organized for profit. Anderson v. Equity Co-operative Assn., 67 Mont. 291, 215 Pac. 802.

Under this section as amended by the act of 1919, the statement was not required to be filed before March 1, 1920, and therefore on the facts stated in the opinion the company was not in default at the time the action was commenced, and hence, there being no existing liability on the part of the directors at that time, the complaint did not state a cause of action. First Nat. Bank of Brockton v. Cosier et al., 66 Mont. 352, 213 Pac. 442.

The liability of a director for the debts of his corporation imposed by this section, for failure of the corporation to file its annual report exhibiting its financial condition, etc., does not arise out of a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, and that therefore a writ of attachment was improperly issued in an action by a creditor of a corporation against one of its directors to recover a debt owing to plaintiff by the corporation. Butler v. Peters, 62 Mont. 381, 26 A. L. R. 560, 205 Pac. 247.

The liability created by this section is in the nature of a penalty imposed for omission to obey the mandate of the law and is not contractual in character. Butler v. Peters, 62 Mont. 381, 26 A. L. R. 560, 205 Pac. 247.

PROCEDURE FOR SALE OF THE PROPERTY OF A CORPORATION.

6004. Procedure for sale, lease, etc., of corporate property.

Under the common-law powers reserved to corporations by the proviso in this section and enumerated in a general way in sections 5933 and 5994, the board of directors of a going corporation could, in the proper pursuit of its business and within the purposes of its creation, against the dissent of a minority of its stockholders, sell a leasehold interest in realty with improvements thereon, and where such sale was made before plaintiffs had judgment against the selling corporation, they acquired no title under execution sale, and nonsuit was properly granted in their action in ejectment against the purchaser. Wortman v. Luna Park Amusement Co., 61 Mont. 89, 201 Pac. 570.

Rep. Sec. 144, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

This section, providing that a bank is insolvent when its capital surplus and undivided profits are absorbed in losses "and the remaining assets will not be sufficient to discharge" its debts, construed to mean "and the remaining assets will not [when converted into cash at their present value] be sufficient," etc. State ex rel. Boone v. Tullock, 72 Mont. 482, 234 Pac. 277.

Cited in State ex rel. Butte etc. Co. v. District Court, 75 Mont. 567, 577, 244 Pac. 489; as section 1, chapter 90, L. 1923, in State v. Yegen, 74 Mont. 126, 140, 238 Pac. 603.

6014.1. Title and scope of act. This act shall be known as the "Bank Act" and shall be applicable to all corporations and persons specified in the next section, and to such other corporations as shall subject themselves, to special provisions and sections thereof, and to such other persons, copartnerships, or corporations who shall by violating any of its provisions become subject to the penalties provided therein.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 100.

NOTE.—This act is a complete codification of the banking laws of the state. The repealing clause showing sections of the Revised Codes of 1921 superseded by it will be found at section 6014.144 of this supplement.

6014.2. Institutions to which act is applicable. The word "bank," as used in this act, shall be construed to mean any corporation which shall have been incorporated to conduct the business of receiving money on deposit, or transacting a trust or investment business as hereinafter defined. The soliciting, receiving, or accepting of money or its equivalent on deposit as a regular business, shall be deemed to be doing a commercial or savings bank business, whether such deposit is made subject to check or is evidenced by a certificate of deposit, a pass-book, a note, or other receipt; provided, that nothing herein shall apply to or include money or its equivalent left in escrow, or left with an agent pending investment in real estate or securities for or on account of his principal. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, partnership, firm, or individual to engage in or transact a banking business within this state, except by means of a corporation duly organized for such purpose. Banks are divided into the following classes:

- (a) Commercial banks,
- (b) Savings banks,
- (c) Trust companies,
- (d) Investment companies, provided, further, however, that this act shall not apply to any person, firm or association now doing a private banking business; provided, however, that said private banks hereinabove referred to shall come under all of the provisions of this act which may be fairly applicable thereto; provided further, however, that this act shall not apply to any investment company or corporation, heretofore established under authority of the law of Montana, not accepting, receiving, and holding money on deposit.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.3. Number of persons necessary to form corporation. Corporations may be formed by any number of natural persons not less than three under the laws of this state to conduct, as provided in this act and not otherwise, any one, or more, or all of the businesses mentioned in the preceding section.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.4. Definitions of banks, etc.—Commercial bank defined. (a) The term “commercial bank,” when used in this act, means any bank authorized by law to receive deposits of money, deal in commercial paper, or to make loans thereon, and to lend money on real or personal property, and to discount bills, notes, or other commercial papers, and to buy and sell securities, gold and silver bullion, or foreign coins, or bills of exchange.

(b) Savings bank defined. The term “savings bank,” when used in this act, means a bank organized only for the purpose of accumulating and loaning the funds of its members, stockholders, and depositors, and which may loan and invest the funds thereof, receive deposits of money, loan, invest, and collect the same, with interest, and repay depositors with or without interest; with power to invest said funds and moneys in such property, securities, and obligations as may be prescribed by this act; and to declare and pay dividends on its general deposits, and a stipulated rate of interest on deposits made for a stated period, or upon special terms.

(c) Trust company defined—Purposes for which may be formed. The term “trust company,” when used in this act, means any corporation which is incorporated under the laws of this state for any one or more of the following purposes:

1. To receive moneys in trust, and to accumulate the same at such rates of interest as may be obtained or agreed upon, or to allow such interest thereon as may be agreed upon.

2. To accept and execute all such trusts and perform such duties of every description as may be committed to them by any person or persons whatsoever, or by any corporations, or may be committed or transferred to them by order of any of the courts of record of this state, or any other state, or of the United States.

3. To take and accept by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, or bequest, and hold any real or personal estate or trust created in accordance with the laws of this state, or any other state, or of the United States, and execute such legal trusts in regard to the same on such terms as may be declared, established, or agreed upon in regard thereto.

4. To act as agent for the investment of money for other persons or corporations, and as agents for persons and corporations for the purpose of issuing, registering, transferring, or countersigning the certificates of stock, bonds, or other evidence of debt of any corporation, association, municipality, state, or public authority as may be agreed upon.

5. To accept from and execute trusts for married women in respect to their separate property, whether real or personal, and act as agents for them in the management of such property, and generally to have and exercise such powers as are usually had and exercised by trust companies.

6. To act as trustee, assignee, or receiver in all cases where it shall be lawful for any court of record, officer, corporation, or person to appoint a trustee, assignee, or receiver, and to be appointed a trustee, assignee, or receiver, and to be appointed, commissioned, and act as administrator of any estate, executor of any last will and testament of any deceased person, and as guardian of the person and estate of any minor or minors, or of the estate of any lunatic, imbecile, spendthrift, habitual drunkard, or other persons disqualified or unable to manage their estates.

7. To loan money upon unencumbered real estate, collateral, or personal security, and execute and issue its notes, debentures, payable at a future date, and to pledge its mortgages upon real estate and other securities as security therefor.

8. To buy and sell government, state, county, municipal, and other bonds, and all kinds of negotiable, non-negotiable, and commercial paper, stocks, and other investment securities, buy and sell gold and silver bullion, foreign coins, bills of exchange, and foreign and domestic exchange.

9. To accept, receive, and hold money on deposit, payable either on time or on demand, with or without interest, as may be agreed upon with the depositors, and to take and receive from any individual or corporation on deposit for safekeeping and storage, gold and silver plate, jewelry, stocks, and securities, and other valuable and personal property, and to collect coupons, interest, and dividends on said above-described securities, and to rent out the use of safes and other receptacles on their premises upon such terms and for such compensation as may be agreed upon.

(d) Investment company defined—Purposes for which may be formed. The term "investment company," when used in this act, means any corporation which is incorporated under the laws of this state for any one or more of the following purposes:

1. To receive moneys in trust, and to accumulate the same at such rates of interest as may be obtained or agreed upon, or to allow such interest as may be agreed upon, and to issue and sell its contracts or certificates of indebtedness directly or through an agent or broker, bearing fixed rates of interest, in whole or in part, which participation or nonparticipation in the profits of the corporation, and maturing at fixed periods of time, or otherwise, as may be fully set forth in said contracts or certificates.

2. To buy and sell government, state, county, municipal, and other bonds, and all kinds of negotiable and non-negotiable and commercial paper, stocks, and other investment securities.

3. To accept, receive, and hold money on deposit, payable either on time or on demand, with or without interest, as may be agreed upon with depositors, and to collect coupons, interest, and dividends on said above described securities.

(e) Unincorporated and private bank defined. The term "unincorporated bank" shall comprehend "private bank," and shall include every unincorporated person, firm or association transacting banking business in this state, and the term "board of directors" shall include the owner or owners of such banks.

6014.5. Definition of words and terms. (a) The terms "capital," "capital stock" or "paid-in capital" means that fund for which certificates of stock are issued to stockholders in case of incorporated banks and that fund set aside and dedicated for capital purposes in case of private banks.

(b) The term "surplus" means a fund paid in or created pursuant to the provisions of this act by a bank from its net earnings or undivided profits, which when set apart and designated as such, is not available for the payment of dividends and cannot be used for the payment of expenses or losses so long as such bank has undivided profits.

(c) The term "undivided profits" means the credit balance of the profit and loss account of any bank.

(d) The term "profit and loss account" or "profit and loss" means that account carried on the books of the bank into which all earnings accounts and recoveries are closed, thus exhibiting "gross earnings" and against which all loss and other disbursement items are charged revealing "net earnings" which are then properly closed to "undivided profits accounts" or "undivided profits," out of which dividends are paid and reserves set aside.

(e) The term "net earnings" means the excess of the gross earnings of any bank over expenses and losses chargeable against such earnings during any one year.

(f) The term "time deposits" means all deposits, the payment of which cannot legally be required within thirty (30) days.

(g) The term "demand deposits" means all deposits, the payment of which can legally be required when demanded.

(h) The words "consolidate" and "merge" shall be deemed to mean the same thing and may be so used interchangeably in this act without loss of power.

(i) The word "superintendent" wherever it appears in this act shall be deemed to mean "superintendent of banks" or "state superintendent of banks" of the state of Montana.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.6. Organization and incorporation—Articles of agreement. Any three or more persons, desiring to associate themselves together for the purpose of becoming a corporation to engage in any one or more or all of the businesses mentioned in this act, shall sign and acknowledge, in the manner provided for the acknowledgment of deeds of real estate, articles of agreement, which shall set forth.

1. The corporate name of the proposed corporation which shall not be the name of any other corporation theretofore granted and then doing business of a similar character in this state, or any imitation of such name. Provided that it shall be lawful to use the name theretofore used by any corporation previously incorporated and doing business in the state of Montana, but which has been disincorporated, liquidated, dissolved and entirely out of business.

2. The name of the city or town and county in which the principal office of the corporation is to be located.

3. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation; the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the par value of such shares;

the amount of capital stock actually subscribed in good faith at the time of the signing of such articles of agreement; and the amount of the capital stock actually paid up in lawful money of the United States, and in the custody of some banking institution designated as the depository thereof until the proposed corporation is fully organized and authorized to engage in business.

4. The names and places of residence of the several shareholders, and the number of shares subscribed by each.

5. The number of the board of directors, and the names of those agreed upon for the first year.

6. The purpose for which the association or company is formed, which may be set forth by the use of the general terms herein defined, with reference to each line of business in which the proposed corporation desires to engage.

Thereupon the articles of agreement shall be presented to the superintendent of banks, together with an application in writing in the form prescribed by the superintendent of banks for a certificate authorizing the proposed corporation to transact within this state the business specified therein. Upon the presentation of the articles of agreement, together with such application, the superintendent of banks shall examine or cause an examination to be made in order to ascertain whether the requisite capital of such bank has been subscribed and been paid up in cash. He shall also determine whether the corporation is being formed for any other than the legitimate business contemplated by this act, or whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the opening of such bank, and whether the corporate name assumed by such bank, by reason of the use by it of any one or more of the words "commercial," "trust," "savings," or "investment," in conjunction with any other word or words, resembles so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank previously formed under this act. He shall also ascertain from the best sources of information at his command whether the character and general fitness of the persons named as stockholders are such as to command the confidence of the community in which such bank is proposed to be located. The expenses of the superintendent of banks in making the examination required by this act shall be paid by the proposed bank, and payment shall be made in advance if required by the superintendent of banks.

If the superintendent of banks shall not be satisfied with the result of his investigation, he shall refuse the application within sixty (60) days after the articles of agreement and the application have been presented to him, and so notify the incorporators named therein. If the superintendent of banks shall be satisfied with the result of his investigation, he shall, within sixty (60) days after such application has been made to him, issue under his hand and official seal the certificate of authorization, required by this act, in duplicate. The articles of agreement, together with one of such certificates of authorization, so issued, by the superintendent of banks, shall be filed in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which is located the principal place of business of the proposed bank, and a certified copy of the articles of agreement, together with the other certificate of authorization issued by the superintendent of banks, shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Upon filing with the secretary of state, the articles of agreement, and the certificate of authorization, and paying the fee required for the filing of articles of incorporation, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate setting forth that such corporation has been duly organized, the amount of its authorized and subscribed capital, and the business in which it is to engage; and such certificate shall be taken by all courts of this state as evidence of the corporate existence of such bank. The person so signing and acknowledging the articles of agreement, and their associates and successors, shall thereupon become and be a body corporate with power of continual succession, and by such name they and their successors shall be entitled to have, possess, and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by this act. Provided, that any bank, trust company or investment company now existing, may at any time, within the period limited for its duration, elect to avail itself of the right of continual succession herein given, by filing its intention so to do in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein such corporation is located and a copy thereof with the secretary of state, by paying the legal filing fees therefor. No such corporation shall be allowed to increase its capital stock by such filing without complying with the provisions of this act and paying the legal filing fees as in such cases otherwise provided.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 115.

6014.7. Rejection of certificate by superintendent of banks conclusive. In the event the application for a certificate of authorization shall be refused by the superintendent of banks, such action shall be final and conclusive.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.8. Amount of capital. The amount of the capital stock of a commercial bank shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and in addition thereto there shall be created a surplus of not less than ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the capital stock of said bank, which said surplus and capital stock shall be paid up in cash and deposited with some bank or banks at the time the application is made to the superintendent of banks for the certificate of authorization hereinabove mentioned.

That a commercial bank having its place of business in a city or town of not more than two thousand (2,000) and less than three thousand (3,000) inhabitants, as disclosed by the last authorized census, shall have a capital stock of not less than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), and a surplus of ten per cent (10%) of the capital stock as hereinbefore provided; that a commercial bank having its place of business in a city or town of more than three thousand ($3,000) and less than four thousand (4,000) inhabitants, as disclosed by the last authorized census, shall have a capital stock of not less than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) and a surplus of ten per cent (10%) of the capital stock as hereinbefore provided; that a commercial bank having its place of business in a city or town of more than four thousand (4,000) and less than six thousand (6,000) inhabitants, as disclosed by the last authorized census, shall have a capital stock of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and a surplus of ten per cent (10%) of the capital stock as hereinbefore provided; that a commercial bank having its place of business in a city or town of more than six thousand (6,000) and less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, as disclosed by the last authorized census, shall have a capital stock of not less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) and a surplus of ten per cent of the capital stock as hereinbefore provided; that a commercial bank having its place of business in a city or town of more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, as disclosed by the last authorized census, shall have a capital stock of not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) and a surplus of ten per cent (10%) of the capital stock as hereinbefore provided.

The amount of the capital stock of a savings bank, trust company, or investment company shall be fixed and limited by the articles of agreement, and shall be not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) nor more than ten million dollars ($10,000,000), of which amount at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) must be subscribed and fully paid up in cash and on deposit with some bank or banks in this state when the application is made to the superintendent of banks for the certificate of authorization hereinabove mentioned. The remainder of the authorized capital stock may be subscribed and paid in at such times and under such regulations as the board of directors of such corporation may determine. The shares of the capital stock of all banks shall have a par value of one hundred dollars ($100). No bank shall have preferred stock; provided that this act shall not require any bank in existence and doing business to increase its capital stock.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.9. Calling of first meeting. When the formation of the corporation is completed under the provisions of this act by the issuance of the certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, any three such incorporators signing the articles of agreement, may call the first meeting of the corporation at such time and place as they may appoint by giving notice thereof by publication in some newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office for the transaction of business is to be located, at least five (5) days before the time appointed for such meeting. If all the subscribers to the capital stock unite in a call for such meeting, in writing, no notice is necessary. If the first meeting be not called within thirty (30) days from the date of the certificate of incorporation, or if such corporation shall fail to commence the business for which it is incorporated within ninety (90) days from the date of the issuance of the certificate of authorization, the superintendent of banks is authorized to cancel such certificate of authorization.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.10. Board of directors—Qualifications, tenure, and vacancies. The affairs of the bank shall be managed by a board of directors, not less than three or more than eleven in number, all of whom shall be stockholders of such bank and citizens of the United States, and of whom at least three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) must be residents of the state of Montana. No person who shall have been convicted of a crime against the banking laws of the United States or of any state of the Union shall be elected a director. The directors shall be elected for a term of one year at the annual meeting of the stockholders, which shall be held on the second Tuesday in January of each year. In case the election shall not be made on the day fixed for the annual meeting, the corporation shall not thereby be dissolved, but an election may be had at any other time agreeable to the by-laws of the corporation, and the persons so elected shall hold their office until the second Tuesday in January following, or until others are elected and qualified. In case of death or resignation of one or more of said directors, the vacancy shall be filled by the board, and the directors so appointed shall hold office until the next annual election, at which time a director shall be elected to fill out the unexpired term. Every director shall take and subscribe an oath that he will diligently and honestly perform his duty in such office, and will not knowingly violate or permit a violation of any of the provisions of this act; that he is the owner in good faith of the required number of shares of stock in the bank standing in his name on the books of the bank. Such oaths shall be made in duplicate, one copy of which shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banks and filed in his office, and one copy shall be kept on file in the office of the bank.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 154.

6014.11. Director must own not less than one thousand dollars in stock. No person shall be eligible for election as director of a bank unless he is a stockholder of the bank, owning in his own right shares thereof of the par value of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000), and every person elected to be a director, who, after such election shall cease to be the owner in his own right of the amount of such stock aforesaid, or shall hypothecate or in any way pledge such stock as security for any loan or debt, shall immediately notify the superintendent of banks of such sale or hypothecation, and such director may be removed from the office of director by the superintendent of banks, unless such disability be removed by the acquisition of other shares of stock or release of such pledge within the time prescribed by the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.12. Selection of officers and employees—Meetings and minutes thereof. The board of directors shall have power to elect a president, one or more vice-presidents, cashier, and one or more assistant cashiers, and such other officers and employees as they may from time to time deem to be to the best interest of the bank, and fix their compensation. The president and at least one vice-president shall be chosen from the board of directors. The board of directors shall also elect a secretary, who shall keep a correct report of the meetings of the board and of the stockholders in a book kept for that purpose, which minutes shall particularly disclose the date of the meetings and the names of the directors or stockholders present. This record of the meetings of the board of directors shall be subscribed to by the presiding officer and secretary. Such minutes shall be read and approved at the next succeeding meeting of the board of directors, and the minutes of such next succeeding meeting shall show such fact. Such minute-book shall be kept in the office of the bank at all times, and shall be presented to the examiner at the time of his examination of the books, and it shall be the duty of such examiner to include in his report of examination of such bank a statement of the dates on which such meetings were held since the last examination of such bank by the examiner, and the names of the directors in attendance at each of said meetings. The board of directors of a bank must hold a meeting at least once a month. Any person who shall make a false entry in said book, or who shall change or alter any entry made therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

En. Sec. 12, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.13. By-laws. The persons signing the articles of agreement shall, at their first meeting, adopt by-laws for the government of the corporation, which by-laws may provide for:

1. The time, place, and manner of calling and conducting the meetings of the corporation;
2. The number of stockholders constituting a quorum;
3. The mode of voting by proxy;
4. The time of the annual election of directors, and the mode and manner of giving notice thereof;
5. The duties of officers;
6. The manner of election and the tenure of office of all officers other than the directors;
7. Suitable penalties for violation of by-laws, not exceeding in any case one hundred dollars ($100) for any one offense.

The by-laws adopted must be certified to by a majority of the directors and the secretary of the corporation, and recorded in the book of by-laws, which said book shall be open to the inspection of the public during the office hours of each day, except holidays. A copy of the by-laws shall also be transmitted to the superintendent of banks. The by-laws may be repealed or amended, or new by-laws be adopted, at the annual meetings, or at any other meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose by the directors, by a vote representing two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the subscribed stock, or the power to repeal and amend the by-laws and adopt new by-laws may, by a similar vote at the first meeting or any annual meeting, be delegated to the board of directors.

En. Sec. 13, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.14. Increase or diminution of capital stock—Authorized. Any bank now organized and existing, and which may hereafter be organized, may increase or diminish its capital stock by complying with the provisions of this act, to any amount which may be deemed sufficient and proper for its purposes within the limits prescribed by this act.

En. Sec. 14, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

Reduction of capital stock and distribution of capital assets, note, 44 A. L. R. 11.

Comptroller's supervision of reduction of capital stock of national bank, note, 44 A. L. R. 34.

6014.15. Change of corporate name authorized. The corporate name of any bank now organized and existing, or which may hereafter be organized, may be altered, changed, or amended as in this act provided.

En. Sec. 15, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

Applicability to banking business of statutes as to doing business under assumed or fictitious name or designation not showing names of persons interested, note, 45 A. L. R. 231.

6014.16. Change of place of business and number of directors authorized. Every bank now organized and existing, or which may hereafter be organized, may, upon approval of the superintendent of banks, change its principal place of business from one place to another, in the same county, or in an adjacent county, within this state, and may increase or diminish the number of trustees or directors in the manner hereinafter provided.

En. Sec. 16, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.17. Procedure for carrying into effect the three foregoing sections. Whenever any bank shall decide to call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of increasing or diminishing the amount of its capital stock, or for changing its corporate name, or for changing its principal place of business, it shall be the duties of the trustees or directors to publish a notice signed by at least a majority of them in a newspaper in the county, if any shall be published therein, six successive weeks, and to deposit a written or printed copy thereof in the postoffice, addressed to each stockholder at his usual place of residence at least six weeks previous to the day of meeting, specifying the object of meeting, the time and place when and where such meeting shall be held, and the amount to which it shall be proposed to increase or diminish the capital, or the name to which it is proposed that the bank shall be changed, or to the new location or place to which the principal place of business shall be changed, and a vote of at least two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of all of the shares of stock shall be necessary for an increase or diminution of the amount of its capital stock, or to change its corporate name, or to change its principal place of business.

En. Sec. 17, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.18. Certificate of proceedings—Contents and effect. If, at the time and place specified in the notice provided for in the last preceding section, the stockholders shall appear in person or by proxy representing not less than two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of all the shares of stock of the corporation, and shall organize by choosing one of the trustees or directors chairman of the meeting, and also a suitable person for secretary and proceed to a vote of those present in person or by proxy, and if, on counting the votes, it shall appear that two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the number of votes representing all the capital stock have been cast in favor of increasing or diminishing the amount of capital stock, or of changing its corporate name, or of changing its principal place of business, a certificate of the proceedings showing a compliance with the provisions of this act, the amount of capital stock actually paid in, the whole amount of debts and liabilities of the corporation, the amount to which the capital stock shall be increased or diminished, or the change in the corporate name of the corporation, or the change in the principal place of business, shall be made out, signed, and verified by the affidavit of the chairman, and be countersigned by the secretary, and such certificate shall be acknowledged by the chairman. Said certificate shall then be sent to the superintendent of banks, who shall within thirty (30) days of the receipt thereof, either approve or reject the application for change. The action of the superintendent of banks on said application shall be final. If he approves the same he shall notify the bank whereupon the certificate shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the bank is located and in the office of the secretary of state. Upon such filing the change shall be effective.

En. Sec. 18, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.19. Change of board by directors. A state bank may increase or diminish the number of its directors at any regular annual meeting of the stockholders of said bank, provided that the number of directors shall not at any time be less than three (3) nor more than eleven (11). The matter of changing the number of directors may be submitted to any annual meeting of the stockholders without special notice and if two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the total number of shares of the bank shall vote in favor of such change, the result of the vote on the proposal to change, shall be certified to the state superintendent of banks for his approval or disapproval. If he shall approve the proposed change and signify the same in writing, the change shall then be effective, but if he shall disapprove the proposition to make said change, his action will be final and conclusive. In case the state superintendent of banks shall approve of a change to increase or diminish the number of directors and shall so notify the officers of the bank the order of approval shall be filed with the records and papers of said bank, and the number of directors shall from the date of said approval by the superintendent of banks, be in accordance with the vote of the stockholders as herein provided. In any event the superintendent of banks must, within thirty (30) days from the receipt of any application, notify the officers of the bank in writing of his action upon the application.

En. Sec. 19, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.20. Dissolution and disincorporation. Commercial banks, savings banks, trust companies and investment companies now organized and existing, or which may be hereafter organized, may be dissolved in the manner provided by the laws of Montana applicable to the dissolution of other corporations, except it shall be legal for any bank, upon a vote of two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of its stockholders at a special meeting called for that purpose in accordance with the by-laws of the bank, to voluntarily quit business and liquidate upon the payment of its debts, exclusive of liability to stockholders, or upon agreement with all of its creditors to a plan of liquidation. Any agreement made with creditors which does not contemplate the immediate payment thereof shall be subject to the approval of the state superintendent of banks, but nothing in this section contained shall prevent the superintendent from taking charge of any bank at any time when in his opinion the interests of creditors or stockholders are not being protected. The decision of the superintendent of banks in said matter to be controlling.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

The stockholders in any bank who shall have transferred their shares or registered the transfer thereof, within six (6) months last before the failure of said bank to meet its obligations, or with knowledge of such impending failure, shall be liable to the same extent, as if they had made no such transfer to the extent that the subsequent transferee fails to meet such liability; but this provision shall not be construed to affect in any way recourse which such stockholder might otherwise have against those in whose name such shares are registered at the time of such failure.

At any time after taking possession of a bank for the purpose of liquidation, the liquidating officer, duly qualified under the laws, as soon as he ascertains that the assets of such bank will be insufficient to pay its debts and liabilities may proceed to collect and enforce the stockholders' liability. For that purpose he may institute and maintain, in his own name as such liquidating officer appropriate suits or actions in any state or federal court of competent jurisdiction. He may receive and receipt for moneys received on account of stockholders' liability and any money so paid to the liquidating officer by a stockholder in whole or partial satisfaction of his liability, shall not be deemed paid voluntarily, but shall give the stockholder the same protection to the extent of the amount paid as if the payments were made after suit by creditor or liquidating officer. The liquidating officer is authorized by and with the consent of the court having jurisdiction of such liquidation to compromise, settle and compound claims for stockholders' liability and such settlements and compromises when approved by the court shall be legal and binding upon all parties concerned, including creditors.

All sums collected by a liquidating officer on account of stockholders' liability, either received from voluntary payments or collected by suits, settlements or compromises, shall be distributed to the creditors of the bank according to their several rights in the same proportion as the amount of a given claim of a creditor bears to the amount of the claims of all creditors, and without regard to the rank or class or character of claims and without diminution, except that the said liquidating officer may deduct from amounts collected, the court costs or attorney's fees and other expenses incurred by him in the prosecution of any action for the collection thereof.

The liquidating officer of a bank shall have the power to decide when the assets of a failed bank are not sufficient to pay the debts, contracts, engagements and liabilities and he may determine the question of the time when and the court where necessary suits shall be instituted subject to the general provisions of law governing venue and place of trial. For the purposes of this section the term "liquidating officer" shall be held to include every person legally empowered to liquidate the business and affairs of a state bank whether the same be by superintendent of banks, his deputies and agents and also all receivers of state banks now or hereafter qualified to liquidate a state bank under any law of Montana.

6014.22. Transfer of shares of stock. The delivery of a certificate of stock to a bona fide purchaser or pledgee for value, together with a written transfer of the same, or a written power of attorney to sell, assign, and transfer the same, signed by the owner of the certificate, shall be a sufficient delivery to transfer the title as against the creditors of the transferor and subsequent purchasers; but no such transfer shall affect the right of the corporation to pay any dividend due upon the stock, or treat the holder of record as the holder in fact, until such transfer is recorded upon the books of the corporation, or a new certificate issued to the person to whom it has been transferred.

President's or vice-president's representation as to stock, note, 1 A. L. R. 700.

6014.23. Elections—How conducted. All elections must be by ballot, and every stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy the number of shares standing in his name for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit. The board of directors may prescribe the form and manner of executing proxies. The shares of stock of an estate of a minor, or of a person of unsound mind, may be represented and voted by his guardian, and of a deceased person by his executor or administrator, and every person who shall pledge his stock may nevertheless represent and vote the same at all meetings, unless the pledgor appoints the pledges [pledgee] as a proxy in accordance with the by-laws of the company. The board of directors may provide for the closing of the stock books of the company for such length of time prior to the annual election as may be by it deemed convenient for the making up of the lists of the stockholders. Any regular or called meeting of the stockholders may adjourn from day to day or from time to time, if for any reason, there is not present a quorum or no election is had, such adjournment and the reasons therefor being recorded in the minutes of said meeting. All elections and other actions at meetings of stockholders or directors shall be conducted in accordance with the laws of the state of Montana governing corporations in general, except as herein otherwise specially provided.

En. Sec. 23, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.24. Investment of capital of savings banks. At least one-half of the paid-in capital of a savings bank, and one-half of the whole amount deposited therein, must be invested in bonds or other securities of the United States, or any of the states of the United States, or any county, city, town or school district of this state, on which interest is regularly payable, or federal land bank bonds or loaned on unencumbered real estate worth at least double the amount to be secured. The remainder may be invested in the aforesaid character of securities, or in approved personal securities, but no loan must be made on personal securities of less than two responsible persons, or collateral security to be approved by the directors, and no loan upon personal security shall be made to any one person or copartnership to an amount exceeding ten thousand dollars. No president, vice-president, director or other officer or servant of a savings bank shall directly or indirectly borrow any of the funds of such bank or of its deposits, or in any manner use the same in his private affairs or business, nor shall any director receive any pay, salary, or emolument until such interest as the directors shall have determined to allow depositors shall have been provided for in accordance with the regulations of the corporation.

The real estate which such corporation may lawfully purchase, hold and convey is:

1. Such as may be necessary for the proper transaction of its business, not exceeding in value fifty thousand dollars.

2. Such as is mortgaged to it in good faith for moneys loaned in pursuance of the provisions of this act, or given as security for money loaned or advanced.

3. Such as is purchased at the sale on judgment or decree obtained or rendered on money so loaned or advanced.

Savings banks organized under the provisions of this act must not purchase, hold, or convey real estate in any other case, or for any other purpose than herein specified, and shall not buy or sell any personal property, except such as may be necessary for the proper transaction of its business, or such as may have been pledged, mortgaged, or assigned to it to secure moneys loaned or advanced; provided, the term "savings bank" as used in this section, shall mean any bank organized to do the business specified in subdivision (b) of section 4 of this act.

En. Sec. 24, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.25. Real estate which banks may purchase, hold or convey. Banks organized under the provisions of this act may purchase, hold, or convey real estate as follows:

1. Such as is necessary for the proper transaction of its business, but it shall not invest an amount exceeding fifty per cent of its paid-up capital and surplus in the lot and building in which the business of the company is carried on, furniture and fixtures, vaults and safety vaults, and boxes necessary or proper to carry on its banking business.

2. Such as is mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously made by or moneys due to the corporations.

3. Such as is conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

4. Such as it purchases at sales under judgments, decrees, or mortgages held by the company.

Real estate acquired in the manner set forth in subdivisions 3 and 4 hereof shall not be held longer than period of five years from the date of acquisition, unless special written permission to do so be granted by the superintendent of banks. Said real estate to be carried on the books of the bank for an amount not greater than the cost thereof to the bank, including costs of foreclosure and other expenses of acquiring title.

Power of national bank to deal with property taken to secure debt, note, 10 A. L. R. 1045.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 174.

6014.26. Trust companies—Dealing in property and investment of capital. Trust and investment companies may lease, purchase, hold, and convey all such real or personal property as may be necessary to carry on their authorized business, as well as such real or personal property as the board of directors may deem necessary to acquire in the enforcement or settlement of any claims or demands arising out of business transactions, and may execute and issue, in the transaction of their business, all necessary receipts, certificates, and contracts. The board of directors of any such corporation is authorized to invest the capital and assets of said corporation, and keep the same invested, in securities to be approved by the said board, and it shall be lawful for the board to make such investments of its capital and assets, and of the funds accumulated by its business, including money, deposits, or any part thereof, in negotiable or non-negotiable notes or bonds, mortgages on unencumbered real estate, stocks and bonds of corporations, or bonds and warrants of any county, city, town or school district of this state, or any other state of the United States, legally authorized to issue the same, or bonds or obligations of the United States.

En. Sec. 26, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.27. Limitation of loan on real estate. No commercial bank shall, except for the purpose of facilitating the sale of property owned by the bank, make any loan on the security of real estate, unless it is a first lien and does not exceed fifty per centum of the market value of the real estate taken as security.

No commercial bank shall loan in the aggregate more than twenty-five per centum of its assets on real estate loans of the character specified in this section, nor shall any such loan be made for a longer time than five years.

These provisions, however, shall not prevent any bank from taking another and immediately subsequent mortgage or deed of trust when it already holds a first mortgage or deed of trust thereon on such real estate, nor from accepting a second lien on real estate to secure the repayment of a debt previously contracted in good faith; nor shall it prevent subsequent liens of any kind from being taken to secure the payment of a debt previously contracted in good faith, when, in the judgment of the directors of such bank, such subsequent liens are necessary further to secure the payment of any debts and save such bank from loss; provided, the term "commercial bank" as used in this section, shall mean a bank organized to do the business specified in section 4 of this act, only.

En. Sec. 27, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.28. Banks empowered to join federal reserve bank. Any bank is hereby authorized and empowered to join or associate itself with the federal reserve bank, or any branch thereof, and nothing herein contained shall prevent or prohibit any bank from joining or associating itself with any such banks or branch thereof, or from investing any part of its capital or surplus in the stock of such bank, in accordance with the terms and provisions of the act of congress creating such association. Any bank joining or associating itself with such bank shall be permitted to conform to and transact its business in accordance with the terms and provisions of the act of congress creating the same, and the rules and regulations of such federal reserve bank.

6014.29. Business prohibited unless under superintendent of banks. No person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, either domestic or foreign, not subject to the supervision of the superintendent of banks, and not required by the provisions of this act to report to him, and which has not received a certificate to do a banking business from the superintendent of banks, shall advertise that he or it is receiving or accepting money or savings for deposit, investment, or otherwise, and issuing notes or certificates of deposit therefor, or shall make use of any office sign, at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank or trust company, or that deposits are received there or payments made on check, or any other form of banking business, transacted, nor shall any such person, or persons, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, make use of or circulate any letter-heads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, or circulars, or any written or printed or partly written and partly printed paper, whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name of [or] other word or words indicating that such business is the business of a bank, savings bank, or trust or investment company; nor shall any such person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, or any agent of a foreign corporation, not having an established place of business in the state, solicit or receive deposits or transact business in the way or manner of a bank, savings bank, trust or investment company, or in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank, savings bank, trust, or investment company. Nor shall any person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, not subject to the supervision of the superintendent of banks, and not required by the provisions of this act to report to him, and which has not received from the superintendent of banks a certificate to do a banking business, hereafter transact business under any name or title which contains the word "bank," "banker," "banking," "savings bank," "saving," "trust," "trustee," "trust company," or "investment company." Any person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars a day for every day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Upon action brought by the superintendent of banks, the court may issue an injunction restraining any such person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation from further using such words in violation of the provisions of this section, or from further transacting business in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank, savings bank, trust, or investment company, during the pendency of such action, and for all time, and may make such other order or decree as equity and justice may require.

6014.30. Capital stock to be paid up—Superintendent of banks. Every person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, advertising that he or it is receiving or accepting money or savings, and issuing notes or certificates of deposit therefor, or advertising that he or it is transacting the business of a bank, savings bank, or trust company, or making the use of any office sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank, savings bank, or trust company, or that deposits are received there or payments made on check or that interest is paid on deposits, or that certificates of deposit, either with or without interest, are being issued or that any other form of banking business is transacted, and every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation, domestic or foreign, making use of or circulating any letter-heads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, or circulars, or any written or printed, or partly written and partly printed paper whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or advertising that such business is the business of a bank, savings bank, or trust company, must have the proper capital stock paid in and set aside for the purpose of transacting such business, and must have received from the superintendent of banks, as provided for in this act, a certificate to do a banking business. Any person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars a day for every day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Upon action brought by the superintendent of banks, the court may issue an injunction restraining any such person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation from further violating any provision of this section, and may make such further order or decree as equity and justice may require. Every person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation doing any of the things or transacting any of the business defined in this section, must transact such business according to the provisions of the bank act, and the superintendent of banks or his deputy or examiners, shall have authority to examine the accounts, books, papers, cash, and credits of every such person, firm, company, copartnership, or corporation, domestic or foreign, in order to ascertain whether such person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation has violated or is violating any provisions of this section.

En. Sec. 30, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.31. Foreign corporations. Any corporation organized under the laws of any country or state other than this state, which has complied with all of the laws of this state pertaining to foreign corporations and is not engaged in the business of banking or receiving money on deposit in this state, may lend money in this state, and, for that purpose, may maintain offices in this state, and sue and be sued in this state under its proper corporate name, notwithstanding any prohibitions contained in this act as to the use of any words in the name, sign, or advertising matter of corporations not under the supervision of the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 31, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.32. Advertisement of capital must state amount paid in. No bank, or officer thereof, shall advertise in any manner, or publish any statement of the capital authorized or subscribed, unless it or he advertise and publish in connection therewith, the amount of capital actually paid up. No bank shall publish a statement of its resources or liabilities in connection with those of any other bank, unless such statement shall show the resources and liabilities of each bank separately.

En. Sec. 32, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.33. Keeping of book with list of stockholders. Every bank shall keep in its offices, in a place accessible to the stockholders, depositors, and creditors thereof, and for their use, a book containing a list of stockholders in such corporation, and the number of shares of stock held by each.

En. Sec. 33, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.34. Dividends, surplus, losses and bad debts. The directors of any bank may, at certain times and in such manner as its by-laws prescribe, declare and pay dividends to the stockholders of so much of the net undivided profits of the banks as may be appropriated for that purpose, but every bank shall, before declaring any such dividend, carry at least twenty-five per cent of its net earnings for the period covered by the dividend, to its surplus, until such surplus shall amount to fifty per centum of its paid-up capital stock. The whole or any part of such surplus may at any time be converted into paid-in capital and in such event the surplus shall be restored in the manner above provided until it amounts to fifty per cent of the aggregate paid-up capital stock. A larger surplus may be created and nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibitory thereof. Provided, however, that no such dividend shall be declared or paid, while there shall remain among the ledger assets of the bank, any item which shall properly be classified as a bad debt.

Under the terms of this section and before any dividend can be paid, all debts due a bank on which the interest is past due and unpaid for a period of twelve months after maturity, unless the same be well secured, or in legal process of collection, and all judgments held by the bank after two years from the date of rendition, exclusive of time consumed in appeal, unless payments have been made, shall be considered bad debts. Such bad debts as hereinbefore defined, shall be charged off the books of such bank before any dividend is declared.

Losses sustained by a bank in excess of its undivided profits, may be charged to and paid from the surplus, in which event such surplus shall be restored in the manner above provided, to the amount required by this act.

En. Sec. 34, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.35. Safe deposit department. Any bank may conduct a safe deposit department, but shall not invest more than one-tenth of its capital and surplus in such safe deposit department. The liability of any bank for the safe keeping and protection of the contents of safety deposit boxes shall be determined by the contract indorsed on the receipt delivered to the renter of said box at the time of the rental, but in any event the obligation of the bank shall be limited to the exercise of ordinary diligence and care to protect the contents of the box from loss or damage by fire, theft or other causes.

6014.37. Sale of securities by officer to bank. No director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank, shall, directly or indirectly, for his own account, for himself, or as the partner or agent of others, sell or transfer, or cause to be sold or transferred, to the bank of which he is a director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder, any note or bond secured by any mortgage or trust deed on real estate, or any contract arising from the sale of real estate, in which such director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder is personally or financially interested, without a vote of the majority of the board of such bank, duly noted upon the minutes of the meeting at which such transaction is decided upon, which minutes shall be signed by a majority of the board. Any director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank who knowingly violates or consents to the violation of this provision shall be guilty of a felony.

En. Sec. 37, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.38. Limit on amount of bond issue. No commercial bank shall purchase, agree to purchase, or underwrite any bond issue in excess of ten per centum of its assets, except bonds of the United States, of the state of Montana, of the cities, towns, counties, or school districts of this state.

En. Sec. 38, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.39. Disposition of acquired stock. No commercial or savings bank shall purchase or invest its capital or surplus, or money of its depositors, or any part of either, in the capital stock of any corporation, unless the purchase or acquisition of such capital stock shall be necessary to prevent loss to the bank on a debt previously contracted in good faith. Any capital stock so purchased or acquired shall be sold by such bank within six months thereafter, if it can be sold for the amount of the claim of such bank against it; and all capital stock thus purchased or acquired must be sold for the best price obtainable by said bank within one year after such purchase or acquisition. Every person or corporation violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state twice the nominal amount of such stock.

En. Sec. 39, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.40. Obtaining property by fraud—False report—Refusal to permit inspection of books. A director, officer, agent, or employee of any bank who

1. Knowingly receives or possesses himself of any of its property, otherwise than in payment for a just demand, and with intent to defraud, omits to make or to cause or direct to be made a full and true entry thereof in its books and account; or,

2. Concurs in omitting to make any material entry thereof; or,

3. Knowingly concurs in making or publishing any written report, exhibit, or statement of its affairs or pecuniary condition, containing any material statement which is false; or,

4. Having the custody or control of its books, wilfully refused or neglects to make any proper entry in the books of such corporation as required by law, or to exhibit, or allow the same to be inspected and extracts to be taken therefrom by the superintendent of banks, his chief deputy, or any of his examiners, shall be guilty of a felony.

En. Sec. 40, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.41. Overdraft by officer or employee—Receiving personal profit from loan. Any officer, director, agent, teller, clerk or employee of any bank who either,

1. Knowingly overdraws his account with such bank, and thereby obtains the money, notes, or funds of any such bank; or,

2. Asks or receives, or consents or agrees to receive, any commission, any premium on insurance, emolument, gratuity, or reward, or any money, property, or thing of value for his own personal benefit or of personal advantage, for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person, firm, or corporation any loan from, or the purchase or discount of any paper, note, draft, check, or bill of exchange, by such bank, or for authorizing and permitting any person, firm, or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

6014.42. Waiver of stockholders' liability. No bank shall make any contract with any of its depositors whereby the stockholders' liability provided for by this act is in any manner waived, and if any such contract shall be so made, such contract shall be void.

En. Sec. 42, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.43. Purchase of obligation of bank by officer. No directors, officer, agent or other employee of any bank, shall, directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase or sell or be interested in the purchase or sale of any obligation of said bank, or of any of the assets of said bank, for a sum less than shall appear upon the face of the obligation or obligations so purchased or sold. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall, in addition to the general penalties of this act, forfeit to the state twice the nominal amount or face value of such obligations or assets so purchased or sold.

6014.44. Limitations on loans. The total loans to any person, co-partnership or corporation by any bank, including loans to a copartnership, and loans to the several members thereof, shall at no time exceed twenty per centum (20%) of the amount of the unimpaired capital and surplus of such bank. The discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actual existing values, the discount of bankers, acceptances of other banks, the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same, and the obligations of the United States or general obligations of any state or of any political subdivision thereof, or obligation issued under authority of the Federal Farm Loan Act, shall not be considered as money borrowed, nor shall the foregoing limitations apply to loans made on warehouse receipts and bills of lading, when such warehouse receipts and bills of lading cover nonperishable commodities of the marketable value of at least one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of the amount loaned thereon.

The combined liabilities of the several members of any firm, copartnership or unincorporated association to the loaning bank shall be included in the liabilities of such firm, copartnership or unincorporated association, and the liabilities of such firm, copartnership or unincorporated association shall be included in the liabilities of any member thereof in determining the foregoing limitations.

When in the judgment of the superintendent of banks, the liabilities of any corporation or the combined liabilities of any corporation and one or more of its stockholders to any bank are excessive, he shall require the reduction thereof to such limits and within such time as he shall prescribe.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 283.

6014.46. Calculation of profits. Interest or commissions unpaid, although due or accrued, on debts owing to any bank, shall not be included in calculation of its profits.

En. Sec. 46, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.47. Certified checks. Whenever a check drawn on any bank is certified by any officer or employee of such bank, the amount thereof shall be immediately charged against the account of the person, firm, or corporation drawing the same. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of any bank to certify any check drawn upon such bank, unless the person, firm or corporation drawing the check has on deposit with the bank at the time such check is certified, an amount of money subject to the payment of such check, equal to the amount specified in such check. Any officer or employee of any bank who shall wilfully violate the provisions of this section, or shall resort to any device, or receive any fictitious obligation, directly or indirectly, in order to evade the provisions thereof shall have been regularly entered to the credit of the drawer, shall be guilty of felony.

6014.48. Interest not to exceed lawful rate. No bank shall demand or receive for loans or discounts, a rate of interest exceeding that allowed by law, excepting that it shall be lawful for any bank to receive interest in advance according to the ordinary usages of banking institutions.

En. Sec. 48, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.49. Joint deposits—Survivorship. When a deposit has been made, or shall hereafter be made, in any bank, in the names of two (2) persons, payable to either, or payable to either or the survivor, such deposit, or any part thereof, or any interest or dividend thereon, may be paid to either of said persons, whether the other be living or not; and the receipt or acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release or discharge to the bank for any payment so made.

En. Sec. 49, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.50. Trust deposits—Payment. Whenever any deposit shall be made in any bank by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to the bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same, or any part thereof, together with the interest or dividends thereon, may be paid to the person for whom said deposit was made.

6014.51. Deposit by minor. Whenever any deposit shall be made in any bank, and by and in the name of any minor, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such minor, and free from the control or lien of all persons whatsoever, except creditors, and shall be paid, with any interest due thereon, to the person in whose name the deposit shall have been made, and the receipt of such minor shall be a sufficient release or discharge for such deposit to the bank.

En. Sec. 51, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.52. Demand or time deposits. Demand deposits, within the meaning of this act, shall comprise all deposits payable within thirty (30) days, and time deposits shall comprise all deposits payable after thirty (30) days, and all savings accounts and certificates of deposit which are subject to not less than thirty (30) days' notice before payment.

6014.53. Reserve requirements. Every bank, except a reserve bank, shall maintain at all times a reserve of at least ten per centum (10%) of its deposit liabilities, of which reserve such portion as the board of directors may determine may be on deposit in banks approved by the superintendent of banks as reserve banks. A bank approved by the superintendent of banks as a reserve bank must at all times maintain a reserve of at least fifteen per centum (15%) of its deposit liabilities, of which such portion as the board of directors may determine, may be on deposit in banks approved by the superintendent of banks as reserve banks. Any solvent bank of good repute having a full paid-up capital and surplus of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), doing business in the state of Montana, or any of the states of the United States may be designated by the superintendent of banks as a reserve agent for Montana state banking institutions. Such approval or designation may be withdrawn or withheld at any time by the superintendent of banks for cause, provided that the provisions of this act as to the capital and surplus shall not apply to any bank in Montana heretofore designated by the superintendent of banks as a reserve bank. Whenever the reserve of any bank shall fall below the amount required herein to be kept, such bank shall not increase its loans or discounts otherwise than by discounting or purchasing bills of exchange payable at sight or on demand, and the superintendent of banks shall notify any bank whose reserve may be below the amount herein required, to make good such reserve. In arriving at deposit liabilities with regard to bank deposits, the net balance of amounts due to and from other banks shall be taken as the basis for ascertaining the deposit liability to banks against which reserves shall be carried, provided, a compliance with the federal reserve banking laws, rules and regulations by member banks shall be held to be a compliance with the reserve requirements and conditions of this act.

En. Sec. 53, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.54. Borrowed money. No bank shall at any time become indebted either directly or indirectly for borrowed money or rediscounts in an amount in excess of its paid-up capital and surplus, without first obtaining written authority from the superintendent of banks, provided, that debentures or certificates of indebtedness issued by any investment company to run for a period of three (3) years or more, shall not be included in the deposit liabilities of said investment company, as effected by the provisions of this section, and entitle such federal reserve member banks to the rights and privileges accruing from a compliance with this act.

En. Sec. 54, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.55. State banking department. The state banking department of the state of Montana shall be maintained as in this act provided. The state examiner of the state of Montana shall be ex-officio superintendent of banks. Said state examiner and ex-officio superintendent of banks, hereinafter called the superintendent of banks, or for brevity the superintendent, shall be appointed by the governor and the appointment must be submitted to and confirmed by the senate of the state of Montana. The state examiner and superintendent of banks shall have been a resident of the state of Montana for three (3) years and shall have had at least five (5) years' banking experience in an executive capacity or as an examiner of banks, and active in either of these capacities up to within two (2) years of his appointment.

En. Sec. 55, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.56. State superintendent of banks—Bond. The term of office of the superintendent of banks shall be four (4) years from and after his appointment, and it shall be his duty to execute all laws in relation to banks, acting personally or through his examiners, regular or special. He shall file a bond as superintendent of banks in a penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) with a surety or sureties to be approved by the governor, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office as superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 56, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.57. State superintendent of banks—Employees. The superintendent of banks shall have the power and authority with the approval of the governor to appoint such clerks and examiners, both regular and special, one of whom may be designated chief examiner, as may be necessary for the proper transaction of the business of the department. The examiners shall qualify by taking the oath of office required of other state officers and giving a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), to be approved by the governor, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of state bank examiners, and be commissioned by the superintendent of banks as such examiners.

En. Sec. 57, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.58. Superintendent of banks and employees not to be interested in banks. Neither the superintendent of banks nor any bank examiner shall be interested in or a borrower from any state bank, directly or indirectly.

En. Sec. 58, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.59. Superintendent of banks—Salary. The superintendent of banks shall receive a salary of five thousand four hundred dollars ($5,400) per annum, payable monthly. The salaries of all clerks and bank examiners appointed by the superintendent of banks, shall be fixed by the superintendent of banks, subject to the approval of the governor.

En. Sec. 59, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.60. Payment of expenses of superintendent. The necessary traveling and living expenses of the superintendent of banks and the members of his staff incurred in the discharge of their duties when away from headquarters shall be borne by the state of Montana, and paid for from the appropriation made for the maintenance of the department. The superintendent of banks is authorized to attend the Montana bankers' association, and shall be entitled to receive from the state of Montana his necessary traveling and living expenses incurred in such attendance.

En. Sec. 60, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.61. Report to superintendent of banks. Every bank shall make to the superintendent of banks regular call reports according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by oath or affirmation of the president, vice-president or cashier of such bank and attested by the signature of at least two (2) of the directors other than the subscribing officer. Each such report shall exhibit in detail, and under appropriate schedules, the resources and liabilities of the bank at the close of business on any past day by him specified; and shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banks within five (5) days after the receipt of a request or requisition therefor from him, and in such form as may be required by the superintendent of banks, it shall be published as soon as possible in a newspaper published in the place where such bank is established, or, if there be no newspaper in the place, then in one published nearest thereto in the same county, at the expense of the bank; and such proof of the publication shall be furnished at such times and in such manner as may be required by the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 61, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.62. Report of declaration of dividend. In addition to the statement required by the preceding section, every such bank shall report to the superintendent of banks within ten (10) days after declaring any dividend, showing the amount of such dividend and the amount of net earnings in excess of the dividend. Such statement shall be attested as provided for in the attestation of statement by the preceding section.

En. Sec. 62, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.63. Special reports to superintendent of banks. In addition to the information obtained from the report required by the provisions of section 61 of this code, the superintendent of banks shall also have the power to require any bank to furnish a special report in writing, verified as required by section 61 of this code, whenever in his judgment such special report is necessary to inform him fully of the actual financial condition and affairs of such bank. Any wilful false statement in the premises shall be perjury, and shall be punished as such.

En. Sec. 63, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.64. Superintendent to call for reports. The superintendent of banks shall call for the reports specified in section 61 of this code at least three (3) times each year. The "past day specified" by the superintendent of banks, under the provisions of said section, shall be on the day designated by the comptroller of currency of the United States for reports of national banking associations.

En. Sec. 64, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.65. Reports confidential—False reports—Penalties for the violation thereof. The report and any information contained in the reports and statements hereinabove provided for, other than such reports as are required to be published, shall be deemed to be secret and for the confidential information of the superintendent of banks only, and such information shall not be imparted to any persons who are not officially associated in and with the office of the superintendent of banks, and the information therein contained shall be used by the superintendent of banks only in the furtherance of his official duties, except that it shall be lawful for the department to exchange information with the federal banking department and with departments of other states and to furnish information to prosecuting officials who request the same for use in pursuit of official duties. Any superintendent of banks or deputy assistant, examiner, or clerk in his employ, who violates any of the provisions of this section, or wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of any bank, shall be removed from office, and shall also be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not exceeding five (5) years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

En. Sec. 65, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.66. Penalty for failure to make report within five days. If any bank neglects to make out or transmit the statements required by this act, within five (5) days after call, it shall be subject to a penalty of twenty dollars ($20) for each day in default after the periods respectively required by this act that it may delay to make and transmit any such statements. Should any bank delay for a period of one (1) month to make out and transmit the statements and proofs of publication required by this act, beyond the period when the same is required to be made, or wilfully violate any of the provisions of this act with reference to said statements and reports, the directors shall be personally responsible for all the debts of such corporation contracted previous to and during the period of such neglect.

En. Sec. 66, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.67. False statements and entries deemed felony. Every officer or other person authorized by this act, who wilfully and knowingly makes any false statement of facts, statement of account, or report, and every officer, agent, or clerk of any bank who wilfully and knowingly makes any false entries in the books of such bank, or knowingly subscribes or exhibits false papers, with the intent to deceive any person authorized to examine such bank, and every person authorized by the provisions of this act to make statements or reports, who wilfully and knowingly subscribes or makes any false statement or report, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned at hard labor in the state prison for a term of not less than one (1) nor more than ten (10) years.

En. Sec. 67, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.68. Assessment on capital stock to make good impairment. Whenever the superintendent of banks shall determine that an impairment of capital exists in any bank, he may in his discretion notify the board of directors of such bank by written notice that such impairment exists, stating the amount thereof in dollars and percentage of the capital stock thereof, and he may if he deems it advisable, order such board to make good such impairment within ninety (90) days from date of such notice.

The board of directors shall, upon receipt of notice, convene and pass a resolution reciting the receipt of such notice of impairment and calling a special meeting of the stockholders of the bank for a day certain in the manner provided in their by-laws.

The stockholders, when assembled as herein provided, shall pass a resolution reciting the facts of receipt of notice from the superintendent, notice of impairment and notice of meeting, and assessing themselves by assessing the stock of record, payment of which assessment must be made within the time limit specified by the superintendent of banks as provided in notice of impairment.

If there be any stock remaining on which the assessment is not paid as hereinabove provided, the same or such part thereof as is necessary to pay the assessment shall be sold by the board of directors, acting through the cashier or secretary thereof, at public or private sale, as appears best for all concerned, on a day certain, not less than thirty (30) days after the day fixed for payment of assessment hereinabove provided, notice of time and place of which sale shall be given by registered mail to the stockholders by the board through its cashier or secretary at least ten (10) days prior to the date thereof, and such sales of stock as herein provided for shall effect an absolute cancellation of the outstanding certificate or certificates evidencing the stock so sold, and shall make the same null and void in the hands of the stockholders, his assigns or pledgees, and a new certificate shall be issued by the bank to the purchaser thereof, for the number of shares purchased, and a new certificate issued to the stockholder of record and delivered to him or any pledgee or assignee thereof for the remaining shares, if any, and the record of the original certificate sold shall be marked canceled on the books of the bank and such record thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of the proceedings for the sale of said stock.

If any bank fails to make good its capital impairment upon demand of the superintendent of banks, as provided herein, the superintendent of banks may forthwith take charge of such bank and proceed to liquidate it as in case of insolvency.

If the said stock does not sell for sufficient to pay the assessment thereon, the board of directors may proceed by suit in the name of the corporation to collect the deficiency from the record holder, whose stock has been thus sold for the assessment.

En. Sec. 68, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.69. Penalty for receiving deposits when insolvent, or making false statements. Any officer, agent, or clerk of any bank, knowing such bank to be insolvent, who receives money, bank bills, notes of the United States, or currency, or other bills or drafts circulating as money or currency, except in the manner set forth in the succeeding section, or who subscribes or makes any false statements or entries in the books of such bank, or knowingly subscribes or exhibits any false paper with the intent to deceive any person authorized to examine as to the condition of such bank, or wilfully subscribes or makes false reports, shall be subject to imprisonment at hard labor in the state prison for a term not exceeding five (5) years.

En. Sec. 69, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.70. Deposits in insolvent bank. Whenever any bank shall be insolvent in the manner described and set forth in this act, such bank shall not accept or receive on deposit any money, bank bills, or notes, United States treasury notes or currency, or other notes, bills or drafts circulating as money or currency, or transact any other business in (a) connection with its operations, except as trustee for the depositors and parties transacting business with them, and it or they shall keep all such deposits of money, bills or notes, or United States treasury notes or currency, or other notes, bills, or drafts circulating as money or currency, separate and apart from the general assets of the bank, from and after the date of the accrual of such insolvency, and when such impairment or insolvency has been made good, such deposits received in trust may be transferred to the general assets of the bank on and by written consent of the superintendent of banks; provided, that in the event such insolvency be not made good then any and all such trust deposits shall be returned to the depositors making them; provided, further, that any officer, director, cashier, manager, member, partner or managing partner thereof, who shall knowingly accept or receive, be accessory to or permit or connive at the receiving or accepting of such trust deposits, except in the manner hereinbefore set forth in this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five (5) years, or by both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid.

6014.71. Examination and supervision. The superintendent of banks shall exercise a constant supervision, either personal or through the examiners herein provided for, over the books and affairs of all banks doing business within the state of Montana; and shall, through the examiners, visit, at least once a year, each of said banks, and verify the assets and liabilities of each, and so far investigate the character and value of the assets of each as to ascertain with reasonable certainty that the values are correctly carried on the books. He shall further investigate the methods of operation and conduct of business of said banks and their systems of accounting, to ascertain whether such methods and systems are in accordance with law and sound banking principles. He may examine, or cause to be examined by the examiners, on oath, any of the officers, directors, agents, clerks, customers, or depositors of any bank touching the affairs and business thereof, and may, in the performance of his official duties, issue, or cause to be issued by himself or the examiners subpoenas, and administer, or cause to be administered by the examiners, oaths; provided, that in case of any refusal to obey any subpoena issued by him or under his direction, such refusal may at once be reported to the district court of the district in which the bank is located, and such court shall enforce obedience to such subpoena in the manner provided by law for enforcing obedience to the process of said court. In all matters relating to his official duties, the superintendent of banks shall have the same power possessed by courts of law to issue subpoenas, and cause them to be served and enforced, and all officers, directors, agents and employees of banks doing business under the provisions of this act, and all persons having dealings with or knowledge of the affairs or methods of any such institution, shall at all times afford reasonable facilities for such examinations, and make such returns and reports to the superintendent of banks as he may require; attend and answer under oath his lawful inquiries produce and exhibit such books, accounts, documents and property as he may desire to inspect, and in all things aid him in the performance of his duty.

6014.72. Reports and records of superintendent. The superintendent of banks shall keep all proper records and files pertaining to the duties and work of his office, and shall report to the governor annually touching all of his official acts, giving abstract of statistics and the condition of affairs of all banks to which his duties relate, and make such recommendations and suggestions as he may deem proper, which report may be printed and bound in a satisfactory and substantial manner, and distributed among the banks doing business under the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 72, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.73. State examiner's fund. For the purpose of a just distribution of the expense incurred by the department of the state examiner, there is hereby created a fund to be designated as the "state examiner's fund," and all moneys collected under the provisions of this section shall be credited to said fund, except as otherwise provided herein.

Counties. For the credit of such fund, each county of the state, shall pay to the state treasurer on or before the first day of July of each year, according to its taxable valuation for the preceding year as follows:

Counties having a taxable valuation of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or less, one hundred and seventy-five dollars ($175).

Counties having a taxable valuation of from five million dollars ($5,000,000) to seven million dollars ($7,000,000), two hundred and twenty-five dollars ($225).

Counties having a taxable valuation of from seven million dollars ($7,000,000) to ten million dollars ($10,000,000), two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).

Counties having a taxable valuation of from ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000), three hundred dollars ($300).

Counties having a taxable valuation of from fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) to twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), three hundred and fifty dollars ($350).

Counties having a taxable valuation of from twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) to thirty million dollars ($30,000,000), four hundred and fifty dollars ($450).

6014.75. Change from state to national bank. Any bank may become a corporation for the purpose of carrying on the business of banking within this state, pursuant to the provisions of the act of congress "to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3, 1864, and of title 52 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, whenever stockholders owning two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the stock of such bank shall have voted to become such corporation, or have executed a written consent authorizing its directors to make the certificate required therefor by the laws of the United States, or whenever a majority of the directors of such bank, having been authorized in their discretion to make the change, shall, by a vote of such majority, decide to become such corporation; and the cashier of such bank shall publish notice thereof for thirty (30) days in such newspaper as the directors may select, and send a like printed notice by mail or otherwise to all nonvoting or dissenting stockholders, and notify the state bank examiner of this state that such bank has decided to become a corporation under the laws of the United States.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 125.

6014.76. Surrender of charter by state bank. Any such bank, which will become a corporation for carrying on the business of banking under the laws of the United States, shall cease to be a corporation under the laws of this state, except that for the term of three (3) years thereafter its corporate existence shall be deemed to continue for the purposes of prosecuting and defending suits by and against it, and of enabling it to close its concerns, and to dispose of and convey its property. The members of the board of directors last in office, when such corporation shall have become a corporation under the laws of the United States, shall continue to be the board of directors of the corporation, with power to take all necessary measures to carry out and perfect such organization, by signing the articles of association and the organization certificate, and adopting such regulations as may be just and proper and not inconsistent with the acts of congress in relation thereto. Such change from a state to a national bank corporation shall not release any such bank from its obligations to pay and discharge all the liabilities created by law or incurred by it before becoming a national bank corporation, or any tax imposed by the laws of this state up to the date of its becoming such national bank corporation, in proportion to the time which has elapsed since the next preceding payment thereof.

En. Sec. 76, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.77. Reduction of capital stock. The directors of such new corporation may reduce the capital stock of the bank to its par value by dividing the surplus among its stockholders, or may retain such portion of such surplus as they may deem necessary; and in case of an increase of the capital stock under the provisions of the acts of congress, may charge the shares of such increased capital stock with a like amount, to place the whole of such capital stock on an equality; and may award such new stock, or such proportion or fractional parts thereof, to such persons as they shall determine are entitled thereto, and as are provided in their articles of association and in the acts of congress; but new directors may be chosen at such time and in the manner provided in the articles of association and the acts of congress.

En. Sec. 77, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.78. Certificate of change to national bank. When any such bank has decided to become a corporation under the laws of the United States, the directors shall immediately thereafter execute and transmit to the comptroller of the currency the proper certificate and other instruments for its conversion into a national bank corporation under the laws of the United States. When any such bank shall have become authorized to commence the business of banking under the laws of the United States, all the property of such bank shall immediately, by act of law, and without any conveyance or transfer, be vested in and become the property of the national bank corporation, into which such bank shall have been converted.

En. Sec. 78, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.79. Reorganization of national banks as state bank. Any national bank authorized to dissolve, and which shall have taken the necessary steps to effect dissolution, may reorganize as a state bank upon the consent in writing of the owners of two-thirds of the capital stock of such bank, and with the approval of the state superintendent of banks. The stockholders shall make, execute, and acknowledge articles of incorporation as required by the laws of the state of Montana, and shall set forth therein the said written consent of such stockholders. Upon the filing of said articles as provided by law, and upon the approval of the superintendent of banks, such bank shall be deemed to be recognized under this act, and thereupon all assets, real and personal, of such dissolved national bank shall be vested in and become the property of such reorganized state bank, subject to all liabilities of such national bank not liquidated before such reorganization.

En. Sec. 79, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.80. Liability of bank paying forged check. No bank shall be liable to a depositor for the payment by it of a forged or raised check unless, within thirty days after the receipt by the depositor of the voucher of such payment, such depositor shall notify the bank that the check so paid is forged or raised.

6014.82. Unincorporated banks—Designation of name. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons in anywise to conduct a commercial banking business, or a banking business of discount and deposit, within the state of Montana, in the capacity of an individual or of a copartnership or of an unincorporated association, unless the name under which such bank is known and conducted shall contain the name of such individual, or the name of at least one actual and responsible member of such copartnership or association, in addition to which name there shall be no other designation than the words "bank of," "banking house of," "banker," or "bankers." Nothing in this section shall apply to any person, firm or association now conducting a private banking business in this state, which bank is now authorized by the state banking department to do a banking business.

En. Sec. 82, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.83. Financial condition required of unincorporated bank. Every such individual, copartnership, or association intending to conduct such bank or banking business within the state of Montana, shall, before the receipt of any money whatsoever on deposit, actually own and possess, within the state of Montana, approved property or assets not exempt from execution of the minimum value of not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in cities and towns having a population of over two thousand (2,000) and not less than five thousand (5,000), the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000); in cities having a population of five thousand (5,000) and not less than ten thousand (10,000), the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); in cities having ten thousand (10,000), population and less than twenty-five thousand (25,000) the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); in all cities having a population of twenty-five thousand (25,000) or over, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); which financial condition must appear and be carried on the books of any such bank or banks. Such requirement shall extend and be applicable separately to each and every private bank conducted by any person, copartnership, or association, and no asset or assets shall appear on the books of more than one bank.

En. Sec. 83, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.84. Private banks subject to inspection by state examiner. Every private bank, corporation, or association conducting a banking business within the state of Montana, operating under the foregoing provisions, shall be subject to examination and visitations of the state examiner once each year, and oftener when deemed necessary by said examiner, who shall have full power and authority to investigate and examine all books, papers and effects of any such bank or banking house for the purpose of ascertaining the financial condition of any such bank or banks, and shall have the power in aid thereof to administer oaths to any person or persons, or the agent or employees of any person or persons conducting such bank or banking business.

En. Sec. 84, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.85. Information obtained by state examiner to be deemed confidential—Penalty for the violation thereof. Any knowledge or information gained or discovered by the state superintendent of banks, in pursuance of his powers or duties as herein prescribed, shall be deemed confidential information of the state examiner's office only, and such information shall not, except as herein provided, be imparted to any person or persons who are not officially associated in and with the office of the state examiner, and such information shall be used by the state examiner only in the furtherance of his official duties, except that it shall be lawful for the department to exchange information with the federal banking department and departments of other states and to furnish information to prosecuting officials who require the same for use in pursuit of official duties. Any state examiner or deputy, assistant, or clerk in his employ, who violates any of the provisions of this section, or willfully makes a false official report as to the condition of any bank, shall be removed from office, and shall also be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not exceeding five (5) years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

En. Sec. 85, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.86. Report of private bank. The cashier of any bank doing business under the provisions of this act, when so directed by the state superintendent of banks, shall make a report to the said superintendent of banks at his call; which report shall not be made less than three (3) times during each year, and which said report shall not be made less than two (2) calendar months apart, which said reports shall be made in a form prescribed by the superintendent of banks, verified by the oath or affirmation of said cashier, which said statements or reports must contain a full abstract of the general accounts of the bank, and exhibit under appropriate head the resources and liabilities thereof, so as to plainly show all of the resources and liabilities of said bank, and the amount at any time thereof, which said statements shall be transmitted to the superintendent within five (5) days after the receipt of the request or requisition therefor. Said report, in such condensed form as may be required by said superintendent, must be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the place where said bank is located, or if there be no newspaper of general circulation published in said place, then in the nearest newspaper available, which publication must be at the expense of the bank making said report, and such proof of publication of the said report shall be furnished as may be required by the said superintendent. The superintendent of banks shall also have power to call for special reports from any particular bank whenever in his judgment the same are necessary under the provisions of this act.

6014.87. Receiving deposits by insolvent bank—Making false entries.

Any person, or the members of any copartnership or banking association, wilfully or knowingly receiving deposits, money, or commercial papers, circulating as money, when such person or copartnership or banking association is insolvent or who subscribes or makes any false statement, or entries in the books of any such bank, or who knowingly subscribes or exhibits any false papers, with the intention of deceiving any person authorizing [authorized] to examine the condition of any bank provided for in this act, or who wilfully subscribes or makes false reports to the superintendent of banks, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding (5) years.

6014.90. Same—What constitutes due diligence. When a check, draft, note or negotiable instrument is deposited in a bank for credit or for collection, it shall be considered due diligence on the part of the bank of deposit, in the collection of any such item (check, draft, note or negotiable instrument so deposited), to forward en route the same not later than the following banking business day.

En. Sec. 90, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.91. Superintendent to make rules and regulations. The superintendent of banks shall have the power to adopt and promulgate uniform rules and regulations to govern the examination and reports of banks and prescribe the form in which such banks shall report their assets, liabilities and reserves.

En. Sec. 91, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.92. Special examination defined. Any examination made by the superintendent of banks otherwise than in the ordinary routine of the department, and because in his opinion the condition of the bank requires such examination, and every examination made at the request of the board of directors or stockholders of any bank shall be deemed a special examination.

En. Sec. 92, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.93. Examination at request of directors. When requested in writing, upon the authority of a majority of the board of directors of any bank to make an examination of such bank, the superintendent of banks shall do so.

En. Sec. 93, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.94. Consolidation of banks. Any two (2) or more banks may, with the approval of the superintendent of banks, consolidate into one (1) bank under the charter of either existing bank, on such terms and conditions as may be lawfully agreed upon by a majority of the board of directors of each bank proposing to consolidate, and be ratified and confirmed by the vote of the shareholders of each such bank owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding, at a meeting to be held on the call of the directors, after sending notice to each shareholder of record by registered mail at least ten (10) days prior to said meeting; provided, that the stockholders may unanimously waive such notice and may consent to such meeting and consolidation in writing. Provided also, that the capital stock of such consolidated bank shall not be less than that required under existing law for the organization of a bank of the class of largest consolidating bank.

The assets and liabilities of the consolidated bank shall be reported by the surviving bank. All the rights, franchises, and interests of said bank so consolidated in and to every species of property, real, personal and mixed and choses in action thereto belonging, shall be deemed to be transferred to and vested in such bank into which it is consolidated without other instrument of transfer, and the said consolidated bank shall hold and enjoy the same and all rights of property, franchises, and interests in the same manner and to the same extent as was held and enjoyed by the bank so consolidated therewith, provided, however, that merging bank shall transfer to the surviving bank all of its real property by good and sufficient deed of conveyance and for that and other purposes shall remain a body corporate for a period of at least three (3) years after merger and shall not then dissolve without the approval of the superintendent of banks.

6014.97. Conversion surplus and undivided profits to capital. A bank having a surplus and undivided profits equal to or in excess of fifty per centum (50%) of its capital stock, may increase its capital stock by the issuance of new stock for a part of said surplus and undivided profits. Said increase may be made by the vote of two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the stock in person or by proxy, either at a regular annual stockholders' meeting or at a meeting called for said purpose in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation. All increases of capital stock made under this section must be accomplished in such a manner as to conform to the requirements of this act as to surplus of banks when first incorporated. New capital stock when issued by a bank against its surplus and undivided profits may be issued without the payment of cash therefor, but the same shall be charged upon the books of the bank and in the statements thereof against surplus and undivided profits in such a manner that the combined capital, surplus and undivided profits shall not be reduced by the issuance of said new stock. Whenever a bank shall have voted to issue any stock as contemplated in this section, it shall certify such action to the superintendent of banks, who shall within thirty (30) days, approve or reject the plan. His action shall be final and written notice thereof shall be given to the bank. If the superintendent of banks approves of the issuance of said new stock and so notifies the bank, it shall thereupon file certificate thereof with the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the bank is located and with the secretary of state of the state of Montana. Upon said filing with the secretary of state, the increase shall become effective.

En. Sec. 97, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.98. Superintendent to examine trusts. It shall be the duty of the state superintendent of banks as a part of the examination of trust companies and banks to check all trusts, trust funds and trust and estate accounts held in the possession and control of the bank or trust company.

En. Sec. 98, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.99. Extent assets may be pledged. No bank, banker or bank officer shall, except as otherwise authorized by law, pledge or hypothecate as collateral security for money borrowed, its assets in a ratio exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed (except as otherwise authorized by the superintendent).

En. Sec. 99, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.100. Superintendent make rules. The superintendent of banks shall have the authority to make and promulgate reasonable rules and orders in the matter of bookkeeping and accounting by state banks, including the keeping of reasonable credit information or information in connection with assets, and for information in connection with charged off items.

En. Sec. 100, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.101. Branch bank prohibited. No bank shall maintain any branch bank, receive deposits or pay check, except over the counter of and in its own banking house. Provided, that nothing in this section shall prohibit ordinary clearing house transactions between banks.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 128.

6014.102. Past due and doubtful paper. Every bank carrying any bad debt, or a debt of doubtful value, as an asset, shall upon the request or demand of the superintendent of banks collect the same, or put it in good bankable condition, or charge it out of its books.

En. Sec. 102, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.103. Reserve—Reports on. It shall be the duty of any bank whose reserve shall drop below the legal requirements to report the matter to the superintendent of banks immediately and as often thereafter as the superintendent shall ask for said report.

En. Sec. 103, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.104. Payment to foreign administrator. Any bank doing business in this state may pay any money remaining to the credit of a deceased depositor or deliver any personal property in its possession belonging to such deceased depositor to an administrator or executor of such depositor duly appointed and qualified in another state, provided no demand therefor shall have been previously made by an administrator or executor appointed in any county of this state, and such payment shall discharge the bank making the same from its liability on account of such deposit.

En. Sec. 104, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.105. Bonding of employees. It shall be the duty of the board of directors of every bank to require that all officers and employees of banks whose duties include the handling of money, notes, bonds, credits and cash items and whose duties include bookkeeping and the making of entries in relation to the business of the bank, be bonded. The board of directors shall by order duly entered on the minute-books of the board designate the officers and employees to be bonded and the amounts of bonds to be given. Such action as to personnel and amount and surety to be subject to approval of superintendent. Said bonds to guarantee the bank against loss on account of the dishonesty or malfeasance in office of its employees. Bonds to be approved by the president of the bank and his action to be reported to the board of directors. Bonds to be kept in custody of some officer other than the individual liable on the bond and for whom the same is given.

En. Sec. 105, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.106. Corporate existence—Cease when. The charters and the corporate existence of banks shall cease automatically and become non-existent upon the completion of liquidation of the affairs of said bank whether accomplished voluntarily or through legal process. For the purposes of this section a bank's affairs shall be considered liquidated and completed when all of its property of every kind has been sold or applied toward the payment of its obligations, and the corporation is left without property in existence or in reasonable expectancy.

En. Sec. 106, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.107. Bank advertising before issuance of charter. It shall be unlawful for any individual, firm or corporation to advertise, publish or otherwise promulgate that it is engaged in the banking business without first having obtained authority from the department of banking, as herein provided. Any such individual, or member of such firm, or officer of any such corporation so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided by the laws of this state.

En. Sec. 107, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.108. Right of examination by stockholder. No stockholder of any bank incorporated under the laws of this state who is not a director shall have the right to inspect the books and records of such bank showing its transactions with any of its customers, but any such stockholder shall have the right to inspect during business hours the general statement book showing the general assets and liabilities of such bank.

6014.109. Removal of directors, officers or employees. Any director, officer, or employee of any bank found by the superintendent, after examination, to be negligent, dishonest, reckless or incompetent, shall be removed from office by the board of directors of such bank on the written order of the superintendent, and if the directors neglect or refuse to remove such director, officer or employee, in event any losses accrue to such bank thereafter by reason of the negligence, dishonesty, recklessness or incompetency of such director, officer or employee such written order of the superintendent shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence of the negligence of the directors failing to act upon the same as herein provided in any action brought against them, or any of them by a depositor or creditor for recovery of such losses.

En. Sec. 109, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.110. Borrowing money—Limitations. No bank shall borrow money, except to meet its seasonal requirements or unexpected withdrawals. Provided, that at no time shall the bills payable and rediscounts of any bank be permitted to exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to the capital and surplus of such bank, except with the written consent of the superintendent, first had and obtained. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent that a bank is borrowing money in excess of the above limitation, or for the purposes other than as specified above, he may require it to reduce such borrowing within a time to be fixed by him.

En. Sec. 110, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.111. No C. D. to issue for borrowed money. No bank shall issue its certificate of deposit for the purpose of borrowing money or make partial payments upon any certificate of deposit.

Power of bank to pledge assets to secure general depositors, note, 51 A. L. R. 313.

6014.113. Penalty for unlawful hypothecation of assets. Any officer or employee of any bank doing business in this state, who, except in the manner authorized by law or the contract of the parties, hypothecates, pledges, or in any way alienates any notes, stocks, bonds, mortgages, securities or any other property coming into his hands or into the possession of said bank as collateral, for safekeeping or in any other manner, and to which the bank has not acquired full title, shall be guilty of embezzlement, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as for other felonies.

En. Sec. 113, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.114. Concealment of loans and discounts. Any officer or employee of any bank who intentionally conceals from the directors of such corporation or committee thereof where the directors have delegated authority to a committee to pass on loans and discounts, any discount or loan made by and in behalf of the corporation or from its assets between the regular meetings of its board of directors or committee, the purchase of any security, the sale of any of its securities, or any guarantee, repurchase agreement or any other agreement whereby the corporation is obligated, during the same period, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, must be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than twelve (12) months for each offense, and may also be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500), at the discretion of the court.

En. Sec. 114, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.115. Transaction on holidays. Nothing in any law of this state shall in any manner whatsoever affect the validity of, or render void or voidable, the payment certification or acceptance of a check or other negotiable instrument, or any other transaction by a bank in this state, because done or performed during any time other than regular banking hours or on a legal holiday; provided, that nothing shall be construed herein to compel any bank in this state, which by law or custom is entitled to close at twelve noon on any Saturday, or for the whole or part of any legal holiday, to keep open for transaction of business, or to perform any of the acts or transactions aforesaid on any Saturday after such hour or on any legal holiday except at its option.

En. Sec. 115, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.116. Time limit on stop-payment. No revocation, countermand, or stop-payment order relating to the payment of any check or draft against an account of a depositor in any bank doing business in this state shall remain in effect for more than ninety (90) days after the service thereof on the bank, unless the same be renewed, which renewals shall be in writing and which renewals shall be in effect for not more than ninety (90) days from date of service thereof on the bank, but such renewals may be made from time to time.

All notices affecting checks upon which revocation, countermand, or stop-payment order have been made at the time of the taking effect of this act shall not be deemed to continue for a period of more than ninety (90) days thereafter.

of bank which fails to comply with order stopping payment of check, note, 9 A. L. R. 1069.

6014.117. Embezzlement. Any banker, officer, director or employee of any bank who embezzles or abstracts or misapplies any of the moneys, funds, credits, or property of the bank when owned by it or held in trust; or who issues or puts forth any certificate of deposit, draws any order or bill of exchange, makes any acceptance, assigns any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment or decree, with intent, in any case to injure or defraud the bank or any person or corporation, or to deceive any officer of the bank, or any other person, or anyone appointed to examine the affairs of such bank, or any person, who with like intent, aids or abets any officer, clerk or employee in the violation of this section, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the state penitentiary for a period of not exceeding twenty (20) years.

En. Sec. 117, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.118. False statement to obtain loan. Whoever shall make any statement, knowing it to be false, for the purpose of obtaining for himself or for any other person, firm, corporation, or association a loan of money from any bank, or for the purpose of gaining an extension of time of payment of any debt due such bank, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both.

En. Sec. 118, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.120. Persons previously convicted under banking laws. It shall be unlawful for anyone having been convicted of the violations of the banking laws of any state or nation, to accept employment in a bank in this state, without first stating said facts to the directors of said bank. No such person shall be employed in any bank without the approval of the superintendent of banks, granted in writing after a full consideration of the facts.

En. Sec. 120, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

6014.121. Liquidation of banks—Grounds for closing bank. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that:

(1) Any bank has wilfully violated its charter or any law of this state; or,

(2) Has wilfully violated any general rule or regulation of the superintendent, made in accordance with law; or

(3) That the capital of any bank is impaired or for any reason is below the amount required by law and has not been made good after notice, as provided by law, or without such notice, in event a majority of the board of directors of such bank notify the superintendent in writing that the same cannot be made good; or,

(4) That such bank cannot meet or has failed to meet its liabilities or any of the same, as they become due in the regular course of business; or,

(5) That its reserve has fallen below the amount required by law and it has failed to make good such reserve within thirty (30) days after being requested to do so by the superintendent, or, without such notice, if a majority of the directors, in writing, notify the superintendent that such reserve cannot be made good within thirty (30) days, or if it is continually allowing its reserve to fall below the required amount; or,

(6) That it is conducting business in an unsafe and unauthorized manner, or is in an unsafe or unsound condition; or,

(7) It has refused to submit its papers, books and concerns to the inspection of the superintendent or his authorized agent or representative; or,

(8) That any officer of such bank has refused to be examined on oath touching the affairs, business or concerns of any bank in so far as such relate to the solvency of the bank or matters having to do with the supervision by the superintendent.

The superintendent himself, or his duly authorized agent upon express authority from the superintendent, may, in his discretion close said bank and take possession of all the books, records, assets and business of every description of such bank, and hold the same and retain possession thereof until such bank shall be authorized by him to resume business, or its affairs be liquidated as herein provided, and he shall do so in cases where a bank comes into his hands voluntarily, or in the manner provided by law.

The powers and authority conferred on the superintendent by this section, except in cases of voluntary surrender, shall be considered as discretionary and not as mandatory, and so long as a superintendent acts in good faith in the matter, neither he nor his deputies shall be held liable civilly or criminally or upon their official bonds in any action taken thereunder or for any failure to act thereunder.

En. Sec. 121, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.122. Penalty for closing bank with criminal intent. If any superintendent of banks or official in the department of banking, shall, as a result of malice or for personal gain, declare any bank insolvent, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to punishment by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one (1) year, or both, within the discretion of the court and shall forfeit his office.

En. Sec. 122, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.123. Bank may be placed in superintendent's possession. Any bank may place its affairs and assets under the control and in the possession of the superintendent by posting a notice on the front door of such bank, indicating that said bank is in his hands, which notice shall be signed, in their own handwriting, by a majority of the directors in office of such bank. Immediately upon the posting of such notice by any bank, it shall notify the superintendent thereof.

En. Sec. 123, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.124. Effect of posting notice. The posting of such notice by the directors of any bank, or of a like notice signed by the superintendent, shall be sufficient to place all assets and property of such bank, of whatever nature and wherever situate, in possession of the superintendent, and shall operate as a bar to any attachment or any other legal proceedings against such bank or its assets, and no valid lien or claim can be acquired or created, or transfer or assignment made in any manner, binding or affecting any of the assets of such bank after the posting of such notice or after taking possession of any bank by the superintendent without his consent.

En. Sec. 124, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.125. Taking possession of bank—Notice. On taking possession of the assets and business of the bank, the superintendent shall, in addition to posting notice thereof on the front door of such bank as aforesaid, also notify at once, personally or by wire, all corresponding banks, and any and all persons or corporations known to him to be holding or in possession of, any of the estate of such bank.

En. Sec. 125, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.126. Resumption after closing. After the superintendent has taken possession of any bank, he may permit such bank to resume business upon such conditions as may be approved by him.

En. Sec. 126, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.127. Powers of superintendent on closing bank. Upon taking the assets and business of any bank into his possession, the superintendent is authorized to collect all moneys due to such bank, and to do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and he shall proceed to liquidate the affairs thereof. He shall have general and inclusive power and authority, except as otherwise limited by the terms of this act, to do any and all acts, to take any and all steps necessary, or, in his discretion, desirable for the protection of the property and assets of such bank and the speedy and economical liquidation of the assets and affairs of such bank and the payment of its creditors, or for the reopening and resumption of business by said bank, where that is practicable or desirable. He may institute, in his own name as superintendent, or in the name of the bank, such suits and actions and other legal proceedings as he deems expedient for such purposes, and by making application to the district court of the county in which such bank is located, or to the judge thereof, in chambers, may procure an order to sell, compromise or compound any bad or doubtful debt or claim, and to sell and dispose of any or all the assets, which sale may be made to stockholders, officers, directors, or others interested in such bank, on consent of the court. On such court proceedings the bank shall be made a party by notice issued on order of the court or judge, in lieu of summons, and served upon some officer of the bank, if any there be in the county, but if no officer can be found in the county then the same shall be posted in manner and form the same as probate notices. That is in three (3) public places in the county for at least ten (10) days before the day of hearing thereon. The hearing of any such application or petition by the superintendent may be had at any time, either in term or vacation in court, or in chambers, as the court may order, after said bank has had five (5) days' notice of such application, or the notice has remained posted for at least ten (10) days.

6014.128. Recourse of aggrieved bank. Any bank deeming itself aggrieved by the action of superintendent in taking possession of its assets or closing its doors may, within ten (10) days after such possession shall have been taken, apply to the district court of the county in which its principal place of business is located, or to the judge thereof in chambers, to enjoin further proceedings by the superintendent, and the court or the judge thereof in chambers, after notifying the superintendent to appear at a specified time and place to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and after hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties, and determining facts, may, on the merits, dismiss such application, or enjoin the superintendent from further proceeding and direct him to surrender the business and assets of said bank. Such application for injunction may be heard at any time after five (5) days' notice from the time of service on said superintendent, in the discretion of the court, or the judge thereof, or at any time prior thereto by the consent of the superintendent. Application therefor shall be made on the verified complaint of the bank, in the ordinary form used in civil actions in district court, and a copy of such complaint shall be served on the superintendent with the order to show cause. The superintendent shall, at least two (2) days before the time set for hearing, file in the cause, and serve upon counsel for plaintiff an answer to the complaint, also in the ordinary form used in civil actions in the district court. Demurrers and motions directed to pleadings are not permissible in proceedings had under this section, but any questions raised by demurrer or motion in other actions may be raised in the answer. On the issues thus made on the complaint and answer, the court, or the judge thereof at chambers, at the time fixed for showing cause, or at such other time to which he, in his discretion, may continue the same, shall try the matter on the merits by hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties, in the same manner as on the trial of ordinary civil actions in the district court, and the rules governing the trial of ordinary civil actions and for the production and taking of evidence and hearing the examinations of witnesses and the entry of findings and judgments therein, shall prevail. In event the superintendent makes no appearance in the time limited, the court shall enter his default and proceed to hear the proofs of the plaintiff in like manner as in civil actions under similar circumstances, and enter judgment accordingly. The judgment entered either after hearing on the merits or by default, shall be final judgment from which either party shall have the right, by notice filed within twenty (20) days after entry, to appeal to the supreme court, in the same manner as from final judgment in a civil action. Provided, however, that during the pendency of such litigation the superintendent of banks shall take such action in relation to the assets of said bank as is necessary to conserve them.

6014.129. Superintendent may appoint agents. The superintendent may, under his hand and seal, appoint and authorize an agent to assist him or act for him in the performance of any powers or duties hereunder, the certificate of appointment to be filed in the office of said superintendent, and a certified copy thereof delivered to such agent. Such agent and other employees hereinafter mentioned, shall receive a salary, to be fixed as hereinafter provided, for the time he is actually engaged in the performance of such duties. The superintendent may also employ such attorneys and procure such expert accountants and other experts, assistants and employees as may be necessary in the liquidation and distribution of the assets of any such bank, and the performance of his duties hereunder, and may retain such of the officers or employees of such bank as he may deem necessary. He shall require from the agent appointed by him and from such of the assistants as will have charge of any of the assets of the bank such security for the faithful discharge of their duties as he may deem proper.

Provided, further, that the superintendent may also designate any one of the examiners of the department of banking as a general liquidating agent, with his office in the department of banking, for the purpose of liquidating any one or all state banks in the process of liquidation, and for the purpose of conducting such liquidation under the direction of said superintendent; and may authorize the said liquidating agent to employ such clerical help as may be necessary. Such liquidating agent shall receive a salary to be fixed by the superintendent of banks, not to exceed three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) per year, and necessary traveling and hotel expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties. The salary of the liquidating agent and necessary clerical assistance, and other expenses incurred by the said liquidating agent shall be borne equally and ratably by the bank or banks in process of liquidation under such agent's charge in proportion to the total amount of resources of each of such banks. The funds for such expenses shall be raised by assessing each bank in ratio herein set forth and paying such expenses direct to the persons entitled thereto, without depositing any of such funds in the state treasury.

En. Sec. 129, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.130. Compensation of agents and attorneys. The compensation of the agents, appointed by the superintendent, and of attorneys, expert accountants and other assistants, and all expenses of liquidation and distribution of a bank whose assets and business shall be taken possession of by the superintendent, shall be fixed by the superintendent, but subject to be approved by the judge of the district court of the county in which the bank is located, on notice of such bank, and the superintendent of banks shall upon written request of said district judge supply semi-annual statements showing the condition of said bank in process of liquidation. Except in cases of emergency, the compensation to be paid to attorneys and expert accountants shall be fixed and approved before services are rendered. When the compensation shall have been so fixed and approved and the services rendered, the same shall be paid out of the funds of such bank in the hands of the superintendent, and shall be a proper charge and lien on the assets of such bank as herein provided.

En. Sec. 130, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.131. Notice to creditors of insolvent bank. The superintendent shall cause notice to be given by advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the town or city in which said bank is situated, if there be one, and if not, then in such other newspaper published in the state of Montana, as the superintendent shall designate, once a week for two successive weeks, calling on all persons who have claims against said bank to present the same to the superintendent or his duly authorized agent at a place to be specified in said notice, and to make sworn proof thereof, in form to be fixed by him, within the time specified in said notice, not less than ninety days from the date of the first publication thereof. A copy of such notice shall be mailed to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the bank.

En. Sec. 131, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.132. Claims—Allowance and rejection. The superintendent shall reject or allow all claims in the whole or in part, and on each claim allowed shall designate the order of its priority. If a claim is rejected or an order of priority allowed lower than that claimed, notice shall be given the claimant personally or by registered mail, and an affidavit of the service of such notice, which shall be prima facie evidence thereof, filed in the office of the superintendent. The action of the superintendent shall be final unless an action be brought by the claimant against the bank in the proper court of the county where the bank is located within ninety days after such service to fix the amount of the claim and its order of priority or either. An appeal from the superintendent's allowance, either as to priority or amount, may also be taken to the district court of such county by any party in interest by serving on the superintendent notice thereof, stating the grounds of objection and filing the same in said court within thirty days after allowance. Within five days after such notice, the superintendent shall file in the court, and serve on the appellant, a copy of the claim and his reasons for allowance. The court or judge shall, after five days' notice of time and place of hearing on the issues thus made, hear the proof of the parties and enter judgment reversing, affirming or modifying the superintendent's action.

En. Sec. 132, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.133. Payment of claims. Claims presented to the superintendent prior to the expiration of the time fixed in the notice to creditors therefor, and allowed by him, shall be paid in the order of priority herein-after fixed. Those filed after such expiration and prior to one year thereafter shall be entitled, after they have been allowed by the superintendent, to share in the distribution of the assets of the bank only to the extent of the assets undistributed in the hands of the superintendent and available for the payment of claims of their order of priority at the time such claims are filed, but as against other claims of their same order of priority, on which dividends have been paid, they shall be entitled to payment in a proportionate amount before further payments are made on such other claims. All claims filed after the expiration of one year following the date fixed in the notice to creditors as the time for presentation of claims are not entitled to be allowed or paid unless all other creditors' claims of any kind or character, except claims of shareholders, based on stock or assessments paid on stock shall have been fully paid and discharged, and a surplus remains in the hands of the superintendent, and then only from such surplus.

En. Sec. 133, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.134. Claims—Order of payment—Priorities. The order of payment of the debts of a bank liquidated by the superintendent shall be as follows:

(1) The expense of liquidation, including compensation of agents, employees and attorneys.

(2) All funds held by the bank in trust.

(3) All funds of any other bank in process of liquidation by the superintendent of banks and placed on deposit by the superintendent of banks during the period of liquidation thereof.

(4) Debts due depositors, holders of cashier's checks, certified checks, drafts on correspondent banks, including protest fees, paid by them on valid checks or drafts presented after closing of the bank, pro rata. All deposit balances of other banks or trust companies and all deposits of public funds of every kind and character (except those actually placed on special deposit under the statutes providing therefor) including those of the United States, the state of Montana, and every county, district, municipality, political subdivision or public corporation of this state, whether secured or unsecured, or whether deposited in violation of law or otherwise, are included within the terms of this subdivision and take the same priority as debts due any other depositor. All contractual liabilities pro rata.

(5) Interest on all the foregoing classes of claims without regard to the priority of the principal computed as follows:

Savings accounts at the same rate they bore at the time of the closing of the bank until the next regular date for the computation and crediting of the interest thereon, and thereafter at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum; time certificates of deposit at the rate fixed in the certificate until the same becomes due by their terms, and thereafter at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum; all other contractual obligations bearing interest at the rate they bore at the time of closing until due by their terms, and thereafter at seven per cent (7%) per annum, and those not bearing interest, at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from the time when said bank came into possession of the superintendent; no interest to be compounded.

(6) Unliquidated claims for damages and the like. Provided, however, that the superintendent may, in his discretion, without regard to the priorities herein fixed in subdivisions 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this section, or in preference to the payment of any claims of creditors within these subdivisions, pay off and discharge any lien, claim or charge against the assets or property of the bank in his hands and pay out and expend such sums as he deems necessary for the preservation, maintenance, conservation and protection of any such assets and property, and likewise property on which the bank has liens by mortgage or otherwise; and he may also, in his discretion, create a fund or retain in his hands in preference to the claim of any creditors in the subdivisions above mentioned money for the aforesaid purposes.

Collateral which shall have been put up or pledged as security for the payment of bills payable by any bank, or any loans or discounts which shall have been outstanding as rediscounts of any bank prior to the closing thereof, shall not be available to the other creditors of such bank in whole or in part until such bills payable or rediscounts shall have been retired, after which offsets as in this section provided shall be allowed.

Deposits of any person, firm or corporation in a bank which is in the possession of the superintendent, may be offset against any indebtedness, (subject to the conditions of the preceding paragraph of this section), except assessments on stock, due to such bank from such person, firm or corporation. All dividends when declared in favor of any creditor of the bank may be applied, in the discretion of the superintendent, in satisfaction of the indebtedness, if any, due the bank from such creditor.

6014.135. Claims—Partial payments. The superintendent need not await the expiration of the time allowed for filing claims, as fixed in the notice to the creditors, for the payment of dividends, but he may, in his discretion, and if under the circumstances of the particular case he deems it expedient and safe, at any time after taking possession of said bank and prior to the expiration of such period fixed for filing of claims, if he have on hand in cash sufficient funds over and above the expenses of liquidation, make pro rata distribution to any class of creditors next entitled thereto, in the order of priority heretofore fixed, making such payment to said creditors as they appear on the books and records of the bank and determining the priority and basing his apportionment on the amount shown to be due by such books and records. At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims against said bank and from time to time thereafter, when, in his discretion there are sufficient funds available therefor, the superintendent shall, after making proper provisions for the payment of expenses of liquidation, declare and pay dividends to all creditors of such bank pro rata in the order of their priority. If, after the time fixed for presentation of claims against the bank has expired, it appears that any person, prior to the expiration of said period, or at any other time, has been paid more than the pro rata amount due him as compared with the amounts then paid other creditors, nothing more shall be paid said creditors until such time as the payment made other creditors shall place them on equal footing. In calculating dividends, all disputed claims and deposits shall be taken into account and the amount of dividends upon such disputed claims or deposits shall be held by the superintendent until the justice and validity of such claims or deposits shall have been finally determined. Claims against any bank in process of liquidation may be assigned as a whole, but partial assignments of such claims shall not be valid against the superintendent of banks or his agents in charge of such bank, nor recognized by them. Assignments of claims shall be binding upon the superintendent only after the same have been filed and allowed by the superintendent, but not before, and only then subject to the payment of the assignor's liabilities to the bank. Such assignment shall be made by filing written notice, signed by the original claimant, with the superintendent or person in charge of said bank. No assigned claims may be offset against obligations due the bank. A check or draft drawn against any bank closed or taken possession of by the superintendent, whether issued before or after closing thereof, shall not be recognized as a claim against said bank, or as an assignment of any amount, whether protested or not protested.

En. Sec. 135, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.136. Deposit of funds in superintendent's hands. All funds in the hands of the superintendent belonging to any bank in process of liquidation shall be deposited in his name as superintendent in such banks within the state as may be selected and designated by him and subject to his checks as superintendent of banks. Said funds to be preferred and protested as in this act provided.

En. Sec. 136, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.137. Disposition of unclaimed funds. The superintendent shall certify to the treasurer of the state a complete list of funds remaining in his hands uncalled for, which have been left in his hands in his official capacity, in trust for depositors in and creditors of any liquidated bank after they have been held by him for six months from the date of the final liquidation of the institution. Along with this certificate, he shall transmit to the treasurer of the state the funds with accumulated interest thereon, which he has so held in trust for six months. A copy of such certificate shall also be filed with the state auditor, who shall make a record thereof.

Any depositor or creditor of a liquidated bank who has not been paid the amount standing to his credit as thus certified to the state treasurer, may apply to the superintendent for the amount due him, after it has been certified into the treasury of the state. The depositor or creditor shall make an affidavit and offer proof of his identity and of the amount due him by the liquidated bank. When satisfied as to the correctness of the claim and of the identity of the person, the superintendent shall approve the claim and forward it to the auditor, who shall audit the same and if found correct issue his warrant payable to the depositor or creditor for the amount shown by the records to be due such depositor or creditor which shall be paid by the treasurer.

for escheat of unclaimed bank deposits, as applied to national banks, note, 31

6014.138. Disposition of assets remaining after payment of claims. Whenever the superintendent has paid to each and every depositor and creditor of such bank whose claims shall have been duly approved and allowed as herein provided, the full amount thereof, and shall have made proper provisions for unclaimed and unpaid deposits and disputed claims and deposits, and shall have paid all the expenses of liquidation and likewise repaid the stockholders all assessments paid by them under order of the superintendent; or, if the assets of said bank be insufficient for making said payments, then, whenever the superintendent has liquidated all available assets and disbursed the same as herein provided, the superintendent shall make application to the district court of the county in which such bank is located, or to the judge thereof in chambers for an order authorizing the superintendent, if there be remaining assets on hand, to surrender the same to the directors of said bank in office at the time of closing the same, as trustees for stockholders, or to such other person or persons, if any, as have been designated as trustees by the stockholders at a meeting lawfully called and assembled for such purpose, in like manner as any other stockholders' meeting. Said order shall also provide that upon the surrender of said assets, as in said order directed, and where there are no remaining assets, then, upon the entry of the order, the superintendent shall be discharged from all further liability or responsibility in connection with the assets and affairs of said bank and that the charter of said bank shall be forfeited. The court may require such trustees to give bond in such amount as the court may fix, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties. It shall be the duty of the said trustee or trustees to complete the liquidation of any remaining assets as rapidly as may be and to distribute the proceeds of the same pro rata among the stockholders, or to dispose of the same in such other manner as the stockholders shall, by a majority vote, at a meeting assembled for that purpose, direct. On application for such order, the bank shall be made a part [party] by notice issued on order of the court or judge, in lieu of summons, but served in like manner, and the hearing of any such application may be had at any time in court or in chambers, as the court may order, after five days' notice of the hearing.

En. Sec. 138, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.139. Bank in voluntary liquidation may proceed—How and when. Banks now in process of voluntary liquidation under the terms of section 6109-E, chapter 90 of the Session Laws of the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly 1923 may continue and complete liquidation of their assets; and chapter 90, section 6109-E, Laws of 1923 and each and every provision thereof shall continue in full force and effect for the purpose of enabling banks now in process of liquidation to complete and continue their liquidation in the manner now therein provided.

En. Sec. 139, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.140. Bank liquidating by receivers. The liquidation of banks now in process of liquidation by receivers appointed by courts of competent jurisdiction, may be continued and concluded in manner and form as now provided by the laws of Montana, and all of the statutes of Montana in effect at the time of the passage and approval of this act are continued in force for the purpose of the liquidation of such banks only, provided that any district court having jurisdiction of any such receivership may at any time after this act takes effect, discharge a receiver and order the liquidation to be continued by the superintendent of banks in accordance with the provisions of this act, relative to the liquidation of banks by the superintendent, except that in such case the assets still remaining undistributed and yet to be paid out must be distributed in manner and form and to the same persons who would have been entitled to the same if no change had been made in the personnel of the liquidating officer.

En. Sec. 140, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.141. Effect of act on existing banks. The powers, privileges, duties, and restrictions heretofore conferred and imposed upon any bank or trust company now existing and doing business under the laws of this state, are hereby abridged, enlarged or modified as each particular case may require to conform with the provisions of this chapter.

En. Sec. 141, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.142. Effect partial invalidity act. If any part or section of this act shall be adjudged by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any part thereof which can be given effect without the part adjudged to be unconstitutional or invalid.

En. Sec. 142, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

6014.143. Punishment. When no other punishment is provided herein, any person wilfully or knowingly violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The attorney general upon information furnished by the superintendent of banks, shall bring any actions necessary to enforce the provisions of this act.

Rep. Sec. 144, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

The double liability to the creditors of an insolvent state bank imposed by this section, as amended, upon a holder of stock in such bank, is in the nature of a guaranty, and therefore will not support an attachment as upon a contract for the direct payment of money in an action by the receiver to collect an assessment levied upon the stock of a delinquent stockholder. Muri v. Young, 75 Mont. 213, 245 Pac. 956.

The double liability imposed by this section, as amended, upon a stockholder in a state banking corporation is in its nature contractual, and in an action to collect an assessment made against him upon that liability, attachment lies as upon an implied contract for the direct payment of money. Home State Bank v. Swartz, 72 Mont. 425, 234 Pac. 281.

In an action by the receiver of an insolvent bank commenced under this section to enforce the stockholders' statutory liability, complaint held sufficient to show that the bank was a party defendant in the receivership proceedings, that it was being liquidated by the court, and that its insolvency had been judicially determined. Springhorn v. Dirks et al., 72 Mont. 121, 231 Pac. 912.

The holder of bank stock has no vested right in any particular method or procedure for enforcing his liability, nor can he object to the adoption of a new method of enforcing it; hence the fact that this section, under which the receiver may commence action against him instead of the creditors, was passed after the bank became insolvent did not prejudice him in any of his rights. Springhorn v. Dirks et al., 72 Mont. 121, 231 Pac. 912.

Where stock in an insolvent state bank is held by an estate in charge of an administrator, the estate is liable for the assessment levied against the stock by order of court, and to entitle the receiver to proceed to collection, under this section he is not required to first present a claim against the estate to the administrator for approval or rejection. Springhorn v. Dirks et al., 72 Mont. 121, 231 Pac. 912.

This section, providing inter alia that the receiver of an insolvent bank may by order of the district court maintain suits in the courts of this state for the recovery of the statutory liability of stockholders, impliedly denies the court jurisdiction to authorize the receiver to institute like actions in courts outside the state, the right to do so existing in the creditors of the bank alone. *Corwin v. 6071. Report of superintendent of banks.

Rep. Sec. 144, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

The "making" of a report by a state bank to the superintendent of banks as required by this section comprehends any and all of the acts therein mentioned necessary to effectuate the purpose of the requirement; the attestation by a director is essential to the completion thereof, and to that extent imposes upon him the duty of making the report, by attesting the report he vouches for the absolute truthfulness of the statements contained therein, and an indictment charging him with a violation of the statute in so making a false report states a public offense. In re Lockhart, 72 Mont. 136, 232 Pac. 183.

This section and sections 182 and 6083 do not expressly or by implication waive the states' preference right over unsecured creditors of an insolvent bank to payment of its deposits. State ex rel. Rankin v. Madison State Bank, 68 Mont. 342, 218 Pac. 652.

6109D. Assessment on capital stock to make good impairment.

Rep. Sec. 144, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

By provision of this section and a by-law of a state bank, written notice to its stockholders of a special meeting to devise ways and means to make good an impairment of the capital stock of the bank was required to be mailed to their last known places of residence. A notice was mailed to the attorney of a stockholder residing in a city other than that of the latter's residence. The stockholder did not participate in the meeting. Held, that a sale of his stock on non-payment of an assessment levied against it in pursuance of action taken at the meeting was void. Home State Bank of Manhattan v. Swartz, 77 Mont. 566, 252 Pac. 366.

The power given a state bank by this section to sell the stock of its stockholders upon impairment of its capital if the holders fail to pay the assessment levied upon it constitutes a lien upon the stock, within the meaning of the attachment statute. Home State Bank v. Swartz, 72 Mont. 425, 234 Pac. 281.

In an action by a state bank to recover a deficiency due on an assessment against a stockholder after a sale of the stock by it as provided in this section, in which a writ of attachment was issued, the affidavit on attachment held defective for failure to allege, after setting forth that the amount due had not been secured by any mortgage, lien, etc., that "if originally so secured, such security has, without any act of the plaintiff, become valueless." Home State Bank v. Swartz, 72 Mont. 425, 234 Pac. 281.

6109E. Voluntary liquidation.

Rep. Sec. 144, Ch. 89, L. 1927.

Where a bank goes into voluntary liquidation under this section and in acknowledgment of its indebtedness to a general creditor issues to him a certificate entitling him to dividends thereon as they are declared in the course of liquidation, he may not thereafter bring suit to recover the amount of his claim against the bank, no failure on the part of those in charge of its affairs in carrying forward its liquidation as trustees being shown; and where such an action was brought, a general demurrer to the complaint was properly sustained. Rohr v. Stanton Trust & Sav. Bank, 76 Mont. 248, 245 Pac. 947.

CHAPTER 13A.

MORRIS PLAN COMPANIES.

6109.1. Definition. The term "Morris Plan Company" as used in this act means any corporation formed under the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.2. Procedure to establish Morris Plan Company. Any number of adult persons, residents and not less than five, may associate to establish a Morris Plan Company under this act. The incorporators shall execute a certificate of incorporation or application for articles of incorporation, which shall be acknowledged by at least three of the subscribers thereto before a notary public, and they shall also make and subscribe an oath or affirmation before him to be indorsed on the said certificate that the said statements therein contained are true. The said certificate accompanied by proof of publication of notice as hereinafter provided shall then be presented to the governor of the state, who shall examine the same and if he finds it to be in proper form and within the purposes named in this act, he shall approve thereof, and indorse his approval thereon, and direct articles of incorporation to issue in the usual form incorporating the subscribers and their associates and successors into a body corporate of the name chosen, and the said certificate shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of the state, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and he shall forthwith furnish to the state banking department an abstract therefrom, showing the name, location, amount of capital stock, and the name and address of the treasurer of such corporation; the said original certificate with all its indorsements shall then be recorded in the office for the recording of deeds in and for the county where the business of the corporation is to be carried on, and from thenceforth the subscribers and their associates and successors shall be a corporation for the purposes and upon the terms named in the said charter. Certified copies of such certificate, duly certified by the secretary of this state, shall be conclusive evidence in all courts of this state of the existence of such corporation and of every other matter or thing which could be proved by the production of the original certificate.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.3. Contents certificate of incorporation. The certificate of incorporation or application for articles of incorporation shall specify:

- I. The name (subject to the approval of the secretary of this state).
- II. Location or place of business, particularly designating the county or city.
- III. Amount of capital stock and number of shares into which divided.
- IV. The names and places of residence of the incorporators, and the number of shares subscribed by each.
- V. A statement that such certificate is made to enable the persons named to form a Morris Plan Company under this act.
- VI. The term for which it is to exist.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.4. Population necessary—Capital stock. No corporation shall be organized under this act to do business in a city having a population of less than twenty thousand inhabitants, and that such corporation shall have an aggregate amount of capital stock of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and a surplus of 10% of the paid in capital stock.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.5. Shares, how divided. The capital stock of any such corporation shall be divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each. All of the capital stock shall be paid in cash to the treasurer of the corporation, who shall deposit the same in some bank approved by the superintendent of banks, before any such corporation shall be authorized to transact any business other than such as relates to its formation and organization, and such payment shall be certified to the state banking department under oath by the president and manager of said corporation.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.6. Name. Every corporation incorporated under this act shall be known as a Morris Plan Company, and may use the words "Morris Plan Company" as part of its corporate title.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.7. Powers. Every corporation formed under the provisions of this act shall, from the date of the charter of incorporation issued thereto, be a body corporate, but shall transact no business except such as may be incidental to the purpose of its organization until all of the capital has been paid in as hereinbefore provided, and shall have the following powers:

I. To have succession by the name designated in its certificate of incorporation, for the term of twenty-five years from the date of the incorporation, unless sooner dissolved.

II. To sue and be sued, to appear and defend in all actions and proceedings under its corporate name and to the same extent as a natural person.

III. To have a common seal and alter the same at pleasure.

IV. To elect or appoint all necessary officers, agents, and servants, define their duties and obligations, fix their compensations, dismiss them, fill vacancies and require bonds.

V. To make, amend and repeal by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for its own government, for the orderly conduct of its affairs and the management of its property, for determining the manner of calling and conducting its meetings, the tenure of office of the several officers, and such others as shall be necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of its purposes, which by-laws and amendments thereto must be approved by the superintendent of banks.

VI. To lend money and to deduct interest therefor in advance at lawful rates of interest and in addition to require and to receive uniform weekly or monthly installments on its certificates of indebtedness purchased by the borrower simultaneously with the said loan transaction, or otherwise, and pledged with the corporation as security for the said loan, with or without an allowance of interest on such installments, provided, however, that no such corporation shall charge or receive interest in excess of the legal rate of interest provided for in the state of Montana.

VII. To buy, sell, or negotiate bonds, notes and choses in action and to sell or negotiate evidences on certificates of indebtedness or investment of the corporation calling for the payment of money at any time, either fixed or uncertain and to receive payments therefor in installments or otherwise.

VIII. To purchase or otherwise acquire and to sell and negotiate drafts and acceptances drawn in connection with the sale of merchandise on account of the purchase price thereof and to take from the acceptors or holders of such drafts and acceptances as security therefor, with or without other collateral, choses in action or other evidences of indebtedness issued by it and to be paid in uniform monthly, weekly or other periodical installments.

IX. To charge for a loan made pursuant to this action one dollar for each fifty dollars or fraction thereof loaned for expenses incurred in making the loan; no charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.8. Powers relating to deposits. The power conferred upon corporations organized under this act by the foregoing action shall not be construed as authorizing such corporation to receive deposits of money subject to check, payable on demand, or payable unconditionally at a fixed time.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.9. Restrictions on powers. No Morris Plan Company shall:

(a) Make any loan to one person, firm or corporation for more than ten per centum of the amount of the capital and surplus of such Morris Plan Company.

(b) Make any loan under the provisions of this act for a longer period than one year from the date thereof.

(c) Deposit any of its funds with any other corporation unless such corporation has been designated as such depository by a vote of the majority of the directors, exclusive of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated, present at a meeting duly called at which a quorum is in attendance. Such bank must first be approved by the superintendent of banks as a depository bank for such company.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.10. Resident directors. At least three-fourths of the directors of any Morris Plan Company shall be residents of the state of Montana.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6109.11. Supervision by state banking department. Every corporation incorporated under the provisions of this act shall report to, and be subject to the supervision of the state banking department.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 119, L. 1925.

6124. Commissioner may suspend licenses—General powers. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the commissioner of insurance after a hearing before him upon notice, that any company, officer, agent, solicitor or helper has violated any provisions of this act, he shall suspend the license of any such company, officer, agent, solicitor or helper to transact business in this state for a period of sixty (60) days for the first offense, and for a period of from not less than one year to not more than three years in the discretion of the commissioner of insurance, for the second or any additional offenses, and no other license shall be issued to any such company, officer, agent, solicitor, or helper during the period of suspension, as the case may be.

The insurance commissioner is hereby given power to do all things necessary and convenient for carrying into effect the laws of this state governing insurance companies and may from time to time promulgate necessary rules and regulations for the better protection of the insuring public.

SURETY COMPANIES.

6207. Execution of official bonds.

Cited in Stabler v. Porter, 72 Mont. 62, 232 Pac. 187.

6221. Revocation of license of surety company.

This section provides that where a surety company refuses to pay a judgment against it on a bond furnished by it and fails to take an appeal for ninety days after its rendition, the insurance commissioner shall revoke its license. Such a company did not perfect its appeal from a judgment in an action on a constable's bond until the ninety-fifth day after rendition. Its undertaking on appeal was satisfactory to the judgment creditor. In action by the latter against the insurance commissioner for writ of mandate to compel revocation of the company's license, held that since plaintiff's rights were fully protected and could not be affected either by the issuance or denial of the writ, and the effect of its issuance would have been the destruction of the company's business in the state without an opportunity to be heard, it not being a party to the action, refusal to issue it was not error. Stabler v. Porter, 72 Mont. 62, 232 Pac. 187.

Obiter: Where the license of a surety company is sought to be revoked under this section for failure to pay a judgment rendered against it in an action on a bond furnished by it quo warranto may be resorted to. Stabler v. Porter, 72 Mont. 62, 232 Pac. 187.

6236. What bonds may be furnished—Payment of premium. Whenever an official bond is required of any state, county, or city officer, such officer may furnish either a surety company bond, or a good and sufficient individual bond, executed and approved as required by law, or may furnish such other security as may be approved by the person, officer, or board authorized by law to examine and approve such official bond; provided, that where such officer shall furnish a surety company bond, the premium therefor shall be a proper charge against the general fund of the state, county, or city, as the case may be; provided, further, that the provisions of this section, making such premium a charge against the general fund of the state, county, city, town, or municipality shall not be construed to include any deputy, clerk or subordinate officer, where a bond is required to be furnished by the principal or body appointing the same.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 145, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 20.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

6258.1. Corporations—Policy-holders to participate in elections. The by-laws of corporations organized in this state for the transaction of the business of life insurance upon the stock plan may provide a plan for policy-holders participating with its stockholders in the election of its directors.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 8, L. 1923.

6258.2. Revocation of by-laws, when forbidden. Any by-law so adopted at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders may thereafter be extended in its terms, but shall not be curtailed or revoked.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 8, L. 1923.

6269. Regulation of investments. No life insurance company organized or incorporated under the laws of this state shall invest in or loan upon any shares of stock of any corporation. It may invest or loan its funds and accumulations in or upon government, state, county, or municipal securities, and bonds or obligations amply secured by mortgage, or other adequate collateral security, but when more than one-third of the total value of the collateral security shall consist of shares of stock, it shall be deemed inadequate. No investment or loan, except policy loans, shall be made by any such life insurance company unless the same shall first have been authorized by the board of directors, or by a committee thereof charged with the duty of supervising such investment or loan. No such company shall subscribe to or participate in any underwriting of the purchase or sale of securities or property, or enter into any transaction for such purchase or sale on account of said company, jointly with any other person, firm or corporation; nor shall any such company enter into any agreement to withhold from sale any of its property but the disposition of its property shall be at all times within the control of its board of directors. Any such company, in addition to other investments allowed by law, may invest any of its funds and accumulations in the bonds of the United States or of this state, or any other state of the United States, or of any county, city, town, or village, or duly organized school district therein, or of any municipality or civil division of any state, and may loan upon improved unencumbered real property in any state fifty per cent of the value of such property, or invest in the mortgage bonds of any dividend paying railway or street railway company duly incorporated and organized under the authority of this state or any other state, federal land bank bonds or in the mortgage bonds of any dividend paying industrial or public utility corporation duly incorporated and organized under the authority of the United States or of any state therein, and it may also make loans on the security of promissory notes amply secured by pledge of any bonds in which such insurance companies are hereby authorized to invest their funds, and may also make loans upon the security of its own policies, but no loan on any policy shall exceed the reserve value thereof.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 59, L. 1925.

6280. Contingency reserve. Any life insurance company doing business in this state may accumulate and maintain, in addition to the capital and surplus contributed by its stockholders, and in addition to an amount equal to the net values of its policies, computed according to the laws of the jurisdiction under which it is organized, a contingency reserve not exceeding the following respective percentages of said net values, to wit: When said net values are less than one hundred thousand dollars, twenty per centum thereof, or the sum of ten thousand dollars, whichever is the greater, when said net values are greater than one hundred thousand dollars, the percentage thereof, measuring the contingency reserve, shall decrease one-half of one per centum for each one hundred thousand dollars of said net values up to one million dollars; one-half of one per centum for each additional one million dollars up to ten million dollars; one-half of one per centum for each additional two million five hundred thousand dollars up to fifteen million dollars; and if said net values equal or exceed the last mentioned amount, the contingency reserve shall not exceed ten per centum thereof; provided, that as the net values of said policies increase and the maximum percentage measuring the contingency reserve decreases, such corporation may maintain the contingency reserve already accumulated hereunder, although for the time being it may exceed the maximum percentage herein prescribed, but may not add to the contingency reserve, when the addition will bring it beyond the maximum percentage; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any existing surplus or contingency reserves held by any such corporation, save that whenever the existing surplus and contingency reserves, exclusive of said net values and capital and surplus reserve contributed by its stockholders and of all accumulations held on account of existing deferred dividend policies or groups of such policies, shall exceed the limit above mentioned, it shall not be entitled to maintain any additional contingency reserves; provided further, that for cause shown, the state auditor may, at any time and from time to time permit any corporation to accumulate and maintain a contingency reserve in excess of the limit above mentioned for a prescribed period, not exceeding one year, under any one permission, by filing in his office a decision stating his reasons therefor, and causing the same to be published in his next annual report. This section shall not apply to any corporation doing exclusively a nonparticipating business.

6355.1. Purpose—Definition. A corporation, mutually operated, for the purpose of encouraging home building and thrift among its shareholders and loaning substantially all of its funds to them on real estate mortgage security, shall be known in this act as a building and loan association, and shall be under the supervision of the state examiner and ex-officio superintendent of banks, whose duty it shall be to enforce all laws with respect thereto. Such associations shall have continual succession and shall be organized under and governed solely by the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

NOTE.—This chapter superseded sections 6356 to 6374, Revised Codes of 1921, chapters 108 and 111 of the Session Acts of 1923, and chapters 101 and 104 of the Session Acts of 1925, relating to building and loan associations.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 646.

6355.2. Articles of incorporation—Contents. Whenever any number of persons, not less than five (5), shall desire to incorporate a building and loan association, having for its object the conduct and operation of such an association as defined in this act, they shall prepare and file articles of incorporation to that effect in the manner in this act specified; such articles shall be signed, sealed and acknowledged in the form now provided by the statutes of this state for the conveyance of real estate, and shall include the following:

1. The name of the association. The name shall not be the same as, nor too closely resemble, that in use by any existing corporation established under the laws of this state. The words "Building and Loan Association" shall form a part of the name, and no corporation not organized under this act shall be entitled to use a name embodying said combination of words; provided, that the associations now existing may continue their present names;

2. The principal office, or place of business of the association shall be within this state;

3. The amount of its capital stock and the number of shares into which the same shall be divided; such capital stock shall be divided into shares having a par value of one hundred dollars ($100).

4. A provision that such association is organized under this act for the purposes herein expressed;

5. The names and residences of the persons who subscribed and acknowledged the said declaration, a majority of whom shall be citizens of this state, and shall thereafter be called incorporators.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.3. Certified copy of articles prima facie evidence. A certified copy of any articles of incorporation filed in pursuance of this act, must be received in all courts and other places as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.4. Evidence of corporate existence or capacity. The certificate issued by the secretary of state in pursuance of section seven of this act, or a certificate issued by the superintendent of banks setting forth that any association, domestic or foreign, has fully complied with the provisions of this act and is lawfully authorized to transact business in this state shall be admitted in evidence in all courts in this state, and shall be prima facie evidence of the corporate character and capacity of such association and of its right to transact business in this state, excepting in an action prosecuted by the state in the nature of quo warranto.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.5. By-laws. Contemporaneously with or immediately following the execution of said articles of incorporation provided for in section two above, the incorporators then acting in the capacity of directors shall adopt appropriate by-laws to govern and prescribe the methods and the officers by whom the business of the association shall be conducted. The by-laws shall be in conformity with the provisions of this act, and at all times during the regular hours of business shall be open to the inspection of the members at its principal place of business. The by-laws, among other things, shall especially provide for the character and method of conducting the business of the association, with rules governing the addition of members, the sale of its shares, the amount of membership fee; provide for the annual meeting of the shareholders; for the annual election and qualification of directors and for the term or period during which the directors shall serve; provided that the said term or period for all directors shall not be less than one nor more than three years, and that the directors shall be so elected that as near as possible the term of an equal number shall expire each year; for the appointment of officers; for the adoption, ratification and amendment of the by-laws and which adoption, ratification and amendment may be made either by the stockholders or board of directors; for the method of voting at such annual meeting and for the periodical investigation of the business and condition of such association. Provided, however, that no by-laws and no change or amendment thereof shall be effective until first approved by the superintendent of banks, and provided further, that no association shall commence the transaction of business as such until the by-laws are first approved by the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.6. Capital stock defined—Investigation. The capital stock named in the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to refer to the authorized capital stock and the organization may be completed and business commenced when five per cent thereof is subscribed and not less than twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500), paid in, in cash and such amount must thereafter be maintained; and provided further that whenever such articles of incorporation are in due form and regularly executed and the by-laws have been duly approved as above required and it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the superintendent of banks that five per cent of the authorized capital has actually been paid in cash upon the subscription of shares, the superintendent of banks shall thereupon ascertain from the best sources of information at his command the responsibility, character and general fitness of the incorporators, and that there is a reasonable need for the existence of such an association, and that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted thereby. If the superintendent of banks shall not be satisfied with the result of his investigations of the matters above specified, he shall, within sixty days (60) after said articles of incorporation and by-laws have been presented to him, refuse to issue the certificate hereinafter described. If he shall be satisfied with the result of his said investigations, he shall within sixty days (60) after said articles of incorporation.

and by-laws have been presented to him, issue under his hand, and official seal, a certificate reciting in substance the filing in his office of the articles of incorporation and by-laws; that said articles and by-laws conform to all the requirements of this act; that he has approved the same and that he verily believes that the incorporators are fit and proper persons to conduct the business of a building and loan association as defined in this act and said by-laws and that there is a reasonable need for the existence of said building and loan association, and that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted thereby. Said certificate shall be made in quadruplicate and attached to each copy of the articles of incorporation, one of which shall be retained by the superintendent of banks, the other three shall be returned to the incorporators who shall forthwith file one copy thereof in the office of the secretary of state, one in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of said association is located and the other shall be retained by the association. Immediately upon the receipt of said certified copy, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation, whereupon the incorporation of said association shall be deemed complete.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.7. Directors—Duties. The conduct and management of the affairs and business of such association shall be vested in a board of directors which shall consist of not less than five (5), nor more than nine (9), members. The incorporators of the association shall serve as directors until the first meeting of the stockholders to be held at the time provided for by this act, or until their successors are elected and qualified, after which, the directors shall be elected by the stockholders of the association in accordance with the provisions of this act and the by-laws of the association. The directors, unless it is otherwise provided by the by-laws of the association, shall elect or appoint all the officers of the association. Such directors when appointed or elected shall file with the superintendent of banks their oath of office, as provided in election or appointment of bank directors. Meetings of the board of directors must be held at least once each month.

Director's duty to disclose existence of lien or claim against property on which

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 652.

6355.8. Removal from office. No director shall be removed from office except as herein provided, or by a vote of the stockholders holding two-thirds of the capital stock, at a general meeting held after previous notice given in the manner provided in section 10 of this act. Meetings of the stockholders for this purpose may be called by the president, or by a majority of the directors, or by stockholders holding not less than twenty-five per cent of the capital stock.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.9. Meetings of stockholders and directors. (a) The meetings of the stockholders of a Montana building and loan association must be held at its office or principal place of business in this state.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.10. Notice of Meetings. At least thirty (30) days prior to any annual or special meeting of any such association a notice stating the time and place of such meeting shall be deposited in the postoffice at the principal place of business of such association directed to each member at his address, as the same appears at the time on the books of the association, and when so deposited, postage prepaid, shall be deemed a legal and sufficient notice of any such meeting; provided also that in addition thereto notice may be given by four (4), consecutive weekly publications in a newspaper published in the county where the association has its principal place of business. Such publication shall be complete on the day of the fourth publication and in notices of special meetings there shall be attached to and accompanying such notice a statement of any matter or matters to be considered at said meeting. All members of such association shall be entitled to vote at such meetings in person or by proxy.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.11. Proxies. At least once every year the board of directors of every building and loan association shall, by resolution, direct the secretary of such association and he shall mail to every stockholder of such association a blank form of proxy, and the stockholder shall have the right and privilege of withdrawing his former proxy and of substituting another in its stead. Every proxy shall continue in force and be binding upon the stockholder until such proxy is revoked or another substituted.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.12. Powers and duties of building and loan associations. Every building and loan association is a creature of the law having certain powers and duties of a natural person and as such has power:

- (1). Of continual succession, by its corporate name.
- (2). To sue and be sued, in any court;
- (3). To make and use a common seal and alter same at pleasure;
- (4). To appoint such officers or agents as the business of the corporation may require, and to allow them suitable compensation;
- (5). To enter into any obligations or contracts essential to the transaction of its ordinary affairs, or for the purposes of the corporation;
- (6). Such association shall have power to issue stock to members on such terms and conditions as the constitution and by-laws may provide, but no association shall issue preferred stock;

(7). To assess and collect from members such dues, fines, interest, fees and premium on loans made, which premium shall not exceed one per centum of the amount of the loan, or other assessment as may be provided for in the constitution and by-laws. The total of such fines, interest, fees or other assessments shall not exceed ten (10) per centum per annum. Fines for nonpayment of dues only shall not be imposed for a longer period than six months (6), against any stock or stockholder. In case of associations operating under a serial plan such fines shall not exceed the total amount of earnings credited;

(8). To permit members to withdraw all or part of their stock credits at such time and upon such terms as the constitution and by-laws may provide; provided, that no charge or fee, except as herein provided, shall be made against any member who withdraws his stock, after having given thirty (30) days' notice of such withdrawal; provided, also, that no fine of any description shall be made upon the par value of such stock or upon the declared dividends because of such withdrawal. Any member who withdraws his stock or whose stock is matured, shall be entitled to receive all dues paid in and all dividends declared less fines imposed for nonpayment of dues, less a reasonable membership fee not exceeding two per cent of the par value of each share of stock and less a pro rata share of all losses, if any, which have occurred, and no other fine or assessments shall be made against such stock. Applications for withdrawals are to be registered on the books of the association in the order received and after outstanding contracts have been provided for, at least one-half of the collections made by the association must be used for the payment of the withdrawals in the order received; provided, however, that if applications for withdrawal are six months old, all collections must be used for payment.

(9). To cancel shares of stock upon which all credits have been withdrawn, or upon which loans have been canceled or stock upon which no payments have been made for a period of six (6) months, by returning to the stockholders all credits, if any, and reissue such shares as new stock.

(10). To issue stock to minors and permit the same to be withdrawn as other stock, and the receipt of such minor shall be valid acquittance if his rights have been fully secured to him.

(11). To acquire, hold, encumber and convey such real estate and personal property as may be necessary for the transaction of its business, or necessary to enforce or protect its securities. Provided, not over ten per cent (10%), of the assets of any association shall be invested in home office buildings, furniture and fixtures. Also ownership of other real property acquired in any manner or for any purpose shall not be held for more than five (5) years, except by permission of the superintendent of banks.

(12). To borrow money, only when necessary not exceeding twenty per cent (20%) of its assets, and issue its promissory note therefor; provided, that the assets and securities of an association shall not be pledged or hypothecated to secure its borrowed money or for any other purpose, without the consent of the superintendent of banks. However, if the superintendent of banks determines that it is advisable to pledge assets in order that funds may be secured he may authorize such pledging or hypothecation; but in no event shall the margin of security pledged exceed twenty-five per cent (25%) of the funds so borrowed.

(13). To make loans to members on the security of the shares of the association, and also on their notes secured by first mortgages on improved real estate, including suburban homes, but not on farm lands or mining property, for not to exceed sixty-five per centum of the actual value of such real estate, and upon such terms and conditions as may be provided in the constitution and by-laws; provided, however, that in all cases where the promissory note, or other written evidence of the loan made by any building and loan association requires the payment of said loan, or the total aggregate sum of principal and interest in periodic installments, said promissory note, or other written evidence of debt shall specifically state the actual interest rate charged the borrower upon the unpaid balance of the principal amount at each periodic payment; provided, further, that when the note or other evidence of debt does not require the payment of said loan in periodic installments, the note or other evidence of debt shall specifically state the actual rate of interest to be charged the borrower.

Provided, however, that in all notes and mortgages now in force which do not specify the actual rate of interest charged the borrower upon the unpaid balance of the principal at each periodic payment, all payments made on the said notes must be distributed by crediting the same, first, upon the interest on the unpaid balance of the loan at the rate actually earned under the terms of the notes and mortgages, and the remainder upon the principal of the loan, and no charges or deductions from any of said periodic payments shall be permitted by any such association not specifically provided for in said promissory note or other evidence of such loan.

(14). To cancel such loans and release the securities on such as the board of directors may provide. But any borrower may have his loan canceled upon the following terms, to wit: By paying all interest premium and fines for delinquent payments up to the date of cancellation and the sum actually borrowed, less payments on principal dues paid in and the dividends credited.

(15). To invest the money of the association in:

(a) The bonds and securities of the United States;

(b) The bonds and warrants of any state and of any county, city or school district in the state of Montana; and

(c) Not to exceed ten per cent (10%) of the association assets in such other bonds and securities as may be approved by the superintendent of banks.

(16). To loan money to other building and loan associations.

(17). To make such annual or semi-annual distribution of all the earnings after payment of expenses and setting aside a sum for the contingent fund as herein provided.

(18). To amend its articles of incorporation by changing the name, place of business, the number of directors; to increase or decrease the capital stock, by a majority vote of its directors; provided that no such amendments shall be effective until first approved by the superintendent of banks.

(19). To dissolve the corporation in accordance with the provisions of this act.

(20). To provide by constitution and by-laws, adopted or amended by its board of directors for the proper exercise of the powers herein granted, and the conduct and management of its affairs.

(21). All such other powers as are necessary and proper to enable such corporation to carry out the purpose of its organization.

En. Sec. 12, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

Secretary's authority to indorse and transfer commercial paper, note, 12 A. L. R. 144.

6355.13. Stockholders. The owners of shares in a building and loan association are called stockholders.

En. Sec. 13, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.14. Transfer of stock—Effect. The delivery of a stock certificate of a building and loan association to a bona fide purchaser or pledgee for value, together with a written transfer of the same, or a written power of attorney to sell, assign or transfer the same, signed by the owner of the certificate, shall be a sufficient delivery to transfer the title as against the creditors of the transferor and subsequent purchasers, but no such transfer shall affect the right of the building and loan association to pay any dividend due upon the stock, or treat the holder of record as the holder in fact, until such transfer is recorded upon the books of the building and loan association, or a new certificate is issued to the person to whom it has been transferred.

En. Sec. 14, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

Blue sky laws as applicable to building and loan associations, note, 24 A. L. R. 529.

6355.15. Requirements of transfer in certain cases. When a certificate of stock in a building and loan association is owned by persons residing out of the state, or is lost, the president, secretary or directors of such association, before entering any transfer of such stock on its books, or before issuing a new certificate therefor to the transferee or owner, may require from the attorney or agent of the owner or from the person claiming under the transfer, an affidavit or other evidence that the owner was alive at the date of the transfer or that the original certificate is lost and has not been assigned or transferred, and may also require from the attorney, agent or claimant a bond of indemnity with a surety or sureties satisfactory to the officers of such association, to protect such association against any liability to the owner, assignee or transferee of such shares or the legal representatives of the owners of such shares, in case of his or her death before the transfer, and also to protect such association against any liability accruing or resulting by reason of said lost or original certificate being thereafter presented to it. If such affidavit or other evidence or bond be not furnished when required, as herein provided, neither such association nor any officer thereof shall be liable for refusing to enter the transfer on the books of the association.

En. Sec. 15, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.16. Bonds of officers, agents and employees. All officers, employees and agents of such association who have charge or possession of money, securities, or property, shall give bond before entering upon said duties to the satisfaction of the board of directors and the superintendent of banks for the faithful performance of the same, and the safekeeping and proper application of all moneys or property coming into their hands. All officers of such association, on being re-elected to the office, and all agents and employees upon their re-appointment, shall renew their bonds. The board may be increased or additional security required at any time by the board of directors. Directors shall not be eligible as bondsmen.

En. Sec. 16, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.17. Employment of agents—Licenses and revocation thereof. It shall be unlawful for any building and loan association doing business within the state of Montana to employ any agent for the purpose of soliciting loans and/or the sale of stock in the said association, unless he shall first be licensed by the superintendent of banks to solicit loans and/or sell the stock of said association and no agent representing any association, foreign or domestic, doing business within the state of Montana shall solicit loans and/or the sale of stock of any association unless he shall first be licensed by the superintendent of banks.

No license shall be issued to any applicant for an agent's license until such applicant shall have first filed in the office of the superintendent of banks a written request from the building and loan association desiring to employ him as agent and has made and filed an application therefor upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the examiner, which must show the applicant's name, business and residence address, community or district in which he wishes to act as agent, the name of the company to be represented, his occupation for the last twelve months and such other information as the superintendent of banks may require. If the superintendent of banks is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to engage in the solicitation of loans and/or the sale of stock he shall issue the license. The superintendent of banks upon ten (10) days' notice to any agent, and upon hearing thereon, may revoke the license of any agent upon the following grounds:

- (1). For misrepresentation;
- (2). If the said agent be convicted in any court for violation of the criminal statutes;
- (3). When satisfied that said agent is not a fit and proper person to engage in the business of selling building and loan association stock.
- (4). He shall revoke the license of any agent upon the request of such association employing such agent.

Each license provided for in this act shall expire on December 31st of each year, and for the issuance or renewal thereof the superintendent of banks shall require a fee of two dollars ($2).

En. Sec. 17, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.18. Fund for contingent losses. The amount to be set aside to the fund for contingent losses shall be determined by the board of directors, but in all permanent or serial associations at least five per cent (5%) of the net earnings shall be set aside each year for such fund until it reaches at least five per cent (5%) of the book value of the stock. All losses shall be paid out of such fund until the same is exhausted and whenever the amount in said fund falls below five per cent (5%) of the book value of the stock as aforesaid, it shall be replenished by annual appropriations of at least five per cent (5%) of the earnings, as hereinbefore provided, until it again reaches said amount.

En. Sec. 18, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.19. Payment of expenses and losses—Dividends. All expenses of any such association shall be paid out of the earnings only; in such manner as may be provided in its by-laws. The charges incident to a loan, if paid by the borrower, shall not be deemed a part of the current expenses.

The portion of the earnings provided in the preceding section shall be reserved annually or semi-annually for the payment of contingent losses and the residue of such earnings shall be transferred as a dividend in such proportion to the credit of all members as the association, by its constitution and by-laws, may provide, to be paid to them at such time and in such manner as will conform with this act and the by-laws of such association. Further losses, should there be any, shall be assessed in the same proportion and manner on all members, to the extent, only, of their stock credits in such association. No further or other charge or assessment, of any kind, can be made against any stockholder.

En. Sec. 19, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.20. Taxation. Every association shall be assessed for and pay taxes upon its office furniture and fixtures and all real estate acquired in the course of its business. The amount standing to the credit of each member of any such association, upon its books, shall be considered and held as the individual credit of each member, and each member shall list the shares held by him for taxation, at their real value in money, in the county of his residence, the same as other credits are listed, except shares from which loans have been made, or money advanced, by the association, and as to such shares they shall be listed for taxation at the net cash value of the stock, to be ascertained by deducting the loan from the cash value of the shares. Associations organized under or controlled by this act shall be subject to taxation in no other way.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.21. Annual statements. Every building and loan association doing business in this state shall, annually on the thirtieth day of June, or within twenty days thereafter, make a full detailed report, in writing, of the affairs and business of the association for the fiscal year ending on said June 30th, showing its financial condition at the end of said year.

En. Sec. 21, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.22. Form of statement—Where filed. The statement shall be in such form and contain such information as may be prescribed by the superintendent of banks. It shall be sworn to by the secretary of such association and its correctness attested by at least three directors or an auditing committee appointed by the board of directors. The original shall be filed with the superintendent of banks within twenty days after the close of the fiscal year, and such an abstract thereof as the superintendent of banks may require shall be posted for sixty (60) days in the office or meeting place of such association, and also published once in the newspaper published in the town in which the association is located, or if no newspaper is published in the town in which the association is located, then in one published nearest thereto in the same county, and such proof of publication shall be furnished at such times and in such manner as may be required by the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 22, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.23. Duties of superintendent of banks. The superintendent of banks shall examine all building and loan associations doing business in this state at least once a year. Also, whenever ten per cent (10%) of the subscribed stock of any association files a written application with the superintendent of banks, requesting him to make examination of any association, he shall make such examination forthwith, and the expense of the examiner making such examination, including living expenses and transportation, together with a fee of fifteen dollars ($15) per day for each day actually consumed in the examination shall be paid by the association examined, and the examiner's finding to be available to the petitioners and the board of directors of the association notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this act. Provided further, that such fee and expense when so collected shall be deposited with the state treasurer for re-appropriation to the current department appropriation of this department.

En. Sec. 23, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.24. Powers of superintendent of banks. Such superintendent of banks shall have power to prescribe for and supervise uniform system of reports, and accounting for all associations; shall have access to and may compel the production of all books, papers, securities and moneys of any association under examination. He shall have power to administer oaths to and examine the officers and agents of such association and its affairs.

En. Sec. 24, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.25. Reports—Contents and publication. Every building and loan association shall make to the superintendent of banks a report of condition whenever requested to do so by the superintendent of banks, according to the form which may be prescribed by him, verified by the oath or affirmation of the president, vice-president, or secretary of such association, and attested by the signature of at least two of the directors. Each such report shall exhibit in detail and under appropriate heads, the resources and liabilities of the association at the close of business on any past day by him specified; and shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banks within five (5) days after the receipt of a request or requisition therefor from him and in such form as may be required by the superintendent of banks it shall be published as soon as possible in a newspaper published in the place where such association is established, or if there be no newspaper published in the place, then in one published nearest thereto in the same county, at the expense of the association; and such proof of publication shall be furnished at such times and in such manner as may be required by the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 25, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.26. Removal of directors, officers or employees. Any director, officer or employee of any association found by the superintendent of banks, after examination, to be dishonest, shall be removed from office by the board of directors of such association on the written order of the superintendent of banks, and if the directors neglect or refuse to remove such director, officer or employee, in event any losses accrue to such association thereafter by reason of the dishonesty of such director, officer or employee, such written order of the superintendent of banks shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence of the negligence of the directors failing to act upon the same as herein provided in any action brought against them, or any of them, for recovery of such losses.

En. Sec. 26, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.27. Fees paid into state treasury. All fees provided for in this act and paid to the superintendent of banks, or secretary of state shall be by them turned into the state treasury for the state examiner's fund.

En. Sec. 27, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.28. Application to other persons, corporations, associations, etc. The provisions of this act shall apply to and be enforceable against all corporations, persons, firms, partnerships, associations, trustees or combinations of persons whatsoever, whether foreign or domestic, and whether citizens of this state or otherwise, that transact, or attempt to transact, a building and loan business, or a business of like kind, or character, or where, by its or their charter, constitution, by-laws or by a declaration of trust, or other device, or by a contract or agreement, the members or customers are required to pay regular installments to a common fund or series, from which fund or series loans are made to said members, customers, or to others for the purpose of building homes or buildings, purchasing building sites, paying off liens or debts against real estate, or for other purposes, within the boundaries of this state. The name association when used in this act shall be deemed to include any of the above named.

En. Sec. 28, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.29. Foreign associations—Requirements. Any association as defined in the foregoing section organized under the laws of any state, other than Montana, or of the United States, or of any foreign government, shall, before doing business within this state, file in the office of the secretary of state and in the office of the superintendent of banks, a duly authenticated copy of their charter, articles of incorporation, or articles of agreement, and also a statement, verified by oath of the president and secretary of such corporation or managing officials if other than a corporation and duly verified, showing:

1. The name of such association and the location of its principal office or place of business without this state; and the location of the place of business or principal office within this state;

2. The names and residences of the officers, trustees or directors;

3. The amount of capital stock;

4. The amount of capital invested in the state of Montana.

Such association shall also file, at the same time, and in same offices, a certificate, under seal and the signature of its president, vice-president, or other acting head, and its secretary, if there be one, certifying that the said association has consented to all the license laws and other laws of the state of Montana relative to foreign associations and has consented to be sued in the courts of this state, upon all causes of action arising against it in this state, and that service of process may be made upon some person, a citizen of this state, whose name and place of residence shall be designated in such certificate, and such service, when so made upon such agent, shall be valid service on the association.

En. Sec. 29, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.30. Consent of agent. The written consent of the person so designated to act as agent shall also be filed in like manner, and such designation shall remain in force until the filing in the same offices of a written revocation thereof, or of a consent, executed in like manner. A certified copy of a designation so filed, accompanied with a certificate that it has not been revoked, is presumptive evidence of the execution thereof, and conclusive evidence of the authority of the officer executing it.

En. Sec. 30, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.31. Contracts void if made before compliance with act. If any such foreign association shall attempt or commence to do business in this state without having first filed said statement, certificate and consent, required by this act, or without complying with any or all of the laws of Montana relating to the payment of fees or licenses, no contract made by them or any agent or agents thereof, during said time, shall be enforceable by them until the foregoing provisions have been complied with.

En. Sec. 31, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.32. Shares of stock subject to attachment. The stock or shares of such foreign associations, doing business in this state, shall be subject to attachment in the same manner as now provided by law in the case of domestic associations.

En. Sec. 32, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.33. Laws of other states. When by the laws of any other state, territory or nation any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or securities or other obligations or prohibitions are imposed on building and loan associations of this state, doing business in such other state, territory or nation, or upon their agents therein, so long as such laws to continue in force the same obligations and prohibitions shall be imposed on the associations of such other state, territory or nation doing, or attempting to do a building and loan business, or a business of like kind or character in this state, and upon their agents herein.

En. Sec. 33, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.34. Conformity required. The powers, rights, duties, privileges and obligation of every such association heretofore and hereafter organized and doing business in the form of a character similar to that authorized by this act, shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited, and determined by the provisions of this act, to the same extent and effect as if said association has been organized and incorporated under or pursuant to its provisions and the articles of incorporation, by-laws and rules of each heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered and amended to conform with the provisions of this act and the same are declared void where such articles of incorporation, by-laws or rules are inconsistent with its provisions; except that the obligations of any existing association, whether between such association and its shareholders or any one of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the shareholders of such association existing at the time this act takes effect, shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of this act; and with such exceptions every building and loan association shall possess the powers, rights, duties and privileges, and be subject to the obligations, restrictions and liabilities conferred and imposed by this act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its articles of incorporation, by-laws or rules. All obligations to any such association heretofore contracted shall be enforceable by it and in its name and demands, claims and rights of action against any such association shall be enforced against it as fully and completely as they might have been enforced before. Except as above set forth, on and after six months after the passage and approval of this act, no domestic or foreign association now engaged in the business of a building and loan association, or a business of like character, shall be permitted to conduct such business in this state unless it comply in every respect with the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 34, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.35. Penalties. It shall be unlawful for any association, whether foreign or domestic, and whether citizens of this state or otherwise, to do business, or attempt to do business, as defined in this act, without having first complied with its provisions and having received a certificate of authority to do business, from the superintendent of banks. Any such association, violating any of the provisions of this act, and failing to comply with any of its provisions, shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), for each and every such violation, to be recovered by an action in the name of the state, and on collection, paid into the state treasury. Any person or persons, whether citizens of this state or otherwise, who aids or assists any such association to do business contrary to the provisions of this act, without having first complied with all of its provisions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned not more than six (6) months, or both.

En. Sec. 35, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.36. Superintendent of banks' report. The superintendent of banks shall keep and preserve in permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a concise statement of each association examined, and he shall annually make a report to the governor of the general conduct and condition of the building and loan association doing business in this state, with such suggestions as he may deem expedient. Such report shall also include the information contained in the statement required of the association, and arranged in tabulated form. He shall also report the whole amount of the income of his office, the source whence derived, and the expenses in detail during the year ending on the thirtieth day of June.

En. Sec. 36, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.37. Obtaining property by fraud, false report, refusal to permit inspection of books. A director, officer, agent, or employee of any building and loan association who:

(1) Wilfully receives or possesses himself of any of its property, otherwise than in payment for a just demand, and with intent to defraud, omits to make or cause or direct to be made a full and true entry thereof in its books and accounts; or

(2) Concurs in omitting to make any material entry thereof; or

(3) Wilfully makes or concurs in making or publishing any written report, exhibit or statement of its affairs or pecuniary condition, containing any material statement which is false; or

(4) Having the custody or control of its books, wilfully refuses or neglects to make any proper entry in the books of such association as required by law, or to exhibit, or allow the same to be inspected and extracts to be taken therefrom by the superintendent of banks, his chief deputy, or any of his examiners, shall be guilty of a felony.

En. Sec. 37, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.38. Purchase of obligations of association by officer. No director, officer, agent or other employee of any building and loan association shall, directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase, or be interested in the purchase of any obligation of said association for a less sum than shall appear upon the books of such association to be the value thereof. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall, for each offense, forfeit to the state three times the face value of any such obligation so purchased.

En. Sec. 38, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.39. Purchase of assets of association by officer. No officer, director, agent, or other employee of any association shall, directly or indirectly, for his own personal benefit, purchase, or be interested in the purchase of any of the assets of any building and loan association for a less sum than the book value thereof. Every person violating any provision of this section, shall, for each offense, forfeit to the state twice the nominal value of any such asset so purchased.

En. Sec. 39, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.40. Calculation of profits. Interest or commissions unpaid, although due or accrued, on debts owing to any building and loan association, shall not be included in calculation of its profits.

En. Sec. 40, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.41. Limitation on loans. The total liabilities of any person, co-partnership, or corporation to any association for money borrowed, however secured, including in the liabilities of a copartnership, the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall at no time exceed twenty per centum of the amount of the assets of such association.

En. Sec. 41, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.42. Joint ownership. Any building and loan association may issue shares to or in the name of two or more persons, whether husband and wife or otherwise; withdrawal by any one of such persons, and the receipt or acquittance of any one of such persons shall be valid and sufficient to release and discharge to the association for such withdrawals, regardless of the death or disability of any other such joint shareholder.

En. Sec. 42, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.43. Trusts—Payment. Whenever any shares of stock shall be purchased in any building and loan association by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to the association, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same, or any part thereof, together with the interest or dividends thereon, may be paid to the person for whom said shares were purchased.

En. Sec. 43, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.44. Shares held by minor. Whenever any shares of stock in any building and loan association shall be purchased by or in the name of any minor, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such minor, and free from the control or lien of all persons whatsoever, except creditors, and shall be paid, with any interest due thereon, to the persons in whose name the shares of stock shall have been purchased, and the receipt of such minor shall be sufficient release or discharge for such shares of stock to the association.

En. Sec. 44, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.45. Reports confidential. Whoever, being the superintendent of banks, a deputy, assistant or clerk in his employ or an examiner, fails to keep secret the facts and information obtained in the course of an examination, or by reason of his official position, except when the public duty of such officer requires him to report upon or take official action regarding the affairs of the association so examined, or wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of such association, shall be removed from office and shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or, imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two years nor more than five years, or both. Nothing in this section shall prevent the proper exchange of information relating to building and loan associations and the business thereof, with the representatives of building and loan departments of other states, but in no case shall the private business or affairs of any individual, association or company be disclosed.

En. Sec. 45, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.46. Checking accounts prohibited. No building and loan association shall carry any demand, commercial or checking account, or receive any sum of money on deposit.

En. Sec. 46, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.47. Voluntary liquidation and settlement. By and with the consent of the superintendent of banks any association organized under the laws of and doing business in this state, may, if the stockholders deem it advisable, go into liquidation, and for the purpose of so doing may, at any regular or called meeting of the stockholders, adopt a resolution declaring that such association intends to go into liquidation and discontinue business as a building and loan association. A copy of such resolution, duly certified by the president and secretary of such association, under the seal thereof, shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banks within ten (10) days after the passage thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of banks shall issue his certificate reciting that such resolution has been filed in his office, and that such association is in liquidation. After the filing of such notice, it shall not be lawful for such association to issue stock, or to loan or advance its money to members or to any other person or persons, but all of the income and receipts of such association, in excess of the actual expense of managing the same, shall be applied to pay off first the indebtedness and then the stock in such association upon which no loans have been made, the same to be paid pro rata. The board of directors of such association in liquidation may adopt such rules and make such orders as shall be just and equitable for the sale and disposition of all property held by such association and for the division of the assets of such association. Such association in liquidation, shall be subject to examination and under the supervision of the superintendent of banks.

En. Sec. 47, Ch. 57, L. 1927.

6355.48. Insolvency or impairment of building and loan association. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent of banks that the affairs of any building and loan association are in an unsound condition, or that it is conducting its business in an unsafe or unlawful manner, the superintendent of banks may take possession of all books, records and assets of every description of such association and hold and retain the possession of same pending the further proceedings herein specified. Should the board of directors, secretary or person in charge of such association refuse to permit the superintendent of banks to take possession as aforesaid, the superintendent of banks shall communicate such fact to the attorney general, whereupon it shall become the duty of the attorney general at once to institute such proceedings as may be necessary to place the superintendent of banks in immediate possession of the property of such association. Upon taking possession of the effects of the association as aforesaid, the superintendent of banks shall prepare a full and true statement of the affairs and condition of such association, including an itemized statement of its assets and liabilities and shall receive and collect all debts, dues and claims belonging to it and pay the immediate and reasonable expenses of his trust. When the condition of such association has been fully ascertained and it shall appear that the affairs of said association are in fact in an unsound condition, the superintendent of banks shall at once notify, in writing, the board of directors of such association of his decision, giving them twenty (20) days in which to restore the affairs of such association to a sound condition. Meanwhile, the superintendent of banks shall remain in charge of the books, records, and assets of every description of such association, attend, or be represented, at all directors and stockholders meetings held, suggest such steps as he may deem necessary to restore such association to a sound condition; and if same is not done within such twenty (20) days, he shall report the facts to the attorney general and it shall thereupon become the duty of the attorney general to institute proceedings in the district court of the county in which such association has its principal place of business, for the appointment of the superintendent of banks as receiver and as such he is authorized to collect all moneys due such association and to do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and he shall proceed to liquidate its affairs. He shall have general and inclusive power and authority, except as otherwise limited by the terms of this act, to do any and all acts, to take any and all steps necessary, or, in his discretion, desirable for the protection of the property and assets of such association and the speedy and economical liquidation of its assets and affairs and the payment of its creditors, or for the reopening and resumption of business of said association where that is practicable or desirable. He may institute in his own name as superintendent of banks, or in the name of the association, such suits and actions and other legal proceedings as he deems expedient for such purposes, and by making application to the district court of the county in which such association is located, or to the judge thereof, in chambers, may, upon proper and sufficient showing of cause therefor, procure an order to sell, compromise or compound any bad or doubtful debt or claim, and to sell and dispose of any or all the assets, which sale may be made to stockholders, officers, directors, or others interested in such association, on consent of the court. On such proceedings the association shall be made a party by notice issued on order of the court or judge, in lieu of summons, but served in like manner, and the hearing of any such application or petition by the superintendent of banks may be had at any time, either in term or vacation in court, or in chambers, as the court may order, after said association has had five (5) days' notice of such application.

CHAPTER 27.CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING ACT.

6445. Annual report. Each association formed under this act shall make an annual report to the commissioner of agriculture on forms furnished by him, setting forth the name of such association, its principal place of business; a statement of its business operations during the period covered by such report, showing the amount of capital stock paid up and the number of stockholders of a stock association or the number of members and amount of membership fees received if a nonstock association; the total expenses of operations; the volume of business transacted; the amount of its indebtedness or liability; and its balance sheets.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 144, L. 1923.

6449.1. Recording marketing agreements. Any co-operative marketing association organized under the laws of this state, or doing business in this state pursuant to the laws of this state, may file for record its marketing agreements covering livestock, increase, wool, and other livestock products as hereinafter provided.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.2. Agreements, how executed. Such agreements shall be eligible for filing for record without being acknowledged before a notary public or other officer, or without any affidavit of good faith or other formality, but shall be signed by the member of the association, and in the name of the association, by a duly authorized officer of the association, and the corporate seal of the association shall be affixed.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.3. Where filed. Such agreements shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder in the county where such livestock or livestock product is located on the date such agreement is so filed for record.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.4. Constructive notice of record. Such recordation shall operate as constructive notice of the agreement and of the rights of the association and of its successors and assigns, as specified in the agreement and in this act.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.5. Record to convey full title when. In case such marketing agreement specifies that the member has agreed to sell, and the association has agreed to buy, the product specified in the agreement, produced by or for such member during a period of time in said agreement designated; and such agreement further provides that the association shall have the absolute title to such product, and the right to enforce specific performance of the agreement, and the power to borrow money thereon for any purpose of the association, and that the association shall have all rights of ownership of such product without limitation, including the right to sell or pledge for its own account, or as security for its own debts or otherwise, then such agreement, when so filed for record, shall operate to convey and transfer to such association full title to and possession of such product covered thereby, and any possession by the member thereafter shall be only as custodian for such association. It is further provided that such agreement shall not apply or constitute any lien or encumbrance on any product derived subsequent to the term therein specified, and no release or satisfaction of such an agreement need be filed for record.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.6. Assignment of security — Record — Acknowledgment. It is further provided that such association shall have full power to transfer and assign all of its rights under such co-operative marketing agreement, containing the provisions specified in the preceding section hereof, as security for loans obtained by it. Such transfer and assignment may be by indorsement on the marketing agreement so filed for record, or may be made by separate document which shall adequately describe the said marketing agreement, or the various agreements, covered thereby. Any such assignment shall be eligible for record in the same manner as is herein provided for recording of co-operative agreements. Such assignments need not be acknowledged before a notary public or other officer, nor contain any affidavit of good faith or other formality, but shall be signed in the name of the association by a duly authorized officer of the association and the corporate seal of the association shall be affixed. The assignee under any such assignment shall be subrogated to all the rights of the association under said co-operative marketing agreements, and the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 34, L. 1927.

6449.7. Fees—Index. The fees payable to the county clerk and recorder shall be as follows: Fifty cents for each agreement so filed for record; fifty cents for each certificate of prior liens and mortgages; fifty cents for certifying to copy of marketing agreement so filed for record; fifty cents for each assignment which is filed separate from the marketing agreement or agreements covered thereby. The county clerk and recorder shall index such agreements and assignments in the index of chattel mortgages.

CHAPTER 29.

INCORPORATION OF RELIGIOUS, SOCIAL AND BENEVOLENT CORPORATIONS.

6453. Churches, charities, benevolent and fraternal societies. Associations or persons where pecuniary profit is not the object, for the purpose of establishing and conducting churches, hospitals, lyceums, musical and scientific societies, libraries, lodges of Free and Accepted Masons, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Independent Order of Good Templars, granges of Patrons of Husbandry, and all other associations, societies, and orders of like character, and social clubs and agricultural societies, stock-growers' associations, and other associations of like character, including local, independent, and subordinate organizations, as well as state, respectively, supervisory, governing, and grand organizations and bodies of any such associations, society, or order, or for the purpose of establishing public or private charities or both, or for any other lawful purpose, may become incorporated upon complying with the provisions of this chapter.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 112, L. 1923.

6454. Incorporation of religious or benevolent society. It shall be lawful for any such association or persons as provided in the preceding section at any regular meeting thereof, or at a special meeting for that purpose called, to adopt, by a vote of two-thirds of the members thereof then present, a resolution to the following effect:

"Resolved. That the trustees of this (church, synod, presbytery, conference, assembly, lodge, grand lodge, or other association, as the case may be), to wit: (A, B, C, D, etc., giving the names of the duly elected trustees or directors) be and are hereby authorized to incorporate this (church, synod, presbytery, conference, assembly, lodge, grand lodge, or other association, as the case may be), and for that purpose to file with the proper officer articles of incorporation as required by law." The trustees or directors named in such resolution must conduct the affairs of the corporation so formed until their successors are elected and qualified. In case two or more of the associations mentioned in this chapter own or are desirous of owning real or personal property conjointly, and managing the same conjointly, where pecuniary profit is not the object, they may each, by resolution adopted in the same manner as hereinabove provided in this section, instruct their trustee or director, or trustees or directors respectively, to act in conjunction in incorporating under the provisions of this chapter and in the articles of incorporation, or in their respective by-laws, may provide for the annual election of the trustees of the corporation who shall succeed those named in the articles of incorporation. In case three or more persons are desirous of forming a corporation under the provisions of this act for charitable or benevolent purposes and where pecuniary profit is not the object, they may by resolution adopted and prescribed by them set forth the purposes and objects of such benevolent corporation designating the number and term of the trustees and authorize the trustees named in such resolution to file articles of incorporation as provided in this act.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 112, L. 1923.

6455. Number of directors—Articles of incorporation—Powers. The trustees or directors, of whom there must not be less than three and not more than thirteen in the aggregate, named in such resolution or resolutions, may thereupon make, file, and record in the office of the county clerk of the county where such association or associations is or are located, if such association or associations be local or subordinate associations, or in the office of the secretary of state, if such association be a state, representative, supervisory, governing, or grand organization or body, articles of incorporation, and must attach to such articles a copy of the resolution or resolutions provided for in the preceding section, certified to by the president or other presiding officer, and the secretary or other recording officer of such meeting or other meetings. In lieu of the requirements of section 5905, of this code, such articles of incorporation must contain the following:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is organized.
3. The number of trustees or directors for the first year of the corporate existence of such incorporation.

Corporations so organized may have continual succession, have a common seal, elect all necessary officers, adopt by-laws not inconsistent with law, and enforce the same by appropriate penalties, and have the same rights as other corporations in prosecuting and defending suits at law; may take and hold by purchase, gift, devise, or bequest, either real or personal property or both, or carry out the obligations or provisions of any trust imposed by will or deed of trust, or otherwise, where the trust is created for any charitable purpose, public or private, and where the same is not repugnant to any law of this state, or may give away, or otherwise dispose of, any property of any kind for the purposes of dispensing charity either public or private or for any helpful, worthy or lawful object contemplated by the provisions of this act, and may use or dispose of any property of any kind for the purposes only for which such corporation was formed.

Cited as chapter 128, L. 1909, in Forestvale C. Assn. v. Helena C. Assn., 62 Mont. 52, 57, 203 Pac. 359.

6489. Trustees of fund—Appointment and powers. Whenever moneys to the amount of one hundred dollars shall have been received by such corporation, or association, heretofore or hereafter formed, such a fund, either from the sales of lots or from direct payments of such corporation or association towards such a fund by lot owners, or otherwise, the trustees of such association shall immediately make application to the judge of the district court for the judicial district in which the cemetery for which such trust fund exists for the appointment of a board of trustees of such fund, and the judge of such court shall thereupon appoint said board of trustees from a list submitted to him by the trustees of such association. Such board shall consist of not less than three or [nor] more than five persons, the exact number to rest in the discretion of the said trustees of said association. Such trustees of such fund must be citizens and freeholders of the state of Montana, during all the time they exercise the powers of such trust. Upon the election, appointment, and qualification, as hereinafter provided, of the said trustee of such fund, all the title to the funds included in said trust, and all the rights, powers, authorities, franchises, and trusts of whatsoever thereunto appertaining, shall at once vest in them; or, in case of the failure of any of those so chosen and appointed, to qualify within thirty days after their appointment, then the same shall vest in the one or more who shall qualify. In case of the failure of any of those so chosen and appointed so to qualify within such time, then a vacancy shall exist and the judge of said district court shall forthwith appoint from a list submitted to him by the trustees of such association some person possessing the above qualifications to fill vacancy or vacancies in said board of trustees of such fund; provided, however, that trustees of such fund, heretofore appointed by such cemetery associations, or district courts, shall continue to hold their office as such trustees until terminated in one of the manners in this act provided.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 68, L. 1925.

6490. Tenure of office of trustees. The tenure of office of trustees of such fund shall be for life unless they permanently remove from the state of Montana, or are removed from office by the judge of said district court for a good cause shown, or their tenure is otherwise terminated as in this act provided.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 68, L. 1925.

6492. Vacancies, how filled. In the case of the death, resignation, disability, or removal of any member or members of said board of trustees of said fund the judge of said district court shall forthwith appoint a trustee or trustees to fill such vacancy or vacancies, in the same manner as above provided in the case of an original vacancy.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 68, L. 1925.

6494. Powers of district court. In the case of the failure of the trustees of such an association to make application to the judge of said district court for the appointment of a board of trustees of such fund, as provided in section 6489, or in case of the death, removal, resignation, or disability of all the members of such board, the said rights, titles, interest, authority, powers, franchise, and trusts, until the appointment and qualification of a new board of trustees of such fund shall vest in the district court of the county in which such cemetery, or the greater part thereof, shall be situated. In such cases such boards of trustees of such fund shall be appointed by the district court of said county on application of any person interested, on notice to such other persons interested as the judge of said court may order. The trustees appointed by the judge of said court, under the provisions of this section, shall have the same rights, powers, authorities and franchise as trustees appointed under other sections of this act. The district court shall have power to compel an accounting of such fund and its income from the cemetery association or the trustees of said fund, upon the application of any interested party. Any owner of an interest in any lot of the cemetery cared for by such trust, any trustee of the cemetery association, and any trustee of the said trust fund, shall have the right to make any application to the court provided for in this chapter.

Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 68, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 32.

RAILROAD CORPORATIONS—GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES.

6507. Powers of railroad corporations.

Under the common-law rule of liability for the obstruction of surface waters, in force in this state in the absence of statute providing otherwise, defendant railway company was not liable for damage caused to plaintiff's property by surface waters which were dammed up by its embankment and for the escape of which it had failed to construct culverts or openings, its duty in this respect being confined, by subdivision 5 of this section and section 6599, to providing outlets for streams, watercourses, etc., intersected by the embankment, plaintiff's evidence having failed to establish that the invading waters were conveyed through a natural watercourse. Le Munyon v. Galatin Valley Ry. Co., 60 Mont. 517, 199 Pac. 915.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 22 Cal. Jur. 286.

6521. Regulations.

Failure of the defendant to comply with the statute requiring the blowing of the whistle and sounding the bell on approaching a crossing is negligence per se. Stroud v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 75 Mont. 384, 393, 243 Pac. 1089.

CHAPTER 33.

LEASES, SALES AND MORTGAGES OF RAILROAD EQUIPMENT AND ROLLING STOCK.

6537. Conditional sale of equipment. In any contract for the sale of railroad or street-railway equipment or rolling stock, it shall be lawful to agree that the title to the property sold or contracted to be sold, although possession thereof may be delivered immediately, or at any time or times subsequently, shall not vest in the purchaser until the purchase price shall be fully paid, or that the seller shall have and retain a lien thereon for the unpaid purchase money, and in any contract for the leasing or hiring of such property, it shall be lawful to stipulate for a conditional sale thereof at the termination of such contract, and that the rentals or amounts to be received under such contract may, as paid, be applied and treated as purchase money, and that the title to the property shall not vest in the lessee or bailee until the purchase price shall have been paid in full, and until the terms of the contract shall have been fully performed, notwithstanding delivery to and possession by such lessee or bailee; provided, that no such contract shall be valid as against any subsequent judgment creditor, or any subsequent bona fide purchaser for value and without notice unless:

1. The same shall be evidenced by an instrument executed by the parties, and duly acknowledged by the vendee, or lessee, or bailee, as the case may be, or duly proved, before some person authorized by law to take acknowledgment of deeds, and in the same manner as deeds are acknowledged or proved;

2. Such instrument shall be filed for record in the office of the secretary of state of this state, and in cases in which the line of such railroad or street railway company lies wholly within one county, also in the office of the county clerk and recorder of said county.

3. Each locomotive engine or car so sold, leased, or hired, or contracted to be sold, leased, or hired as aforesaid, shall have the name of the vendor, lessor, or bailor, plainly marked on each side thereof, followed by the word "owner," or "lessor," or "bailor," as the case may be.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 148, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 34.

LIABILITY OF RAILROADS FOR KILLING OR INJURING LIVESTOCK.

6540. Fences and cattle-guards.

Where injury to livestock was not occasioned by reason of the nonexistence of a fence inclosing defendant railway company's tracks, but, as alleged in the complaint, was caused by its employees in driving them away from the tracks into an inclosure where there was no water, the complaint in so far as it relied upon failure to fence did not state a cause of action under this section. Fa-ber v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co. et al., 77 Mont. 446, 251 Pac. 546.

Under this section a railroad company which fails to maintain sufficient cattle-guards is not liable for the value of livestock killed or maimed on its right of way unless the complaint alleges and the proof shows that the killing or maiming was done by its engines or cars, and the absence of such an allegation renders the complaint insufficient. Hunt v. White Sulphur Springs etc. Ry. Co., 63 Mont. 508, 208 Pac. 917.

This section making it incumbent upon railroads to maintain good and legal fences on both sides of their track and property, impliedly excepts highway crossings, at which, however, they must install cattle-guards made effective by wing fences on both sides of the highway. Bowers v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 200, 201 Pac. 825.

Railroad tracks at depot and station grounds where passengers and freight are received and discharged, where employees are required to pass continuously back and forth, and where public convenience requires free and unobstructed access, are impliedly excepted from the requirements of fencing made by this section. Bowers v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 200, 201 Pac. 825.

6541. Liable for injury from negligence.

Cited as section 4309, Revised Codes, in Bowers v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 200, 207, 201 Pac. 825.

6542. Designation of stations where records are kept.

Where a railroad line passes through a town at which the county seat is located and the company there keeps the book required by this section, in which to record the description of animals killed or injured and the time and place of the injury, it is under no obligation to cause a notice to be filed with the county clerk designating the station at which it is kept, and its omission to do so does not render it liable in damages under section 6543. Hunt v. White Sulphur Springs etc. Ry. Co., 63 Mont. 508, 208 Pac. 917.

Where a railway company fails to keep the book prescribed by this section in which to record the dates when and the places where on its track livestock is killed in the operations of its trains, and other like matters for information to the person interested, the district court may, in an action to recover damages, decline to hear its defense and award judgment for plaintiff, the statute not being open to constitutional attack. Foster v. Oregon Short Line R. R. Co., 62 Mont. 230, 204 Pac. 375.

6544. Affidavit of ownership and value—Attorney's fee.

In an action against a railroad for the killing of livestock on its track, in which, under this section, an attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court, may be allowed to the successful party, testimony as to the value of the attorney's services is not admissible, the question of its allowance being one for the determination of the court and not of the jury in arriving at the amount of their verdict. Vaill v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 66 Mont. 301, 213 Pac. 446.

Validity of statutory provision for recovery of attorneys' fees as a penalty for failure to fence tracks, note, 11 A. L. R. 886.

CHAPTER 36.

GENERAL REGULATIONS OF BUSINESS OF RAILROADS.

6586. Passenger rate of three cents per mile.

In an action to enjoin the intrastate carriers of passengers in Montana from exacting a per mile fare of three and six-tenths cents under authority of an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission issued on January 24, 1921, and to enforce the provision of this section, fixing three cents per mile as the maximum intrastate fare, held, under the decisions of the supreme court of the United States in the New York and Wisconsin rate cases (see opinion) decided February 27, 1922, that the Interstate Commerce Commission has power to fix rates for intrastate travel under the provision of the Transportation Act of 1920 (41 Stat. 456), authorizing it to remove "any undue, unreasonable or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce," and that the provision of this section is therefore not capable of enforcement. State ex rel. Rankin v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 62 Mont. 576, 205 Pac. 959.

6595. Obstruction of highway crossings by railroads.

Cited in Knott v. Pepper, 74 Mont. 236, 244, 239 Pac. 1037.

6597. Fire-guards.

Where plaintiff in an action against a railway company for damages from fire set by sparks from a locomotive bases his action on the failure of the company to comply with the provision of this section to plow a fire-guard on each side of its track where it passes through range or grazing country, he must allege in his complaint that the property burned was situated in a "range or grazing country"; failure to so allege renders testimony relating to a breach of its provisions inadmissible and instructions relating thereto improper. Missoula Trust & Savings Bank v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 201, 245 Pac. 949.

6599. Duty to construct drain and ditches.

Applied with section 6507 as defining duty of railroad companies to construct culverts and openings for the disposal of surface waters. Le Munyon v. Gallatin Valley Ry. Co., 60 Mont. 517, 199 Pac. 915.

6600. Coal-burning locomotives, skidders, etc., to be provided with spark-arresters.

Violation of the provisions of this section, making it the duty of railway companies to equip their coal burning locomotives with approved spark-arresters, is negligence per se. Missoula Trust &

Savings Bank v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 201, 245 Pac. 949.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 529.

6601. Failure to comply with law a misdemeanor—Penalty.

Cited in Missoula Trust & Savings Bank v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 201, 213, 245 Pac. 949.

6605. Liability for death or personal injury.

In a personal injury action by an employee against his employer, whether based upon the Employers' Liability Act or not, plaintiff has the burden of proving negligence. Hassan v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 60 Mont. 105, 198 Pac. 446.

Sections 6605-6608 were cited as chapter 29, L. 1911 in Kambris v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 62 Mont. 88, 91, 203 Pac. 859; Gillespie v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 63 Mont. 598, 607, 208 Pac. 1059.

6606. Contributory negligence—Diminution of damages.

Contributory negligence of plaintiff employee in an action brought under either the federal or state Employers' Liability Act, does not bar recovery, but is a fact which may be taken into consideration by the jury in apportioning the damages. Kambris v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 62 Mont. 88, 203 Pac. 859.

For definition of contributory negligence adopted by the supreme court of Montana see Jepsen v. Gallatin Valley Ry. Co., 59 Mont. 125, 135, 195 Pac. 550.

6607. Assumption of risk.

The defense of assumption of risk may be interposed as a bar in an action for personal injuries, brought by a railroad employee when such injuries are caused by hazards incident to the particular business, by failure of the employer to exercise the degree of care required of him by law to provide a reasonably safe place of work and appliances, provided the employee is aware of the condition of increased hazard thus brought about or the same is so obvious that an ordinarily prudent person would have observed and appreciated it. Matson v. Hines, 63 Mont. 214, 207 Pac. 474.

CHAPTER 41.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

6651. Foreign corporations must file copy of charter and statement.

Isolated transactions, whereby a foreign corporation sells goods manufactured in another state and shipped into Montana by such corporation for use or installation, does not constitute the doing of business in this state within the meaning of this section and section 6653, prescribing the conditions under which foreign corporations may do business in the state. General Fire Extinguisher Co. v. Northwestern Auto Supply Co., 65 Mont. 371, 211 Pac. 308.

PART IV.

Property.

CHAPTER 1.

DEFINITIONS AND NATURE OF PROPERTY.

6663. Property, what constitutes.

Cited in Town of Cascade v. County of Cascade, 75 Mont. 304, 310, 243 Pac. 806; Gas Products Co. v. Rankin, 63 Mont. 372, 388, 24 A. L. R. 294, 207 Pac. 993.

6665. Wild animals.

Under this section an owner of land has a qualified ownership in wild fowl which were protected, fed and claimed by him thereon, and he alone has the right to hunt them while on his land; hence a trespasser has no right to kill or take them away. Herrin v. Sutherland, 74 Mont. 587, 42 A. L. R. 937, 241 Pac. 328.

6667. Real property.

Growing grass is a part of the soil of which it is the natural growth, within the meaning of this section and section 6669, and destruction thereof by the herding of livestock thereon constitutes a damage to the owner's real property. Kiehl v. Holliday, 77 Mont. 451, 251 Pac. 527; Shipler v. Potomac Copper Co., 69 Mont. 86, 95, 220 Pac. 1097; Rodda v. Best et al., 68 Mont. 205, 215, 217 Pac. 669.

This and sections 6669, 6670 were cited as sections 4425, 4427, 4428, Revised Codes, in Smelting etc. Co. v. Railway Co., 62 Mont. 281, 292, 21 A. L. R. 1080, 205 Pac. 224; section 4425, Revised Codes, in Mannix v. Powell County, 60 Mont. 510, 513, 199 Pac. 914.

Cited in State ex rel. Northern Pacific Ry. Co. v. Duncan, 68 Mont. 420, 425, 219 Pac. 638.

6669. Fixtures.

A building erected upon land belongs to the owner of the land, and the burden of proof is upon him who claims that it is personal property to show that it is, the presumption to the same effect declared by this section, being a disputable one which may be overcome by evidence that the building was constructed in such a manner or under such circumstances as to preclude the idea that it was intended to become a part of the realty. Shipler v. Potomac Copper Co., 69 Mont. 86, 220 Pac. 1097.

Applied with section 6667 in Kiehl v. Holliday, 77 Mont. 451, 251 Pac. 527.

Cited as section 4515, Revised Codes, in Mannix v. Powell County, 60 Mont. 510, 513, 199 Pac. 914.

6759. How extinguished.

Where an irrigation ditch was originally constructed over the public domain by the predecessors of the owner, the latter by virtue of section 2339, United States Compiled Statutes, acquired his right to maintain it by grant from the United States and not by employment, and hence his right was not subject to extinguishment by disuse for a period of ten years, as provided by this section, subdivision 4, in case of a servitude acquired by enjoyment. Rodda v. Best et al., 68 Mont. 205, 217 Pac. 669.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 959.

CHAPTER 6.

RIGHTS INCIDENTAL TO THE OWNERSHIP OF REAL PROPERTY.

6764. Assignee of lessee—Remedies of lessor against.

Where one holds as assignee of an oil and gas sublease his rights and liabilities in an action seeking its termination must be determined from it, and not from the original lease to the sublessor, there being neither privity of estate nor privity of contract between him and the lessor; and the provisions of this section, providing that whatever remedies the lessor has against the lessee may be enforced against an assignee of the lease have no application as between the original lessor and the assignee of the sublease, but do apply as between the assignee and the sublessor. McNamer Realty Co. v. Sunburst etc. Co., 76 Mont. 332, 247 Pac. 166.

MONUMENTS AND FENCES.6776. Duties of tenant for life.

Cited as section 4534, Revised Codes, in Anderson v. McClenethan, 62 Mont. 387, 391, 205 Pac. 230.

6777. Monuments and fences.

Under this section coterminous land owners are mutually bound equally to maintain a division fence; each must contribute his share of the land, material and labor for its erection and maintenance. Schmuck v. Beck, 72 Mont. 606, 234 Pac. 477.

This and sections 6778, 6779 were cited in Dorman v. Erie, 63 Mont. 579, 583, 208 Pac. 908.

6778. Partition fences.

This and the following section were cited as sections 2085, 2086, Revised Codes, in Briggeman v. Corrigan, 60 Mont. 205, 208, 198 Pac. 443.

6780. Fence when joint occupancy ceases.

This section provides that where one of several occupants of lands belonging to them in severalty desires a partition fence, the others must, within six months after written notice to that effect, construct their portion of such fence, failing in which the person giving notice may build it and recover the proportion of the expense due from them. Plaintiff in an action to recover by contribution defendant's share of a partition fence, two days before the expiration of the six-month period began its construction. Held, that defendant was entitled to the full period of six months before default could be predicated upon his failure to act, and that by acting before its expiration plaintiff forfeited his cause of action for contribution. Briggeman v. Corrigan, 60 Mont. 205, 198 Pac. 443.

CHAPTER 8.

USES AND TRUSTS IN RELATION TO REAL PROPERTY.

6784. Trusts must be in writing.

The basis of a constructive trust is fraud, and such a trust arises when the legal title to property is obtained by a person in violation of some duty owed to the one who is equitably entitled thereto, the property being held in hostility to his beneficial rights of ownership. Word v. Moore, 66 Mont. 550, 214 Pac. 79.

Cited in Word v. Moore, 66 Mont. 550, 555, 214 Pac. 79.

Sections 6784, 6785 were cited in Wilson v. Wilson et al., 64 Mont. 533, 543, 210 Pac. 896; MacGinniss Realty Co. v. Hinderager, 63 Mont. 172, 184, 206 Pac. 436.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 154.

6785. Transfer to one for money paid by another.

To raise a resulting trust in land, the consideration for its purchase must have been paid at the time or before the legal title to it passed to the party sought to be charged in the trust capacity, payments made thereafter being insufficient for that purpose. MacGinniss Realty Co. v. Hinderager, 63 Mont. 172, 206 Pac. 436.

The rule declared by this section, that where real property is conveyed to one person and the consideration therefor is paid by another, a trust is presumed to result in favor of the person paying the consideration, held, subject to the exception that where the property is purchased by one with his own money and the title is placed by him in another to whom he stands in a confidential relation, such as husband, wife, parent, child, etc., the presumption, rebuttable in character, is that the conveyance is made as a gift. Clary v. Fleming, 60 Mont. 246, 198 Pac. 546.

Cited in Feeley v. Feeley, 72 Mont. 84, 92, 231 Pac. 908; In re Estate of Deschamps, 65 Mont. 207, 212, 212 Pac. 512; Wilson v. Wilson et al., 64 Mont. 533, 543, 210 Pac. 896; MacGinniss Realty Co. v. Hinderager, 63 Mont. 172, 184, 206 Pac. 436.

Advancing money to purchase real estate under oral agreement by vendee to give a mortgage thereon as security, which is not carried out, as basis of resulting trust, note, 18 A. L. R. 1099.

Presumption as to advancement or trust where property is purchased with money of parent and title is taken in name of child, note, 26 A. L. R. 1126.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 195.

6789. Vested power, execution of.

The fact that the third member of a board of three trustees of a common-law trust gave his approval to a contract entered into by the trust at a meeting of its board of trustees at which only two trustees were present did not render the contract valid, for the reason that under this section the board could act as such only when assembled as a board and not through the members composing it. Williard et al. v. Campbell Oil Co. et al., 77 Mont. 30, 248 Pac. 219.

CHAPTER 12.

ACQUISITION OF REAL PROPERTY BY ACCESSION—FIXTURES—BANKS OF STREAMS—ISLANDS.

6819. Fixtures.

Where one places a fence on the land of another without an agreement permitting him to do so, it belongs to the owner of the land unless he chooses to require him to remove it, the presumption, disputable in nature, being that one in possession of land is also the owner of the fixtures thereon. Schmuck v. Beck, 72 Mont. 606, 234 Pac. 477.

Whether rails furnished by a railroad company to a mining company and laid by the latter upon its property to serve its own purposes were trade fixtures within the meaning of this section depends upon the relation existing between the parties at the time they were laid and their intention with respect to them. Helena & Livingston Smelting & Refining Co. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 62 Mont. 281, 21 A. L. R. 1080, 205 Pac. 224.

6820. Alluvion.

Under this section and section 6823, "accreted lands"—that is, additions to the area of real estate from the gradual deposit by water of solid material, whether mud, sand or sediment, producing dry land which before was covered by water, along the banks of a navigable or unnavigable stream—belong to the riparian owner. *Bode v. 6844. Date.

The presumption declared by this section that a grant duly executed is presumed to have been delivered at its date, arising from the certificate of acknowledgment, is not conclusive, but may be overcome by other facts and circumstances, such as that the grantor remained in possession and control of the property for many years and up to the time of its recordation, that after recordation it was returned to him, etc. Springhorn v. Springer et al., 75 Mont. 294, 243 Pac. 803.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL PROPERTY—MODES OF TRANSFER GIFTS.

6879. Transfer of title under sale.

In a prosecution for grand larceny the information charged defendant, while acting as cashier of a bank, with having stolen a Liberty bond, the property of one L. and purchased by him on the installment plan. The bond was one of a number subscribed for by the bank to a reserve bank and held in trust for the individual subscribers until full payment therefor was made by them. Held, that title to the bond in question was in the bank, and did not pass to L., under this section, until it was identified on delivery to L. upon final payment, and that, therefore, at the time of the alleged offense, several months prior to delivery, he was not the owner thereof. State v. Wallin, 60 Mont. 332, 199 Pac. 285.

Acceptance of a receipt for corporate stock and receipt of a promissory note therefor constituted a transfer, the title to and ownership of the stock thereupon vesting in the subscriber, failure of the corporation to deliver a certificate to him, not affecting his title or vitiating the sale. Gallatin County F. Alliance v. Flannery, 59 Mont. 534, 197 Pac. 996.

RECORDING TRANSFERS—RELEASE OF OIL, GAS AND MINERAL LEASES.

6899. Instrument—When deemed recorded.

Cited in Guerin v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 68 Mont. 365, 370, 218 Pac. 949.

6902. Oil, gas and mineral leases, release of record of.

After forfeiture of an oil and gas lease has been declared and demand made for its return for nonperformance of the condition to commence drilling operations within a given time, it is immaterial that the lessee thereafter commenced drilling, and the lessee's failure to release the lease of record within sixty days entitles the lessor to prosecute his action under sections 6902-6904. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

The lessor of oil and gas rights is not required to give written notice of his intention to declare a forfeiture of the lease for failure of the lessee to commence drilling operations within the time stipulated, to entitle him to prevail in an action brought under sections 6902-6904, for damages for failure to clear the record of the forfeited lease. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

In an action for damages brought under sections 6902-6904, which is tortious in its nature, the measure of damages recoverable is the fair market value of an oil and gas lease at a time when the record should have been clear, i. e., plaintiff may recover its highest market value at any time up to the time of trial. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

That plaintiff's land was sold on foreclosure sale after his action for damages brought under sections 6902-6904 was commenced, and the period of redemption had expired prior to retrial of the cause, did not result in the abatement of the action. (Sec. 9086, Rev. Codes 1921.) Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

In an action brought under sections 6902-6904 to obtain the cancellation of an oil and gas lease and to recover the penalty provided therein for the lessee's failure to release within the time specified and resultant damages, a writ of attachment may issue as authorized by section 6903. Daley et al. v. Torrey et al., 71 Mont. 513, 230 Pac. 782.

The fact that sections 6902-6904 do not provide for a form of affidavit for a writ of attachment is of no moment, since under section 8882, where jurisdiction is conferred on a court, all the means necessary to give it effect are also given, and in the absence of such a provision the court may adopt any suitable process or mode of proceeding in the premises. Daley et al. v. Torrey et al., 71 Mont. 513, 230 Pac. 782.

An action to compel the release of an oil and gas lease of record on the ground that the lessee had failed to commence drilling operations within the time fixed in the lease, by reason of which it became forfeited, and for the recovery of the statutory penalty, damages and attorney's fees is one at law, entitling plaintiff to a jury trial. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co. et al., 70 Mont. 177, 225 Pac. 612.

In an action to enforce the cancellation of an oil and gas lease and to recover damages for refusing to cancel (sections 6902-6904), a written paragraph therein, providing that in the event a well was not commenced within the time limit mentioned in the lease, the instrument should be null and void, was controlling as against a printed one under which, if the operations were not commenced within that time the lessor should pay two dollars per acre for each additional year commencement of drilling was delayed, and that demurrer to the complaint was improperly sustained. Daley et al. v. Torrey, 69 Mont. 599, 223 Pac. 498.

Cited in Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 101, 235 Pac. 761; Corey v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 72 Mont. 383, 394, 233 Pac. 909.

6903. Action to compel release—Damages—Costs and attorney's fees.

Under his general allegation of damages plaintiff in an action to compel the release of record of an oil and gas lease after an alleged forfeiture under its terms, proof that because of defendant's failure to make release plaintiff had been prevented to make a new lease to his damage (special in character) in a given amount was inadmissible for that purpose, but admissible to show the nominal damages recoverable under this section. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 235 Pac. 761.

The provision of this section allowing plaintiff in an action to compel the release of record of an oil and gas lease an attorney's fee for preparing and prosecuting the suit, is unconstitutional as denying the defendant the equal protection of the law, in that the provision is not reciprocal. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 235 Pac. 761.

The concluding sentence of this section that "in all such actions writs of attachment may issue," construed to mean actions to cancel oil and gas leases, and the phrase "as in other cases" held to refer to the time at which the writ may issue and the effect which it has when issued, and not to limit the right to it to cases which fall within the purview of the general attachment statute. Daley et al. v. Torrey et al., 71 Mont. 513, 230 Pac. 782. Sections 6903, 6904 were applied

Where, after giving an oil and gas lease upon his land to one party, which lease was not recorded, the owner gave an option to another party to purchase the land subject to the lease, the option being recorded, plaintiff, who purchased the land before the expiration of the option, was chargeable with constructive notice of the option and its contents, and in the absence of inquiry from the lessee, was not an innocent purchaser without notice and was therefore not entitled to an injunction to prevent the lessee from going on the land for purposes of exploration. Guerin v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 68 Mont. 365, 218 Pac. 949.

CHAPTER 21.

HOMESTEADS.

6945. Homestead—Of what it consists.

The homestead authorized to be selected by the probate court under section 10145 is the homestead provided for by sections 6945-6948; therefore the value and extent of it must not be greater than as prescribed by those sections. In re Tripps' Estate, 71 Mont. 154, 227 Pac.

1005. Sections 6945-6972 were cited in McCarthy v. Kelley et al., 63 Mont. 233, 236, 206 Pac. 782.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 412.

6948. Exempt from forced sale.

The exemption statute which, by failing to include a homestead subject to attachment within the exceptions to the general rule that a homestead is exempt from execution, in effect declares that the lien of an attachment does not operate to defeat a homestead declaration, enters into and constitutes a part of a contract of sale of goods; therefore the contention of the seller that to hold a homestead declaration filed after he (the seller) had caused an attachment to be levied on the land sought to be homesteaded by the buyer, would destroy a vested right secured to him by the lien, cannot be sustained. Wall v. Duggan et al., 76 Mont. 239, 245 Pac. 953.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 479.

6949. When subject to execution or forced sale.

The filing of a homestead declaration after a writ of attachment has been levied upon the lands exempts the lands from sale on execution obtained after the declaration was filed. Wall v. Duggan et al., 76 Mont. 239, 245 Pac. 953.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 482.

6953. Proceedings on execution against homestead.

Sections 6953-6967 were cited in Wall v. Duggan et al., 76 Mont. 239, 244, 245 Pac. 953.

6968. Selection of homestead—Quantity and value of land.

A homestead may be claimed upon an undivided interest in lands. Wall v. Duggan et al., 76 Mont. 239, 245 Pac. 953.

While a failure to set forth in a homestead declaration the value of the premises does not invalidate it, failure to strictly comply with the requirement that the area claimed must not exceed the statutory limit renders the declaration void. Therefore a declaration of homestead covering "an undivided one-half interest and equity" in a 240-acre tract was void under this section. McCarthy v. Kelley et al., 63 Mont. 233, 206 Pac. 782.

Cited in In re Tripps' Estate, 71 Mont. 154, 160, 227 Pac. 1005.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 442, 462.

6969. "Head of a family" defined. The phrase "head of a family" as used in this chapter, includes within its meaning:

1. The husband, when the claimant is a married person, or the wife, where the husband fails to join in the declaration.

2. Every person who has attained the age of sixty years and who actually resides on the premises.

3. Every person who has residing on the premises with him or her, and under his or her care and maintenance, either:

First. His or her minor child, or the minor child of his or her wife or husband, or former wife or husband;

Second. A minor grandchild, brother or sister, or minor child of a brother or sister;

Third. A father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother;

Fourth. The father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother, of a husband or wife; or former husband or wife.

Fifth. An unmarried sister or any other of the relatives mentioned in this section, who have attained the age of majority and are unable to take care of or support themselves.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 86, L. 1925.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 443.

6971. Declaration of homestead—Must contain what.

In selecting a homestead for the family of a decedent where none was selected prior to his death, the probate court may, in the absence of a mode of procedure prescribed by the statute, proceed in substantially the manner indicated by this section for its selection during the lifetime of a decedent, thereafter following the procedure outlined by sections 10152-10157. In re Tripps' Estate, 71 Mont. 154, 227 Pac. 1005.

CHAPTER 22.

WILLS—EXECUTION AND REVOCATION.

6975. Married women, wills by.

Under the rule that a will properly executed is entitled to probate, a will of a married woman so executed, naming an executor, providing that he should pay her debts, funeral expenses and expenses of last illness from the funds of the estate, and revoking all former wills, was properly probated, the fact that testatrix, by failing to make mention of her surviving husband therein, had deprived him of two-thirds of her estate, in disregard of the provisions of this section, prohibiting her from doing so, not being a reason for denying it probate. In re Mahaffay's Estate, 72 Mont. 579, 234 Pac. 838.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 629.

7012. Lineal descendants take estate upon death of devisee before testator.

This section, providing that, when any estate is devised to any child or other relation of the testator and the devisee dies before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, such descendants take the estate given by the will in the same manner as the devisee would have done had he survived the testator, applies only to devises and not to legacies. In re Estate of Hash, 64 Mont. 118, 208 Pac. 605.

The word "devised" used in this section, providing that if any estate is devised to any relative of the testator, and the devisee dies before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, they take the estate so given in the same manner the devisee would have done had he survived testator, held to mean a gift of real property by will, and not a gift of personal property. In re Fratt's Estate, 60 Mont. 526, 199 Pac. 711.

Where a will bequeathed one-half of the testator's estate to his two sisters and the other half to their children if living at the time of his death, and both sisters had died before the will was made leaving no children, the word "children" used in the will could not, under the rules of construction of wills laid down by this section and section 7039 be construed as including grandchildren so as to permit a grandson of one of the sisters to share in the estate. In re Estate of Hash, 64 Mont. 118, 208 Pac. 605.

7069. The law of what place applies.

Under the maxim "mobilia sequuntur personam" the legal situs of personal property actually present in this state was in the place of the owner's domicile at the time of his death—in China—and under this section the interpretation of his will, so far as the disposition of that property is concerned, is governed by the law of his domicile. In re Coppock's Estate, 72 Mont. 431, 39 A. L. R. 1152, 234 Pac. 258.

7072. Interstate estate—To whom passes.

Under this section title to the property of one who dies intestate passes immediately to the heirs, subject to the control of the district court and to the possession of the administrator for the purposes of administration. Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

Sections 7072, 7073 were cited in State ex rel. Petters & Co. v. District Court, 76

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 452, 470.

7073. Succession to and distribution of property.

Since under this section the father and mother of an intestate were his heirs at law, the allegation of plaintiff administrator that the adult for whose wrongful death damages were sought died intestate, leaving surviving him his father and mother, naming them, was sufficient to state by inference that they were his heirs, in the absence of a direct allegation to that effect. *Batchoff v. 7088. Aliens may inherit, when and how.

Though under this section a resident alien may take by succession as a citizen, under section 2291, United States Revised Statutes, patent to homestead land can issue only to citizens of the United States, and therefore the alien mother of an entryman who died intestate before final proof had been made was not entitled to take a one-half interest in the homestead under a patent subsequently issued to the decedent's heirs and devisees.

v. Montana Power Co. et al., 68 Mont. 114, 139, 217 Pac. 652.

7097. Return of surplus water to stream.

Where a party has all the water his necessities require or that his ditches will carry, it is immaterial that he has a right, under decree or otherwise, to a greater flow from the stream; he must permit the excess to remain in the stream or be returned to it in such a manner that it will be available to subsequent appropriators. Tucker v. Missoula Light & Ry. Co. et al., 77 Mont. 91, 250 Pac. 11.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 133.

7101. Diligence in appropriating.

Where an appropriator of water from an adjudicated stream, disclaiming any right to the use of its normal flow but relying upon an alleged notice of appropriation made in 1917 of surplus and flood waters in a lake (formed by the widening of the channel of the stream) impounded by means of a dam, did nothing by way of construction of a dam or a ditch until the latter part of 1921, he did not acquire any right under the appropriation, having failed to proceed with the diligence required by either section 4848, Revised Codes of 1907, referring to appropriations of water generally, or section 4871, with relation to appropriations from an adjudicated stream, in completing his appropriation. Anaconda Nat. Bank v. Johnson et al., 75 Mont. 401, 244 Pac. 141.

7119. Procedure for appropriation waters of adjudicated streams.

The method prescribed by sections 7119-7127 for making an appropriation of the waters of an adjudicated stream is exclusive as to appropriations made after the passage of that act. Anaconda Nat. Bank v. Johnson et al., 75 Mont. 401, 244 Pac. 141.

7122. Decree subject to prior adjudications. If the defendants, or any of them, do not appear, their adjudicated rights which are prior in time to plaintiff's right shall in nowise be affected by the court's order. The court shall in every case, if an appropriation be awarded plaintiff, provide that the same shall be subject to all adjudicated rights which are prior in time to plaintiff's rights, and the plaintiff shall be bound by the terms of all prior decrees with respect to water rights in the proper order of his priority as if he had been a party to the decree originally.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 38, L. 1927.

7124A. Petition to establish rights after decree. At any time after the entry of any decree, any person, not a party to such decree, who, prior to the entry of such decree, had or claimed a valid water right upon the stream or source of supply affected by such decree, or who subsequent to the entry of such decree has made a valid appropriation of water from said stream or source of water supply affected by such decree, may petition the court which entered such decree for an order making him a party to such decree and establishing his right thereunder, and in relation to the other rights affected by such decree. Upon filing such petition, such notice shall be given and procedure had as is provided in sections 7119, 7120, 7121, 7122, 7123 and 7124 of this code.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 38, L. 1927.

7128. Effect of decree upon subsequent appropriations.

Under this section the court in water right suits is not bound by a stipulation of the parties as to the general character and quality of the soil of their respective lands or the amount of water required for their successful and economical irrigation. Cited in Allen v. Patrick et al., 69 Mont. 373, 222 Pac. 451.

CHAPTER 27.

WATER COMMISSIONERS—DETERMINATION OF JOINT RIGHTS.

7136. Appointment of water commissioners. Whenever the rights of persons to use the waters of any stream, ditch or extension of ditch, watercourse, spring, lake, reservoir, or other source of supply have been determined by a decree or decrees of a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the judge of the district court having jurisdiction of the subject matter, upon the application of the owners of at least ten per cent of the water rights affected by the decree or decrees, in the exercise of his discretion, to appoint one or more commissioners, who shall have authority to admeasure and distribute to the parties bound by the decree or decrees the waters to which they are entitled, according to their rights as fixed by such decree or decrees. At the time of the appointment of any water commissioner or water commissioners, his or their fees and compensation must be fixed in the order.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

Under the rule that a special statutory remedy is not exclusive but cumulative only, unless the intention to make it so is clearly manifest or it is entirely adequate for the protection of pre-existing rights, section 7136 et seq., providing for the appointment of a water commissioner and prescribing his duties and powers, does not provide an exclusive remedy for one whose water rights have been impaired and therefore do not preclude him from maintaining an action for damages. Tucker v. Missoula Light & Ry. Co., 77 Mont. 91, 250 Pac. 11.

Incompatibility of offices of colonel and water commissioner or water superintendent, note, 26 A. L. R. 144.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 1013.

7140. Power of commissioners in admeasuring water expenses. Every water commissioner appointed by the judge of the district court for that purpose shall have the authority to admeasure and distribute to the parties interested, under such decree or decrees, the water to which those who are parties to the decree or decrees, or privy thereto, are entitled according to their priority as established by the decree or decrees. The water commissioner, in case the parties fail or refuse to do so, may incur necessary expenses in the making of headgates or dams for the distribution of the waters, and such expense shall be assessed against and paid by the party or parties for whom such services in the repair of the ditch or ditches, and the making of any dams or headgates, were necessary. Provided, that in the discretion of the court, such costs or expenses may be assessed against the land upon which or for the benefit of which such expense had been incurred.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

7145. Charges and expenses. The judge may also allow as a charge any expenses necessarily incurred by the water commissioner in the discharge of his duties in the employment of extra labor for the repair of dams, headgates, ditches, or flumes, when immediate action is necessary to preserve the rights of the parties entitled to the waters of such stream or when the judge has, in the order appointing the commissioner, required the commissioner to repair ditches, and keep in repair necessary headgates, ditches, or flumes. The water commissioner shall report all such expenses, and the cost thereof shall be taxed against the party or parties for whose benefit the same were incurred, provided, that in the discretion of the court, such costs or expenses may be assessed against the land upon which or for the benefit of which such expense had been incurred.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

7147. Apportionment of fees and expenses. Upon the filing of the report by the water commissioner, or water commissioners, the clerk of court shall forthwith notify each person mentioned in such report, by letter, of the amount he is made liable for by such report, and that objections to such report, and the amount so taxed against him, may be made by any person interested therein, within twenty days after the date of the mailing of said notice, and unless objections thereto are filed, an order will be made by the judge of said court finally fixing and determining the amount due from each of said water users. The affidavit of the clerk that he has mailed a notice to each person mentioned in the report at such person's last known postoffice address, in the usual manner, shall be deemed prima facie evidence that the person received that notice provided for in this section.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 11, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 45, L. 1927.

7148. Order of court—Hearing and determination. At the expiration of the twenty days' notice as provided for in the preceding section, if objections to said report have been filed, or a motion to retax the same has been made, the court or judge shall fix a time for the hearing of such objections or motion to retax, which time of hearing shall be as soon as the judge or a court can conveniently hear the same. Any person objecting to said report shall be entitled to at least five days' notice of the date and time of such hearing. At such hearing the court or judge shall hear and determine the motion or objections, and shall make an order fixing and determining the amount found due from each of said water users to such commissioner or commissioners. In case no objections are filed within the twenty days as hereinbefore provided for, such order shall be made as a matter of course, and in either case said order shall be final determination of the matter.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 11, L. 1923.

7149. Effect of order fixing fees and compensation—Lessees—Issuance of execution. After the order of the court fixing the fees and compensation and expenses of the water commissioner is final, it shall have all the force and effect of a judgment as against the person to whom the water was admeasured, and for whose benefit it was used. When such expense of commissioner or commissioners has been assessed against the land for which such service of the commissioner or commissioners has been rendered, it shall constitute a lien against said land. Execution may issue upon the order as upon a judgment by direction of the court or judge upon the application of any person interested therein.

Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

7150. Complaint by dissatisfied user—Procedure. Any person owning or using any of the waters of such stream or ditch or extension of ditch, who is dissatisfied with the method of distribution of the waters of such stream or ditch by such water commissioner or water commissioners, and who claims to be entitled to more water than he is receiving, or is entitled to a right prior to that allowed him by such commissioner or water commissioners, may file his written complaint, duly verified, setting forth the facts of such claim. Thereupon the judge shall fix a time for the hearing of such petition, and shall direct that such notice be given to the parties interested in such hearing as the judge may deem necessary. At the time fixed for such hearing, the judge must hear and examine the complainant and such other parties as may appear to support or resist such claim, and also examine such water commissioner or water commissioners and witnesses as to the charges contained in said complaint. Upon the determination of the hearing, the judge shall make such findings and order as he may deem just and proper in the premises. If it shall appear to the judge that the water commissioner or water commissioners have not properly distributed the water according to the provisions of the decree, then the judge shall give the proper instructions for such distribution. The judge may remove such water commissioner or water commissioners and appoint some other person or persons in his or their stead, if he deems that the interests of the parties in the waters mentioned in such decree will be best subserved thereby, and if it shall appear to the judge that the said water commissioner or water commissioners have wilfully failed to perform their duties, they may be proceeded against for contempt of court, as provided in contempt cases. The judge shall make such order as to the payment of costs of such hearing as may appear to him to be just and proper.

Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

7151. Users must maintain headgate. All persons using water under a decree from any stream or ditch whereon a water commissioner is appointed shall be required to have suitable headgates at the point wherein a ditch taps a stream, and shall also, at some suitable place on the ditch, and as near the head thereof as practicable, place and maintain a proper measuring box, weir, or other appliance for the measurement of the waters flowing in such ditch. In case any person or persons shall fail to place or maintain a proper measuring appliance, it shall be the duty of such water commissioner not to apportion or distribute any water through said ditch. And provided further that the commissioner must notify all parties interested by registered mail or in person one week before making the annual repair or cleaning of any stream or ditch or performing necessary labor or expenses to divert water to any ditch. The sending of a registered letter to the last known postoffice address of any such interested party will be prima facie evidence of the fact that he was duly notified. Provided, however, that any work in the way of repairing a ditch made necessary by any emergency may be done without such notice when injury would result from delay.

Amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

This section, requiring the installation of headgates and measuring boxes in ditches by persons using water from a stream under a decree where a water commissioner has been appointed, is in the nature of a police regulation, under which the commissioner may refuse to distribute water to one who fails to do so, but does not license a stranger to appropriate water to his own use therefrom merely because an owner of a right has not complied with such requirement. Tucker v. Missoula Light & Ry. Co., 77 Mont. 91, 250 Pac. 11.

7159. Compensation of commissioner and apportionment thereof—Issuance of execution—Taxation of costs. When a commissioner is appointed upon the application of an owner or owners of such ditch, the court may fix the compensation of such commissioner and the term of his employment, and shall make an order apportioning the amount of such compensation among the several owner or owners, tenants in common or stockholders of said ditch, according to their respective rights and interest, which order shall have the force and effect of a judgment against the person to whom the water as admeasured and for whose benefit it was used, when, in the discretion of the court, such order of apportionment of expense is made against the land for which such water was used, in which event it shall have the force and effect of a lien against said land to which such apportionment was made. Execution may issue upon such order as upon a judgment by direction of the court, upon the application of any person interested therein; provided, however, that when a commissioner is appointed under the provisions of sections 7136-7150, to distribute the waters of the stream from which the waters flowing in said ditch are taken, and to apportion and distribute the waters of said ditch according to the rights of the respective owners thereof, the judge, in his discretion, may in addition to the apportionment taxed against the respective owners of the waters of said stream, apportion and tax the amount, if any, the owners of such ditch shall pay in addition to the amount taxed under the provisions of said sections 7136-7150.

Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 125, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 29.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—ORGANIZATION.

7166. Who may organize districts. Sixty per centum in number of the holders of title or evidence of title to lands sought to be included in an irrigation district and which are susceptible of irrigation, such holders of title or evidence of title also representing sixty per centum of the acreage of said lands, may propose the establishment and organization of an irrigation district under the provisions of this act; provided, however, that when any of such land sought to be included in such irrigation district is covered by mortgage or other lien then the owner or owners of such land shall first procure the written consent of the holder of such mortgage or other lien before proposing the establishment and organization of such irrigation district. Irrigation districts may be formed in order to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of congress which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation, or maintenance of constructed works, or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands. When so organized, such district shall have the powers conferred or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon such irrigation district, provided, however, that all irrigation districts organized in connection with United States reclamation projects a majority of the holders of title or evidence of title to lands sought to be included in such irrigation district under the provisions of the act, may propose the establishment and organization of such district.

The certificate of the county clerk and recorder, or the certificate of the register of the state land office, shall be sufficient evidence of title for the purpose of this act. Where lands have been purchased from the state and part of all of the purchase money has been paid, but the patents or deeds from the state to such lands have not been issued, the receipt of [or] receipts held by the purchasers, or the certificate of the register of the state land office showing the payments on account of purchase, shall be evidence of title to such lands under this act.

Before any such district shall be established, there shall be presented to the district court at the hearing on the petition for such establishment, a written report or opinion from the state engineer on the engineering features involved and the possibilities of water supplies accompanied by a copy of the decree of the district court showing the adjudicated water rights in said streams from which said waters are to be diverted. For this purpose, a copy of the petition provided for in section 7167 of this code, and of all maps and other papers filed with the same, shall be filed with the state engineer at the time the original petition is filed with the clerk of the district court. The expense, if any, incurred by the state engineer (other than his salary), in his investigation and report upon the proposed district shall be certified, with his report, and that said engineer shall, within a period of one hundred twenty days from the filing of said petition with the state engineer, render his report to the district court, as herein provided, to the said district court, and shall be assessed as costs in said hearing, which costs shall be paid by the district in event of its establishment and in event such petition be denied, then such costs shall be paid by the petitioners; provided, however, that such report or opinion shall be not requested or obtained, and shall not be necessary, whenever it is proposed to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of congress which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation or maintenance of constructed works, or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district laws.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 112, L. 1925.

Under the irrigation district statute the bonds of an irrigation district—a public corporation—create a general indebtedness against the district in the sense that all the lands therein are taxable for the payment of the bonds and interest until the entire indebtedness is paid, and therefore the lands of an owner who has paid his assessment are not released from liability for further assessments made necessary by delinquencies of others, until the bonded indebtedness with interest is discharged in full. Cosman v. Chestnut Valley Irr. Dist., 74 Mont. 111, 40 A. L. R. 1344, 238 Pac. 879.

An irrigation district, created under sections 7166-7173, is a public corporation, exercising essentially governmental functions, one of which is the right to levy taxes, and as such must be deemed a subdivision of the state within the meaning of section 4893, thus relieving it from the payment of fees for the recordation of papers in the office of the county clerk and recorder. Crow Creek Irr. Dist. v. Crittenden, 71 Mont. 66, 227 Pac. 63.

While the Irrigation District Act confers certain exclusive powers upon the district court of the county in which the business of the district is being conducted, there is nothing in the act which gives exclusive jurisdiction to that court to compel the treasurer of that county by mandamus to pay interest due upon bonds of the district, and therefore, under the rule above, the court of any other district or county has the power to issue the writ. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court et al., 69 Mont. 415, 222 Pac. 444.

A proceeding under this section for the extension of an irrigation district is neither an equity case nor a proceeding of an equitable nature, and therefore the testimony need not be presented in the transcript by question and answer, otherwise made necessary by subdivision 3 of Rule VII of the supreme court. In re Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 67 Mont. 436, 218 Pac. 945.

Under the District Irrigation Statute only such lands as will be specially benefited may be included within a proposed district against the will of the owner. In re Crow Creek Irr. Dist., 63 Mont. 293, 207 Pac. 121.

Sections 7166-7264 were cited in State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 69 Mont. 415, 421, 222 Pac. 444.

7169. Hearing on petition and appointment of commissioners.

Where in an order establishing an irrigation district the descriptions of the lands included in it were sufficient under this section, the fact that the court went further and made a tabulation under various headings, such as "Gross Area," "Area Included," etc., did not render the order void, such matter having been surplusage which may properly be disregarded under the statutory maxim that "superfluity does not vitiate." Walden v. Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 68 Mont. 281, 217 Pac. 646.

Cited in Cosman v. Chestnut Valley Irr. Dist., 74 Mont. 111, 113, 40 A. L. R. 1344, 238 Pac. 879; State ex rel. Cartersville Irr. Dist. v. McGraw, 74 Mont. 164, 165, 240 Pac. 817; State v. Nicholson, 74 Mont. 346, 350, 240 Pac. 837; Crow Creek Irr. Dist. v. Crittenden, 71 Mont. 66, 69, 227 Pac. 63; In re Crow Creek Irr. Dist., 63 Mont. 293, 298, 207 Pac. 121.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 362.

7171. Organization of board of commissioners—Place of meetings.

The commissioners shall meet within ten days after their appointment and shall organize as a board by the election of one of their number as president; they shall also elect a secretary (who may or may not be a commissioner). The compensation of the secretary and all other employees authorized under this act shall be fixed by the board.

The board shall also at this meeting designate the place where the office of the board shall be established and maintained and its records kept, which place shall be in the county containing the major portion of the lands in the district; and such place shall not be changed except by resolution of the board, of which notice shall be given by at least one publication in some newspaper published or of general circulation in the county wherein the office of the district is located, and by posting in at least three public places in each division of the district.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7173. Salary of commissioners—Penalty for interest in contracts—Bonds of commissioners. The commissioners, when sitting as a board or when engaged in the business of the district, shall each receive not to exceed five dollars per day for services, and, in addition thereto, their necessary expenses in attending meetings or when otherwise engaged on district business, including premiums on qualifying bonds and any other bonds required of them in connection with their office, provided such expenses and per diem be approved by unanimous vote of said board.

No commissioner or any other officer named in this act shall in any manner be interested directly or indirectly in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and his conviction thereof shall work forfeiture of his office and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The commissioners of said irrigation district shall each furnish a bond in the penal sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500) with corporate surety conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties under this act, and the secretary shall furnish bond, with corporate surety, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties pursuant to this act, and for the proper and safekeeping of the records and documents of said district, in all cases where the obligations of said district, either existing or proposed, total two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) or over. In all other cases the bond for said commissioners shall be in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000). Provided that the foregoing bonds shall not be required of any of the commissioners or the secretary of said district in any case where the obligations of said district, either existing or proposed, shall be twenty-five per cent or more owing to the United States in connection with any federal reclamation project.

CHAPTER 30.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS—POWERS, DUTIES AND ELECTION.

7174. The board of commissioners—Their status, powers and duties. The board of commissioners of every irrigation district established and organized under and by virtue of this act shall constitute the corporate authority of said district.

(1) The board shall have the power, and it shall be the duty of the members thereof, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district; adopt a corporate seal therefor; make and execute all necessary contracts; employ and appoint such agents, officers, and employees as may be required, and prescribe their duties.

(2) The board and its agents and employees shall have the right to enter upon any land to make surveys, and may locate the necessary irrigation works, including drainage works and the line for any canal or canals, and necessary branches for the same, on any lands which in the judgment of the board may be deemed best suited for such location.

(3) The board shall have power and authority to appropriate water in the name of the district, to acquire by purchase, lease, or contract, water and water rights; additional waters and supplies of water, canals, reservoirs, dams and other works already constructed, or in the course of construction, with the privilege, if desired, to contract with the owner, or owners of such canals, reservoirs, dams and other works so purchased and in the course of construction, for the completion thereof and shall also have power and authority to acquire by purchase, lease, contract, condemnation, or other legal means, lands (and rights in lands) for rights of way, for reservoirs, for the storage of needful waters, and for dam sites, and necessary appurtenances, and such other lands and property as may be necessary for the construction, use, maintenance, repair, improvement, enlargement and operation of any district system of irrigation works.

(4) The board shall have power and authority to enter into, and do any acts necessary or proper for the performance of, any agreements with any state, county, district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm or individual, or any number of them, for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair, or operation of any rights, works or other property of a kind which might lawfully be acquired or owned by the irrigation district, and may acquire the right to store water in any reservoirs or to carry water through any canal, ditch, or conduit not owned or controlled by the district, and may grant to any owner or lessee of the right to the use of any water the right to store such water in any reservoir of the district or to carry such water through any canal, ditch or conduit of the district.

(5) But no purchase, lease or contract for purchase of any water, or water rights, or canals, or reservoirs, or reservoir sites, or dam sites, or irrigation works or other property of any nature or kind or for the making or purchasing of surveys, maps, plans, estimates and specifications, or for the purchase of machinery for pumping plants, or the erection of buildings, aqueducts and other structures necessarily used in connection with such pumping plants, for a price or rental in excess of ten thousand dollars, shall be final or binding upon the district, nor shall said sum be paid without the written consent or petition of at least a majority in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to the lands within the district. Any splitting or division of such purchase, lease or contract with the purpose or intention of avoiding or circumventing the provisions of this section shall render such divided or split contract or contracts absolutely null and void.

(6) For the purpose of acquiring control over government land within the district and of complying with the provisions of the act of congress of August 11, 1916, the board shall have authority to make such investigations, and base thereon such representations and assurances to the secretary of the interior, as may be requisite.

(7) The board may enter into any obligation or contract with the United States for the construction, operation, and maintenance of the necessary works for the delivery and distribution of water therefrom, and of the necessary drainage works; or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands, under the provisions of the federal reclamation act and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, and the rules and regulations established thereunder; or the board may contract with the United States for a water supply under any act of congress providing for or permitting such contract, and in case contract has been or may hereafter be made with the United States as herein provided, bonds of the district may be deposited with the United States at ninety per cent of their par value, to the amount to be paid by the district to the United States under any such contract, the interest on said bonds of the district and regularly paid to the United States to be applied as provided in such contract, and if bonds of the district are not so deposited, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners to include as part of any levy or assessment provided for in section 7232, an amount sufficient to meet each year all payments accruing under the terms of any such contract; and the board may accept, on behalf of the district, appointment of the district as fiscal agent of the United States, or authorization of the district by the United States to make collections of moneys for or on behalf of the United States in connection with any federal reclamation project, whereupon the district shall be authorized to so act and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to such action, and the said board shall have full power to do any and all things required by the federal statutes now or hereafter enacted in connection therewith, and all things required by the rules and regulations now or that may hereafter be established by any department of the federal government in regard thereto, including the power to require the prompt payment of all charges as prerequisite to water service.

(8) Said board may also construct and maintain the necessary dams, reservoirs, and works for the collection and distribution of water for the district, from one or more sources and from different and additional sources, and operate such works, and may secure in any of the manners in this act provided additional water supplies from the same or different sources, and do any and every lawful act necessary to be done in order that sufficient water may be furnished for irrigation purposes to all the lands in the district included at the time of its organization or at any time thereafter.

(9) The board is hereby authorized and empowered to take conveyances or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of the district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed.

(10) The board is hereby authorized and empowered to institute and maintain any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity, necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this chapter, or to enforce, maintain, protect, or preserve any and all rights, privileges, and immunities created by this act, or acquired in pursuance thereof, and in all courts, suits, or proceedings, the said board may sue, appear, and defend in person or by attorneys, and in the name of such irrigation district.

(11) The board may adopt rules and by-laws governing the calling and holding of meetings of the board, the manner of transacting business thereat, and the publishing or posting of the orders, resolutions, and proceedings of the board. It shall be the duty of said board to pass or adopt by-laws, rules and regulations for the apportionment and distribution of water to the lands of the district, and for the protection and preservation of the works and other property of the district, which shall be printed in convenient form for distribution in the district; and may therein require the prompt payment of all taxes and assessments delinquent for not to exceed two years as a prerequisite to water service. All orders and resolutions shall be passed or adopted by a majority of the commissioners by a yea and nay vote, to be entered upon the records of the board.

(12) For the purpose of purchasing or constructing the necessary irrigation canals or works, or acquiring the necessary property and rights therefor, and otherwise carrying out the provisions of this act, the board of commissioners of any irrigation district must, as soon after such district has been organized as practicable, formulate a general plan for such purchase, construction, and acquisition of such property, and shall cause such surveys, examinations, and plans to be made as shall demonstrate the practicability of such plans, as well as of procuring water from other and different sources, the amount of land that can be irrigated thereunder, and furnish the proper basis for an estimate of the cost of carrying out such plan and the value of any canal, works, property, or system of irrigation proposed to be purchased. All such surveys, examinations, maps, plans, and estimates shall be made by or under the direction and supervision of an irrigation engineer of well-known standing and competency, and all such necessary surveys, examinations, maps, plans and estimates must be certified to by him. When all such are completed, he shall submit them with all proper field-notes to, and file them with, the board of commissioners, accompanied by his report and recommendation thereon. This report shall include a discussion of said plans by him submitted to said board, of the question of water supply, of the sufficiency of the works proposed to accomplish the desired results, of the practicability of the proposed system from an engineering standpoint, of the probability of being acquired or constructed within the estimate of the cost stated, and such general discussion and recommendation in regard to the engineering and financial features of the whole matter as in the judgment of such engineer shall be desirable for the information of the people of the district. Such report shall be accompanied by a map, when such is necessary for a proper explanation or understanding of the same.

Upon receiving such report, said board of commissioners shall proceed to determine the amount of money necessary to be raised for the purchase or construction of said proposed property, canals, or irrigation works, and system, and within ten days after arriving at such determination shall cause the secretary of said board to notify all persons or corporations holding title or evidence of title to lands within said district (ascertained as provided in section 7166) of the filing of said report and their determination thereon. Said notices shall be given through the United States mail by letter addressed to such person or corporation at the last known postoffice address of each person or corporation aforesaid. A certificate of the secretary of the board as to the fact of mailing said notice, affixed to a copy of said notice and recorded in the record book of said board of commissioners, shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of such fact.

(13) Said board shall have power generally to do and perform all such other acts as shall be necessary or appropriate to fully carry out the purposes of this act.

Amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

An irrigation district is not a subdivision of the state within the meaning of section 1 of article XIII of the constitution. Therefore a board of commissioners of an irrigation district may acquire shares in a reservoir company or purchase rights to the use of water as authorized by this section. Thaanum v. Bynum Irr. Dist., 72 Mont. 221, 232 Pac. 528.

The taxes which an irrigation district is authorized to levy for the purpose of paying for property acquired are in the nature of special assessments as distinguished from general taxes, and by the expenditure of moneys authorized by this section, it obtains an equivalent in the value of the property purchased; hence it does not come within the prohibition of section 1, article XIII, of the state constitution. Thaanum v. Bynum Irr. Dist., 72 Mont. 221, 232 Pac. 528.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 403.

7177. Vacancies. In case of a vacancy in the board of commissioners, from any cause, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the term by appointment by the judge of the district court of the county in which the division or major portion thereof is situated. The appointee shall be an owner of land within the district and shall be a resident of the county in which the division of the district, or some portion thereof for which such commissioner so elected, is situated, and shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified.

Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7184. Qualifications of electors. At all elections held under the provisions of this act, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the following holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands within the district, herein designated electors, shall be entitled to vote:

1. All persons having the qualifications of electors under the constitution and general and school laws of the state;
2. Guardians, executors, administrators, and trustees residing in the state;
3. Domestic corporations, by their duly authorized agents.

In all elections held under this act, each elector shall be permitted to cast one vote for each forty acres of irrigable land, or major fraction thereof, owned by such elector within the district, irrespective of the location of such irrigable lands within the tracts designated by the commissioners for assessment and taxation purposes, or within congressional subdivisions, platted lots or blocks, election precincts or district divisions, but any elector owning any less than forty acres of irrigable land shall be entitled to one vote. Until actual determination of the irrigable area under the plan of reclamation proposed is had, all land included within the boundaries of the district shall be deemed to be irrigable land for election purposes.

Where land is owned by co-owners, said owners may designate one of their number, or an agent, to cast the vote for said owners, and one vote only for each forty acres of irrigable land, or major fraction thereof, shall be cast by said co-owner or agent. Where land is under contract of sale to a purchaser residing within the state, such purchaser may vote on behalf of the owner of said land. When voting, the agent of a corporation, or of co-owners, or the co-owner designated for purpose of voting, or the purchaser of land under contract of sale, as the case may be, shall file with the secretary of the district, or with the election officials, a written instrument of his authority, executed and acknowledged by the proper officers of said corporation, or by said co-owners, or by the owner of such land under contract of sale, as the case may be, and thereupon such agent or co-owner, or purchaser, as the case may be, shall be deemed an elector within the meaning of this act.

CHAPTER 31.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—EXTENSION.

7189. Changes in area of districts—Proceedings.

The intention of the legislature in enacting a statute may not be gained from the wording of any particular section thereof, but only from a consideration of the act as a whole, since it was passed as a whole, and its division into sections is merely a matter of convenient reference. In re Crow Creek Irr. Dist., 63 Mont. 293, 207 Pac. 121.

Where in a statute making a grant of powers the scope and extent of the powers granted are once stated in its early and declaratory sections, the character of the grant as thus disclosed controls and interprets all subsequent sections, and the latter will be understood (unless there be words of restriction and limitation therein) as coextensive with and applicable to the full scope and extent of the powers theretofore granted. In re Crow Creek Irr. Dist., 63 Mont. 293, 207 Pac. 121.

Under the above rules of construction this section, prescribing the procedure for the extension of an irrigation district already created, when the act is viewed as a whole and liberally construed as provided in section 7262, is not open to the objection that it operates to deny the nonconsenting land owner of his property without due process of law, in that, while providing for a hearing, it makes no provision for granting relief to him. 7189A. Proceedings to correct orders and decrees. The district court shall retain jurisdiction of any petition presented to establish an irrigation district or to enlarge and increase its boundaries, or to exclude land therefrom, for the purpose of correcting any omissions, defects or errors in the proceedings of said court, and shall have power to correct, and if necessary to amend the order of the district court establishing the district or any order extending the boundaries thereof, or any order excluding lands therefrom, including the description of lands included or intended to be included in the district, or excluded therefrom or intended to be excluded, the boundaries of the divisions into which it is divided, and any other matter which shall be before the court on the application to create the district, or to enlarge or extend its boundaries, or to exclude lands therefrom, and shall have and is hereby granted power and authority on application of the board of commissioners of the district, to correct and amend the terms of any order or judgment of said court so that the same shall conform to the provisions of the statute under the authority of which such order was made. The board of commissioners of any district may adopt a resolution directing its president and secretary to prepare, execute and file with the clerk of the district court a petition which shall set forth the following matters:

(1) The name of the district and a reference to the order in which the defect, error or omission, errors in description of lands included or excluded, or departure from the statute occurred;

(2) A statement of the defects, errors, omissions, irregularities, errors in description of lands included or excluded, or variances from the statutory requirements;

(3) A prayer for an order correcting said defects, errors, omissions or irregularities.

If the error, defect, omission, irregularity or variance is in the description of any land or lands embraced in the district, the petition shall set forth the correct description of said lands, the names of the holders of title, or evidence of title thereto, ascertained in the manner provided in section 7166 of this code; and if any holder is a nonresident of the county or counties in which the district lies, the postoffice address of such nonresident owner, if known. Upon the filing of said petition, the court shall direct notice of the hearing thereof to be given in such manner as shall be deemed necessary to protect the rights and interests of the parties, and after a hearing of any parties intervening, shall enter an order correcting the said defects, errors, omissions, or irregularities; provided, however, that if the defects, errors, omissions or irregularities are in the description of the lands embraced in the district, the district court or judge shall direct the clerk of said court to publish, at least once a week for two successive calendar weeks, in some newspaper published in said county where said petition is filed, a copy of said petition, together with a notice stating the time and place by said district court fixed, when and where a hearing on said petition will be had, and, if any portion of the lands within said district lies within any other county or counties said petition and notice shall be published as above provided in a newspaper published in each such other county. If there be no newspaper published in such county, such petition and notice may be published in an adjoining county. The first publication of said petition and notice shall be not less than thirty days prior to the time mentioned in said notice for said hearing. If any holder of title or evidence of title to lands within the district is a nonresident of the county or counties in which the district lies, the clerk of said court shall, within three days after the first publication aforesaid, mail a copy of said petition and notice to each such nonresident, whose postoffice address is stated in said petition. The certificate of the clerk of the district court, under the seal of the court, as to the facts of the publishing and mailing of said petition and notice, affixed to a copy of said notice, shall be sufficient evidence of such facts.

At the time specified in the notice the district court, in which the petition aforesaid is filed, shall hear the petition but may adjourn such hearing from time to time, and may continue the hearing for want of sufficient notice or other good cause. The court, upon application of the petitioners or any person or persons interested, shall permit the petition to be amended and may order further or additional notice to be given. Upon such hearing, all persons interested may appear and contest the application for the order prayed for in the petition, and the contestants and petitioners may offer any competent evidence pertinent to the prayer of the petition.

The court may make such changes in the description of the lands embraced within the limits of the district, as may be deemed advisable, or as fact, right and justice may require, but shall not exclude from the district any lands described as a part of said district in the order creating it, after the district has issued bonds or entered into a contract with the United States under section 7174 of this code.

If, on final hearing, it is found by the court that the petition does not substantially comply with the foregoing requirements of this section, or that the facts therein stated are not sustained by the evidence, then the court shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners, and shall make and enter an order to that effect, but if it is found that said petition substantially complies with said requirements, and that the facts therein stated are sustained by the evidence, the court shall make and enter an order in accordance with the prayer of the petition.

All orders and findings of the district court, made under the provisions of this section, shall be conclusive upon all owners of lands within the district, and shall be final unless appealed from to the supreme court within sixty days from the day of entry of such order. A copy of such order, duly certified to by the clerk of said court, shall be filed for record within thirty days after such order is made and entered with the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the lands included within such district are situated; provided, however, that there shall be omitted from such copy lands not situated in the county in which such copy is filed.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 54, L. 1923.

7190. Owner may have taxable acreage fixed — Exception. Whenever any lot, tract, or parcel of land has been heretofore, or may hereafter be, included within the boundaries of any public irrigation district formed under the laws of this state, and the acreage thereof fixed and stated in the decree for the creation of said district, or in any other proceeding relating thereto, is fixed at a greater number of acres than actually exist within such lot, tract, or parcel of land, or at a greater number of acres than can be irrigated from the reclamation system of said district; or whenever, from any action or proceeding by or on behalf of said district or its commissioners, any such lot, tract, or parcel of land included therein has been or is about to be assessed from a greater acreage than exists therein, or can be irrigated from the reclamation system of said district, the owner or holder of title or evidence of title to said lands, as defined by the irrigation district acts, may have the taxable acreage contained therein fixed and adjudicated as provided for by this act; provided, however, that if any bonds have been issued with the approval, and pursuant to confirmation by the court, then no proceeding for the determination of the acreage shall be allowed to alter or reduce in any manner the acreage subject to the lien of such bonds, in principal or interest, or of the taxes or assessments to meet the interest or principal thereof, while such bonds or the interest thereon are unpaid in whole or in part; but such proceeding may still be allowed to correct or determine acreage subject to taxes or assessments for maintenance and current expenses, and in so far as the latter only are to be affected.

7191. Procedure for permanent adjudication of acreage. The owner or holder of title or evidence of title, as defined by the irrigation district acts, may file in the district court of the county wherein said lands are situated a petition praying that the acreage of the lands set forth and described in such petition may be permanently fixed and adjudicated, which petition shall set forth:

1. The name or names of the owner or owners, holder or [of] title or evidence of title thereto, who shall be the party or parties plaintiff therein;

2. The names and kind and character of interest of every person, owning, holding, or claiming any right, title, or interest in or to the lands described in said petition, who shall, where they do not appear as parties plaintiff under subdivision 1 hereof, sit as parties defendant;

3. The name of the district in which said lands are included, together with the name of the board of commissioners thereof, and the secretary thereof, and said district, its commissioners and secretary, shall be made parties defendant therein;

4. A statement of the substance of all proceedings, orders, and decrees creating said districts and fixing the acreage of the lands therein described, together with any proceedings of the board of commissioners of said district or its officers relating to the acreage thereof, to such extent as to fully inform the court of the manner and extent to which said lands have been included and taxed or assessed in said district;

5. The actual acreage of the lands described as irrigable from the reclamation system of said district;

6. The excess of acreage complained of;
7. The amount of taxes previously paid on such excess acreage;
8. A general statement of the exact nature of the relief sought, and the grounds therefor.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 54, L. 1923.

7192. Summons—Publication. Upon the filing of such petition, summons shall be issued thereon and served upon all parties defendant thereto, with a copy of the petition attached thereto, in the same manner and in the same form as issued in civil actions.

Whenever any necessary party thereto cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state of Montana, service upon such party or parties may be had by publication of a summons, which shall be obtained, issued and published in the same manner as a published summons in a civil action.

The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of the state of Montana, and the rules of pleading and practice applicable to civil action generally, shall apply, so far as applicable, to this proceeding.

If the allegations to such petition be denied, the district court shall, when the time for appearance of the parties defendant thereto has expired, and said parties have appeared by answer or made default, proceed to hear and determine the issues in said proceedings as joined.

7210. Petition for bonds and action thereon. For the purpose of providing the necessary funds for constructing the necessary irrigation canals and works, including drainage works, and works for the generation and distribution of electrical energy within said district, and acquiring the necessary property and rights therefor, and for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, or otherwise, waters, water rights, canals, reservoirs, reservoir sites, and irrigation works, drainage works, and works for the generation and distribution of electrical energy, constructed or partially constructed, and for the purpose of meeting the expense theretofore incurred or to be thereafter incurred incident to such construction or acquisition of such works and property, including administrative, engineering and legal expenses, and for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands, and for the purpose of otherwise carrying out the provisions of this act, and of providing a sum sufficient to pay the interest on all of such bonds for five years, or less, the board of commissioners of any district, heretofore or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, may authorize and issue the negotiable coupon bonds of the district, as and in the manner hereinafter provided. A sum sufficient to redeem or pay all, or any portion, of the existing indebtedness of said district, evidenced by outstanding bonds, delinquent interest coupons and accrued interest, or warrants, and accrued interest on both bonds and warrants, together with all delinquent and accrued interest, whether such indebtedness be due or not due, or which has or may hereafter become payable at the option of the district, or by consent of the bondholders, or by any lawful means, may be included as a portion of the necessary funds for which said bonds are authorized and issued.

No bonds provided for in this section shall be authorized or issued by or on behalf of any irrigation district organized thereunder, and no contract shall be made with the United States as in section 7174 provided, except upon a petition signed by at least sixty per cent in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to the lands included within said district. Such petition shall be addressed to the board of commissioners; shall set forth the aggregate amount of bonds to be issued, and the purpose or purposes thereof; shall have attached thereto an affidavit verifying the signatures to said petition; and shall be filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners. When bonds, however, are issued for the sole purpose of redeeming or paying the existing and outstanding bonds or warrants, or both, including delinquent and accrued interest, of such district, such bonds may be authorized and issued in the manner provided for by section 7226 of this code.

Upon the filing of such petition, the board of commissioners shall, by appropriate order or resolution, authorize and direct the issuance of the bonds of the district to the amount and for the purpose or purposes specified in the petition, fix the numbers, denominations, and maturity or maturities of said bonds; specify the rate of interest thereon; and whether payable annually or semi-annually; designate the place of payment of said bonds and the interest coupons, within or without the state of Montana; prescribe the form of said bonds and interest coupons to be attached thereto; and provide for the levy of a special tax or assessment as in this act provided on all the lands in the district for the irrigation and benefit of which said district was organized and said bonds are issued, or said contract is to [be] made, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on and principal of said bonds when due and all amounts to be paid to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 7174 provided. If contract is to be made with the United States as in section 7174 provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with such contract, the board of commissioners need not authorize the issuance of bonds, or if bonds are required in addition to such contract, may authorize bonds only for the amount needed in addition to such contract. Such order or resolution shall also provide for the confirmation proceedings in the district court hereinafter mentioned. Provided, however, that none of the proceedings mentioned herein shall be had or accomplished, or in anywise initiated or prosecuted, until all and singular the matters relating to the issuance of bonds for the district shall first have been submitted to and favorably acted upon by the irrigation district bond commission, pursuant to the requirements of sections 7216 as amended, 7217, 7218, as amended, and sections 7219 to 7225, inclusive, all of the Revised Codes Montana 1921; and provided further, that at any time the board of commissioners, or thirty per cent of the holders of title or evidence of title, in number and acreage, to the lands in any district shall have the right to petition the irrigation district bond commission to investigate, inquire into, and pass upon the legality, feasibility or advisability of any proposed bond issue for irrigation districts now or hereafter organized under the provisions of chapter 146, Laws 1909, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto. Said irrigation district bond commission shall complete and thoroughly report on all matters relevant and pertinent to said issue not later than six months after receipt of petition therefor and said report shall be furnished in writing to petitioners.

Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

The provisions of the irrigation district law dealing with the subject of the issuance of irrigation district bonds are controlling in dealing with that matter and the provisions of chapter 38, L. 1923 relative to the issuance of amortization bonds, etc., are inapplicable. Walden v. Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 68 Mont. 281, 217 Pac. 646.

7211. Procedure for confirmation by district court. Within ten days after the adoption of the order or resolution mentioned in the preceding section the board of commissioners shall file a petition in the district court of the judicial district wherein is located the office of said board, to determine the validity of the proceedings had relative to the issuance of said bonds, and to the levy of said special tax or assessment.

Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested shall be had by notice given as hereinafter provided. Such petition shall set forth (1) generally, the establishment and organization of the district; (2) a certified copy of the petition mentioned in the preceding section; (3) a certified copy of the order or resolution mentioned in the preceding section; (4) a prayer for the confirmation of the proceedings of the board stated in the petition, and for the confirmation of the bond issue and the special tax or assessment levied to pay the bonds and interest thereon. Upon the filing of said petition in the district court, the court or judge shall fix the time for the hearing of said petition, which shall be not less than fifteen days from the date of filing the petition in said court, and shall order the clerk of the court to give notice of the filing of said petition and the date of the hearing thereon, by publication at least once a week for two calendar weeks in a newspaper published or of general circulation in the county where the office of the board of commissioners of the district is situated, and also by posting a written or printed copy of such notice in at least three public places in each division of the district, the first of such publications and such posting to be not less than fifteen days prior to the date fixed for said hearing.

Said notice shall state the substance of the petition and the time and place fixed for the hearing thereon, and that any person interested in or whose rights may be affected by the issuance or sale of said bonds, or the levy of said special tax or assessment, or the proceedings had or to be had by the said board of commissioners with respect to said matters, may, on or before the day fixed for the hearing of said petition, demur to or answer said petition, and may appear at said hearing and contest the granting of the prayer of said petition, and the entry of any order of confirmation pursuant thereto.

Any person interested in or whose rights may be affected by the issuance or sale of said bonds, or the levy of said special tax or assessment, or the proceedings had or to be had by the board of commissioners of the district in connection with said matters, and the entry of any order of confirmation pursuant thereto, may enter his appearance in such proceedings and demur to or answer said petition and contest the granting of the prayer of said petition.

The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure respecting the demurrer or answer to a verified complaint shall be applicable to a demurrer or answer to said petition. The persons so demurring to or answering said petition shall be the defendants in the proceeding, and the board of commissioners shall be the plaintiff. Every material statement of the petition, not specifically controverted by the answer, shall be taken as true, and every holder of title or evidence of title to lands included in the district failing to answer or demur to the petition shall be deemed to admit as true all the material statements thereto. The procedure in such action shall be determined by the Code of Civil Procedure.

Upon the hearing the district court shall find and determine whether the provisions and requirements of the preceding section have been complied with, and notice of the filing of the petition in the district court and of the time and place of the hearing thereon had been duly given for the time and in the manner herein prescribed, and shall have power and jurisdiction to examine and determine the regularity, legality, and validity of the proceedings had preliminary and relative to the issuance of the bonds, and the levy of the special tax or assessment in the petition mentioned, and the legality and validity of said bonds and special tax or assessment, and any and all actions taken by the board of commissioners in connection with said matters, and shall hear all objections filed to said proceedings, or any part thereof, or to the issuance of said bonds, or the levy of the said special tax or assessment or any portion thereof. The court, in inquiring into the regularity, legality, and validity of said proceedings, shall disregard any error, omission, or other irregularity which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said proceedings. The court may ratify, approve, and confirm said proceedings in whole or in part, and may ratify, approve, and confirm said bonds and special tax or assessment, and enter its judgment or decree accordingly. From any such judgment or decree an appeal may be taken to the supreme court at any time within ten days from the entry of such judgment or decree. Such appeal shall be taken, perfected, and heard in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure covering appeals from district courts to the supreme court. If no such appeal be taken within the time aforesaid, or if taken and the judgment or decree of the district court be affirmed by the supreme court, such judgment or decree shall be forever conclusive upon all the world as to the validity of said bonds and said special tax or assessment, and the same shall never be called into question in any court in the state. The costs of said proceedings shall be allowed or apportioned between the parties in the discretion of the court.

Provided however, that none of the proceedings mentioned herein shall be had or accomplished, or in anywise initiated or prosecuted, until all and singular the matters relating to the issuance of bonds for the district shall first have been submitted to and favorably acted upon by the irrigation district bond commission, pursuant to the requirements of sections 7216 as amended herein, 7217, 7218 as amended herein and sections 7219 to 7225, inclusive, all of the Revised Codes, Montana, 1921; and provided, further, that submission to and report by the irrigation district bond commission shall be had only in the matter of the issuance of bonds for construction purposes or for acquisition of construction works, in whole or in part.

7212. Details relating to bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the standard weight and fineness existing at the time of the issue; and shall run for a period not longer than forty years from their date, but may contain a clause providing for their prior redemption and payment, at the option of the board of commissioners of the district, on any interest payment date after five years from their date. Instead of straight maturity bonds, bonds may be issued to mature serially at such times and in such amounts as the board of commissioners shall determine, but no bonds so issued shall run for a longer period than forty years from date of issue. Said bonds shall bear interest from their date until paid at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, the installments of interest to date of maturity of principal to be evidenced by appropriate coupons attached to each bond. Said bonds and interest coupon shall be payable at such place or places, within or without the state of Montana, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe. Such bonds shall be of such denomination or denominations, and in such form, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe. An issue of bonds is hereby defined to be all the bonds issued in accordance with a resolution or order of the board of commissioners. Each issue of the bonds of a district shall be numbered consecutively as authorized, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively. The board of commissioners shall fix the date of said bonds, or may divide any issue into two or more divisions and fix different dates for the bonds of each respective division. The date of any bond must be subsequent to the order or resolution authorizing it and prior to its delivery to a purchaser from the district.

All bonds issued hereunder shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary of the board under the corporate seal of the district, and each of the interest coupons to be attached to said bonds shall be executed by the original or engraved or lithographed facsimile signatures of said president and secretary. Each bond shall be signed, and each interest coupon shall be executed, by the president and secretary of the board of commissioners who may be in office at the date of said bond and coupons, or at any time thereafter prior to the delivery of said bond to the purchaser thereof from the district.

The board of commissioners may provide for the registration of bonds in their discretion. The secretary of the board of commissioners and county treasurer, each shall keep a record of the bonds sold, or otherwise disposed of, their date, number, amount, maturity, or maturities, to whom sold, rate of interest, and the place or places of payment thereof.

7214. Sale of bonds, cancellation. Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued, negotiated, and sold by or under the direction of the board of commissioners, but shall never be sold for less than ninety per cent of their par value and accrued interest thereon to date of delivery. The said board may sell said bonds from time to time in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money for the purposes for which said bonds were issued.

Before making any sale the board shall, at a meeting by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of the bonds, and the day and hour and place of such sale, and shall cause such resolution to be entered in the minutes, and notice of the sale to be given, by publication thereof at least once a week for three successive calendar weeks in some newspaper in the county where the office of the board of commissioners is located, and in any other newspaper within or without the state at its discretion. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at its office, for the purchase of bonds, till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals and award the purchase of the bonds, or any portion or portions thereof, to the highest responsible bidder or bidders; provided, however, that said board may reject any or all bids. In case no award is made, the board thereafter may either re-advertise said bonds, or any part thereof, for sale or sell the same, or any part thereof, at private sale. Coupons evidencing unearned interest shall be detached and canceled.

Any bonds issued hereunder may, in the discretion of the board of commissioners, be issued direct in payment and satisfaction of the contract or purchase price of any irrigation works, canals, water, water rights, or other property constructed or acquired by or for the district, or may be deposited with the United States as in section 7174 provided.

Any bonds which may have been authorized but which have not been sold or deposited as security for funds advanced or to be advanced, and against which the state, United States, or any other person, firm or corporation shall have no claim to or equity in, may be canceled by the board of commissioners by appropriate resolution or order, and after the cancellation of said bonds the same shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of and shall be invalid and of no effect, and the board shall have no authority to replace such canceled bonds without an authorization from the members of the district similar to that which provided for their issuance.

Amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7215. Delivery of bonds, and disposition of proceeds of sale. In the event that bonds are sold for cash, they shall be delivered by the board of commissioners to the county treasurer of the county wherein the office of the district is located, who shall deliver them to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price therefor, and after making a complete record of the same. Delivery of the bonds sold may be made by the county treasurer to the purchaser at any place or places within or without the state of Montana, and said county treasurer may receive the proceeds of the sale of said bonds at said place or places of delivery. The county treasurer shall thereupon place the proceeds of said sale to the credit of said district; and the same shall be paid out by the county treasurer only upon the written order of the board of commissioners, signed by the president and secretary under the seal of the district. Said proceeds shall be expended for the purpose or purposes for which said bonds were issued, and for no other. Provided, in case any portion of the funds realized from the sale of bonds are not needed immediately for the purpose for which said bonds were issued, the board of commissioners whenever, in its judgment, the same may be to the best interests of the district, shall have the power and authority to direct the investment of such funds, or any portion thereof, in interest-bearing securities of the United States, or of the state of Montana, or in interest-bearing certificates of deposit of national or state banks approved by the state superintendent of banks; provided, however, that in the event of such deposit said banks shall first furnish an indemnity bond to be approved by said board of commissioners and the state superintendent of banks. The county treasurer shall transfer to the credit of the district, and place to the credit of such fund or funds as the board of commissioners may direct, all interest received upon money or securities of the district entrusted to his care.

Amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7216. Board to adopt resolution—Investigation of issue. (a) Whenever the board of commissioners of any irrigation district organized and existing under and pursuant to chapter 146, Acts of the Eleventh Legislative Assembly and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, of the state of Montana, shall contemplate the issuance of bonds to defray the expenses of construction or purchase of works for said district, the said board of commissioners shall thereupon adopt a resolution recommending to the district such bond issue, and therein fully and completely state all the terms, conditions and provisions affecting the same, and the said board of commissioners shall file a certified copy of such resolution with the irrigation district bond commission hereinafter established, at the same time application is made to the irrigation district bond commission, as herein provided.

(b) Before the said board of commissioners shall circulate or cause to be circulated, or before any other person affected by such district shall circulate or cause to be circulated a petition among the landholders of said district authorizing the issuance of bonds of said district for the purposes enumerated in (a) above, the said board of commissioners shall make application to the said irrigation district bond commission, by resolution duly adopted, for a thorough investigation and inquiry into the merits of said proposed bond issue, and into the merits and feasibility of said district and into the propriety and legality of all and singular, the proceedings had therein, and into all matters enumerated in section 7217, Revised Codes Montana 1921.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 161, L. 1923.

7218. Certification by secretary of state—Petitions—Interpretation of act. (a) The written report of the investigation herein provided for shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and a copy of said report shall be by the irrigation district bond commission forwarded to the secretary of the district for which the investigation shall have been made, and if said commission shall find, as set out in said report, that the irrigation system of the district and the project for which the bonds under consideration are desired, are feasible, and that the aggregate amount of the bonds under consideration and any other outstanding bonds of said district including bonds authorized, but not sold, does not exceed sixty (60) per centum of the aggregate market value of the lands within said district, and of the water, water rights, canals, reservoir, reservoir sites, and irrigation works owned or to be acquired or constructed with the proceeds of any of said bonds by said district the bonds of such irrigation district, as described and enumerated in said report filed with the secretary of state, shall be certified by the secretary of state, as hereinafter provided for. If the commission shall be notified by the board of commissioners of any district whose irrigation system has been found in such report to be feasible that the district has issued bonds, and the commission shall find that said bonds are for any project or projects approved in such report, and that the amount of said bonds does not exceed the limitation stated in such report, the commission shall prepare and file with the secretary of state a supplementary report giving the numbers, date or dates of issue, and denomination of said bonds, which shall then be entitled to certification by the secretary of state as hereinafter provided for. Subsequent issues of bonds may be made available for the purposes specified in this act upon like proceedings by said district, but after any of the bonds of an irrigation district have been enumerated and described as entitled to certification by the secretary of state as herein provided for, it shall be unlawful for that district to issue bonds that will not be entitled to such certification. It is hereby made the duty of the secretary of state to provide for filing and preserving the reports mentioned in this section, and, also, to make, keep, and preserve a record of the bonds certified by him in accordance with the provisions of section 7222 of this code, including the date of certification, the legal title of the district, the number of each bond, its par value, the date of its issue and that of its maturity.

Upon the receipt of the report of the irrigation district bond commission, by the secretary of the district, and after the said commission shall make a specific finding in favor of the proposed bond issue, and approve the same as proposed, in its said report, petitions for the authorization of said bond issue may thereupon be circulated and if subscribed by petitioners constituting at least a majority in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to the lands included within said district, and duly and regularly confirmed by the district court, as provided in sections 7210 and 7211, Revised Codes, Montana, 1921, said bonds may thereupon be issued and offered for sale, provided, however, that no bonds of any irrigation district organized under said chapter 146, Laws 1909, issued for construction purposes, or for acquisition of construction works, in whole or in part shall be offered for sale or exchange or shall be sold or exchanged unless said bonds bear on their face the certification of said irrigation district bond commission.

(b) Nothing contained in sections 7210, 7211, and any other section or provision of said chapter 146, shall be interpreted or construed to [in] any manner authorize the issuance of bonds for said districts so organized under said chapter 146, except and until the provisions of sections 7216-7225, Revised Codes, Montana, 1921, have been fully complied with, and the provisions of said sections 7210 and 7211 shall be operative only after favorable report upon the proposed bond issue by the said irrigation district bond commission. Compliance with this act shall be compulsory upon all districts now or hereafter organized under chapter 146, Laws 1909 and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

(c) The legislative assembly of the state of Montana hereby declares that it makes this enactment for the purpose of safeguarding the interests of land owners and landholders within irrigation districts now existing under, or hereafter established under the provisions of said chapter 146, for the promotion of irrigation interests in Montana for insuring districts as financially feasible and as economically and profitably productive, and for preserving the credit and integrity of said landholders and preventing exploitation of said landholders, and of investors in the obligations of said district.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 161, L. 1923.

7220. No expenditure without consent of commission. Whenever the bonds of any irrigation district have been certified as provided in this act, no expenditures shall be made from the proceeds of such bonds, nor shall any liability to be met from such proceeds be incurred, until there shall have been filed with and approved by said commission such a schedule of proposed expenditures of such proceeds as may be necessary to set forth to the satisfaction of said commission the plan proposed for carrying out the purposes for which said bonds were authorized, or such of said purposes as the district may, at the time of filing such schedule, desire to proceed with; and no expenditures from the proceeds of said bonds shall be made for any purpose not specified in such approved schedule or for any approved purpose in excess of the amount allowed therefor in such schedule without the consent of said commission; nor shall any expense of any kind be incurred in excess of money actually provided by levy of assessment or otherwise.

Amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

Sections 7220, 7223, 7225 were cited in Crow Creek Irr. Dist. v. Crittenden, 71 Mont. 66, 71, 227 Pac. 63.

7224. Expenses. All necessary expenses incurred in making the investigation and report in this act provided for shall be paid as the commission may require, including the salaries and expenses of all necessary assistants, and including the expenses but not the salary of the state engineer, by the irrigation district whose property has been investigated and reported on by the said commission. During the progress of any work to be paid for from the proceeds of any bond issue certified as in this act provided, the state engineer, on behalf of the irrigation district bond commission herein authorized, shall make, or cause to be made, from time to time, at the expense of the district, such inspection of the work as may be necessary to enable the state engineer to know that the plans approved by the commission are being carried out without material modification unless such modification has been approved by said commission. The benefit, however, of any services that may have been performed and any data that may have been obtained by any member of said commission or any other public official, in pursuance of the requirements of any law other than this act, shall be available for the use of the commission herein provided for without charge to the district whose affairs are under investigation.

Amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7226. Issuance refunding bonds irrigation districts. Any irrigation district heretofore or hereafter created and organized under and by virtue of the provisions of chapter 146 of the Laws of Montana of 1909, as amended, may, whenever deemed advisable and to its interest, issue its negotiable coupon bonds, to be denominated refunding bonds, for the purpose of redeeming or paying the indebtedness, or any portion thereof, of the district, whether represented by existing and outstanding bonds, interest coupons thereof, or warrants, or both, including accrued and unpaid interest on said bonds, coupons and warrants, and whether such indebtedness be due or not due, or which has or may hereafter become payable at the option of the district, or by consent of the bondholders or warrant holders, or both, or by any legal means, and whether such indebtedness be now existing or may hereafter be created, and there shall not be funds in the treasury of such district available for the payment of same.

Such bonds may be authorized and issued in one or more series, and if issued in more than one series, the bonds authorized to redeem or pay the existing and outstanding bonds, and accrued and unpaid interest thereon including interest coupons due and unpaid, together with interest on such coupons, shall be issued in one series, and bonds authorized to redeem or pay the existing and outstanding warrants, and accrued and unpaid interest thereon, shall be issued in a separate series. If bonds sufficient to redeem or pay the entire existing indebtedness of the district, however evidenced, inclusive of bonds, warrants, and accumulated interest on same, are issued in one series, each bond in said series shall enjoy equal priority of lien. The amount of such refunding bonds to be issued under the provisions of this section, and following sections, shall first be determined by the board and entered in and upon the records of said district prior to the issuance of said refunding bonds.

No refunding bonds for the purpose of redeeming or paying the existing and outstanding bonds, and accrued and unpaid interest thereon, or of redeeming or paying the entire existing indebtedness, in one series, of any district, shall be authorized and issued by or on behalf of such district, except upon a petition signed by at least a majority in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to the lands included within said district. Refunding bonds, however, for the purpose of redeeming or paying the existing and outstanding warrants of any irrigation district, may be authorized and issued by the board of commissioners of any such district either upon its own motion or upon petition to said board by members of the district. When such bonds are authorized and issued by said board upon petition by the members of the district, such petition (as to form and execution) and all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds (including the levy of a special tax or assessment to pay the same), shall conform to the requirements of sections 7210 and 7212 of this code, as amended, and court confirmation of such proceedings shall be had in the manner provided for in section 7211 of this code; provided, that where bonds shall be issued for the sole purpose of refunding outstanding warrants, the question of the issuance of such bonds must be submitted to and approved by the district court whose approval shall be given only upon a finding by such court of the legality of such warrants sought to be refunded. The application to the court and the proceeding thereon shall be conducted in the manner provided for in section 7211 of this code, in so far as the same may be applicable. If so approved and confirmed, by the court, the approval of the irrigation district bond commission shall not be required.

Amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

Rep. 29.
7227. Refunding bonds—Form, execution and record. Any bonds so authorized and issued as to form shall conform to the requirements of section 7212 of this code, and shall be signed and the corporate seal affixed, and the coupons shall be executed, and a record of such bonds kept, as by said section required. The board of commissioners may provide, in their discretion, for the registration of such bonds by the county treasurer.

Amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

Rep. 29.
7228. Lien of refunding bonds. When any bonds are authorized and issued to redeem or pay the existing and outstanding bonds, and accrued and unpaid interest thereon, or when bonds are authorized and issued in one series for the purpose of redeeming or paying the entire existing indebtedness, including bonds and warrants and accumulated interest, of any such irrigation district, such bonds so authorized and issued shall constitute a lien upon the lands within said district, and said lands shall be subject to a special tax or assessment for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds so authorized and issued, and such tax or assessment shall constitute a first and prior lien on said lands, as provided in section 7213 of this code.

Amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7229. Lien of bonds to refund warrants. Any bonds issued for the payment or redemption of the existing and outstanding warrants only of said district shall constitute a lien upon the lands within said district, subject to (1) the lien of any bonds then existing and outstanding, (2) the lien of any bonds issued in payment or redemption of existing and outstanding bonds, or (3) the lien of any bonds issued, in one series, in payment or redemption of the entire existing indebtedness, including bonds and warrants and accumulated interest on same; and any special tax or assessment for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds shall be a lien upon the lands against which levied, subject to the lien of any special tax or assessment for the payment of the principal and interest of existing and outstanding bonds, and bonds issued to pay or redeem any existing and outstanding bonds, and bonds issued in one series to pay or redeem the entire existing indebtedness of said district.

Amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7230. Sale of refunding bonds — Cancellation. Any bonds issued under the provisions of section 7226 of this code, as amended, shall be authorized, issued, negotiated and sold by, or under the direction of, the board of commissioners, but shall never be sold for less than ninety per cent of their par value and accrued interest thereon to the date of delivery, and the procedure for the sale of such bonds shall conform to the requirements of section 7214 of this code, as amended, as to declaration of intention to sell, notice of sale and conduct thereof. In case no award is made, the board thereafter may either re-advertise said bonds or any part thereof for sale, or sell the same or any part thereof at private sale. Any such bonds may, in the discretion of the board, be exchanged for the bonds and coupons, or warrants, or both, for the payment and redemption of which the same were issued, and in the event of an exchange such bonds shall be delivered and taken at their par value and accrued interest to the time of such exchange, and such exchange may be made by the board of commissioners at any time without the necessity of its declaring its intention to sell the same, or giving notice of sale thereof as provided in section 7214 of this code. Coupons evidencing unearned interest shall be detached and canceled. All district bonds or warrants redeemed under the provisions of this and foregoing sections of this code shall thereupon be canceled by the county treasurer, and a record of such cancellation made in the records of his office.

Any refunding bonds unsold may be canceled by the board of commissioners in the manner provided for in section 7214 of this code as amended.

Amd. Sec. 17, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7231A. Limitation of actions—Recognition existing districts. No suit, action or proceeding shall be brought in any court in this state attacking the validity or regularity of any order or decree of the court purporting to establish a district hereunder or correcting or amending any order or decree creating a district after the expiration of six months from the date of the recording of the order establishing the district or the order correcting or amending the same, All districts heretofore established by order of the court and having a de facto existence of at least one year, are hereby declared to be valid and legally created subdivisions of the state, and the regularity and validity of the creation of such districts or of the proceedings had for the extension of the boundaries thereof shall not be open to question in any court in this state, and all acts and proceedings of any such district and of its board of commissioners leading up to the authorization, issuance or sale of bonds or the proposed issuance or sale of bonds, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes, and all such bonds whether sold heretofore or hereafter are hereby legalized and declared to be valid and legal obligations of and against the irrigation district so issuing and selling the same, provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be deemed or construed to confirm, approve or validate any warrant issued, or disbursement made, or any contract entered into for the expenditure of money, by the board of commissioners on behalf of any district.

CHAPTER 35.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

7232. Tax or assessment to pay bonds and interest.

Cited in State v. Nicholson, 74 Mont. 40 A. L. R. 1344, 238 Pac. 879; Crow 346, 350, 240 Pac. 837; Cosman v. Chestnut Valley Irr. Dist., 74 Mont. 111, 114, 66, 69, 227 Pac. 63.

7234. All irrigable lands chargeable alike. All irrigable lands in each irrigation district, except such lands as have been included within such district on account of the exchange or substitution of water, under the provisions of section 7206, shall pay at the same rate for all purposes for which said lands are charged; and except that whenever water used for the irrigation of any lands within an irrigation district shall be obtained by pumping to different elevations, the cost of maintenance, operation, and pumping to each separate elevation shall be apportioned and levied upon the lands lying under the ditch or ditches running from that particular elevation, in such manner as may be determined fair and equitable by the board of commissioners after considering the facts in each case. Such apportionment shall be made by the board of commissioners and included each year in the assessment provided for by section 7235 of this code as amended. The amount of such assessment for maintenance, operation, and pumping of water to each separate elevation, whenever there are different elevations, shall be determined by the board of commissioners in such manner, and upon such notice to the persons interested in said district, as said board in its rules and regulations may provide; and provided further, that where contract shall have been made with the United States, the lands within the district, whether originally included or later annexed to the district, shall pay in accordance with the federal reclamation laws and the public notices, orders, and regulations issued thereunder, and in compliance with any contracts made by the United States with the owners of said lands; and in compliance further, with the contract between the districts and the United States; and provided further, that where the works necessary for the completed project shall be constructed progressively, over a period of years, and that where a portion of the lands within the district are or can be irrigated one year or more before the completion of the entire project, then and in that case, such lands, so irrigated or that can be so irrigated through the built portion of the project, shall pay for the cost of operating that portion of the project serving them with irrigation water, and also shall pay such portion of the interest charges as its irrigable area bears to the irrigable area of the entire project; and in case of lands having appurtenant thereto a partial water right or partial rights in a system of irrigation other than that of the districts, the amounts payable shall be equitably apportioned.

7235. Annual tax levy—Apportionment when tracts divided. On or before the second Monday in July each year the board of commissioners of each irrigation district organized hereunder shall ascertain the total amount required to be raised in that year for the general administrative expenses of the district, including the cost of maintenance and repairs, and the total amount to be raised that year for interest on and principal of the outstanding bonded or other indebtedness of the district, including any indebtedness incurred under any contract between the district and the United States accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 7174 provided, and shall levy against each forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in the district, that portion of the said respective total amounts so to be raised which the total irrigable area of any such tract bears to the total irrigable area of the lands in the district, so that each acre of irrigable land in the district shall be assessed and required to pay the same amount as every other acre of irrigable land therein, unless otherwise specifically provided.

In the event that the ownership of any such forty-acre tract, or other subdivision of land in the district, shall be divided after a special tax or assessment against the same has been levied, each or either of the owners of such tract or subdivisions shall be entitled to have such special tax or assessment equitably apportioned to and against said divisions of such tract or subdivisions, so that each owner shall be enabled to pay such special tax or assessment against his portion of such tract or subdivision, and have the same discharged from the lien thereof.

Not more than four dollars per acre, against each irrigable acre of land in the district, shall be levied in any one year on account of administrative expenses and cost of maintenance and repairs, but this provision shall not invalidate any warrant lawfully issued or to be issued; provided, however, that this limitation shall not apply to any district supplying water by means of any system other than a gravity system.

Whenever the board of commissioners has provided for the payment of any indebtedness of the district by levy of a special tax or assessment, and thereafter makes provision for the payment of said indebtedness by the issuance of bonds, said board may cancel any portion or all of said levy theretofore made to raise funds to pay said indebtedness; and whenever said board has provided for the payment of any indebtedness of the district by the authorization of bonds and the levy of a special tax or assessment to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds, and thereafter cancels said issue of bonds as provided for in sections 7214 and 7230 of this code, as amended, said board may cancel any portion or all of said levy theretofore made to raise funds to pay the principal of or interest on said bonds so canceled, and refund to the respective persons paying the same the funds, if any, in the custody of the county treasurer collected for the purpose of meeting the principal of and interest on such bonds so canceled.

Any land or lands which may for any reason have escaped assessment in any previous year or years may be assessed or listed for the omitted years and omitted charges, in any subsequent year at the time of the making of the assessment in and for such subsequent year, but no such assessment shall be made later than three years after the occurrence of such omission.

Amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

The apportionment of assessments for administrative expenses, maintenance, repairs, etc., of an irrigation district on the basis of the irrigable area in each tract of land of forty acres or less, prescribed by this section is neither unreasonable nor arbitrary, in view of the fact that that method has had the benefit of long experience in other states and the consensus of opinion is that no fairer method has been devised. Walden v. Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 68 Mont. 281, 217 Pac. 646.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 415.

7235A. Determination of irrigable area. For the purpose of determining the number of acres of irrigable lands in each forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in the district, the board of commissioners of any irrigation district organized hereunder, whenever deemed advisable and at any time except as otherwise provided, may cause a careful topographical survey and map of said lands to be made, as well as a specific examination of the character of the soil of each such tract. Upon completion of such survey and maps, and examination, the board shall give notice that at a meeting of said board, to be held at the office of the board on a day to be fixed in said notice, said board will determine the irrigable area of each such tract of land in the district and that it will hear and consider any objection on the part of any land owner in the district to such determination and to adjustment of the irrigable area of said district or of any lands within any tract or subdivision thereof. It shall not be necessary to describe said tracts in said notice. Such notice shall be given by publication, once a week for two successive calendar weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the office of the board is located, and where lands of any irrigation district lie in more than one county, such notice shall also be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in each such county. The last publication of said notice shall be at least five days prior to the date fixed for said meeting.

At such meeting, the board shall proceed to determine and fix the number of acres in each tract or subdivision irrigable from the works or proposed works of the district, and shall hear all persons interested who may appear, and shall continue in session from day to day (exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays) as long as may be necessary and until said determination of irrigable area shall have been completed. The board shall hear all evidence offered, including maps and surveys caused to be prepared by it as well as maps and surveys prepared by any owner of lands. Upon such determination, the irrigable area so fixed shall become, and thereafter be, the acreage upon which any special tax or assessment shall be levied, and each irrigable acre shall pay at the same rate as every other acre of irrigable land in said district shall pay; and any special tax or assessment levied for any purpose shall be a lien upon the entire forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in the district of which said irrigable area forms a part, and said lien shall attach to said entire tract as of the first Monday of March in the year in which said special tax or assessment is levied.

Upon completing such determination, the board shall fix, by appropriate resolution or order, the total acreage and the irrigable acreage of each such tract or subdivision, and shall cause to be prepared a list of all lands in said district, which list shall contain an accurate description of each such forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in said district, the total acreage and the number of irrigable acres therein as so fixed and determined, and the name of the owner, or holder of title or evidence of title thereof, ascertained as provided in section 7166 of this code. Such list, when completed and adopted, shall be filed in the office of the board of commissioners and shall remain there for public inspection. A certified copy of such resolution and list shall be filed with the county clerk and recorder of each county in which any portion of the lands in said district are situated; provided, however, there shall be omitted from such copy lands not situated in the county in which such copy is filed.

No special tax or assessment shall be levied against any forty-acre tract, or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where lands shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) found by said board to contain no irrigable land; nor shall any lien created after the order of determination herein provided for attach to any such tract, nor shall the owner, or owners, of any tract or tracts have any vote or votes in any proceeding or election under the provisions of chapter 146 of the Laws of 1909, or any amendment thereof, or act supplementary thereto, after the making of such order, unless his said land, or a portion thereof, be found by said board to contain an area irrigable from the works, or proposed works, of said district.

Upon the determination provided for in this section, the board of commissioners shall have the power to refund any taxes paid, or cancel any unpaid taxes or assessments, levied upon an acreage in excess of that so fixed by said order of determination, and where necessary, may issue warrants therefor.

Within sixty days after such resolution adopting said list, the board of commissioners may petition the district court for confirmation of their acts in determining the irrigable area, as aforesaid, and in refunding or canceling any taxes or assessments. The majority in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to lands in said district, ascertained as in this act provided, may, likewise, within such sixty-day period, petition the district court for review of the actions of the board of commissioners. But one of such proceedings, if prosecuted to determination, shall be exclusive of the other. Upon such proceeding, the court may order any assessment of taxes upon any land or lands to be reduced or raised according to the irrigable area as found by the court, or taxes previously levied upon any area shown to be excessive, to be refunded or canceled. The provisions of section 7189 of this code, regarding the procedure as well as the right and time to appeal, shall apply to any proceeding instituted in pursuance of the provisions of this section; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to affect or impair the lien of any bonds issued by the district; and provided, further, that if confirmation proceedings are held and a certified copy of the order of confirmation be filed with the county clerk and recorder of the county in which any portion of said lands are situated, it shall not be necessary to file in said office the certified copy of the resolution and order of the board, or of the list, hereinabove provided for. Provided, however, that where districts have been established in order to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of congress, which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation, or maintenance of construction works, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district laws, the determination of the irrigable area of the lands in said district may be made by the said board of commissioners in the manner in this section provided or by the United States at the option of the latter, and, if the United States determines the irrigable area, the proceeding for the apportionment and distribution of the costs of the proposed works or improvements, hereinafter provided for in section 7235B, shall not be had.

7235B. Same. Whenever a petition for the issuance of bonds of any irrigation district organized hereunder shall have been filed, as hereinbefore in section 7210 of this code provided, the board of commissioners of such district shall examine, or cause to be examined, each forty-acre tract or fractional lot as designated by the United States public survey, or platted lot, if land is subdivided in lots and blocks (or where land shall be owned in less than forty-acre tracts or in less than the platted lot, then against each such tract) of land in said district, and cause a careful topographical survey and map to be made, in the manner provided for in section 7235A. Upon such examination, the board shall determine the number of irrigable acres in each such tract; and shall apportion and distribute the cost of the works or improvements for which said bonds are to be issued, over the tracts within said district according to the irrigable area in each of said tracts or subdivisions, so that each such irrigable acre shall be required to bear the same burden of such costs as each other irrigable acre in said district, and the special tax or assessment levied to meet the principal of and interest on said bonds so authorized, shall become a lien upon the entire tract of which such irrigable area forms a part or portion as of the first Monday in March of the year in which such special tax or assessment is levied, and the number of irrigable acres in each such tract as so determined shall not be diminished but may be increased during the term for which any such bonds may be issued or until the bonds shall be liquidated in full.

Provided, however, that if a proceeding for the determination, in whole or in part, of the irrigable area of the lands in said district has already been had, or a topographical survey or maps thereof prepared, or a court confirmation of said prior proceedings had, in part or in full, the said board may, in its discretion, adopt all or such portions of said prior proceedings; and in such an event, it shall not be necessary to cause an additional survey, or maps, or examination, of any of such tracts to be again made, or to redetermine the irrigable area of any such tract.

The board shall make such determination after hearing had and shall fix the total acreage and the irrigable acreage, and shall cause a list of such irrigable area to be made and filed and the proceedings of the board in connection with such determination, including said hearing and notice of said hearing, and order or resolution fixing the irrigable area and the preparation and filing of said list shall conform to the requirements set forth in section 7235A. At such hearing, the said board shall also determine the amount and rate per acre necessary to be levied against each irrigable acre in the district to meet the interest on and principal of said authorized bond issue, and any tax levied for such purposes shall be a lien upon the entire tract of which said irrigable area forms a part. If any land owner in the district shall appear before the board at said time and pay in cash the amount fixed against his said land as its proportion of the amount found necessary for the purposes for which said bonds were authorized and are to be issued, his land shall be excluded from the lien of the bond issue and the amount of bonds intended to be issued shall be reduced by the amount of such payment. Any person interested who shall fail to appear before the board at said meeting shall not thereafter be permitted to contest the proceedings of said board, or any part thereof, except upon special application to the court in the proceedings for the confirmation of said bonds and a showing of reasonable excuse for failure to appear before said board of commissioners.

In case any such land owner makes objection to the proceedings of said board in determining the irrigable area in his own or any other tract of land, or the amount or rate per acre of the special tax and assessment to be levied against each irrigable acre in the district for the purposes of the proposed bond issue, and said objection is overruled by the board, such objection without further proceedings shall be regarded as appealed to the district court, and shall, with the other proceedings of said board at said meeting, be heard at the proceedings to confirm said bonds, as provided in section 7211 of this code, and when so confirmed, said order overruling such objection and confirming the order of the board determining the irrigable area of each tract of land, and apportioning the cost of the improvement thereto, shall become final, binding and conclusive upon said land owner and upon the district, unless appealed from as in said section 7211 provided.

Provided, however, that whenever the irrigable area of the lands in any irrigation district shall have been determined and confirmed, no owner or holder of title or evidence of title to lands in said district, during the period of any bonds thereafter authorized shall be issued and outstanding, shall have the taxable acreage of his said lands fixed or adjudicated in the manner provided by sections 7190, to 7194, inclusive, of this code, in such manner or to such extent as to reduce the acreage subject to the payment of such bonds or interest thereon, or in such manner as to affect the security of such bonds or interest thereon.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 157, L. 1923.

7235.1. Commissioners may cancel assessments. In any case where the board of commissioners of any irrigation district has made a levy or assessment under the provisions of section 7235 of the Revised Codes of 1921, and included therein any amount due the United States under any contract or agreement for the purchase of any irrigation works or for the operation and maintenance of any irrigation works, or while acting as fiscal agent for the United States or under any authorization of the district by the United States to make collections of moneys for or on behalf of the United States in connection with any federal reclamation project, as provided in section 7174 of the Revised Codes of 1921, and the United States shall thereafter, modify or supplement such contract or agreement so as to eliminate certain charges under said contract or agreement, or so as to make such charges due at a later date or dates than originally provided in said contract or agreement, said board of commissioners are empowered to direct the cancellation of said levy or assessment theretofore made to raise funds to pay the United States that are under such modification or supplemental contract or agreement made due and payable at a later date or dates.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 103, L. 1923.

7236. Assessments on federal and other contracts. Where a contract has been entered into or may be hereafter entered into between an irrigation district and the United States the board of commissioners shall have the power to levy assessments against all of the land within the district for any and all of the purposes hereinbefore enumerated, and, in addition thereto, the power to levy assessments against any or all of the lands in said district in compliance with such contract; provided further, that where irrigation works lie partly in the state of Montana and partly in an adjacent state, the board of commissioners may contract with the district or districts in the adjacent state for the mutual construction of works, operation and maintenance of work, drainage and other matters, and things pertaining to said works, and shall have the power to levy assessments against any or all lands within the district necessary to carry out the provisions of such contract.

7242. Delinquent sale.

Cited in State v. Nicholson, 74 Mont. 346, 351, 240 Pac. 837.

7248.1. Regulation sale irrigation district lands for taxes. At all sales of all lands for delinquent taxes where all, or a portion, of such delinquent taxes are taxes and assessments levied and assessed by any irrigation district against the lands to be sold, the commissioners of such irrigation district, if there be no other bidder for such land at such tax sale, may bid therefor the total amount of all delinquent taxes and assessments, penalty and interest against such land, and thereupon the county treasurer shall strike off said lands to such irrigation district and issue certificate of tax sale to said irrigation district the same as such certificates of tax sales are issued to other purchasers. For the purpose of paying such taxes, assessments, interest and penalties, the commissioners of such irrigation district shall have the power and authority to create by resolution a fund to be known and designated as the "revolving fund for the purchase of tax certificates and titles" and to provide funds for such revolving fund by levy, bond issue or otherwise, and the district may pay such taxes, assessments, interest and penalties by issuing a warrant to the county treasurer against such fund, provided that there shall be sufficient money in such fund to pay same in full upon demand. When taxes are paid by the district as in this act provided, the county treasurer shall not distribute that portion of said tax belonging to the irrigation district to the several funds as designated in the tax levy and assessment but the total amount due the irrigation district shall be credited by him, to the revolving fund above specified. At the time of the sale by the district of the tax sale certificate or of the property obtained through such certificate, such funds as are realized from such sale must be deposited with the county treasurer and he shall credit the proceeds of such sale, pro rata to the several funds of the district in accordance with the original levy and assessment. No expenditures shall be made from the revolving fund except for the purposes as herein specified and when, by resolution of the board of irrigation district commissioners, such fund shall be deemed inactive, the balance remaining in said fund shall be transferred to a sinking fund to be applied upon any indebtedness which may have been incurred by the district by reason of the creation of such revolving fund, if any there may be.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.2. District may purchase certificates of tax sale. Any irrigation district may purchase the certificate of tax sale issued to any county for lands sold at tax sale against which any of its taxes and assessments are delinquent or, if deed therefor has issued to the county, may purchase such lands from the county by paying to the county treasurer of the county making the sale all state, county, city, school district, and other delinquent taxes together with penalty, interest and costs of publication and sale. Such payment shall be made by the commissioners of such district issuing and delivering to the county treasurer, a warrant drawn against the revolving fund of said district, provided there shall be sufficient money in said fund to pay same in full upon demand, and thereupon, such treasurer shall assign such certificate of tax sale to such irrigation district as in the case of the purchase thereof by any other person, or the commissioners of the county shall convey such lands to said district in case tax deed therefor has been issued to the county.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.3. Issuance of tax deeds. When there has been no redemption of the lands so sold at tax sale to an irrigation district or any other person or of the lands struck off to the county for which certificate of sale has been assigned to an irrigation district, or any other person in the manner and within the time hereinafter allowed by this act for the redemption of lands from such tax sales, the county treasurer of the county within which such lands are situated, shall issue tax deed therefor to such irrigation district, or other holder of certificate of sale.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.4. Commissioners may sell lands—Bids. After the issuance of any such tax deeds to an irrigation district, the commissioner of such district shall have power to sell and convey the lands so purchased, or any part thereof, at either public or private sale whether the price received therefor equals the amount of delinquent taxes, assessments, penalties, interest and costs against said lands or not; provided that if such lands be offered for sale at public sale that such commissioners may reject any and all bids thereon, and provided further that no such lands shall be sold by said commissioners at private sale until the same shall have been offered for sale at public sale, and that no such lands shall be sold at private sale at a price less than the highest price bid therefor at the public sale at which such lands are offered; and provided further that if no bid is received for such lands when the same are offered for sale at public sale the said commissioners may then sell the same in such manner and for such price as in their judgment they shall deem to be for the best interests of said district.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.5. Actions to quiet title. If any such lands are conveyed to any irrigation district, it may maintain an action to quiet title to said lands in said district in the manner provided by the laws of Montana for quieting title to real property.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.6. Commissioners may purchase lands at tax sales—Other powers. In addition to the powers heretofore granted to irrigation districts, the commissioners of every irrigation district, established and organized under and by virtue of the laws of Montana, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred upon them, shall have power to purchase lands within their respective districts sold for nonpayment of taxes and assessments as hereinbefore provided; to purchase certificate of tax sales of such lands when struck off to the county; to take title thereto for their districts; to own, manage, operate, lease, sell and dispose of the same for the use and benefit of their respective districts; to sue and be sued with reference to said lands in the names of their respective districts; to commence, maintain and prosecute suits to quiet title to said lands and any and all other suits in equity or actions at law with reference thereto the same as might be done by any other individual or corporate owners of such lands; and to do any and all other acts or things necessary or beneficial for their respective districts in connection with such lands. The board of commissioners of any irrigation district shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to do any and all things necessary to carry out the provisions and intentions of this act.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.7. Issuance tax deeds. The holder of such certificate of tax sale of such land, whether said holder be an irrigation district or individual, may, at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of sale of said property for delinquency, if same has not been redeemed within said period of two years from date of sale of said lands for delinquency, apply to the county treasurer, as provided by law for the issuance of a tax deed to said property, and upon such application, the county treasurer shall issue such tax deed, in the manner and form provided by law, to said holder.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 89, L. 1925.

7248.8. Application of act. This act shall apply only when or after said irrigation district shall have commenced delivery of water to any lands included in such irrigation district.

CHAPTER 38A.

CREATION OF DISTRICTS COVERING ESTABLISHED IRRIGATION SYSTEM FOR ADMINISTRATION WITHOUT A WATER COMMISSIONER.

7264.1. Declaration purpose of act. It is the purpose and intention of this act, in the furtherance of the public welfare, to provide an effective public agency for the improvement, development, operation, maintenance and administration of certain existing irrigation systems in cases where administration thereof through the agency of a water commissioner is not effective.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.2. Act applicable to what water owners. This act shall apply only when more than one hundred owners of land, with water rights appurtenant thereto, shall have diverted water by means of a single intake from the source of supply, and shall have provided a single canal for conveying such water to the branches and laterals of an established irrigation system, serving at least one thousand acres of land contiguous in location or of reasonably compact area, and in which the rights to the use of the water shall have been determined by decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.3. Proposal for establishment of district. Whenever the owners of land and water rights, situated as described in section 2 hereof, desire to organize for the purposes mentioned in this act, such owners may propose the establishment and organization of an irrigation district under the provisions of sections 7166 to 7264, inclusive, of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, and amendments thereof and additions thereto, in so far as such laws are applicable hereto and not in conflict with the purposes and provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.4. Laws not applicable. The provisions of chapter 34, section 7195, section 7202, section 7203, section 7205 and section 7207 of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, shall have no application to the organization of irrigation districts hereunder.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.5. Apportionment of water. The board of commissioners shall apportion the water for irrigation among the lands of the district in a just and equitable manner, and in compliance with the decree adjudicating the rights thereto, but the maximum amount apportioned to any land shall be the amount that can be beneficially used thereon.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.6. Development of water—Tax limit. The board of commissioners of such irrigation district shall have authority to develop the source of supply and increase the means of distribution of water to the end that all owners of water rights under said system shall receive the amount of water which can be beneficially used upon their lands within the district; provided, however, that not more than four dollars per acre, against each irrigable acre of land in the district, shall be levied in any one year on account of administrative expenses, cost of maintenance and repairs, development of water supply, or enlargement of distribution facilities.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.7. Tax levy. The annual tax levy, and the apportionment and distribution of the total amount required to be raised in any year shall be had and done in accordance with the provisions and limitations of law applicable to irrigation districts organized under the provisions of sections 7166 to 7264, inclusive, of the Revised Codes of Montana of 1921, and amendments thereof and additions thereto.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.8. Purpose of act. It is the purpose and intention of this act to extend to irrigation districts organized hereunder the powers, duties and status of the public corporations organized under the irrigation district laws of the state of Montana, as the same may now, or hereafter exist; provided, that neither such districts nor the board of commissioners thereof shall have any power or authority to issue bonds or incur indebtedness, other than warrant indebtedness, under the limitations proposed by law; and provided further, that this law does not contemplate the acquisition by the district of the existing water, water rights or system or works owned by the respective water right owners within the district.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

7264.9. Districts declared public corporations. Any irrigation district which has been heretofore organized under procedure in substantial compliance with the provisions of this act shall, upon the passage and approval of this act, become a public corporation, with the privileges and powers hereby conferred, to the same extent as if such irrigation district were organized under the authority of this act.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 100, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 39.

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS.

7265. Petition for creation drainage district—Contents.

Special assessments for the construction and maintenance of drainage works are not taxes within the meaning of section 11, article XII of the state constitution, hence that provision has no application. In re Valley Center Drain Dist., 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

The drainage act does not attempt to delegate legislative power to the judiciary and therefore does not impinge upon section 1 of article IV of the state constitution. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

Since the situation of the land owner whose property is originally included in a drainage district is so far different from that of the owner whose property is brought into the district after it is created as to furnish the basis for a reasonable classification, the drainage statute is not open to the objection that it discriminates in favor of the latter by extending to him the right of trial by jury of the question of benefits received or damages suffered, while the same right is denied to the former. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

Lands may be brought into a drainage district and subjected to the imposition of special assessments to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining the drainage system, on the theory that the use to which the lands are subjected is a public use, the state acting by virtue of its power of eminent domain. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

Liability of drainage district for personal injuries, note, 33 A. L. R. 77.

7265A. Procedure for dissolution drainage districts. Whenever the adult owners of more than one-half of the lands within any drainage district, organized under the provisions of sections 7265 to 7364 inclusive of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1921, as amended by chapter 109 of the Session Laws of the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly, shall present to the district court having jurisdiction of said drainage district, a petition signed by them, praying that such drainage district be dissolved, the judge of said court shall cause notice of such petition, together with a copy of said petition, to be served upon the commissioners of said district, directing them to show cause on a day certain, not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the filing of said petition, why said petition should not be granted. The judge, at the time of receiving the petition, shall make an order forbidding the commissioners from incurring any further expense, or proceeding with the work of constructing a drain. On said day of hearing the court shall hear the same, and if it appears that the adult owners of more than one-half of the lands in said drainage district have signed said petition, it shall be granted, and thereupon, the court shall make an order directing the said commissioners to file a written report, under oath, setting forth the amount of the debts and obligations of said drainage district. Within thirty days after such report is filed, the court shall cause to be spread, or spread, a levy against all lands in said district on the basis of the final report of the commissioners, as confirmed by the court, and if no final report has been made, then on an area basis, and also enter judgment dissolving said district, and authorize the commissioners to settle the business of the district on the basis of the final report of said commissioners or on the area basis as confirmed by this court, said commissioners to render their services for same without pay.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 46, L. 1925.

7268. Hearing—Court to order notice—Publication.

So long as the statute authorizing the construction and maintenance of a drain and the imposition of special assessments to defray the cost thereof provides for notice to every interested land owner and an opportunity for him to be heard before he can be affected adversely, it does not deprive him of his property without due process of law. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 862.

7272. Insufficient service—Procedure.

This and sections 7275, 7279, 7280 and 7281 were cited in In re Valley Center

Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 548, 211 Pac. 218.

7273. Service or publication of notice.

Where the bill of exceptions prepared by appellant himself recited that the notice of an adjourned hearing looking to the organization of an irrigation district had been given and served as provided by this section, his contention that the service was defective does not merit consideration. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 861.

7280. Court to appoint commissioners—Qualifications. But if it shall appear that the petition has been so signed, the court or judge shall so find and order any necessary amendments thereto, and shall divide the district into three divisions, as nearly equal in area as possible, and shall appoint three suitable and competent persons as commissioners and fix their temporary bonds. In making such appointments one commissioner shall be appointed from each division and each person so appointed a commissioner must be an actual land owner and resident of the county or counties in the division for which he is appointed such commissioner. If the district is situated in two or more counties, not more than two of said commissioners shall reside in one of said counties. Ownership of land within the district shall not disqualify a person from acting as a commissioner.

Ten per cent of the adult owners or legally authorized agents or representatives of minor owners of lands within any drainage district heretofore created and organized, and in existence on the date when this act takes effect, may file a petition with the proper district court to have such district divided into divisions, and such court must thereupon make an order setting a day for hearing such petition, and cause a copy of such order to be served on each of the commissioners of such district at least five days before the date set for such hearing. On the day fixed in such order, or on any day to which such hearing may be regularly continued, the court must hear such petition, and after such hearing must make an order dividing such district into three divisions, as nearly equal in area as possible.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

Since drainage district commissioners act only in an advisory capacity and their assessments of benefits and damages are reviewable on appeal after notice to all interested parties, the provision of this section, that the fact that a person owns lands in the proposed district shall not disqualify him from acting as commissioner, does not violate the principle that no one shall be the judge of his own cause. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 884.

7282. Term of commissioners. On the creation of a district the commissioners appointed by the judge or court shall hold office until the first Tuesday in May following their appointment, and until their successors are elected. When a district is in existence on the date when this act takes effect and thereafter an order is made dividing such district into divisions the terms of office of such commissioners shall cease with the Monday immediately preceding the first Tuesday in May next following.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7283. Election term and qualifications of commissioners. The regular election of commissioners shall be held annually on the first Tuesday in April of each year; the term of office of commissioners shall commence on the first Tuesday in May following their election. At the first regular election following the organization of a district, and in districts heretofore organized and in existence on the date when this act takes effect and which, on petition, has been divided into divisions, as hereinbefore provided, at the first regular election following the date of the order making such division, there shall be elected three commissioners, one commissioner being elected from each division of which he must be an actual land owner and resident of the county or counties; one of such commissioners, to be determined by lot, shall hold office until the first Tuesday in May in the year following his election, another of such commissioners, to be determined by lot, shall hold office until the first Tuesday in May in the second year following his election, and the third of such commissioners shall hold office until the first Tuesday in May in the third year following his election; thereafter one commissioner shall be elected each year who shall hold office for a term of three years and until his successor is elected and qualified; provided that the person elected as a commissioner in each year to succeed the commissioner whose term is then expiring must be elected as a commissioner from the same division as the commissioner whom he is to succeed.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7283A. Notice of election. Fifteen days before any regular election, the secretary of the board of commissioners shall give notice by mail to all land owners within the district of the time and place of holding the election. Prior to the mailing of such notices the board must, by resolution, designate a polling place and appoint three persons to act as judges and clerks of election in each precinct. The board shall prescribe the form and provide for the printing of the ballots for all elections.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7283B. Manner of conducting election. Any judge of election may administer any oath required to be administered during the progress of an election. Before the opening of the polls the judges of election must take and subscribe an oath to faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by law, and such oath may be administered by any elector. The polls shall open at 12 o'clock noon and be kept open until 5 o'clock P. M. when the same shall be closed. Such elections shall be conducted, except as herein otherwise provided, as nearly as practicable in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of the state, except that no registration shall be required. As soon as the polls are closed the judges shall count and tabulate the votes cast and make out a certificate, to be signed by them, showing the total number of votes cast at the election and the total number cast for each candidate for commissioner, and shall deliver such certificate, with a list of the electors voting at such election to the board of commissioners, and such board of commissioners shall meet on the first Monday following such election and canvass such returns. The board shall declare elected the person or persons, receiving the highest number of votes. The clerk of the board of directors shall enter the result of such canvass in the minutes of the board and file with the clerk of the district court creating the district a statement showing the names of the persons elected as commissioners, the names of the commissioners whose term will expire on the first Tuesday in May following, and the names of all of the persons who will compose the board of directors for the year next following the said first Tuesday in May.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7283C. Qualifications of electors. At all such elections, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the following persons holding title, or evidences of title to lands within the district shall be entitled to vote: (1) All of the persons having the qualifications of electors under the constitution and general laws of the state; (2) guardians, administrators, executors and trustees residing in the state; (3) domestic corporations by their duly authorized agents. In all elections each elector shall be permitted to cast one vote for each forty acres of land, or major fraction thereof in the district owned by such elector, but any elector owning twenty acres or less shall be entitled to one vote.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7283D. Nominations. Candidates for the office of commissioner to be filled by election under the provisions of this act, may be nominated by petition filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners at least ten days prior to date of holding the election and signed by at least five electors of the district. If no nominations are made the electors of the district shall write on the ballots the name or names of the persons for whom they desire to vote, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent an elector from voting for any qualified person, although the name does not appear on the official ballot.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7284. Vacancies, how filled. If a vacancy occur in the board of commissioners the remaining members of the board shall elect some qualified elector to fill such vacancy and the person so elected shall hold such office for the unexpired term and until his successor is elected and qualified, provided that the person so appointed must be appointed as a commissioner for the division in which such vacancy exists.

Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 50, L. 1925.

7293. Hearing of preliminary report—Publication of notice.

This and sections 7295, 7297 and 7298 were cited in In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 549, 211 Pac. 218.

This and sections 7319, 7327, 7328, 7338, Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 549, 7340 and 7347 were cited in In re Valley 211 Pac. 218.

7340. Procedure to exempt land.

7341. Same—Owner to assert claim—Appeals.

Above sections repealed Sec. 1, Ch. 109, L. 1923.

7342. Illegal assessments—Cost—How defrayed. In case the court decides that any land could not be assessed for drainage purposes or that any assessment or assessments are void, the commissioners shall levy an additional assessment on all of the assessable lands and corporations in said district based on the last assessment of benefits approved by the court, to pay the sum lost to the district by reason of the void assessment, or shall pay said sum out of the general funds of the district.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 109, L. 1923.

7347. Payment or tender of damages—Deposit with clerk of court.

The fact that the drainage statute by this section permits the commissioners to go upon a land owner's property for the purpose of necessary investigation to determine the special benefits received or damages suffered by it, in advance of an award, does not render it obnoxious to the constitutional provision that private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without compensation having been first made to or paid into court for the owner. In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 211 Pac. 218.

7354. Assessments against annexed lands.

This and section 7355 were cited in In re Valley Center Drain District, 64 Mont. 545, 550, 211 Pac. 218.

CHAPTER 40.

LOCATION AND RECORD OF MINING AND MILL SITE CLAIMS.

7365. Discovery—Notice—Marking Boundaries—Sinking Shaft.

For discussion of sufficiency of the boundaries of a mining location, see Thompson v. Barton Gulch Mining Co., 63 Mont. 190, 207 Pac. 108.

The provisions of this section, calling for the posting of a notice of location of a quartz lode mining claim containing a statement of the number of feet claimed along the course of the vein from the point of discovery, and of section 7366, requiring the recordation of a certificate of location in the office of the county clerk showing the direction and distance claimed along the course of the vein, etc., must be substantially complied with. Thompson v. Barton Gulch Mining Co., 63 Mont. 190, 207 Pac. 108.

This and the following sections modifying to some extent the requirements of the law with relation to the location of mining claims, go no further than to direct the courts to disregard defects or irregularities in the posted and recorded notice and the failure to do any of the other acts made necessary to complete a location, when it appears that such acts have in fact been done before a location of the same ground has been made by another, and do not excuse the performance of any act, even though the subsequent locator has notice of a prior location which does not comply with the statute. Ringling v. Mahurin et al., 59 Mont. 38, 197 Pac. 829.

What is "top" or "apex" of vein or lode, note, 1 A. L. R. 418.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 316.

7366. Record of certificate of location.

The provisions of this section must be substantially complied with. Thompson v. Barton Gulch Mining Co., 63 Mont. 190, 207 Pac. 108.

Cited as section 2284, Revised Codes, in Ringling v. Mahurin et al., 59 Mont. 38, 46, 197 Pac. 829.

7373. Relocation by owner.

Where relocators of their own claims did not do the excavation work required to be done, under this section, before another had located the same ground, their attempted relocations were nugatory. Lehman v. Sutter et al., 60 Mont. 97, 198 Pac. 1100.

Under this section, the locator or claimant may at any time relocate his own claim for any purpose other than to avoid the doing of the annual assessment work, provided he complies in all respects with the requirements of sections 7365, 7366 and 7370 of this code. Lehman v. Sutter et al., 60 Mont. 97, 198 Pac. 1100.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 351.

7376. Validating locations heretofore made.

Cited as section 2292, Revised Codes, in Ringling v. Mahurin et al., 59 Mont. 38, 47, 197 Pac. 829.

7377. Defective locations good against person with notice.

In view of the provision of this section that defects in a recorded certificate of location of a mining claim shall not be deemed material where the person relying on the defects made his location with notice thereof, allegations in his complaint, in an action to determine an adverse claim, relating to such defects are immaterial. Lehman v. Sutter et al., 60 Mont. 97, 198 Pac. 1100.

Cited as section 2293, Revised Codes, in Ringling v. Mahurin et al., 59 Mont. 38, 47, 197 Pac. 829.

7403. Conditions concurrent.

This section and 7405 were cited in Weatherman v. Reid, 62 Mont. 522, 525, 205 Pac. 251.

7405. Performance, etc., of conditions—When essential.

Where delivery of chattels and payment for them were to be concurrent, plaintiff in an action for breach of contract was required to show an offer and ability to pay for and receive them at the place of delivery before he could put defendant in default. Weatherman v. Reid, 62 Mont. 522, 205 Pac. 251.

Before plaintiffs could put the defendant in default for failure to make a payment due March 1, 1918, on a contract for the sale of real estate, it was necessary that they should plead and prove that they should comply with their agreement to secure authority to execute and deliver the deed. Henderson et al. v. Daniels, 62 Mont. 363, 205 Pac. 964.

Cited in Peterson v. Nelson, 77 Mont. 539, 553, 252 Pac. 368; Ray et al. v. Divers et al., 72 Mont. 513, 516, 234 Pac. 246; Broat Lumber Co. v. Van Houten, 66 Mont. 478, 480, 213 Pac. 1116.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 396.

7408. Conditions involving forfeiture—How construed.

While, generally speaking, forfeitures are not favored in the law and by this section, it is provided that a condition involving a forfeiture must be strictly interpreted against the party for whose benefit it is created, in the case of an oil and gas lease of the nature of the above forfeiture is favored rather than frowned upon because of the injury that may result to the lessor from delay, where it clearly appears that the lessee has failed to commence operations within the time stipulated or thereafter neglected to prosecute such operations with diligence. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

7427. Effect of directions by creditors.

Under this section, declaring that where a creditor directs his debtor to perform his obligation in a particular manner and it is so performed, the obligation is extinguished even though the creditor does not receive any benefit therefrom, and other sections, held that where a creditor directed his debtor (his niece) to transfer property to her daughters in payment of the debt without consideration moving from them to him and the transfer was made, a finding that it was based on the consideration of natural love and affection only was erroneous, the consideration having been the extinguishment of the debt due from the grantor to her creditor. *Hale et al. v. 7429. Payment, what constitutes.

Cited in Brennan v. Northern Electric Co. et al., 72 Mont. 35, 40, 231 Pac. 388.

7430. Application of general performance.

Under this section, a debtor owing more than one debt or a debt consisting of more than one item (as principal and interest) has the right to direct application of a payment voluntarily made by him, and if the creditor accepts the payment and retains it, the law will treat it as having been applied as directed. Monidah Trust v. Hruze et al., 62 Mont. 444, 205 Pac. 232.

Under the terms of a promissory note, a creditor had the right to insist upon the payment of interest and on default to declare the entire indebtedness due. He chose to accept partial payments with full knowledge that in each instance specific directions for its application had been given by the debtor. Held that he ought not to be heard to say that he did not consent and give credit according to such directions. Monidah Trust v. Hruze et al., 62 Mont. 444, 205 Pac. 232.

Right to have usurious payments made on previous obligation applied as payment of principal on renewal, note, 13 A. L. R. 1244.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 931.

7434. To whom to be made.

Where the memorandum evidencing an account stated is silent as to the place of payment, the law, under this section and 7435, imports into the writing and makes part of it by implication a provision that the debtor must, in order to perform his obligation, pay or tender payment to the creditor where the latter may then reside or conduct his business or may be found, and in such a case denial of a motion to change the venue to the place of the debtor's residence or place of business is proper. Hough v. Rocky Mountain Fire Ins. Co., 70 Mont. 244, 224 Pac. 858.

Necessity of tender to avoid interest on insurance premiums, note, 35 A. L. R. 1252.

7439. Offer to be made in good faith.

Cited in Nielson v. Hendrickson et al., 63 Mont. 518, 523, 210 Pac. 905.

7440. Conditional offer.

Under this section an offer of performance must be free from any condition which the other party is not bound to meet; hence the lessee of land for oil and gas exploration under a contract which inter alia provided that moneys to be paid by him should be paid to the lessor or deposited in bank for his credit was not excused from making payment of delay money by the refusal of the lessor to execute an indemnity bond assuring proper apportionment of the money among grantees of portions of the lands sold after execution of the lease, the transferees having taken subject to its provisions; the lessee, by making payment as provided, would have been released from all claims by the transferees and was therefore in no position to insist upon acceptance of the condition prior to making payment. Thomas v. Standard Development Co., 70 Mont. 156, 224 Pac. 870.

CHAPTER 5.

EXTINCTION OF OBLIGATIONS BY ACCORD AND SATISFACTION, NOVATION AND RELEASE.

7456. Accord defined.

Accord and satisfaction means the substitution of a new agreement in satisfaction of an obligation different from the original rights existing under an antecedent liability. Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co., Ltd., et al., 75 Mont. 99, 242 Pac. 425.

"Accord and satisfaction" means the substitution of a new agreement in satisfaction of an obligation different from the original rights existing under an antecedent liability. Nelson v. Young et al., 70 Mont. 112, 224 Pac. 237.

7461. Modes of novation.

From his acceptance of a new note from the defendants for one executed by their father, a novation resulted which barred plaintiff payee from thereafter enforcing a trust which he might otherwise have relied upon to secure payment of the original note. *Larson v. CHAPTER 7.

PARTIES TO A CONTRACT.

7472. When contract for benefit of third person may be enforced.

To entitle a person not a party to a contract between two others to recover thereunder, the contract must, under this section have been made expressly for his benefit, the fact that it may incidentally benefit him being insufficient to bring him within the terms of the section. Martin v. American Surety Co. et al., 74 Mont. 43, 238 Pac. 877.

To entitle a third person to enforce a contract made between two others, under this section, the complaint must show that it was expressly made for his benefit, or for the benefit of a class of persons to which he belongs, i. e., he, or they, either must be named therein or otherwise sufficiently described or designated; the fact that the contract may incidentally benefit him or them, being insufficient. McKeever et al. v. Oregon Mtg. Co., Ltd., 60 Mont. 270, 198 Pac. 752.

Under this section, a bond executed by a contractor under a construction contract, entered into by the state highway commission in accordance with sections 1783-1802, created no obligation in favor of a materialman which it could enforce in its own name. Federal Surety Co. v. Minneapolis Steel & Mach. Co., 17 Fed. (2d) 242.

Under this section as construed by the supreme court of Montana, which construction is binding upon the federal courts, a contract to come within the scope of the statute, must be one wherein the promisor undertakes to pay or discharge some debt or duty which the promisee owes to the third person, and where no consideration passes from the third person, but the provision for his benefit is voluntary on the part of the promisee, he cannot maintain an action for its enforcement. McNaught v. Hoffman, 274 Fed. 918.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 469.

CHAPTER 8.

CONSENT.

7473. Essentials of consent.

Under this section, the consent of a party to a contract must be free; it is not free when obtained through menace (section 7475), and under section 7478, a threat of unlawful confinement of the person threatened constitutes menace. Clifford v. Great Falls Gas Co., 68 Mont. 300, 216 Pac. 1114.

7478. Menace—In what it consists.

A threat to prosecute one for a crime of which he is not guilty constitutes menace. Averill Machinery Co. v. Taylor et al., 70 Mont. 70, 223 Pac. 918.

Testimony of plaintiff relative to threats alleged to have been made to him by the agents of a gas company, by which $200 was obtained from him by said company, examined and held to show acts constituting a menace under this section.

7480. Actual fraud, acts constituting.

Allegations in an action to rescind a contract for the sale of city lots on the ground of fraud perpetrated by the vendor in procuring the scrivener to insert in the deed numbers of inside lots instead of corner lots intended to be bought, were sufficient to charge actual fraud. Campana v. Dobry, 60 Mont. 240, 221 Pac. 540.

Healy v. Ginoff et al., 69 Mont. 116, 220 Pac. 539.

To make out a case of prima facie fraud sufficient to go to the jury, the plaintiff must show a false representation by the defendant, its materiality and defendant's knowledge of its falsity or ignorance of its truth, his intent that it should be acted upon by the plaintiff in the manner reasonably contemplated, his reliance upon its truth, his right to rely thereon and his consequent and proximate injury. Lee v. Stockmen's National Bank et al., 63 Mont. 262, 207 Pac. 623.

The mere making of a promise which the promisor fails to keep does not constitute actionable fraud, intention not to keep it when made being necessary to constitute the promisor's action fraudulent under this section. International Harvester Co. v. Merry, 60 Mont. 498, 199 Pac. 704.

7482. Actual fraud a question of fact.

The question of fraud is always one of fact for the jury unless the evidence is uncontradicted and it is impossible to draw any inference from it other than that it entered into the particular transaction, whereupon it becomes one of law for the court. Williams v. Mutual Life Ins. Co., 61 Mont. 66, 201 Pac. 320.

7483. Undue influence—In what it consists.

Essential elements of undue influence sufficient to invalidate a will, stated in Hale v. Smith, 73 Mont. 481, 237 Pac. 214.

7485. Mistake of fact.

Fraud generally cannot be successfully predicated on a matter of law, since parties are presumed to know the law; hence a representation made by one to a land owner in his endeavor to secure an oil and gas lease, that he already owned all the oil and gas on the land by reason of placer locations, amounting to an expression of the legal effect of the placer locations, was insufficient to support an allegation of fraud in that respect. Hinerman v. Baldwin, 67 Mont. 417, 215 Pac. 1103.

CHAPTER 9.

OBJECT.

7501. When contract wholly void.

In an action to quiet title to an interest in a ditch and water right, based upon conversations had by plaintiff with defendant, for work done on the ditch by him, evidence of plaintiff as to the alleged contract held so indefinite and uncertain, under this section, as not to constitute an enforceable agreement, it not appearing therefrom what amount of work plaintiff was to perform, or in which one of several ditches he was to have an interest, etc. Thrasher v. Schreiber, 77 Mont. 221, 250 Pac. 600.

A covenant in a lease of a building which required the lessee to complete the upstairs portion thereof without any specifications as to how it was to be completed, whether for office, living-room or storage purposes, or as to the kinds of materials to be used, etc., held so vague and uncertain as to be incapable of enforcement and therefore void under this section. Alderson v. Republican-Courier Co., 69 Mont. 271, 221 Pac. 544.

CHAPTER 10.

CONSIDERATION.

7503. Good consideration, what constitutes.

Forbearance to sue is a sufficient consideration to support a contract, provided there be an agreement, express or implied, to that effect, mere nonaction being of no avail. Doorly v. Goodman, 71 Mont. 529, 230 Pac. 779.

The loss sustained by a debtor in agreeing to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors was a sufficient consideration for his release from liabilities owing by him to them, under this section in that he suffered a prejudice which he was not lawfully bound to suffer. Stone-Ordean-Wells Co. v. Anderson et al., 66 Mont. 64, 212 Pac. 853.

A consideration, present or future, but not past, is essential to the enforcement of a simple contract. Wilson v. Blair, 65 Mont. 155, 27 A. L. R. 1235, 211 Pac. 289.

7508. Executory consideration.

7512. Written instrument presumptive evidence of consideration.

While plaintiff in an action on the guaranty of a promissory note need not plead the consideration upon which it was based, where he does so and introduces proof in support of the allegation, the fact must be determined, not upon the presumption of consideration declared by this section, but upon the proofs offered. Doorly v. Goodman, 71 Mont. 529, 230 Pac. 779.

A written instrument is presumptive evidence of a good and sufficient consideration and the burden of showing a want of consideration sufficient to support it lies with the party seeking to invalidate it on that ground. Saint et al. v. Beal, 66 Mont. 292, 213 Pac. 248.

CHAPTER 11.

MANNER OF CREATING CONTRACTS—ORAL AND WRITTEN CONTRACTS.

7519. What contracts must be in writing.

Under the rule that where a contract is capable of performance within one year it is not invalid under the statute of frauds, because not in writing, an oral agreement made between plaintiff and defendant in the late fall to run a band of lambs as partners until they became yearlings (in the spring following) and if they should then take a "notion" they would continue the arrangement, was wholly optional with the parties and might have been fully executed within one year and hence was not invalid under the provisions of that section. Miles v. Miles, 76 Mont. 375, 247 Pac. 328.

A contract to sell real estate belonging to another for a compensation must, under this section, be in writing, otherwise it is void; and where such a contract is in parol, testimony in support of a cause of action based upon it is inadmissible. Dick v. King, 73 Mont. 456, 236 Pac. 1093.

Part performance of a parol lease of real property for a term beyond that allowed by the statute of frauds takes it out of the operation of the statute, and taking possession, making alterations in the building and paying the rent agreed upon for a considerable period of time constitute part performance. Kettlekamp et al. v. Watkins et al., 70 Mont. 391, 225 Pac. 1003.

An oral agreement which by its terms is not to be performed within one year from its making is invalid for any purpose and part performance does not take it out of the statute. Dreidlein v. Manger, 69 Mont. 155, 220 Pac. 1107.

For discussion of facts constituting performance of a contract sufficient to take it out of the statute of frauds, see Stillinger v. Kelly, 66 Mont. 441, 214 Pac. 66; Mosher et al. v. Sanford-Evans Co., 68 Mont. 64, 216 Pac. 811.

Under this section, subdivision 6, an agreement authorizing or employing an agent or broker to sell real estate on commission must be in writing, as must also a subsequent modification of its terms, so long as the contract or modification is executory in character, the rule, however, not applying where the contract has been executed. Cobb v. Warren, 64 Mont. 10, 208 Pac. 928.

Since the person to whom an option to buy land is granted acquires no interest in the property itself until he exercises the privilege granted, a contract between the plaintiff and defendant under which the former was to secure the assignment of an option from the holder thereof to defendant did not amount to an employment of plaintiff as a broker or agent to buy land or an interest in land which under subdivision 6, of this section, is required to be in writing, but was one to perform a service which could lawfully be made by parol. Kramer v. Schmidt, 62 Mont. 568, 206 Pac. 620.

Under subdivisions 5 and 6 of this section and section 7939, any contract conferring upon an agent or broker authority to make a sale of real estate, must be in writing. Hartt v. Jahn et al., 59 Mont. 173, 196 Pac. 153.

Cited in McIntyre et al. v. Dawes, 71 Mont. 367, 375, 229 Pac. 846; Dreidlein v. Manger, 69 Mont. 155, 160, 220 Pac. 1107; Stillinger v. Kelly, 66 Mont. 441, 443, 214 Pac. 66; Awbery v. Schmidt, 65 Mont. 265, 274, 211 Pac. 346; as section 5017, Revised Codes, in Hartt v. Jahn et al., 59 Mont. 173, 181, 196 Pac. 153.

Agent of undisclosed principal signing contract as satisfying statute of frauds, note, 23 A. L. R. 932.

Name of principal or of authorized agent in body of instrument as satisfying statute of frauds where transaction was not conducted by him, note, 28 A. L. R. 1114.

One party, or his agent, as agent of other party for purpose of signing contract or memorandum required by statute of frauds, note, 47 A. L. R. 201.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 224; vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 848.

7520. Effect of written contracts.

Where a party seeks to recover on a written contract of sale resort must be had to it alone, under this section, in determining the obligations assumed by defendant in attaching his name to it. Lewis v. Aronow, 77 Mont. 348, 251 Pac. 146.

All oral negotiations relative to the covenant of seisin on a sale of land were superseded by the deed and a contemporaneous writing executed with relation thereto. Morehouse v. Northern Land Co., 68 Mont. 96, 216 Pac. 792.

Under this section and section 10517, when a contract has been reduced to writing its contents cannot be added to, contradicted, altered or varied by parol or extrinsic evidence, and the writing supersedes all oral negotiations concerning its matter which preceded, accompanied or led up to its execution. Webber v. Killorn et al., 66 Mont. 130, 212 Pac. 852.

INTERPRETATION.

7527. Contracts—How to be interpreted.

The terms of an oil and gas lease must be construed most strongly against the lessee and in favor of the lessor. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 235 Pac. 761.

Cited in Union Central Life Ins. Co. v. Jensen, 74 Mont. 70, 76, 237 Pac. 518; United States Nat. Bank v. Chappell, 71 Mont. 553, 566, 230 Pac. 1084; Hinerman

v. Baldwin et al., 67 Mont. 417, 433, 215 Pac. 1103; as section 5025, Revised Codes, in Comeford v. U. S. F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 259, 196 Pac. 984; White v. Hulls et al., 59 Mont. 98, 103, 195 Pac. 850.

v. U. S. F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 259, 196 Pac. 984; State Bank of Darby v. Pew et al., 59 Mont. 144, 155, 195 Pac. 852; White v. Hulls et al., 59 Mont. 98, 103, 195 Pac. 850; Wing et al. v. Brasher 59 Mont. 10, 19, -94 Pac. 1106.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 273.

7530. Interpretation of written contracts.

Whether a contract is bilateral or unilateral depends upon the intention of the parties, and, when in writing, the intention is to be ascertained from the writing alone if possible, otherwise the usual rules of construction must be applied to ascertain it. Wandell v. Johnson, 71 Mont. 73, 227 Pac. 58.

Where the terms of a contract of shipment of livestock were clear and explicit as to where stops should be made for feeding and resting, parol testimony to the effect that it was customary for shippers to have them stop for those purposes at another point was inadmissible. Cook et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 573, 203 Pac. 512.

Cited in Peterson v. Nelson, 77 Mont. 539, 550, 252 Pac. 368; Humble v. St. John et al., 72 Mont. 519, 522, 234 Pac. 475; Wandell v. Johnson, 71 Mont. 73, 76, 227 Pac. 58; Wheeler v. James, 70 Mont. 37, 43, 223 Pac. 900; Emerson-Brantingham I. Co. v. Raugstad, 65 Mont. 297, 304, 211 Pac. 305; as section 5028, Revised Codes, in Cook et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 573, 586, 203 Pac. 512; Comeford v. U. S. F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 259, 196 Pac. 984; State Bank of Darby v. Pew et al., 59 Mont. 144, 155, 195 Pac. 852.

7532. Effect to be given to every part of contract.

Cited in Kasun v. Todevich, 71 Mont. 315, 319, 229 Pac. 714; Emerson-Brantingham I. Co. v. Raugstad, 65 Mont. 297, 304, 211 Pac. 305; Esselstyn v. Meyer & Chapman State Bank, 63 Mont. 461, 473, 208 Pac. 910; as section 5030, Revised Codes, in State Bank of Darby v. Pew et al., 59 Mont. 144, 155, 195 Pac. 852; Wing et al. v. Brasher, 59 Mont. 10, 20, 194 Pac. 1106.

7533. Several contracts—When taken together.

Under this section, providing that several contracts relating to the same matter, between the same parties and made as parts of substantially one transaction, must be taken together, stipulations embodied in a mortgage become a part of the note securing which it is given even though the note contains no mention of the mortgage. Vande Veegaete v. Vande Veegaete, 75 Mont. 52, 234 Pac. 1082.

An application to an insurance company for a loan "payable at the home office" of the company, requesting interest coupons to be sent to a certain bank "and at my risk until payments made are actually received by the company at its home office," signed by the applicant, was not a contract within the meaning of this section, providing that several contracts relating to the same matter are to be taken together, and therefore refusal to admit it to be considered in connection with the note and mortgage executed pursuant to the application was proper. Denhart et al. v. Union Central Life Ins. Co., 74 Mont. 104, 239 Pac. 773.

Several contracts relating to the same matter and made as parts of substantially the same transaction must be taken together for all purposes. United States Nat. Bank v. Chappell, 71 Mont. 553, 230 Pac. 1084.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 299.

7534. Interpretation in favor of contract.

A telegram, "Wire lowest price you will sell the 7000 S. & W. yearling ewes" and an answering telegram, "Lowest price on S. & W. yearling ewes eleven fifty this subject to immediate acceptance," held together with custom and usage and in view of sections 7534, 7537 and 7538, Revised Codes of 1921, to evidence a complete contract for the sale of the sheep, where defendant's offer was accepted within twenty-four hours, as against the objection that there was no meeting of the minds of the parties upon the price that price could only be determined on delivery and that the offer was not accepted immediately. Story v. Stanfield, 275 Fed. 401.

tlekamp et al. v. Watkins et al., 70 Mont. 391, 397, 225 Pac. 1003.

7537. Law of place.

A lease was not void for failing to designate the time and place for a division of the crops provided for, since under this section, any uncertainty in that respect was determinable by the custom or usage observed in the vicinity in the light of the surrounding facts and circumstances bearing upon the transaction (section 7538). McDonald et al. v. McNich et al., 63 Mont. 308, 206 Pac. 1096.

tion of the writing. Kasun v. Todevich, 71 Mont. 315, 229 Pac. 714.

7547. Necessary incidents implied.

Where a deed to a tract of farm land expressly conveyed a water right sufficient in amount to irrigate the acreage sold, all other rights theretofore used in connection with the land were impliedly excluded and did not pass under the general appurtenance clause in the deed. Lensing v. Day & Hansen Security Co., 67 Mont. 382, 215 Pac. 999.

A lease of agricultural lands which did not impose upon either party the work of preparing them for crops or provide who should furnish seed, bear the expense of harvesting, extra help, etc., was not void for uncertainty, it being implied under this section, from the fact that the lessees were to have possession for the purpose of producing crops, that they were to do these things. McDonald et al. v. McNish et al., 63 Mont. 308, 206 Pac. 1096.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 311.

7548. Time of performance of contract.

Where one buys personal property at a stipulated price and no time of payment is agreed upon, the law fixes the time of delivery as the time of payment, and the rule declared by this section, that if no time is specified for the performance of an act, a reasonable time for performance is allowed, has no application. Burden v. Elling State Bank, 76 Mont. 24, 46 A. L. R. 906, 245 Pac. 958.

Failure of a contract for the development of mining claims to provide a specified time within which defendants should begin operations and prosecute the work of development to completion is alone insufficient to void the contract, since under this section they were allowed a reasonable time within which to do the acts required. *Lee v. A grazing lease, providing for the grazing of an average of 9,000 head of cattle and that any excess over 11,500 head should be paid for at the rate of $4.50 per head in addition to the rental specified, was held not invalid as providing a penalty or liquidated damages in violation of sections 7556, 7557, such provision being merely a stipulated sum to be paid for a specific privilege, namely to graze cattle in excess of 9,000 and up to the limit of 11,500 and such grazing did not constitute a breach of the contract. *Kirby v. EXTINCTION OF CONTRACTS—RESCISSION—ALTERATION—CANCELLATION.

7564. Rescission extinguishes contract.

Cited in Hollingsworth v. Ruckman, 72 Mont. 147, 156, 232 Pac. 180.

7565. When party may rescind.

A buyer cannot rescind a sale of personal property on the ground of failure of consideration until he has been disturbed in his possession or otherwise suffered damages. Courtney v. Gordon, 74 Mont. 408, 241 Pac. 233.

The purchaser under an executory land contract is not entitled to rescind on the ground of failure of title in the vendor so long as the latter is not in default. Wilson v. Corcoran et al., 73 Mont. 529, 237 Pac. 521.

Facts examined and held not to constitute grounds for rescission of a contract for misrepresentation in Edwards et al. v. Muri, 73 Mont. 339, 237 Pac. 209.

Where holders of contracts executed by an irrigation company had surrendered them for stock in a mutual irrigation company, its successor, with knowledge that each share of stock did not represent a fixed or certain number of inches of water, that in dry seasons the available water was prorated, etc., they were not entitled years afterward to rescind the contract of exchange on the ground of fraudulent representations; their failure to take prompt action to rescind and to restore the status quo barring their right to maintain the action. Dyk et al. v. Buell Land Co. et al., 70 Mont. 557, 227 Pac. 71.

The parties to an executory contract of sale of real property may terminate it by mutual consent independently of any provisions in the contract permitting them to do so. Ogg v. Herman et al., 71 Mont. 10, 227 Pac. 476.

Neither the remedy afforded by this section giving a party to a contract the right to rescind on the ground of fraud, among others, nor that granted by section 8726, under which he may have the contract reformed on the same ground, is exclusive, each being independent of the other; hence the defrauded party may elect to pursue either remedy. Campana v. Dobry, 69 Mont. 240, 221 Pac. 540.

Subdivision 4 of this section, authorizing rescission if consideration for the contract fails in a material respect from any cause, applies only to executory, not executed, contracts, i. e., where there has been a change in the situation causing the consideration to fail between the time of its making and its execution. Simeon v. Klenze, 66 Mont. 341, 213 Pac. 440.

The buyer of a promissory note secured by mortgages on real and personal property, subject to prior liens which were foreclosed by their holders, rendering the security valueless, but through no fault of the seller of the note, had no cause of action for rescission (no fraud or deceit having been practiced upon him) under any of the provisions of this section. Simeon v. Klenze, 66 Mont. 341, 213 Pac. 440.

If false representations were held out to plaintiff as an inducement for the execution of notes in payment of a subscription for corporate stock, upon which it acted, the obligation became a nullity and the subscriber may rescind. Equity Co-operative Assn. v. Milling Co., 63 Mont. 26, 206 Pac. 349.

Muri*, 73 Mont. 339, 347, 237 Pac. 209; Ogg v. Herman et al., 71 Mont. 10, 20, 227 Pac. 476; Bump et al. v. Geddes, 70 Mont. 425, 431, 226 Pac. 512.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 770; vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 389.

7567. Rescission—How effected.

The requirement of this section that before a party can rescind a contract he must restore, or offer to restore, to the other party everything of value received under it, were sufficiently met by an allegation in a taxpayer's complaint that articles purchased under a fraudulent contract by defendant school trustees were in the school building and could be restored to the seller by the court's decree, the rule being that where restoration has been rendered impossible through no fault of plaintiff he may have relief, particularly if the court by its decree is able to bring about restoration. School Dist. No. 2 v. Richards et al., 62 Mont. 141, 205 Pac. 206.

By continuing in possession of ranch property for more than five months after commencement of suit to rescind, the vendee waived his right of rescission under this section, making it incumbent upon a party desiring to rescind to tender back possession and to keep the tender good by removal from the premises. Fontaine v. Lyng et al., 61 Mont. 590, 202 Pac. 1112.

In an action for the cancellation of notes given for the purchase of farm machinery, absence of allegation and proof that plaintiff had restored everything of value he had received from defendants bars him from recovery. Rowe v. Emerson-Brantingham Co., 61 Mont. 73, 201 Pac. 316.

Under this section one desiring to rerescind a contract must act promptly upon discovery of the facts which entitle him to rescind and he is aware of his right to rescind, and restore or offer to restore, to the other party everything of value which he has received from him under the contract. Smith v. Christie et al., 60 Mont. 604, 201 Pac. 1011.

Cited in St. Onge et al. v. Blakely et al., 76 Mont. 1, 13, 245 Pac. 532; Edwards et al. v. Muri, 73 Mont. 339, 347,

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 763; vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 385.

7569. Written contracts—How modified.

Where plaintiff in an action on a written contract relies upon an alteration thereof by a subsequent executed oral agreement, he must plead it; in the absence of such a pleading testimony of the alteration is inadmissible. Hunt et al. v. S. Y. Cattle Co., 75 Mont. 594, 244 Pac. 480.

Parol testimony of an oral unexecuted agreement by the tenant holding under a written lease that he would surrender the lease and vacate the premises as soon as the landlord could procure a new tenant was inadmissible under this section. Quong et al. v. McEvoy et al., 70 Mont. 99, 224 Pac. 266.

Since under this section a written agreement may be modified by an executed oral one, where parties had executed a portion of their engagement and then committed the remainder to writing, parol evidence of the part which had been executed was admissible. Webber v. Killorn et al., 66 Mont. 130, 212 Pac. 852.

Under this section a written contract is subject to alteration or modification by a subsequent agreement in writing or by an executed oral agreement. Hurley v. Great Falls Baseball Assn., 59 Mont. 21, 195 Pac. 559.

Cited in Humble v. St. John et al., 72 Mont. 519, 526, 234 Pac. 475; Cobb v. Warren, 64 Mont. 10, 18, 208 Pac. 928.

7574. Fraudulent deceit.

Under this section acquisition of another's property by deceit is illegal, and all acts done in furtherance of a purpose to so acquire it become tainted with the illegality, although if performed without the unlawful purpose in view, they might of themselves be innocent. Biering et al. v. Ringling, 74 Mont. 176, 240 Pac. 829.

While the mere making of a promise which the promisor fails or refuses to perform does not ordinarily constitute actionable fraud, where, by reason of the promise made with an intention not to perform it but to deceive the promisee and induce him to act where he would not have acted, and he acts, so changing his position that it is impossible to place him in statu quo, an action for fraud lies. McIntyre et al. v. Dawes, 71 Mont. 367, 229 Pac. 846.

CHAPTER 16.FORM OF CONTRACT—FILING OF CONDITIONAL SALES CONTRACT.*7581. Sale defined.

A sale as distinguished from an agreement to sell is the actual transfer of title from the grantor to the grantee, an agreement to sell being a contract to be performed in the future, which, if fulfilled, results in a sale. Franzke v. Fergus County et al., 76 Mont. 150, 245 Pac. 962.

7590. Form of such covenants.

Where a warranty deed to real property purports to convey the realty itself and not merely the grantor's right, title and interest in it, the covenant of warranty that "the grantor hereby covenants that he will forever warrant and defend" the grantee's "right, title and interest in and to the said premises . . .

against all and every person" etc., is one of general warranty and quiet enjoyment. Green v. Baker, 66 Mont. 568, 214 Pac. 88.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 751.

CHAPTER 17.FORM OF CONTRACT—FILING OF CONDITIONAL SALES CONTRACTS.*7591. Contract for sale of personal property.

In order to take an oral contract for the sale of personal property out of the statute of frauds, the note or memorandum thereof referred to in this section must be so drawn that the essentials of the contract may be ascertained without resort to oral evidence, the rule being complied with if the material elements of the contract are stated in general terms. Lewis v. Aronow, 77 Mont. 348, 251 Pac. 146.

In an action for breach of contract of sale of cattle where defendant company was sought to be held liable under an arrangement made over the telephone by a third person who had never been its agent and was not specifically authorized by it to act for it, and who after completion of the conversation assured the buyer that defendant would take the cattle and thereupon paid a part of the purchase price, defendant never making any payment whatever, held that the payment was not made by the buyer and therefore the case was not taken out of the statute of frauds by such part payment. Mahoney Brothers v. Hansen Packing Co., 67 Mont. 120, 215 Pac. 506.

Discharge of existing debt (or crediting indebtedness) as part payment which will take contract out of statute of frauds, note, 23 A. L. R. 473.

7594. Filing contracts for sale of personal property. All contracts, notes, and instruments for the transfer or sale of personal property, where the title stipulated to remain in the vendor until the payment of the purchase price, or some part thereof, shall be in writing, and the original or true copy thereof, certified by the county clerk and recorder, shall be filed with the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein said personal property was situated at the time of the execution of said contract, note or other instrument for the transfer or sale of said personal property, if the vendee resides without said county, the original or a certified copy thereof shall be filed in the county where the vendee resides, otherwise, any such contract, note, or instrument is void as to bona fide purchasers, mortgagees, or attaching creditors of such property prior to such filing.

And. Sec. 1, Ch. 145, L. 1925.

A conditional sale contract (subject, an automobile) must, under this section, be filed in the county where the property was at the time of the execution of the contract, and not in an adjoining county to which it was immediately removed, the home of the conditional vendee where it was kept and used. (Mr. Justice Holloway dissenting.) Fergus Motor Co. v. Sorenson, 73 Mont. 122, 235 Pac. 422.

A certified copy of a conditional sale contract filed with a county clerk, the original of which was not acknowledged or proved and certified, was inadmissible for the purpose of showing, in an action for conversion of the property, that one other than plaintiff was its owner. Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al., 72 Mont. 345, 232 Pac. 90.

A contract for the sale of an article wherein it was stipulated that title should remain in the vendor until the purchase price was paid, construed as a conditional sale contract under this section, and held not susceptible of construction as one of bailment. Hodson et al. v. O'Keeffe, 71 Mont. 322, 229 Pac. 722.

Where personalty had been levied upon before a conditional sale contract covering it was filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder, it was impressed with the lien which continued in full force and effect until judgment, nothing in the meantime transpiring to destroy it, rendering the contract void as to the attaching creditor, under this section. Billings Hardware Co. v. Bryan, 63 Mont. 14, 206 Pac. 418.

CHAPTER 48.

TRUSTS IN GENERAL—NATURE AND CREATION.

7882. What constitutes one a trustee.

The term "fiduciary or confidential relation" is one founded upon trust or confidence and precludes the idea of profit or advantage resulting from the dealings of the parties and the person in whom the confidence is reposed. Kerrigan v. O'Meara, 71 Mont. 1, 227 Pac. 819.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 123.

7885. How created as to trustee.

In order to bring about a trust relationship so as to bind the trustee, there must have been some act or declaration by the trustee indicating an acceptance of the trust. Wood v. Robbins et al., 67 Mont. 409, 215 Pac. 1101.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 154.

7886. Involuntary trustee, who is.

Cited in Kerrigan v. O'Meara, 71 Mont. 1, 5, 227 Pac. 819.

7887. Involuntary trust resulting from fraud, etc.

While a bankrupt, during the pendency of bankruptcy proceedings against him may settle a suit brought by him, he holds any proceeds so received as trustee for his creditors, and, if the settlement is made with the present intent to misapply the proceeds, for any such misapplication the parties making payment must make reparation, if at the time of the settlement, they had reasonable grounds for believing that the bankrupt intended such a conversion. Gunther v. Home Ins. Co. et al., 286 Fed. 396.

CHAPTER 49.

TRUSTS IN GENERAL—OBLIGATIONS OF TRUSTEES AND OF THIRD PERSON.

7888. Trustee's obligation to good faith.

By this section and section 7894, it is made the duty of a trustee to act in the utmost good faith to those for whom he acts, and failure of the manager of a syndicate to inform those to whom sales of units were made through the use of the mails, that by contracts made by him, approximately fifty per cent of the proceeds of sales was paid as a commission and expenses to sales agents, was a breach of trust and a fraud upon them. Campbell v. United States, 12 Fed. (2d) 873.

Cited in State ex rel. Rankin v. Banking Corp. of Montana, 77 Mont. 134, 150, 251 Pac. 151.

7890. Certain transactions forbidden.

Since a trustee cannot take part in any transaction concerning the trust in which he is interested, a contract entered into between a common-law trust at a meeting of its board of trustees attended by only two of its three members, and a company of which one of the two was the virtual owner, was a nullity, and the fact that the third member in writing subsequently gave his approval did not render it valid for the reason that under section 6789, the board could act only as a board when assembled as such and not through the individuals composing it. Willard et al. v. Campbell Oil Co. et al., 77 Mont. 30, 248 Pac. 219.

A trustee of a business trust cannot vote as such upon the approval of a claim of his own against the trust; hence where only two of the three trustees constituting the board were present at a meeting when the individual claim of one of the two was presented for allowance and an alleged account stated was agreed upon, the action was void for want of competent representation of the trust. Gordon Campbell Petroleum Co. v. G. Campbell Kevin Syndicate, 75 Mont. 261, 242 Pac. 540.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 134.

7894. Trustee guilty of fraud, when.

Applied with section 7888 in Campbell v. United States, 12 Fed. (2d) 873.

7895. Presumption against trustee.

There is no presumption that a director dealing with his corporation does so in bad faith unless he gains an advantage thereby and if the company is indebted to him on a bona fide claim, he may enforce it by the same method open to any other of its creditors. Mayger v. St. Louis Mining etc. Co., 68 Mont. 492, 219 Pac. 1102.

Under this section, where two of three trustees of a common-law trust were officers of an oil company to which the trustees granted an extension of a drilling lease on lands owned by the trust under circumstances showing lack of good faith, and whose interests were adverse to those of the trust, it will be presumed that the agreement was entered into without consideration and through undue influence. Willard et al. v. Campbell Oil Co. et al., 77 Mont. 30, 248 Pac. 219.

Under this section and sections 5786 and 5792, the law presumes that the delivery by a married woman to her husband of two cashier's checks owned by her, which he cashed, were trusts or loans. Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

Where a deposit of trust funds is unlawfully made with the active participation of the bank, it becomes an involuntary trustee under the trust and may be compelled to place the trust estate in statu quo. Pethybridge v. First State Bank, 75 Mont. 173, 243 Pac. 569.

Applied with sections 7887 and 7901 in Gunther v. Home Ins. Co. et al., 286 Fed. 396.

7930. Agents, general or special.

A local fire insurance agent whose authority was not limited in any way was the general agent of the company—its vice-principal—and as such will be deemed to have had exclusive charge and control of its interests in the city of his location and the region tributary thereto. Wells-Dickey Co. v. American Alliance Ins. Co., 69 Mont. 586, 223 Pac. 489.

Cited in Susser v. Delovage et al., 73 Mont. 354, 359, 236 Pac. 1082; Northwestern E. E. Co. v. Leighton et al., 66 Mont. 529, 537, 213 Pac. 1094.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 693.

7933. Ostensible agency.

Cited in Union Bank & Trust Co. v. Lynn, 73 Mont. 473, 479, 237 Pac. 490; as section 5418, Revised Codes, in Hartt

v. Jahn et al., 59 Mont. 173, 182, 196 Pac. 153.

7939. Form of authority.

Cited as section 5424, Revised Codes, in Hartt v. Jahn et al., 59 Mont. 173, 181, 196 Pac. 153.

7940. Ratification of agent's act.

Before a principal may be said to have ratified an unauthorized act of his agent, it must be shown that the former accepted the results of the act of the latter with intent to ratify and with full knowledge of all the material circumstances. Outlook F. E. Co. v. American S. Co., 70 Mont. 8, 223 Pac. 905.

To constitute ratification of an agent's act, there must be an acceptance by the principal of the results of the act with an intent to ratify and with full knowledge of all the material circumstances. Pew v. McLeish, 62 Mont. 437, 205 Pac. 235.

What amounts to ratification of contract negotiated by agent acting for both parties, note, 48 A. L. R. 926.

What constitutes ratification which will make lender responsible for his agent's exaction of a bonus from the borrower, note, 21 A. L. R. 854.

Wife's acceptance of benefits as rendering her liable for husband's torts, note, 12 A. L. R. 1477.

Insurance company's liability for libel or slander by its agents on theory of ratification, note, 13 A. L. R. 1146.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 776.

7941. Ratification of part of a transaction.

Where at the solicitation of the agent of a bank defendant executed a promissory note, transferred personal property as collateral, and then entered into a written agreement with the agent that the maker should not be held liable on the note, the three contracts constituted but a single transaction, by accepting the benefits flowing from a portion of which the bank, under this section, ratified the whole thereof and was not in a position to assert that in agreeing to relieve defendant from liability on the note the agent exceeded his authority. United States Nat. Bank v. Chappell, 71 Mont. 553, 230 Pac. 1084.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 782.

7942. When ratification void.

This and the following section were cited as sections 5427, 5428, Revised Codes, in Kirkup v. Anaconda Amuse- ment Co., 59 Mont. 469, 478, 17 A. L. R. 441, 197 Pac. 1005.

7943. Ratification not to work injury to third person.

Cited in Corey v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 72 Mont. 383, 398, 233 Pac. 909; as section 5428, Revised Codes, in Kirkup

v. Anaconda Amusement Co., 59 Mont. 469, 478, 17 A. L. R. 441, 197 Pac. 1005.

7945. Measure of agent's authority.

Where the certificate of authority of a local fire insurance agent did not show that he was empowered to waive notice and proof of loss, and there was no proof of ostensible authority in him so to do, the agent was without authority to waive the conditions. Careve v. Phoenix Ins. Co., 67 Mont. 236, 215 Pac. 235.

Cited in Eastman Kodak Co. v. Sibley et al., 72 Mont. 338, 343, 233 Pac. 613; Butte Floral Co. v. Reed, 65 Mont. 138, 152, 211 Pac. 325.

Authority of agent to indorse and transfer commercial paper, note, 12 A. L. R. 111.

Implied authority of agent to bind employer for funeral expenses, note, 29 A. L. R. 457.

Necessity and sufficiency of notice of termination of authority of agent to purchase goods for mercantile business to charge one who has previously dealt with him, note, 43 A. L. R. 1219.

CHAPTER 54.

MUTUAL OBLIGATIONS BETWEEN PRINCIPALS, AGENTS AND THIRD PERSONS.

7957. Principal—How affected by acts of agent within the scope of his authority.

Cited in Healy v. Ginoff et al., 69 Mont. 116, 131, 220 Pac. 539; as section 5442, Revised Codes, in Hoffman v. Roehl et al., 61 Mont. 290, 297, 20 A. L. R. 189, 203 Pac. 349.

7959. Notice to agent—When notice to principal.

Under this section, plaintiff corporation must be deemed to have had notice of the facts known to its manager in entering into an agreement whereby its debtor was released from liabilities by his assignment for the benefit of creditors, and its voluntary acceptance of the benefits of the transaction was equivalent to a consent to it. Stone-Ordean-Wells Co. v. Anderson et al., 66 Mont. 64, 212 Pac. 853.

CHAPTER 55.

DELEGATION AND TERMINATION OF AGENCY.

7973. Subagent, rightfully appointed, represents principal.

An agent of the receiver of the assignee of a promissory note stands in the same position as the receiver, his principal; and a receiver occupies the same position as his insolvent principal prior to the former's appointment. Erlandson

v. Erskine et al., 76 Mont. 537, 248 Pac. 209.

237 Pac. 492; Gardiner v. Eclipse Grocery Co., 72 Mont. 540, 544, 234 Pac. 490.

CHAPTER 58.

PARTNERSHIP IN GENERAL—PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY AND MUTUAL OBLIGATIONS OF PARTNERS.

7984. Partner's interest in partnership property.

Cited as section 5469, Revised Codes, in Mares v. Mares et al., 60 Mont. 36, 52, 199 Pac. 267.

7989. Partners trustees for each other.

Sections 7989-7992 were cited as sections 5474-5477, Revised Codes, in Call v. Marcum, 62 Mont. 73, 77, 203 Pac. 855.

7990. Good faith to be observed between them.

In an action for damages for the wrongful dissolution of a banking partnership, evidence showing that plaintiff changed the combination of the bank safe, so that defendant did not have access thereto, and subsequently removed and secreted all of the assets of the firm in a bank in another city, etc., held to show such breach of faith, and wilful violation of the letter as well as the spirit of the trust imposed upon partners by this section, as justified defendant in dissolving the partnership. Call v. Marcum, 62 Mont. 73, 203 Pac. 855.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 729.

7991. Mutual liability of partners to account.

Cited in Harri v. Farmers' Co-operative Co., 69 Mont. 149, 153, 223 Pac. 109; as section 5476, Revised Codes, in Call v. Marcum, 62 Mont. 73, 77, 203 Pac. 855.

CHAPTER 60.

GENERAL PARTNERSHIP — POWERS, OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITY OF PARTNERS.

7997. Authority of individual partner.

Notes executed by one member of a trading partnership for the benefit of the firm, were partnership obligations, binding upon all its members, in the absence of a showing of bad faith on the part of the contracting partner, and, if bad faith existed, of knowledge thereof on the part of the payee. Reid v. Linder et al., 77 Mont. 406, 251 Pac. 157.

Sections 7997, 7998 were cited in Miles v. Miles, 76 Mont. 375, 379, 247 Pac.

328; Harri v. Farmers' Co-operative Co., 69 Mont. 149, 153, 223 Pac. 109.

Authority of member of farming partnership to execute negotiable paper, note, 9 A. L. R. 372.

Right of one who accepts firm assets or obligation upon account of an individual indebtedness of, or transaction with, a partner, note, 50 A. L. R. 432.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 742.

7998. What authority partner has not.

Under this section, one partner has no authority to dispose of the whole of the partnership property at once, and if so sold, the nonconsenting partner has his action against the purchaser as for a conversion. Kotsakis v. Williamson, 72 Mont. 158, 231 Pac. 1104.

Power of partner to dispose of goodwill of business, note, 5 A. L. R. 1182.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 746.

7999. Partner's acts in bad faith—When ineffectual.

8006. Liability of one held out as partner.

Sections 8006, 8007 were cited in Bresee v. Smith et al., 73 Mont. 312, 317, 237 Pac. 492.

CHAPTER 61.

GENERAL PARTNERSHIP—DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION.

8009. Total dissolution of partnership.

Cited in Reid v. Linder et al., 77 Mont. 406, 421, 251 Pac. 157; as section 5494, Revised Codes, in Mares v. Mares et al., 60 Mont. 36, 45, 52, 199 Pac. 267.

8010. Partial dissolution.

Cited as section 5495, Revised Codes, in Call v. Marcum, 62 Mont. 73, 77, 203 Pac. 855.

8011. Partner entitled to dissolution.

Cited as section 5496, Revised Codes, in Call v. Marcum, 62 Mont. 73, 78, 203 Pac. 855.

8012. Notice of termination.

In the absence of the notice required by this section, of the dissolution of a partnership, the liability of the members of the firm for a note executed to a bank by one of them continued even though at the time of its execution dissolution had been effected, and the maker of it was an officer of the payee bank. Reid v. Linder et al., 77 Mont. 406, 251 Pac. 157.

Salesman's notice of withdrawal as chargeable to principal, note, 43 A. L. R. 748.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 798.

CHAPTER 62.

GENERAL PARTNERSHIP—USE OF FICTITIOUS NAMES.

8019. Fictitious name.

Sections 8019 and 8020 were cited in Gardiner v. Eclipse Grocery Co., 72 Mont.

540, 548, 234 Pac. 490; Canonica v. St. George, 64 Mont. 200, 204, 208 Pac. 607.

8024. Individual using fictitious name in business must file certificate.

If the name under which a business is transacted fairly discloses the true name of the individual (or of each partner in case of a partnership), the statute requiring the filing of a certificate disclosing the true name (or names) does not apply; otherwise the name used is fictitious and the requirement must be met. Canonica v. St. George, 64 Mont. 200, 208 Pac. 607.

Where plaintiff, in an action for work and labor performed, doing business under the fictitious name of "Tony's Tin Shop," in which the special defense that he had not filed the certificate required by this section had been erroneously stricken on motion of plaintiff, had made out a prima facie case and there was not any evidence before the court that he had not complied with the statute, the granting of a nonsuit on the ground that he had not proved compliance with the provisions of the section, was error. Canonica v. St. George, 64 Mont. 200, 208 Pac. 607.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 522.

Statutes as to doing business under assumed name or designation not showing the names of the persons interested, note, 45 A. L. R. 198.

CHAPTER 63.

SPECIAL PARTNERSHIP—FORMATION.

8025. Formation of special partnership.

Cited in State ex rel. Butte etc. Co. v. District Court, 75 Mont. 567, 580, 244 Pac. 489.

8028. Acknowledged and recorded—False statement.

Parol proof of statements alleged to have been made by parties since deceased to an oral contract to devise property by will, being subject to much imperfection and mistake, and there being strong temptation to a dishonest witness to fabricate such evidence, should be received with great caution. Sanger v. Huguenel, 65 Mont. 236, 211 Pac. 349.

Cited in Harwood v. Scott, 65 Mont. 521, 530, 211 Pac. 316.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 224, 262; vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 715.

CHAPTER 66.

MINING PARTNERSHIPS.

8050. When a mining partnership exists.

Such an interest in a mine, under agreement with lessees, as will support claim of a mining partnership as defined by this section, existing between those actually engaged in working the mine, was held not established by the evidence. Crystal

Copper Co. v. Gaido et al., 5 Fed. (2d) 881.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 439.

CHAPTER 68.

PARTIES—INSURABLE INTEREST.

8070. Insurable interest defined.

Cited in Pasherstnik v. Continental Ins. Co., 67 Mont. 19, 22, 214 Pac. 603.

CHAPTER 69.

CONCEALMENT AND REPRESENTATION.

8085. What must be disclosed.

Cited as section 5570, Revised Codes, in Williams v. Mutual Life Ins. Co. of N. Y., 61 Mont. 66, 72, 201 Pac. 320.

CHAPTER 71.

WARRANTIES—THE PREMIUM.

8132. Return of premium.

Where by the constitution and by-laws of a fraternal insurance society it was made the duty of the insured to notify the insurer of the fact of his suspension from the subordinate lodge, which he failed to do, and forfeiture of the certificate of insurance ipso facto resulted from suspension, but the insurer, without knowledge of the suspension, for seven years thereafter accepted premiums from the insured, his beneficiaries could not have recovered on the certificate in case of his death because of forfeiture, and hence he was entitled to a return of the premiums for failure of consideration under this section. Osborne v. Supreme Lodge etc. Ins. Dept., 69 Mont. 361, 222 Pac. 456.

Rejection of policy by applicant as entitling him to recover back premium previously paid, vol. 41 A. L. R. 644.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 476.

8134. Return for fraud.

Cited in Osborne v. Supreme Lodge etc. Ins. Dept., 69 Mont. 361, 365, 222 Pac. 456.

CHAPTER 72.

LOSS AND NOTICE OF LOSS.

8143. Preliminary proofs.

The provision in a health policy requiring written notice within ten days after commencement of disability from sickness must be read in connection with this section providing that where preliminary proof of loss is required by a policy, the insured need not give such proof as is necessary in a court of justice, it being sufficient if he give the best evidence which it is in his power to give at the time; held, further, that conditions may be such as to relieve insured from giving any notice whatever except that contained in his final proof of disability. Wick v. Western Life & Casualty Co., 60 Mont. 553, 199 Pac. 272.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 570.

8144. Waiver of defects in notice, etc.

Under this section and 8145, defects in proofs of loss sustained by fire may be waived, and were waived by an adjuster of defendant insurance company by advising plaintiff that the proofs exhibited to him, after certain amendments made, were "all right." Morrison v. Concordia Fire Ins. Co. et al., 72 Mont. 97, 231 Pac. 905.

Where insured had failed to furnish a sworn statement of proof of loss as he was required to do under the provisions of the policy, but the company's adjuster, notwithstanding such failure, had made offers of settlement, defendant waived the requirement of the policy, even though the policy provided that such act on the part of its adjuster should not constitute a waiver. Pasherstnik v. Continental Ins. Co., 67 Mont. 19, 214 Pac. 603.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 575.

8145. Waiver of delay.

Under this section, where suit on a fire insurance policy is commenced within time, delay in the presentation of notice or proof of loss is waived if caused by the act of the insurer, or if he omits to make prompt and specific objection on that ground; but to entitle the insured to take advantage of this provision he must plead the waiver. Krause v. Insurance Co. of North America, 73 Mont. 169, 235 Pac. 406.

Notwithstanding a clause in a hail insurance policy that defendant company's agents had not the power to orally waive any of its provisions, they may, under this section, be held to have waived a provision therein for proof of loss by failing to promptly advise the insured, in their negotiations for settlement, that delay in payment of the loss was caused by absence of proof of loss or that the company would rely upon his omission to make the necessary proof. Ames v. Minneapolis F. & M. Ins. Co., 69 Mont. 177, 220 Pac. 747.

Cited in La Bonte v. Mutual Fire Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 12, 241 Pac. 631.

Applied with section 8144 in Morrison v. Concordia Fire Ins. Co. et al., 72 Mont. 97, 231 Pac. 905; Pasherstnik v. Continental Ins. Co., 67 Mont. 19, 27, 214 Pac. 603.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 575.

CHAPTER 75.

FIRE INSURANCE.

8160. Assignee, etc., of life policy need have no interest.

A life insurance policy provided that an assignment thereof should be binding upon the company only if executed upon blanks furnished by it. Notwithstanding this provision of the policy, an assignment was valid though not made upon one of its blanks. Capital Finance Corp. v. Metropolitan L. I. Co., 75 Mont. 460, 243 Pac. 1061.

CHAPTER 77.

INDEMNITY.

8163. Indemnity defined.

Where, for the purpose of inducing the purchase of corporate stock, the seller gave the buyer a promissory note payable in three years, the back of which bore the indorsement that when the stock had paid dividends to the amount of the purchase price, the note should be void, the agreement, evidenced by the note and indorsement, was one of indemnity within the meaning of this section, and not of guaranty. Peterson v. Nelson, 77 Mont. 539, 252 Pac. 368.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 977.

8169. Rules for interpreting agreement of indemnity.

In an action on an indemnity policy of the nature of the above, the burden is upon the insurer to rebut the presumption provided for by this section, that if after request the insurer neglects to defend the person indemnified, a recovery against the latter suffered by him in good faith is conclusive in his favor against the insurer. Independent M. & C. Co. v. Aetna L. I. Co., 68 Mont. 152, 216 Pac. 1109.

Defense by insurer of action against insured as affecting provision making payment of judgment condition of liability, note, 37 A. L. R. 637.

Construction and operation of clause in policy prohibiting assured from incurring expense, note, 34 A. L. R. 730.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 986.

CHAPTER 78.

GUARANTY—DEFINITION, CREATION AND INTERPRETATION.

8171. Guaranty defined.

For discussion of distinction between the contract of guaranty and that of suretyship, and holding that the principal debtor and guarantor cannot be joined as defendants, see Butte Machinery Co. v. Carbonate Hill Mining Co., 75 Mont. 167, 242 Pac. 956.

Although the contract of guaranty is collateral to the contract of the principal debtor, the two are distinct and independent, there being, as to the contract of guaranty, no privity, mutuality or joint liability between the principal debtor and his guarantor. Baroch v. Greater Montana Oil Co., 70 Mont. 93, 225 Pac. 800.

Contracts of guaranty distinguished from those of surety in Emerson-Brant- ingham Co. v. Raugstad, 65 Mont. 297, 211 Pac. 305.

Pollard*, 74 Mont. 142, 150, 238 Pac. 594; Muri v. Young, 75 Mont. 213, 218, 245 Pac. 956; Minneapolis Thresh. Machine Co. v. Jameison, 70 Mont. 27, 32, 223 Pac. 893; State ex rel. Barnett v. Reynolds et al., 68 Mont. 572, 576, 220 Pac. 525; Mulany v. Murray, 68 Mont. 245, 251, 216 Pac. 1105; Square Butte State Bank v. Ballard, 64 Mont. 554, 560, 210 Pac. 889.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 83.

8173. Necessity of a consideration.

Where a promissory note was not accepted until a guaranty was produced about a week after the execution of the note, and the two instruments were delivered together, plaintiff in an action on the guaranty was not required to show an independent consideration for it, a showing of consideration for the note having been sufficient under this section. Schauer v. Morgan et al., 67 Mont. 455, 216 Pac. 347.

Cited in Doorly v. Goodman, 71 Mont. 529, 537, 230 Pac. 779.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 100.

8174. Guaranty to be in writing, etc.

Where a liability in the nature of a guaranty is imposed by law, it does not fall within the provision of this section requiring a contract of guaranty to be in writing. Muri v. Young, 74 Mont. 213, 245 Pac. 956.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 100; 12 Cal. Jur. 906.

8201. Surety discharged by certain acts of the creditor.

Sections 8201, 8202 were cited in Mutual Oil Co. v. Hamilton et al., 73 Mont. 385, 391, 236 Pac. 545.

CHAPTER 81.RIGHTS OF SURETIES AND CREDITORS.*8203. Surety has rights of guarantor.

Under this section and 8207, the surety on a bond of a road contractor given the state highway commission pursuant to section 1790 acquired an equity in the earnings of the contractor remaining in the hands of the commission, superior to that of a bank to which the contractor had made an assignment of moneys due him under the contract as security for loans extended, and was entitled to have the funds retained by the commission applied in satisfaction of labor and material claims, payment of which was secured by the bond, before any portion of it was paid to the assignee. Lanstrum et al. v. Zumwalt et al., 73 Mont. 502, 237 Pac. 205.

Right of surety or his privies to require creditor to resort to security given by principal before enforcing security given by surety, note, 37 A. L. R. 1262.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 1039, 1070.

8206. The surety acquires the right of the creditor.

An action by a surety for contribution from his cosurety is one on an implied contract for money paid by the former for the use and benefit of the latter, which the latter unconditionally and absolutely is required to pay, under this section, in a definite sum, to wit, his proportion of the amount which plaintiff was required to pay on the undertaking; hence the action is one for the direct payment of money in which attachment may issue. Wall v. Brookman, 72 Mont. 228, 232 Pac. 774.

CHAPTER 86.

MORTGAGES IN GENERAL.

8246. Mortgage defined.

A contract for the cultivation of farm land on shares by the terms of which the land owner reserves title in himself to the lessee's share as security for advances made by him to the lessee is in legal effect a chattel mortgage, and as such, subject to the provision of the chattel mortgage statute with reference to execution and filing. Crone v. Occident Elevator Co. et al., 70 Mont. 211, 224 Pac. 659.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 696.

8251. Mortgage—On what a lien.

8252. Mortgage does not entitle mortgagee to possession.

In the absence of an express agreement between the parties to a mortgage upon land that upon default on the part of the mortgagor, the mortgagee shall have the right to enter and take possession, such right does not exist. Sharp Bros., Inc., v. Bartlett, 76 Mont. 415, 248 Pac. 199.

Quaere: In an action in ejectment, may plaintiff's mortgagee intervene, in view of this section and section 9495, providing that a mortgagee is not entitled to the possession of the property mortgaged unless possession is specially authorized by its terms, and that a mortgage of real property shall not be deemed a conveyance. Stack v. Coyle, 59 Mont. 444, 197 Pac. 747.

8253. Mortgage not a personal obligation.

Cited in Kinyon Inv. Co. v. Belmont State Bank, 69 Mont. 282, 288, 221 Pac. 286.

8255. Subsequently acquired title inures to mortgagee.

Where defendant in foreclosure action had executed a promissory note secured by a mortgage upon a desert land entry which, after final certificate had been issued to him, was canceled, whereupon he entered the land as a homestead and received patent, the lien of the mortgage on the desert entry attached to the homestead entry and defendant was estopped, under this section to claim the benefit of section 2296, U. S. Revised Statutes, providing that lands acquired under the homestead laws shall not in any event become liable to the satisfaction of debts contracted prior to issuance of patent. Stockmen's Nat. Bank v. Sutherland, 71 Mont. 457, 230 Pac. 369.

The rule declared by this section that title acquired by the mortgagor subsequent to the execution of the mortgage inures to the mortgagee as security for the debt, applies to land, title to which at the time the mortgage was given was in the federal government and was subsequently acquired therefrom under the homestead laws. Lohman State Bank v. Grim, 69 Mont. 444, 222 Pac. 1052.

A mortgage upon a desert land entry given by the entryman as security for an antecedent debt before final proof made or patent issued is enforceable against the mortgagor after patent issues to him, the title thus subsequently acquired by the mortgagor inuring to the benefit of the mortgagee, under this section and the mortgagor being estopped to deny the validity of the mortgage. Selway v. Daut et al., 67 Mont. 262, 215 Pac. 646.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 855.

8259. Recording assignments of mortgages. An assignment of a real estate mortgage may be recorded in like manner as a mortgage and such record shall operate as due and legal notice to the mortgagor and all persons subsequently deriving title to the mortgage from the assignor and all persons interested.

Such assignment shall contain the assignee's postoffice address at his place of residence and shall not be entitled to be recorded unless it contains such postoffice address.

8267. Period of lien of mortgage—Extension.

Where the record on appeal in a foreclosure suit was silent as to when the indebtedness secured by the mortgage became due, or that a certain debt secured by it had been paid, the finding that the plaintiff mortgagee was entitled to a decree will be presumed supported by the evidence, thus rendering untenable the contention that the mortgage had expired under this section, and that payment of the amount due had been made. First Nat. Bank of Missoula v. Marlowe et al., 71 Mont. 461, 230 Pac. 374.

This section, declaring that a mortgage on real property, duly recorded, is good and valid against the creditors of the mortgagor or subsequent purchasers or encumbrancers, for eight years and no longer, unless the renewal affidavit provided for therein be filed, is not a recording statute, affecting notice, but is a statute of limitations, affecting the remedy, the effect of which is that such a mortgage, in the absence of the renewal affidavit, ceases to be of binding force as against the persons mentioned and becomes unenforceable by the lapse of eight years from the maturity of the debt or obligation secured. Morrison v. Farmers' etc. State Bank, 70 Mont. 146, 225 Pac. 123.

This section, construed as a statute of limitations, is not open to attack on constitutional grounds. Morrison v. Farmers' etc. State Bank, 70 Mont. 146, 225 Pac. 123.

8273. Certain corporate mortgages—How governed. All mortgages, deeds of trust, or assignments for the benefit of creditors, of both real and personal property, executed by a corporation, are governed by the law relating to mortgages, or deeds of trust of real property and must be recorded in the office of the county clerk of every county where any part of said property is situated, and the same are valid, notwithstanding the possession of such property is retained by such corporation, but any such mortgages, deeds of trust, or assignments for the benefit of creditors must be accompanied by the affidavit of good faith required to accompany mortgages of personal property, which said affidavit may be made on behalf of any such corporation by the president, secretary or managing agent thereof.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 39, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 88.

MORTGAGES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

8275. What property may be mortgaged—Advances—Preferences.

Any interest in personal property which is capable of being transferred may be mortgaged. Such property or interest may be mortgaged to secure existing debts, to secure debts created simultaneously with the execution of the mortgage and to secure advances then in contemplation but to be made in the future. Amounts constituting existing debts or obligations shall have a preference lien as against future advances, and advances made under the terms of the mortgage shall have preference in the order in which said amounts are advanced by the mortgagee to the mortgagor. The total amount of all advances contemplated and to be subject to mortgage protection must be stated in the mortgage and with the original debt shall constitute a preference lien for the life of the mortgage for the maximum amount provided in the mortgage as against all mortgages and other intervening liens subsequent in date to the time of the filing of the mortgage; excepting that the lien for services rendered by a thresherman as specified in section 8366 of the Revised Codes of Montana 1921, shall be prior to and have precedence over any mortgage, encumbrance or other lien upon said grain or other crops; also excepting the lien for the seed furnished for the purpose of growing this particular crop as specified in section 8359, which said seed lien shall have priority over all other liens and encumbrances thereon except the said thresherman's liens and also excepting any other lien given priority by statute. The mortgagee shall upon demand of the mortgagor or a creditor furnish a statement of all such advances and amounts paid on the principal sum secured, provided such statement shall not impair or affect the lien created for all advances.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 32, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 116, L. 1925.

Subsequently to be acquired personal property may be mortgaged, provided it is such as is capable of delivery, and such as may be taken possession of by the mortgagee upon its acquisition by the mortgagor. Security State Bank v. Mariette, 69 Mont. 536, 223 Pac. 114.

While a mortgagor of personal property may include in the mortgage property thereafter to be acquired by him, such property must be described so accurately that third persons consulting the record may be put on notice as to what is intended to be mortgaged, and if not so described as to enable the sheriff to identify such property, the mortgage as to it is void as against such third persons. Hackney v. Birely, 67 Mont. 155, 215 Pac. 642.

The purchaser of personal property under a conditional sale contract whereby title was reserved in the seller until full payment made had a mortgageable interest in it. Hoeller v. Moog et al., 60 Mont. 74, 198 Pac. 367.

Sections 8275-8291, were cited as chapter 86, session Laws of the Laws of the Thirteenth Legislative Assembly, in Fergus Motor Co. v. Sorenson, 73 Mont. 122, 130, 235 Pac. 422; as chapter 86, L. 1913, in First Nat. Bank v. Montana Emporium Co., 59 Mont. 584, 593, 197 Pac. 994.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 46.

8276. Execution—Affidavit of good faith—Copy of mortgage and receipt.

Under the rule that an instrument not entitled to record, though actually recorded, does not impart any constructive notice whatever, held that, where a chattel mortgage was not entitled to filing because of the absence of a receipt attached thereto showing that the mortgagee had surrendered to the mortgagor a copy of the mortgage its filing imparted no notice to the conditional vendor of the property, mortgaged by the vendee after the sale, and the contract of sale was properly admitted in evidence in defense to an action for the conversion of the property taken by defendant vendor under the provisions of the contract upon condition broken. Doering v. Selby et al., 75 Mont. 416, 244 Pac. 485.

This section as amended provides that in order to entitle a chattel mortgage to be filed it must have attached thereto a receipt showing that the mortgagor received a copy of the mortgage. A receipt appeared immediately below the signature of the mortgagor and above the acknowledgment and affidavit of good faith and recited that a "true, full and complete copy of the foregoing mortgage" had been received. Held, that the statute must be liberally construed, that, so construed, the contention that the mortgage was not entitled to be filed because the receipt referred only to what preceded it in point of arrangement and not to what followed and was therefore incomplete has no merit, and that the mortgage conformed substantially to the above requirement. Swords v. Occident Elevator Co., 72 Mont. 189, 232 Pac. 189.

Where one takes a second mortgage on chattels with actual notice of the existence of the prior lien, the fact that the first mortgage does not have an affidavit of good faith attached thereto does not render the second mortgage superior to the first one. Fergus County v. First State Bank of Hilger, 67 Mont. 1, 213 Pac. 1114.

In an action by a trustee in bankruptcy to set aside chattel mortgages given by the bankrupt, the question of whether the mortgages were in fraud of creditors under sections 8276 and 8603 and 8606, being intended to hinder and delay them, under the evidence, which was conflicting, was for the jury. Ignatius v. Farmers' State Bank of Havre, 272 Fed. 33.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 53, 55.

8278. Filing of mortgages in office of county clerk.

The provision of this section for the filing of chattel mortgages is intended to impart notice only to creditors of the mortgagor and subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers in good faith for value. Moore et al. v. Crittenden et al., 62 Mont. 309, 204 Pac. 1035.

Cited in Hackney v. Birely, 67 Mont. 155, 160, 215 Pac. 642.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 60.

8279. Duration of liens.

The record of a chattel mortgage as provided by this section is equivalent to a delivery of the property by the mortgagor to and its retention by the mortgagee, and therefore whatever cannot be delivered and retained, except as to property potentially in being in which the mortgagor has a personal interest, cannot be placed of record. Hackney v. Birely, 67 Mont. 155, 215 Pac. 642.

Cited in Morrison v. Farmers' etc. State Bank, 70 Mont. 146, 154, 225 Pac. 123.

8280. Renewal of mortgages—Affidavit.

Cited in Morrison v. Farmers' etc. State Bank, 70 Mont. 146, 153, 225 Pac. 123.

8286. Foreclosure of mortgages—By action—By sale of property—Indemnity bond and notice of sale.

The requirements of this section, under which a mortgagee of chattels may have the same sold on default of the mortgagor in execution of the power granted to him by the terms of the mortgage, must be strictly complied with; otherwise jurisdiction to make it is absent and the sale does not divest the mortgagor of title. Trudell v. Hingham State Bank, 62 Mont. 557, 205 Pac. 667.

Where the notice of sale of chattel mortgaged property stated that a sale of a portion of it would be had at a certain hour at a given place, and sale of another portion of it at a different place and hour, and all of it was sold at one place in violation of the statute and the provisions of the mortgage, the sale was void. Trudell v. Hingham State Bank, 62 Mont. 557, 205 Pac. 667.

Cited as section 5769, Revised Codes, in Samuell v. Moore Merc. Co. et al., 62 Mont. 232, 236, 204 Pac. 376.

8290. Mortgage on growing crop, and the lien thereof.

Under this section the lien of a mortgage upon a growing crop for the purchase price of farm machinery attaches only to the crop next maturing after the execution of the mortgage. Crone v. Occidental Elevator Co. et al., 70 Mont. 211, 224 Pac. 659.

In an action for the conversion of grain, the fact that defendant had actual knowledge of a contract made in 1919 under which plaintiff lessor of farm land claimed to be entitled to the possession of a crop grown by the lessee as security for advances made by him to the lessee did not deprive him of his right as mortgagee of a crop grown by the lessee in 1921, the lien created in 1919 not attaching to the crop of 1921 under this section. Crone v. Occidental Elevator Co. et al., 70 Mont. 211, 224 Pac. 659.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 46.

8290.1. Chattel mortgage may include increase when. A chattel mortgage given upon livestock, may, if specified therein, include all increase of like kind or progeny, and wool of such mortgaged animals, from year to year, during the life of the mortgage.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 70.

8291. Penalty for removing mortgaged property or that covered by vendor's liens. Every person who, after mortgaging any personal property or having executed a conditional sale contract or agreement under the terms of which the title to said property remains in the vendor, except locomotives, engines, rolling stock or a railroad, steamboat machinery and vessels in actual use, removes or causes to be removed, or permits the removal of any such property during the existence of the lien thereon created by such mortgage, or while title to said property remains in the vendor, from the county where said property was situated at the time of the execution of such mortgage or such conditional sale contract or agreement; or, in case of a mortgaged crop, from the land on which the same was grown, or sells or removes said property or crop, or any part thereof, without the consent in writing of the mortgagee or vendor first had and obtained shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, but if such sale be made or removal had with intent to deprive the mortgagee or vendor of his claim thereto or interest therein, such person shall be guilty of larceny and shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as for larceny of the property so removed or disposed of.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 23, L. 1923.

This section, forbidding the sale of mortgaged chattels without the consent of the mortgagee, is designed for his protection and does not declare such a sale void or impose any penalty upon the purchaser; and where a sale is made, the title of the mortgagor passes, the buyer acquiring whatever equity there is in the property over and above the amount due upon the mortgage. Puckett v. Hopkins et al., 63 Mont. 137, 206 Pac. 442. Cited in Fergus Motor Co. v. Sorenson, 73 Mont. 122, 132, 235 Pac. 422.

8293. When contract is to be deemed a pledge.

The lien of a pledge is dependent upon possession and a pledge is therefore not valid until the property pledged is delivered to the pledgee or to a pledgeholder. Goriez v. Rock Creek Ditch Co. et al., 67 Mont. 566, 216 Pac. 778.

For discussion of facts constituting a pledge of corporate stock, see Goriez v. Rock Creek Ditch Co. et al., 67 Mont. 566, 216 Pac. 778.

8312. Pledgee's sale of securities.

Under this section, a pledgee bank to which collateral in the shape of promissory notes had been sent to secure a loan had no right to sell them but could only collect them when due. Springhorn v. Roberts et al., 77 Mont. 395, 250 Pac. 1112.

Under this section, where a bank had pledged to another bank promissory notes owned by it, as security for indebtedness due, the latter bank was without authority to sell the collateral upon insolvency of the former, but was bound to hold and collect it when due and apply the proceeds to the payment of the debt secured. State v. American Bank & Trust Co., 76 Mont. 445, 247 Pac. 336.

Where the contract under which a bank delivered negotiable paper as security for a debt due the pledgee which was thereafter sold by the latter contrary to the provisions of this section was not put in evidence in a proceeding against the receiver of the pledgor bank by the purchaser to have his claim against the bank allowed, it will be presumed that the contract was not in contravention of the statute. State v. American Bank & Trust Co., 76 Mont. 445, 247 Pac. 336.

Constructive delivery of accounts by a debtor to a creditor for the purpose of collection is sufficient to satisfy the rule that a pledge is dependent upon possession of the thing pledged. Savage Tire Sales Co. v. Stuart et al., 61 Mont. 524, 203 Pac. 364.

CHAPTER 91.

MECHANICS' LIENS.

8339. Who entitled to lien. Every mechanic, miner, machinist, architect, foreman, engineer, builder, lumberman, artisan, workman, laborer, and any other person, performing any work and labor upon or furnishing any material, machinery or fixture for, any building, structure, bridge, flume, canal, ditch, aqueduct, mining claim, coal mine, quartz lode, tunnel, city or town lot, farm, ranch, fence, railroad, telegraph, telephone, electric light, gas, or water works or plant, or any improvements, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter, for his work or labor done, or material, machinery or fixtures furnished, has a lien upon the property upon which the work or labor is done or material is furnished.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 23, L. 1925.

For discussion of sufficiency of items in a lien statement, and validity of lien for work done after the date of the account, see McAboy v. Junk, 68 Mont. 198, 216 Pac. 1111.

Under the rule of noscitur a sociis, a threshing-machine is not a "structure" within the meaning of this section, providing for mechanics' and materialmen's liens on any "building, structure, flume," etc., but a structure to be lienable must, at the time labor is performed upon or materials are used in connection with its creation, improvement or repair upon it, be attached to land. Barnes v. Montana Lumber etc. Co., 67 Mont. 481, 216 Pac. 335.

Mechanic's lien for building erected by licensee, note, 45 A. L. R. 581.

Material specifically fabricated for and adapted to building, but not used therein, note, 33 A. L. R. 320.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 22, 28.

8340. How lien perfected.

A verification to a mechanic's lien to the effect that affiant, after deposing directly and positively that he had read the claim for lien and knew its contents, that the matters and things therein stated were true "as he verily believes," was a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this section and not void as having been made on information and belief. Gregg v. Sigurdson et al., 67 Mont. 272, 215 Pac. 663.

Where an order for machinery to be shipped f. o. b. their place of shipment is accepted by the seller and they are so shipped "net 30 days 2%-10," the bill of lading or invoice being sent to the buyer, the sale is complete as of the day of shipment and the machinery is "furnished" within the meaning of this section, requiring the filing of claim of lien within ninety days after the material or machinery has been furnished. Richardson G. S. Co. v. Valier Elevator Co., 67 Mont. 227, 215 Pac. 237.

The requirement of this section that a mechanic's lien must be verified as a "just and true account of the amount due, after allowing all credits," etc., held to have been met by a certification that the notice of lien and statement of account was true; that the statement contained a full and true amount due the lienor, etc., after allowing all credits and offsets, signed by one of two partners and sworn to before a notary public. Leigland v. Rundle L. & A. Co., 64 Mont. 154, 208 Pac. 1075.

A substantial, rather than a technical, view should be taken of the question whether a materialman's lien is founded upon one or more divisible contracts or involves one or more accounts. Rogers-Templeton Lumber Co. v. Welch, 63 Mont. 287, 208 Pac. 600.

The mechanic's lien statute is remedial in its nature, and to effectuate the purpose of its enactment after the lien has once attached, it should be given a liberal construction. Rogers-Templeton Lumber Co. v. Welch, 63 Mont. 287, 208 Pac. 600.

In an action to foreclose a materialman's lien, the plaintiff must prove, not only that the materials were furnished, but also that they were used in the construction of the building sought to be charged. Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. Culbertson Hotel Co. et al., 62 Mont. 605, 205 Pac. 957.

In an action to foreclose a materialman's lien, the plaintiff must prove not only that the materials were furnished, but also that they were used in the construction of the building sought to be charged. Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v.

Culbertson Hotel Co., 62 Mont. 605, 205 Pac. 957.

Under this section where title to the land on which a building was constructed with material furnished by plaintiff is not in the lienee, the lien extends to the building only, and in such a case any error or mistake in the description of the land in the notice of lien does not affect the validity of the lien if the "property"; i. e., the building, can be identified. Midland C. & L. Co. v. Ferguson et al., 61 Mont. 402, 202 Pac. 389.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 105 et seq.

8342. What property affected.

Under this section, while a mechanic's or materialman's lien extends primarily to the building, if the land upon which it is erected "belongs" to, i. e., is the property of, the person who causes the building to be constructed, the lien extends also to the land; but if the owner of the building loses title to the land, or if it is encumbered when work commences under the building contract, then the lien attaches to the building only. Louis v. Theatorium Co. et al., 69 Mont. 50, 222 Pac. 1062.

Where title to the land and buildings erected thereon is in the person who caused the building to be constructed, and after commencement of the work of construction, a mortgage is given on the land, the mortgage is inferior to a mechanic's lien for work done or materials furnished in the construction of the building. Louis v. Theatorium Co. et al., 69 Mont. 50, 222 Pac. 1062.

The fact that a materialman who has a lien on a building only also claims a lien on land which he cannot subject thereto will not defeat his lien on the building. Morrow v. Dahl et al., 66 Mont. 251, 213 Pac. 602.

A person selling materials to be used in the erection or remodeling of a building has a lien on the building independently of the land on which the same may be situate and it is therefore immaterial to the validity of the lien that the purchaser did not have title to the land. Morrow v. Dahl et al., 66 Mont. 251, 213 Pac. 602.

This and section 8344 were cited as sections 7293-7295, Revised Codes, in Midland C. & L. Co. v. Ferguson et al., 61 Mont. 402, 405, 407, 202 Pac. 389.

8343. Leasehold interest—How affected.

A heating plant and connecting pipes installed in a greenhouse constructed by a mechanic's lien claimant were fixtures and subject to removal as a part of the structure caused to be erected by a lessee of the land, the lien under this section extending in such a case to the entire building and improvements added by the lessee to the lessor's land. Cited in Bartholomew v. James et al., 76 Mont. 359, 246 Pac. 771.

CHAPTER 92.

LIENS FOR SALARIES AND WAGES.

8351. Preferred creditors when assignment of property is made.

After a wage-earner has once established his right to preference payment for wages earned within the period of sixty days immediately preceding a levy upon the property of his employer, by giving the notice provided for by the Wageworkers' Law he may assign his claim; the assignment carries with it the lien as an incident, and the assignee is therefore entitled to bring suit thereon. Thompson v. Twodot Fertilizer Co. et al., 71 Mont. 486, 230 Pac. 588.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 323.

8355. Service of notice.

Sections 8355, 8356, 8357, were cited in Thompson v. Twodot Fertilizer Co. et al., 71 Mont. 486, 491, 230 Pac. 588.

CHAPTER 93.

LIENS UPON CROPS FOR SEED GRAIN AND HAIL INSURANCE.

8359. Lien upon crops for seed or for funds to purchase seed.

In view of this section, providing that a corporation may perfect a seed lien, the statute, however, not specifying the manner in which the statement of lien shall be verified nor by whom in the event the claimant is a corporation, and in view of the fact that a corporation can only act through its officers, an affidavit attached to such a lien claim signed "First National Bank of Savage" by its president and cashier was sufficient. Thedin et al. v. First Nat. Bank of Savage, 67 Mont. 65, 214 Pac. 956.

THRESHERMEN'S LIENS.

8370. Limitation of actions to foreclose threshermen's liens. All actions for the foreclosure and enforcement of the lien herein provided for must be commenced within six months from the filing of the lien.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 28, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 95.

LIENS ON OIL AND GAS WELLS AND PIPE-LINES.

8375. Liens for labor and material for oil and gas wells and pipe-lines. Any person, corporation, or copartnership who shall under contract, expressed or implied, with the owner of any leasehold for oil and gas purposes, or the owner of any gas pipe or oil pipe-line, or with the trustee or agent of such owner, who shall perform labor or furnish material, machinery, and oil well supplies used in the digging, drilling, torpedoing, completing, operating, or repairing of any oil or gas well, or who shall furnish any oil well supplies, or perform any labor in constructing or putting together any of the machinery used in drilling, torpedoing, operating, completing or repairing any gas well, shall have a lien upon all of the right, title and interest of such owner in and to the whole of such leasehold or oil pipe-line or gas pipe-line, or lease for oil and gas purposes, the building, and appurtenances, and upon the material and supplies so furnished, and upon all of the right, title and interest of such owner in and to said oil and gas well for which they were furnished, and upon all of the right, title and interest of such owner in and to all other oil wells, fixtures, and appliances used in the operating for oil and gas purposes upon the leasehold for which said material and supplies were furnished and labor performed.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 152, L. 1923.

Casings of oil or gas well as subject to mechanic's lien, note, 39 A. L. R. 1260.

8377. Enforcement and filing of liens—Limitations. The liens herein created shall be enforced in the same manner, and the notice of same shall be given in the same manner, and the materialman's statement, or the lien of any laborer herein mentioned, shall be filed in the same manner as now provided by the laws of Montana for materialmen's and mechanics' liens, except that the time within which such liens must be filed shall be six months instead of ninety days; and the method of procedure provided by the laws of the state of Montana for enforcing of materialmen's and mechanics' liens shall govern the enforcement thereof.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 96.

MISCELLANEOUS LIENS.

8378. Lien of seller of real property.

This section, providing for a vendor's lien for so much of the purchase price of real property as remains unpaid and unsecured, has no application to an executory contract of sale under which the vendor retains title in himself until the purchase price is fully paid. Smith v. Bunston, 72 Mont. 535, 234 Pac. 836.

For definition of a "vendor's lien" and discussion of circumstances constituting a waiver of same, see Digen v. Schultz, 65 Mont. 190, 210 Pac. 1057.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 739.

8383. Agister's liens and liens of service—Priority.

This section, according a lien to a ranchman, farmer or herder, for keeping, feeding or pasturing livestock, applies only to one entrusted with the care, custody and control of animals under a contract of bailment, and under it a lien is not given to an employee, or a herder, on the livestock of his employer for wages due for herding them. Love v. Hecker et al., 67 Mont. 497, 215 Pac. 1099.

Priority of lien for storage of automobile, note, 31 A. L. R. 837.

8385. Procedure to enforce lien—Sale. If payment for such work, labor, feed, or services, or material furnished, is not made within thirty (30) days after the performance or furnishing of the same, the person entitled to a lien under the provisions of this section may enforce said lien in the following manner: He shall deliver to the sheriff or a constable of the county in which the property aforesaid is located a statement of the amount of his claim against said property, a description of the property, and the name of the owner thereof, or of the person at whose request the work, labor, or services were performed, or the materials furnished. Upon receipt of such statement, the sheriff or constable shall proceed to advertise and sell at public auction so much of the property covered by said lien as will satisfy same. Such sale shall be advertised, conducted, and held in the same manner as provided by law for the sale of mortgaged personal property by sheriffs. Such notice shall be given for not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days prior to the date of sale. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied by the sheriff to the discharge of the lien and the costs of the proceedings in selling the property and enforcing the lien, and the remainder, if any, or such part as is required to discharge the claims, shall be turned over by the sheriff to the holders, in the order of their precedence, of the chattel mortgages or other lien claimants of record against said property, and the balance of the proceeds shall be turned over to the owner of the property. Providing, however, that before making seizure of any property under the provisions of this section, the sheriff may require an indemnity bond from the lienor in not to exceed double the amount of the claim against said property, said bond and the surety or sureties thereon to be approved by said sheriff.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 130, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 98.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

8401. Short title.

The Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act (secs. 8401-8596) supersedes the law of suretyship (secs. 8195-8208) as theretofore applicable to negotiable instruments, and therefore one who signed a note as maker bound himself absolutely to pay, though in fact but an accommodation maker, and could not escape liability to a holder in due course under a plea of having been a surety only. Merchants' Nat. Bank v. Smith et al., 59 Mont. 280, 15 A. L. R. 430, 196 Pac. 523.

Cited in Grosfield v. First Nat. Bank, 73 Mont. 219, 233, 236 Pac. 250.

8402. Definitions and meaning of terms.

The mere possession of a promissory note by a foreign administrator, made payable to the order and transferred to his intestate but never indorsed, does not constitute him a holder thereof within the meaning of the Negotiable Instruments Law, and he is therefore not entitled to maintain an action thereon in his individual capacity but may maintain it only in his representative capacity after taking out ancillary letters. Lefebure et al. v. Baker et al., 69 Mont. 193, 220 Pac. 1111.

This and section 8403 were cited as sections 5843 and 5844, Revised Codes, in Merchants' Nat. Bank v. Smith et al., 59 Mont. 280, 290, 291, 15 A. L. R. 430, 196 Pac. 523.

8403. Person primarily liable on instrument.

Defendant, an accommodation maker, was primarily liable on the note, though the bank, at the time it took the instrument, knew that he was lending his name to his comaker, and was not discharged from liability by the act of the bank in releasing mortgage security furnished by the latter without his (defendant's) knowledge or consent. Merchants' Nat.

by incompleteness of the attempt to fix due date, note, 19 A. L. R. 508.

8409. Certainty as to sum, what constitutes.

The words "attorney's fee" and "costs of collection" as used in a promissory note containing a provision for the payment of an attorney's fee and costs of collection mean the same thing, so that the use of both of them in the conjunctive imposed no greater burden on the maker than would their use in the disjunctive have done and did not render the note non-negotiable. Wood v. Ferguson et al., 71 Mont. 540, 230 Pac. 592.

Negotiability as affected by provision in relation to discount or interest, note, 51 A. L. R. 294.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 809.

8411. Determinable future time, what constitutes.

Cited in Great Falls Nat. Bank v. Young et al., 67 Mont. 328, 335, 215 Pac. 651.

8412. Additional provisions not affecting negotiability. An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:

1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or,

2. Authorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or,

3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of the obligor; or,

4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

5. An instrument otherwise negotiable in character is not affected by the fact that it was at the time of the execution or subsequently secured by mortgage on real or personal property.

But nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 143, L. 1923.

8423. Delivery—When effectual—When presumed.

Under this section delivery of a promissory note, in order to be effectual, must be made by or under the authority of the maker of the instrument, and therefore where no such delivery is shown the payee named therein cannot recover on it. Baroch v. Greater Montana Oil Co., 70 Mont. 93, 225 Pac. 800.

Under this section, providing that where a negotiable instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed, held, in an action on a promissory note, that its production by plaintiff raised a presumption of a valid and intentional delivery of it to the payee by the maker, and that it was properly admitted as against the objection that plaintiff was not the owner or holder thereof. Ely, Salyards & Co. v. Farmers' E. Co., 69 Mont. 265, 221 Pac. 522.

8426. Signature by agent—Authority—How shown.

Under this section, the signature of any party to a negotiable instrument may be made by a duly authorized agent. Commercial Nat. Bank of Great Falls v. Reichelt, 62 Mont. 302, 204 Pac. 1037.

Persons conducting business as a voluntary association, using a common or trade name, may be held jointly and severally liable upon a note executed in the trade name by their agent authorized to do so. Larson v. Marcy et al., 61 Mont. 1, 201 Pac. 685.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 822.

8427. Liability of person signing as agent, etc.

Under this section the indorsement, "J. H. Irwin, Presdt. Great Northern Surety Co.," on a note made payable to the company was its indorsement and not that of the individual signer, the contention that the words following the name were merely descriptio personae and did not indicate the character in which he acted not being maintainable under the Negotiable Instruments Law. Commercial Nat. Bank of Great Falls v. Reichelt, 62 Mont. 302, 204 Pac. 1037.

8436. Liability of accommodation indorser.

Where defendant signed a renewal note taking the place of a note signed by her husband and another, at the request of the husband for the purpose of lending her name to him as comaker, she was an accommodation maker within the meaning of this section, and not a guarantor, and liable as such to a holder for value though the latter knew her to be only an accommodation maker and that no consideration moved to her for signing it, the consideration moving to one or both of her co-makers having been sufficient to uphold the note. Mulany v. Murray, 68 Mont. 245, 216 Pac. 1105.

Bank held to be a holder in due course on the facts involved in Fleming v. Consolidated M. S. Co., 74 Mont. 245, 240 Pac. 376.

To defeat the claim of ownership of coupon Liberty bonds, negotiable in character, asserted by plaintiff in his action for their conversion, it was incumbent upon defendant bank to show that it was a holder in due course, under this and sections 8465 and 8466. Grosfield v. First Nat. Bank, 73 Mont. 219, 236 Pac. 250.

A holder of a promissory note who bought it before maturity in good faith paying full value therefor, without actual knowledge or notice that it was secured by a mortgage, or of the assignment of the note containing a provision that it was being transferred without recourse, was a holder in due course within the meaning of this section. *Wood v. 8466. Who deemed holder in due course.

Under this section, where, after plaintiff indorsee had made out a prima facie case, defendant (drawer) produced evidence tending fairly to prove that the payee had obtained the check through fraud, the burden shifted to plaintiff to prove every fact necessary to show that he was a holder in due course, among them; that he took it in good faith and for value, failing in which he was not entitled to recover. Matteson v. Trask, 63 Mont. 160, 206 Pac. 428.

The payee of a negotiable promissory note in possession of it is a prima facie holder in due course within the meaning of the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act, negotiation by indorsement and delivery, not being necessary to constitute one a holder in due course. Merchants' Nat. Bank of Billings v. Smith et al., 59 Mont. 280, 15 A. L. R. 430, 196 Pac. 523.

CHAPTER 103.LIABILITIES OF PARTIES.*8467. Liability of maker.

By making a promissory note to a corporation, the maker admits the payee's corporate existence and its capacity to indorse. Commercial Nat. Bank of Great Falls v. Reichelt, 62 Mont. 302, 204 Pac. 1037.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 873.

8468. Liability of drawer.

A first due presentment of a check for payment fixes the rights and liabilities of the parties and if when due presentment is made, the drawee bank is ready, able and willing to pay, and the holder permits the fund to remain longer in its hands, or accepts in lieu of money the bank's draft on another bank, he does so at his own risk, and cannot extend the drawer's liability. Jensen v. Laurel Meat Co., 71 Mont. 582, 230 Pac. 1081.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 874.

8470. When person deemed indorser.

In the absence of a special agreement to that effect, one who signs his name on the back of a non-negotiable note is not an indorser in the sense that term is used in the Negotiable Instruments Law; hence an instruction in the language of this section, that a person who places his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor is deemed to be an indorser, was inapplicable in an action on such a note. Newer 8471. Liability of irregular indorser.

This section, with reference to the liability of irregular or accommodation indorsers, has no application where a party places his indorsement on a promissory note after its delivery to the payee unless he does so pursuant to an agreement or understanding had prior to delivery that the indorsement should relate back and be considered as having been made before delivery; in the absence of such an agreement the indorsement constitutes a contract of guaranty rather than one of surety. Anderson v. Border et al., 75 Mont. 516, 244 Pac. 494.

8527. When person secondarily liable on, discharged.

The defense that an extension of time has been granted to the principal debtor on a negotiable note without the consent of the surety is under the Negotiable Instruments Act, available only to one secondarily liable thereon. *Merchants' Nat. 8593. Within what time a check must be presented.

Where the board of county commissioners had wrongfully refused to issue an order for the payment of a warrant not re-presented for payment until after the sixty-day period provided for in section 4758, had expired, and thereafter the bank in which its funds were deposited became insolvent, the county was not discharged from liability thereon under this section by the holder's neglect to make timely demand for payment, since the detriment suffered by it was traceable to its improper refusal and not to the holder's failure to act. State ex rel. Case v. Bolles et al., 74 Mont. 54, 238 Pac. 586.

Stopping payment as affecting necessity for presentation of check, note, 14 A. L. R. 562.

8593.1. Time limit for presentation of check. Where a check or other instrument payable on demand at any bank or trust company doing business in this state is presented more than one year from its date, such bank or trust company may, unless expressly instructed by the drawer or maker to pay the same, refuse payment thereof and no liability shall thereby be incurred to the drawer or maker for dishonoring the instrument by nonpayment.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 106, L. 1923.

8596. When check operates as an assignment.

Under the Negotiable Instruments Law, the giving of a check is not an assignment pro tanto of the drawer's deposit so as to give the holder a right of action against the bank in case payment is refused, liability not attaching until the bank has accepted or certified the check. Stankey v. Citizens' National Bank of Laurel, 64 Mont. 309, 209 Pac. 1054.

PART VI.Relations of Debtor and Creditor—Nuisance and Relief.*CHAPTER 1.*DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES.*8598. Who is a debtor.

Where the owner of city lots had sold them with the understanding that she was to remove a building thereon within a given time and removal thereof was prevented by litigation for several years, during which time the purchaser was adjudged to be entitled to ground rental which remained unpaid, she knew that she was indebted to the purchaser in an amount which was constantly increasing, and therefore was a debtor within the meaning of this section, at the time she transferred practically all of her property to her daughter. Security State Bank v. McIntyre, 71 Mont. 186, 228 Pac. 618.

Cited in State v. McGraw, 74 Mont. 152, 163, 240 Pac. 812.

8601. Payments in preference.

The rule declared by this section, that a debtor may pay one creditor in preference to another, provided that other be not a preferred creditor, applies to an insolvent debtor as well as to solvent one, and under it an insolvent debtor may transfer property in payment of a debt justly due though he knows that the effect of the transaction will be to defeat another in the collection of his debt.

Cited in Security State Bank v. McIntyre, 71 Mont. 186, 204, 228 Pac. 618; Harrison v. Riddell et al., 64 Mont. 466, 478, 210 Pac. 460.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 1055.

CHAPTER 2.FRAUDULENT INSTRUMENTS AND TRANSFERS.*8603. Transfers, etc., with intent to defraud creditors.

Under this section, and 8605 and 8606, a creditor seeking to set aside a transfer as fraudulent must allege and prove that the debtor was insolvent at the time he made the conveyance and that he had no other property out of which his claim could be satisfied or enforced by legal process. Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co., Ltd., 75 Mont. 99, 242 Pac. 425.

Generally the only means by which to ascertain whether an intent to defraud existed at the time of the transfer complained of is by considering the acts of the parties which experience has demonstrated to have fraudulent aspects, denominated "badges of fraud," such as insolvency, inadequacy of consideration, etc. Security Bank v. McIntyre, 71 Mont. 186, 228 Pac. 618.

Cited in Wray v. Great Falls Paper Co., 72 Mont. 461, 470, 234 Pac. 486.

Sections 8603, 8604 were cited in Security State Bank v. McIntyre, 71 Mont. 186, 196, 228 Pac. 618; as section 6127, Revised Codes, in Williams v. Gray, 62 Mont. 1, 12, 203 Pac. 524.

Applied with sections 8276 and 8606 in Ignatius v. Farmers' State Bank of Havre, 272 Fed. 33.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 956; vol. 17 Cal. Jur. 977.

8604. Certain transfers presumed fraudulent.

The mere fact that an automobile was sold by a father to his daughter on one day and not delivered until the next did not render the sale void as fraudulent, where delivery was impossible on the day of sale. Tomcheck v. Maryland Casualty Co., 75 Mont. 557, 244 Pac. 506.

Where the evidence, in an action in conversion to recover on a sheriff's bond in which the defense was that the property seized by the officer had been sold by the judgment debtor with the intent to defraud the creditor, as to whether there was such an immediate delivery and continued change of possession as to satisfy the requirements of this section was conflicting, the question was one for the jury to determine. Tomcheck v. Maryland Casualty Co., 75 Mont. 557, 244 Pac. 506.

The mere statement, "It is yours," made with reference to a quantity of grain by the transferor to the transferee in an attorney's office miles away from where the grain was stored, the transferee doing nothing whatever to take possession, which remained in the transferor, was not such a delivery as is contemplated by this section, and therefore insufficient as against an attaching creditor of the transferor. Wells et al. v. Esgar, 72 Mont. 333, 233 Pac. 123.

In applying the statutory rule as to fraudulent transfers, consideration must be given to the situation of the parties at the time of the sale. Puckett v. Hopkins et al., 63 Mont. 137, 206 Pac. 422.

While a mere temporary change of possession of personal property will not avail against the claim of a creditor of the vendor, the change need not necessarily continue until the property is seized by the creditor, but if the change was open and so long continued as to indicate to the world at large that there has been a transfer of title, it is sufficient. Puckett v. Hopkins et al., 63 Mont. 137, 206 Pac. 422.

CHAPTER 3.

BULK SALES.

8607. Sale of merchandise in bulk—Seller to furnish list of creditors.

The Bulk Sales Act applies only to claims arising ex contractu, and not to unliquidated claims ex delicto, such as a claim for damages for a personal injury. Harrison v. Riddell et al., 64 Mont. 466, 210 Pac. 460.

CHAPTER 4.

ASSIGNMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.

8612. When debtor may execute assignment.

Under sections 8612 to 8641, whereby a complete procedure for the administration and settlement of estates assigned for the benefit of creditors is provided, the district court of the county in which an assignment is made has exclusive jurisdiction, both in cases at law and in equity, arising out of the assignment and relating to the distribution of the assets of the estate, and therefore an action against an assignee to establish a claim against the estate in his charge in a county other than that in which the assignment proceedings were pending was properly dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Stanton Trust & Savings Bank v. Northern Mont. Assn., etc., 77 Mont. 153, 250 Pac. 596.

Sections 8612-8641 were cited in State ex rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 36, 237 Pac. 523.

State ex rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 37, 237 Pac. 523.

8631. Conditions of disposal and conversion.

An assignment for the benefit of creditors is in effect a contract, and therefore where an assignment was made before the passage of this section as amended, giving the district court power under certain circumstances to permit the assignee to conduct the business of the assignor as a going concern, the act cannot be given a retroactive effect to impair the obligation of such contract. Patrick & Co. v. McDonnell, 61 Mont. 236, 201 Pac. 1009.

While under this section (before amendment) the district court may, when necessary for best interests of the estate of an assignor, authorize his business to be conducted for a limited period of time, it may not do so for an unlimited period. Patrick & Co. v. McDonnell, 61 Mont. 236, 201 Pac. 1009.

Cited in Stanton Bank v. Northern Mont. Assn., etc., 77 Mont. 153, 160, 250 Pac. 596.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 319.

8632. Notice to creditors to present claims.

The rule that where the time within which creditors must present their claims to an assignee is fixed by statute, the failure of a creditor to present his claim within that time bars him from his right to participate in dividends, is, in principle applicable where, as in this state, the district judge may fix the time for such presentation. State ex rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 237 Pac. 523.

Applied with section 8635 in State ex rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 237 Pac. 523.

8634. Duties of assignee.

Sections 8634, 8635 were cited in Stanton Bank v. Northern Mont. Assn., etc., 77 Mont. 153, 160, 250 Pac. 596; State ex

rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 37, 237 Pac. 523.

8635. Power of court.

Under this section, construed in conjunction with section 8632, the district court has power upon final settlement of the estate to direct the assignee to pay a lawful creditor his proportionate dividend though his claim was not presented within the time designated in the assignee's call, provided four months have not elapsed since the first publication of notice to creditors, and therefore, where a creditor did not present his claim until two years and two months after first publication of notice, the court exceeded its power in allowing the claim. State ex rel. Marshall-Wells Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 34, 237 Pac. 523.

While under this section, the district court may, when necessary for the best interests of the estate of an assignor, authorize his business to be conducted for a limited period of time, it may not do so for an unlimited period. Patrick & Co. v. McDonnell, 61 Mont. 236, 201 Pac. 1009.

CHAPTER 5.NUISANCE—REMEDIES AGAINST PUBLIC AND PRIVATE NUISANCES.*8642. Nuisance defined.

Sections 8642-8656 were cited in State ex rel. Lamey v. Young, 72 Mont. 408, 416, 234 Pac. 248; Jeffers v. Montana Power Co. et al., 68 Mont. 114, 137, 217

Pac. 652; Lennon et al. v. City of Butte, 67 Mont. 101, 214 Pac. 1101; State ex rel. Bourquin v. Morris et al., 67 Mont. 40, 43, 214 Pac. 332.

8645. What is not deemed a nuisance.

In an action to enjoin the maintenance and operation of a storage reservoir used for generating electric power, on the ground that it constituted a nuisance in that during the winter months when water was released for power development purposes an unnatural fluctuation of several feet in the level of the river below resulted causing the ice to break and jam and plaintiff's property to be flooded, since the operation of the reservoir was authorized by law and under this section, nothing done or maintained under express authority of statute can be deemed a nuisance, the complaint, in the absence of an allegation of negligence, did not state a cause of action. Jeffers v. Montana Power Co. et al., 68 Mont. 114, 217 Pac. 652.

Cited in Lennon et al. v. City of Butte, 67 Mont. 101, 106, 214 Pac. 1101.

Manner of or circumstances attending performance of duty enjoined by law as creating nuisance, note, 38 A. L. R. 1437.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 286.

8653. How abated.

The right given a person by this section to abate a nuisance which is especially injurious to him, may be exercised only under those circumstances which necessity indulges in cases of extremity or great emergency wherein the ordinary remedy by legal proceedings is ineffectual.

Quong et al. v. McEvoy et al., 70 Mont. 99, 224 Pac. 266.

In the absence of a provision in a lease of a building requiring the tenant to do so, it is the duty of the landlord to keep the premises in a condition fit for occupation, and where by his failure in that respect a nuisance is created, its presence is not a justification for evicting the tenant because of its existence and in reliance upon the right given a person by this section, to abate a nuisance under certain conditions. Quong et al. v. McEvoy et al., 70 Mont. 99, 224 Pac. 266.

CHAPTER 6.

RELIEF IN GENERAL.

8658. Relief in case of forfeiture.

A defaulting purchaser of land under a contract which made time of the essence of it and under which the vendor exercised his option to declare it ended upon breach, who had made no down payment and had paid only the first year's interest during his two years' possession, was not entitled to recover back what he had expended on the premises, under this section, providing when a party incurring a forfeiture may be relieved therefrom. Edwards et al. v. Muri, 73 Mont. 339, 237 Pac. 209.

Where a purchaser of property seeks to avoid forfeiture of an advance payment incurred by reason of his failure to complete his contract, he must, under this section, allege and prove that his default was not the result of his grossly negligent, wilful or fraudulent breach of duty, failure to do which deprives him of the right to invoke the rule on appeal. Ellinghouse v. Hansen Packing Co., 66 Mont. 444, 213 Pac. 1087.

Notwithstanding the provisions of a contract of sale of ranch land that on default of deferred payments all prior payments should be deemed forfeited as rental, the party in default may obtain relief from forfeiture if not guilty of grossly negligent, wilful or fraudulent breach of duty, on presentation of such grounds therefor as appeal to the conscience of a court of equity. Fontaine v. Lyng et al., 61 Mont. 590, 202 Pac. 112.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 640.

CHAPTER 7.

COMPENSATORY RELIEF—DAMAGES—INTEREST ON DAMAGES—EXEMPLARY DAMAGES.

8659. Persons suffering detriment may recover damages.

Cited in Tucker v. Missoula Light & Ry. Co., 77 Mont. 91, 98, 250 Pac. 11; Burden v. Elling State Bank, 76 Mont. 24, 30, 46 A. L. R. 906, 245 Pac. 958; 8663. In actions other than contract.

While under this section, interest may be allowed in an action for damages to livestock shipments due to the carriers' negligence, the jury should be instructed that the question of interest is left to their discretion, and refusal to so instruct is error. Phelps et al. v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 66 Mont. 198, 213 Pac. 610.

In an action for damages against a city for damages caused to plaintiff's property by the grading of a street, the jury may, in their discretion, allow interest on the amount awarded from the time of the completion of the work, under this section. Wright et al. v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 362, 210 Pac. 78.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 798.

8666. Exemplary damages—In what cases allowed.

In an action for conversion in which exemplary damages were asked, an instruction defining the terms "actual" and "presumed" malice was held not objectionable as authorizing an award of punitive damages for malice in law as well as malice in fact. Wray v. Great Falls Paper Co., 72 Mont. 461, 234 Pac. 486.

Before exemplary damages may be awarded, actual damages must first be found to have been suffered. Gilman v. Devereaux, 67 Mont. 75, 33 A. L. R. 381, 214 Pac. 606.

To warrant the recovery of exemplary damages, defendant must have entertained a guilty intent, the wrongful acts being characterized by circumstances of aggravation, malice, oppression and the like. Luther v. Lee et al., 62 Mont. 174, 204 Pac. 365.

CHAPTER 8.

MEASURE OF DAMAGES.

8667. Measure of damages for breach of contract.

The measure of damages in an action for damages for failure of seller to promptly deliver equipment for a plow, resulting in loss by buyer in preventing performance of a plowing contract, is that specified in this section, as an obligation arising from contract, and not that provided in section 8686 as damages arising ex delicto. *Hall v. 8674. Breach of agreement to sell personal property not paid for.

Under this section and section 8700, evidence that the market price of the hay purchased by plaintiff, at time and place of delivery, was in excess of the contract price was sufficient to entitle it to substantial damages for defendant's failure to deliver it, even though plaintiff's evidence did not show that it suffered actual damage by having to go into the open market and purchase hay to fill its own contracts or supply its own needs.

Sturm & Drake v. Roberts Elevator Co., 60 Mont. 239, 198 Pac. 545.

Under this section and section 8700, prescribing the measure of damages for breach of a contract for sale of personal property, evidence that the fair market value of sheep of the kind specified in the contract at the time the sheep should have been delivered was one dollar per head more than the contract price was competent. Johnson v. Hislop, 272 Fed. 913.

8678. Breach of warranty of title to personal property.

The measure of damages for breach of warranty of title to a brick building sold as personal property and situated on land owned by a third person is that set forth in this section and 8700, including the element of cost of removal, if removal was necessary. Lewis v. Lambros, 65 Mont. 366, 211 Pac. 212.

8689. Conversion of personal property.

Plaintiff in an action in conversion may, by waiving interest, elect any date between that of the conversion and the date of the trial, on which to lay his damages. Klus v. Lamire, 71 Mont. 445, 230 Pac. 364.

In an action for conversion plaintiff may elect to claim damages for the value of the chattel at the time of the alleged conversion, or its highest market value at any time between the conversion and the verdict, without interest under this section, but he may not claim both. Klind v. Valley County Bank of Hinsdale, 69 Mont. 386, 222 Pac. 439.

An instruction on the measure of damages based on the value of the grain at the time of the conversion, to wit, when defendant refused to deliver it on demand, was proper under this section.

O'Neill v. Montana Elevator Co., 65 Mont. 259, 211 Pac. 222.

Under this section, plaintiff in action for conversion does not, by pleading as his damages the value of property when converted, deprive himself of the right to insist upon damages according to the highest market value of the property at any time between the conversion and the verdict, since he is not required to plead the rule of damages, but may in any appropriate way, even by oral declaration in open court, announce his determination to demand the highest market value. Williams v. Gray, 62 Mont. 1, 203 Pac. 524.

Where plaintiff in an action in conversion has brought himself within the rule requiring diligence in prosecuting the action, the fact that the measure of damages recoverable under it may be inequitable and unjust cannot deprive him of his right to recover the highest market value of the property at any time between the conversion and the verdict, at plaintiff's option, which he might have obtained but for the wrongful act of defendant. State v. Broadwater Elevator Co. et al., 61 Mont. 215, 201 Pac. 687.

Where an action in conversion has been prosecuted with reasonable diligence, the plaintiff may exercise the option granted him by this section of demanding the highest market value of the property at any time between the conversion and the verdict, by giving notice, if he has not otherwise limited himself by his pleading, at any time before the submission of the cause for verdict or decision. CHAPTER 10.

PENAL DAMAGES.

8696. Injuries to trees, etc.

In an action for trespass brought under this section to recover for timber wrongfully cut from a mining claim, where the evidence was sufficient to sustain a finding for $900 actual damages sustained, a general verdict for plaintiff for $2,700, reasonably construed in view of the instruction of the court that under section 8696 the jury could treble the damages if the trespass was wilful, held in effect a finding that the actual detriment sustained was $900 and that the jury trebled the damages in the belief that the trespass was wilful. Tripp v. Silver Dyke Mining Co., 70 Mont. 120, 224 Pac. 272.

CHAPTER 11.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

8700. Value—How estimated in favor of buyer.

The measure of damages for breach of warranty of title to a brick building sold as personal property and situate on land owned by a third person is that set forth in this section and section 8678, including the cost of removal if removal was necessary. Lewis v. Lambros, 65 Mont. 366, 211 Pac. 212.

Applied with section 8674 as governing rule of substantial damages for market price of hay. Sturm & Drake v. Roberts Elevator Co., 60 Mont. 239, 198 Pac. 545; as section 6082, Revised Codes, in White-law v. Vallance et al., 60 Mont. 172, 176, 198 Pac. 449.

Applied with section 8674 in Johnson v. Hislop, 272 Fed. 913.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 785.

8704. Limitation of damages.

Measure of damages for the failure of an employer to provide medical or surgical attention and hospital accommodations for his employee where a small sum is deducted monthly from the wages of the latter for such purpose, stated in Borgeas v. Oregon etc. R. R. Co. et al., 73 Mont. 407, 236 Pac. 1069.

This and the following section were cited as sections 6086, 6087, Revised Codes, in State v. Broadwater Elevator Co. et al., 61 Mont. 215, 230, 201 Pac. 687.

CHAPTER 13.SPECIFIC RELIEF—PERFORMANCE OF OBLIGATIONS.*8715. Remedy mutual.

Under this section, when either of the parties to an obligation is entitled to specific performance, the other party is also entitled to it, the remedy being mutual. Saint et al. v. Beal, 66 Mont. 292, 213 Pac. 248.

Under this section the vendor of land under a contract giving him the privilege to declare all of the deferred payments immediately due upon failure to make any one of them, may maintain an action against the vendee to compel specific performance of the contract on his part by paying the balance of the purchase price. Saint et al. v. Beal, 66 Mont. 292, 213 Pac. 248.

8717. Distinction between real and personal property.

Under this section, it is presumed that the breach of an agreement to sell or exchange land cannot be adequately compensated in damages, and where the court on ample evidence found that plaintiff in his action for specific performance could not be made whole by damages, the contention that specific performance should not have been decreed has no merit. Hogan v. Thrasher, 72 Mont. 318, 233 Pac. 607.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 422, 476.

8720. What cannot be specifically enforced.

A writing acknowledging receipt of a sum of money as part payment for a ranch, superseded by a formal deed executed a few days later, was examined and held incapable of specific performance under this section because too indefinite and lacking in mutuality. Kofoed v. Bray, 69 Mont. 78, 220 Pac. 532.

SPECIFIC RELIEF—REVISION AND RESCISSION OF CONTRACTS.

8726. When contract may be revised.

For discussion of reformation of a contract for the sale of lands, on the ground of mistake, see Ayers v. Buswell, 73 Mont. 518, 238 Pac. 591.

Neither the remedy afforded by section 7565 nor that granted by this section, under which he may have the contract reformed on the ground of fraud, is exclusive, each being independent of the other; hence the defrauded party may elect to pursue either remedy. Campana v. Dobry, 69 Mont. 240, 221 Pac. 540.

Where a mistake in an instrument was unilateral, made only by one party to it and not mutual, nor one which the other party to it knew or suspected, reformation did not lie. Comeford v. United States F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 196 Pac. 984.

CHAPTER 15.

SPECIFIC RELIEF—CANCELLATION OF INSTRUMENTS.

8733. When cancellation may be ordered.

An action to have an oil and gas lease declared terminated and canceled of record for failure of the lessee to commence drilling operations or make the stipulated payment in lieu thereof, is one in equity and falls within the provisions of this section, authorizing cancellation to remove a cloud upon title. McNamer Realty Co. v. Sunburst etc. Co., 76 Mont. 332, 247 Pac. 166.

The purpose of an action brought under this section, to have an oil and gas lease declared void and terminated by the failure of the lessee to observe its conditions, is to clear the record of an apparent cloud in the shape of an instrument which has ceased to have any effect but still remains of record, and in such a case the equitable rules as to relief from a forfeiture are not applicable. McNamer Realty Co. v. Sunburst etc. Co., 76 Mont. 332, 247 Pac. 166.

In an action brought under this section, as distinguished from one brought under section 9479, the pleader must state facts disclosing the apparent validity of the instrument attached and its actual invalidity. Slette v. Review Publishing Co., 71 Mont. 518, 230 Pac. 580.

Where plaintiff in his action to remove a cloud from the title to property had based his cause of action upon the levy of a writ of attachment, his contention on appeal that the writ was improperly levied and therefore constituted no lien on the property deprives him of the relief asked for, since if it constituted no lien it cast no cloud which needed removal. Newman v. Assn. of Credit Men, 63 Mont. 545, 208 Pac. 914.

In an action to cancel instruments claimed to constitute clouds upon the title to mining property, thus preventing plaintiff from obtaining a bidder upon execution sale under a judgment in a mechanic's lien foreclosure proceeding, complaint held insufficient to state a cause of action under this section and section 8734, Revised Codes (conceding, but not deciding, that the action could be maintained under those sections), for failure to allege the facts showing the apparent validity of the instruments claimed to constitute clouds as well as the facts showing their invalidity. Heavlin v. O'Connor et al., 61 Mont. 507, 202 Pac. 1115.

CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

PART I.

Courts of Justice.

CHAPTER 3.

SUPREME COURT.

8805. Power of supreme court.

Under this section, on appeal in an equity case the supreme court must review all questions of law and of fact and may, where all the facts are presented, determine the case finally for the purpose of putting an end to further litigation. State ex rel. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. District Court et al., 77 Mont. 594, 251 Pac. 1061.

Where the supreme court on appeal in an equity case, on a full review of the law and the facts, decided that the judgment in favor of the plaintiff could not be sustained, but reversed it and remanded the cause without ordering a new trial or the taking of further testimony, it was the duty of the trial court on receipt of the remittitur directing such further proceedings as were not inconsistent with the opinion rendered, to enter judgment dismissing the complaint on the merits and mandamus was a proper remedy to compel it to do so. State ex rel. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. District Court, 77 Mont. 594, 251 Pac. 1061.

Under this section, the supreme court has power, on reversal of the judgment appealed from, to direct entry of a proper judgment in favor of the appellant where the record contains a full recital of all that took place at the trial, and it is apparent that the respondent, after submitting all the evidence at his command, failed to defeat or diminish the appellant's cause. Alley v. Butte & Western Mining Co., 77 Mont. 477, 251 Pac. 517.

Where on appeal in an equity case, the record does not show a decided preponderance in the evidence against the findings of the trial court, or the evidence furnished reasonable ground for different conclusions, the findings will not be disturbed. Kummrow v. Bank of Ferfus County et al., 66 Mont. 434, 214 Pac. 1098.

POWERS OF JUDGES AT CHAMBERS.

8867.1. Jurisdiction of district judges to make certain orders. The jurisdiction of the judges of the district courts of the state of Montana, in rendering and signing judgments and making findings and rendering decrees, making orders to show cause and all ex parte orders, in chambers, shall be coextensive with the boundaries of the state of Montana, as to all matters presented to or heard by them, and of which they have jurisdiction, and such judgments, findings, decrees and orders, when so rendered, made or signed, shall have the same force and effect as to matters under their jurisdiction as if done in open court, in the county in which the action, proceeding or matter is pending or was heard.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 53, L. 1923.

Quaere: May a district judge under the provisions of this section, declaring the jurisdiction of district judges in certain judicial matters coextensive with the state, settle a bill of exceptions outside of the county in which the cause was tried? Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co., Ltd., 75 Mont. 99, 242 Pac. 425.

CHAPTER 10.

DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS.

8868. Cases in which judge may be disqualified—Calling in another judge. Any justice, judge, or justice of the peace must not sit or act as such in any action or proceeding:

1. To which he is a party, or in which he is interested;
2. When he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the sixth degree, computed according to the rules of law;
3. When he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding, or when he rendered or made the judgment, order, or decision appealed from;
4. When either party makes and files an affidavit as hereinafter provided, that he has reason to believe, and does believe, he cannot have a fair and impartial hearing or trial before a district judge by reason of the bias or prejudice of such judge. Such affidavit may be made by any party to an action, motion, or proceeding, personally, or by his attorney or agent, and shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which the same may be pending at least five days before the day appointed or fixed for the hearing or trial of any such action, motion or proceeding, (providing such party shall have had notice of the hearing of such action, motion, or proceeding for at least the period of five days and in case he shall not have had notice for such length of time, he shall file such affidavit immediately upon receiving such notice). Upon the filing of the affidavit, the judge as to whom said disqualification is averred shall be without authority to act further in the action, motion, or proceeding, but the provisions of this section do not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, the regulation of the order of business, the power of transferring the action or proceeding to some other court, nor to the power of calling in another district judge to sit and act in such action or proceeding, providing that no judge shall so arrange the calendar so as to defeat the purposes of this section. No more than two judges can be disqualified for bias or prejudice, in said action or proceeding, at the instance of the plaintiff, and no more than two at the instance of the defendant, in said action or proceeding, and this limitation shall apply however many parties or persons in interest may be plaintiffs or defendants in such action or proceeding. If there be more than one judge in any judicial district in which said affidavit is made and filed, upon the first disqualification of a judge in the cause, another judge, residing in the judicial district wherein the affidavit is made and filed, must be called in to preside in such action, motion, or proceeding; and upon the second or any subsequent disqualification of a judge in the cause, a district judge of another judicial district of the state must be called in to preside in such action, motion, or proceeding, or the action, motion, or proceeding transferred to a district judge of another judicial district of the state; when another judge has assumed jurisdiction of an action, motion, or proceeding, the clerk of the district court in which the same was pending, shall at once notify the parties or their attorneys of record in the same, either personally or by registered mail, of the name of the judge called in, or to whom such action, motion, or proceeding was transferred. Such second or subsequent affidavit of disqualification shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which such action, motion or proceeding may be pending within three days after the party or his attorney of record, filing such affidavit, has received notice as to the judge assuming jurisdiction of such action, motion, or proceeding.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 93, L. 1927.

For discussion of the subject of the powers of local and invited judges, see Rowan v. Gazette Printing Company, 69 Mont. 170, 220 Pac. 1104.

In proceedings for the removal of civil officers under section 11702, neither party has the right to file an affidavit disqualifying a district judge for implied bias or prejudice under this section. State ex rel. Houston v. District Court, 61 Mont. 558, 202 Pac. 756.

The provision of this section, requiring an affidavit disqualifying a district judge for imputed bias or prejudice to be filed at any time before the day fixed for the hearing or trial of an action, motion or proceeding, does not permit its filing after verdict and before entry of judgment. In re Miller's Estate, 71 Mont. 330, 229 Pac. 851.

CHAPTER 12.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RESPECTING COURTS AND JUDICIAL OFFICERS.

8882. Means to carry jurisdiction into effect.

The fact that sections 6902-6904 do not provide for a form of affidavit for attachment is of no moment, since under this section, where jurisdiction is conferred on a court, all the means necessary to give it effect are also given and in the absence of such a provision, the court may adopt any suitable process or mode of proceeding in the premises. CHAPTER 14.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXEMPTIONS OF JURORS.

8890. Who competent to act as juror.

Where a defendant accused of crime does not avail himself of the privilege of examining into the qualifications of a prospective juror before the jury is sworn, he may not assign a juror's incompetency as ground for a new trial, even though his knowledge of the incompetency comes to him for the first time after the trial. SELECTING AND RETURNING JURORS.

CHAPTER 16.

DRAWING AND SUMMONING JURORS FOR COURTS OF RECORD.

8902. Summoning of trial jury.

Where a trial court, instead of ordering a panel of regular jurors drawn in a number deemed by it sufficient for the term, had them drawn under three successive orders as occasion required, defendant was not in position to complain of the procedure followed, he not having been prejudiced thereby, and this section not limiting the number which may be drawn. State v. Vuckovich, 61 Mont. 480, 203 Pac. 491.

Sections 8902-8906 were cited in Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 594, 208 Pac. 596.

Cited in Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 594, 208 Pac. 596.

8911. Drawing and summoning jurors to attend forthwith.

District courts may not arbitrarily draw a jury from box No. 3 or excuse jurors and thus bring about a condition under which the exercise of their discretion as to the use of box No. 3 may be invoked. Hanley v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 66 Mont. 267, 213 Pac. 235.

Where at the opening of or at any other stage of a trial term, the district court finds an insufficient number of jurors drawn from box No. 1 present, it may in its discretion order the drawing of additional jurors from box No. 3 for service on the regular panel and retain them during the trial term. Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 208 Pac. 596.

Where the names in jury-box No. 1 had been so depleted that a sufficient number did not remain from which to secure a jury, and where it appeared that a sufficient number could not be procured without great delay or expense, the court, under this section, properly directed the clerk to draw names from jury-box No. 3. State v. Pippi, 59 Mont. 116, 195 Pac. 556.

CHAPTER 20.

STENOGRAPHERS.

8933. Salary and expenses of stenographer. Every stenographer appointed under the provisions of this chapter receives an annual salary of three thousand dollars, and no other compensation except as provided in section 8931, payable in monthly installments out of the general funds of the counties comprising the district for which he is appointed, according and in proportion to the number of civil and criminal actions entered and commenced in the district courts of such counties respectively in the preceding year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of such district, on the first day of January of each year, or as soon after as may be, to apportion the amount of such salary to be paid by each county in his district on the basis aforesaid. The stenographer is allowed, in addition to the salary and fees above provided, in judicial districts comprising more than one county, his actual and necessary expenses of transportation and living when he goes on official business to a county of his judicial district other than the county in which he resides, from the time he leaves his place of residence until he returns thereto, said expenses to be apportioned and payable in the same way as the salary.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 36, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 21.

QUALIFICATIONS, ADMISSION, LICENSE AND DISBARMENT OF ATTORNEYS.

8940. Admission of attorneys from other states.

While under this section courts may permit a nonresident attorney who has been admitted to practice in his own state, to appear in a cause on motion of a duly admitted attorney in this state, they may not, under the above rule, allow a fee for his services to his client if successful. Vaill v. Northern Pacific Ry.

Co., 66 Mont. 301, 213 Pac. 446.

Cited as section 6385, Revised Codes, in State v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 64, 203 Pac. 860.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 591, 595, 596-598; 1926 Supp. 220.

8943. Penalty for practicing without license.

One who, though not admitted by the supreme court to practice in the courts of the state, holds himself out as an attorney at law by conducting legal correspondence on letter-heads on which was printed his name, followed by "Attorney at Law," by signing himself as such, by advertising himself by the use of a professional card in newspapers and telephone directory, and by a sign on his office building as an attorney, by taking and perfecting appeals from the justice court to the district court and appearing in the appellate court in connection with such appeals, is practicing without a license and guilty of contempt of court, under this section. In re Phillips, 64 Mont. 492, 210 Pac. 89.

Cited in In re Young, 77 Mont. 332, 337, 250 Pac. 957.

8958. Allowance of attorney's fees to unlicensed persons forbidden.

Under this section an attorney's fee is not allowable in any action or proceeding in which attorneys' fees are allowed by law, unless the attorney has been duly admitted and licensed to practice in Montana, and, though the words of the section are "duly admitted or licensed" the word "or" must be read "and," any other construction rendering the provision meaningless. Vaill v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 66 Mont. 301, 213 Pac. 446.

8961. Disbarment of attorneys—Causes—Jurisdiction.

As against the assertion that the supreme court should not retain jurisdiction of a disbarment proceeding where the accused attorney is charged with felonies committed without the sphere of his duties as such, held, under this section, that where the court, after an investigation by the attorney general and report made to it by him sufficient to move its discretion, has decided to act, its exercise of that discretion does not present a jurisdictional question. In re Young, 77 Mont. 332, 250 Pac. 957.

Moral turpitude within the meaning of this section, authorizing the disbarment of an attorney on conviction of a crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, is everything done contrary to justice, honesty or good morals. In re Peters, 73 Mont. 284, 235 Pac. 772.

Under subdivision 1 of this section, whenever it is brought to its attention that an attorney of the bar of this state has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude in a state or federal court, the supreme court will on its own motion and on the record of conviction alone strike his name from the roll of attorneys. In re Peters, 73 Mont. 284, 235 Pac. 772.

Since, generally, the record of conviction of an attorney itself shows whether the crime or misdemeanor of which he was convicted involved moral turpitude, the only question before the supreme court in a disbarment proceeding based upon subdivision 1 of this section is whether he was convicted, not whether he was actually guilty. In re Peters, 73 Mont. 284, 235 Pac. 772.

CHAPTER 22.GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE POWERS, DUTIES, LIABILITIES AND COMPENSATION OF ATTORNEYS.*8974. Authority.

Under the rule that if an attorney acts within the scope of his employment, express or implied, the client is bound, it is within the implied power of an attorney regularly employed in a criminal case to consent to the setting or continuance of the cause for trial, the provision of this section that an attorney has authority to bind his client "by his agreement filed with the clerk, or entered upon the minutes of the court, and not otherwise," neither enlarging nor abridging the authority of the attorney as it existed under the common-law rule, but only prescribing a rule for its exercise. State v. Turlock, 76 Mont. 549, 248 Pac. 169.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 652, 661, 669; 1926 Supp. 225.

8980. Certain loans prohibited.

Under this section, an attorney is prohibited from buying any note, debt or other thing in action for the purpose of bringing suit thereon, and where his intent is established, he cannot recover. Strever v. Sinclier et al., 66 Mont. 258, 213 Pac. 253.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 607; vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 1121.

8993. Lien for compensation.

While under this section and 9786, an attorney may contract with his client freely as to his compensation before the fiduciary relation commences, as respects such a contract made after the relation began he has the burden of showing that the contract was fair and reasonable and entered into freely by the client, and that the latter fully knew and understood its provisions; in the absence of such allegations the complaint is insufficient. Cole- man v. Sisson, 71 Mont. 435, 230 Pac. 582.

Attorney's lien on decedent's estate, note, 50 A. L. R. 657.

8994. Attorney may be compelled to show his authority.

Where a defendant does not challenge in the trial court the authority of an attorney of his adversary to appear for him, in accordance with the provisions of this section, his right to question it later is waived. In re Miller's Estate, 71 Mont. 330, 229 Pac. 851.

Where defendant had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor, and later authorized his attorney to withdraw that plea and enter one of guilty on condition that the district judge would agree to the imposition of a certain fine with the jail sentence suspended, and the attorney entered an unconditional plea, of guilty, he exceeded his authority and the court, under this section, erred in refusing to set aside the judgment pronounced on the latter plea. State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 229 Pac. 402.

8997. Action defined.

Under the rule that he only may maintain an action who can show that he has a right to be enforced or a wrong to be prevented or redressed, plaintiff in an action to enjoin a sale of county bonds duly voted, who alleged himself to be a citizen, resident and qualified elector of the county, but who did not make it appear that he was a taxpayer or that he had been denied the right to vote at the election, had no standing in court as a suitor. Holt v. Custer County et al., 75 Mont. 328, 243 Pac. 811.

PART III.

Civil Actions.

CHAPTER 1.

FORM OF CIVIL ACTION.

9008. One form of civil actions only.

While under the codes there is but one form of civil action for the enforcement and protection of private rights and redress or prevention of private wrongs, yet the common-law distinctions between the different causes of action still obtain, the reasons underlying them being still the same. Butala v. Union Electric Co. et al., 70 Mont. 580, 226 Pac. 899.

CHAPTER 3.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS FOR THE RECOVERY OF REAL PROPERTY.

9015. Seizin within ten years—When necessary in actions for real property—Action for dower.

Under this section and 9018, a prescriptive right can be built upon public use of land for street purposes, jurisdiction having been acquired by the city authorities and maintained for a period of ten years. Stettheimer et al. v. City of Butte, 60 Mont. 111, 198 Pac. 455.

Sections 9015, 9016 were cited in Bearmouth Placer Co. v. Passerell, 73 Mont. 306, 308, 236 Pac. 673; Boehler v. Boyer et al., 72 Mont. 472, 477, 234 Pac. 1086.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 434; 1926 Supp. 980; vol. 22 Cal. Jur. 124.

9018. Possession—When presumed—Occupation deemed under legal title, unless adverse.

Where the predecessor of the owner of a ditch right had acquired title to the right of way therefor over the public domain by grant from the United States, it will be presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary, under this section in an action to enjoin its use by another, that the owner had been possessed thereof within the time required by law and that the occupation by the other party had been in subordination to the legal title, as against the contention that the right was barred by section 9015 in that neither plaintiff nor his predecessor had been in possession or seised of the ditch within ten years next preceding the commencement of the action. Rodda v. Best et al., 68 Mont. 205, 217 Pac. 669.

For discussion of facts constituting adverse possession of land within Northern Pacific land grant, see Northern Pacific Ry. Co. v. Cash, 67 Mont. 585, 216 Pac. 782; Northern Pacific Ry. Co. v. Smith, 62 Mont. 108, 203 Pac. 503.

Under this section the occupation of property by one not the owner is deemed to have been under and in subordination to the legal title. Blackfoot Land Development Co. v. Burks, 60 Mont. 544, 199 Pac. 685.

Cited in Stetson v. Youngquist et al., 76 Mont. 600, 608, 248 Pac. 196; Bearmouth Placer Co. v. Passerell, 73 Mont. 306, 308, 236 Pac. 673; Northern Pacific Ry. Co. v. Cash, 67 Mont. 585, 596, 216 Pac. 782; as section 6435, Revised Codes, in Stettheimer et al. v. City of Butte, 60 Mont. 111, 116, 198 Pac. 455.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 493.

9019. Occupation under written instrument or judgment—When deemed adverse.

The term "claim of title" used in this section, relative to adverse possession, in providing that where the occupant of land entered into possession "under claim of title" etc., held to mean "color of title" which is title in appearance but not in reality, and color of title may be shown by any instrument purporting to convey the land or the right to its possession, provided claim is made thereunder in good faith. Fitschen Bros. v. Noyes' Estate, 76 Mont. 175, 246 Pac. 773.

Sections 9019, 9020 were cited as sections 6436, 6437, Revised Codes, in Mouat v. Minneapolis M. & S. Co. et al., 68 Mont. 253, 258, 217 Pac. 342.

9024. Adverse possession—How established.

An easement for a ditch appurtenant to land is not subject to taxation independently of the land; hence the provision of this section that adverse possession shall not be considered established unless the claimant has for the full statutory period of ten years paid the taxes upon the property claimed adversely, has no application where the subject of the adverse possession alleged is a right of way for a ditch. Stetson v. Youngquist et al., 76 Mont. 600, 248 Pac. 196.

Under this section, in no case of alleged adverse possession shall such possession be considered as established unless the claimant, his predecessor and grantor shall have paid all taxes on the property for a period of ten years continuously; hence where an adverse claimant had not paid or offered to pay any taxes, the court properly found against him. Bearmouth Placer Co. v. Passerell et al., 73 Mont. 306, 236 Pac. 673.

While a water right partakes of the nature of real estate, it is not such in any sense, and when considered alone and for the purpose of taxation it is personal property; therefore this section, which deals with real property and makes payment of taxes a prerequisite to the establishment of a claim of adverse possession to such property, has no application where title by prescription to a water right, independently of the land to which it was appurtenant, is asserted. Verwolf v. Low Line Irr. Co. et al., 70 Mont. 570, 227 Pac. 68.

This section, declaring that adverse possession of real property shall not be deemed established unless it shall have been occupied and claimed for a period of ten years continuously and the party claiming such possession has paid all taxes levied and assessed upon it, held prospective and not retroactive in its operation. Verwolf v. Low Line Irr. Co. et al., 70 Mont. 570, 227 Pac. 68.

Since payment of taxes was not, prior to the enactment of this section, an element of adverse possession, the fact that the holder of the legal title paid the taxes on the land in question was of no evidentiary value, further than as tending to show that he had not abandoned it. Blackfoot Land Development Co. v. Burks, 60 Mont. 544, 199 Pac. 685.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 494.

LIMITATIONS OF OTHER ACTIONS.

9027. Periods of limitation prescribed.

Cited in Gates v. Powell, 77 Mont. 554, 557, 252 Pac. 377.

9028. Within ten years.

Cited in Marlowe v. Missoula Gas Co. et al., 68 Mont. 372, 378, 219 Pac. 1111.

9029. Within eight years.

If an indorser makes payment of interest on an overdue note, the holder's right to maintain suit on the instrument is not barred under this section, if commenced within eight years after such payment. Morgan v. Huffman, 76 Mont. 396, 247 Pac. 326.

Applied with section 9048, holding that the defendant's presence in the state must aggregate the full statutory period of eight years and that the period of a defendant's intermittent absence from the state must be deducted in computing such time. Stoudt v. Hanson, 62 Mont. 422, 205 Pac. 253.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 454; 1926 Supp. 980.

9030. Within five years.

Where the relationship of plaintiff and defendant in the acquisition of securities was that of trustee and cestui que trust, under an express parol agreement to share in the profits, and the former repudiated the relationship in 1912, before the sale of the securities, with the knowledge of the latter, defendant's claim for an interest in the proceeds of the transaction asserted in 1921 was barred under subdivision 1 of this section, providing that an action upon a contract, promise, etc., not founded on an instrument in writing must be brought within five years. Cook v. MacGinniss, 72 Mont. 280, 233 Pac. 129.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 465.

9031. Within three years.

An action for conversion against a sheriff and the surety on his official bond, being on a liability incurred "by the doing of an act in his official capacity and by virtue of his office," must be brought within three years under subdivision 1 of this section. Wingate v. Davis et al., 77 Mont. 572, 252 Pac. 307.

An action to recover money received by defendant from her husband with knowledge that it belonged to plaintiff and that it had been taken from him by the husband by threats and intimidation, thus constituting her a trustee ex maleficio, would seem to fall within the provision of subdivision 3 of this section, declaring that an action upon an obligation or liability, not founded upon an instrument in writing, other than a contract, account or promise, must be commenced within three years. Kerrigan v. O'Meara, 71 Mont. 1, 227 Pac. 819.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 470, 472, 476.

9032. Within two years.

Cited with section 9033 in Butler v. Peters, 62 Mont. 381, 385, 26 A. L. R. 560, 205 Pac. 247.

9033. Two-year limitation.

Under section 9058, the limitation of two years against an action to recover personal property by a bailor against his bailee does not commence to run until the latter refuses to return it on demand. Gates v. Powell, 77 Mont. 554, 252 Pac. 377.

Where plaintiff, in a claim and delivery action against his former wife to whom at the time of their separation he had loaned his household furniture, did not know of her claim of ownership until some two years and a half thereafter, when he made demand for it, his right of action did not accrue until refusal of his demand and the limitation of two years did not commence to run until then. Viers v. Webb, 76 Mont. 38, 245 Pac. 257.

In order to make applicable the provision of subdivision 4 of this section, that in an action for fraud the cause of action shall not be deemed to have accrued until discovery by plaintiff of the facts constituting the fraud, plaintiff must show, in the absence of a relation of trust or confidence between the parties which imposed upon defendant the duty of making a full disclosure of the facts, some active affirmative concealment of the fraud by defendant, something said or done to continue the deception or to prevent inquiry or discovery, else the running of the statute which limits the time within which the action may be brought to two years is not postponed.

Kerrigan v. O'Meara, 71 Mont. 1, 227 Pac. 819.

One who relies on the exception to the provision of this section, to the effect that while an action for fraud must be commenced within two years, the cause of action shall not be deemed to have accrued until discovery of the facts constituting the fraud, must show the time and the circumstances of the discovery, to enable the court to determine whether by ordinary diligence it might not have been made before, his simple statement that it was not made until the limitation had run being insufficient. Kerrigan v. O'Meara, 71 Mont. 1, 227 Pac. 819.

In an action in claim and delivery to recover possession of a cow picked up by defendant and later in good faith purchased from one claiming to be but who was not the owner, defendant not having done anything to prevent the true owner from ascertaining the whereabouts of the animal and learning of his right of action, the fact that plaintiff was ignorant of the circumstances which would have enabled him to bring timely suit did not entitle him to sue after the limitation of two years fixed by subdivision 3 of this section had run. Bennett v. Meeker, 61 Mon. 307, 202 Pac. 203.

This section, subdivision 4, providing that an action for fraud or mistake must be brought within two years after discovery of the facts, applies only to actions for fraud or mistake within the common acceptance of those terms, and not to an action in claim and delivery where defendant honestly and in good faith bought an estray from one wrongfully claiming to be the owner of the animal. Bennett v. Meeker, 61 Mont. 307, 202 Pac. 203.

This and section 9040 were cited as sections 6449-6451, Revised Codes, in In re Smith's Estate, 60 Mont. 276, 289, 199 Pac. 696; as section 6449, Revised Codes, in Terry v. Stephens, 60 Mont. 82, 84, 198 Pac. 360.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 439, 445-454, 473.

9036. Period for commencement of actions by members of police department to recover salaries.

Sections 9036, 9037, providing that actions by police officers for the recovery of salaries must be commenced within six months after the cause of action shall have accrued, etc., are not open to the objection that they do not come within the purview of the governor's proclamation calling the session, his reference therein to certain conditions prevailing in the "department of police" in a named city covering the subject of the legislation. Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 208 Pac. 943.

Since a police officer's cause of action for recovery of two years' back salary did not accrue until it had been judicially determined in a mandamus proceeding that he had been wrongfully ousted, the limitation of six months prescribed by this section did not commence to run until rendition of judgment in the mandamus proceeding. Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 208 Pac. 943.

9037. Actions for unpaid salaries of members of police department limited to services actually performed, etc.

This section, providing in effect that a policeman wrongfully discharged may not recover back salary except for services actually performed, and one unlawfully suspended or placed on the eligible list can recover only for the days upon which he reported for duty, though broad enough in a literal sense to comprehend pending actions, was not intended, in the absence of express words so declaring, to act retrospectively so as to cut off existing rights, but was intended to apply only to policemen so discharged, suspended or relegated to the eligible list after its enactment. Sullivan v. City of Butte, 65 Mont. 495, 211 Pac. 301.

The provision of this section that a police officer can recover salary only for services actually rendered, did not apply where he was unlawfully discharged and, though offering to perform them, was thereafter prevented from so doing, since the city could not take advantage of its own wrong. Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 208 Pac. 943.

Where a police officer was discharged contrary to the provisions of the Metropolitan Police Law, and not suspended or placed on the eligible list, this section, providing that where a member of the police force was suspended or placed on the eligible list he can only recover salary for the days he reports for duty, has no application. Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 208 Pac. 943.

CHAPTER 5.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE TIME OF COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS.

9047. When an action is commenced.

Cited in Gillespie v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 63 Mont. 598, 608, 208 Pac. 1059.

9048. Exception, where defendant is out of the state.

Evidence held not to sustain the contention that the running of the statute of limitations had been tolled, under this section, by reason of the absences from the state of the party pleading it. Cook v. MacGinniss, 72 Mont. 280, 233 Pac. 129.

Under this section, where defendant in an action on a promissory note is out of the state at the time the cause of action accrued, the bar of the statute of limitation does not commence to run until after his return, and if he thereafter intermittently leaves and returns to the jurisdiction, the time of his absence must be deducted from the limitation of eight years fixed by section 9029, in order to determine whether the full period has expired, i. e., defendant's presence in the state must aggregate the full statutory period to constitute a bar. Stoudt v. Hanson, 62 Mont. 422, 205 Pac. 253.

Absence as suspending or removing bar of limitations as against judgment, note, 21 A. L. R. 1039.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 552.

9054. Provision where judgment has been reversed.

This section, extending the time fixed by the general statutes of limitations for the commencement of the ordinary actions for specified reasons, has no application to a cause of action for which a special limitation period is prescribed, i. e., one where the time within which suit must be brought is a condition attached to the right to sue. King v. Mayor of City of Butte, 71 Mont. 309, 230 Pac. 62.

This section, allowing a new action within one year after the termination of the first action by dismissal for want of jurisdiction, does not apply to a second action commenced before, and not after the termination of the first action by such dismissal. Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

This section applies to actions on claims against an administratrix although such actions are limited by section 10178, which is a special probate statute, and are not subject to the general statute of limitations. Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 562.

9058. When demand necessary.

Under this section, the limitation of two years against an action to recover personal property (sec. 9033), by a bailor against his bailee does not commence to run until the latter refuses to return it on demand. Gates v. Powell, 77 Mont. 554, 252 Pac. 377.

When limitation commences to run against action to recover deposit of property without definite date for its return, or damages for its detention, note, 47 A. L. R. 178.

When statute of limitation begins to run against note payable on demand, note, 44 A. L. R. 397.

Necessity for demand to set statute of limitations running against action on certificate of deposit, note, 23 A. L. R. 7.

9061. Limitations prescribed in action against directors, etc.

Construing this section, an action against a director to enforce his statutory liability for failure of his corporation to file its annual statement must be brought within three years after the liability was created by law, and not within three years after the aggrieved party discovered the fact with relation thereto.

CHAPTER 6.

PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS.

9067. Action to be in name of party in interest.

In an action for an accounting and to have defendant bank declared trustee of a resulting trust, held under the rule that findings made on conflicting evidence will be set aside only where the evidence preponderates against them, that the finding that plaintiff's husband, and not she, was the real party in interest was correct, and that therefore the court properly rendered judgment in favor of defendant under this section. Kelly v. Gullickson, 75 Mont. 66, 241 Pac. 623.

Plaintiff, vested with the legal title to the judgment on which he sought to recover, was the real party in interest within the meaning of this section, and evidence that he had bought it for the benefit of another was properly excluded. Genzberger v. Adams, 62 Mont. 430, 205 Pac. 658.

Cited in LaBonte v. Mutual Fire etc. Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 11, 241 Pac. 631; Gregg v. Bayers, 73 Mont. 165, 168, 235 Pac. 337; Lefebure et al. v. Baker et al., 69 Mont. 193, 200, 220 Pac. 1111; County of Wheatland v. Van et al., 64 Mont. 113, 116, 207 Pac. 1003; Rummey et al. v. Skinner, 64 Mont. 75, 82, 208 Pac. 895.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 486.

9068. Assignment of thing in action not to prejudice defense.

Where the assignee of a non-negotiable note fails to notify the maker of the assignment, and thereafter the maker makes payment to the payee (assignor) without knowledge of the assignment, the payment constitutes a complete defense to a suit by the assignee against the maker. Erlandson v. Erskine et al., 76 Mont. 537, 248 Pac. 209.

Cited as section 6478, Revised Codes, in Rice v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 59 Mont. 570, 583, 197 Pac. 999.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 287; vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 265.

9070. Wife may defend, when.

Under this section, providing that if a husband and wife be sued together the wife may defend for her own right, and if the husband neglects to defend, she may defend for his right also, a wife, pending suit for divorce brought by her, had authority to employ counsel on behalf of her husband, in a suit for partition against both of them in which he had failed to appear. Buckhouse v. Parsons, 60 Mont. 156, 198 Pac. 443.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13 Cal. Jur. 891.

9071. Infant, etc., to appear by guardian.

9072. Guardian—How appointed.

9075. Father, etc., may sue for injury or death of child.

Cited in Liston v. Reynolds, 69 Mont. 480, 500, 223 Pac. 507.

9076. When representative may sue for death of one caused by the wrongful act of another.

In an action against an administrator brought under this section, for damages for the wrongful killing of plaintiff's husband by defendant's intestate, where plaintiff was the only surviving witness and her testimony was indispensable to recovery, the court, in its discretion properly permitted her to testify under the exception to the general rule (sec. 10535), making such testimony inadmissible, the exception providing that where by its exclusion injustice will be done the testimony may be admitted. Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 215 Pac. 224.

The right of action for damages given by this section to the heirs or personal representative of an adult whose death is caused by wrongful act or negligence is solely for the benefit of the heirs, the representative merely acting as their trustee and the amount recovered not being a part of decedent's estate; hence the complaint of an administrator setting forth the damages sustained by decedent's father and mother was not open to demurrer on the ground of misjoinder of parties plaintiff (the administrator and the heirs) or causes of action, recovery by the administrator barring a subsequent action by the heirs. Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 198 Pac. 132.

Cited in Liston v. Reynolds, 69 Mont. 480, 500, 223 Pac. 507; Bruce v. McAdoo, 65 Mont. 275, 289, 211 Pac. 772.

Cited as section 6491, Revised Codes, in Comeford v. U. S. F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 252, 196 Pac. 984.

9084. Plaintiff may sue in one action for the different parties to commercial paper.

In an action on a bond executed jointly by the principal and a surety company it was optional with plaintiff to proceed against either or both of the obligors, but where it was also sought to reform the contract and the surety moved that the principal be served with process, it was error to deny the motion. Comeford v. U. S. F. & G. Co., 59 Mont. 243, 196 Pac. 984.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 19 Cal. Jur. 971; vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 505; vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 1055.

9086. Action—When not to abate by death, marriage or other disability—Proceedings in such case.

That plaintiff's land was sold on foreclosure after his action for damages was brought under sections 6902-6904, and the period of redemption had expired prior to retrial of the case, did not result in the abatement of the action under this section. Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 76 Mont. 254, 246 Pac. 168.

The latter portion of this section, which indicates the person who may commence the action declared by the fore part thereof not to abate by death, or to continue it if commenced before the death of the party defendant, is adjective law. Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 215 Pac. 224.

A cause of action in favor of one whose death results from the wrongful act of another, under this section (a general survival statute), survives the death of the wrongdoer as well as the death of the party whose rights were infringed.

Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 215 Pac. 224.

Cited in Price et al. v. Skylstead, 69 Mont. 453, 461, 222 Pac. 1059; Bruce v. McAdoo, 65 Mont. 275, 289, 211 Pac. 772.

Survival of action or cause of action for alienation of affections or criminal conversation, notes, 14 A. L. R. 693; 24 A. L. R. 488.

Death of principal defendant as abating or dissolving garnishment or attachment, note, 21 A. L. R. 272.

Survival of action or cause of action for breach of contract to marry, note, 34 A. L. R. 1363.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 49 et seq.

9087. Another person may be substituted for the defendant.

Demand upon a foreign corporation for security for costs made by one of two defendants pursuant to this section, did not operate to stay proceedings between plaintiff and the nondemanding defendant. Middle States O. Corp. v. Tanner-Jones Co., 73 Mont. 180, 235 Pac. 770.

In an action of interpleader to compel conflicting claimants to funds in the pleader's hands sued upon, to litigate their claims among themselves, the sum due from him must not be in controversy—he must be a disinterested stakeholder, else he is not entitled to maintain interpleader. Security State Bank of Roy v. Melchert et al., 67 Mont. 535, 216 Pac. 340.

A cross-complaint filed by defendant as part of his answer held not susceptible of interpretation as a complaint in interpleader, in the absence of compliance with this section, requiring that defendant before answering file the affidavit provided for or apply for an order substituting attaching creditors in his place; held, further, that the pleading was insufficient to bring it within the concluding part of the section, which, under a different set of circumstances, provides for an original action against the claimants to compel them to interplead and litigate their several claims among themselves. Security State Bank of Roy v. Melchert et al., 67 Mont. 535, 216 Pac. 340.

Cited in State v. Banking Corp. of Montana, 74 Mont. 491, 508, 241 Pac. 626.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 701.

9088. Intervention—When it takes place and how made.

The purpose of this section, permitting a person to intervene in an action between others if his interest be such that he would be prejudicially affected as a necessary consequence of the determination of the action without his presence as a party to it, is to avoid circuity of action and needless multiplicity of suits. State Bank of Outlook v. Sheridan County, 72 Mont. 1, 230 Pac. 1097.

Where a complaint in intervention is adverse to both parties in which filed, both are considered as defendants as respects the intervener, and they must plead to the complaint as defendants in an ordinary action. State Bank of New Salem v. Schultze, 63 Mont. 410, 209 Pac. 599.

Where defendants in an action to set aside a fraudulent conveyance failed to answer a complaint in intervention which injected an entirely new issue into the case which defendant could not have anticipated at the time of filing her answer in the case originally brought, judgment by default in favor of the intervener was proper. State Bank of New Salem v. Schultze, 63 Mont. 410, 209 Pac. 599.

Under this section, refusal to permit a party to intervene is error where such party makes a prima facie showing of interest in the subject matter of the litigation. Equity Co-operative Assn. v. Milling Co., 63 Mont. 26, 206 Pac. 349.

Under this section, intervention is permissible in any case, provided only the person seeking to intervene can show either an interest in the subject matter of the action, or an interest in the success of either of the parties, or an interest in the subject matter as against both. Stack v. Coyle, 59 Mont. 444, 197 Pac. 747.

9089. Associates may be sued by name of association.

This section, providing that where two or more persons are transacting business under a common name they may be sued under such name, held applicable to a partnership. Gardiner v. Eclipse Grocery Co., 72 Mont. 540, 234 Pac. 490.

CHAPTER 7.

PLACE OF TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS.

9094. Other actions—Where the cause or some part thereof arose.

Under this section, subdivision 2, a public officer (sheriff) sued in his official capacity is entitled to have the case tried in the county of which he is such officer. State ex rel. Davis v. District Court et al., 72 Mont. 56, 231 Pac. 395.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 289; vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 914; vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 867.

9096. Other actions, according to the residence of the parties.

Where a contract of sale of personal property provides that payment shall be made in a county other than the one in which action is commenced, the defendant is entitled to a change of venue to that county, but where it does not so provide, the presumption is that payment is to be made at the creditor's residence or place of business and the action is triable in his county. Courtney v. Gordon, 74 Mont. 408, 241 Pac. 233.

The venue of an action for the breach of an agreement by the hirer of a piano to return it in case it should not prove satisfactory was in the county of the owner's residence, the place where it was to be performed. Stiemke v. Jankovich et al., 72 Mont. 363, 233 Pac. 904.

Under this section, an action for tort must be tried in the county in which it was committed; hence an action by a railroad employee for personal injuries sustained in a county other than that of his residence, was properly triable in the county where the accident occurred, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial. Dryer v. Director-General of Railroads, 66 Mont. 298, 213 Pac. 210.

Under this section, refusal to change the place of trial of an action on a contract from the county of plaintiff's residence to the county in which the contract was to be performed was error. Feldman v. Security State Bank, 62 Mont. 330, 206 Pac. 425.

Cited in Silver v. Morin, 74 Mont. 398, 402, 240 Pac. 825; Atkinson v. Bonners Ferry Lumber Co., 74 Mont. 393, 397, 240 Pac. 823.

Sections 9096, 9097, were cited in State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 69 Mont. 415, 422, 222 Pac. 444.

Venue of action for libel in newspaper, note, 37 A. L. R. 908.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 75; vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 864-867.

9097. Actions may be tried in any county, unless the defendant demands a trial in the proper county.

A defendant seeking a change of place of trial under sections 9097 and 9098, must, first, file an affidavit of merits and a demand in writing; second, apply to or move the court for an order changing the place of trial; in the absence of an agreement of the parties, these requirements are indispensable and imperative. O'Hanion v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 128, 245 Pac. 518.

A motion for change of place of trial must be made upon notice to the plaintiff, unless such notice is waived; it need not be filed simultaneously with the affidavit of merits and demand but must be filed and served within a reasonable time thereafter—the movant must proceed with diligence. O'Hanion v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 128, 245 Pac. 518.

Sections 9097 and 9098, providing for change of venue, are companion measures and must be construed together. Under the first, the applicant must file an affidavit of merits and demand in writing for the change. Under the second he must apply to the court for an order to change the place. In the absence of an agreement of the parties these separate steps are imperative. Defendant filed the affidavit and with it a notice of motion and motion but did not file a demand in writing. Held, on application for writ of supervisory control, that a demand for the change was indispensable and that in its absence the court properly denied the motion. State ex rel. Davis v. District Court et al., 72 Mont. 56, 231 Pac. 395.

Where defendant correctly pursues the statute in his endeavor to secure a change of place of trial and is entitled to such change but is denied it, he has a remedy by appeal. (Language appearing in Feldman v. Security State Bank, 62 Mont. 330, at bottom of page 334, intimating otherwise, expressly disapproved.) State ex rel. Davis v. District Court et al., 72 Mont. 56, 231 Pac. 395.

Where defendant in a mandamus proceeding in his motion to quash the writ for want of jurisdiction, also asked for further time in which to demur or answer, he thereby entered his general appearance and thus waived his right to demand a change of venue to the proper county. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 69 Mont. 415, 222 Pac. 444.

The demand for a change of place of trial referred to in this section does not supply the place of a motion on the part of the defendant for a change of venue. Danielson v. Danielson, 62 Mont. 83, 203 Pac. 506.

Cited in Courtney v. Gordon, 74 Mont. 408, 413, 241 Pac. 233; Atkinson v. Bonners Ferry Lbr. Co., 74 Mont. 393, 397, 240 Pac. 823.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 889 et seq.

9098. Place of the trial may be changed in certain cases.

In an action for false imprisonment commenced in a county other than the one in which the tort was alleged to have been committed, held that the district court abused its discretion in denying defendant's motion for change of venue asked for on the ground of the convenience of witnesses and the promotion of justice, under this section, on affidavits showing, among other things, that a large number of its witnesses residing in Idaho a short distance from the county seat of the county to which it was proposed to have the cause removed, would attend the trial, but would decline to attend if held in the county in which the action was brought, some 340 miles distant, etc., no affidavits being filed in opposition; held, further, that irrespective of company's showing in support of the motion as made, it was entitled to the change of place of trial, under section 9096, to the county where the alleged tort was committed. Atkinson v. Bonners Ferry Lumber Co., 74 Mont. 393, 240 Pac. 823.

Where one district judge invites another from a different district to hold court for him and the invitation is accepted, the invited judge when he appears, and while he presides, has all the authority of the local judge. Rowan v. Gazette Printing Co., 69 Mont. 170, 220 Pac. 1104.

Since the district court can only act upon motion in the matter of changing the place of trial, it is the duty of defendant desiring a change of venue on the ground that the county in which the action was brought was not the county of his residence, under this section, to make a motion to that effect, the demand for such change referred to in section 9097 not supplying the place of such motion. Danielson v. Danielson, 62 Mont. 83, 203 Pac. 506.

One seeking to change the place of trial to the county of his residence must present his motion and the evidence of his residence, at the time of first appearance when the answer or demurrer is filed. If not so presented at that time his right to a change of venue is waived. Danielson v. Danielson, 62 Mont. 83, 203 Pac. 506.

Applied with section 9097 in O'Hanion v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 76 Mont. 128, 245 Pac. 518.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 25 Cal. Jur. 876 et seq.

9102. Change of place of trial on agreement of parties.

Confession of a motion for change of venue is tantamount to a stipulation for a change, and under this section, where the parties stipulate to that effect, the district court must order the change to the county agreed upon. State ex rel. Bonners Ferry Lbr. Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 338, 240 Pac. 388.

9107. Summons—How issued, and what to contain.

After summons is issued correctly in compliance with this section, no other summons, save an alias summons, may issue, and the latter only upon a showing that the statutory exigency exists and that the requirements of the statute have been met. State ex rel. Bonners Ferry Lbr. Co. v. District Court, 74 Mont. 338, 240 Pac. 388.

9112. Service of summons on certain corporations—Made on secretary of state.

In an action against a domestic corporation an affidavit for an order of substituted service of summons by the secretary of state or his assistant is sufficient if it discloses that the president or other head of the corporation, secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof cannot be found. Rothrock v. Bauman et al., 73 Mont. 401, 236 Pac. 1077.

The affidavit for substituted service of summons required by this section need not recite that plaintiff's cause of action arose within this state. Rothrock v. Bauman et al., 73 Mont. 401, 236 Pac. 1077.

Where substituted service of summons upon a corporation was properly made on the deputy secretary of state in the absence of the secretary himself, and that officer did what he was required to do in the premises, the fact that the clerk in issuing the order for the substituted service directed that it be made upon the secretary of state or upon his deputy, instead of upon the secretary or "in his absence from his office" upon the deputy in conformity with the requirement of this section did not render the order invalid so as to deprive the court of jurisdiction to render judgment by default. Rothrock v. Bauman et al., 73 Mont. 401, 236 Pac. 1077.

Absence of a statement in an affidavit for substituted service of summons that plaintiff has a good cause of action on the merits, does not render it insufficient. Rothrock v. Bauman et al., 73 Mont. 401, 236 Pac. 1077.

9118. Manner of publication.

Where, after the making of an order for publication of summons upon a non-resident defendant, the summons is personally served under this section, the service does not become complete until the day on which the fourth publication would have been made if plaintiff had proceeded under the order of publication, and the date of personal service is considered the date of the first publication for the purpose of computing the time of service. Reynolds v. Gladys Belle Oil Co., 75 Mont. 332, 243 Pac. 576.

THE COMPLAINT.

9129. Complaint—What to contain.

A complaint stating the facts constituting a contract imposing a duty upon defendant, its breach and resulting damages, in ordinary and concise language, is sufficient under this section and proof against a general demurrer. Borgeas v. Oregon Short Line Ry. Co., 73 Mont. 407, 236 Pac. 1069.

In a complaint for an injunction, the bare statement that the plaintiff has no plain, speedy and adequate remedy at law is no more than the averment of a conclusion and is therefore insufficient. State ex rel. Stephens v. Zuck et al., 67 Mont. 324, 215 Pac. 806.

Cited in Gravelin v. Porier et al., 77 Mont. 260, 280, 250 Pac. 823; Callan v. Hample, 73 Mont. 321, 324, 236 Pac. 550;

Co.*, 59 Mont. 367, 370, 197 Pac. 839.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 39, 57-59, 66.

9130. What causes of action may be joined.

Under this section, causes of action may be united only when they affect all the parties to the action; hence where one of two causes of action affected only one of several defendants, there was a misjoinder and the court erred in overruling a special demurrer to the complaint based on that ground. Baker v. Hanson et al., 72 Mont. 22, 231 Pac. 902.

Under this section, providing that several causes of action arising out of "injuries to property" may be united in the same complaint, causes of action for damages to real and personal property may properly be united. Weibush et al. v. Jefferson Canal Co., 68 Mont. 586, 220 Pac. 99.

Under this section, and the rule that a separate liability of the principal cannot be joined in an action on the bond against the surety, an action by a county against its assessor to recover from him money lost to it by reason of his wilful failure and neglect to assess property, was improperly joined with an action against a surety company on the official bond of that officer. County of Silver Bow v. Kelly et al., 68 Mont. 194, 216 Pac. 1106.

Under this section, a cause of action for damages for injuries suffered by the owner of real property personally by way of annoyance, discomfort, etc., may not be united with one for damages occasioned to the property itself by its depreciation in value because of the maintenance of a nuisance. Lennon et al. v. City of Butte, 67 Mont. 101, 214 Pac. 1101.

This section, requiring plaintiff to separately state and number his causes of action, and a motion to so separately state and number, do not refer to imperfect statements of causes of action but to causes of action that are proof against a demurrer for substance. Thwing v. Weiser et al., 65 Mont. 28, 210 Pac. 750.

CHAPTER 11.

DEMURRER TO COMPLAINT.

9131. When derendant may demur.

Want of legal capacity to sue for which, under this section, defendant may interpose a special demurrer to the complaint, means some legal disability of the plaintiff, such as infancy, coverture, idiocy, etc., and does not refer to the absence of facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action or to plaintiff's relation to the subject matter of litigation. Lefebure et al. v. Baker et al., 69 Mont. 193, 220 Pac. 1111.

Lack of legal capacity in plaintiff to sue, when apparent on the face of the complaint, can be questioned only by demurrer, and when not so apparent the objection may be taken by answer; if not so taken advantage of, it is deemed waived. Northwestern Hardware & S. Co. v. Winnett, 67 Mont. 545, 216 Pac. 568,

The objection that causes of action are not separately numbered cannot be raised by demurrer. The proper remedy is a motion to make the complaint more definite and certain by separately stating the causes of action. Jorud v. Woodside, 63 Mont. 23, 206 Pac. 344.

A complaint to be proof against a special demurrer, ought at least to be sufficiently definite and certain to be on its face a bar to another suit on the same cause of action. Smallhorn v. Freeman, 61 Mont. 137, 201 Pac. 567.

Cited in La Bonte v. Mutual Fire etc. Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 11, 241 Pac. 631; Stoffels v. Cherry, 67 Mont. 443, 445, 215 Pac. 1098; Adams v. Durfee et al., 67 Mont. 315, 318, 215 Pac. 664; Frost et al. v. Long & Co. et al., 66 Mont. 385, 391, 213 Pac. 1107.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 98-108.

9132. Demurrer must specify, etc.

Where a misjoinder of parties defendant is patent upon the face of the complaint, the defect can be availed of only by special demurrer, failure to interpose which waives it. Schauer v. Morgan et al., 67 Mont. 455, 216 Pac. 347.

Cited in Morrison v. Concordia Fire Ins. Co. et al., 72 Mont. 97, 99, 231 Pac. 905; Lefebure et al. v. Baker et al.,

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 112.

9134. Amended complaints—Answer.

Where the amended complaint in an action for divorce added a new count, the allegations of which were not denied by the answer to the original complaint, it was incumbent upon the defendant to answer or demur anew, failing in which his default was properly entered. Danielson v. Danielson, 62 Mont. 83, 203 Pac. 506.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 223, 225, 229.

9135. Objection not appearing on complaint may be taken by answer.

Sections 9135, 9136 were cited in La Bonte v. Mutual Fire etc. Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 11, 241 Pac. 631; Northwestern Hardware & S. Co. v. Winnett, 67 Mont. 545, 550, 216 Pac. 568; Frost et al. v.

Long & Co. et al., 66 Mont. 385, 392, 213 Pac. 1107.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 95, 130.

9136. Objections—When deemed waived.

Where it does not appear from the face of the complaint that plaintiff is not the real party in interest, the defect can only be reached by answer and is waived by failure so to plead. La Bonte v. Mutual Fire Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 241 Pac. 631.

In view of this section, where an official bond was conditioned on defendants taking an appeal to the supreme court, an action thereon which failed to aver that no appeal was taken was fatal to the existence of the cause of action, and the right to recover thereon was entirely destroyed where plaintiff affirmatively averred such appeal was in fact taken, and such defects going to sufficiency of the complaint to state a cause of action were not cured by findings of court. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. Whitaker, 8 Fed. (2d) 455.

CHAPTER 12.

ANSWER.

9137. Answer—What to contain.

The effect of a general denial is to cast upon the plaintiff the burden of establishing prima facie at least, the presence of every element necessary to a recovery. Swords v. Occident Elevator Co., 72 Mont. 189, 232 Pac. 189.

An agreement of accord and satisfaction in order to be available in defense, must be specially pleaded. Nelson v. Young et al., 70 Mont. 112, 224 Pac. 237.

Cited in In re Griggs, 74 Mont. 373, 375, 240 Pac. 820; Security State Bank of Roy v. Melchert et al., 67 Mont. 535, 538, 216 Pac. 340.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 131.

9138. Counterclaim defined.

A counterclaim must be in existence and matured at the time of the commencement of the action in which it is pleaded; therefore where a counterclaim was based upon a contract which had been superseded by a subsequent one, the court properly excluded testimony offered in support of it. Dick v. King, 73 Mont. 456, 236 Pac. 1093.

Under subdivision 2 of this section, a counterclaim may be pleaded in an action on a contract if in existence at the time the action was commenced; hence where a deficiency judgment in a foreclosure suit was not obtained by defendant until long after the action was commenced, a counterclaim based upon it was not permissible. Dreidlein v. Manger, 69 Mont. 155, 220 Pac. 1107.

A demurrer interposed to a counterclaim on the ground that it was "not one of the character specified" in this section, was sufficient to raise the question whether or not the counterclaim was one which could be set up in the particular action. Mulcahy v. Duggan, 67 Mont. 9, 214 Pac. 1106.

The "transaction" referred to in this section is that combination of acts and events, circumstances and defaults, which, viewed in one aspect, result in plaintiff's right of action, when viewed in another aspect, result in defendant's right of action, the rule being the same whether the action be ex contractu or ex delicto. Mulcahy v. Duggan, 67 Mont. 9, 214 Pac. 1106.

In determining whether a counterclaim arises out of the transaction set forth in the complaint as the foundation of plaintiff's claim, the court is not limited to the facts alleged in the complaint but may look to all the facts and circumstances out of which the injury complained of by plaintiff arose. Mulcahy v. Duggan, 67 Mont. 9, 214 Pac. 1106.

In an action against an individual defendant to recover the price of livestock sold to him, a counterclaim for services rendered to the plaintiff by a copartnership of which defendant was a member, could not be set up, even though the other partner consented thereto. Heinrich v. Kirby, 64 Mont. 1, 208 Pac. 897; Lappin v. Martin et al., 71 Mont. 233, 238, 228 Pac. 763; Cook-Reynolds Co. v. Wilson, 67 Mont. 147, 150, 214 Pac. 1104.

9139. Counterclaim—Rules thereof.

Cited in Heinrich v. Kirby, 64 Mont. 1, 7, 208 Pac. 897.

9146. Defendant may set forth all his defense and counterclaim.

Under the rule of practice that defendant may set up as many defenses as he may have, even though inconsistent, provided they are not so far inconsistent with each other that if the allegations of one are true those of the other must of necessity be false, defendant insurance company's denial of liability on grounds other than failure of proof of loss did not constitute a waiver of notice and proof of loss. Johnson v. Rocky Mountain Fire Ins. Assn., 70 Mont. 411, 226 Pac. 515.

Cited in Nelson v. Young et al., 70 Mont. 112, 116, 224 Pac. 237.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 133; vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 275.

9151. Cross-complaint—Filing—Service.

An allegation in the answer which is neither an admission nor a denial of any averment contained in the complaint, nor authorized by this section, providing for the filing of a cross-complaint, is subject to a motion to strike. Security State Bank of Roy v. Melchert et al., 67 Mont. 535, 216 Pac. 340.

Under this section, enacted to supplement the interpleader statute by providing for a class of cases not comprehended within section 9087, a defendant may by cross-complaint make others (adverse claimants) parties to the action, so as to permit the court to fully adjudicate the rights of all parties in its subject matter, and under it defendant may, as he may not in an action of interpleader, contest with plaintiff the extent of his liability, and therefore an order striking the pleading from the files was error. Security State Bank of Roy v. Melchert et al., 67 Mont. 535, 216 Pac. 340.

Right of defendant in action for injury to person or property to set up by cross-complaint claim for injury to his person or property against co-defendant, note, 43 A. L. R. 879.

9157. Must specify grounds.

CHAPTER 14.REPLY.*9158. What reply to contain.

Where an estoppel pleaded completely avoided the cause of action set forth in the complaint, the defendant was entitled to judgment on the pleadings. Middle States O. Corp. v. Tanner-Jones Co., 73 Mont. 180, 235 Pac. 770.

Under this section, a reply to a counterclaim must be filed within twenty days after service and filing of the answer; hence where a reply was not filed until nineteen months after the expiration of the twenty-day period and fourteen months after default had been entered, the court did not err in disregarding the belated pleading on motion for judgment on the counterclaim. Munger v. Nelson, 61 Mont. 104, 201 Pac. 286.

Cited in Adams v. Durfee et al., 67 Mont. 315, 321, 215 Pac. 664.

CHAPTER 16.

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING.

9164. Pleadings to be liberally construed.

Where defendant was not misled by any allegations or lack of allegations in the complaint, but was fully prepared to defend the action upon the merits, the judgment in favor of plaintiff will not be reversed for mere technical defects in the pleading raised by general demurrer. Davis v. Freisheimer, 68 Mont. 322, 219 Pac. 236.

Under the liberal rule of construction of pleadings provided by this and section 9191, in determining the issues of law presented by a general demurrer to the complaint or by objection to the introduction of evidence, matters of form as well as allegations which are irrelevant or redundant must be disregarded, and if the pleading warrants recovery in any amount and upon any admissible theory, it will be sustained. Grant v. Nihill, 64 Mont. 420, 210 Pac. 914.

Under this section and the rule that the allegations of the complaint are to be construed liberally, with a view to substantial justice between the parties, failure of the plaintiff in an action to recover for extra services to set forth directly the terms of the original contract of employment did not render the complaint insufficient, where, from its averments, the terms thereof were properly inferable from the pleading. Doane v. Marquisee, 63 Mont. 166, 206 Pac. 420.

School District No. 1*, 68 Mont. 432, 434, 219 Pac. 1113; as section 6566, Revised Codes, in McManus v. Butte Electric Ry. Co., 68 Mont. 379, 389, 219 Pac. 241; Grover v. Hines, 66 Mont. 230, 233, 213 Pac. 250; as section 6566, Revised Codes, in Smallhorn v. Freeman, 61 Mont. 137, 143, 201 Pac. 567.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 53.

9165. Frivolous pleadings—How disposed of.

Under this section, an appeal does not lie from an order denying a motion for judgment on the pleadings. Corey v.

Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 72 Mont. 383, 233 Pac. 909.

9166. Sham or irrelevant pleadings.

Where the plea of another action pending is open to the objection of being sham, irrelevant and redundant, it may, under this section, be stricken on motion; where, however, the sufficiency of the plea is sought to be tested, the proper practice is to demur. McCormick et al. v. Shields, 63 Mont. 9, 205 Pac. 831.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 243.

9167. Account—How pleaded.

Failure to furnish a bill of particulars in a case where a bill may properly be demanded bars the delinquent party from being heard at the trial. Munger v. Nelson, 61 Mont. 104, 201 Pac. 286.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 157 et seq.; 21 Cal. Jur. 69.

9169. Judgments, etc.—How pleaded.

An allegation that H. "is now the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator" of an estate was insufficient as a pleading that the administrator had been appointed by an order "duly given or made," as permitted under this section, to show the jurisdictional fact of his appointment, and admission of evidence in support of it was therefore error. Henderson et al. v. Daniels, 62 Mont. 363, 205 Pac. 964.

Allegation of the complaint in an action for malicious prosecution for grand larceny in a justice's court, to the effect that the justice dismissed the charge "in due manner, in due course of law," held sufficient to show determination of the prosecution in plaintiff's favor, and not open to the objection that it was fatally defective because not in conformity with this section, providing that where a judgment or other determination of a court is pleaded it may be stated as having been "duly given or made," the statute applying only where the pleader chooses to allege the jurisdiction of the court in the abbreviated form in a cause where the right of action depends upon the validity of the judgment or order pleaded. Robinson v. Gordon, 61 Mont. 124, 201 Pac. 573.

Cited in Beck v. Felenzer et al., 69 Mont. 592, 598, 223 Pac. 499.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 282.

9170. Condition precedent.

The lapse of sixty days provided for in a fire insurance policy before the loss shall become payable, not being a condition precedent which plaintiff could perform before commencing suit, her general allegation, permissible under this section, that she had performed all conditions precedent to be performed by her under the contract, did not supply the necessary allegation that the period had elapsed before filing complaint. Smith v. Franklin Fire Ins. Co., 61 Mont. 441, 202 Pac. 751.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 402.

9175. Libel and slander—How stated in complaint.

In an action for libel founded on an article in a newspaper concerning a certain class of attorneys styled as "shysters" and referring to incidents occurring at a certain inquest, without, however, naming plaintiff or mentioning any individual in particular, which article was libelous per se, the complaint alleging that the matter printed was published "of and concerning the plaintiff" and that readers of the paper understood that plaintiff was the person alluded to, was sufficient under this section to permit of proof showing that plaintiff was the person concerning whom the article was published, and was not demurrable. Nolan v. Standard Publishing Co. et al., 67 Mont. 212, 216 Pac. 571.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 92.

9178. Allegations not denied—When deemed true.

Cited in Hogan v. Thrasher, 72 Mont. 318, 331, 233 Pac. 607.

9181. Supplemental pleading.

The matter of filing a supplemental pleading is not one which a party may demand as of right but is addressed to the discretion of the trial court, and in order to entitle the movant to favorable action, the motion must be made within a reasonable time after the facts material to the cause come to his knowledge. Pue v. Bushnell, 72 Mont. 265, 233 Pac. 124.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 169.

CHAPTER 17.

VARIANCE—MISTAKES IN PLEADINGS—AMENDMENTS.

9183. Material variances—How provided for.

Plaintiff alleged one contract in his complaint under which defendant employed him as a farm-hand at a specified wage; his evidence disclosed that he worked under a number of different agreements as to the kind of work to be performed and wages to be paid. Held, that in view of the matters alleged in the answer which required defendant to go into the entire matter of his employment of plaintiff and the wages to be paid at different times and for different periods, defendant could not have been misled to his prejudice in maintaining his defense on the merits, and that therefore the variance was immaterial under this section. Wasley v. Dryden, 66 Mont. 17, 212 Pac. 491.

In an action for personal injuries the complaint in which alleged that while plaintiff, a section foreman, was assisting in moving a rail, his coemployees negligently permitted it to drop and strike an iron bar plaintiff was using, causing the bar to strike plaintiff, etc., whereas plaintiff's evidence showed that the bar was inserted in a hole in the rail which in turning carried with it the bar, striking plaintiff, the variance between pleading and proof was immaterial within the meaning of this section. Stevens v. Hines et al., 63 Mont. 94, 206 Pac. 441.

Cited in Torgerson v. Stocke, 72 Mont. 7, 11, 230 Pac. 1096; Schauer v. Morgan et al., 67 Mont. 455, 467, 216 Pac. 347.

This and the two following sections were cited as sections 6585, 6586 and 6587, Revised Codes, in Rice v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 59 Mont. 570, 582, 197 Pac. 999.

Effect of proving case not pleaded where amendment cannot be made, note, 29 A. L. R. 638.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 207, 263.

9185. When not to be deemed a variance.

The fact that the complaint alleges a joint contract (an account stated) with two or more defendants, and the evidence discloses a separate contract with one of them, is not a variance amounting to a failure of proof within the meaning of this section. Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 208 Pac. 596.

Cited in State v. Brantingham, 66 Mont. 1, 12, 212 Pac. 499.

9186. Amendments of course, and effect of demurrer.

An amendment to a pleading made as a matter of right under this section, does not become effective for any purpose until it is filed and served; hence where an amended complaint was never served, judgment by default could not be rendered against defendant. Griffith v. Montana Wheat Growers' Assn., 75 Mont. 466, 244 Pac. 277.

The right of plaintiff to amend his complaint before demurrer or answer is secured to him by this section, and therefore as to it the trial court may not exercise any discretion, and the right extends to correcting or supplying a verification. Claussen v. Chapin, 69 Mont. 205, 221 Pac. 1073.

This section, requiring service of amended pleadings upon the adverse party, applies only to amendments made as a matter of right, and not to amendments which can only be made by permission of the court. Price et al. v. Skylstead, 69 Mont. 453, 222 Pac. 1059.

An amended complaint filed after answer and without leave of court first obtained may be stricken from the files upon motion of the defendant, but if not so stricken, the irregularity will be deemed cured. Danielson v. Danielson, 62 Mont. 83, 203 Pac. 506.

This and section 9187 were cited as sections 6588, 6589, Revised Codes, in Barrett v. Shipley, 63 Mont. 152, 157, 206 Pac. 430.

9187. Amendments by the court—Enlarging time to plead and relieving from judgment.

This section, providing that the trial court may allow an amendment of any pleading upon such terms as may be just, does not under all circumstances require the imposition of terms as a condition to granting leave, the matter being left to the discretion of the court; and where it does not appear that the application to amend was untimely, or that the adversary of the applicant was placed at any disadvantage or incurred any expense by reason of the amendment having been allowed, the action of the court granting leave without imposing terms will not be held an abuse of discretion. Wandel v. Wandel, 76 Mont. 160, 248 Pac. 864.

The power granted to the district court under this section to set aside a default judgment is predicated upon the neglect of the movant, coupled with a showing of facts and circumstances which will reasonably excuse it; hence the presence of neglect alone is not sufficient to deny relief. Reynolds v. Gladys Belle Oil Co., 75 Mont. 332, 243 Pac. 576.

Judgments by default are not favored, it being the policy of the law to have every case tried upon its merits; trial courts in passing upon motions for opening default judgments should exercise the same liberal spirit which prompted the legislature in enacting this section, and where a court refuses to grant such a motion no great abuse of discretion need be shown to warrant a reversal. Reynolds v. Gladys Belle Oil Co., 75 Mont. 332, 243 Pac. 576.

Where the resident agent of a foreign corporation had been served with summons, his act in mailing it to the general counsel of defendant without knowledge that the latter had been discharged and who failed to transmit it to his former client, and the failure of the defendant company to advise its agent of his discharge, resulting in the entry of a judgment by default, were excusable under the circumstances. Reynolds v. Gladys Belle Oil Co., 75 Mont. 332, 243 Pac. 576.

Miscarriage of a letter sent by a defendant to his attorney to take care of a case pending against him, receipt of which would have avoided an entry of default, is a sufficient showing of excusable neglect to warrant the setting aside of the default. Reynolds v. Gladys Belle Oil Co., 75 Mont. 332, 243 Pac. 576.

The matter of the amendment of a pleading at any time rests within the sound discretion of the trial court and its action is not cause for reversal of a judgment in the absence of an affirmative showing of abuse of discretion resulting in prejudice. Callan v. Hample, 73 Mont. 321, 236 Pac. 550.

The mere fact that the parties to an action were discussing a settlement did not absolve plaintiff, against whom judgment by default was taken, from making timely appearance, and the court's refusal to open the default was proper. Middle-States O. Corp. v. Tanner-Jones Co., 73 Mont. 180, 235 Pac. 770.

Under this section, the district court may and should, on motion to discharge a writ of attachment because of a defective affidavit, in furtherance of justice permit amendment of the affidavit and deny the motion, where the defect is readily amendable. Jenkins v. First Nat. Bank et al., 73 Mont. 110, 236 Pac. 1085.

Where defendant, after writing a letter to an attorney relative to the action against him, failed to have a consultation with the attorney as he had promised to do and to ascertain whether he would appear for him, refusal of a motion to vacate a default judgment was not an abuse of discretion. First State Bank v. Larsen, 72 Mont. 400, 233 Pac. 960.

The neglect of an attorney to make timely appearance is the neglect of the client, and the latter can be relieved from the consequences of the attorney's neglect only on a showing which would excuse the client under like circumstances. First State Bank v. Larsen, 72 Mont. 400, 233 Pac. 960.

Affidavits in support of a motion to vacate a default judgment disclosing that the defendant was of doubtful mentality at the time the summons was served upon her and was under the impression that by appearing before a notary to give her deposition at the instance of the plaintiff she had made appearance in the cause, a case of excusable neglect was made out and the court abused its discretion in refusing to grant the motion. Brothers v. Brothers, 71 Mont. 378, 230 Pac. 60.

The limitation of six months prescribed by this section, within which a default judgment may be vacated, refers to defaults entered through mistake, inadvertence or excusable neglect only, and therefore has no application to a case where lack of power in the court to enter the judgment appears upon the face of the judgment-roll and the default is sought to be set aside for that reason. Hodson et al. v. O'Keeffe, 71 Mont. 322, 229 Pac. 722.

A showing by the defendant on his motion to set aside a default judgment that he intended to appear on the last day but forgot, because of a headache, was insufficient to invoke judicial discretion in his favor. Pacific Acceptance Corp. v. McCue, 71 Mont. 99, 228 Pac. 761.

Where a decree of divorce was nominally in favor of plaintiff wife but was in fact in favor of the defendant, and the plaintiff was induced to procure it through fraud perpetrated upon her by defendant to enable him to marry another woman, she could properly proceed in the original action by motion to have it vacated, under this section. Hall v. Hall, 70 Mont. 460, 226 Pac. 469.

Facts examined in connection with defendant's motion for leave to amend his answer after judgment and held to constitute no abuse of the discretion of the court in granting such leave on condition that the defendant pay plaintiff's costs. Apple v. Seaver, 70 Mont. 65, 223 Pac. 830.

While the word "proceeding" in its more general sense comprehends every step taken or measure adopted in the prosecution or defense of an action, in its more restricted sense as employed in this section, allowing a party to amend any pleading or proceeding, it refers to every paper which may be properly employed in an action other than the pleadings. Clausen v. Chapin, 69 Mont. 205, 221 Pac. 1073.

An affidavit, made on information and belief, in support of an application for an injunction, was a "proceeding," within the meaning of this section, and therefore amendable, before demurrer or answer, by substituting a verification. Clausen v. Chapin, 69 Mont. 205, 221 Pac. 1073.

Affidavit that defendant had employed counsel on the day the summons was served, but counsel, after informing defendant that he was looking after the matter, left the state on account of ill health without filing an answer, was not sufficient to authorize the opening of a default judgment in the absence of a certificate of the attending physician substantiating the statements of the defendant. St. Germain v. Vollmer, 68 Mont. 264, 216 Pac. 788.

To justify the granting of a motion to set aside a default, defendant must show that he proceeded with diligence, his excusable neglect, that the judgment if permitted to stand will affect him injuriously, and that he has a meritorious defense to plaintiff's cause of action. Eder v. Bereolos, 63 Mont. 363, 207 Pac. 471.

In setting aside a default judgment for neglect of counsel for defendant in an action for trespass, the court did not abuse its discretion where counsel had been for some time prior to, and was at the date for appearance, engaged as counsel for defendant in a homicide case of unusual importance, and in the conduct of which his attention was so absorbed as to cause him to overlook making an appearance, it further appearing that he acted promptly and had a meritorious defense. Eder v. Bereolos, 63 Mont. 363, 207 Pac. 471.

On motion to set aside a default, the applicant must make a statement of facts from which the court can determine whether or not the mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect urged in support of it is within the contemplation of this section, the bare statement of the conclusion that the default occurred by mistake, etc., being insufficient to move the discretion of the court. Robinson v. Petersen, 63 Mont. 247, 206 Pac. 1092.

An affidavit of counsel for defendant that he misunderstood the date upon which the appearance of his client was due and mistakenly supposed it to be at a date ten days later than it actually was, without a statement of any fact or circumstance out of which the misunderstanding arose, was insufficient to move the discretion of the court. Robinson v. Petersen, 63 Mont. 247, 206 Pac. 1092.

Applications to amend, under this section, are addressed to the sound legal discretion of the trial court and should be allowed in furtherance of justice but not where the applicant has been guilty of indifference or neglect. Barrett v. Shipley, 63 Mont. 152, 206 Pac. 430.

Where defendant knew of the pendency of an action against him five months before judgment by default was entered, but took no steps looking to a defense on the merits until seven months after its entry, when he moved to set it aside, asking leave to file his answer, and thereafter for three years more, neglected to bring his motion on for hearing, denial of the motion on the ground of inexcusable delay was proper. Hinderager v. MacGinniss, 61 Mont. 312, 202 Pac. 200.

Affidavits of counsel in support of a motion to vacate a default judgment, setting forth the absence of the defendant, attempts to reach her by mail, etc., were examined and held insufficient to warrant reversal of the order denying the motion. Smallhorn v. Freeman, 61 Mont. 137, 201 Pac. 567.

To warrant the vacation of a default, it is necessary that the party in default show affirmatively that he proceeded with diligence, that the neglect was excusable, that the judgment if permitted to stand will affect him injuriously, and that he has a good defense on the merits. Delaney v. Cook et al., 59 Mont. 92, 195 Pac. 833.

Where, in an action against eight defendants, the one most vitally interested in the result was not served with summons and did not know that it had been brought until several days after default, and the others relied upon him to make appearance and defend the action, and one of them was under the impression that the summons served upon him meant simply that he was to appear as a witness, etc., refusal to open the default was error. Delaney v. Cook et al., 59 Mont. 92, 195 Pac. 833.

A default judgment should not be opened where the neglect was inexcusable or in aid of an effort to prolong litigation. Delaney v. Cook et al., 59 Mont. 92, 195 Pac. 833.

In cases falling within its scope, this section itself suggests the grounds upon which the legal discretion should be brought into action. Delaney v. Cook et al., 59 Mont. 92, 195 Pac. 833.

9191. No error or defect to be regarded unless it affects substantial rights.

Under this section, courts must disregard any error in proceedings which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. Atkinson v. Roosevelt County et al., 71 Mont. 165, 227 Pac. 811.

Under the liberal rules of construction of pleadings provided by this and section 9164, in determining the issues of law presented by a general demurrer to the complaint or by objection to the introduction of evidence, matters of form as well as allegations which are redundant, must be disregarded and if the pleading warrants recovery in any amount and upon any admissible theory, it will be sustained. *Grant v. CLAIM AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

9220. Plaintiff may claim delivery.

To state a cause of action in claim and delivery, the complaint must allege ownership or right of possession in the plaintiff, that defendant is wrongfully in possession and the value of the property.

CHAPTER 21.

ATTACHMENT.

9256. When attachment may issue.

A bond given in pursuance to section 4767 to insure the prompt payment of county funds is a contract for the direct payment of money, warranting the issuance of a writ of attachment in an action against the sureties to recover thereon. State v. Pondera Valley State Bank et al., 77 Mont. 1, 248 Pac. 207.

Where an attachment exists at the time of judgment in favor of the attaching creditor, it becomes merged in the judgment. Harboldt v. Hensen, 75 Mont. 512, 244 Pac. 488.

The double liability imposed by section 6036 upon a holder of stock in an insolvent state bank is in the nature of a guaranty and will not, therefore, support an attachment in an action by the receiver to collect an assessment levied upon the stock of a delinquent stockholder. Muri v. Young, 75 Mont. 213, 245 Pac. 956.

An action by a county treasurer to recover on a bond securing bank deposits of county funds is one on a contract for the direct payment of money, warranting the issuance of a writ of attachment against the property of the sureties. Jenkins v. First Nat. Bank et al., 73 Mont. 110, 236 Pac. 1085.

In an action on an unsecured note given by the purchaser of real property under an executory contract for its sale, an attachment may properly issue. Smith v. Bunston, 72 Mont. 535, 234 Pac. 836.

The double liability imposed by section 6036 upon a stockholder in a state banking corporation is in its nature contractual and in an action to collect an assessment made against him upon that liability, an attachment will lie. Home State Bank v. Swartz, 72 Mont. 425, 234 Pac. 281.

An action by a surety for contribution from his cosurety is one on an implied contract for money by the former for the use and benefit of the latter; hence the action is one in which an attachment may issue. Wall v. Brookman, 72 Mont. 228, 232 Pac. 774.

Attachment is a summary proceeding ancillary to the action in which it is issued and is of purely statutory origin, and the legislature by enacting the general attachment statute under which the writ can issue only in an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, was not thereby deprived of its power to grant the remedy in an action ex delicto. Daley et al. v. Torrey et al., 71 Mont. 513, 230 Pac. 782.

A bond in which the sureties unconditionally undertook to indemnify the county treasurer for default of a bank to pay over to him on demand any funds that he might have on deposit therein was a contract of surety and not of guaranty and hence was a contract for the direct payment of money, warranting the issuance of an attachment against the property of the sureties in an action on the bond. State ex rel. Barnett v. Reynolds et al., 68 Mont. 572, 220 Pac. 525.

A contract guaranteeing "the collection and payment of the within note" was not one for the direct payment of money within the meaning of the attachment statute, and therefore an attachment issued in an action to enforce the guaranty was properly dissolved. Square Butte State Bank v. Ballard, 64 Mont. 554, 210 Pac. 889.

The liability of a director for the debts of his corporation imposed by section 6003, for failure of the corporation to file its annual report, does not arise out of a contract express or implied for the direct payment of money. In an action to enforce such liability, an attachment was improperly issued. Butler v. Peters, 62 Mont. 381, 26 A. L. R. 560, 205 Pac. 247.

Where an attachment is issued in an action not falling within the provision of this section, and service of summons is made by publication only, the property of defendant is not brought within the jurisdiction and control of the court, and a judgment by default, being one in personam, is void. Hinderager v. MacGinniss, 61 Mont. 312, 202 Pac. 200.

The question whether an action is one in which a writ of attachment may issue under this section, must be determined upon the complaint alone. Heffron v. Thomas et al., 61 Mont. 10, 201 Pac. 572.

An action by the buyer of an automobile to recover its purchase price with interest, because of failure of title in the seller, was not one upon a contract for the direct payment of money, and therefore an attachment issued therein was properly dissolved. Heffron v. Thomas et al., 61 Mont. 10, 201 Pac. 572.

This and the following section were cited as sections 6656, 6657, Revised Codes, in Savage Tire Sales Co. v. Stuart et al., 61 Mont. 524, 530, 203 Pac. 364.

9257. Affidavit—What to contain.

An affidavit on attachment which alleges specific indebtedness of the defendant in a principal sum is not vitiated by reference to interest, but is sufficient to sustain the attachment to the extent of the principal sum at least. State ex rel. Nauman v. Pondera Valley State Bank, 77 Mont. 1, 248 Pac. 207.

A plaintiff who desires to avail himself of the remedy of the writ of attachment must comply with the provisions of this section, one of which is that the affidavit must recite that the debt sued upon "has not been secured"; hence a statement that the debt "is not secured," leaving it to be inferred that it once may have been secured but is not then, renders the affidavit insufficient and the writ subject to discharge. Jenkins v. First Nat. Bank et al., 73 Mont. 110, 236 Pac. 1085.

Where, because of a defective affidavit on attachment, the writ should have been discharged (unless the trial court in furtherance of justice saw fit to permit the affidavit to be cured by amendment), and it is apparent that the defect is readily amendable and the amendment will be in furtherance of justice, the cause will be remanded with directions to discharge the attachment unless, within a stated time after remittitur filed, the plaintiff shall file an amended affidavit to meet the requirements of this section. Home State Bank v. Swartz, 72 Mont. 425, 234 Pac. 281.

9260. Writ—To whom directed and what to contain.

When the complaint on which a writ of attachment is issued demands different amounts from several defendants, the writ must conform to the complaint in that respect and direct the attachment of so much property of the respective defendants as will secure the amount alleged to be due from each one. State ex rel. Nauman v. Pondera Valley State Bank, 77 Mont. 1, 248 Pac. 207.

Where each one of a number of co-defendants against whom a writ of attachment had been issued challenged its sufficiency as a whole, a motion to discharge it was properly denied where it was sufficient as to any one of them, even though improperly issued as to the others. Jenkins v. First Nat. Bank et al., 73 Mont. 110, 236 Pac. 1085.

9261. Shares of stock and debts due defendant—How attached and disposed of.

Under this section and 9262, a debt is "property" which may be attached, and a levy upon it operates to impound it and in effect to place it in the custody of the law and beyond the control of its owner; hence where a debt due plaintiff was wrongfully attached in an action against another, the seizure amounted to a conversion. Englehart v. Sage, 73 Mont. 139, 40 A. L. R. 590, 235 Pac. 767.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 6 Cal. Jur. 809.

9262. Levy of attachment.

The requirements of the statute that personal property capable of manual delivery must be attached by taking it into custody, and that property of that description incapable of such delivery must be attached by leaving a copy of the writ with the owner or the person in control of it as his agent, together with a notice that it is attached in pursuance of the writ, must be substantially followed, the statute recognizing no equivalent or evasion, otherwise the attaching creditor acquires no lien upon the property in satisfaction of any judgment he may thereafter obtain. Keith v. Ramage et al., 66 Mont. 578, 214 Pac. 326.

488; Englehart v. Sage, 73 Mont. 139, 143, 40 A. L. R. 590, 235 Pac. 767.

9282. When a motion to discharge attachment may be made, and upon what ground.

The "release" of an attachment refers exclusively to the levy of the writ, involves a ministerial duty, and may be ordered by the party who caused the levy to be made; whereas, its "discharge" refers to the writ itself, involves a judicial function and one the party securing the writ cannot perform himself, nor procure to have it performed by an officer for him. National Bank of Mon- tana v. First Nat. Bank of Poplar, 71 Mont. 242, 228 Pac. 80.

This section, permitting discharge of an attachment on the ground that the writ was improperly or irregularly issued, does not authorize its discharge on the ground that the proceeds of sale of homestead lands were exempt from seizure. Davis et al. v. Bryant, 62 Mont. 352, 205 Pac. 209.

Codes, in Davis et al. v. Bryant, 62 Mont. 352, 354, 205 Pac. 209.

9284. When writ must be discharged.

Where the affidavit for a writ of attachment originally recited that the debt sued on had not been secured, the court properly permitted the affiant to amend to the effect that while the debt had originally been secured, the security had become valueless without any fault of his. Hetrick v. Renwald, 73 Mont. 426, 236 Pac. 1089.

An affidavit on attachment stating that the debt "is not secured" instead of "has not been secured" as required by statute, though defective, was not void, but subject to amendment under this section. American Surety Co. of New York v. Kartowitz, 59 Mont. 1, 195 Pac. 99.

Cited in Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 597, 208 Pac. 596.

9316. Relief to be awarded to plaintiff.

The rule that a party may not adopt one theory of the case in his complaint and recover upon another, or adopt one theory in the trial court and insist upon a different one on appeal, is not affected by the provision of this section that the district court may grant plaintiff any relief consistent with his complaint and fairly embraced within the issues. Outlook F. E. Co. v. American S. Co., 70 Mont. 8, 223 Pac. 905.

In a mortgage foreclosure suit the court may order the land to be sold en masse without a foundation therefor being laid in the pleadings; therefore the contention of defendants, who defaulted, that since plaintiff's prayer did not ask such relief and on default he was not entitled to relief not demanded in the complaint, was without merit. Elston v. Hix et al., 67 Mont. 294, 215 Pac. 657.

Cited in State ex rel. Petters & Co. v. District Court, 76 Mont. 143, 149, 245 Pac. 529; Elston v. Hix et al., 67 Mont. 294, 300, 215 Pac. 657; Simonsen v. Barth et al., 64 Mont. 95, 99, 208 Pac. 938; as section 6713, Revised Codes, in Wing et al. v. Brasher, 59 Mont. 10, 19, 194 Pac. 1106.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 985.

9317. Action may be dismissed or nonsuit entered.

Dismissal of an action for neglect of the successful party to have judgment entered for more than six months after verdict or final submission must precede entry of judgment; therefore a judgment entered after the expiration of the six months' period, but before motion to dismiss is interposed, is not void and hence not open to collateral attack. Kasun v. Todevich, 71 Mont. 315, 229 Pac. 714.

While the language of subdivision 6 of this section, that an action may be dismissed by the court when after verdict or final submission the party entitled to judgment neglects to have it entered for more than six months, is mandatory, the provision can be invoked only in a case which comes clearly within its terms. Kasun v. Todevich, 71 Mont. 315, 229 Pac. 714.

Where defendant in an action for divorce did not interpose a counterclaim or ask for affirmative relief in her answer, plaintiff, under this section, could properly dismiss the action before trial, after he had been ordered to pay alimony, and commence a new action in another county without being open to the charge of sharp practice. Davenport v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 222 Pac. 422.

Under this section, an action may be dismissed when after "final submission"—when judgment may be demanded as a matter of right—the party entitled thereto through his own neglect fails to have it entered for more than six months, thus evincing an intention to abandon the fruits of his victory. Samuell v. Montana-Holland Colonization Co., 69 Mont. 111, 220 Pac. 1093.

In an action tried to the court sitting without a jury findings of fact and conclusions of law were made in favor of plaintiff but before judgment was entered the trial judge notified counsel that they had been withdrawn for further consideration, and a minute entry was made to that effect. The judge soon thereafter resigned and the parties stipulated that the cause should be submitted to his successor for decision upon the evidence previously taken and upon arguments to be presented. The cause was set but the setting canceled. The term of the second judge expired without a decision having been reached. It was again stipulated that the cause should be submitted to the newly elected judge, but before it was actually submitted counsel for plaintiff ascertained that the findings and conclusions never had been withdrawn from the files and he thereupon asked for judgment, counsel for defendant on the other hand moving for dismissal of the action for failure of plaintiff to have the judgment entered for more than six months after the findings and conclusions had been made and filed. The court granted the latter motion and denied the former. Held, that the court erred since, under the circumstances, plaintiff was not guilty of neglect in failing to have judgment entered within the time limited by this section. Samuell v. Montana-Holland Colonization Co., 69 Mont. 111, 220 Pac. 1093.

Under this section, providing for a dismissal or nonsuit for failure of proof, whether there is substantial evidence in support of plaintiff's case is always a question of law for the court. Flynn v. Poindexter and Orr L. Co., 63 Mont. 337, 207 Pac. 341.

Since, in legal effect, a motion for a directed verdict is a demurrer to the evidence, where no evidence was introduced in a claim and delivery action, an order directing the jury to find in favor of defendant, was technical error, this section providing that in such a case a nonsuit or dismissal of the complaint is the proper remedy; held, however, that the error was harmless, the action taken by the court having placed plaintiff in no worse position than he would have been if the statute had been strictly pursued. Barrett v. Shipley, 63 Mont. 152, 206 Pac. 430.

The six months' period at the expiration of which an action may be dismissed by the court, under this section, if the party entitled to judgment neglects to demand and have the same entered, does not commence to run from date of entry of default, in a personal injury action, but from the date of final submission, i. e., production of proof by plaintiff. Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 198 Pac. 132.

Under this section an action may be dismissed by the court when after final submission, i. e., a submission which is the equivalent of a verdict and when judgment may be demanded as of course, the party entitled thereto has neglected for more than six months to demand and have judgment entered. Smotherman v. Christianson, 59 Mont. 202, 195 Pac. 1106.

Where, in an action for unliquidated damages, plaintiff did not after entry of default, apply to the court, make proof of his damages and secure a determination of the amount either by the court or by the verdict of a jury, there was no submission equivalent to a verdict, and the court erred in dismissing the action under subdivision 6 of this section. Smotherman v. Christianson, 59 Mont. 202, 195 Pac. 1106.

Cited in Bennetts v. Silver Bow Amusement Co., 65 Mont. 340, 347, 211 Pac. 336.

9320. Effect of judgment dismissing complaint.

Where the judgment of nonsuit in a prior action between the same parties involving the same subject matter in a subsequent action did not disclose that it had been rendered on the merits, refusal to permit the judgment-roll to be introduced in evidence on a plea of res adjudicata was proper. Bennetts v. Silver Bow Amusement Co., 65 Mont. 340, 211 Pac. 336.

Dismissal or nonsuit in action on contract as bar to suit for reformation, note, 49 A. L. R. 1514.

CHAPTER 26.

JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.

9322. In what cases judgment by default may be entered.

The provision of subdivision 2 of this section that where no appearance has been made by defendant within the time therein specified, "the clerk must enter" his default is directory rather than mandatory. Edenfield v. Seal Co., Inc., 74 Mont. 509, 241 Pac. 227.

The "further time" which may be granted a defendant under this section, in addition to that specified in the summons within which to make appearance, held to mean such time as may be granted by order of court, by stipulation or impliedly by the failure of the plaintiff to have default entered. Edenfield v. Seal Co., Inc., 74 Mont. 509, 241 Pac. 227.

ISSUES—THE MODE OF TRIAL AND POSTPONEMENTS.

9326. Issue of fact—How raised.

9327. Issue of fact—How tried—When issues both of law and fact, the former to be first disposed of.

An action was instituted against a corporation to recover on promissory notes given by it and to enforce liability of its directors as comakers and guarantors and for failure to file the annual statements required by statute. The only equitable relief prayed for was the foreclosure of a mortgage given by one of the directors on two town lots as security for the notes. The answers of the defendants consisted inter alia of denials and counterclaims which were put in issue by reply. Held that the defendants were entitled to a trial by jury of the strictly legal issues and that denial of such jury trial was error. Benson-Stabeck Co. v. Farmers' E. Co. et al., 66 Mont. 395, 214 Pac. 600.

v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 408, 222 Pac. 422.

9332. Motion to postpone a trial for absence of testimony, requisites of.

Where counsel for plaintiff asked for a continuance on the ground that plaintiff was unable to attend because of illness, and counsel for defendant agreed that he would admit that, if present, plaintiff would testify to the matters set forth in her affidavit, the continuance was properly denied. Ward v. Strowd et al., 76 Mont. 93, 244 Pac. 1007.

In denying a motion for a continuance on the ground of absent witnesses the court did not abuse its discretion where movant did not show that he had used due diligence in procuring the desired evidence, nor set forth that if a continuance were granted he would be able to secure the personal attendance of the witnesses or their evidence at a subsequent time, and his assertion of what he "believed" the witness would testify to was fairly met by counter-affidavits. McCarthy v. Anaconda Copper Mining Co., 70 Mont. 309, 225 Pac. 391.

The affidavit on application for a continuance on the ground of the absence of a necessary witness must show that due diligence was exercised by the applicant to procure the evidence of the witness, set forth the substance thereof, and that the witness if present will testify. Davenport v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 222 Pac. 422.

Where a continuance was sought in a divorce action on the ground that defendant, a necessary witness, was unable to be present because of her inability to defray the expense of travel, refusal thereof was proper in the absence of a showing that her financial condition would improve in the meantime, and of an excuse for failure to have her deposition taken. Davenport v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 222 Pac. 422.

Affidavits for a continuance not showing when the subpoena for an absent witness was issued, why it was sent to the sheriff of a county other than that of the residence of the witness, or that there was probability or possibility that his personal appearance or deposition could be procured at a date later than that set for trial, were insufficient. Hunt v. Van, 61 Mont. 395, 202 Pac. 573.

CHAPTER 28.

TRIAL BY JURY—FORMATION OF THE JURY.

9341. Ballots when drawn from box No. 3.

The procedure prescribed by this section, for drawing a special jury panel from box No. 3, which must be discharged upon conclusion of the particular case for which drawn, applies only where the regular panel has been exhausted because of an unusual number of disqualifications for cause in the particular case on trial, or where the jury impaneled in the case previously submitted is still in deliberation. Lee et al. v. Hayden, 63 Mont. 589, 208 Pac. 596.

Cited as section 6738, Revised Codes, in State v. Vuckovich, 61 Mont. 480, 489, 203 Pac. 491.

CHAPTER 29.

CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL.

9349. Order of trial.

An objection to an instruction that the evidence did not warrant its giving was insufficient under subdivision 5 of this section, which requires the objecting party to specify particularly wherein the instruction was insufficient or did not state the law. State v. Daly, 77 Mont. 387, 250 Pac. 976.

An objection to an instruction that it was an incorrect statement of the law and would have a tendency to mislead the jury held insufficient to entitle the alleged error to review, under this section, which requires the objector to point out wherein the proposed instruction is objectionable. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

Under this section, the supreme court is prohibited from considering on appeal any objection not raised in the trial court. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

Under this section, the supreme court is prohibited from taking cognizance of any objection to an instruction not specifically pointed out in the trial court. Eablonski v. Close, 70 Mont. 292, 225 Pac. 129.

Under this section, the supreme court in its review of instructions is limited to the objections made by counsel for appellant at the time they were settled; hence though an instruction may be incorrect but not open to the particular objection urged against it, the court may not declare error on that account. Outlook F. E. Co. v. American S. Co., 70 Mont. 8, 223 Pac. 905.

Under this section, the district court is precluded from granting a new trial for error in an instruction not specifically pointed out at the time of settlement of the instructions, and on appeal the supreme court will not consider any error not so pointed out. Lindquist v. Jennison et al., 66 Mont. 516, 214 Pac. 67.

Under this section, the supreme court may not reverse a judgment for error in instructions unless the error was specifically pointed out and excepted to at the settlement of the instructions. State v. Newman, 66 Mont. 180, 213 Pac. 805.

Where plaintiff did not inject any new matter in rebuttal and defendant did not ask leave to offer evidence in their original case nor make any offer of proof, refusal to permit them to introduce testimony in surrebuttal was not an abuse of discretion. First Nat. Bank of Saco v. Vagg et al., 65 Mont. 34, 212 Pac. 509.

In its review of an alleged erroneous instruction, the supreme court is limited under this section, to the particular objection to it urged upon the trial court at the time the instructions were settled. Humber v. Marshall, 60 Mont. 267, 198 Pac. 747.

THE VERDICT.

9362. Verdict in actions for recovery of money or on establishing counterclaim.

Cited in General F. E. Co. v. Northwestern A. S. Co., 70 Mont. 1, 7, 223 Pac. 504.

9363. Verdict in actions for the recovery of specific personal property.

The provision of this section that in claim and delivery the jury shall find the value of the property, does not apply where the value is conceded by both parties to be a certain amount. Dalke v. Pancoast, 63 Mont. 524, 208 Pac. 589.

Cited in Hennessy Co. v. Wagner et

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 196.

9364. Directed verdict—When.

A case should never be withdrawn from the jury unless the conclusion from the facts follows necessarily, as a matter of law, that a recovery cannot be had upon any view which can reasonably be drawn from the facts which the evidence tends to establish. Johnson v. Chicago etc. Ry. Co., 71 Mont. 390, 230 Pac. 52.

Where, in an action to recover the purchase price of fire-extinguishing apparatus, the defendant interposed a counterclaim for $10,000 for breach of contract, the failure of the plaintiff to introduce any testimony did not authorize the court to direct a verdict for defendant in that amount for unliquidated damages, the weight to be given to defendant's testimony and the amount recoverable by him being within the exclusive province of the jury. General F. E. Co. v. Northwestern A. S. Co., 70 Mont. 1, 223 Pac. 504.

Under this section, where upon the trial of an issue by a jury only questions of law are presented, the court may direct the jury to render a verdict in favor of the party entitled thereto. Moore et al. v. Crittenden et al., 62 Mont. 309, 204 Pac. 1035.

Right of party to have case submitted to jury when his own testimony negatives his right of action or defense, note, 50 A. L. R. 979.

CHAPTER 31.

TRIAL BY THE COURT.

9366. Upon trial by court, decision to be in writing and filed within twenty days.

The requirement of this section that the decision or findings of the trial court must be filed within twenty days after submission of the case is directory only, and failure to make decision within that time does not deprive the court of jurisdiction to decide the case at a later date. Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 241 Pac. 636.

Where the trial judge made his findings and conclusions of law within twenty days as required by this section, and before his term of office expired and directed his stenographer to file them but the latter delayed doing so until expiration of that time, they will not be ordered stricken on that ground. Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 241 Pac. 636.

The requirement of this section, that in a case tried by the court its decision or findings must be filed within twenty days after submission of the case, is directory merely. In re Bradfield's Estate, 69 Mont. 247, 221 Pac. 531.

Under this section, a judgment will not be reversed for failure of the trial court to make specific findings where the complaining party did not, at the close of the evidence and argument, make request therefor in writing and cause such request to be entered in the minutes. Hoskins v. Scottish Union Nat. Ins. Co., 59 Mont. 50, 195 Pac. 837.

Sections 9368, 9369 were cited in State ex rel. Case v. Bolles et al., 74 Mont. 54, 60, 238 Pac. 586.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 24 Cal. Jur. 923.

9369. Want of findings—Judgment not reversed.

Under this section, providing that a judgment shall not be reversed for want of findings unless request therefor shall have been made at the close of the argument, where findings were not requested until three days after argument—treating the expiration of the time within which to file memoranda of authorities as the close of the argument—the court did not err in failing to make findings. Doering v. Selby et al., 75 Mont. 416, 244 Pac. 485.

The presumption on appeal is that the trial court did not commit error; therefore, where error was assigned on the failure of the court to make findings as requested but the record did not disclose when the request was made or that the request had been entered in the minutes as required by this section, the assignment will not be considered. Edwards et al. v. Muri, 73 Mont. 339, 237 Pac. 209.

The provisions of this section and 9370 relative to the necessity of taking exceptions to alleged defective findings and their settlement by the trial judge, refer only to findings which are defective in the sense that they omit matters which are necessary or proper to be stated and not to what they contain, and therefore do not apply to a case where the court makes sufficient findings to warrant the relief prayed for but does not make the correct conclusions of law from the facts found. Louis v. Theatorium Co. et al., 69 Mont. 50, 222 Pac. 1062.

Cited in State ex rel. Case v. Bolles et al., 74 Mont. 54, 60, 238 Pac. 586; as section 6766, Revised Codes, in Hoskins v. Scottish Union & Nat. Ins. Co., 59 Mont. 50, 53, 195 Pac. 837.

9370. Exception for defective findings—Particular defect to be pointed out.

While before entry of judgment the trial court may, under this section, upon timely application, correct defective findings, after its entry the only remedy of the party who claims that the findings made are not supported by the evidence and desires others substituted and the judgment amended accordingly, is by appeal from the judgment on refusal of the court to amend. Merhar v. Powers et al., 73 Mont. 451, 236 Pac. 1076.

Cited in Samuell v. Montana-Holland Colonization Co., 69 Mont. 111, 115, 220 Pac. 1093.

CHAPTER 33.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRIALS IN GENERAL—EXCEPTIONS.

9387. What deemed excepted to.

Under this section, providing that every order, ruling or decision of the district court shall be deemed excepted to and it shall not be necessary to ask for or note an exception, an objection and exception to an order granting a motion for a directed verdict were not necessary to warrant review of the order on appeal. General F. E. Co. v. Northwestern A. S. Co., 70 Mont. 1, 223 Pac. 504.

The rule declared by this section, inter alia providing that every ruling or decision of the district court on the admissibility of evidence shall be deemed excepted to, has reference to civil, not criminal cases. State v. Prouty, 60 Mont. 310, 199 Pac. 281.

Cited in Laird v. Berthelote, 63 Mont. 122, 136, 206 Pac. 445; McAbey v. Junk, 68 Mont. 198, 204, 216 Pac. 1111; as chapter 255, L. 1921, in State v. Carmichael, 62 Mont. 159, 161, 204 Pac. 362.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 2 Cal. Jur. 922.

9389. Exceptions signed by a judge and filed with the clerk.

Cited in O'Donnell v. City of Butte, 72 Mont. 449, 453, 235 Pac. 707.

This and the following section were cited as sections 6787, 6788, Revised Codes, in Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 191, 198 Pac. 132.

9390. Exceptions not presented at time of ruling—Notice to adverse party—How settled upon, etc.

The signing of a bill of exceptions is not a part of its settlement; therefore where a bill was actually settled in the county in which the cause was tried by a judge called in from another district, the fact that the bill, not then ready to be signed, was later transmitted to him and signed in the county of his residence, did not render the bill subject to a motion to strike from the files. Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co., Ltd., et al., 75 Mont. 99, 242 Pac. 425.

The time within which a bill of exception must be prepared and settled begins to run from the date of the decision on the motion for a new trial and not from the time of filing the notice of appeal. Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 241 Pac. 636.

Timely presentation and signing a bill of exceptions is a jurisdictional question and on the expiration of the time allowed by statute, whether original or extended, the court loses jurisdiction to settle or sign the bill and such action, if done thereafter is a nullity and cannot be considered on appeal, even though opposing counsel should agree to its consideration. O'Donnell v. City of Butte, 72 Mont. 449, 235 Pac. 707.

Under this section, where a bill of exceptions appears on the face of the record to have been filed after the time allowed by law, the record must affirmatively show that additional time was allowed upon the filing of an affidavit disclosing necessity for further time; in the absence of such a showing the questions sought to be presented for review by the bill cannot be considered. O'Donnell v. City of Butte, 72 Mont. 449, 235 Pac. 707.

Under this section, the appellant from a final judgment desiring to have the proceedings at the trial reviewed, must have them incorporated in a bill of exceptions; if not so incorporated, the appeal may be dismissed. Atkinson v. Roosevelt County et al., 71 Mont. 165, 227 Pac. 811.

On appeal from a final judgment the evidence and proceedings had at the trial can only be reviewed if incorporated in a bill of exceptions settled as provided in this section, and therefore where there was no such bill and the evidence and proceedings were simply certified by the judge and clerk as provided in section 9745 on appeal from an order, review thereof cannot be had. In re Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 67 Mont. 436, 218 Pac. 945.

Where defendant did not present his bill of exceptions to the trial judge for settlement until 172 days after plaintiff had served upon him its proposed amendments, in violation of this section before amendment, which requires presentment of the bill within ten days after service of the proposed amendments, the record being barren of any excuse for the delay, the supreme court will disregard the bill together with all the questions sought to be presented for review thereby. Commercial Nat. Bank v. Thrasher, 61 Mont. 242, 201 Pac. 1009.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRIALS IN GENERAL—NEW TRIALS.

9396. New trial in equity cases.

Sections 9396, 9397 were cited in Dav- enport v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 410, 222 Pac. 422; Morrow v. Dahl et al., 66 Mont. 251, 256, 213 Pac. 602.

9397. When a new trial may be granted.

A motion for a new trial may be made before or after the entry of judgment, the motion not being directed against the judgment, but against the verdict or decision on which a judgment might be based. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

Under this section, the jury can impeach their verdict only when arrived at by resort to chance; hence affidavits by six jurors filed in support of a motion for new trial to the effect that two-thirds of the jury were in favor of denying plaintiff the relief sought and would have found in favor of defendant if they had been advised as to a fact the defendant proposed to establish if a new trial was granted, were properly ignored by the trial court. Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 244 Pac. 298.

While, under this section, the trial court may remit a portion of a verdict on condition that unless the remission be accepted by the successful party a new trial would be granted, such practice is unwarranted where the verdict was influenced by passion and prejudice; the same rule being applicable, under like circumstances, where the successful party makes voluntary remission of all damages awarded him. Blessing v. Angell et al., 66 Mont. 482, 214 Pac. 71.

Where a new trial was asked for on several grounds, among others newly discovered evidence, in support of the latter of which affidavits had been filed, and the order granting it recited that the motion "came on for hearing upon the affidavits filed by the respective parties," etc., the order was held to have been based upon the ground of newly discovered evidence alone, excluding the other grounds specified. Ebaugh v. Burns et al., 65 Mont. 15, 210 Pac. 892.

Where respondent knew of the testimony an absent witness would give, and should have known that his whereabouts was unknown, but did not ask for a continuance, he was in no position to urge his evidence as newly discovered. Ebaugh v. Burns et al., 65 Mont. 15, 210 Pac. 892.

Where the notice of intention to move for a new trial specified all but one of the statutory grounds, the order granting it in general terms will be sustained on appeal if it can be upon any one of the grounds mentioned in the notice. McVey v. Jamison et al., 63 Mont. 435, 207 Pac. 633.

Newly discovered evidence which is merely cumulative or which is irrelevant and immaterial furnishes no basis for a motion for a new trial. Jenkins v. Kitsen, 62 Mont. 515, 205 Pac. 243.

Where the affidavit of diligence did not mention a witness who made affidavit in support of the motion, there was no showing of diligence as to him and his affidavit therefore furnished no ground for a new trial. Jenkins v. Kitsen, 62 Mont. 515, 205 Pac. 243.

Under this section, a new trial—a re-examination of the facts—lies where an error of law has been committed by reason of misapplication of law to the facts. In re Stinger Estate, 61 Mont. 173, 201 Pac. 693.

dered as entitled to new trial on ground of inadequacy of verdict, note, 31 A. L. R. 1091.

9398. New trials—On what papers made.

Cited in Rickards v. Aultman & Taylor M. Co., 64 Mont. 394, 401, 210 Pac. 82.

9399. Notice of intention—Contents and service.

A motion for a new trial may be made before or after the entry of judgment, the motion not being directed against the judgment but against the verdict or decision on which a judgment might be based. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

A party desiring to move for a new trial must, under this section, serve his notice of motion upon the adverse party within ten days after verdict; if not served within that time it may be stricken from the files. La Bonte v. Mutual Fire etc. Ins. Co., 75 Mont. 1, 241 Pac. 631.

To give the district court jurisdiction over new trial proceedings, the notice of intention—the purpose of which is to bring within its jurisdiction the parties to the action whose interests would be adversely affected by the granting of the motion—must, under this section, be filed within ten days after return of the verdict, and such time cannot be extended by order of court or stipulation. Stabler v. Adamson et al., 73 Mont. 490, 237 Pac. 483.

Since the enactment of the amendment of this section, the time for filing of notice of motion for a new trial cannot be extended either by order or stipulation, and therefore where such a notice was not filed until after the expiration of ten days it was too late and was properly stricken from the records, the contention that the defect was waived by the actions of opposing counsel being of no avail. Dilts v. Brooks et al., 66 Mont. 346, 213 Pac. 600.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 157 et seq.

9400. Hearing of motion—Continuance—Papers used.

Failure of the trial court to pass upon a motion for new trial within fifteen days declared by this section to be equivalent to a denial of the motion, is not reviewable on appeal. Outlook F. E. Co. v. American S. Co., 70 Mont. 8, 223 Pac. 905.

In passing upon a motion for a new trial on the minutes of the court and affidavits filed in support thereof, the court is not bound to take the uncontroverted affidavits as true, but may take into consideration the pleadings, records and evidence and may have recourse to the notes of the court reporter. Davenport v. Davenport, 69 Mont. 405, 222 Pac. 422.

A party moving for a new trial is presumed to know that unless decided within fifteen days after its submission, his motion is by operation of law denied, and that if he fails to take an appeal from the judgment within the statutory time, he is in no position to claim that by the above construction of this section he is denied his right of appeal from the judgment. State ex rel. Sinko v. District Court, 64 Mont. 181, 208 Pac. 952.

A motion for new trial not decided within fifteen days after submission is by operation of law denied, this section providing that in that event it shall be deemed denied, and the district court is thereafter deprived of jurisdiction to subsequently make an order granting the motion. State ex rel. Sinko v. District Court, 64 Mont. 181, 208 Pac. 952.

The word "deemed" as used in this section is equivalent to or synonymous with the words "considered," "determined," "adjudged," and therefore where something is by statute "deemed" to have been done, it is to be treated as having been done. State ex rel. Sinko v. District Court, 64 Mont. 181, 208 Pac. 952.

The provision of this section that if the district court shall fail to decide a motion for new trial within fifteen days after its submission, the motion "shall be deemed denied" is not open to the construction that thereby it is left optional with the moving party to consider the motion denied and appeal from the judgment, or permit it to remain under consideration by the court for so long a time as the court might desire to consider it. State ex rel. Sinko v. District Court, 64 Mont. 181, 208 Pac. 952.

Supervisory control lies from an order granting a new trial made after the fifteen days allowed by this section for its decision, where, under the exigencies of the case, the remedy by appeal is inadequate and no other writ is available. State ex rel. Sinko v. District Court, 64 Mont. 181, 208 Pac. 952.

In the absence of an affirmative showing that the trial court abused its discretion in hearing a motion for new trial eleven months after notice of the motion, it will be presumed on appeal that it was heard at the earliest practicable period after notice, as required by this section, where the motion was based upon the minutes of the court. Price v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 60 Mont. 166, 198 Pac. 439.

Cited in Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 571, 241 Pac. 636.

9402. Contents of record on appeal.

On appeal from a judgment under section 7112, Revised Codes of 1907, before its repeal, a bill of exceptions was properly a part of the record on appeal. Harrison v. Riddell et al., 64 Mont. 466, 210 Pac. 460.

Under this section, before its repeal, it was held that its provisions requiring the record on appeal from a final judgment to contain the judgment and any bills of exception upon which appellant relies, refers to only such bills of exceptions as are settled under sections 9389, 9390 or are used on motion for new trial, and therefore, any bill not so settled or used cannot be considered on such appeal.

Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 198 Pac. 132.

Under this section and section 7114 before repeal, the record on appeal from an order overruling a motion for a new trial, must among other things, contain the judgment-roll or such parts thereof as may be necessary to be considered on the appeal. Minneapolis T. M. Co. v. Stanford M. Co., 59 Mont. 359, 197 Pac. 993.

CHAPTER 35.

THE MANNER OF GIVING AND ENTERING JUDGMENT.

9406. In replevin, judgment to be in the alternative, and with damages.

Under this section, the judgment in a claim and delivery action must be in the alternative; hence, a judgment in favor of plaintiff simply for the value of the chattel taken was erroneous. Kesley v. Yadish et al., 66 Mont. 23, 212 Pac. 495.

This section applies only to a case which has been tried on the merits. Barratt v. Shipley, 63 Mont. 152, 206 Pac. 430.

Cited in Dalke v. Pancoast, 63 Mont. 524, 527, 208 Pac. 589.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 199 et seq.

9409. Judgment-roll — Contents and filing. Immediately after entering the judgment the clerk must attach together and file the following papers, which constitute the judgment-roll:

(1) In case no defendant has appeared, the summons, with the affidavit or proof of service, and the complaint, with a memorandum indorsed thereon, that the default of the defendant in not answering was entered, and a copy of the judgment and in case the service so made is by publication the affidavit for publication of summons, and the order directing the publication of summons;

(2) In all other cases, the pleadings, a copy of the verdict of the jury, or finding of the court or referee, all bills of exceptions taken and filed, all orders, matters, proceedings deemed excepted to without bill of exceptions, and a copy of any order made on demurrer or relating to a change of parties, and a copy of the judgment. If there are two or more defendants in the action, and any one of them has allowed judgment to pass against him by default, the summons, with proof of service of it upon such defendant and if the service on such defaulting defendant be by publication, then the affidavit for publication and the order directing the publication of the summons, must also be added to the other papers mentioned in this subdivision.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 146, L. 1925.

The service of an amended complaint performs the same function as the service of summons in the first instance, and on appeal from a default judgment the record must disclose acquisition of jurisdiction over the defendant by service of the amended pleading, or waiver thereof, the presumption of jurisdiction in such case not obtaining. Griffith v. Montana W. G. Assn., 75 Mont. 466, 244 Pac. 277.

9410. Judgment lien—When it begins and when it expires.

In order to preserve the priority obtained by a judgment lien on real property, a sale under execution must be made during the life of such lien, six years from the date of judgment under this section, or execution must have been issued and proceedings on judicial sale begun before the lien becomes barred, and to avoid operation of such bar the sale must be proceeded with without any delay greater than is permitted by section 9419, the mere issuance of execution being of no avail. Marlowe v. Missoula Gas Co. et al., 68 Mont. 372, 219 Pac. 1111.

Cited in Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 522, 241 Pac. 523.

9413. Transcript to be filed in any county and judgment to become a lien there.

The effect of filing in a county other than that in which a money judgment was rendered a certified transcript of the docket is to impress a lien upon all real property owned by the judgment debtor in the county of its filing, not exempt from execution or acquired by him thereafter and prior to the expiration of the lien or the satisfaction of the judgment, the lien, however, not attaching to any specific piece of property. Poulos v. Lyman Brothers Co., 63 Mont. 561, 208 Pac. 598.

9424. What shall be liable on execution—Not affected until levy.

A cause of action being personal property not capable of manual delivery, levy of execution upon it must, under this section, be made in like manner as upon a writ of attachment, which is, under subdivision 5 of section 9262, by leaving a copy of the writ, and a notice that the cause of action is levied upon, with the owner; hence where the copy and notice were delivered to the clerk of the district court and not to the owner, the levy was ineffective. State ex rel. Coffey v. District Court, 74 Mont. 355, 240 Pac. 667.

9427. Property exempt from execution.

While exemption statutes must be liberally construed, yet where an exemption is extended to a certain class of persons, as by this section and 9428, the claimant must bring himself within the spirit of its provisions, i. e., he must show that he belongs to one of the classes mentioned. Swanz v. Clark, 71 Mont. 385, 229 Pac. 1108.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 331.

9428. Specific exemptions.

An optometrist, one who practices optometry, recognized by the legislature as a branch of the medical science, is neither a mechanic nor an artisan, and that therefore his tools and implements, such as an ophthalmometer, retinoscope, etc., are not exempt from attachment under subdivision 2 of this section. Swanz v. Clark, 71 Mont. 385, 229 Pac. 1108.

9441. Real property—When sale absolute, and what certificate to contain.

The purchaser on execution sale becomes the actual owner of the property, subject only to the right of redemption, and as such is entitled to protect his interests and to contest the right of the assignee of a subsequent judgment to redeem. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

Under a mortgage of the entire property of a public utility or common carrier, consisting of real and personal property and franchises, and sold on foreclosure in its entirety, the right of redemption does not exist as to any part of it, since severance of a part of the property from the rest would be injurious to if not destructive of the whole. State ex rel. Continental Supply Co. v. Tullock 68 Mont. 268, 217 Pac. 348.

Under this section the purchaser at a foreclosure sale is substituted to and acquires all the interest of the judgment debtor in the property sold, leaving in the judgment debtor only the bare right to redeem. Citizens' Nat. Bank v. Western L. & B. Co., 64 Mont. 40, 208 Pac. 893.

9441.1. Return of sales of real estate—Recording. Where real estate is sold under a decree of court, return of such sale shall be made, and filed in the office of the clerk of court. The clerk shall record the return so made, the same as if it were to an execution wherein a levy upon real estate has been made; provided, that where the return contains a true copy of the decree of court under which such sale was made, the clerk shall record all of the return except such copy of the decree, and in lieu of recording such copy, shall insert in the record the following:

"The original judgment and decree, the true copy which is set forth in this return, is recorded in Judgment Book, at pages to, inclusive, thereof."

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 42, L. 1927.

9442. Real property sold—How redeemed—Who are redemptioners.

Property sold subject to redemption, as provided by the last section, or any part sold separately, may be redeemed in the manner hereinafter provided, by the following persons, or their successors in interest:

1. The judgment debtor, his wife, or his successor in interest, in the whole or any part of the property, and if the judgment debtor or successor be a corporation, then by a stockholder thereof;

2. A creditor having a lien by judgment, mortgage, or attachment on the property sold, or on some share or part thereof, subsequent to that on which the property is sold. If a corporation be such creditor, then any stockholder thereof may redeem. The persons mentioned in the second division of this section are, in this chapter, termed "redemptioners."

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 16, L. 1927.

Where the judgment debtor paid the amount of the judgment into court, and the creditor accepted the amount in full payment of the judgment and the same was satisfied of record, before redemption had been completed by the creditor, the right to redeem was lost by such acceptance. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

The statutory right of redemption is not property in any sense of the term, but is a bare personal privilege, and therefore may not be attached. State ex rel. Hopkins v. Stephens, 63 Mont. 318, 206 Pac. 1094.

Where real property had been sold on mortgage foreclosure and a creditor of the judgment debtor levied a writ of attachment on it before the period of redemption had expired, he acquired no lien by virtue of it, and therefore did not become a redemptioner within the meaning of subdivision 2 of this section so as to entitle him to a sheriff's deed. State ex rel. Hopkins v. Stephens, 63 Mont. 318, 206 Pac. 1094.

Receiver's right to redeem from judicial or execution sale of insolvent's property, note, 35 A. L. R. 262.

Stockholder's right to redeem corporate property, note, 39 A. L. R. 1056.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 97; vol. 18 Cal. Jur. 591.

9443. Redemption money.

The term "redeem" as employed in the redemption statute means repurchase, and, as applied to a redemptioner, signifies the right to purchase the interest acquired by the purchaser at execution sale, whether the latter is willing or not. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

A redemptioner, proceeding under this section, must within one year from date of execution sale tender or pay the amount paid by the purchaser with interest up to the time of redemption; where, however, he proceeds under section 9448 and asks for an accounting of the rents and profits received by the purchaser, a tender is not necessary until an accounting has been made, either voluntarily, in which event the period of redemption is extended five days after it is made, or compulsory by means of a suit in equity, in which case the period if extended fifteen days after final determination of the suit, but the redemption is not completed until the accounting is had, and the amount due determined and paid or tendered within time. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

Where a redemptioner, proceeding under this section, deposited with the sheriff the amount paid by the purchaser at execution sale with interest, and at the same time demanded an accounting of the rents and profits received by the latter, which could only be done under section 9448, the attempt to redeem under the former section was nullified and therefore the redemption not completed by the deposit. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 101-106; vol. 18 Cal. Jur. 590.

9444. When judgment debtor or redemptioner may redeem — Corporation and stockholders. If property be so redeemed by a redemptioner, another redemptioner may, within sixty (60) days after the last redemption, again redeem it from the last redemptioner on paying the sum on such last redemption, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month in addition, and the amount of any assessment or taxes which the last redemptioner may have paid thereon after the redemption by him, with like interest on such amount, and, in addition, the amount of any liens held by the said last redemptioner prior to his own, with interest; but the judgment under which the property was so sold need not be so paid as a lien. The property may be again, and as often as any redemptioner is so disposed, redeemed from any previous redemptioner, within sixty (60) days after the last redemption, on paying the sum paid on the last previous redemption, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month, and the amount of any assessment or taxes which the last previous redemptioner paid after the redemption by him, with like interest thereon, and the amount of any liens, other than the judgment under which the property was sold, held by the last redemptioner previous to his own, with like interest. Written notice of redemption must be given to the sheriff, and a duplicate filed with the county clerk, and if any taxes or assessments are paid by the redemptioner, or if he has or acquired any liens other than that upon which the redemption was made, notice thereof must in like manner be given to the sheriff and filed with the county clerk; and if such notice be not filed, the property may be redeemed without paying such tax, assessments, or lien. If no redemptioner be made within one year after the sale, the purchaser, or his assignee, is entitled to a conveyance; or, if so redeemed, whenever sixty days have elapsed, and no other redemption has been made, and notice thereof given, and the time for redemption has expired, the last redemptioner, or his assignee, is entitled to a sheriff's deed; but in all cases, the judgment debtor shall have the entire period of one year from the date of the sale to redeem the property. If the judgment debtor or his wife redeem, he or she must make the same payments as are required to effect a redemption by a redemptioner. If the debtor redeem, the effect of the sale is terminated, and he is restored to his estate. If the wife redeem, she shall become the owner of her husband's interest, subject to any liens thereon at the time of the execution sale. Upon a redemption by a debtor, or his wife, the person to whom the payment was made must execute and deliver to him or her a certificate of redemption, acknowledged or proved before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real property. Such certificate must be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property is situated, and the county clerk must note the record thereof in the margin of the record of the certificate of sale.

If a stockholder of a corporation redeems, the corporation, within one (1) year after the date of sale, may redeem by paying to the redemptioner, or the sheriff for his benefit, the amount paid to effect the redemption, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date of redemption until the date of such payment, together with any taxes or assessments that may have been paid by the redemptioner, with like interest thereon. When a stockholder redeems, any other stockholder or stockholders may, at any time after such redemption, and within sixty (60) days after the expiration of one (1) year from the date of sale, contribute to the redemption by paying to the redeeming stockholder, or depositing with the sheriff for his benefit, a sum which bears the same proportion to the amount necessary to redeem which the number of shares owned by such contributing stockholder or stockholders bears to the number of shares of such corporation outstanding, with interest on such sum from the date of redemption until the date of contribution at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month, together with a like proportion of the taxes or assessments paid by such redeeming stockholder, with like interest thereon, and if the corporation does not redeem the property within the time and in the manner and form as aforesaid, the said redeeming and contributing stockholders shall be entitled to receive a sheriff's deed for such property so redeemed, and shall succeed to the said property as tenants in common in such proportions, respectively, as they shall respectively pay or contribute to such redemption as aforesaid. The redeeming or contributing stockholder shall, in all cases when applying to redeem or contribute as aforesaid, present an affidavit, setting forth the number of shares of stock owned by him, and to the best of his knowledge, the number of shares of stock of the corporation outstanding.

If the wife of a judgment debtor redeem, the husband, within one year after the date of sale, may redeem by paying the wife or her successors in interest or the sheriff for her or their benefit, the amount paid to effect the redemption, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent (1%) per month from the date of redemption until the date of such payment, together with any taxes or assessments that may have been paid by the wife or her successors in interest, with like interest thereon.

9448. Who entitled to rents and profits.

Since the right to redeem is purely statutory, a redemptioner availing himself of the provisions of this section, under which the amount he has to pay to the purchaser may be much less than he would have to pay if proceeding under section 9443, and under which the time within which redemption may be made is extended, must assume its burdens in order to enjoy its benefits. Leonard v. Western et al., 74 Mont. 513, 241 Pac. 523.

In the absence of any showing of wilful default or negligence on the part of the purchaser of realty at foreclosure sale, the redemptioner is entitled, under this section, to demand an accounting by notice or suit in equity, only to the rents and profits actually received by the former. Citizens' Nat. Bank v. Western L. & B. Co., 64 Mont. 40, 208 Pac. 893.

In an action for an accounting by a redemptioner against the purchaser at foreclosure sale for rents and profits received by the latter, held, that the word "tenant" used in this section, in providing that a redemptioner is entitled to receive from the tenant in possession the rents of the property, etc., is not to be construed in its strict or technical sense, but as indicating one who holds possession of the land by any kind of title, either in fee, for life, for years, at will or at sufferance. Citizens' Nat. Bank v. Western L. & B. Co., 64 Mont. 40, 208 Pac. 893.

The purchaser of real property on mortgage foreclosure is entitled to possession during the period of redemption (except where the mortgagor occupies the land as a home for himself and his family), as against the judgment debtor and those claiming under him by leases made to them after the sale. Dyer

9453. Deeds for sales heretofore made. All judicial sales of real property which previous to January 1, 1925, (provided no action is now pending to set such sale aside), were made in this state on proceedings to satisfy valid judgments or decrees of any court and the moneys bidden thereon paid to the officer making such sale, shall be valid and sufficient in law to sustain a sheriff's deed based on such sale, and when no such deed has been executed, shall entitle such purchaser to such deed; and such deed if now or when executed shall be sufficient to convey all the title of judgment debtor at the time of such sale in the premises so sold to the purchaser at said sale, and all defects or irregularities in the issuance of execution, or the manner of making or conducting the sale, or in the recitals or references in such deed, shall be disregarded and such sale shall not be invalidated by reason of any such defect or irregularity.

9459. Judge may order property to be applied on execution.

In proceedings supplemental to execution the only powers possessed by the court are those given it by this section and 9460. Johnson et al. v. Lundeen et al., 61 Mont. 145, 200 Pac. 451.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 153.

9460. Proceedings upon claim of another party to property, or on denial of indebtedness to judgment debtor.

An affidavit on which relief by supplementary proceedings was asked, setting forth no more than the entry of judgment and issuance of execution thereon, thus failing to disclose that the judgment was then unpaid, in whole or in part, or that it had been returned unsatisfied or could not be satisfied out of property other than that claimed by an intervener, an order refusing to permit the creditor to bring an action against the latter under this section was correct. Missoula etc. Bank v. Insurance Co., 61 Mont. 370, 203 Pac. 854.

Where in proceedings supplemental, the garnishee denies any indebtedness to the judgment debtor, the court has no authority to try the question and order payment to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, but must either order the judgment creditor to institute an action to determine the fact in dispute or discharge the garnishee. Johnson et al. v. Lundeen et al., 61 Mont. 145, 200 Pac. 451.

CHAPTER 38.

ACTIONS FOR FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES.

9467. Proceedings in foreclosure suits.

An action to foreclose a mortgage is one in equity which is not changed into one at law by pleadings which raise issues of law on questions incidental to the principal relief sought by plaintiff, and therefore defendant is not entitled to a jury trial. Rochester v. Bennett, 74 Mont. 293, 240 Pac. 384.

A grantee of a mortgagor who expressly assumes to pay an outstanding mortgage on the personal property purchased thereby also assumes the contingent personal liability to pay a deficiency judgment in case the premises fail to sell for a sum sufficient to discharge the debt and costs. Kinyon Inv. Co. v. Belmont State Bank, 69 Mont. 282, 221 Pac. 286.

In an action to foreclose a mortgage on land the district court, under this section, authorizing it to direct the sale of the property but not prescribing the mode of its sale—whether in separate parcels or in one body—may in its discretion direct the manner of its sale. Elston v. Hix et al., 67 Mont. 294, 215 Pac. 657.

Plaintiff by commencing an action to foreclose his mortgage upon land did not waive his claim upon wheat grown thereon, possession of which had been turned over to him by the mortgagors, but which was not covered by mortgage, the restriction found in this section not including personal or collateral security not falling fairly within the meaning of the term "mortgage." Craig v. Burns et al., 65 Mont. 550, 212 Pac. 856.

ACTIONS TO QUIET TITLE TO REAL PROPERTY AND OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO ACTIONS CONCERNING REAL ESTATE.

9479. Actions to quiet title—Parties to, and venue.

In an action to quiet title under this section, as distinguished from one brought under section 8733 to remove a cloud on title, the complaint alleging that the defendant claims an adverse estate or interest is sufficient without further defining it, whereas under the latter section the pleader must state facts disclosing the apparent validity of the instrument attacked and its actual invalidity. Slette v. Review Publishing Co., 71 Mont. 518, 230 Pac. 580.

For allegations sufficient to state a cause of action to quiet title, see Violet et al. v. Martin, 62 Mont. 335, 205 Pac. 221.

Under this section, an action lies to quiet title to an easement to a right of way for a ditch as against a county in exclusive use of the land for highway purposes. Mannix v. Powell County, 60 Mont. 510, 199 Pac. 914.

9485. Title form of summons — Publication — When service deemed complete. The summons to be published under the preceding sections shall be in substantially the following form:

(Title of court and cause.)

“The state of Montana to (naming known defendants upon whom service by publication is sought), and to all other persons, unknown, claiming, or who might claim, any right, title, estate, or interest in, or lien or incumbrance upon, the real property described in the complaint, or any thereof, adverse to plaintiff’s ownership, or any cloud upon plaintiff’s title thereto, whether such claim or possible claim be present or contingent, including any claim or possible claim of dower, inchoate or accrued, Greeting;

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff’s attorney within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

This action involves the title to the following described lands, to wit: [Here insert description of land.]

The nature of the relief sought by the plaintiff is as follows: [Here set forth in concise form the character of relief sought.]

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this day of

.....
Clerk of the above entitled court.”

Such summons shall be published at least once in each week for a period of four weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation, printed and regularly published at least once a week in the county in which the action is brought, or, if there is no such newspaper printed in such county, then such summons shall be published in like period, in the nearest county in which such a newspaper is printed, preference to be given, first, to an adjoining county in which any portion of the property is situated, if situated in more than one county; and, second to any adjoining county. Service shall be deemed complete on the day of the fourth publication.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 55, L. 1923.

9487. Title jurisdiction acquired by service—Effect of decree—Evidence to support—Reduction of testimony to writing. Upon the service of summons on all defendants, known and unknown, in the manner provided in the preceding sections, the court in which such action is tried shall have jurisdiction to make a complete adjudication of the title to the lands named in the complaint, and the title to which is sought to be quieted, including jurisdiction to direct the cancellation of instruments constituting clouds upon such title, the execution of conveyances, where it appears that any party to such action should execute such conveyance or conveyances, the execution of satisfactions of mortgages and other apparent liens upon such land, or any part thereof, or the doing of any other act of a personal nature necessary to give effect to the rights of the respective parties to such action, as the same may be adjudicated by the court. When any judgment or decree shall be rendered in such action, for a conveyance, release, or acquittance, as above mentioned, and the party or parties against whom the judgment or decree shall be rendered do not comply therewith, within the time specified in said judgment or decree for such compliance, such judgment or decree shall have the same operation and effect, and be as available, as if the conveyance, release, or acquittance had been executed conformably to such judgment or decree. Before plaintiff shall be entitled to a decree in such action against any defendant who shall not appear therein, he must produce evidence sufficient to prima facie entitle him to relief, and relief shall be granted only to the extent to which such evidence shall prima facie prove him to be entitled to the same; but this provision shall not affect the procedure in or manner of trial of such actions as between the plaintiff and any defendant who shall appear in such action.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 55, L. 1923.

9495. Mortgage not deemed conveyance, whatever its terms—Recovery of possession by mortgage.

This section, providing that a mortgage of real property is not to be deemed a conveyance so as to entitle the mortgagee to recover possession independent of foreclosure, has reference only to mortgages wherein no provision is made conferring upon the mortgagee the right of possession upon condition broken. 9501. Action to establish title to property granted to heirs of deceased entryman.

In an action brought under sections 9501-9515, to establish title to property granted by patent to heirs of deceased entrymen on public lands, being essentially equitable in character, the court, once having obtained jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties, will retain jurisdiction for the purpose of administering complete relief and doing entire justice. Raistakka v. Fagerstrom et al., 64 Mont. 173, 208 Pac. 949.

CHAPTER 41A.SALES AND LEASES OF TRUST PROPERTY UNDER ORDER OF COURT.*9575.1. Court may authorize sales or leases of trust property when.

When any trust is expressed in the instrument creating the trust estate, every sale, conveyance or other act of the trustee in contravention of the trust shall be absolutely void, except as in this act provided. The district court of the county wherein the property, whether real or personal, or any part thereof, held in trust is situate may by order, on such terms and conditions as seem just and proper, authorize any such trustee, whether he be beneficially interested in such trust property or not, to sell or otherwise dispose of, or lease the property, for the development of its mineral resources, or mortgage all or any part of such trust property, whether real or personal, whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the court that it is necessary, or for the benefit, or for the best interest of the trust estate, or of the person or persons beneficially interested therein holding the first and present estate, interest or use, and that it will do no substantial injury to the heirs or next of kin, or others in succession, expectancy, reversion or remainder, in respect of such property.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.2. Leases, when authorized. The district court may, by order, on such terms and conditions as seem to it just and proper, authorize such trustee to lease such property for a term exceeding five (5) years, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that it is for the best interest of the trust estate, and may authorize such trustee to covenant in the lease to pay, at the end of the term or any renewal term, to the lessee, the then fair and reasonable value of any buildings and improvements which may have been erected or placed on the leased premises during such term or renewal term.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.3. Mineral lease, when authorized. The district court may, by order, on such terms and conditions as may be just and proper, authorize such trustee to lease such property for the purpose of developing the mineral resources of the same for a term of years under the usual terms and conditions and under such terms and conditions as to the court may seem just and equitable.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.4. Procedure on petition to court for order. Application to the court for such order to sell or otherwise dispose of, or mortgage such trust property, real or personal, or any part thereof, or to lease such trust property, real or personal, or any part thereof, shall be by duly verified petition made by such trustee, or any person beneficially interested in such property. Such petition shall set forth the nature of the trust estate, the particular facts making it necessary or proper for the application to be granted, a description of the trust property to be sold or otherwise disposed of, or mortgaged, or leased, and the interest of the petitioner therein. Such petition and the notice of hearing thereof shall set out, so far as appears of record or as known to the petitioner, the names, and in addition such petition shall set out the places of residence of all persons, who have any right, title, interest, estate or lien, and the nature thereof, in or upon the trust property, or who, by the terms of the instrument creating the trust, may at any time thereafter have any such right, title, interest, estate or lien, and the nature thereof. If there be persons having, or claiming to have, or who, at any time thereafter, may have any interest in the trust property, whose names are unknown, it shall be lawful to include such persons in such petition and the notice of hearing thereof, by the name and description of unknown persons interested in the trust property, and, to that end, such petition and notice, in addition to setting out the names of the persons aforesaid, may contain the following:

“Also all other persons unknown, having, or claiming to have, or who at any time may have any right, title, interest, estate or lien in or upon the trust property.” Such petition, together with a copy, annexed thereto, of the deed, will or other written instrument creating the trust estate, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county wherein such property, or some part thereof, is situate. Upon the filing of any such petition, the district court shall, by order, fix a time and place of hearing the same. Such hearing may be at chambers, or at a general or special term of the court wherein the proceedings are pending.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.5. Notice of hearing—Publication. Notice of such hearing stating the time and place thereof and the objects of the petition shall be served upon all persons named in the petition as having any right, title, interest, estate or lien in or upon the trust property, or who, by the terms of the instrument creating such trust, may, at any time thereafter, have any such right, title, interest, estate or lien. Such notice shall be served, in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, at least ten (10) days before such time of hearing. If any such person, whose name is set out in the petition, be not a resident of the state, or if his place of residence is unknown to the petitioner, then, upon the filing in said court of an affidavit of the petitioner, his agent or attorney, alleging that he believes that such person is not a resident of the state, and that he has mailed a copy of such notice to him at his last known place of residence, or that his place of residence is not known and cannot be ascertained by the affiant, the service of such notice upon such person may be made by publication thereof for two (2) successive weeks in a regularly published newspaper, of general circulation, in the county wherein such proceedings are pending, or, if no such newspaper be published in such county, the publication may be made in such newspaper published in an adjoining county. Service of such notice may be had upon all persons named and described in such petition and notice, as unknown persons interested in the trust property, by publication of such notice in the same manner and for the same time, as in the case of nonresidents whose names are set out in the petition, upon the filing in said court of an affidavit by the petitioner, his agent or attorney, stating that there are, or that affiant is informed or believes there are, certain persons, in addition to those whose names are set out in such petition, who have, or claim to have, or may have some right, title, interest, estate or lien in or upon the trust property, the nature of which is, as well as the names and places of whom are, to affiant unknown.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.6. Notice to minors and persons of unsound mind. In case any person, whose name is set out in such petition, is a minor or a person of unsound mind, such notice of hearing shall be served upon the duly appointed guardian, or other legal representative of such person, if any. If there be none, then the district court in which such proceedings are pending shall appoint a guardian, ad litem, for such person and may compel the person so appointed to act. In such case, service of such notice of hearing shall be had by service on such guardian, ad litem.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.7. Hearing—Order—Confirmation—Bonds. Upon proof being filed of the service of such notice, the court, at the time and place therein fixed or to which the hearing may be adjourned, shall hear all competent evidence offered for and against the granting of such petition, regulating the order of proof, as it may deem best, and shall make and enter a final order upon the application. If the application is granted, the final order shall authorize the sale or other disposition, or the mortgaging or leasing, as the case may be, of such trust property, or part thereof, in manner and upon such terms as the court may prescribe. Any such sale or other disposition, mortgaging or leasing of such trust property, by such trustee, shall be reported to the court for confirmation and confirmed by the court, before the same shall become effective and valid. Upon such confirmation, such trustee shall make, execute and deliver, subject to such terms and conditions as the court in its order of confirmation may impose, good and sufficient instruments of conveyance, assignment, and transfer, or mortgage, or lease, as the case may be. On receipt by such trustee of the money, or other proceeds derived from any such sale or other disposition, or mortgaging or leasing of such trust property, such money or other proceeds shall be held, administered, distributed or otherwise dealt with by such trustee under and pursuant to the terms of the deed, will or other written instrument creating the trust estate, but subject, at all times to the direction and order of the court. The court, in its discretion, may require such trustee to give bond in such amount and with such sureties as the court shall direct, conditioned for accounting for all such money or other proceeds so received by such trustee, and for the faithful discharge of his trust.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.8. Effect of final order — Appearance unknown persons. The final order of the court in such proceedings, made or had with respect to such unknown persons, shall have the same effect and be as binding and conclusive upon them, as though they had been named and described in such petition and notice by their proper names; provided, that, all such unknown persons, so served as in this act provided, shall have the same right to appear and oppose the granting of such petition, before the making of such final order, and the same right to appear and object to such order and the granting thereof, after such order has been made and entered, as persons would have, who are named and described by their proper names in such petition and notice, and have been served with such notice by publication, as provided in this act; and provided, further, that if any such unknown persons be minors without guardian, ad litem, or other guardian or legal representative, duly appointed, when such order is made, they may be allowed to appear and object to such order and the granting thereof at any time within one (1) year after becoming of age.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.9. Effect of order. The final order of the court in such proceedings, and every deed or other instrument of conveyance, assignment, transfer, mortgage or lease made, executed and delivered by such trustee, pursuant to any such final order, shall be valid and effectual against all persons whose names are set out in such petition, and all persons therein named and described as unknown persons interested in the trust property, served with notice of hearing as in this act provided, or appearing voluntarily in the proceedings and consenting to the granting of such order, whether such persons, or any of them, are in being or not in being, and whatever the nature of their interest and estate in the trust property, whether vested or contingent, in expectancy, in reversion or in remainder, or otherwise, at the time of the granting of such order.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

9575.10. Responsibility of parties dealing with trustee. Any person who shall actually and in good faith pay to any such trustee any money or other proceeds derived from the sale or other disposition, or from the mortgaging or leasing of such trust property, or any part thereof, shall not be responsible for the proper application of such money, or other proceeds, in accordance with the terms of the trust; and any right, title or interest derived from such trustee by such person, in consideration of such payment, shall not be impeached or called in question in consequence of any misapplication by such trustee of such money or proceeds so paid.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 110, L. 1925.

CHAPTER 42.

QUO WARRANTO.

9576. When proceedings may be instituted.

Complaint in an action of the nature of quo warranto brought by the attorney general in behalf of the state to have a ferry franchise declared forfeited for failure of the ferryman to provide a safe and suitable ferry-boat for the accommodation of travelers, examined and held sufficient to state a cause of action, under this section. State ex rel. Rankin v. Martin, 68 Mont. 392, 219 Pac. 632.

Teacher as an officer whose right may be tested by quo warranto, note, 30 A. L. R. 1423.

Sections 9587, 9588 were cited in State ex rel. Rankin v. Martin, 68 Mont. 392, 396, 219 Pac. 632.

CHAPTER 44.

PLACE OF TRIAL OF ACTIONS IN JUSTICE COURTS.

9625. Transfer of cases to district court.

Obiter: Since allegations relating to title to or possession of real property are not pertinent to forcible entry and unlawful detainer cases and if pleaded are surplusage, such an action is not subject to certification to the district court under this section. Lambert v. Helena Adjustment Co., 69 Mont. 510, 222 Pac. 1057.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 468-472.

CHAPTER 45.

MANNER OF COMMENCING ACTIONS IN JUSTICE COURTS.

9628. Defendants may waive summons.

A "general appearance" is made when a party comes into court without limiting the object for which he comes in. Stofels v. Cherry, 67 Mont. 443, 215 Pac. 1098.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 477.

9632. Time for appearance of defendant.

Under this section, the time within which the summons in an action commenced in a justice's court is returnable is fixed at not less than four days; hence where service of summons was made less than four days before time for appearance expired, the justice did not acquire jurisdiction over the person of defendant, and a judgment entered upon such service was void.

State v. Justice of Peace Court et al., 69 Mont. 450, 222 Pac. 1055.

For text treatment of this subject see
 vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 479.

CHAPTER 46.

PLEADINGS IN JUSTICE COURTS.

9638. Form of pleadings.

Under the rule that the pleadings in a justice court as well as the statutory requirements with relation thereto must be liberally construed, held that this section, requiring that if a pleading be oral its substance must be entered in the docket, and section 9703, declaring that the justice must enter therein a concise statement of the material parts of all oral pleadings, mean no more than that he shall enter such a recital thereof as would advise a person of common understanding of the nature of the pleadings. Malano v. Bressan, 76 Mont. 366, 245 Pac. 871.

Technical rules of pleading should not be applied in a justice's court, and a complaint filed therein must be construed with great liberality. Lambert v. Helena Adjustment Co., 69 Mont. 510, 222 Pac. 1057.

On appeal from justice court to the district court, the sufficiency of the complaint must be tested by the rules applicable to the former and construed with great liberality. Woody v. Security State Bank et al., 67 Mont. 109, 214 Pac. 1096.

Cited in State ex rel. Kennedy v. Hubbard, 77 Mont. 170, 173, 253 Pac. 271.

CHAPTER 48.

JUDGMENTS BY DEFAULT.

9664. Judgment when defendant fails to appear.

Failure of the justice of the peace to wait the statutory time of one hour for appearance of the defendant before rendition of judgment amounted to a mere irregularity rendering the judgment voidable and not void and therefore not subject to collateral attack. Billings Hardware Co. v. Bryan, 63 Mont. 14, 206 Pac. 418.

For text treatment of this subject see
 vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 496.

JUDGMENTS (OTHER THAN DEFAULT) IN JUSTICE COURTS.

9680. Judgment of dismissal entered in certain cases without prejudice.

9687. Offer to compromise before trial.

Cited in State ex rel. Kennedy v. Hubbard, 77 Mont. 170, 172, 253 Pac. 271.

CHAPTER 53.

DOCKET OF JUSTICES.

9703. Docket—What to contain.

A general denial has no "parts" within the meaning of this section, providing that if a pleading in the justice court be oral an entry shall be made in the docket containing a concise statement of the "material parts," hence an entry that defendant interposed an oral general denial is sufficient. Malano v. Bressan, 76 Mont. 366, 245 Pac. 871.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 489.

CHAPTER 54.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO JUSTICE COURTS.

9712. Blanks must be filled in all papers issued by a justice, except subpoenas.

One who knowingly uses a summons, writ of attachment or similar process purported to have issued from a justice of the peace court but which is void under this section, because not completely filled out by the justice, and enforces collection by means of it, is guilty of extortion. In re Frederick, 71 Mont. 205, 227 Pac. 999.

An attorney who, in violation of this section, in the enforcement of money claims made use of summonses and writs of attachment furnished him by a justice of the peace signed by the latter but the blanks in which were not filled out but were filled out by the attorney, though guilty of professional misconduct, held, sufficiently punished by suspension from office for a period of thirty days, in view of his youth and alleged ignorance of the fact that the practice was culpable, his previous irreproachable conduct and reputation, and his frankness in acknowledging his fault. In re Frederick, 71 Mont. 205, 227 Pac. 999.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 480.

CHAPTER 55.

PROCEEDINGS IN CIVIL ACTIONS IN POLICE COURTS.

9725. How commenced.

This and the following three sections were cited as sections 7092-7095, Revised Codes, in City of Miles City v. Drum, 60 Mont. 451, 452, 199 Pac. 719.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 552.

CHAPTER 56.

APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT.

9729. How judgments and orders may be reviewed.

Sections 9729-9731 were cited in Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 578, 241 Pac. 636.

9730. Party aggrieved may appeal—Names of parties.

Unless a party has an interest in the subject of litigation which is injuriously affected by an order made or judgment rendered therein, he is not an "aggrieved party," within the meaning of this section, and cannot appeal therefrom. Griffith v. Montana Wheat Growers' Assn., 75 Mont. 466, 244 Pac. 277.

An appeal does not lie from an order denying a motion for leave to file a complaint in intervention. State ex rel. Red Lodge Irr. Dist. v. District Court et al., 75 Mont. 132, 242 Pac. 431.

State or public official as "party aggrieved" by discharge in habeas corpus, notes, 10 A. L. R. 396; 30 A. L. R. 1323.

Attorney's right to prosecute an appeal to protect his contingent fee notwithstanding desire of client to dismiss appeal or to substitute attorneys, note, 16 A. L. R. 1162.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 2 Cal. Jur. 208, 231.

9731. From what judgment or order an appeal may be taken.

A proceeding in habeas corpus, the object of which is to determine the right to the custody of a minor, is a special proceeding of a civil nature to enforce private rights; the disposition made of it by the court is a judgment from which an appeal may be taken under this section. In re Thompson, 77 Mont. 466, 251 Pac. 163.

Under subdivision 3 of this section, authorizing an appeal from a judgment or order made by the district court sitting in probate "against . . . directing . . . the sale or conveyance of real property," an appeal lies from an order refusing to confirm an administrator's sale of such property. In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 248 Pac. 362.

Under this section, subdivision 3, only such orders in probate proceedings as therein enumerated are appealable; hence an order dismissing a petition for the revocation of the probate of a will—in effect an order refusing to revoke its probate—not being included in the enumeration, is not appealable. In re Ferguson's Estate, 73 Mont. 596, 237 Pac. 1105.

An order permitting amendment of an affidavit for writ of attachment is not appealable. Hetrick v. Renwald, 73 Mont. 426, 236 Pac. 1089.

To render a special order made after final judgment appealable under this section, it must be one affecting rights incorporated in the judgment. Apple v. Seaver, 70 Mont. 65, 223 Pac. 830.

An order denying defendant's motion for leave to amend his answer after judgment had been rendered and motion for new trial denied was not a special order made after final judgment within the meaning of this section, and was therefore not appealable. Apple v. Seaver, 70 Mont. 65, 223 Pac. 830.

Under the rule that certiorari does not lie where appeal is available, held that an order so modifying a decree of divorce as to suspend payment of alimony and awarding the custody of a minor child to the father upon remarriage of the mother was a special order made after final judgment and appealable under this section, and that therefore the writ of review was not available to review the correctness of the order. State ex rel. Gates v. District Court, 69 Mont. 322, 221 Pac. 543.

The statute permitting an appeal from a final judgment contemplates an appeal from the whole thereof, and therefore an appeal from only a portion of it does not lie. Lohman v. Poor et al., 68 Mont. 579, 220 Pac. 1094.

In an action for a partnership accounting in which defendants, among other things, claimed that plaintiff had purchased certain lands with partnership funds, the judgment, which determined all the material issues involved, a referee being appointed to take an account of the partnership affairs to report the facts, and which left nothing undetermined except the title to a homestead patented to plaintiff also claimed as partnership property, was final in the sense used in this section, authorizing an appeal from a "final judgment." Wilson v. Wilson et al., 64 Mont. 533, 210 Pac. 896.

An appeal from an order denying a motion for leave to file a complaint in intervention does not lie, this section not authorizing it. Equity Co-operative Assn. v. Milling Co., 63 Mont. 26, 206 Pac. 349.

Under this section, an appeal lies from the final, or formal, judgment granting (or denying) a peremptory writ of prohibition, but does not lie from an order entered in the minutes of the district court directing the peremptory writ to issue. State ex rel. Lalonde v. Lemkie, 62 Mont. 51, 202 Pac. 1109.

Appeals do not lie under this section from orders rejecting findings of the jury, from conclusions of law, or from the action of the court in adopting certain findings of the jury and making findings of its own, the questions thus sought to be raised being reviewable on appeal from the judgment. Bode v. Rollwitz et al., 60 Mont. 481, 199 Pac. 688.

An order made after judgment denying a motion to set aside a default and judgment is appealable under this section; hence when no appeal was taken, the alleged error in refusing the motion was not reviewable on appeal from the judgment. (On rehearing.) Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 198 Pac. 132.

Since denial of a motion to set aside the findings and judgment in an action in ejectment was a special order made after final judgment, it was appealable, and failure to appeal therefrom bars review on appeal from the judgment. Stack v. Coyle, 59 Mont. 444, 197 Pac. 747.

A "claim" against the estate of a deceased person, within the meaning of this section, means any pecuniary demand against the estate, and therefore comprises an inheritance tax. In re Sattes' Estate, 59 Mont. 220, 195 Pac. 1033.

Cited in State ex rel. Thompson v. District Court, 75 Mont. 147, 153, 242 Pac. 959; State ex rel. Altop v. District Court, 72 Mont. 49, 55, 231 Pac. 99; State ex rel. Rankin v. District Court, 70 Mont. 322, 325, 225 Pac. 804; as section 7098, Revised Codes, in State v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 67, 203 Pac. 860; State ex rel. Peel v. District Court, 59 Mont. 505, 515, 197 Pac. 741.

Discharge on habeas corpus as "final judgment," note, 30 A. L. R. 1324.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 2 Cal. Jur. 129 et seq.

9732. When appeal may be taken. An appeal may be taken:

1. From a final judgment in an action or special proceeding commenced in the court in which the same is rendered within six months after the entry of such judgment.

2. From a judgment rendered, on an appeal from an inferior court, within ninety days after the entry of such judgment.

3. From an order granting a new trial; from an order granting, dissolving, or modifying an injunction; from an order refusing to grant, dissolve, or modify an injunction; from an order dissolving or refusing to dissolve or modify an attachment; from an order changing or refusing to change a place of trial; from an order appointing or refusing to appoint a receiver, or giving directions with respect to a receivership, or refusing to vacate an order appointing or affecting a receiver; from an order directing the delivery, transfer, or surrender of property; from any special order made after final judgment; from an interlocutory judgment or order in actions for partition of real property, and from an order confirming, changing, ratifying, or setting aside the report in whole or in part of the referees in actions for partition of real property, within sixty days after the order or interlocutory judgment is made and entered in the minutes of the court filed with the clerk. In any of the cases mentioned in this subdivision the supreme court, or a judge thereof, may stay all proceedings under the order appealed from on such conditions as may seem proper.

4. From the judgment or orders mentioned in subdivision 3 of the next preceding section, within sixty days after the judgment or order is made or entered, or filed with the clerk.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 39, L. 1925.

The writ of mandate is available only in those rare cases where there is not any other plain, speedy and adequate remedy, hence does not lie to review an order granting or refusing to grant a change of venue, such order having been made appealable by this section as amended. State ex rel. Malone v. District Court, 74 Mont. 488, 241 Pac. 240.

Under this section, an appeal from a final judgment must be taken within six months after entry; where not taken until after the expiration of that time it will be dismissed. Hodson et al. v. O'Keeffe, 71 Mont. 322, 229 Pac. 722.

Cited in Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 570, 241 Pac. 636; Atkinson v. Bonners Ferry Lumber Co., 74 Mont. 393, 396, 240 Pac. 823; Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co. et al., 74 Mont. 308, 313, 240 Pac. 371; State ex rel. School Dist. v. Trumper, 69 Mont. 468, 478, 222 Pac. 1064; State ex rel. Deck v. District Court, 64 Mont. 110, 112, 207 Pac. 1004; as section 7099, Revised Codes, in State Bank of New Salem v. Schultze, 63 Mont. 410, 416, 209 Pac. 599; McCormick et al. v. Shields, 63 Mont. 9, 13, 205 Pac. 831.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 2 Cal. Jur. 304, 390.

9733. Appeal—How taken.

Where nonappearing devisees whose interests rather than being injuriously affected by the reversal of an order denying the petition of others to require the executor to make final account and turn over the real property of the estate to the devisees could only be benefited thereby, they were not "adverse" parties within the meaning of this section, providing that notice of appeal must be served upon "the adverse party or his attorney." In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

Under sections 9733, 9747, and the rules of the supreme court, relative to taking of appeals, that where nineteen defendants were charged with violations of a city ordinance, and the cases which could not, under section 9820, have been joined, were tried together under a stipulation of counsel that all the evidence introduced should apply to each case, so far as applicable, and each defendant was found guilty and a separate judgment entered against each, but only one perfected an appeal, his bill of exceptions reciting a stipulation that the proceedings with reference to each in the district court were the same, that the notice of appeal was the same in each case and that all the notices were filed in the lower court on the same day, and asking that the supreme court take jurisdiction of the appeals of the eighteen defendants other than the one who had properly perfected his appeal, that the appellate court did not acquire jurisdiction of any appeal other than the one. City of Bozeman v. Nelson, 73 Mont. 147, 237 Pac. 528.

An "adverse party" within the meaning of this section, upon whom the appellant must serve a notice of appeal, is one who has an interest in the object sought to be accomplished by the appeal, and under that section a party to a judgment whose rights may be injuriously affected by its reversal or modification is entitled to notice. Great Falls Nat. Bank v. Young et al., 67 Mont. 328, 215 Pac. 651.

Where the judgment in an action on a promissory note was joint and several against the maker and an indorser, and the maker asked for and was granted a new trial, and the verdict and judgment were set aside only as to him, his co-defendant will be presumed to have been satisfied with the judgment and incapable of being injuriously affected by the result of the appeal from the new trial order, and hence was not an adverse party entitled to notice of appeal. Great Falls Nat. Bank v. Young et al., 67 Mont. 328, 215 Pac. 651.

9734. Undertaking or deposit on appeal.

While a written undertaking on appeal must specify the purpose for which it is given, where money is deposited in lieu of such undertaking no writing is required, the statute declaring the purpose for which it is deposited. In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

9745. Record on appeal from orders other than new trial.

Under this section, an order denying a new trial is no longer appealable. Dever v. Girson, 75 Mont. 412, 243 Pac. 812.

The appeal from an order overruling a motion for a new trial has been abolished by this section, the questions formerly raised on such an appeal being now reviewable on appeal from the judgment. Schmuck v. Beck, 72 Mont. 606, 234 Pac. 477.

This section, having abolished an appeal from an order denying a new trial, such an attempted appeal will be dismissed. Lappin v. Martin et al., 71 Mont. 233, 228 Pac. 763.

On appeal from an order to dissolve temporary injunction, the transcript of the testimony, certified by the trial judge the clerk and the stenographer of the court as correct, but not incorporated in a bill of exceptions, may, under this section, be considered in determining whether there was sufficient evidence to warrant the order. Atkinson v. Roosevelt County et al., 71 Mont. 165, 227 Pac. 811.

The right to appeal from an order denying a new trial was abolished by this section, and therefore an attempted appeal from such an order will be dismissed. Frost et al. v. Long & Co. et al., 71 Mont. 141, 228 Pac. 75.

By this section, the appeal from an order denying a new trial is abolished. Tripp v. Silver Dyke Mining Co., 70 Mont. 120, 224 Pac. 272.

On appeal from a final judgment the evidence and proceedings had on the trial can only be reviewed if incorporated in a bill of exceptions as provided in section 9390; therefore where there was no such bill and the evidence and proceedings were simply certified by the judge and clerk as provided in this section, on appeal from an order, review thereof cannot be had. 9746. Authentication of copies — Abbreviated record. All papers furnished to the supreme court on appeal shall, before the transcript is filed therein, be certified by the clerk or by the attorneys in the case to be correct, and must be accompanied with a certificate of the clerk or attorneys that an undertaking on appeal, in due form, has been properly filed, or that a deposit has been made as provided for in section 9741, or the stipulation of the party waiving an undertaking or deposit. The appellant may present to the supreme court, or any justice thereof, a copy of the record from which are omitted those parts thereof which appellant believes to be immaterial to any question arising on the appeal, and thereupon, if it shall appear prima facie, that the parts omitted are so immaterial, the court or justice shall make an order allowing such abbreviated record to be served and filed as the transcript on appeal, and directing the clerk of the district court to certify to such transcript, which order shall save to the respondent the right to suggest a diminution of the record in case he can show that without the parts omitted the appeal cannot be fairly and fully heard and determined. The certificate of the clerk of the district court shall refer to such order of the court or justice. In all cases where no bill of exceptions is presented for settlement in the trial court the party appealing shall file his transcript in the supreme court within sixty days after such appeal is perfected; and in cases where a bill of exceptions is settled in the trial court the party appealing shall file his transcript in the supreme court within sixty days after such bill of exceptions has been settled.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 19, L. 1925.

So much of section 1 of chapter 19, Laws of 1925, as assumes to amend this section by the addition of a provision declaring within what time transcripts on appeal shall be filed in the supreme court, and repealing by implication section 9732, prescribing the time within which an appeal from a judgment may be taken, is void as in contravention of section 23, article V of the state constitution, in that the title of the chapter does not disclose the purpose of the legislature to effectuate a change in the time within which transcripts must be filed as fixed by subdivision 2 of Rule V of the supreme court rules. Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co. et al., 74 Mont. 308, 240 Pac. 371.

Unless appellant procures an order from the supreme court or a justice thereof, under this section, permitting an abbreviated record to be filed by omitting any part of the judgment-roll, the record on appeal from an order overruling a motion for new trial must contain the complete judgment-roll, and, therefore, the judgment. Minneapolis T. M. Co. v. Stanford M. Co., 59 Mont. 359, 197 Pac. 993.

9747. When an appeal may be dismissed.

Under this section, providing that all objections to the record on appeal shall be deemed waived unless a motion to dismiss is made, an assignment of error that the trial judge settled the stenographer's transcript after he went out of office will not be entertained where the hearing on appeal was had by both parties on the theory that the transcript was correct, and where no motion to dismiss had been made. *Sevanin v. v. Angell et al., 66 Mont. 482, 483, 214 Pac. 71.

9751. Ruling against respondent may be reviewed.

Under this section, authorizing review of cross-assignments of error made by the successful party, the supreme court will affirm the judgment if error committed against the appellant is compensated by that committed against respondent. Hale et al. v. Belgrade Co., Ltd., 75 Mont. 99, 242 Pac. 425.

The right to make cross-assignments of error is purely statutory, and in the absence of compliance with the requirements of the statute, they cannot be considered on appeal. Cook v. MacGinniss, 72 Mont. 280, 233 Pac. 129.

Where respondent desires a review of rulings of the trial court upon a cause of action separate and distinct from that which the appellant seeks to have reviewed on his appeal, he must prosecute a cross-appeal, even though the causes were tried in the same action, this section, authorizing review of cross-assignments of error not being intended to do away with the necessity of a cross-appeal under such conditions. Cook v. MacGinniss, 72 Mont. 280, 233 Pac. 129.

This section, authorizing review of cross-assignments of error on appeal, has application only to cases in which the respondent makes cross-assignments upon errors in rulings adverse to him and preserved in a bill of exceptions, its purpose being to enable the supreme court to determine whether those complained of by the appellant were compensated or rendered harmless by reason of those complained of by respondent. Cook v. MacGinniss, 72 Mont. 280, 233 Pac. 129.

To make an order or ruling of the trial court against the respondent reviewable by the supreme court under a cross-assignment of error, the order of ruling must be presented by bill of exceptions or statement of the case properly settled; hence where the record on appeal consisted of the judgment-roll only the alleged error was not reviewable. *Thompson v. CHAPTER 57.APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT.*9754. Appeal from judgment of justice's or police court.

Under this section, an appeal from a justice of the peace court to the district court is perfected by service of the notice of appeal upon the adverse party or his attorney and the filing thereof with the justice, proof of service not being made a jurisdictional requirement; therefore dismissal of such an appeal because the record did not show that service had been made upon the adverse party was error.

9755. Must be tried anew.

There is no distinction in principle between the provisions of this section and of section 9187. In either instance the application to amend is addressed to the sound legal discretion of the court

Farmers & Miners' State Bank v. Probst, 76 Mont. 284, 246 Pac. 249.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 514-520.

9757. Undertaking on appeal.

In an action to recover on an undertaking on appeal from a justice's court to the district court, by which the sureties contracted that the appellant would pay the amount of the judgment appealed from if the appeal should be withdrawn or dismissed, followed by the words "in the amount of any judgment," etc., that might be recovered in the district court, held that the word "in" being meaningless in the connection in which used, must be read "or"—the word employed in this and the amendment should be allowed in furtherance of justice and not where the applicant has been guilty of indifference or neglect. Barrett v. Shipley, 63 Mont. 152, 206 Pac. 430.

section prescribing the form of the undertaking—and that the contention of the sureties that by the use of the word "in" they were relieved from liability for the amount of the judgment obtained in the district court is without merit. Kasun v. Todevich, 71 Mont. 315, 229 Pac. 714.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 522.

CHAPTER 59.

OFFER OF DEFENDANT TO COMPROMISE.

9770. Proceedings on offer of the defendant to compromise after suit brought.

Under this section which, not being inconsistent with federal laws, governs in the federal courts in Montana, where a plaintiff recovers judgment for a sum less than that for which defendant offered to allow judgment, defendant is entitled to recover costs. Morris-Turner Livestock Co. v. Director-General of Railroads, 266 Fed. 600.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 407.

CHAPTER 61.

MOTIONS AND ORDERS.

9772. Order and motion defined.

A motion is but an application for an order, is not a pleading, does not require an answer and is not subject to the general rules which regulate pleadings; if it fairly apprises the court of the grounds upon which relief is sought it is sufficient. Hall v. Hall, 70 Mont. 460, 226 Pac. 469.

9781. Service by mail, how.

The provision of this section that in case of service by mail, where something is to be done by the adverse party within a given number of days after service, the time within which it may be done is extended one day for every twenty-five miles distance between the place of deposit and the place of address, applies in a case where, after overruling of a demurrer to a complaint defendant is granted a given number of days within which to serve and file answer, or is ordered to do so on or before a certain date, the two meaning substantially the same thing. Batchoff v. Butte Pacific Copper Co., 60 Mont. 179, 198 Pac. 132.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 2 Cal. Jur. 351, 352, 406; vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 563-565.

9782. Appearance—Notices after appearance.

When defendant in a foreclosure proceeding has appeared and is in possession of the premises he is entitled to notice of application for writ of assistance by the purchaser at the foreclosure sale; but where he defaults, he is not entitled to such notice under this section, which provides that after default service of notice of subsequent proceedings need not be made upon him. State ex rel. Flowerree v. District Court, 71 Mont. 89, 227 Pac. 579.

A party who permits himself to get into default after general appearance is as effectively out of court as respects his right to notice of subsequent proceedings, as though he had failed to enter appearance in the first instance. Above rule applied to the facts appearing in Marlowe v. Missoula Gas Co. et al., 68 Mont. 372, 219 Pac. 1111.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 8, 469; vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 557.

CHAPTER 63.COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.*9786. Compensation of attorneys—Costs to parties.

While under this section and section 8993 an attorney may contract freely with his client as to his compensation before the fiduciary relation commences, as respects such a contract made after the relation had begun, he has the burden of showing that it was fair and reasonable and entered into freely by the client and that the latter knew and understood its provisions. In the absence of such allegations a complaint is insufficient. Coleman v. Sisson, 71 Mont. 435, 230 Pac. 582.

Under this section, providing that in probate proceedings the court may fix and allow the compensation of attorneys representing executors and administrators, the jurisdiction of the court was enlarged to the extent of empowering it to determine and fix the amount due an attorney for services rendered an administrator and order that the amount so fixed be set apart out of the funds of the estate for his use, the effect of the amendment being to constitute the attorney a "person interested in the estate" and to make his claim for reasonable compensation a legal debt against the estate to be paid as a part of the necessary expenses of administration. In re McLure's Estate, 68 Mont. 556, 220 Pac. 527.

This section, authorizing the district court sitting in probate to fix and allow the compensation of attorneys representing executors, administrators, etc., is not unconstitutional, as denying a jury trial. In re McLure's Estate, 68 Mont. 556, 220 Pac. 527.

Cited in In re Jennings' Estate, 74 Mont. 468, 475, 241 Pac. 655; In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 41, 235 Pac. 408.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 679, 683.

9787. When allowed, of course, to the plaintiff.

In an action to recover damages for trespass committed by defendant in pasturing his sheep upon plaintiff's land, plaintiff was entitled to recover his costs irrespective of the amount of the verdict in his favor, under subdivision 1 of this section. Kiehl v. Holliday, 77 Mont. 451, 251 Pac. 527.

The recovery of costs, as such, is regulated by statute, and the method therein pointed out must be followed in order to claim them; hence where plaintiff had judgment but failed to file his memorandum and serve a copy thereof on his opponent within five days after the decision of the court was made, as required by this section, he was not entitled to them. First State Bank v. Larsen, 72 Mont. 400, 233 Pac. 960.

9788. Defendant's costs must be allowed, of course, in certain cases.

In the absence of statutory authorization therefor, costs may not be apportioned between plaintiff and defendant where the former had judgment on one of his causes of action and the latter had judgment on the other, this section, allowing defendant costs applying only to an action wherein he recovers judgment and plaintiff is altogether unsuccessful. *Jones et al. v. For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 257 et seq.

9789. Costs—When in the discretion of the court.

Under this section, a successful litigant may recover all costs from his adversary, whether incurred in one or more trials of the cause; therefore, where plaintiff, though successful on the first trial secured a retrial on the ground of inadequacy of the verdict and had judgment, the court properly awarded him costs incident to both trials. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

This section, though not in terms authorizing the district court to impose terms as a condition to the granting of a new trial, held sufficiently broad to vest that court with such discretionary power. Brunnabend v. Tibbles, 76 Mont. 288, 246 Pac. 536.

9794. Costs when a tender is made before suit brought.

Where defendant, in an action for services rendered, alleged in his answer that before commencement of suit he had tendered to plaintiff the amount to which he was entitled and the jury awarded to plaintiff the amount so tendered, but defendant had failed to deposit in court the sum tendered as required by this section, the latter was not, and plaintiff was, entitled to costs. Lewis v. Pennoek, 68 Mont. 448, 219 Pac. 631.

9798. Counsel fees on foreclosure of mortgage.

Under this section, the district court must allow a reasonable attorney's fee in a foreclosure action, and with its determination in that respect the parties have nothing to do; hence allegations in the pleadings with reference thereto present no issues of fact and are surplusage. Bohan v. Harris et al., 71 Mont. 495, 230 Pac. 586.

9799. What costs allowed on foreclosure of liens. In an action to foreclose any of the liens provided for by sections 8318 to 8350 of the Civil Code the court must allow as costs the money paid for filing and recording the lien, and a reasonable attorney's fee in the district and supreme courts, and such costs and attorney's fees must be allowed to each claimant whose lien is established and such reasonable attorney's fees must be allowed to the defendant against whose property a lien is claimed, if such lien be not established.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 69, L. 1925.

9799.1. Filing fees and attorney's fees on foreclosure of threshermen's liens. In an action to foreclose a thresherman's lien upon grain or crops as provided in sections 8366 to 8374 of the Civil Code, the court must allow as costs the money paid for filing and recording the lien, and a reasonable attorney's fee in the district and supreme courts, and such costs and attorney's fee must be allowed to each claimant whose lien is established, and such reasonable attorney's fee must be allowed to the defendant against whose property a lien is claimed if such claim be not established.

Gardiner v. Eclipse Grocery Co., 72 Mont. 540, 550, 234 Pac. 490.

9803. Bill of costs.

Where counsel for the successful party on the day judgment was rendered had knowledge thereof but did not file his memorandum of costs until seven days thereafter, the trial court erred in refusing to strike it from the files, the provision of this section that the memorandum shall be filed with the clerk within five days after "notice" of the decision meaning after knowledge thereof and not after service of formal notice. Miles v. Miles, 76 Mont. 375, 247 Pac. 328.

An order denying a party costs is in effect an order taxing costs and not appealable, the ruling of the court being reviewable on appeal from the judgment.

Jones et al. v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 68 Mont. 231, 37 A. L. R. 754, 217 Pac. 673.

Where costs were allowed plaintiff without service on defendant of the memorandum required by this section, error in this regard cannot be reviewed in the absence of a bill of exceptions preserving the proceedings. McAboy v. Junk, 68 Mont. 198, 216 Pac. 1111.

9805. Costs on appeal—How claimed.

The successful party is entitled to his costs on appeal, whether or not a formal order is made by the supreme court, if he files a memorandum of his costs with the clerk of the district court within thirty days after the remittitur is filed with that officer. Failure to do so deprives him of the right to have them included in the judgment in his favor on 9807. Security from nonresident plaintiff.

The provision of this statute that on defendant's motion a nonresident plaintiff may be required to give security for costs confers a personal privilege upon the former which may be waived, and was waived by defendant's failure to make the motion until after the cause had been remanded by the supreme court for a new trial. *State ex rel. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

9820. Consolidation of several actions into one.

Cited in City of Bozeman v. Nelson, 73 Mont. 147, 162, 237 Pac. 528.

9821. Actions—When deemed pending.

Since under this section, an action is deemed pending until final determination on appeal or until the time for appealing has expired, it was error to admit in evidence a judgment-roll in a companion case which was then pending on appeal, but nonprejudicial where, independent of the judgment-roll, the proof was sufficient to show that defendant sheriff's attempted justification in seizing personal property under a mortgage was without merit. Noe v. Matlock et al., 64 Mont. 35, 208 Pac. 591.

Under this section, providing that an action is deemed pending from its commencement until its final determination on appeal, or until the time for appeal has passed, unless the judgment is sooner satisfied, the court erred in striking the defense of another action pending between the same parties upon the same cause, where defendant alleged that the judgment in that action in his favor had not been satisfied, and it appearing from the record that the time for appealing had not passed. McCormick et al. v. Shields, 63 Mont. 9, 205 Pac. 831.

9823. Extension of time.

Under this section, the district court may grant a party additional time within which to offer additional amendments to a proposed bill of exceptions. Morehouse v. Northern Land Co., 68 Mont. 96, 216 Pac. 792.

9829. State not required to give bonds when state is a party.

Under this section, a county treasurer is not required to furnish an undertaking on attachment in an action brought in his official capacity for the benefit of the county, to recover on an indemnity bond against loss of county funds in a bank. Jenkins v. First Nat. Bank et al., 73 Mont. 110, 236 Pac. 1085.

PART IV.

Special Proceedings of a Civil Nature.

CHAPTER 1.

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

9835. Judgment and order same meaning as in civil actions.

Under this section, providing that the final determination of the rights of a party to a special proceeding is a judgment, an order of the district court directing the exclusion of the lands of a protestant from a proposed extension of an irrigation district is a final judgment. In re Bitter Root Irr. Dist., 67 Mont. 436, 218 Pac. 945.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 852; vol. 18 Cal. Jur. 648.

CHAPTER 2.

WRIT OF REVIEW.

9837. When and by what courts granted.

Since an order of adoption is not appealable and the writ of habeas corpus is inadequate for the purpose of setting aside such an order made without jurisdiction, the writ of certiorari is the proper remedy. State ex rel. Thompson v. District Court, 75 Mont. 147, 242 Pac. 959.

The writ of certiorari issues only where there is an excess of jurisdiction on the part of the inferior tribunal, absence of the right to appeal from the act done without jurisdiction, and lack of a plain, speedy and adequate remedy other than certiorari. State ex rel. Mahood v. Board of R. R. Commrs., 73 Mont. 1, 234 Pac. 834.

An order vacating an order setting aside a default judgment is a special order made after final judgment, and as such is appealable, and therefore the writ of certiorari does not lie to review it. State ex rel. Deck v. District Court et al., 64 Mont. 110, 207 Pac. 1004.

Cited in State v. Board of Railroad Comms., 73 Mont. 1, 4, 234 Pac. 834;

State ex rel. Gates v. District Court, 69 Mont. 322, 324, 221 Pac. 543.

Certiorari to review order adjudging one in contempt for violation of injunction, note, 28 A. L. R. 65.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 1019 et seq.

9839. The writ to be directed to the inferior tribunal, etc.

To warrant relief under the writ of certiorari, the record of the proceeding sought to be reviewed must be certified to the reviewing court by the clerk of the lower court; hence where in response to an order to show cause on application for the writ of supervisory control, or other proper writ, the district judge made return, and the supervisory writ did not lie, the writ of review could not issue under the prayer for some other proper writ. State ex rel. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. District Court, 77 Mont. 214, 250 Pac. 609.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 1096.

9844. A defective return of the writ may be perfected—Hearing and judgment.

Where defendant in a proceeding for a writ of certiorari after return made filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings, which motion was argued by the parties and submitted for decision, and the court instead of rendering judgment as required by this section, made an order, nonappealable in character, dismissing the proceeding, the writ of mandate compelling it to render judgment is the proper remedy. State ex rel. Altrop v. District Court, 72 Mont. 49, 231 Pac. 99.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 1102-1105, 1114.

9846. Judgment-roll.

On appeal from a judgment of the district court on certiorari annulling a default judgment rendered by a justice's court, the record consists of the judgment-roll which embraces "a copy of the judgment, signed by the clerk, entered upon or attached to the writ and return," and therefore the affidavit upon which the writ was issued, the sufficiency of which was not attacked in the trial court, was not properly a part of the record. State v. Justice of the Peace Court et al., 69 Mont. 450, 222 Pac. 1055.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 1117.

CHAPTER 3.

WRIT OF MANDATE.

9847. Mandate defined.

Sections 9847-9860 were cited in State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 69 Mont. 415, 421, 222 Pac. 444; as sections 7213-7230, Revised Codes; in State ex rel. Lalonde v. Lemkie, 62 Mont. 51, 52, 202 Pac. 1109.

9848. When and by what court issued.

Under this section, the writ of mandate issues only to compel the performance of an act which the law specially enjoins as a duty resting with the respondent; hence, it does not lie to compel the state board of equalization to compel it to consent to the transfer of shares of stock on the books of a foreign corporation doing business in the state and to return to relator an inheritance tax paid under protest by the executor of the nonresi-dent decedent, owner of the stock, the law not making it the specific duty of the board to do so. State ex rel. Bankers' Trust Co. v. Walker, 70 Mont. 484, 226 Pac. 894.

The district court of one district or county has jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandate directed to an officer of another district or county to compel him to perform a ministerial act which the law specially enjoins as a duty resulting from his office. State ex rel. Carroll v. District Court, 69 Mont. 415, 222 Pac. 444.

Mandamus does not lie to compel a board of county commissioners to permit the withdrawal of a withdrawal of a name from a petition for the creation of a new county. State ex rel. Faragher v. Moulton et al., 68 Mont. 219, 216 Pac. 804.

Mandamus to compel school trustees of a district of the third class to rescind their action in closing two of the three schools in the district taken on the ground of the unfavorable financial condition of the district and on account of the removal of many families in the vicinity of those closed, does not lie, the matter being addressed to the discretion of the board which cannot be thus controlled. State ex rel. Robinson v. Desonia et al., 67 Mont. 201, 215 Pac. 220.

Mandamus does not lie to compel a board of county commissioners to establish fire limits in an unincorporated town or village in which a voluntary fire department had been previously organized, and to levy a special tax for its maintenance, its authority in that respect being discretionary. State ex rel. Peninsula Security Co. v. Board of County Commrs., 62 Mont. 69, 202 Pac. 1108.

Cited in State ex rel. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co. v. District Court et al., 77 Mont. 594, 605, 251 Pac. 1061; State ex rel. Altrop v. District Court, 72 Mont.

49, 231 Pac. 99; as section 7214, Revised Codes, in State v. Poland et al., 61 Mont. 600, 606, 203 Pac. 352; State ex rel. Peel v. District Court, 59 Mont. 505, 516, 517, 197 Pac. 741.

Mandamus to enforce performance of public duty by officer who is subject to penalty, fine or imprisonment, note, 19 A. L. R. 1382.

Mandamus to compel performance of duties after resignation of officer, note, 19 A. L. R. 48.

Mandamus to compel institution of proceedings for purpose of removal of public officer, note, 51 A. L. R. 561.

Mandamus to compel court or judge to require witness to testify, note, 41 A. L. R. 436.

Mandamus as remedy for interference with right of way, note, 47 A. L. R. 557.

Mandamus to compel legislature to make apportionment of representatives or election districts, note, 46 A. L. R. 964.

Mandamus against municipality to compel improvement or repair of street or highway, note, 46 A. L. R. 257.

Mandamus to compel enrollment of pupil in state school or university, note, 39 A. L. R. 1019.

Mandamus to enforce stockholder's right to inspect books and records, notes, 22 A. L. R. 43; 43 A. L. R. 786.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 762, 785, 804.

9849. Writ—When and upon what to issue.

The applicant must disclose the facts which establish his clear legal right to relief by writ of mandamus. Where a sheriff wrongfully refused to levy upon and sell property on execution issued on a money judgment, he is liable in damages to the judgment creditor on his official bond and the latter is therefore not entitled to a writ of mandate to compel the officer to proceed under the execution. State ex rel. Duggan v. District Court, 65 Mont. 197, 210 Pac. 1062.

Where the alternative writ refers to the affidavit, the two constitute the first pleading on the part of the applicant for the writ and a motion to quash challenges the sufficiency of both. State ex rel. Duggan v. District Court, 65 Mont. 197, 210 Pac. 1062.

Cited in State ex rel. Malone v. District Court, 74 Mont. 488, 489, 241 Pac. 240; State ex rel. Altrop v. District Court, 72 Mont. 49, 231 Pac. 99.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 784, 819, 851, 855, 859.

9858. If the applicant succeed, he may have damages, costs and a peremptory mandate. If judgment be given for the applicant, he may recover the damages which he has sustained, as found by the jury, or as may be determined by the court or referees, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and for such damages and costs an execution may issue; and a peremptory mandate must also be awarded without delay;

Provided, however, that in all cases where the respondent is a state, county or municipal officer all damages and costs, or either, which may be recovered or awarded shall be recovered and awarded against the state, county or municipal corporation represented by such officer, and not against such officer so appearing in said proceeding and the same shall be a proper claim against the state or county or municipal corporation for which such officer shall have appeared, and shall be paid as other claims against the state, county or municipality are paid; but in all such cases, the court shall first determine that the officer appeared and made defense in such proceeding in good faith.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 5, L. 1925.

Under this section, as amended, where the applicant for a writ of mandate claims damages he must allege them in his application, or file a bill of particulars in the proceeding before conclusion of the hearing, and submit proof; otherwise damages are deemed waived and the court after final judgment entered is without jurisdiction to make award thereof in the proceeding. State ex rel. Golden Valley County v. District Court, 75 Mont. 122, 242 Pac. 421.

A public officer who is positively required by law to perform a ministerial act and who neglects or refuses to perform it, renders himself liable in costs as well as damages, under this section, and the award of costs in such a case is not discretionary. State ex rel. Shea v. Cocking et al., 66 Mont. 169, 28 A. L. R. 772, 213 Pac. 594.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 880, 881.

CHAPTER 4.

WRIT OF PROHIBITION.

9861. Prohibition defined.

This and the following section were cited as sections 7227, 7228, Revised Codes, in State ex rel. Barnes v. District Court, 59 Mont. 491, 492, 197 Pac. 565.

9862. Where and when issued.

Where it is apparent that the district court cannot under any conceivable circumstances render a valid judgment in a cause pending before it, and an appeal would be neither speedy nor adequate, the writ of prohibition will lie to prevent it from proceeding further. State ex rel. Thibodeau v. District Court, 70 Mont. 202, 224 Pac. 866.

The writ of prohibition lies to prevent a threatened improper use of property as evidence. State ex rel. Thibodeau v. District Court, 70 Mont. 202, 224 Pac. 866.

Cited in State ex rel. Thibodeau v. District Court, 70 Mont. 202, 207, 224 Pac. 866.

Where plaintiff had an appeal from a final judgment of a district court declaring forfeited liquors claimed by him and seized under the Prohibition Enforcement Act, he was not entitled to a writ of prohibition to stay further action in the proceeding. State ex rel. Barnes v. District Court, 59 Mont. 491, 197 Pac. 565.

Cited in State ex rel. McLeod v. District Court, 67 Mont. 164, 166, 215 Pac. 240.

CHAPTER 6.

CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT WITHOUT ACTION.

9868. Judgment may be confessed for debt due or contingent liability.

Where defendant, in an action to recover a debt, in response to a summons out of a justice's court appeared in person on the day set for trial and orally

"acknowledged" judgment, he in effect admitted the allegations of the complaint and the judgment entered thereon was to all intents and purposes a judgment on the pleadings, and not open to the objection that as a "confession of judgment" it was void because not evidenced by a writing executed by defendant as required by sections 9868 to 9871. (Hunter v. Eddy, 11 Mont. 251, holding otherwise, overruled.) State ex rel. Kennedy v. Hubbard, 77 Mont. 170, 253 Pac. 271.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 869.

CHAPTER 7.

SUBMISSION OF CONTROVERSIES WITHOUT ACTION.

9872. Controversies—How submitted without action.

Proceedings to determine heirship, while partaking in form of the nature of a civil action, are not such, and therefore the provisions of this section, permitting parties to submit a civil action for determination by the district court upon an agreed statement of facts, have no application to such proceedings. CHAPTER 9.

SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS FOR OBTAINING POSSESSION OF REAL PROPERTY—FORCIBLE ENTRY AND UNLAWFUL DETAINER.

9887. Forcible entry defined.

Complaint in a justice's court in an action for forcible entry, alleging inter alia that defendant forcibly entered on the premises and in a forcible manner ejected the plaintiff, etc., held, sufficient to show that the acts were done violently, "force" and "violence" as the latter terms are used in this section, with relation to forcible entry and detainer, being synonymous. Lambert v. Helena Adjustment Co., 69 Mont. 510, 222 Pac. 1057.

Sections 9887-9906 were cited in Cashman v. Vickers et al., 69 Mont. 516, 522, 223 Pac. 897.

9888. Forcible detainer defined.

Sections 9888, 9889 were cited in Lambert v. Helena Adjustment Co., 69 Mont. 510, 515, 222 Pac. 1057.

9889. Unlawful detainer defined.

Under this section, providing for the recovery of damages in an action for unlawful detainer including rent, directors of a corporation lessee, who united in refusal to surrender possession after the term and after default in the payment of rent, may be joined as defendants and are individually liable, jointly and severally, for the damages awarded, and directors who did not join in such refusal need not be made parties. Northwest Theaters Co. et al. v. Hansen, 4 Fed. (2d) 471.

CHAPTER 11.

CONTEMPTS.

9908. What acts or omissions are contempts.

An attorney was cited for contempt and found guilty of an attempt to falsify the records of a court by offering an alleged minute entry of a plea of once in jeopardy containing a clause that the dismissal of the jury had been ordered over the defendant's objection, which statement the trial judge declared to be untrue. Held that the facts shown did not constitute an attempt to falsify court records. State ex rel. Hurley v. District Court, 76 Mont. 222, 246 Pac. 250.

Contempt proceedings are criminal in their nature, and the evidence must show that the accused is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, otherwise he is entitled to his discharge. State ex rel. Nett v. District Court, 72 Mont. 206, 232 Pac. 204.

Cited in State ex rel. Bacorn v. District Court, 73 Mont. 297, 301, 236 Pac. 553.

Interference with enforcement of judgment in criminal case as contempt, notes, 21 A. L. R. 327; 47 A. L. R. 406.

Acts interfering with or prejudicing judicial or execution sale as contempt, note, 27 A. L. R. 1225.

Reflection on judge by grand or petit juror as contempt, note, 20 A. L. R. 908.

Procuring or attempting to procure witness to leave jurisdiction as contempt, notes, 21 A. L. R. 247; 36 A. L. R. 607.

Violation of injunction by one not a party to injunction suit, note, 15 A. L. R. 386.

Violation of injunction against boycott as contempt, notes, 6 A. L. R. 978; 16 A. L. R. 243; 27 A. L. R. 659.

Conduct of attorney in connection with making objections or taking exceptions during trial as contempt of court, note, 31 A. L. R. 1185.

Communicating with grand jury as contempt, note, 29 A. L. R. 489.

Presenting, obstructing or delaying service or execution of search-warrant, note, 39 A. L. R. 1354.

Mistreatment of prisoner as contempt, note, 40 A. L. R. 1278.

Subpoenaing unnecessary witnesses as contempt, note, 37 A. L. R. 1113.

Contempt by letter to court or judge regarding pending case, note, 31 A. L. R. 1239.

Practicing or pretending to practice law without authority as contempt, note, 36 A. L. R. 533.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 898 et seq.

9910. A contempt committed in the presence of the court may be punished summarily—When not so committed, an affidavit or statement shall be made.

While under this section, a contempt committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or judge, may be punished summarily, in the case of an "indirect" contempt—one committed without the immediate view and presence of the court—the court or judge acquires jurisdiction only by the filing of an affidavit or statement of the facts. State ex rel. Stagg v. District Court, 76 Mont. 495, 248 Pac. 213.

The filing of an affidavit disqualifying a district judge from hearing a case at issue, but when the court was not in session for the purpose of hearing it, if contemptuous at all, was not a direct contempt and therefore the court was without jurisdiction to try the contemnor in the absence of an affidavit or statement of the facts first filed. State ex

rel. Stagg v. District Court et al., 76 Mont. 495, 248 Pac. 213.

For discussion of acts constituting direct and indirect contempt of court, the case involving the filing of a disqualifying affidavit against a district judge, see State ex rel. Stagg v. District Court, 76 Mont. 495, 248 Pac. 213.

Where the trial court in its order finding one guilty of a direct contempt recites the facts occurring in its immediate view or presence, the supreme court cannot on certiorari look to the counter-statements of the accused, but must rely upon the recitals in the order of the court. State ex rel. Hurley v. District Court, 76 Mont. 222, 246 Pac. 250.

A contempt proceeding against a party to an action for refusal to answer questions as witness before a notary public in taking his deposition for use by plaintiff in the action is criminal in its nature and entirely independent of the action itself; it must be instituted by affidavit which must state facts sufficient to disclose that a contempt has been committed, no intendments or presumptions in favor of its averments being permissible. State ex rel. Bacorn v. District Court, 73 Mont. 297, 236 Pac. 553.

Where a writ of mandate directed a sheriff to forthwith levy upon and sell property on execution, and an affidavit was presented to the court two days later charging contempt in that the officer had failed and refused to comply with the order of the court and had not made return forthwith, the affidavit was insufficient to meet the requirement of this section that facts constituting the contempt must be alleged therein. State ex rel. Duggan v. District Court, 65 Mont. 197, 210 Pac. 1062.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 929, 938.

9916. Hearing.

A person charged with constructive contempt may make answer by affidavit, by a verified answer, or by a verbal plea of not guilty; and on the hearing should be permitted to present every defense to show that he is not guilty of the contempt charged. State ex rel. Nett v. District Court, 72 Mont. 206, 232 Pac. 204.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 5 Cal. Jur. 943.

v. District Court, 61 Mont. 558, 567, 202 Pac. 756.

CHAPTER 12.

DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATIONS BY THE DISTRICT COURT.

9927. Hearing of applications. After the time of publication has expired, the court or judge may, upon five days' notice to the persons who have filed objections, or without further notice if no objections have been filed, proceed to hear and determine the application, and if all the statements made therein are shown to be true, must, by judgment, declare the corporation dissolved. The court or judge, in such action, shall ascertain the names of the directors of said corporation then in office, and shall incorporate such names in the judgment of dissolution, and the persons so named shall be the trustees of the creditors and stockholders or members of such dissolved corporation. If in any judgment of dissolution heretofore entered, the court declared who were the trustees, such declaration is conclusive evidence thereof. It shall be the duty of the clerk of such district court to immediately file with the secretary of state a copy of the judgment provided for in this section duly certified by such clerk.

CHAPTER 14.

EMINENT DOMAIN.

9933. Eminent domain defined.

Sections 9933, 9934 were cited in Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 499, 244 Pac. 298; State ex rel. McLeod

v. District Court, 67 Mont. 164, 168, 215 Pac. 240.

9934. What are public uses.

rel. McLeod v. District Court, 67 Mont. 164, 168, 215 Pac. 240.

9936. Private property defined—Classes enumerated.

Land owned by a cemetery association organized for profit is private property, which, under this section, may be taken by eminent domain for public cemetery purposes. Forestvale Cemetery Assn. v. Helena Cemetery Assn., 62 Mont. 52, 203 Pac. 359.

Right to condemn property previously condemned or purchased for public use but not actually so used, note, 12 A. L. R. 1502.

9940. The complaint and its contents.

Description of lands sought to be condemned for a private road required by this section, to be set forth in the complaint, is sufficient if it is definite enough to identify the lands. Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 244 Pac. 298.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 395-401.

9943. Power of court to appoint commissioners, etc.

Cited in Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 501, 244 Pac. 298.

9947. Appeals. An appeal from any assessment made by the commissioners may be taken and prosecuted in the court where the report of said commissioners is filed by any party interested. Such appeal must be taken within the period of thirty (30) days after the service upon appellant of the notice of the filing of the award by the service of notice of such appeal upon the opposing party or his attorney in such proceedings, and the same shall be brought on for trial upon the same notice and in the same manner as other civil actions, and unless a jury shall be waived by the consent of all parties to such appeal, the same shall be tried by jury, and the damages to which appellant may be entitled, by reason of the appropriation of his property, shall be reassessed upon the same principle as hereinbefore prescribed for the assessment of such damages by commissioners; upon any verdict or assessment by commissioners becoming final, judgment shall be entered declaring that upon judgment of such verdict or assessment, together with the interests and costs allowed by law, if any, the right to construct and maintain such railroad or other public work or improvement, and to take, use and appropriate the property described in such verdict or assessment, for the use and purposes for which said land has been condemned, shall, as against the parties interested in such verdict or assessment, be and remain in the plaintiff and his or its heirs, successors or assigns forever. In case the party appealing from the award of the commissioners in any proceeding, as aforesaid, shall not succeed in changing to his advantage the amount of damages finally awarded in such proceeding, he shall not recover the costs of such appeal, but all the costs of the appellee upon such appeal shall be taxed against and recovered from the appellant; provided, that upon the trial of such appeal, the plaintiff may contest the right of any party or parties thereto to any of the property mentioned and set forth or involved in said appeal, which was located after the preliminary survey of any such railroad, seeking to condemn its right of way under and pursuant to the provisions of this act; provided, such condemnation proceedings are begun within one year after such preliminary survey.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 145, L. 1927.

9955. Private roads.

Whether a way is a public or private one is determined by the extent of the right to use it, not by the extent to which that right is actually exercised; and if a private road sought to be established under this section, leading from a public highway through lands of a private owner to those owned by plaintiff, may be used by the public generally, although others than plaintiff may have slight occasion to use it, the statute authorizing its establishment as this section does, under such circumstances is not open to constitutional objection. Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 244 Pac. 298.

Under this section and section 1765, authorizing the establishment of a private road, the appointment of commissioners, to determine the damages occasioned thereby, etc., is not necessary, the matters ordinarily determined by commissioners in eminent domain proceedings being determinable in such a case by the jury. Komposh v. Powers et al., 75 Mont. 493, 244 Pac. 298.

CHAPTER 20.

GENERAL JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURTS.

10018. Jurisdiction of the court over the estate—When exercised.

A will made in another state by a resident of Montana is subject to probate under this section, relating to domestic wills, though proved and allowed in the foreign state, and not under sections 10039-10041, providing the manner in which a foreign will upon the production of a duly authenticated copy thereof and its probate in another state may be admitted to probate in this state. In re Mauldin's Estate, 69 Mont. 132, 220 Pac. 1102.

CHAPTER 21.

PROBATE OF WILLS.

10029. Who may appear and contest the will.

Under this section an heir at law may contest a will through an attorney appointed by him, and the complaint need not allege that the one representing him is his attorney, it being presumed that an attorney at law who represents a client does so with the latter's consent and by virtue of his retainer. In re Miller's Estate, 71 Mont. 330, 229 Pac. 851.

Executor's or administrator's right to contest the will of his decedent, note, 31 A. L. R. 326.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 1081.

10030. Probate—When no contest. If no person appears to contest the probate of a will, the court or judge may admit the same to probate:

(a) On the testimony of one of the subscribing witnesses only, if he testifies that the will was executed in all particulars as required by law, and that the testator was of sound mind at the time of its execution.

(b) If it appears at the time fixed for the hearing that none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the county, and that the deposition of one of the witnesses to the will can be taken elsewhere, the court may direct it to be taken and may authorize a photographic copy of the will to be made and presented to such witness on his examination, who may be asked the same questions with respect to it and the handwriting of himself, the testator, and the other witness, as would be pertinent and competent if the original will were present.

(c) If none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the county at the time appointed for proving the will, and it is made to appear to the court that the execution of the will cannot be proven under either of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, the court may admit the testimony of other witnesses to prove the sanity of the testator and the execution of the will; and, as evidence of such execution, it may admit proof of the handwriting of the testator and of the subscribing witnesses, or any of them.

CHAPTER 23.

PROBATE OF FOREIGN WILLS.

10039. Wills proved in other states to be recorded, when and where.

A will made in another state by a resident of Montana is subject to probate under section 10018 relating to domestic wills, though proved and allowed in a foreign state, and not under sections 10039-10041. In re Mauldin's Estate, 69 Mont. 132, 220 Pac. 1102.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 1053.

10040. Proceedings on the production of a foreign will.

The filing of a petition for the probate of a foreign will unaccompanied "by a copy of the will duly authenticated" as required by this section did not confer jurisdiction upon the district court to make an order admitting it to probate in this state. Henderson et al. v. Daniels, 62 Mont. 363, 205 Pac. 964.

Under this section and 10555, an attestation by the clerk of a probate court of another state that papers constituting the record of proceedings in that court were true and correct copies of the will and its probate there, without a certificate of the judge "that the attestation is in due form," was insufficient to entitle them to be admitted in evidence in this state, not being duly authenticated as required by section 10040. Henderson et al. v. Daniels, 62 Mont. 363, 205 Pac. 964.

Sections 10040 and 10041 were cited in In re Coppock's Estate, 72 Mont. 431, 433, 39 A. L. R. 1152, 234 Pac. 258.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 1053.

CHAPTER 24.CONTESTING WILLS AFTER PROBATE.*10047. Costs and expenses—By whom paid.

Under this section the trial court may in its discretion order that the costs incident to the revocation of the probate of a will be paid out of the property of the decedent if the revocation was resisted in good faith and upon substantial grounds, or, in case of bad faith and without justification, tax them against the party who resisted revocation. In re Carroll's Estate 59 Mont. 403, 196 Pac. 996.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 26 Cal. Jur. 1113-1117.

CHAPTER 27.PERSONS TO WHOM AND ORDER IN WHICH LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION ARE GRANTED.*10068. Order of persons entitled to administer—Partner not to administer.

A decedent with estate in Montana left surviving her five children, two sons and two daughters resident in a foreign country and a daughter residing in Montana. Over the objections of the resident daughter who prayed for letters in her own behalf, the court appointed a resident nominee of the foreign heirs. Held, under sections 10068, 10069 and 10072, that the action of the court was correct, the nominee of the sons being entitled to preference over their resident sister, and the court having been without discretion to do otherwise. In re Estate of Welscher, 77 Mont. 164, 250 Pac. 447.

Under this section relatives of a decedent are entitled to administer only when they are entitled to succeed to his personal estate or some portion thereof. The widow under the will was "endowed in his estate, real and personal." In a proceeding seeking to debar the widow from nominating an administrator with the will annexed, held that the testator by the use of the word "endowed" did not intend that she should be limited to her right of dower—a third part of his real property—but did intend that she should have the same portion of his estate, both real and personal, to which she would have been entitled had he died intestate. In re McLure's Estate, 63 Mont. 536, 208 Pac. 900.

Under this section, the surviving wife of a decedent is prima facie entitled to have letters of administration issued to her or some competent person designated by her, in preference to the mother of decedent. State ex rel. Peel v. District Court, 59 Mont. 505, 197 Pac. 741.

Cited in State ex rel. McKennan v. District Court, 69 Mont. 340, 344, 222 Pac. 426.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 308, 313.

10072. Who are incompetent to act as administrators.

Under this section, a person who is incompetent to serve as administrator by reason of nonresidence may, if he or she fall within one of the five favored classes therein enumerated, nominate a resident to serve, the right to nominate being absolute as to all the five classes enumerated in the section, in the order of their priority. In re Estate of Welscher, 77 Mont. 164, 250 Pac. 447.

Evidence that the nonresident sister of a decedent moved to Montana for the purpose of petitioning for letters of administration and with the intention of remaining, was sufficient to establish the fact of her residence in the state, in the absence of any declarations or actions showing a contrary intent and in view of the fact that she had no permanent residence anywhere else, and that she therefore was at the time of making petition for letters, about a month after her arrival in the state, a bona fide resident within the meaning of this section, requiring an administrator to be a bona fide resident of the state. In re Estate of Nix, 66 Mont. 559, 213 Pac. 1089.

PETITION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND ACTION THEREON.

10077. Contesting application.

Where the district court, sitting in probate, instead of hearing a petition for letters of administration, a counterpetition and a motion to strike the original petition from the files, together, as required by this section, simply heard and granted the motion to strike, its action was without authority of law, and void. State ex rel. Peel v. District Court, 59 Mont. 505, 197 Pac. 741.

CHAPTER 30.

OATHS AND BONDS OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

10088. Bond of administrators, form and requirement of.

The general bond of an administrator given under this section covers all moneys coming into his hands, whether from sale of real property or otherwise; while the additional bond required by section 10089 upon sale of real property belonging to the estate is security for his acts in that respect only. Baker v. Hanson et al., 72 Mont. 22, 231 Pac. 902.

Cited in In re Smith's Estate, 60 Mont. 276, 298, 199 Pac. 696.

10089. Additional bonds—When required.

The additional bond which may be exacted from an administrator under this section, upon a sale of real property belonging to the estate in his charge, is distinct from the further security which may be required under sections 10094, 10099 and 10102, whenever his general bond is deemed insufficient, and, when required, the latter security becomes in contemplation of law a part of his general bond and the sureties become subject to the same measure of liability. Baker v. Hanson et al., 72 Mont. 22, 231 Pac. 902.

CHAPTER 31.SPECIAL ADMINISTRATORS AND THEIR POWERS AND DUTIES.*10107. Special administrators—When appointed.

The intent of this section construed with sections 10108 and 10109, where there is a will valid on its face, is to require the court or judge in appointing a special administrator to give preference to the person named as executor, and where an executor is not named in the will, to give preference to the person entitled to letters of administration.

10111. Duties of special administrator.

Circumstances may arise in the administration of an estate in which the probate court, under this section, may authorize a special administrator to vote corporate stock of the estate in order to preserve its value. Gow v. Cascade 10133. Effect of naming a debtor executor.

Construing this section, which provides that an executor who was indebted to his testator at the time of the latter's death is liable for the amount owing as for money in his hands when the debt becomes due, held that the statute merely abrogates the common-law rule whereby the bare appointment of an executor operated to extinguish any debt due from the executor to testator. In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 235 Pac. 408.

An executor who was indebted to testator at the time of the latter's death was entitled to credit on settlement of his account for partial payments made by him while acting in his representative capacity, and the holding of the trial court that payments on account could not be made under this section, since thereunder the executor was liable for the whole debt as for money in his hands and that the payments made were mere voluntary contributions, was error. In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 235 Pac. 408.

An executor who held trust funds of the decedent in his possession at the time he qualified as such at once became liable therefor as for money in his hands, under this section, with interest thereon from the death of decedent, and by thereafter continuing to mingle the funds, as he had done theretofore, with his own moneys and using it in connection with his business until it was lost, he was bound to account for it with interest. In re Rodgers' Estate, 68 Mont. 46, 217 Pac. 678.

10139. Executor or administrator to deliver real estate to heirs or devisees, when.

Under this section, when the time for the presentation of claims against an estate has expired and all the debts of the decedent have been paid, the court is without discretion in the premises but must deliver the real property to the heirs or devisees. In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

Rents and profits of real estate specifically devised, when not needed for the payment of debts or for administration purposes, are payable to the devisee and not to the residuary legatee. In re Bradford's Estate, 69 Mont. 247, 221 Pac. 531.

CHAPTER 36.PROCEEDINGS TO COMPEL DISCLOSURE OF PROPERTY OF AN ESTATE—LIABILITY FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.*10141. Citation to person suspected to have embezzled estate, etc.

An order of the district court sitting in probate made pursuant to a citation to a former administrator under sections 10141, 10142, to appear and be examined concerning his disposition of personal property belonging to the estate, cannot go further than require a disclosure to be used in an action pending or to be brought in behalf of the estate; it cannot finally adjudicate any right. Baker v. Hanson et al., 72 Mont. 22, 231 Pac. 902.

PROVISIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE FAMILY.

10144. Widow and minor children may remain in decedent's house, etc.

Where in an antenuptial agreement the wife released her dower rights in all of the real estate then owned or thereafter to be acquired by the husband, and all other rights, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever at law or in equity in such real estate; assigned to him any claim she might be entitled to after becoming his wife or widow in any personal property then owned or which might be acquired by him thereafter, and agreed that in consideration of $150,000 she would make no further claim against him or his estate for any share therein to which as his widow she might be entitled to, she thereby waived her right to an allowance for her support authorized by sections 10144-10147, during administration of the deceased husband's estate. In re Oppenheimer's Estate, 73 Mont. 560, 238 Pac. 599.

Where at the time a petition for a family allowance was filed the estate was and had for some time been ready to be closed and a reasonable time had elapsed for the settlement of its affairs, the court abused its discretion in granting the petition. 10145. All property exempt from execution to be set apart for use of family.

Where decedent left his entire property in equal shares to his widow and a daughter by a former marriage, the instrument not showing that it was devised or bequeathed to the former in lieu of her homestead right, she was not precluded from claiming a probate homestead by taking under the will. In re Trapp's Estate, 71 Mont. 154, 227 Pac. 1005.

The homestead authorized to be selected by the probate court under this section, where none was selected prior to the death of decedent, is the homestead provided for by sections 6945-6948, and therefore the value and extent of it must not be any greater than as prescribed by those sections. In re Tripps' Estate, 71 Mont. 154, 227 Pac. 1005.

CHAPTER 40.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE.

10170. Notice to creditors—Additional notice.

This section provides that the executor or administrator of an estate shall publish a notice to the creditors of the estate to present their claims to him "at the place of his residence or business, to be specified in the notice." The notice published by defendant executor was to the effect that claims should be presented "to the executor" of decedent's estate "at the city of Billings" without specifying his place of residence or business. Held, under the above rule that the notice was insufficient, and that the court's holding that plaintiff's claim was barred because not presented within the period for presentation fixed in the notice was error. Roche Valley Land Co. v. Barth et al., 67 Mont. 353, 215 Pac. 654.

The notice to creditors of an estate prescribed by this section, and required to be published by the executor or administrator, is in the nature of a process, and its requirements must be complied with in all essentials. Roche Valley Land Co. v. Barth et al., 67 Mont. 353, 215 Pac. 654.

A valid presentation of a claim of a creditor against an estate may be made before notice to creditors is given. Roche Valley Land Co. v. Barth et al., 67 Mont. 353, 215 Pac. 654.

10173. Time within which claims against an estate to be presented.

Where after the estate of a deceased person had been distributed, the holder of a real estate mortgage executed by decedent during his lifetime commenced suit to foreclose without asking for a deficiency judgment, the sole heir not answering, the district court erred in dismissing the suit for want of jurisdiction because of plaintiff's failure to allege that he had presented his claim to the administrator or, in the absence of presentation of such claim, that he waived all recourse against the decedent's property other than that covered by the mortgage, since the provisions of sections 10173 and 10180, are applicable only to an estate still in course of administration and not to one that has been closed. State ex rel. Petters & Co. v. District Court, 76 Mont. 143, 245 Pac. 529.

The estate of a deceased person dealt with by sections 10173 and 10180, the intent of which is to permit a mortgagee to foreclose his mortgage although the mortgagor has died, provided the mortgagee shall not have recourse against any other property of the decedent's estate unless he first presents his mortgage claim to the executor or administrator in accordance with the statute, ceases to exist upon entry of decree of distribution which is conclusive and has the force of res. adjudicata; after the estate is declared closed the court has neither jurisdiction over the property of the estate nor the executor or administrator. State ex rel. Petters & Co. v. District Court, 76 Mont. 143, 245 Pac. 529.

Claims for rentals falling due under a lease the term of which had not expired at the time the lessee died and the property covering which was thereafter occupied by his executor in his representative capacity, held to have been "claims arising upon contracts not due" within the meaning of this section, which must be presented to the executor within the time specified in the notice to creditors to save them from being barred. Nathan v. Freeman, 70 Mont. 259, 41 A. L. R. 138, 225 Pac. 1015.

This section, providing that claims against a decedent's estate arising upon contracts, whether due, not due or contingent, are barred unless presented to the executor within the time limited in the notice to creditors, and section 10180, declaring that a creditor cannot maintain suit on his claim (excepting a mortgage debt or claim for funeral expenses) unless so presented, have reference only to indebtedness of the deceased contracted by him in his lifetime and existent at the time of death, and therefore have no application to obligations arising subsequent to his death by reason of a breach of an executory contract, such latter obligation becoming by operation of law that of his personal representative. Nathan v. Freeman et al., 70 Mont. 259, 41 A. L. R. 138, 225 Pac. 1015.

A claim of an executor against the estate in his charge must be presented for allowance within the same time as the claims of other creditors, and if not so presented is barred under the provisions of this section. In re Rodgers' Estate, 68 Mont. 46, 217 Pac. 678.

Where a partnership is dissolved by death, and upon liquidation of its affairs, or in course thereof, it appears that the deceased partner was indebted to the survivor in an amount over and above the partnership assets, the latter must present his claim for allowance under the provisions of this section. *Mares v. 10174. Claims to be sworn to, and when allowed to bear same interest as judgment.

In the absence of statute so providing, a claim against the estate of a debtor held by assignment need not be verified by the assignor. Nevin-Frank Co. v. Hubert, 67 Mont. 50, 214 Pac. 959.

Where the claim of a corporation against an estate as presented to the executrix was otherwise sufficient, the fact that the verification made by its president in its behalf did not contain the statement that the claimant was a corporation, a fact admitted at the trial by defendant executrix, did not render it fatally defective. Nevin-Frank Co. v. Hubert, 67 Mont. 50, 214 Pac. 959.

Where a claim against an estate showed on its face that it was made by claimant as guardian, the fact that the verification required by this section was made by him individually without any reference to his official capacity as guardian did not render the claim fatally defective. In re Stinger Estate, 61 Mont. 173, 201 Pac. 693.

An affidavit made by the bookkeeper of a corporation, without setting forth the reason why the claimant itself did not make it, was an improper verification under this section, and the recital that the claimant is a corporation was insufficient to cure the defect. The Ullman Co. v. Adler, 59 Mont. 232, 196 Pac. 157.

The affidavit called for by this section, to accompany a claim against an estate, is not required as evidence of the existence of the debt, but as evidence of good faith to prevent the presentation of spurious or fictitious claims. The Ullman Co. v. Adler, 59 Mont. 232, 196 Pac. 157.

There must be a substantial compliance with the requirements of every provision of this section, specifying what the verification of a claim against the estate of the decedent must contain; where there is no such compliance, the claim is ineffectual as a basis for legal liability. The Ullman Co. v. Adler, 59 Mont. 232, 196 Pac. 157.

Where the affidavit in verification of a claim against an estate omitted to set forth that no payments had been made thereon which were not credited as required by this section, it was ineffectual as a basis of legal liability against it, and neither itemization of the claim, in the shape of debits and credits, nor the statement that the claim was lawful, just, true and correct, nor the vouchers and proofs which may be required by the executor or administrator, could supply the defect. The Ullman Co. v. Adler, 59 Mont. 232, 196 Pac. 157.

Sections 10174-10176 were cited in State ex rel. Rankin v. Yellowstone Bank etc. Co., 75 Mont. 43, 50, 243 Pac. 813; Burnett v. Neraal, 67 Mont. 189, 191, 214 Pac. 955; Nevin-Frank Co. v. Hubert, 67 Mont. 50, 54, 214 Pac. 959.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 704, 712, 732.

10177. Approved claims or copies to be filed—Claims secured by liens may be described—Lost claims.

Under this section, a claim against the estate of a decedent, founded upon a promissory note which is neither lost nor destroyed must be accompanied either by the original note or a copy of it when presented to the executor or administrator for allowance; where not so accompanied the claim may properly be rejected. Burnett v. Neraal, 67 Mont. 189, 214 Pac. 955.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 705, 707, 734, 743, 755.

10178. Limitation of actions on rejected claims. When a claim is rejected either by the executor or administrator, or the judge, the holder must bring suit in the proper court against the executor or administrator within three months after the date such claim is filed, with indorsement thereon showing the rejection thereof, in whole or in part, in the office of the clerk of court in which the proceedings are pending, if it be then due, or within two months after it becomes due, otherwise the claim shall be forever barred.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 11, L. 1925.

The fact that the first action brought against an executrix after rejection of a claim was dismissed for want of jurisdiction to determine the merits does not establish that the action was not brought in a proper court as required by this section and does not prevent a new action within one year after such dismissal under section 9054. Gilmore v. Gilmore, 270 Fed. 260.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE AND REALTY CONTRACTS.

10210. Executor or administrator may sell property, when.

Sections 10210, 10211 were cited in In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 487, 248 Pac. 362.

were cited as sections 7561-7565, Revised Codes, in Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 538, 202 Pac. 769.

This and the four following sections

10212. Citation to interested persons to appear. If it appears to the court or judge, from such petition, that it is necessary, or that it would be for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the estate, and those interested therein, including the minor heirs, if any, to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate, for the purposes and reasons mentioned in the preceding section, or any of them, such petition must be filed, and an order thereupon made, directing all persons interested in the estate to appear before the court or judge, at a time and place specified, not less than fifteen, nor more than thirty days from the time of making such order, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the executor or administrator to sell so much of the real estate of the decedent as is necessary.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 67, L. 1927.

Where the proceedings had before the probate court on application by an administrator for an order of sale of real property disclosed that no order to show cause was ever made, published or served upon the parties interested, the sale was void for want of jurisdiction and open to collateral attack. Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

Cited in In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 198, 250 Pac. 812.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 908.

10213. Copy to be served—Assent or publication. A copy of the order to show cause must be personally served on all persons interested in the estate, any general guardian of a minor so interested, and any legatee, or devisee, or heir of the decedent, provided they are residents of the county. If any such persons are not residents of the county the clerk of the court must forthwith deposit a copy of the order in the postoffice, registered, postage prepaid, directed to the person to be served, at his place of residence, such service to be at least ten days before the time appointed for hearing the petition, or such order may be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in such newspaper in the county as the court or judge may direct. If all persons interested in the estate join in the petition for the sale or signify in writing their assent thereto, the notice may be dispensed with, and the hearing may be had at any time.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 67, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 909.

10216. To sell real estate, or any part, when.

7567, Revised Codes, in Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 539, 202 Pac. 769.

10219. Interested persons may apply for order of sale—Form of petition.

Cited in In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 487, 248 Pac. 362.

10220. Notice of sale. When a sale is ordered, and it is to be made at public auction, notice of the time and place must be posted in three of the most public places in the county in which the land is situated, and published once in a newspaper, if there be one printed in the same county, but if none, then in such paper as the court or judge may direct, not less than seven days before the date of sale; the lands and tenements to be sold must be described with common certainty in the notice.

Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 67, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 916.

10225. Return of proceedings—Notice of hearing—Setting aside sale—Resale.

Where the probate court refuses to confirm an administrator's sale of real property made under its order, it must under this section, order a resale. In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 248 Pac. 362.

If an administrator's sale of real property may, under this section, be set aside for inadequacy of consideration alone without a showing that on resale a bid exceeding that received by at least ten per cent may be had, the rule can exist only in cases where it is made to appear that the bid made is so grossly inadequate as to raise a presumption of fraud and unfairness in the conduct of the sale. In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 248 Pac. 362.

The district court, under this section, may set aside an administrator's sale of the decedent's real property if it is made to appear that the proceedings were unfair, or that the bid was disproportionate to its value and that, on a resale, a bid exceeding that received by at least ten per cent might be had. In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 248 Pac. 362.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 862, 925-934.

10226. May file objections, when and who.

While an administrator is not one of the "persons interested in the estate" who may file objections to the confirmation of a sale of the estate under this section, and his recommendation when making return of the sale that the sale be not confirmed may have been insufficient to give the court jurisdiction to make an order refusing to confirm, where the bidders by a petition filed subsequent to the return asked that a hearing be had thereon as they could do under this section as parties most interested in the confirmation, it was vested with jurisdiction to proceed. In re McLure's Estate, 76 Mont. 476, 248 Pac. 362.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 927.

10245. Limitation of actions for vacating sale, etc.

An action to recover real property sold by an administrator under an alleged void order of sale, brought after the limitation prescribed by this section, within which an heir must commence his action had expired, but within the three-year period after reaching his majority (sec. 10246) was not barred. Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 878-883.

10246. To what cases preceding section not to apply.

Applied with section 10245 in Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

CHAPTER 44.

MORTGAGING AND LEASING REAL ESTATE.

10249. Judge may empower administrator to mortgage or lease real estate.

Sections 10249-10255 were cited as sections 7600, 7601 in Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 542, 202 Pac. 769.

10251. Order to show cause. Upon filing such petition an order must be made by the court or judge, requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear before the court or judge, at a time and place specified, not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days thereafter, then and there to show cause why the realty (briefly indicating it); or some part thereof, should not be mortgaged for the amount mentioned in the petition (stating such amount), or such lesser amount as to the court or judge shall seem meet, and referring to the petition on file for further particulars.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 70, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 962.

10252. Service of order—Assent to petition. The order to show cause may be personally served on the persons interested in the estate, at least ten (10) days before the time appointed for hearing the petition, or it may be published once a week for two (2) successive weeks in such newspaper published in the county, as the court or judge shall direct. If all persons interested in the estate join in the petition or signify in writing their assent thereto, the notice may be dispensed with, and the hearing may be had at any time; provided, further, that if such petition is for the purpose of extending or renewing any mortgage already subsisting on said realty, or on some part thereof, and the court finds such extension or renewal necessary or to the best interest of the estate, the court may make an order authorizing the extension or renewal of such mortgage without notice.

Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 70, L. 1927.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 961.

10256. Obtaining order to lease. To obtain an order to lease the realty, the proceedings to be taken and the effect thereof shall be as follows:

1. The executor, administrator, or any person interested in the estate, may file a verified petition showing: The advantage or advantages that may accrue to the estate from giving a lease; a general description of the property proposed to be leased; the term, rental, and general conditions of the proposed lease; and the names of the legatees and devisees, if any, and of the heirs of the deceased, so far as known to the petitioner.

2. Upon filing such petition an order must be made by the court or judge, requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear before the court or judge, at a time and place specified, not less than two nor more than four weeks thereafter, then and there to show cause why the realty (briefly indicating it) should not be leased for the period (stating it), at the rental mentioned in the petition (stating it), and referring to the petition on file for further particulars.

3. The order to show cause must be personally served on the persons residing in the county interested in the estate, at least ten days before the time appointed for hearing the petition, or be published for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county.

4. At the time and place appointed in the order to show cause, or such other time and place to which the hearing may be postponed, the court or judge having first received satisfactory proof of personal service or publication of the order to show cause, must proceed to hear the petition, and any objections that may be filed or presented thereto. Upon such hearing, witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify in the same manner and with like effect as in other cases, and the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, appoint one or more, not exceeding three, disinterested persons to appraise the rental value of the premises, and direct that a reasonable compensation for their services, not to exceed five dollars per day, be paid by the estate. If, after a full hearing, the court or judge is satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the estate to lease the whole or any portion of the real estate, an order must be made authorizing, empowering, and directing the executor or administrator to make such lease. The order may prescribe the minimum rental to be received for the premises, and the period of the lease, which must in no case be longer than for five years, except that a lease or contract providing for the exploration of the premises for oil, gas or hydrocarbons may provide for a term of five years or for as long thereafter as oil, gas or hydrocarbons shall be produced in commercial quantities, and may prescribe the other terms and conditions of such lease.

5. After the making of the order to lease, the executor or administrator must execute, acknowledge, and deliver a lease of the premises, for the rent, and period, and with the conditions specified in the order such lease before it shall become effective shall be approved by the court or judge thereof before delivery, setting forth in the lease that it is made by authority of the order, and giving the date of such order. A certified copy of the order shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of every county in which the leased land, or any portion thereof, lies.

6. Every lease so made shall be effectual to demise and let, at the rent, for the term, and upon the conditions prescribed therein, the premises described therein. Jurisdiction of the court to administer the decedent's estate shall be effectual to vest such court and judge with jurisdiction to make the order for the lease, and such jurisdiction shall conclusively inure to the benefit of the lessee, his heirs and assigns. No omission, error, or irregularity in the proceedings impairs or invalidates the same, or the lease made in pursuance thereof.

CHAPTER 45.

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS— TO RECOVER PROPERTY—TO MAINTAIN ACTIONS—OTHER POWERS.

10257. Executors to take possession of the entire estate.

For discussion of the duties of an administrator with respect to the management of an estate, and his liability for failure to exercise due diligence in such management, see In re Jennings' Estate, 74 Mont. 449, 241 Pac. 648; Scott et al. v. Tuggle, 74 Mont. 476, 241 Pac. 229. Cited in In re Bradfield's Estate, 69 10258. Executors may sue and be sued for recovery of property.

The right given to an administrator by this section, to maintain an action for the recovery of real property of his intestate (if applicable to an action to recover property sold by him under an order of sale) is not exclusive, section 10138 conferring the same right upon the heirs. Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

10261. Surviving partner to settle business—Interest therein to be appraised—Account to be rendered.

Where the affairs of a general partnership dissolved by death were not fully settled, an action for an accounting by the surviving partner for his sole benefit, against the executrix of the decedent did not lie, in view of the provisions of this section, which inter alia make it the duty of the survivor who, in contemplation of law, is in actual possession of the partnership property, to wind up its affairs, and thereupon account to the personal representative of the decedent. Mares v. Mares et al., 60 Mont. 36, 199 Pac. 267.

CHAPTER 46.

CONVEYANCE OF REAL ESTATE BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

10279. Curative deeds.

Under the constitutional provision that no one shall be deprived of property without due process of law, a curative act cannot go to the extent of supplying jurisdiction where there was none in the first instance because of lack of notice and opportunity to be heard. Under this rule it was held that this section was ineffectual to cure the fatal omission of the court to take the steps necessary to give it jurisdiction to make an order of sale of the real property of an intestate. Lamont v. Vinger, 61 Mont. 530, 202 Pac. 769.

LIABILITIES AND COMPENSATION OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

Sections 10283, 10284 were cited in In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 45, 235 Pac. 408.

10284. Uncollected debts without fault.

Neither an executor nor an administrator is liable in his representative capacity upon any debt due his decedent as for money in hand, where during the progress of the administration, he had no means from which the debt could have been paid. In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 235 Pac. 408.

Cited in Scott et al. v. Tuggle, 74 Mont. 476, 483, 241 Pac. 229; Mayger v. St. Louis Mining etc. Co., 68 Mont. 492, 500, 219 Pac. 1102.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 11 Cal. Jur. 32, 37.

10285. Compensation of the executor and administrator.

The amendment of this section, made by chapter 55, L. 1919, goes no further than to expressly authorize the district court sitting in probate to do what under the section before amendment it could do only under its implied power, viz.: to fix the amount to be allowed to the personal representative of an estate as compensation for the services of an attorney in advance of the actual payment of the fee by him, and therefore under it the court has not the power on the petition of an attorney to fix and allow to him directly the compensation due him from an administrator in his representative capacity, to be paid out of the funds of the estate as a legal claim against it. In re McLure's Estate, 68 Mont. 556, 220 Pac. 527.

Cited in In re Jennings' Estate, 74 Mont. 468, 473, 241 Pac. 655.

10287. Compensation of executors and administrators.

Whether an administrator is entitled to commissions as provided for by this section, is dependent upon whether he earned them, by attending to the duties of his trust with fidelity and in accordance with the provisions of the law; hence wilful neglect and mismanagement of the estate are sufficient to authorize the court in withholding them or such part of them as it may see fit to withhold in the exercise of the discretion lodged in the court in that respect. In re Jennings' Estate, 74 Mont. 468, 241 Pac. 655.

Lien on, or outstanding interest in, property, as affecting computation of commissions of executors or administrators, note, 46 A. L. R. 239.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

10294. To render accounts at the expiration of term.

Cited in In re Jennings' Estate, 74 Mont. 449, 456, 241 Pac. 648.

10295. Citation of executors, etc., to account after discharge. When the authority of an executor, administrator or guardian ceases, or is revoked for any reason, he may be cited to account before the court or judge, at the instance of the person succeeding to the administration of the same estate, in like manner as he might have been cited by any person interested in the estate during the time he was executor, administrator or guardian. If an executor, administrator or guardian dies, his accounts may be presented by his personal representative to and settled by the court in which the estate of which he was executor, administrator or guardian is being administered, and upon the petition of the successor of such deceased executor, administrator or guardian, such court may compel the personal representative of such deceased executor, administrator or guardian to render an account of the administration of his testator, intestate or ward, and must settle such account as in other cases.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 11, L. 1927.

An action at law to recover from an administrator and his surety a money judgment for assets in the hands of the former does not lie until after accounting and settlement had in the probate proceedings. O'Sullivan v. Alexander et al., 73 Mont. 12, 234 Pac. 1099.

The district court sitting in probate has the same jurisdiction in the matter of issuing process, under this section and 10361, as has the district court; hence superior authority of the district court in that regard cannot be urged as a reason for invoking its jurisdiction, rather than that of the probate court, in an action against an administrator who had removed from the state, and his surety, to recover assets of the estate prior to settlement of the former's account. O'Sullivan v. Alexander et al., 73 Mont. 12, 234 Pac. 1099.

Cited as section 7648, Revised Codes, in In re Smith's Estate, 60 Mont. 276, 295, 199 Pac. 696.

10303. Settlement of accounts to be conclusive, when and when not.

The rule that an order approving an administrator's final account is conclusive of all matters involved which might have been disputed at the hearing but were not has no application in an action by his successor against the sureties on his predecessor's bond to recover property of the estate fraudulently concealed by him, where no one interested in the estate prior to the time he presented his final report, knew of the existence of the property or that it belonged to the estate. Baker v. Hanson et al., 72 Mont. 22, 231 Pac. 902.

An order settling an executor's account is not binding upon the court in considering his second account filed about a year later, the provision of this section making settlement conclusive, having no application where the executor has been guilty of fraud. In re Bradfield's Estate, 69 Mont. 247, 221 Pac. 531.

Where a minor asks to have the accounts of the executrix previously approved reopened, the previous settlement is, under this section, prima facie evidence of the correctness of the account, and the burden rests upon him to prove that a certain item was erroneously allowed and approved. In re Eakins' Estate, 64 Mont. 84, 208 Pac. 956.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 62, 72.

10306. Moneys invested by order of court.

An executor or administrator who makes loans of estate funds without authority of court does so at the peril of being held liable for losses sustained by the estate; whereas if the course prescribed by the statute is pursued he will be relieved of liability upon a showing that the loss was not occasioned by his own fault. In re Connolly's Estate, 73 Mont. 35, 235 Pac. 408.

10309. Estate insufficient, a dividend to be paid.

In the absence of statute regulating the manner in which a secured creditor of an insolvent state bank shall share in its general assets, held, that the rule prescribed by the Revised Codes for the computation of dividends from the general assets of the estate of a deceased insolvent must control, to wit: that the basis for computing dividends is the amount due the secured creditor,—after deducting any amounts he may have received from his security subsequent to the closing of the bank,—at the time he presents his claim, and not the balance due at the time any particular dividend is distributed. State ex rel. Rankin v. Yellowstone Bank etc. Co., 75 Mont. 43, 243 Pac. 813.

CHAPTER 50.

PARTITION AND DISTRIBUTION PRIOR TO FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE.

10318. Payment of legacies upon giving bond.

While an executor (or administrator) may resist an application for partial distribution, in the absence of statute permitting him to petition for such distribution, he has no right to do so, the right to so petition being only conferred upon heirs, devisees and legatees by this section and section 10323, and the court was therefore without jurisdiction to entertain his petition. In re Fratt's Estate, 60 Mont. 526, 199 Pac. 711.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 138-143, 159.

10323. Application for distribution.

Under this section and 10327, relative to distribution of estates, failure of petitioners to serve nonappearing devisees with process does not deprive the court of jurisdiction to make the order of distribution, it being presumed, in the absence of any showing to the contrary, that the notice required by section 10330 to be given by posting or publication was caused to be given by the court or judge. In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

Where, on a petition for partial distribution, it was shown that there were no debts, that due notice to creditors of the estate had been given, that the time during which claims should be filed or presented had expired, and that the estate had funds and securities amply sufficient to cover a bequest to a niece in trust and the amount necessary to erect a building which the trustees were directed to construct on lots given her in trust, the lots, the amount of the bequest, and the amount needed to erect the building should have been set aside to the trustee, under this section. In re Fratt's Estate, 60 Mont. 526, 199 Pac. 711.

Applied with section 10318 as controlling the right of an executor to resist an application for partial distribution of an estate. In re Fratt's Estate, 60 Mont. 526, 199 Pac. 711.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 146, 149, 158-161.

CHAPTER 51.

DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP AND INTEREST IN THE ESTATE.

10324. Proceedings to determine heirship.

The district court has jurisdiction of an action against the administrator of an estate to compel specific performance of a contract of adoption entered into by his intestate; plaintiff in such an action claiming under the contract and adversely to the estate and not as an heir in privity with it, he is not required to proceed under sections 10324 to 10327, for the establishment of heirship. Gravelin v. Porier et al., 77 Mont. 260, 250 Pac. 823.

Where there are no foreign heirs and where the persons entitled to share in an estate have been fully determined and there is no question raised as to their rights, the authority of the court to order distribution does not depend upon a prior determination of heirship under this section and 10325, but if the court should deem a proceeding for such determination necessary, it would not be warranted in dismissing the petition for distribution, but should suspend it until such determination could be had. In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

Under the provision of this section, that a proceeding to determine heirship must be presented by petition, that where the parties without filing a petition submitted the cause on an agreed statement of facts, the court did not acquire jurisdiction and its judgment therein was a nullity. In re Spriggs' Estate, 68 Mont. 92, 216 Pac. 1108.

While ordinarily proceedings to determine heirship under this section are not necessary as a condition precedent to the distribution of an estate, yet where a person claiming to be an heir is a resident of a foreign country, the court must, under section 10327, determine the question of heirship as provided in sections 10324-10326, before decreeing distribution. State ex rel. Rubin v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 203 Pac. 860.

Where notice of the hearing of a petition for the distribution of an estate was not served upon an heir as required by this section, the decree rendered in the proceeding did not foreclose her rights as an heir. State ex rel. Rubin v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 203 Pac. 860.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 123 et seq.

10325. Appearance of parties.

Under this section, an attorney claiming a right to appear in behalf of an heir at a proceeding to determine heirship must file written evidence of his authority to so appear, otherwise the heir is not barred from questioning the jurisdiction of the court to render the decree.

State ex rel. Rubin v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 203 Pac. 860.

Applied with section 10324 in In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 123 et seq.

CHAPTER 52.

FINAL DISTRIBUTION OF THE ESTATE—DISCHARGE OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.

10327. Distribution of estate—How made and to whom.

The giving of notice of final distribution of an estate is jurisdictional; hence where a final decree of distribution has been set aside in an equity action for want of notice to one of the interested parties, entry of a corrected decree to conform to that rendered in the suit to set aside without notice was a nullity. Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 241 Pac. 636.

Where a person claiming to be an heir of an estate is a resident of a foreign country, the court must, under this section, determine the question of heirship as provided in sections 10324-10326, before decreeing distribution. State ex rel. Rubin v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 60, 203 Pac. 860.

Applied with section 10323 in In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

CHAPTER 53.PARTITION OF UNDIVIDED ESTATE AFTER DISTRIBUTION.*10334. Estate in common—Commissioners.

That distribution of real property of an estate will result in loss and inconvenience to the devisees is of no concern to the executor, and the latter cannot defeat a petition for such distribution on the ground that for that reason a prior order of sale should stand, under this section and 10335, these sections being applicable only to action by the court after distribution and at the instance of interested parties. In re McGovern's Estate, 77 Mont. 182, 250 Pac. 812.

The district court sitting in probate has the same jurisdiction in the matter of issuing process under this section and section 10295 as has the district court; hence superior authority of the district court in that regard cannot be urged as a reason for invoking its jurisdiction, rather than that of the probate court, in an action against an administrator who had removed from the state, and his surety, to recover assets of the estate, prior to settlement of the former's account. O'Sullivan v. Alexander et al., 73 Mont. 12, 234 Pac. 1099.

CHAPTER 57.

INHERITANCE TAX.

10377 to 10400 inclusive. Relating to inheritance taxes.

The above sections comprised the Inheritance Tax Law enacted as Ch. 14, Ex. L. 1921. They were repealed by Sec. 26, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 24 Cal. Jur. 416.

Where a transfer of property is not to take effect in possession or enjoyment until after the death of the transferor, whether made in contemplation of death or not, it is subject to the inheritance tax. In re Estate of Schuh, 66 Mont. 50, 212 Pac. 516.

An agreement between decedent and her heirs for the establishment of a trust with relation to her personal property and the one creating the trust, under which the income was to be paid to her during her lifetime, executed contemporaneously, and the one dependent upon the other, must be construed together in determining whether the property was subject to an inheritance tax. In re Estate of Schuh, 66 Mont. 50, 212 Pac. 516.

Under the Inheritance Tax Law of 1921 before amendment it was held that in the absence of a provision fixing the rate of tax on property in excess of $25,000 where the beneficiary belongs to the first class mentioned in section 2, a widow who took property by will in excess of that amount was not liable for any tax on such excess, and was required to pay no more than one per cent on $15,000, the amount remaining after the deduction of $10,000, the exemption allowed a widow by the act. State ex rel. Murray v. Walker, 64 Mont. 215, 210 Pac. 90.

Since inheritance taxes are not imposed upon the property which passes by will or succession, but upon the privilege of so taking, and a person cannot be taxed for more than he receives, where property was left to a niece for life, the remainder to go to her lineal descendants if she left any, and if not, to others named, thus leaving it indeterminable in whom or when the remainder of the estate would vest, the remainder interests were not taxable to her, and she was only liable for the tax based upon the value of her life estate. In re Fratt's Estate, 60 Mont. 526, 199 Pac. 711.

Sections 10377-10400 were cited in State ex rel. Rankin v. District Court, 70 Mont. 322, 324, 225 Pac. 804.

10377.1. How and when imposed. A tax shall be and is hereby imposed upon any transfer of property, real, personal or mixed, or any interest therein, or income therefrom in trust or otherwise, to any person, association or corporation except the state of Montana, or any of its institutions, county, town or municipal corporations within the state, for strictly county, town, municipal or other public purposes, and corporations of this state organized under its laws, or voluntary associations, organized solely for religious, charitable, or educational purposes, which shall use the property so transferred exclusively for the purposes of their organization, within the state, in the following cases, except as hereinafter provided:

(1) By a resident of state. When the transfer is by will or by intestate laws of this state from any person dying possessed of the property while a resident of the state.

(2) Nonresident's property within state. When a transfer is by will or intestate law, of property within the state or within its jurisdiction and the decedent was a nonresident of the state at the time of his death.

(3) In contemplation of death. When the transfer is of property made by a resident or by a nonresident when such nonresident's property is within the state, or within its jurisdiction, by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, made in contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor, or donor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death. Every transfer by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, made within two (2) years prior to the death of the grantor, vendor or donor, of a material part of his estate, or in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, and without a fair consideration in money or moneys worth shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this section.

(4) When imposed. Such tax shall be imposed when any such person or corporation becomes beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to any property or the income thereof, by any such transfer whether made before or after the passage of this act; provided that the provisions of this act shall apply to all estates of all decedents who have died since the first day of April, 1921, and which estates remain undistributed on the date when this act takes effect, to the same extent and in the same manner as though this act had been in full force and effect at the dates of death of such decedents, and if any tax shall have been paid by any executor, administrator, heir, legatee or devisee of any such decedent before the date when this act takes effect, the amount of such tax so paid shall be allowed as a credit on the total amount of tax required to be paid by such executor, administrator, heir, legatee, or devisee under the provisions of this act.

(5) Transfer under power of appointment. Whenever any person or corporation shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property, made either before or after the passage of this act, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power, and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person or corporation possessing such a power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same within the time provided therefor, in whole, or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act, shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omission or failure, in the same manner as though the persons or corporations thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related, had succeeded thereto by a will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

(6) Joint estates. Whenever, any property, real or personal, is held in the joint names of two (2) or more persons, or as tenants by the entirety, or is deposited in banks or other institutions or depositaries in the joint names of two (2) or more persons and payable to either or the survivor upon the death of one (1) of such persons, the right of the surviving tenant by the entirety, joint tenant, or joint tenants, person or persons, to the immediate ownership or possession of such property shall be deemed a transfer of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) or other proper fraction thereof as though the property to which such transfer relates belonged to the tenants by the entirety, joint tenants, or joint depositors as tenants in common, and had been bequeathed or devised to the surviving tenant by the entirety, joint tenant, or joint tenants, person or persons, by such deceased tenant by the entirety, joint tenant, or joint depositor, by will, except such part thereof as may be shown to have originally belonged to the survivor and never to have belonged to the decedent.

(7) Insurance part of estate. All insurance payable upon the death of any person over and above fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), shall be deemed a part of the property and estate passing to the person or persons entitled to receive the same and if payable to more than one (1) person the said fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) exemption shall be prorated between such persons in proportion to the amount of insurance payable to each.

(8) On clear market value. The tax so imposed shall be upon the clear market value of such property passing by any such transfer to each person, institution, association, corporation, or body politic, at the rates hereinafter prescribed and only upon the excess of the exemption hereinafter granted to such person, institution, association, corporation or body politic, and in determining the clear market value of the property so passing by any such transfer the following deductions, and no other shall be allowed; debts of the decedent owing at the date of death, expenses of funeral and last illness, all state, county and municipal taxes which are fixed in amount and owing by the decedent at date of death, and the ordinary expenses of administration, including the commissions and fees of executors and administrators and their attorneys actually allowed and paid, but no deduction shall be made for any federal estate inheritance or transfer taxes paid to the United States.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 150, L. 1925; Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 105, L. 1927.

Under this section, before amendment, that where a transfer or gift is not to take effect in possession or enjoyment until after the death of the transferor or donor, whether made in contemplation of death or not, it is subject to the inheritance tax therein provided for. Estate of Oppenheimer, 75 Mont. 186, 243 Pac. 589.

Where under an antenuptial agreement certain sums of money were to be paid to the wife after the death of the husband in certain annual installments by his executors, in consideration of her relinquishment of her right of dower and any other claims she might be entitled to assert against his estate as his widow or next of kin, the total amount of such gifts was subject to the inheritance tax provided for by this section. Estate of Oppenheimer, 75 Mont. 186, 243 Pac. 589.

Under this act, providing for a tax on direct and collateral inheritances, the state may not lawfully collect an inheritance tax upon the right of a nonresident legatee to succeed to shares of the capital stock of a foreign corporation doing business in the state, bequeathed to him by a nonresident, where the certificates representing the stock are kept at the place of domicile of the testator. State ex rel. Bankers' Trust Co. v. Walker, 70 Mont. 484, 226 Pac. 894.

This act, imposing an inheritance tax upon all estates of persons who died since April 1, 1921, remaining undistributed on the date of its approval, March 5, 1923, is a valid enactment and not open to attack on the grounds that it violates the equal protection of the law clause of the constitution, is class legislation and authorizes the taking of property without due process of law. State ex rel. Rankin v. District Court, 70 Mont. 322, 225 Pac. 804.

10377.2. Primary rates, where not in excess of $25,000. When the property or any beneficial interest therein passes by any such transfer to any person, institution, association, corporation or body politic, where the amount of the property shall exceed in value the exemption herein-after specified, and shall not exceed in value twenty-five thousand dollars, the tax hereby imposed shall be:

(1) One per cent. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the husband, wife, lineal issue, lineal ancestor of the decedent or any child adopted as such in conformity with law, or any child to whom such decedent for not less than ten years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent, provided however, such relationship began at or before the child's fifteenth birthday, and was continuous for ten years, or any lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, at the rate of one per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property passing to such person.

(2) Two per cent. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or a descendant of a brother or sister of the decedent, a wife of a son, or the husband of a daughter of the decedent, at the rate of two per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property passing to such person.

(3) Three per cent. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the uncle, aunt, or first cousin of the decedent, at the rate of three per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property passing to such person.

(4) Four per cent. Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the decedent, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the rate of four per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property passing to such person, institution, association, corporation or body politic.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.3. Other rates, where in excess of $25,000. The foregoing rates in section 2 are for convenience termed the primary rates:

When the amount of the clear value of such property or interests exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(1) Rate where amount $25,000 to $50,000. Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and up to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), two (2) times the primary rates.

(2) Rate where amount $50,000 to $100,000. Upon all in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), three (3) times the primary rates.

(3) Rate where amount over $100,000. Upon all in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), four (4) times the primary rates.

(4) When the net value of the estate of decedent subject to tax under the laws of this state exceeds the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) the tax, in addition to that imposed by the foregoing subdivisions of this section, shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following percentages of the value of the net estate, regardless of the relationship of the beneficiaries to the decedent and regardless of the value of the estate passing to each beneficiary:

(a) Six and two-fifths per cent ($6\frac{2}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds one million dollars (\$1,000,000) but does not exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars (\$1,500,000);

(b) Seven and one-fifth per cent ($7\frac{1}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds one million five hundred thousand dollars (\$1,500,000) and does not exceed two million dollars (\$2,000,000);

(c) Eight per cent (8%) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds two million dollars ($2,000,000) and does not exceed two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000);

(d) Eight and four-fifths per cent ($8\frac{4}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds two million five hundred thousand dollars (\$2,500,000) and does not exceed three million dollars (\$3,000,000);

(e) Nine and three-fifths per cent ($9\frac{3}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds three million dollars (\$3,000,000) and does not exceed three million five hundred thousand dollars (\$3,500,000);

(f) Ten and two-fifths per cent ($10\frac{2}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds three million five hundred thousand dollars (\$3,500,000) and does not exceed four million dollars (\$4,000,000);

(g) Eleven and one-fifth per cent ($11\frac{1}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds four million dollars (\$4,000,000) and does not exceed five million dollars (\$5,000,000);

(h) Twelve per cent (12%) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds five million dollars ($5,000,000) and does not exceed six million dollars ($6,000,000);

(i) Twelve and four-fifths ($12\frac{4}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds six million dollars (\$6,000,000) and does not exceed seven million dollars (\$7,000,000);

(j) Thirteen and three-fifths per cent ($13\frac{3}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds seven million dollars (\$7,000,000) and does not exceed eight million dollars (\$8,000,000);

(k) Fourteen and two-fifths per cent ($14\frac{2}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds eight million dollars (\$8,000,000) and does not exceed nine million dollars (\$9,000,000);

(l) Fifteen and one-fifth per cent ($15\frac{1}{5}\%$) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds nine million dollars (\$9,000,000) and does not exceed ten million dollars (\$10,000,000);

(m) Sixteen per cent (16%) of the amount by which the net estate exceeds ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

The tax imposed by subdivision 4 of this section shall be credited with the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes actually paid to any state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, including any and all taxes imposed under and by virtue of the first three subdivisions of this section, and including any and all taxes imposed by other statutory provisions imposing an inheritance tax in this state, in respect of any property included in the gross estate which is subject to an inheritance or estate tax in the state of Montana. In no event shall the tax payable under subdivision 4 of this section exceed the amount, if any, by which the maximum credit allowable to the estate against the United States estate tax, exceeds the credits provided for in the preceding sentence of this section.

10377.4. Exemptions from first $25,000. The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed the exemption allowed to each person, institution, association, corporation and body politic to be taken out of the first twenty-five thousand dollars passing by any such transfer to such person, institution, association, corporation or body politic.

(1) Transfers totally exempt. All property transferred to the state or any of its institutions, or to municipal corporations within the state for strictly county, city, town, or municipal purposes, or to corporations or voluntary associations of this state organized under its laws solely for religious, charitable, educational or other public purposes, which shall use the property so transferred exclusively for the purpose of their organization within the state, shall be exempt.

(2) $17,500; $5,000; $2,000 exempt, when. Property of the clear value of seventeen thousand five hundred dollars, transferred to the wife, or five thousand dollars transferred to the husband of the decedent, and two thousand dollars transferred to each of the other persons described in the first subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt. Such exemption to the widow shall include all her statutory dower and other allowances. Any child of the decedent shall be entitled to credit for so much of the tax paid by the widow as applied to any property which shall thereafter be transferred by or from such widow to any such child, provided the widow does not survive said decedent to exceed ten years.

(3) $500 exempt, when. Property of the clear value of five hundred dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the second subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

(4) Property without the state exempt, when. No tax shall be imposed upon any tangible personal property of a resident decedent when such property is located without this state, and when the transfer of such property is subject to an inheritance or transfer tax in the state where located and which tax has actually been paid, secured or guaranteed, provided such property is not without this state temporarily nor for the sole purpose of deposit or safekeeping; and provided the laws of the state where such property is located allow a like exemption in relation to such property left by a resident of that state and located in this state.

10377.5. (1) Tax when due—Lien—Liability. All taxes imposed by this act shall be due and payable at the time of the death of the decedent, except as hereinafter provided; and every such tax shall be and remain a lien upon the property transferred until paid, and the person to whom the property is transferred and the administrators, executors, and trustees of every estate so transferred shall be personally liable for such tax until its payment.

(2) County treasurer's receipt. The tax shall be paid to the state treasurer or to the treasurer of the county in which the district court is situated having jurisdiction as herein provided, and if paid to the county treasurer said treasurer shall make triplicate receipts of such payment, one of which he shall immediately send to the state treasurer, whose duty it shall be to charge the county treasurer so receiving the tax, with the amount thereof, and the other receipt shall be delivered to the executor, administrator, or trustee, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts. One he shall keep on file in his office.

(3) Final accounting on filing receipt. No executor, administrator, or trustee shall be entitled to a final accounting of an estate, in settlement of which a tax is due under the provisions of this act, unless he shall produce such receipt or a certified copy thereof or unless a bond shall have been filed as prescribed by section 8.

En. Sec. 5, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.6. Discount—Interest. If such tax is paid within eighteen months from the accruing thereof, a discount of five per cent shall be allowed and deducted therefrom. If such tax is not paid within eighteen months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the time the tax accrued; unless by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay, such tax shall not be determined and paid as herein provided, in which case interest at the rate of six per cent shall be charged upon such tax from the accrual thereof until the cause of such delay is removed, after which ten per cent shall be charged, provided that litigation to defeat the payment of the tax shall not be considered necessary litigation. In all cases when a bond shall be given under the provisions of section 9, interest shall be charged at the rate of six per cent after one year from the date of death, until the date of payment thereof.

En. Sec. 6, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.7. Executors—Powers—Collection and payment. Every executor, administrator or trustee shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable him to pay such tax in the same manner as he might be entitled by law to do for the payment of the debts of the testator or intestate. Any such administrator, executor, or trustee, having in charge or in trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to such tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom; and within thirty days therefrom shall pay over the same to the county treasurer, as herein provided. If such legacy or property be not in money, he shall collect the tax thereon upon the appraised value thereof, from the person entitled thereto. He shall not deliver or be compelled to deliver any specific legacy or property subject to tax under this law, to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon. If any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real property, the heir or devisee shall deduct such tax therefrom and pay it to the administrator, executor, or trustee and the tax shall remain a lien or charge on such real property until paid, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator, or trustee in the same manner that payment of the legacy might be enforced, or by the attorney general under section 16 of this act. If any such legacy shall be given in money to any such person for a limited period, the administrator, executor, or trustee shall retain the tax upon the whole amount, but if it be not in money, he shall make application to the court having jurisdiction of an accounting by him to make an apportionment if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into the hands of such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

En. Sec. 7, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.8. (1) Refunding tax. If any debt shall be proved against the estate of the decedent, after the payment of any legacy or distributive share thereof, from which any such tax has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid by the person entitled to such legacy or distributive share and such person is required by the order of the district court having jurisdiction of the tax so deducted or paid, to refund the amount of such debts or any part thereof, an equitable proportion thereof shall be repaid to such person by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the county treasurer or state treasurer, or by them, in the proper proportionate shares, if it has been so paid.

(2) How refund of tax made. When any amount of said tax shall have been paid erroneously to the county and state treasurer, or to either of them, it shall be lawful for them, on satisfactory proof to the state board of equalization of such erroneous payment, to refund to the executor, administrator, person or persons who shall have paid any such tax in error, the county's and state's proportionate amount of such tax so paid; provided that all such applications for refund shall be made within two (2) years from the date of such payment.

(3) Advance payment of tax. Any person from whom any such tax is or may be due may make an estimate of and pay the same to the county treasurer, who shall receipt therefor, at any time before the same is determined by the court, and shall thereupon be relieved from any interest or penalty upon the amount so paid in the same manner as if the tax were then determined. Any excess so paid shall be refunded to the person so paying or entitled thereto by such treasurer out of any inheritance tax money in his possession, or by the state treasurer when the county treasurer is without such money, upon filing with such treasurer a copy of the order fixing such tax, and attached thereto a certificate of the judge stating the amount of refund due.

En. Sec. 8, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.9. Bond for payment of deferred tax. Any beneficiary of any property chargeable with a tax under this act, and any executors, administrators and trustees thereof, may elect, within eighteen months from the date of the death of decedent or transfer thereof as herein provided, not to pay such tax until the person or persons beneficially interested therein shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment thereof. The person or persons so electing shall give a bond to the state in a penalty of three times the amount of any such tax, with such sureties as the district court of the proper county or the state board of equalization, as the case may be, may approve, conditioned for the payment of such tax and interest thereon, at such time or period as the person or persons beneficially interested therein may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the district court, or in the office of the state treasurer as the case may be. Such bond must be executed and filed and a full return of such property upon oath made to the district court within eighteen months from the date of the death of decedent or transfer as herein provided, and such bond must be renewed, every five years, and said deferred tax shall bear interest at 6% (per cent) per annum after such eighteen months.

En. Sec. 9, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.10. Bequests to executors for services. If a testator bequeaths property to one or more executors or trustees in lieu of their commissions or allowances, or makes them his legatees to an amount exceeding the commissions or allowances prescribed by law for an executor or trustee, the excess in value of the property so bequeathed, above the amount of commissions or allowances prescribed by law in similar cases, shall be taxable by this act.

En. Sec. 10, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.11. (1) Transfer of stock by foreign executors. If a foreign executor, administrator, or trustee shall assign or transfer any stock or obligations in this state, or within the jurisdiction of this state standing in the name of a decedent or in trust for a decedent, liable to any such tax, the tax shall be paid to the treasurer of the proper county or the state treasurer on the transfer thereof; otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax.

(2) Nonresident decedent—Notice of transfer—Order of court. No safe deposit company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, holding securities or assets of a nonresident decedent, nor any corporation organized under the laws of this state, in which a nonresident decedent held stock at his decease, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators or legal representatives of said decedent, or upon their order or request, unless notice of the time and place of such intended transfer be served upon the state board of equalization at least ten (10) days prior to the said transfer; nor shall any such safe deposit company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, nor any corporation, deliver or transfer any securities or assets of the estate of a nonresident decedent without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may thereafter be assessed on account of the transfer of such securities or assets under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws without an order from the proper court authorizing such transfer; and it shall be lawful for the state board of equalization, personally or by representative, to examine said securities or assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain a sufficient portion or amount to pay such tax as herein provided, shall render said safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, or such corporation, liable to the payment of the tax due upon said securities or assets in pursuance of the provisions of the inheritance tax laws. The state board of equalization may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such stock, securities or assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the said board that no tax is due thereon.

(3) Debts, exemptions, etc., to be apportioned. Whenever a tax may be due from the estate, or the beneficiaries therein, of any resident or nonresident decedent upon the transfer of any property, when the property or the estate left by such decedent is partly within and partly without this state, or upon any stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities representing property or estate partly within and partly without this state, any beneficiary of such estate shall be entitled to deduct only his proper proportion of that portion of the total debts and expenses of administration which the gross estate in Montana or within its jurisdiction bears to the gross estate both within and without this state, but no deduction shall be made for any federal estate inheritance succession or transfer taxes paid to the United States.

(4) Information to board—Retaining amount of tax. The state board of equalization shall require such reports and information and shall make such orders, rules, and regulations as it may deem necessary to enable the said board to secure the necessary information from domestic corporations, and to ascertain the amount of and collect such tax; and no holding company or other corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall deliver or transfer any such stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities of a Montana corporation without retaining a sufficient portion thereof to pay any tax which may thereafter be assessed under the provisions of this act on account of such transfer, except upon order of the proper court or a certificate of consent of the state board of equalization.

(5) Penalties. Any corporation or holding company violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to the state for the amount of the tax together with a penalty of ten per cent (10%) thereof.

En. Sec. 11, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 150, L. 1925; Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 105, L. 1927. Cited in State ex rel. Bankers' Trust Co. v. Walker, 70 Mont. 484, 236 Pac. 984.

10377.11A. Limitation of act—Payment of tax. This act is hereby expressly declared to be retroactive and shall apply to all estates where the decedent died on or after the first day of June, 1924, and which estates remain undistributed on the date when this act is passed and approved, provided that as to any such estate the tax imposed by authority of this section shall not exceed the amount for which credit is finally allowed to such estate by the United States upon the federal estate tax for taxes due or paid the state of Montana and provided, further that any tax collected by authority of this section shall be kept separate from other inheritance taxes collected until the amount of such credit is finally determined and shall in accordance with section 8 of chapter 65, Session Laws of Montana of 1923, be refunded to the person or estate paying the same if and to the extent that credit therefor shall not be allowed by the United States upon such federal estate tax. If any tax shall have been paid by any executor, administrator, heir, legatee, or devisee of any such decedent before the date when this act takes effect the amount of such tax so paid shall be allowed as a credit on the total amount of tax required to be paid by such executor, administrator, heir, legatee, or devisee under the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 105, L. 1927.

10377.11B. Effect partial invalidity act. If any section, sentence, clause, phrase or part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or inoperative, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 105, L. 1927.

10377.12. District courts—Jurisdiction. The district court of every county of the state having jurisdiction to grant letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of a decedent whose property is chargeable with any tax under the inheritance tax laws, or to appoint a trustee of such estate or any part thereof, or to give ancillary letters thereon, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions arising under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, and to do any act in relation thereto authorized by law to be done by a district court in other matters or proceedings coming within its jurisdiction; and if two or more district courts shall be entitled to exercise any such jurisdiction, the district court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder, shall retain the same to the exclusion of every other district court.

Before decree of distribution in any estate shall be issued by the district judge, or the issuance of an order discharging the executor, administrator or trustee of any estate, there shall be filed with the clerk of the district court a certificate signed by the state board of equalization stating that the amount of inheritance tax determined to be due to the state of Montana, as appearing in the order of the court determining tax, has been properly computed, or if no tax is due such certificate shall so state.

(2) Petition for ancillary letters. Every petition for ancillary letters testamentary or of administration shall include the state board of equalization as a person to be notified, and a true and correct statement of all the decedent's property in this state with the value thereof; upon presentation thereof the district court shall cause the order for hearing to be served upon the said board; and upon the hearing the district court shall determine the amount of the inheritance tax which may be or become due and the decree awarding the letters may contain provisions for the payment of such tax or giving of security thereof.

(3) Determination by state board of equalization. Any personal representative, trustee, heir, devisee or legatee of a nonresident decedent leaving no estate requiring administration in this state, desiring to transfer any stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities, or other personal property in this state or within the jurisdiction of this state, may make application to the state board of equalization for the determination whether there is any tax due upon account of the transfer thereof, and the amount of any such tax, and such applicant shall furnish to the state board of equalization therewith, an affidavit setting forth a description and statement of the property owned by the decedent situated within this state, or within its jurisdiction at the time of his death, the true value of said property at the time of decedent's death; a description and statement of the true value of all property owned by the decedent at the time of his death situated outside of this state, and without its jurisdiction; and containing a schedule or statement of all valid claims against the estate of the decedent, including the expenses of his last illness, funeral expenses and expenses of administering his estate. Such applicant shall also, at the same time, furnish the state board of equalization with a certified copy of the last will of the decedent, in case he died testate, or an affidavit setting forth the names, ages, and residence of the heirs at law of decedent in case he died intestate, and the proportion of the entire estate of said decedent inherited by each of said persons, and the relation, if any, which each legatee, devisee, heir, or transferee sustained to the decedent, or person from whom the transfer was made. Such affidavit shall be subscribed and sworn to by the personal representative of the decedent, or some other person having knowledge of the facts therein set forth.

The statement contained in any affidavits, statements or schedules as to values, or otherwise, shall not be binding upon the state board of equalization in case they believe the same to be erroneous or untrue. From the information so furnished them and such other information as they may be able to obtain with reference thereto, the state board of equalization shall, with reasonable diligence, proceed to ascertain and determine the amount of tax, if any, due under the provisions of this act, and notify the person making the application of the amount of the tax so ascertained and determined to be due; or in case there is no tax to be paid, the state board of equalization shall issue a consent to the transfer of the property so owned by the decedent.

Any person aggrieved by the determination of the state board of equalization in any matter herein provided for in this subdivision, may, within thirty (30) days thereafter, appeal to the district court of Lewis and Clark county, by serving on the state board of equalization a notice in writing setting forth his objections to such determination, and by filing such notice, after so serving the same, in the office of the clerk of such court, and thereupon, and within ten (10) days after the service of such notice on them the state board of equalization shall transmit full and complete copies of all original papers and records which have been filed with them in relation to such application, to the clerk of said district court, and thereupon the said district court shall have jurisdiction of such application and proceeding. Upon ten days' notice given by either the applicant or the state board of equalization, the matter may be brought on for hearing and determination by said court, either in term time or in vacation, at a general or special term of court, or at chambers, as may be directed by the order of the court.

(4) Nonresident estates — Jurisdiction. Whenever any nonresident decedent, leaving no estate requiring administration in this state, shall leave any stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities, or other personal property within the state or within the jurisdiction thereof, and no personal representative, trustee, heir, devisee, or legatee of such nonresident decedent has made application to the state board of equalization for the determination as to whether there is any tax due for the transfer thereof and the amount of such tax, if any, the state board of equalization, upon such matter being called to its attention, shall make an order, and cause a copy thereof to be served upon the personal representative, trustee, heirs, devisees, or legatees of such nonresident decedent, ordering and directing that a statement and return, under oath, containing the statements and information prescribed in subdivision 3 of this section, be filed with such board within sixty (60) days from the date of such order, or within such further time as the state board of equalization may grant therefor; and if such statement is not filed with the state board of equalization within such time the state board of equalization may then procure such information in any manner it may deem advisable. Upon the filing of such statement, or the procuring of such information by the state board of equalization in the event of a failure to file the same in compliance with such order, the state board of equalization shall proceed in the same manner as prescribed by subdivision 3 of this section, and all provisions thereof with reference to hearings and appeals shall be applicable thereto.

En. Sec. 12, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 150, L. 1925.

10377.13. Special appraiser. The district court, upon the application of any interested party, including the state board of equalization, shall appoint a competent person as special appraiser to fix the fair market value at the time of the transfer thereof of the property of persons whose estate shall be subject to the payment of any tax imposed by this act.

En. Sec. 13, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 141, L. 1927.

10377.14. Special appraiser—Duties—Powers—Compensation. Every such appraiser shall forthwith give notice by mail to all persons known to have a claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the state board of equalization, and to such persons as the district court may by order direct, of the time and place when he will appraise such property. He shall, at such time and place, appraise the same at its fair market value, as herein prescribed; and for that purpose the said appraiser is authorized to issue subpoenas and to compel the attendance of witnesses before him and to take the evidence of such witnesses under oath concerning such property and the value thereof; and he shall make report thereof and of such value in writing, to the said district court, together with the depositions of the witnesses examined, and such other facts in relation thereto and to the said matter as the said district court may order or require. Every appraiser shall be paid on the certificate of the district court at the rate of not to exceed ten dollars ($10) per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in such appraisal, and shall receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses, and witnesses shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed witnesses in civil actions in courts of record and the same shall be paid by the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate in the same manner as provided for the payment of other administration expenses.

10377.15. (1) Hearing by the court. The report of the special appraiser shall be made in triplicate, and not less than ten (10) days before the hearing thereon one of said triplicates shall be filed in the office of the district court, one to the administrator or the executor, and the other shall be mailed to the state board of equalization. At the time and place of hearing the administration account the district court shall examine such report, and from the report and other proofs relating to any such estate shall forthwith determine the cash value of such estate and the amount of tax to which the same is liable; or, the district court without appointing such appraiser may at the time so fixed hear the evidence and determine the cash value of such estate and the amount of tax to which the same is liable.

(2) Notice of hearing. Notice of such hearing to determine the inheritance tax shall be given in the same manner and may be included in the notice of hearing the administration account as provided by law. Notice in writing of such hearing shall be mailed to the state board of equalization not less than ten (10) days before such hearing upon such blanks and containing such information as the state board of equalization may provide.

(3) Commissioner of insurance to value future estates, etc. The commissioner of insurance shall, on application of any district court or of the state board of equalization, determine the value of any such future or contingent estates, income, or interests therein limited, contingent, dependent, or determinable upon the life or lives of the person or persons in being, upon the facts contained in the district court's finding and determination and contained in such special appraiser's report, and upon the facts certify the same to the district court or to the state board of equalization, and his certificate shall be presumptive evidence that the method of computation adopted therein is correct.

(4) Appraisal at clear market value—Annuities, how computed. Whenever a transfer of property is made upon which there is, or in any contingency there may be, a tax imposed, such property shall be appraised at its clear market value immediately upon the transfer or as soon thereafter as practicable. The value of every future or limited estate, income, interest, or annuity dependent upon any life or lives in being, shall be determined by the rule, method, and standard of mortality and value employed by the commissioner of insurance in ascertaining the value of policies of life insurance and annuities for the determination of liabilities of life insurance companies, except that the rate of interest for making such computation shall be five per cent (5%) per annum. The tax so determined shall be construed to be upon the transfer of a proportion of the principal or corpus of the estate equal to the present value of such future or limited estate, income, interest or annuity, and not upon any earnings or income of said property produced after death. Such tax shall be due and payable forthwith, except as otherwise provided in this act.

(5) Contingent encumbrances. In estimating the value of any estate or interest in property to the beneficial enjoyment or possession whereof there are persons or corporations presently entitled thereto, no allowance shall be made in respect of any contingent encumbrance thereon, nor in respect of any contingency upon the happening of which the estate or property or some part thereof, or interest therein, might be abridged, defeated or diminished; provided, however, that in the event of such encumbrance taking effect as an actual burden upon the interest of the beneficiary, or in the event of the abridgment, defeat, or diminution of such estate or property or interest therein as aforesaid, a return shall be made to the person properly entitled thereto of a proportionate amount of such tax in respect of the amount or value of the encumbrance when taking effect or so much as will reduce the same to the amount which would have been assessed in respect to the actual duration or extent of the estate or interest enjoyed. Such return of tax shall be made in the manner provided in section 8.

(6) Interest determinable by death. Where any property shall, after the passage of this act, be transferred subject to any charge, estate or interest determinable by the death of any person, or at any period ascertainable only by reference to death, the increase of benefit accruing to any person or corporation upon the extinction or determination of such charge, estate or interest shall be deemed a transfer of property taxable under the provisions of this act in the same manner as though the person or corporation beneficially entitled thereto had then acquired such increase of benefit from the person from whom the title to their respective estate or interest is derived.

(7) Tax payable forthwith on contingent estate. When property is transferred in trust or otherwise, and the rights, interests, or estates of the transferees are dependent upon contingencies or conditions whereby they may be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended or abridged, a tax shall be imposed upon such transfer at the lowest rate which, on the happening of any of the said contingencies or conditions, would be possible under the provisions of this act, and such tax so imposed shall be due and payable forthwith out of the property transferred; provided, however, that on the happening of any contingency or condition whereby the said property or any part thereof is transferred to a person or corporation, which under the provisions of this act is required to pay a tax at a higher rate than the tax imposed, then such transferee shall pay the difference between the tax imposed and the tax at the higher rate, and the amount of such increased tax shall be enforced and collected as provided in this act.

(8) Postponed tax on undiminished value. Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible, and in which proceedings for determination of the tax have not been taken, or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full undiminished clear value when the person entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited. Where an estate for life or for years can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting.

(9) Order determining tax—Contents—Notice. Upon the determination by the district court of the value of any estate which is taxable under the inheritance tax laws, and of the tax to which it is liable, an order shall be entered by the court determining the same, which order shall include a statement of (a) the date of death of the decedent, (b) the gross value of the real and personal property of such estate, stating the principal items thereof, (c) the deductions therefrom allowed by the court, (d) the names and relationship of the persons entitled to receive the same, with the amount received by each, (e) the rates and amounts of inheritance tax for which each such person is liable, and the total amount of tax to be paid, (f) a statement of the amount of interest or penalty due, if any. Such order shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the state board of equalization. A copy of the same shall be delivered or mailed to the county treasurer, the state treasurer, the administrator or executor, and the state board of equalization, and no final judgment shall be entered in such estates until due proof is filed with the court that such copies have been so delivered or mailed, and receipts are filed with such court showing the payment of all such taxes, or proof is filed showing that the bond authorized by section 8 has been given.

(10) Rehearing within sixty days. The attorney general, state board of equalization, public administrator, county attorney, or any person dissatisfied with the appraisal or assessment and determination of such tax may apply for a rehearing thereof before the district court within sixty (60) days from the fixing, assessing and determination of the tax by the district court as herein provided on filing a written notice which shall state the grounds of the application for a rehearing. The rehearing shall be upon the records, proceedings, and proofs had and taken on the hearing as herein provided unless additional or newly discovered evidence be alleged therefor, and a new trial shall not be had or granted unless specially ordered by the district court.

(11) Re-appraisal in the district court within one year. Within one year after the entry of an order or decree of the district court determining the value of an estate and assessing the tax thereon, the attorney general or the state board of equalization may, if he (or they) believes that such appraisal, assessment, or determination has been erroneously, fraudulently or collusively made, make application to the district judge for a re-appraisal thereof. The district court to whom such application is made may thereupon appoint a competent person to re-appraise such estate. Such appraiser shall possess the powers, be subject to the duties, shall give the notice and receive the compensation provided by sections 14 and 15 of this act. Such compensation shall be payable by the county treasurer out of any funds he may have on account of any tax imposed under the provisions of this act, upon the certificate of the district judge. The report of such appraiser shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court, and thereafter the same proceedings shall be taken and had by and before such district court as herein provided to be taken and had by and before the said court. The determination and assessment of such district court shall supersede the former determination and assessment of such court, and shall be filed in the office of the county treasurer, state treasurer, and state board of equalization.

En. Sec. 15, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 150, L. 1925; Amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 141, L. 1927.

10377.16. Unpaid taxes — Proceedings to collect. If any county treasurer, state treasurer, or the state board of equalization shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under the provisions of this act, after the refusal or neglect of any person liable therefor to pay the same, he or they, shall notify the attorney general in writing of such failure or neglect, and the attorney general, if he have probable cause to believe that such tax is due and unpaid, shall apply to the district court for a citation citing the person liable to pay such tax to appear before the court on the day specified, not more than three months from the date of such citation, and show cause why the tax should not be paid. The judge of the district court upon such application and whenever it shall appear to him that any such tax accruing under this act has not been paid as required by law, shall issue such citation, and the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof, and the hearing and determination thereof, shall conform as near as may be to the provisions of the laws governing probate practice of this state, and whenever it shall appear that any such tax is due and payable, and the payment thereof cannot be enforced under the provisions of this act, in said district court, the person or corporation from whom the same is due is hereby made liable to the state for the amount of such tax, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, in the name of the state, to sue for and enforce the collection of such tax, and it is made the duty of the county attorney of the county to appear for and act on behalf of any county treasurer, who shall be cited to appear before any district court under the provisions of this act.

En. Sec. 16, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.17. (1) Special administration to determine tax. When no application for administration of the estate of any deceased person is made within six months after the demise of such person, and such estate appears to come under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, or when administration has been completed without determining the tax, the public administrator of the proper county, or any person interested in such estate, may make application for such special or general administration as may be necessary for the purpose of the adjustment and payment of such tax, if any, or if no tax is due, for an order determining that fact. In cases arising under this and the following subsection, the public administrator, if appointed such special administrator, shall be entitled in the discretion of the court to the fees allowed by law to administrators, or to other reasonable compensation, unless it be found that no tax is due.

(2) Where transfer made in contemplation of death. Where it appears that the estate of a deceased person subject to the inheritance tax laws was transferred in contemplation of the death of the grantor without the adjustment and payment of the inheritance taxes and no application for such adjustment is made within six months after the demise of such grantor, the public administrator of the proper county shall notify the state board of equalization and on its order make application for and shall be entitled to such general or special administration as may be necessary for the purpose of the adjustment and payment of the inheritance taxes provided by law and shall administer such estate the same as other estates are administered as though such estate had not been transferred by the grantor.

(3) Public administrator — Duties — Compensation. It shall be the duty of the public administrator, under the general supervision of the state board of equalization, and with the assistance of the county attorney, when required by the said board or district judge, to investigate the estates of deceased persons within his county and to appear for and act in behalf of the county and state in the district court in such estates as the court may in its discretion deem necessary, and for such services the public administrator shall be entitled to five per cent of the gross inheritance tax as determined in each such estate, to be paid by the county treasurer out of the inheritance tax funds upon an order of the district judge, provided that the minimum fee for each such estate shall not be less than five dollars, and that it shall not exceed twenty-five dollars; but in cases of unusual difficulty, in estates of resident decedents, where the tax exceeds five hundred dollars, the district judge may allow the public administrator such additional compensation as he may deem just and reasonable.

En. Sec. 17, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.18. State board of equalization to supervise inheritance tax. It shall be the duty of the state board of equalization to supervise the administration of, and to investigate and cause to be investigated the administration of the inheritance tax laws, and such particular estates to which the inheritance tax laws apply throughout the various counties of the state, and to cause to be made and filed in its office reports of such investigation together with specific information and facts as to particular estates that may seem to require special consideration and attention by the legal department of the state; but no information so acquired shall, in advance of legal action, be disclosed to anyone except proper officials and persons interested in such estate.

(2) Powers and duties of the board. The state board of equalization in the conduct of inheritance tax affairs, shall have the same and similar powers and authority for gathering information and making investigations as is conferred by law on said board in the performance of its other duties. The said board shall biennially report to the governor and to the legislature at the opening of the sessions the general result of its labors and investigations in inheritance tax matters during the previous biennial period, together with specific reports of the several counties where the administration of the inheritance tax laws has been lax and unsatisfactory, with such recommendations for action thereon by the legislature as may be deemed advisable and proper.

(3) Powers and duties in nonresident estates. The state board of equalization shall also gather information and make investigations and reports concerning the estates of nonresident decedents within the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, and shall especially investigate the probate and other records for such probable estates without the state and report thereon from time to time to the legal department of the state and to the proper district court for appropriate legal action, but no information so acquired shall, in advance of legal action, be disclosed to anyone except proper officials, and persons interested in such estate.

(4) Duty of the legal department. It shall be the duty of the legal department of the state to carry out and enforce the recommendations and directions of the state board of equalization in all matters pertaining to the conduct of inheritance tax affairs; and in every estate in which the amount of inheritance tax collectible shall exceed or probably exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, there shall be no compounding, composition, or settlement of the taxes under the authority conferred by section 20 or otherwise, until the state board of equalization shall have investigated such estate and made a report thereon, nor until the said board consents to such compounding, compromise, or settlement.

(5) Forms and blanks. The state board of equalization shall prescribe such forms and prepare such blanks as may be necessary in inheritance tax proceedings in the district courts of the state; and such blanks shall be printed at the expense of the state and furnished to the district court upon the request of the judge or clerk thereof.

(6) Duties of clerks of district courts. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to furnish to the state board of equalization copies of such documents filed in connection with probate matters as said board may require.

En. Sec. 18, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 150, L. 1925.

10377.19. Quarterly reports of county treasurer—Tax to be paid to state. Each county treasurer shall make a report under oath to the state treasurer, on [or] prior to the fifth days of January, April, July and October of each year, of all taxes received by him under the inheritance tax laws, up to the first day of each of said months, stating for what estate, by whom and when paid. Said report shall be made in duplicate, the original to be mailed to the state treasurer, and the duplicate to the state board of equalization. The form of such report may be prescribed by the state treasurer. He shall at the same time pay the state treasurer all the taxes received by him under the inheritance tax laws and not previously paid into the state treasury, and for all such taxes collected by him and not paid into the state treasury within five days from the time herein required, he shall pay interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum.

En. Sec. 19, Ch. 65, L. 1923; Amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 150, L. 1925.

10377.20. Composition and compromise. The state board of equalization is authorized to enter into an agreement with the executor, administrator, or trustee of any estate in which remainders or expectant estates have been of such a nature or so disposed and circumstanced that the taxes therein were held not presently payable or where the interests of the legatees or devisees are not ascertainable under the provisions of this act, or whenever a tax is claimed on account of the transfer of any property of a nonresident decedent, and to compound such taxes upon such terms as may be deemed equitable and expedient and to grant discharges to said executors, administrators, or trustees upon the payment of the taxes provided for in such composition, provided, however, that no such composition shall be conclusive in favor of such executors, administrators, or trustees as against the interests of such cestui que trust as may possess either present rights of enjoyment or fixed, absolute, on [or] indefeasible rights of future enjoyment, or of such as would possess such rights in the event of the immediate termination of particular estates, unless they consent thereto either personally when competent or by guardian. Composition or settlement made or affected under the provisions of this section shall be executed in triplicate and one copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the tax was paid; one copy to be delivered to the executors, administrators, or trustees, who shall be parties thereto; and one copy to be retained by said board.

En. Sec. 20, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.21. Receipts, copies, recording. Any person shall be entitled to a receipt from the county treasurer of any county, or the state treasurer, or at his option to a copy of a receipt that may have been given by such county treasurer or state treasurer, for the payment of any tax under this act, under the official seal of such county treasurer, or state treasurer, which receipt shall designate upon whose estate such tax shall have been paid, by whom, and whether in full of such tax. Such receipt may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such estate is situate in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall be labeled "transfer tax."

En. Sec. 21, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.22. Definitions. The words "estate" and "property" as used in this act shall be taken to mean the real and personal property or interest therein passing or transferred to individual legatees, devisees, heirs, next of kin, grantees, donees, or vendees, and not as the property or interest therein of the decedent, grantor, donor, or vendor, and shall include all personal property within or without the state. The word "transfer" as used in this act shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or appointment in the manner herein prescribed to each individual or corporation. The word "decedent" as used in this act shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, or donor. "Intangible" or "intangible property" when used in this act without other qualifications, shall be taken to include all moneys, stocks, bonds, notes, securities and credits of all kinds, secured or unsecured. The words "county treasurer," "public administrator" and "county attorney," as used in this act shall be taken to mean the treasurer, public administrator, and county attorney of the county in which the district court has jurisdiction of the proceedings.

10377.23. Disposition of taxes. Fifty per cent (50%) of all taxes levied and collected under the provisions of this act, less any deductions authorized under this act, shall be paid into the state treasury and deposited to the credit of the general fund of the state; and fifty per cent (50%) shall be deposited to the credit of an "inheritance tax fund" and distributed as follows:

The county superintendent of schools of each county in the state must, between the fifteenth day of August and the first day of September, in each year, make and file with the state treasurer a statement and certificate showing the total number of teaching positions, in which teachers were employed for a period of at least four months, during the school year ending June 30th immediately preceding, in all of the public schools in such county, including primary, grade, district high and county high schools, provided, however, that if during such school year, or after the close thereof and before the making of such statement and certificate, any portion of the county has been detached therefrom and added to another county, or detached therefrom and included in a new county, the number of teaching positions within the portion of such county so detached shall not be included in the statement and certificate of the county superintendent of schools of the county from which the same is detached, but such teaching positions shall be included in the statement and certificate of the county superintendent of schools of the county to which the same is attached, or in the statement and certificate of the county superintendent of schools of the new county.

Between August 15th and September 1st of each year, the state treasurer shall apportion the said inheritance tax fund to the several counties of the state in proportion to the total number of teaching positions in which teachers were employed for a period of at least four months, in each county, during the preceding school year, as shown by the statements and certificates of the county superintendents of schools, filed with the state treasurer for such school year, and said state treasurer must, at the time of making such apportionment, notify the county superintendent of schools of each county of the amount of such fund which has been apportioned and distributed to his respective county. Within ten days after receiving each such notice from the state treasurer, each county superintendent of schools must apportion the amount received and paid over to his county by the state treasurer, in the following manner, to wit: (a) Sixty per centum (60%) thereof shall be apportioned between and among the several school districts, district high schools and county high schools in proportion to the total number of teaching positions in which teachers were employed for at least four months, during the last preceding school year for which a statement and certificate was filed with the state treasurer by the county superintendent of schools, in each such school district, district high and county high school; (b) thirty-five per centum thereof shall be apportioned between and among the several school districts, district high and county high schools in proportion to the aggregate number of days' attendance of all eligible pupils who attended for a period of not less than six weeks during the aforesaid school year in each district school, district high and county high school; (c) five per centum (5%) thereof shall be apportioned between and among the district high schools and county high school in proportion to the number of years of accredited high school work during the aforesaid school year in each such district high and county high school.

Immediately after making such apportionment the county superintendent of schools must make and file with the county treasurer a statement and certificate showing the total amount apportioned to each school district, district high and county high school, and the county treasurer must, on receiving such statement and certificate, immediately credit the general fund of each school district, district high and county high school with the amount to which each is entitled as shown by such statement and certificate, and such amounts shall be expended for the same purpose for which other moneys deposited to the credit of such funds may be expended, and for no other purpose.

En. Sec. 23, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.24. Powers of state board to appoint and fix compensation. The state board of equalization may employ such other persons as experts and assistants as may be necessary to perform the duties that may be required of the board and fix their compensation.

En. Sec. 24, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.25. Hearings by state board of equalization—Witnesses—Contempt, etc. Oaths to witnesses in any matter under the investigation or consideration of the state board of equalization may be administered by the secretary of the board or by any member thereof. In case any witness shall fail to obey any summons to appear before said board or shall refuse to testify or answer any material questions or to produce records, books, papers, or documents, when required to do so, such failure or refusal shall be reported to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute proceedings in the proper district court to compel obedience to any summons or order of the board or to punish witnesses for any such neglect or refusal. Any person who shall testify falsely in any material manner under the consideration of the said board shall be guilty of and punished for perjury. In the discretion of the said board, officers who serve summons or subpoenas, and witnesses attending, shall receive like compensation as officers and witnesses in the district court.

En. Sec. 25, Ch. 65, L. 1923.

10377.26. Repeal. Sections 10377 to 10400, both inclusive, of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1921, and all other acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, provided, however, that such repeal shall not in anywise affect any suit, prosecution or proceeding pending at the time this act shall take effect, or any right which the state of Montana may have at the time of the taking effect of this act to claim a tax upon any property, or from any person, under the provisions of any of the sections or acts hereby repealed or under any prior laws repealed by such acts and which rights were reserved therein, for which no proceeding has been commenced to collect any tax arising thereunder, and where no proceeding has been commenced to collect any such tax the procedure to collect the same shall conform to the provisions hereof, and such repeal shall not affect any appeal or right of appeal in any suit now pending, or any order or orders fixing or determining the amount of any tax or taxes existing in this state at the time of the taking effect of this act.

GUARDIANS OF INSANE AND INCOMPETENT PERSONS.

10412. Guardians of insane and other incompetent persons..

On petition for the appointment of a guardian for an insane person, service of notice of time and place of hearing as required by this section, is essential to the validity of the order of appointment. State ex rel. Kelly v. District Court et al., 73 Mont. 84, 235 Pac. 751.

The notice required by this section to be served upon a person sought to be placed under guardianship as an incompetent must be served as a citation, which in turn must be served as a summons; therefore, since a summons cannot be served by a party to the proceeding, service made by petitioner for letters of guardianship was void. State ex rel. Kelly v. District Court et al., 73 Mont. 84, 235 Pac. 751.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIANS.

10422. Guardian to return inventory of estate of ward—Appraisers to be appointed—Like proceedings when other property acquired.

Where a guardian fails to return into court inventories of the estate in his charge as provided by this section, or render his account to the court for allowance as required by section 10423, the court may, in its discretion, disallow fees to his guardian and those paid or contracted to be paid by him to his counsel as penalty for such failure. In re Cuffe's Estate, 63 Mont. 399, 207 Pac. 640.

SALES OF PROPERTY BY GUARDIAN.

10434. Service of order—Consent. A copy of the order must be personally served on the next of kin of the ward, and on all persons interested in the estate, at least fourteen days before the hearing of the petition, or must be published at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper printed in the county, or if there be none printed in the county, then in such newspaper as may be specified by the court or judge in the order. If written consent to making the order of sale is subscribed by all persons interested therein, and the next of kin, notice need not be served or published, and the hearing may be had at any time.

FINANCIAL AID OF DEPENDENT CHILDREN—MOTHERS' PENSION ACT.

10480. Allowance for dependent children.

Courts cannot inquire into or control matters of legislative policy; hence they may not, in the construction of a statute, pass upon the questions whether legislation, such as the Mothers' Pension Law, is wise or unwise or whether in its practical application it fails to meet the needs of any particular county. State ex rel. Board of County Commrs. v. District Court, 62 Mont. 275, 204 Pac. 600.

Under this and following sections of the act, one-half of the county poor fund is automatically set aside for the payment of mothers' pensions, if such amount is needed for that purpose, the remaining half only being thus available for the payment of warrants for other charges against the poor fund. State ex rel. Board of County Commrs. v. District Court, 62 Mont. 275, 204 Pac. 600.

10482. Conditions of allowance — Application — Hearing — Reports — Citations. The allowance herein referred to shall be made subject to the following conditions: (1) The child or children for whose benefit allowance is made must be living with the mother of such child or children; (2) The allowance shall be made only when in the absence of such allowance the mother is unable to properly provide and care for said child or children, without being required to work regularly away from her own home and children, provided that the mother may be at times absent for work with the consent of the judge of the district court if he should deem it for the best interest of said child or children; (3) The mother must, in the judgment of the court, be a proper person physically, mentally and morally for the bringing up of her children; (4) Such allowance shall, in the judgment of the court, be actually necessary for the support and maintenance of the child or children in the home; (5) No person shall receive the benefit of this act who is not a citizen of the United States or who has not declared her intention to become such citizen, and who shall not have been a resident of the county in which said application is made for at least one year prior to the making of such application for such allowance; (6) The provisions of this act shall not apply in the case of any child who has property of its own sufficient for its support; (7) Application shall be made by the mother to the county attorney, whose duty it shall be to prepare and file in the district court of the county a petition, verified by the mother of such child or children, setting forth the facts above required, and in addition thereto the age and the residence of such child or children, the residence of the mother, and the financial conditions of such mother and child, or children; that upon the filing of such petition the court shall designate the bureau of child and animal protection of the state of Montana, the county probation officer, or some other responsible resident of the county wherein the mother resides, to make a thorough investigation of all the facts of the case and the court must make an order setting said petition for hearing before the court not less than fifteen days, nor more than thirty days from the filing thereof, and may in his discretion, require the clerk of the court to give notice of the hearing of such application by posting notice thereof in three conspicuous places in the county and by serving upon the probation officer of the county or such responsible resident of the county appointed by the court to make an investigation of the facts of the case a copy of said notice, together with a copy of said petition, and by mailing a copy of said notice to the chairman of the board of county commissioners at least ten days before the date set for such hearing. That upon receiving said notice the probation officer of the county or such other responsible resident of the county appointed by the court to make an investigation of the facts of the case must make a thorough investigation of all the facts of the case and make and file with the court at least five days before the time set for such hearing, his findings and report thereon under oath, and must appear at the hearing of said application and testify in support of said findings and report if required. And it is hereby made the duty of the county attorney to appear at such hearing and conduct an investigation thereat of all the facts in the case, and it is also made his duty to subpoena and examine at said hearing any witnesses known to him whose testimony will aid or enlighten the court upon the facts to be investigated at such hearing. Any person having any knowledge of the facts may appear at said hearing and be examined under oath as to such facts; and any taxpayer may appear at said hearing and file objection to the allowance of the application, and may be heard upon such objection at said hearing at the time fixed therefor in said notice, or at any time to which said hearing may be continued. (8) Every person receiving an allowance under this act shall every month file with the clerk of the district court a report in writing, upon blanks to be supplied by the county, verified under oath, showing a detailed statement of all income of the family from whatever source for the preceding month, whether or not she has remarried, whether any of the children for whom she is receiving an allowance for support have died, or are not living with her, or are not being supported by her; her present place of residence, and the present place of residence of the children for whom she is receiving an allowance, whether any of such children have attained the age of sixteen years or have acquired property sufficient for their support; provided, however, that if such person receiving an allowance under this act, lives more than five miles from the county seat, then said report need not be verified, but shall be sufficient if signed by the person receiving the allowance, and two witnesses; (9) Upon the receipt of the report as required by the provisions of the preceding subsection, the clerk of the district court shall notify the board of county commissioners, who shall direct the monthly warrant to be drawn for the allowance and no warrant to be drawn until such notice has been received by board of county commissioners. (10) It shall be the duty of the court to inspect the monthly report required by this act, and when it shall appear from such report that the beneficiary is no longer entitled to the allowance, said order of allowance shall be revoked and set aside by the court. (11) Any taxpayer of the county may at any time after the filing of the order of allowance, file in said court a petition verified upon oath, setting forth facts showing that the order was fraudulently procured or that the conditions of allowance above named no longer exist, or that said report by the mother as above required has not been made, or if made, is false and fraudulent. If, in the opinion of the court, such petition is sufficient, the court shall cause a citation to issue to the mother of said child or children, fixing a time and place when and where she shall show cause why the order of allowance attacked should not be set aside.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 12, L. 1927.

10483. Order of court—Recording—Warrants, how issued.

Warrants issued against the poor fund and registered prior to July 1, 1921, were a direct charge against the entire fund, and persons receiving or registering poor fund warrants after that date were chargeable with knowledge that they became a charge against half of that fund only. State ex rel. Board of County Commrs. v. District Court, 62 Mont. 275, 204 Pac. 600.

PART V.Evidence.*CHAPTER 1.*DEFINITIONS, KINDS AND DEGREES OF EVIDENCE.*10491. The degree of certainty required to establish facts.

"Moral certainty" and the phrase "beyond a reasonable doubt" as employed in section 10672, providing that conviction can be secured only upon evidence which established guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, are synonymous. State v. Mun, 76 Mont. 278, 246 Pac. 257.

The provision of this section that the law does not require demonstration, moral certainty only or that degree of proof which produces conviction in an unprejudiced mind being sufficient, is applicable in the trial of criminal cases. State v. Cassill et al., 71 Mont. 274, 229 Pac. 716.

An instruction on the degree of proof necessary to establish facts in the exact language of this section, was proper. State v. Fredericks, 65 Mont. 25, 212 Pac. 495.

10503. Cumulative evidence defined.

The question whether evidence is "cumulative" within the meaning of this section, does not depend upon the quantity or probable effect of the evidence, but upon its character, and if it brings to light some new and independent fact of a different character than that theretofore elicited, though tending to prove the same proposition or ground of claim before canvassed, it is not cumulative. Jenkins v. Kitsen, 62 Mont. 515, 205 Pac. 243.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 690.

CHAPTER 2.GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF EVIDENCE.*10505. One witness sufficient to prove a fact.

If the manner in which a witness testifies is such and his statements are so that there is produced in the mind of the court a conviction that they are not and cannot be true, and the right of the plaintiff to recover depends on such testimony, the cause should not be submitted to the jury. Whitney v. Bertoglio Mercantile Co., 65 Mont. 358, 211 Pac. 323.

Since under this section and section 10672 the burden of proof is not to be determined by the number of witnesses introduced, the direct evidence of the plaintiff showing nonpayment of a certificate of deposit in suit was sufficient to establish that fact. O'Langen v. First State Bank of Hilger, 59 Mont. 190, 196 Pac. 149.

10508. Witness presumed to speak the truth.

A district court may in its discretion, where the facts warrant it, caution the jury respecting the testimony of witnesses who appear to be interested in the result of the case, provided it does so in an instruction general in character and does not single out a single witness and call attention to his testimony. State v. Kessler, 74 Mont. 166, 239 Pac. 1000.

10510. Declarations of predecessor in title evidence.

Cited as section 7866, Revised Codes, in Nelson v. Gough et al., 61 Mont. 301, 304, 202 Pac. 196.

10514. Declaration of decedent evidence against his successor in interest.

Though declarations against his interest made by a decedent are admissible under this section, they constitute testimony of unsatisfactory character and should be received and weighed with caution. Gray

v. Grant et al., 62 Mont. 452, 206 Pac. 410.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 913, 1098.

10515. When part of the transaction proved, the whole is admissible.

Under this section, as well as under settled law generally, where one introduces a part of a document or writing (here a city ordinance), so much of the remainder as may tend to explain or qualify that which has been received, is admissible in evidence at the instance of his adversary. Varn v. Butte Electric Ry. Co. et al., 77 Mont. 124, 249 Pac. 1070.

Under this section, where one party introduces a part of a series of letters touching the transaction in controversy, the other party is entitled to introduce the remaining portion if material to a complete understanding of the entire transaction. Northwestern E. E. Co. v. Leighton et al., 66 Mont. 529, 213 Pac. 1094.

10516. Contents of writing—How proved.

In an action to recover a broker's commission, in which plaintiff's cause of action was founded upon a letter written to plaintiff by defendant giving a description of the lands, and stating price per acre, commission allowed, etc., but which had been forwarded by plaintiff to a prospective purchaser in another state and of which she had been unable to regain possession, refusal to permit secondary evidence of its contents was error, since under this section, a letter out of the jurisdiction is deemed to be "lost," making parol evidence of what it contained admissible. Kile v. Kingsbury, 63 Mont. 145, 206 Pac. 346.

A showing that the owner of a private writing removed to a foreign country sufficiently accounts for its nonproduction to warrant admission of oral testimony to prove its contents, the presumption being that he took it with him. Nelson v. Gough et al., 61 Mont. 301, 202 Pac. 196.

Sections 10516, 10517, were cited in Burnett v. Burnett, 68 Mont. 546, 549, 219 Pac. 831; as section 7872, Revised Codes, in Hawley v. Richardson, 60 Mont. 118, 126, 198 Pac. 450.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 138; vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 850-858; vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 697; vol. 22 Cal. Jur. 640, 645.

10517. An agreement reduced to writing deemed the whole.

Where the signers of a promissory note unqualifiedly bound themselves to pay a certain sum of money at a specified time, parol evidence was inadmissible for the purpose of showing that the payee in an oral contemporaneous stipulation had agreed that payment could be made in a certain manner; such oral agreement was superseded by the writing, and the evidence, erroneously admitted, tended to vary and contradict the writing, contrary to the provisions of this section, where the validity of the note was not attacked and a mistake or imperfection in the writing was not pleaded. Swan v. Le Clair et al., 77 Mont. 422, 251 Pac. 155.

In the absence of fraud, an unconditional written contract of purchase of building material presumably embraced the whole agreement of the parties; hence evidence of an oral understanding that it should not become binding until the architect in charge had approved the materials, was inadmissible. Wheeler v. James, 70 Mont. 37, 223 Pac. 900.

In the absence of fraud or mistake, a written contract supersedes all prior oral negotiations with relation thereto; therefore parol testimony to show that the understanding of parties to a promissory note which provided for the payment of interest but did not specify the rate was that no interest at all was payable was properly excluded. Burnett v. Burnett, 68 Mont. 546, 219 Pac. 831.

An offer of proof by defendant directors who had guaranteed payment of an account as represented by a note of the corporation, that it was their understanding that the guaranty was to be deemed merely an assurance on their part that plaintiff's account was recognized as a valid claim against the company, was properly rejected under this section, as contradicting the terms of the writing. Schauer v. Morgan et al., 67 Mont. 455, 216 Pac. 347.

Under this section and 7520, when a contract has been reduced to writing its contents cannot be added to, contradicted, altered or varied by parol or extrinsic evidence, and the writing supersedes all oral negotiations concerning its matter which preceded, accompanied or led up to its execution. Webber v. Killorn et al., 66 Mont. 130, 212 Pac. 852.

Prior oral negotiations and directions as to points at which livestock should be stopped for resting and feeding were merged in the contract of shipment, where it and the waybills bore notations stating the points at which stops were to be made, and therefore parol testimony of directions to make other stops was incompetent as an attempt to vary the terms of the written contract. Cook et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 61 Mont. 573, 203 Pac. 512.

10519. Construction of statutes and instruments—General rule.

Under this section, the office of courts, in construing a statute, is simply to ascertain and declare what is in terms or in substance contained therein, not to write into the act words which the legislature saw fit to omit. Morrison v. Farmers' etc. State Bank, 70 Mont. 146, 225 Pac. 123.

10520. The intention of the legislature or parties.

Where under the first clause of a contract a party bound himself generally as a surety, but under a subsequent one the conditions under which he would be liable were particularly set forth which in effect made him a guarantor, the two clauses were so inconsistent with each other as to warrant application of the doctrine announced by this section, that where a general and particular provision of a contract are inconsistent the latter must prevail, and therefore the promisor was a guarantor and not a surety and could not be joined as defendant with the lessee of property in an action to recover rentals, payment of which he had guaranteed. Butte Machinery Co. v. Carbonate Hill Mining Co., 75 Mont. 167, 242 Pac. 956.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 797-806.

10531. Facts which may be proved on trial.

An affidavit filed in support of a motion for a continuance on account of the absence of a witness and setting forth what the witness would testify to if present, the motion being denied on opposing counsel's admission that the witness would so testify, is not admissible as evidence on a second trial of the cause as testimony given at a former trial between the same parties relating to the same matter. Kelly v. Kipp et al., 77 Mont. 110, 250 Pac. 819.

Under subdivision 3 of this section, providing that upon a trial evidence may be given of an act or declaration of another in the presence and within the observation of a party, and his conduct in relation thereto, where one who on being accused of crime remains silent, though he has full liberty to speak, his failure to reply or deny is relevant as showing his guilt, the accusatory statement being admissible, not as evidence of the truth of the statement, but as tending to show his admission by his silence; the rule applies though defendant was under arrest at the time, but does not extend to statements made in his presence at a judicial hearing or proceeding. State v. Won, 76 Mont. 509, 248 Pac. 201.

For discussion of the showing necessary to render an alleged dying declaration admissible in evidence, see State v. Martin, 76 Mont. 565, 248 Pac. 176; State v. Vetter, 76 Mont. 574, 248 Pac. 179.

Statement made by decedent the day before his death upon being questioned by the witness as to whether he thought he would live, that he was going to die from the wound inflicted and that he was shot by his wife, was admissible as his dying declaration. State v. Kacar, 74 Mont. 269, 240 Pac. 365.

Under this section parol testimony relative to a contract of purchase of building materials to the effect that it was customary to first obtain the approval of the architect before it should become binding, was inadmissible. Wheeler v. James, 70 Mont. 37, 223 Pac. 900.

The rule that a defendant in a criminal case cannot be bound by conversations between third persons in his absence does not apply to acts and declarations of a co-conspirator done or made in furtherance of a common design during the life of the conspiracy, in which case, they are admissible after proof of the conspiracy. State v. Hopkins, 68 Mont. 504, 219 Pac. 1106.

Under this section a witness who had not been shown to have any theoretical or practical knowledge of constructing or operating a ferry-boat was not qualified to express an opinion respecting the subject. State ex rel. Rankin v. Martin, 68 Mont. 392, 219 Pac. 632.

The opinion of a layman that a person is incompetent, where the reasons for the opinion are unsatisfactory, cannot be considered such substantial evidence as will warrant the submission of the question of his incompetency to a jury, in the face of positive and affirmative acts and conduct on his part clearly indicating mental capacity. Sommerville v. Greenwood, 65 Mont. 101, 210 Pac. 1048.

Error in permitting a layman to give his opinion as to defendant's sanity without having qualified under subdivision 10 of this section, as an intimate acquaintance, was harmless where the only evidence of defendant's insanity consisted of his behavior on the stand and of his incoherent and meaningless answers, all the witnesses testifying to his mental condition declaring him sane, without contradiction or conflict. State v. Davis, 60 Mont. 426, 199 Pac. 421.

CHAPTER 3.

JUDICIAL NOTICE OF FACTS.

10532. Certain facts of general notoriety assumed to be true—Specification of such facts.

In an action for the rescission of a land contract in which plaintiff claimed that defendant had included lands in his contract of sale which were owned by the Northern Pacific Railway Company as a right of way, while the trial court could properly take judicial notice, under this section, that the Northern Pacific Railway Company is the successor of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, it could not take such notice that the federal grant to the company attached to any particular tract of land, or that a particular tract of land was public land at the time of the taking effect of the grant. Lasby et al. v. Burgess, 76 Mont. 452, 248 Pac. 190.

Under this section, courts take judicial notice of the form and contents of the Third and Fourth Liberty bond issues and of Victory Loan bonds. Grosfield v. First Nat. Bank, 73 Mont. 219, 236 Pac. 250.

Courts take judicial notice of the fact that the federal government did not take over and assume jurisdiction of the railroads until January 1, 1928, and that for injuries prior to that date it cannot be held responsible. Stevens v. Hines et al., 63 Mont. 94, 206 Pac. 441.

CHAPTER 4.

WITNESSES.

10534. All persons capable of perceptions and communication may be witnesses.

A violation of the White Slave Act may be proved by the uncorroborated testimony of the prosecuting witness, a woman being no less a competent witness because she engages in prostitution. State v. Pippi, 59 Mont. 116, 195 Pac. 556.

Cited in Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 107, 235 Pac. 761.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 1130; vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 9.

10535. Persons who cannot be witnesses.

Under this section, subdivision 4, evidence of threats made by the agent of a corporation (since deceased) for the purpose of procuring defendant to execute a promissory note and a mortgage securing it was properly admitted, its admissibility having been addressed to the discretion of the trial court where without such evidence defendant could not have proven or made out a prima facie case of menace. Averill Machinery Co. v. Taylor et al., 70 Mont. 70, 223 Pac. 918.

In an action against an administrator brought under section 9076, for damages for the wrongful killing of plaintiff's husband by defendant's intestate, where plaintiff was the only surviving witness and her testimony was indispensable to recovery, the court properly permitted her to testify under the exception provided by this section. Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 215 Pac. 224.

Under this section, as amended by chapter 41, L. 1913, testimony of plaintiff concerning transactions and oral communications had with the deceased agent of a corporation was inadmissible in an action against the corporation. Marcellus v. Wright et al., 65 Mont. 580, 212 Pac. 299.

Under this section, declaring that parties to an action against an executor or administrator upon a demand against the estate of a deceased person are incompetent to testify to transactions or oral communications between the witness and the deceased, except when it appears that without the testimony injustice will be done, the power to admit or reject such testimony is lodged in the sound discretion of the trial court, which cannot be too carefully exercised, and when admitted it must be viewed with caution. Marcellus v. Wright et al., 65 Mont. 580, 212 Pac. 299.

Under this section, determination of the question whether testimony with relation to acts or conversations had with a deceased agent of a corporation is admissible or not rests in the discretion of the trial court. Mosback v. Smith Brothers Sheep Co., 65 Mont. 42, 210 Pac. 910.

This section as amended by chapter 41, L. 1913, does not exclude the testimony of the beneficiary under an insurance policy, in an action to recover the amount of the policy, to a conversation with the insured before his death. New York Life Ins. Co. v. Mason, 272 Fed. 28.

Cited in Wood v. Ferguson et al., 71 Mont. 540, 548, 230 Pac. 592.

10536. Persons in certain relations cannot be examined. 1. A husband cannot be examined for or against his wife without her consent; nor a wife for or against her husband without his consent; nor can either, during the marriage or afterward, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage; but this exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other; or in an action brought by husband or wife against another person for the alienation of the affections of either husband or wife or in an action for damages against another person for adultery committed by either husband or wife.

2. An attorney cannot, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

3. A clergyman or priest cannot, without the consent of the person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

4. A licensed physician or surgeon cannot, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending the patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient.

5. A public officer cannot be examined as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interests would suffer by the disclosure.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 83, L. 1925.

To render statements made to a physician by his patient privileged under this section, they must have related to the particular injury or disease and been necessary to enable the former to properly prescribe for the latter or act in his professional capacity. Garrett v. City of Butte, 69 Mont. 214, 221 Pac. 537.

A statement made to a staff physician at a hospital by plaintiff in an action for personal injuries sustained by a fall on an icy sidewalk immediately after the accident, that she fell at a place different from the one alleged in the complaint, was not privileged and rejection of an offer of proof to that effect was reversible error. Garrett v. City of Butte, 69 Mont. 214, 221 Pac. 537.

This section, forbidding testimony by a wife without her husband's consent, as to any communications made by the one to the other during the marriage, though not limited expressly to confidential communications, should be construed as applying only to such communications, since there is no public policy excluding such testimony further than necessary to guard the marital relation. New York Life Ins. Co. v. Mason, 272 Fed. 28.

In an action on a life insurance policy, brought by the wife of the insured, in which the defense was suicide, testimony by the wife to conversations with her husband shortly before and immediately after the shooting showing that the husband was not contemplating suicide and that the shooting was accidental, are not "confidential communications" and were not inadmissible under this section. New York Life Ins. Co. v. Mason, 272 Fed. 28.

CHAPTER 5.

WRITINGS—PUBLIC WRITINGS.

10540. Public writings defined.

Reports made to the state bank examiner by his deputies as to its financial condition, not verified or signed, are not admissible in evidence as "public writings," in the absence of proof of their contents. State v. Yegen, 74 Mont. 126, 238 Pac. 603.

10541. All others private.

Cited in State v. Yegen, 74 Mont. 126, 129, 238 Pac. 603.

10543. Public officer bound to give copies.

Cited in State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 541, 219 Pac. 1096.

10544. Four kinds of public writings.

Cited in State v. Yegen, 74 Mont. 126, 129, 238 Pac. 603.

10545. Laws, written or unwritten.

Cited in State ex rel. La Point v. District Court, 69 Mont. 29, 34, 220 Pac. 88.

10549. Unwritten law defined.

Cited in State ex rel. La Point v. District Court, 69 Mont. 29, 34, 220 Pac. 88.

10555. Record—How authenticated as evidence.

Applied with section 10040 in holding that an attestation by the clerk of the probate court of another state unaccompanied by a certificate of the judge "that the attestation is in due form" is insufficient to entitle papers to be admitted in evidence in this state. Henderson et al. v. Daniels, 62 Mont. 363, 205 Pac. 964.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 292-297; vol. 22 Cal. Jur. 639.

10558. Effect of a judgment or final order upon rights in various cases.

Cited in Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 578, 584, 241 Pac. 636; Springhorn v. Dirks et al., 72 Mont. 121, 129, 231 Pac. 912; Independent M. & C. Co. v. Aetna L. I. Co., 68 Mont. 152, 159, 216 Pac.

1109; Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 236, 208 Pac. 943; as section 7914, Revised Codes, in In re Smith's Estate, 60 Mont. 276, 296, 199 Pac. 696.

10561. What deemed adjudged in a judgment.

Mandamus, being an action at law rather than in equity, judgment therein is conclusive as to all of the relator's rights properly involved therein, whether asserted or not. State ex rel. Golden Valley County v. District Court et al., 75 Mont. 122, 242 Pac. 421.

Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558, 584, 241 Pac. 636; Solberg v. Sunburst Oil & Gas Co., 73 Mont. 94, 102, 235 Pac. 761; Wallace et al. v. Goldberg et al., 72 Mont. 234, 241, 231 Pac. 56; as section 7917, Revised Codes, in Sweeney v. City of Butte, 64 Mont. 230, 236, 208 Pac. 943; In re Smith's Estate, 60 Mont. 276, 297, 199 Pac. 696.

10563. Record of another state—Its effect.

Under this section, providing that the authority of an executor or administrator does not extend beyond the territorial limits of the government under which he was appointed, an administrator appointed in another state cannot maintain an action in the courts of this state in his representative capacity. Lefebure et al. v. Baker et al., 69 Mont. 193, 220 Pac. 1111.

CHAPTER 6.

PRIVATE WRITINGS.

10581. Execution of an instrument defined.

Cited in Springhorn v. Springer et al., 75 Mont. 294, 301, 243 Pac. 803.

10585. Original writing to be proved or accounted for.

Refusal to permit a carbon copy of a livestock shipping contract to be introduced in evidence was proper under this section, where the copy was incomplete in that the signature of the shipper was missing therefrom, the carbon sheet having been so placed as not to cover the space left for said signature, which omission had been later supplied by defendant's agent writing in the name of the plaintiff, and where it appeared that the original was in defendant's possession. Rogness v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 59 Mont. 373, 196 Pac. 989.

Secondary evidence as to execution and contents of will lost before testator's death, note, 34 A. L. R. 1308, 1312.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 16 Cal. Jur. 698 et seq.

10588. Writings—How proved.

The common-law rule that where the execution of a writing has been attested the party desiring to prove its execution must, before using other evidence, either produce the attester as a witness or show that his testimony is not available, was not abrogated by this section, and therefore where one of two witnesses who had attested a writing was available at the time of the trial and the absence of the other was not explained, the court properly denied permission to introduce the testimony of an expert in handwriting to show that the signature attached thereto was the signature of the person alleged to have executed it. Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al., 72 Mont. 345, 232 Pac. 90.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 870.

10589. Relating to proving the execution of a writing by certain witnesses.

Rep. Sec. 1, Ch. 154, L. 1925.

Cited in Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al., 72 Mont. 345, 353, 232 Pac. 90.

10591. Evidence of handwriting.

Cited in In re Miller's Estate, 71 Mont. 330, 340, 229 Pac. 851.

10592. Evidence of handwriting by comparison.

The jury is not bound by the testimony of experts on handwriting and the court in directing a verdict and thus in effect instructing the jury that they must accept such testimony as true committed error. Grosfield v. First Nat. Bank, 73 Mont. 219, 236 Pac. 250.

The provision of this section, that a witness may give evidence respecting handwriting by comparison with writings admitted or treated as genuine by the party against whom the evidence is offered has reference to an expert witness only and therefore it was error to permit nonexperts to give their opinions as to the genuineness of the handwriting of a purported will, based upon comparison with other writings admitted to have been genuine. In re Miller's Estate, 71 Mont. 330, 229 Pac. 851.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 141; vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 871, 1007.

10596. Private writings—How proved.

Under this section and section 10598, any private writing except a will, which is acknowledged or proved and certified as required by statute, carries with it the evidence of its due execution and is admissible without further proof thereof.

Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al., 72 Mont. 345, 232 Pac. 90.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 1 Cal. Jur. 231, 268; vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 869.

10597. Removal of public records.

Cited in Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al., 72 Mont. 345, 350, 232 Pac. 90.

10598. Certified copies of records as evidence.

Under this section, and 10596 any private writing (except a will) which is acknowledged or proved and certified as required by statute carries with it the evidence of its due execution and is admissible without further proof thereof. Angell v. Lewistown State Bank et al, 72 Mont. 345, 232 Pac. 90.

Cited in Springhorn v. Springer et al, 75 Mont. 294, 301, 243 Pac. 803.

CHAPTER 8.INDIRECT EVIDENCE—INFERENCES AND PRESUMPTIONS.*10600. Indirect evidence classified.

Sections 10600-10604 were cited in California Packing Corp. v. McClintock, 75 Mont. 72, 76, 241 Pac. 1077; Fisher v. Butte Electric Ry. Co. et al, 72 Mont. 594, 604, 235 Pac. 330; State ex rel Brown v. District Court, 72 Mont. 213, 218, 232 Pac. 201; Anderson et al. v. Workman, 67 Mont. 176, 186, 215 Pac. 224.

10601. Inference defined.

While actionable negligence may be established by indirect evidence, one inference cannot be drawn from another inference or presumption and a presumption cannot rest upon an inference. Fisher v. Butte Electric Ry. Co. et al, 72 Mont. 594, 235 Pac. 330.

Cited in First Nat. Bank v. Robke et al, 72 Mont. 527, 532, 235 Pac. 327.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 735.

10602. Presumption defined.

A presumption, being a deduction which the law expressly directs to be made from particular facts, cannot be based upon a further presumption. First Nat. Bank of Glendive v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 1, 210 Pac. 900.

Cited in State v. Daly, 77 Mont. 387, 390, 250 Pac. 976; Doorly v. Goodman, 71 Mont. 529, 536, 230 Pac. 779.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 735.

10603. When an inference arises.

Cited in First Nat. Bank v. Robke et al, 72 Mont. 527, 532, 235 Pac. 327.

10604. Presumptions may be controverted, when.

Sections 10604-10606 were cited in Doorly v. Goodman, 71 Mont. 529, 536, 230 Pac. 779; Gilliland v. Palatine Ins.

Co., Ltd., 59 Mont. 267, 270, 196 Pac. 151.

10605. Specification of conclusive presumptions.

Elements of equitable estoppel stated in Waddell v. School Dist. No. 2, 74 Mont. 91, 238 Pac. 884.

Cited in Hoppin v. Long, 74 Mont. 558,

584, 241 Pac. 636; Wray v. Great Falls Paper Co., 72 Mont. 461, 466, 234 Pac. 486.

10606. All other presumptions may be controverted.

Where one places a fence on lands of another, without an agreement permitting him to do so, it belongs to the owner of the land unless he chooses to require him to remove it, the presumption, disputable in nature, being that one in possession of land is also the owner of the fixtures thereon. Schmuck v. Beck, 72 Mont. 606, 234 Pac. 477.

The presumption declared by subdivision 11 of this section, to the effect that "things which a person possesses are owned by him" has reference to the present and not to the past; therefore an offered instruction in an action in conversion that if plaintiff's husband was in possession of the property in question prior to the time it was attached, the law presumes that he and not plaintiff was its owner, was properly refused. Wray v. Great Falls Paper Co., 72 Mont. 461, 234 Pac. 486.

That a bill of exceptions was presented, settled and signed within the time provided by statute must be made to appear affirmatively in the record and may not be supplied by the presumption that the trial court in settling and signing it was acting in the lawful exercise of its jurisdiction. O'Donnell v. City of Butte, 72 Mont. 449, 235 Pac. 707.

The burden of establishing want of probable cause for making an arrest and seizure under the liquor law without a warrant is upon him who asserts it. State ex rel. Hansen v. District Court, 72 Mont. 245, 233 Pac. 126.

The presumption that a person takes ordinary care of his own concerns is a disputable one and does not apply where the surrounding facts and circumstances show the contrary. Roberts v. Chicago, M. & St. P. Ry. Co., 67 Mont. 472, 216 Pac. 332.

Plaintiff in an action for malicious prosecution was not required to prove that the complaint against him was actually filed, where defendant admitted that he subscribed and swore to it, in view of the presumption arising, upon proof that a warrant was issued and proceedings had under it, that official duty was regularly performed and that the complaint was duly filed. Hawley v. Richardson, 60 Mont. 118, 198 Pac. 450.

PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE—MEANS OF PRODUCTION—SUBPOENA.

10618. Subpoena for witness defined.

Cited in Helena Adjustment Co. v. Clafin, 75 Mont. 317, 326, 243 Pac. 1063.

10622. When a witness is compelled to attend.

A material witness who resided outside the county in which the case was tried, at a distance greater than thirty miles and voluntarily attended the trial at the request of the prevailing party and had to wait for about a week before he was required to testify, on account of congestion of court business, was entitled to per diem for the whole time he was in attendance, and not only for the day on which he gave his testimony, as well as to mileage, the service of a subpoena not being a prerequisite to their allowance. Helena Adjustment Co. v. Clafin, 75 Mont. 317, 243 Pac. 1063.

CHAPTER 14.

DEPOSITIONS—HOW TAKEN WITHOUT AND WITHIN THE STATE.

10645. In the state—When taken.

Before a party to a civil action can subject his adversary to a contempt proceeding for refusal to answer as a witness under this section, authorizing his deposition to be taken prior to trial, the questions must have been pertinent and legal, hence the affidavit charging contempt must so state and must also disclose that, prima facie, he has a cause of action and that the witness is in possession of facts pertinent to the matter in issue which he has refused to divulge after being served with a subpoena. State ex rel. Bacorn v. District Court, 73 Mont. 297, 236 Pac. 553.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 9 Cal. Jur. 402.

CHAPTER 15.

GENERAL RULES OF EXAMINATION.

10660. Witness not under examination may be excluded.

The matter of excluding witnesses from the courtroom is one addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court and where no prejudice is shown its refusal to exclude will not be disturbed on appeal; and generally, officers such as members of the sheriff's force are exempted from the rule permitting exclusion on the trial of a criminal case. State v. Walsh, 72 Mont. 110, 232 Pac. 194.

Refusal to permit a witness for defendant in a criminal prosecution to testify on a matter material to his defense, on the ground that the witness had violated an order of court excluding witnesses during the taking of testimony, is reversible error where the witness was ignorant of the rule and neither defendant nor his counsel was responsible for or knew of his presence in the courtroom. State v. Johnson, 62 Mont. 503, 205 Pac. 661.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 224; vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 63.

10661. Court may control mode of interrogation.

Where on cross-examination of a witness every material and proper question was answered and the ground upon every point covered fully, the district court may, under this section, stop the production of further evidence upon the subject. State v. Cassill et al., 70 Mont. 433, 227 Pac. 49.

Cited in State v. McConville, 64 Mont. 302, 306, 209 Pac. 987.

Right to limit number of witnesses, notes, 21 A. L. R. 335; 48 A. L. R. 947.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 62, 65.

10664. When witness may refresh memory from notes.

Refusal to permit a witness to refresh his memory from a book of accounts was proper, under this section, where it appeared that the entries had been copied from other memorandum-books, that he did not know when nor by whom some of them were made, but knew that a portion of them was copied after the dates of the original entries and that some of them might not be exact as to dates.

McLean v. Rice, 63 Mont. 556, 208 Pac. 252.

Cited as section 8020, Revised Codes, in State v. Bennett, 60 Mont. 355, 360, 199 Pac. 276.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 10 Cal. Jur. 891; vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 86 et seq.

10665. Cross-examination, as to what.

Where plaintiff in her case in chief in an action on a promissory note did not go into the matter of consideration, defendant was improperly permitted on cross-examination to propound questions with relation thereto, under this section, making cross-examination proper only as to facts stated in the witness' direct examination or connected therewith. Alley v. Butte & Western Mining Co., 77 Mont. 477, 251 Pac. 517.

While the statute with relation to cross-examination of witnesses should be liberally construed and the extent to which a witness may be cross-examined with respect to collateral matters is largely within the discretion of the trial court, where the evidence sought to be elicited is clearly immaterial for any purpose, the court may properly exclude it. State v. McClain et al., 76 Mont. 351, 246 Pac. 956.

The provision of this section, that a party may cross-examine a witness of his opponent on any facts stated in his direct examination or connected therewith, has reference to material matters; hence where plaintiff, though relieved by admissions in the answer from offering any evidence, did testify to immaterial matters, refusal to permit defendant to cross-examine him was not an abuse of discretion. Courtney v. Gordon, 74 Mont. 408, 241 Pac. 233.

In a prosecution for permitting gambling to be conducted on the premises of defendant, where his wife had testified that while certain games were permitted to be played there never had been any gambling permitted, cross-examination as to the manner in which the games were conducted and as to her knowledge of what took place, was proper. State v. Mott, 72 Mont. 306, 233 Pac. 602.

Where matters inquired into on cross-examination are relevant to the subject matter of the examination in chief and of informative value to the jury upon the question under consideration, the cross-examination is proper. McCarthy v. Anaconda Copper Mining Co., 70 Mont. 309, 225 Pac. 391.

Cited in Downey et al. v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 72 Mont. 166, 180, 232 Pac. 531; State v. Richardson, 63 Mont. 322, 329, 207 Pac. 124.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 92 et seq.

10666. Party producing witness, how far may impeach his credit.

A letter written by the president of a corporation to its manager urging the latter to borrow money for the use of the company, on the strength of which he obtained funds from his wife on a corporation note, was admissible as tending to show that such officer, called by plaintiff as a witness and who on cross-examination had testified that the company was in good financial condition and needed no money, had made statements inconsistent with such testimony, and was therefore not open to the objection that plaintiff attempted to impeach her own witness. Alley v. Butte & Western Mining Co., 77 Mont. 477, 251 Pac. 517.

Before a party producing a witness may contradict his testimony, he must make a showing that he was misled or taken by surprise by what the witness said. Dick v. King, 73 Mont. 456, 236 Pac. 1093.

Before a party may contradict his own witness by showing inconsistent statements, he must, under this section, make a showing that he was misled or taken by surprise. State v. Richardson, 63 Mont. 322, 207 Pac. 124.

10669. Same—By evidence of declarations.

Where a witness who had been asked on cross-examination whether at a previous trial he had not given certain testimony replied that he did not remember, exclusion of an offer to prove on rebuttal by a witness who had heard him testify on that occasion that he did so testify was error under this section. Wingate v. Davis et al., 77 Mont. 572, 252 Pac. 307.

Cited in State v. Kacar, 74 Mont. 269, 282, 240 Pac. 365; State v. Richardson, 63 Mont. 322, 330, 207 Pac. 124.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 27 Cal. Jur. 117, 151-169.

10670. Evidence of good character—When allowed.

A witness for defendant gave evidence tending to establish an alibi. The state in rebuttal called witnesses who testified that the reputation of the alibi witness was bad. On surrebuttal the defendant sought to introduce testimony that the general reputation of his witness was good; the court declined to hear it.

Held reversible error. State v. Jackson, 71 Mont. 421, 230 Pac. 370.

CHAPTER 16.

EFFECT OF EVIDENCE.

10672. Jury judges of effect of evidence, but to be instructed on certain points.

That degree of proof in a criminal case which produces conviction in an unprejudiced mind is denominated "moral certainty" and "moral certainty" and the phrase "beyond a reasonable doubt" as employed in this section providing that conviction can be secured only upon evidence which establishes guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, are synonymous. State v. Mun, 76 Mont. 278, 246 Pac. 257.

An instruction that where a witness has wilfully testified falsely as to a material matter in the case, the jury may disregard any and all of his testimony, except in so far as it was corroborated by other credible evidence, held erroneous, the statute going no further than to provide that the jury may look with distrust upon the testimony of any witness found to have so testified, making no exception in favor of one who has been corroborated.

Vande Veegaete v. Vande Veegaete, 75 Mont. 52, 243 Pac. 1082; State v. Belland, 59 Mont. 540, 197 Pac. 841.

The propriety of submitting instructions to the jury based upon the rules prescribed by this section, for weighing evidence, is a matter addressed to the trial court, and its determination is subject to review only for abuse of discretion; ordinarily an instruction in the words of section 10508 is sufficient. State v. Sedlacek, 74 Mont. 201, 202, 239 Pac. 1002.

Evidence of oral admissions must be viewed with caution, especially so where the party alleged to have made the admission is dead. Humble v. St. John et al., 72 Mont. 519, 234 Pac. 475.

An instruction commenting on the manner in which the jury should view the evidence of detectives employed for Cited in State ex rel. Foot v. District Court et al., 72 Mont. 374, 378, 233 Pac. 957.

10723. Felony and misdemeanor defined.

Where an offense which is not divisible into degrees and does not include a lesser offense is punishable either as a misdemeanor or as a felony in the discretion of the court or jury, it is the possible sentence which determines the grade of the crime; hence it is to be deemed a felony up to the time of judgment, whereupon, if the punishment inflicted be other than imprisonment in the state prison, it is to be considered a misdemeanor for all purposes, under this section. State v. Atlas, 75 Mont. 547, 244 Pac. 477.

10728. Drunkenness no excuse for crime—When it may be considered—How insanity must be proven. 1. No act committed by a person while in a state of voluntary intoxication is less criminal by his being in said condition. But, whenever the actual existence of any particular purpose, motive, or intent, is a necessary element to constitute any particular species or degree of crime, the jury may take into consideration the fact that the accused was intoxicated at the time, in determining the purpose, motive or intent with which he committed the act.

2. When the commission of the act charged as a crime is proven, and the defense sought to be established is the insanity of the defendant, the same must be proven by the defendant by a preponderance of the testimony; provided, however, that said defendant may have his sanity or insanity determined in the manner provided by law, by requesting the district court to determine the same, at any time before the jury is obtained.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 87, L. 1925.

Under this section as amended, defendant charged with homicide has the burden of proving his defense of insanity by a preponderance of the testimony, and an instruction that the state was required to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he was sane was erroneous. State v. Vetere, 76 Mont. 574, 248 Pac. 179.

10731. Classification of parties to crime.

Cited in State v. McClain et al., 76 Mont. 351, 357, 246 Pac. 956.

10732. Who are principals.

An instruction defining "principals" as all persons who "aid or abet" in the commission of an offense, instead of "aid and abet" as used in this section, is incorrect. State v. McClain et al., 76 Mont. 351, 246 Pac. 956.

In a prosecution against husband and wife for the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor, evidence showing that while the wife was present at their home where the sale was made by the husband, all she did was to refer the buyer to him upon request for the liquor, remaining otherwise passive, held insufficient to justify her conviction on the theory that by her presence and acquiescence in what was done by the husband she was guilty as a principal under this section. State v.

Cornish et al., 73 Mont. 205, 235 Pac. 702.

An instruction that all persons concerned in the commission of a crime, whether it be a felony or misdemeanor, and whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense or aid and abet in its commission, are principals, correctly state the law. State v. Peters et al., 72 Mont. 12, 231 Pac. 392.

CHAPTER 4.

SEDITION—CRIMINAL SYNDICALISM—DISPLAY OF RED FLAG.

10737. Sedition defined.

An information charging defendant with saying that the injuries to Belgian children exhibited in the United States were sustained in factories, and were not the result of German atrocities; that the murder of the Armenians was nothing; that the Armenians were heathens; that it was a mean trick for Germans to mutilate and mangle American prisoners of war, held not to charge sedition as defined in this section. State v. McGlynn, 60 Mont. 416, 199 Pac. 708.

Since ultimate facts constituting the crime charged, and not conclusions drawn by the pleader from the facts, must be stated in an information, clauses following each of several alleged seditious utterances explaining and interpreting what defendant meant by the language used, held improper in an information charging sedition under this section. State v. McGlynn, 60 Mont. 416, 199 Pac. 708.

Language uttered by the defendant during the war, the effect of which was to suggest to the mind that the German government was superior to, and ought to be substituted for, the government of the United States, held to have been seditious under the provisions of this section. State v. Schaffer, 59 Mont. 463, 197 Pac. 986.

Refusal of an instruction on the question of the defendant's intent was properly refused, the controlling feature of the sedition act being the effect of the language charged and not the intent of the defendant when uttering it. State v. Schaffer, 59 Mont. 463, 197 Pac. 986.

This section before amendment was held not to be open to the constitutional objection that its subject matter is one upon which the congress alone may legislate. State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 196 Pac. 992.

10775. Definition of terms.

Cited in State ex rel. Wheeler v. Stewart, 71 Mont. 358, 230 Pac. 366.

10805. Time for commencing contest.

Under this section, an election contest of a county office based on the ground that illegal votes had been cast and counted for the contestee in numbers sufficient to change the result must be commenced within forty days after the county clerk delivers the returns to the county board for the purpose of being canvassed. Wilkinson v. LaCombe, 59 Mont. 518, 197 Pac. 836.

10813. Contents of contest petition — Amendment — Bond — Costs — Citation—Precedence.

An election contest is not commenced unless the filing of the bond required by this section, is substantially contemporaneous with the filing of the petition; hence where the petition was filed on November 20th and the last day on which the contest could be commenced was on December 15th, but the bond was not filed until December 22d, the proceedings were properly dismissed. Wilkinson v. LaCombe, 59 Mont. 518, 197 Pac. 836.

CHAPTER 7.

OFFENSES BY PUBLIC OFFICERS.

10823. Giving or offering bribes to executive officers.

Sections 10823, 10824 were cited in State ex rel. Beazley v. District Court, 75 Mont. 116, 119, 241 Pac. 1075.

10824. Asking or receiving bribes.

To charge an officer (a sheriff) with bribery under this section, the accusation must allege that defendant had asked, received or agreed to receive the bribe upon an understanding that his official action should be influenced thereby; hence a charge that the briber gave the officer money with intent to influence the latter's official action, while sufficient to charge bribery against the giver, was insufficient to charge the offense against the accused, and therefore insufficient to charge him with wilful or corrupt malfeasance in office. State ex rel. Beazley v. District Court, 75 Mont. 116, 241 Pac. 1075.

RESCUES AND ESCAPES.

10865. Retaking goods from custody of officer.

Where the evidence showed that defendant had planned to commit robbery by taking personal property from the custody of an officer who had seized it as stolen property, an instruction offered on the theory based on this section and 10894, that he had merely committed a misdemeanor in attempting to take and destroy evidence, and therefore could not be held guilty of murder in the first degree in the absence of a showing of premeditation, deliberation and malice, was properly refused as not applicable to the evidence. State v. Reagin, 64 Mont. 481, 210 Pac. 86.

CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY—UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION.

10904. Unfair discrimination in purchase price of commodities. Any person, firm, company, association, or corporation, either domestic or foreign, doing business in the state of Montana, and engaged in the business of buying, selling, producing, manufacturing, or distributing any commodity or product in general use, that shall, for the purpose of creating a monopoly or destroying the business of a regularly established dealer in such commodity or product, or to prevent the competition of any person, firm, company, association, or corporation who in good faith intends or attempts to become such dealer, shall discriminate between different persons, sections, communities, or portion thereof, or parts of the state of Montana, by purchasing any commodity or product in general use at a higher rate or price in one section, city, or community, or any portion thereof, than such person, firm, company, association, or corporation pays for such commodity or product in another section, city, or community, after making due allowance for the difference in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale, storage, or distribution, and for the difference in the grade and quality of such commodity, or product, shall be deemed guilty of unfair discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful.

Proof that any person, firm, company, association, or corporation has paid a higher rate or price for any such commodity or product in one section, city, or community, or any portion thereof, than such person, firm, company, association or corporation paid for such commodity or product in another section, city or community, or portion thereof, after making due allowance for the difference in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale, storage, or distribution, and for the difference in the grade and quality of such commodity, or product, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this act; provided, however, that the payment of such higher rate or price in one section, city or community, or any portion thereof, than each person, firm, company, association or corporation pays for such commodity or product in another section, city or community, after making such allowance as above provided, shall not be deemed to be unfair discrimination provided such higher rate or price is paid for the purpose of meeting the rate or price set by a competitor in such section, city or community, but the burden of proof of such fact shall be upon the person, firm, company, association or corporation charged with unfair discrimination.

10955. Degrees of murder.

Under this section, making all murder committed in the perpetration of or attempt to perpetrate any of the crimes therein mentioned murder in the first degree, an information charging that the killing was wilful, deliberate, premeditated and with malice aforethought is sufficient to admit of proof that the killing was committed in the perpetration or attempt to perpetrate any one of such felonies. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

Where defendant, after robbing a bank, escaped in an automobile with the money, pursuit being at once begun and continued uninterruptedly for about thirty miles and shot one of the pursuers, an instruction that if the jury believed that defendant committed the crime of robbery and while escaping killed deceased, he was guilty of murder in the first degree, was proper under this section, the robbery at the time of the shooting having then still been in the process of commission. State v. Jackson, 71 Mont. 421, 230 Pac. 370.

Where a homicide is committed in the perpetration of or attempt to perpetrate any of the crimes mentioned in this section, it is murder in the first degree, and the court need not in its instructions define murder of the second degree or manslaughter. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

Where homicide is committed in the perpetration of or attempt to perpetrate robbery the result is murder in the first degree, irrespective of the absence of intent in the accused to commit the latter crime, it being sufficient for conviction if he was capable of entertaining the felonious intent to commit robbery. State v. Reagin, 64 Mont. 481, 210 Pac. 86.

Cited in State v. Mumford, 69 Mont. 424, 435, 222 Pac. 447.

10962. Proof of corpus delicti.

Under this section, the only fact required to be proved directly to establish the corpus delicti in a murder case is the death of the person alleged to have been killed, but the identity of such person, if in doubt, and the fact that defendant did the killing may be proved by direct, or by indirect or circumstantial evidence. State v. Kindle et al., 71 Mont. 58, 227 Pac. 65.

In prosecutions for murder, proof of the corpus delicti involves the establishment of the fact that a murder has been committed, but it comprehends neither the identity of the person alleged to have been killed nor the killing by the person accused. State v. Riggs, 61 Mont. 25, 201 Pac. 272.

CHAPTER 20.

ASSAULTS.

10976. Assault in the first degree defined—Penalty.

In an information charging assault with a deadly weapon the words following the description of the weapon, "to wit, an instrument about a foot long with the knob on the striking end," are surplusage, the only effect of which was to confine the prosecution to proof of an assault with the instrument described and not with some other. State v. Maggert et al., 64 Mont. 331, 209 Pac. 989.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 202.

CHAPTER 22.

LIBEL.

10989. Libel defined.

Language used in a newspaper article charging a public officer with "graft" and

"dirty work," and that he had formed a collusive partnership with other persons, examined and held libelous per se in State v. Winterrowd, 77 Mont. 74, 249 Pac. 664.

CHAPTER 23.

RAPE—ABDUCTION—CARNAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN—ADULTERY AND SEDUCTION—PROSTITUTION OF WOMEN.

11000. Rape defined.

Cited in State v. Hennessy, 73 Mont. 20, 22, 234 Pac. 1094; State v. Richardson, 63 Mont. 322, 332, 207 Pac. 124.

11008. Importation and exportation of females for immoral purposes.

Where, under an information charging defendant with a violation of the White Slavery Act, in aiding an unmarried woman to obtain transportation from one county to a point in another county, the evidence of the state disclosed no more than that the accused on a certain day conveyed the woman from one point to another in the same county after which they were not again seen together until some five months thereafter, when they were found in another state living together in a state of adultery, it was insufficient to warrant conviction under the information. State v. Berndt, 60 Mont. 377, 199 Pac. 444.

This and the following sections of the White Slave Act held not unconstitutional as violative of section 23, article V, of the constitution, which provides that the title of an act shall not embrace more than one subject. State v. Pippi, 59 Mont. 116, 195 Pac. 556.

11015. Accepting money from earnings of prostitute a felony.

Since rules of evidence are subject to legislative control except for constitutional restrictions, the provision of this section, making the acceptance of money from a prostitute presumptive evidence of lack of consideration is valid, and in enacting it the legislature did not transgress its power. State v. Pippi, 59 Mont. 116, 195 Pac. 556.

Receipt of money without consideration from a prostitute is sufficient to complete the crime denounced by this section, it being immaterial whether payment was made voluntarily or under compulsion. State v. Pippi, 59 Mont. 116, 195 Pac. 556.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 20 Cal. Jur. 391.

CHAPTER 28.

SUNDRY OFFENSES AGAINST GOOD MORALS.

11039. Keeping open certain places on Sunday a misdemeanor.

This section, prohibiting the keeping open of dance-halls, dance-houses, etc., on Sunday, is not invalid as making an arbitrary classification between dance-halls and theaters, by exempting the latter places of amusement from the operation of the act, although prior thereto they had been included in one class subject to police regulation. State v. Loomis, 75 Mont. 88, 242 Pac. 344.

The state has the right to prescribe the territorial limits within which dance-houses or dance-halls may be conducted on Sunday; therefore this section, providing that a dance-hall or pavilion in a public park or playground may operate on Sunday under certain conditions, while one located outside thereof must remain closed on that day does not arbitrarily discriminate between subjects of the same class, but does create two distinct classes based upon location, and hence is not objectionable as denying the equal protection of the law. State v. Loomis, 75 Mont. 88, 242 Pac. 344.

A dance-house or dance-hall is a place maintained for promiscuous and public dancing, the rules for admission to which are not based upon personal invitation or selection. State v. Loomis, 75 Mont. 88, 242 Pac. 344.

This section, prohibiting the operation of dance-halls, dance-houses, etc., on Sunday, "or any other place of amusement where any intoxicating liquors are sold," construed, on application for writ of habeas corpus, and held, in view of the history of the legislation on Sunday observance and the rule of the construction infra, to interdict the operation of a dance-hall on Sunday, even though intoxicating liquors are not sold therein. In re Klune, 74 Mont. 332, 240 Pac. 286.

11039.1. Certain minors not to attend public dance-halls. Every owner, proprietor, manager or employee of a public dance-hall or a place where public dances are held, who encourages or permits a minor under the age of sixteen years to be, remain in, or frequent such hall or place while a public dance is in progress, without being accompanied by his or her parent or legal guardian, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 49, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 29.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS—SALE TO MINORS—REPEAL OF LAWS.

11048. Definition of terms.

Moonshine whisky is "whisky," within the meaning of this section, illicitly distilled or produced. State v. Sedlacek, 74 Mont. 201, 239 Pac. 1002.

Under this section, in a prosecution for unlawfully possessing and transporting intoxicating liquor, the state is not required to prove that the liquor (beer) was fit for beverage purposes. State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 220 Pac. 97.

In an information charging the selling "of certain intoxicating liquors known as whisky" the word "whisky" was surplusage and the failure of the state to prove that the liquor sold was whisky was not a fatal variance. State v. Jenkins, 66 Mont. 359, 213 Pac. 590.

In an information drawn under the above section the omission to use the word "unlawfully" modifying the verb "possess" does not render the information defective. State v. Jenkins, 66 Mont. 359, 213 Pac. 590.

Sections 11048-11087 held not invalid as in contravention of section 11, article VII of the state constitution, under the rule that a subject submitted to the legislative assembly while in extraordinary session, is before it for consideration to the same extent as if, specifically mentioned in the governor's proclamation calling it. State v. Dishman, 64 Mont. 530, 210 Pac. 604; State v. Brush, 65 Mont. 90, 210 Pac. 605.

The fundamental purpose of the legislative assembly in enacting the Prohibition Enforcement Act, was to harmonize the state act with the provisions of the federal statute. State v. Marchindo, 65 Mont. 431, 211 Pac. 1093.

Sections 11048-11086, amendatory of sections 11100-11122, must be construed as supplemental to and read with the latter act as constituting one general legislative plan for the enforcement of the Prohibition Act. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

Sections 11048-11086 were cited in State v. Duncan, 74 Mont. 428, 434, 240 Pac. 978.

Sections 11048-11133 were cited in State ex rel. Lamey v. Young, 72 Mont. 408, 416, 234 Pac. 248.

11048.1. Penalty for sale of liquor to minors. Any person who shall sell, give away or dispose of intoxicating liquors to a minor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for the first offense, be punishable by a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars and by imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year in the county jail, and for the second and subsequent offenses, he shall be guilty of a felony and punishable by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than one year, nor more than two years. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the furnishing of intoxicating liquor to minors upon any physician's prescription where authorized by the laws of the United States nor the furnishing of wine for sacramental purposes.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 122, L. 1927.

11048.2. Definition of terms. When used in this act, or in any other laws of the state relating to intoxicating liquors, the word "liquor" or the phrase "intoxicating liquor" shall be construed to include alcohol, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin, beer, ale, porter and wine and in addition thereto any spirituous, vinous, malt, or fermented liquor, liquids, and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called containing one-half of one per centum, or more of alcohol by volume which are fit for use for beverage purposes; provided, that the foregoing definition shall not extend to de-alcoholized wine, nor to any beverage or liquid produced by the process by which beer, ale, porter, or wine is produced, if it contains less than one-half of one per centum of alcohol by volume.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 122, L. 1927.

11048.3. Repeal of state prohibition laws. That sections 11048, 11049, 11050, 11051, 11052, 11053, 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, 11058, 11059, 11060, 11061, 11062, 11063, 11064, 11065, 11066, 11067, 11068, 11069, 11070, 11072, 11074, 11076, 11077, 11078, 11080, 11081, 11082, 11083, 11085, 11086, 11087, 11088, 11089, 11090, 11091, 11092, 11093, 11094, 11095, 11096, 11097, 11098, 11099, 11100, 11101, 11102, 11103, 11104, 11105, 11106, 11108, 11109, 11110, 11111, 11112, 11113, 11114, 11115, 11116, 11117, 11118, 11119, 11120, 11121, 11122; also sections 11071, 11075, 11079, 11084 and 11084A as amended by chapter 116, of the Laws of the Eighteenth Legislative Assembly of 1923; and also sections 11073 and 11107 as amended by chapter 78 of the Laws of the Nineteenth Legislative Assembly of 1925, being all of chapter 29 of the Revised Codes of 1921 as above amended, relating to intoxicating liquors and regulations governing manufacture, sale and use thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed.

NOTE.—This measure became a law by virtue of the governor's proclamation on November 20, 1926, having been enacted by the people as Initiative Measure No. 30.

11049. Liquor traffic prohibited—Exceptions.

"Transportation" of liquor defined in State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 237 Pac. 486.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574; State v. Duncan, 74

Mont. 428, 435, 240 Pac. 978; State v. Charette, 75 Mont. 78, 80, 242 Pac. 343; State v. Archambault, 72 Mont. 259, 263, 232 Pac. 1107; State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 396, 211 Pac. 321.

11052. Sales without permit, when prohibited—Exceptions.

Under a charge of unlawfully possessing whisky claimed by defendant to have been procured by her for her husband by advice of a physician, defendant could justify such possession only by a showing that it was obtained under a permit or by a physician's prescription. State v. Charette, 75 Mont. 78, 242 Pac. 343.

Sections 11052, 11053 were cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574.

Sections 11052, 11055, 11058, 11059 and 11060 were cited in State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 381, 237 Pac. 486.

11060. Unlawful to accept packages with false statements.

Sections 11060-11063 were cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574.

11064. Certain solicitation forbidden.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574.

11066. Common nuisance defined—Misdemeanor—Lien on premises.

The legislature may, within the constitutional limits of its power, declare any act criminal and make the repetition or continuance thereof a public nuisance, so as to enable the courts on conviction to pronounce judgment of abatement or to vest in courts of equity the power to abate them by injunction, and in enacting sections 11066-11069, Revised Codes of 1921, declaring certain acts and places with reference to violations of the Prohibition Act common nuisances which may be restrained by injunction, and providing punishment by means of contempt proceedings, it did not transcend its power. State ex rel. Stewart v. District Court, 77 Mont. 361, 49 A. L. R. 627, 251 Pac. 137.

In a prosecution for maintaining a liquor nuisance under this section, evidence of the general reputation of the place where the nuisance was alleged to have existed as one where intoxicating liquor was kept and sold was inadmissible, in the absence of a statute making it admissible. State v. Peters et al., 72 Mont. 12, 231 Pac. 392.

An employee who has charge of the place of business of his employer and sells intoxicating liquor therein during the latter's absence is guilty of maintaining a nuisance within the meaning of this section 11066. State v. Peters et al., 72 Mont. 12, 231 Pac. 392.

Instruction defining the word "maintain" employed in this section, making the maintaining of a liquor nuisance a misdemeanor, held inadequate. State v. Peters et al., 72 Mont. 12, 231 Pac. 392.

This section and section 11607 are not in conflict with sections 11124, 11125 but supplement said sections and therefore do not supersede them. State ex rel. Bourquin v. Morris et al., 67 Mont. 40, 214 Pac. 332.

One sale of intoxicating liquor, without repetition, with no other evidence of law violation or facts strongly indicating either habitual sales, continued violation or such recurrence of unlawful acts as to colorably indicate the unlawful character of the use of the place, is insufficient to establish its character as a common nuisance within the meaning of the Prohibition Act. State v. Jenkins, 66 Mont. 359, 213 Pac. 590.

In a prosecution for maintaining a common nuisance under this section, made supplemental to and a part of the laws relating to intoxicating liquors, the district court had original jurisdiction, under section 11122, conferring upon the district court original jurisdiction for violations of liquor laws and continued in force by the act of 1921, notwithstanding the offense is made a misdemeanor by this section, punishable by a fine not exceeding $500 and imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding six months, and therefore otherwise triable in a justice court under section 11630, Revised Codes of 1921. State v. Bowker, 63 Mont. 1, 205 Pac. 961.

Cited in State v. Mercier et al., 70 Mont. 333, 334, 225 Pac. 802.

Cited in State v. Lewis, 67 Mont. 447, 449, 216 Pac. 337.

11067. Action to enjoin nuisance—Injunction—Order of court—Bond.

For case involving the abatement of a building as a gambling and liquor nuisance and discussion of the sufficiency of the judgment of abatement, see State ex rel. Lamey v. Young, 72 Mont. 408, 234 Pac. 248.

A judgment in an abatement proceeding that the place in question be closed and kept closed "until released in the manner provided by law," construed to mean that the premises should not be occupied or used for one year unless the court should sooner permit them to be occupied or used, and not open to the objection that it did not conform to the provisions of this section. State v. Mercier et al., 70 Mont. 333, 225 Pac. 802.

This section is not invalid in so far as it authorizes the trial court upon finding that a particular place is a common nuisance within the meaning of section 11066, in addition to ordering it closed, to direct that it shall not be occupied or used for one year thereafter. State v. Mercier et al., 70 Mont. 333, 225 Pac. 802.

In a proceeding under this section, to abate as a common nuisance a rooming-house where intoxicating liquor was being illegally kept and sold, providing that the "action shall be brought and tried as an action in equity," the defendant is not entitled to a jury trial. State v. Mercier et al., 70 Mont. 333, 225 Pac. 802.

Applied with section 11066 in State ex rel. Bourquin v. Morris et al., 67 Mont. 40, 42, 214 Pac. 332.

11070. Unlawful possession of liquor—Property right.

This section, a part of the state Prohibition Law, declaring unlawful the possession of liquor or property designed for the manufacture of liquor intended for use in violation of the act, and that no property right shall exist in such liquor or property, does not merely apply to proceedings in rem against contraband articles, but, taken in connection with section 11073 fixing the penalty, defines a public offense. State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 249 Pac. 574.

The crime defined by this section is a statutory one enacted under the police power of the state which the legislature may enact without regard to a criminal intent in the wrongdoer; hence an information drafted under it is not rendered defective in the absence of an allegation that defendant committed the act complained of with a specific intent to violate the provisions of the act. State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 249 Pac. 574.

That articles charged to have been unlawfully possessed under this section were "property designed for the manufacture of liquor intended for use" may be shown by either direct or circumstantial evidence, and testimony by an officer that he found among other things, 500 gallons of "mash" in a high state of fermentation nearly ready to be made into whisky, was sufficient to show a violation of the provisions of the section. State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 249 Pac. 574.

The presumption being that eighty-eight gallons of uncolored moonshine whisky, stills, etc., seized under a void search-warrant, were contraband in which, under this section, no property rights exist, the supreme court, on application for writ of prohibition to prevent their use as evidence against relator from whose premises they were taken under a void search-warrant, will not decree their return to him, but will leave him to his remedy at law, if any he have. State ex rel. King v. District Court, 70 Mont. 191, 224 Pac. 862.

Cited in State v. Hoppins, 68 Mont. 504, 511, 219 Pac. 1106; State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 396, 211 Pac. 321.

11071. Complaint—Search-warrant, form and issuance.

A justice of the peace court being one of limited jurisdiction, the fact that the approval of the county attorney to the issuance of a search-warrant must affirmatively appear from the record on application for writ to prohibit the use of evidence obtained by the search, but in the absence of any statutory requirement in chapter 116, L. 1923, amendatory of this section, of how the approval shall be evidenced, a recital that his approval was obtained is prima facie sufficient to establish the fact. State ex rel. Baracker v. District Court, 75 Mont. 476, 244 Pac. 280.

Recital in an affidavit for a search-warrant that "I personally saw a keg of intoxicating beverages in said barn" was held sufficient, if believed by the magistrate, to show probable cause for the issuance of the warrant, in State ex rel. Baracker v. District Court, 75 Mont. 476, 244 Pac. 280.

Chapter 116, L. 1923, amending this section and sections 11075 and 11079, increasing the punishment for the unlawful transportation or possession of intoxicating liquor is not open to the attack that it contravenes the provisions of section 23, article V, of the constitution, in that the purpose to increase the punishment is not indicated in its title. State v. Duncan, 74 Mont. 428, 240 Pac. 978.

In view of the fact that this section, as amended (as well as section 11104), authorizing the issuance of search-warrants in liquor cases, speaks, in the present tense, violation of the law on a given day does not constitute probable cause for believing that like illegal acts were being committed twenty-five days afterward, in the absence of anything to indicate that the character of the then operations had not changed in the meantime. State v. Gardner, 74 Mont. 377, 240 Pac. 984.

A search-warrant issued without the approval of the county attorney is void. State v. Ladue, 73 Mont. 535, 237 Pac. 495.

Information imparted to an officer that an automobile containing liquor would appear at a certain place after dark, and proof that the person driving it had the reputation of being a bootlegger who had been a constant source of trouble to the sheriff's office and had before been caught in the act of transporting liquor, are insufficient bases for either the issuance of a search-warrant or an arrest without a warrant. State ex rel. Hansen v. District Court, 72 Mont. 245, 233 Pac. 126.

An affidavit based upon hearsay statements such as that affiant was informed by various persons that they had purchased liquor at a certain place, that liquor was manufactured and kept for sale there, and that "it is a notorious fact" in and around the locality that liquor could be procured on the premises, was insufficient to justify the issuance of a search-warrant. State ex rel. Merrill v. District Court, 72 Mont. 77, 231 Pac. 1107.

Under the rule that where the legislature confers jurisdiction upon a justice's court where none existed before, it must be exercised in the manner and within the limits stated, a search-warrant issued by a justice of the peace under this section, without the approval of the county attorney was void. State ex rel. Skrukud v. District Court, 71 Mont. 570, 230 Pac. 1089.

Where a search-warrant contained a sufficient description of the premises to be searched its validity was not affected by the improper use of the word "partially" by the legislature in enacting this section, under which it was issued. State ex rel. Skrukud v. District Court, 71 Mont. 570, 230 Pac. 1089.

This section, conferring jurisdiction upon justices' courts to issue search-warrants in liquor cases is not rendered invalid as in contravention of section 7, article III, of the constitution by the erroneous use of the word "partially" instead of "particularly" in providing that the complainant in his affidavit shall "partially" describe the premises to be searched. State ex rel. Skrukud v. District Court, 71 Mont. 570, 230 Pac. 1089.

If there be any conflict between the general provisions of the codes relating to search-warrants which provide that before a search-warrant may issue the deposition of the complainant must be taken, and this section, dealing with search-warrants in liquor cases and providing that a warrant may issue upon complaint verified by affidavit, the latter, being special in character, is controlling in a prosecution for a violation of the liquor law. State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 229 Pac. 727.

The provision of this section as amended by chapter 116, L. 1923, authorizing a justice of the peace to issue a search-warrant upon the filing of a verified complaint to the effect that the complainant believes that intoxicating liquor is being disposed of contrary to law, relates to a present existing condition and not to one which existed months before. State ex rel. Stange v. District Court, 71 Mont. 125, 227 Pac. 576.

For discussion of sufficiency of allegations to the effect that complainant "believed" that intoxicating liquors were being sold, etc., in a complaint for a search-warrant, see State ex rel. Stange v. District Court, 71 Mont. 125, 227 Pac. 576.

While under this section, as amended by chapter 116, L. 1923, a justice of the peace may, with the approval of the county attorney, issue search-warrants in cases involving violations of the liquor laws, the district court alone has jurisdiction to determine a forfeiture of the property seized. State v. Certain Intoxicating Liquors, 71 Mont. 79, 227 Pac. 472.

This section as amended in 1923, by which justices of the peace are given the same authority to issue search-warrants in liquor cases as is reposed in district judges, but by which no provision is made for certification of the proceedings by the justice of the peace to the district court, must be construed, by recourse to the general statutes relating to search-warrants, to require the justice of the peace to certify all proceedings in connection with the search-warrant issued by him to the district court forthwith after the return made to him by the officer serving the warrant. State v. Certain Intoxicating Liquors, 71 Mont. 79, 227 Pac. 472.

Where a justice of the peace who had issued a search-warrant in a liquor case did not certify the proceedings to the district court until two weeks had expired after return of the warrant made to him, the statute was not substantially complied with and the judgment of the district court ordering the property seized under the warrant was void, entitling the owner to a return of the property (other than the liquor seized). State v. Certain Intoxicating Liquors, 71 Mont. 79, 227 Pac. 472.

The variance between a search-warrant authorizing search of premises described as "609 A Street" and the return of the searching officer that he had searched "906 A Street" was fatal and not cured by the addition of the words in the return "as described in said warrant." State ex rel. Thibodeau v. District Court, 70 Mont. 202, 224 Pac. 866.

Expressions of opinion or belief founded upon suspicions based upon conjecture are insufficient to enable a magistrate issuing a warrant to say that probable cause for the issuance of the warrant exists. State ex rel. Thibodeau v. District Court, 70 Mont. 202, 224 Pac. 866.

The description contained in a warrant authorizing the search of a dwelling-house upon a certain quarter-section of land "and all outbuildings" was too indefinite, where the owner claimed that there were three dwelling-houses upon the land and the state contended that there was but one dwelling and that the other structures were bunkhouses and the like, and a seizure of liquor made in pursuance thereof was illegal. State ex rel. King v. District Court, 70 Mont. 191, 224 Pac. 862.

Where it is sought to search and seize property there must not be any obscurity or uncertainty; the warrant must be complete in itself and the description of the premises contained in the complaint cannot be made to aid that set forth in the warrant. State ex rel. King v. District Court, 70 Mont. 191, 224 Pac. 862.

Conceding (without deciding), that under this section as amended, a district judge may not issue a search-warrant without the approval of the county attorney first obtained, in the absence of a showing that such approval had not been given, it will be presumed that official duty was regularly performed and approval had in the manner required by law. State v. Tesla et al., 69 Mont. 503, 223 Pac. 107.

Sections 11071-11073 were cited in State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 381, 237 Pac. 486; as section 24, act of 1921, in State v. Bowker, 63 Mont. 1, 8, 205 Pac. 961.

11072. Form and execution of search-warrant.

Cited in State v. Rice, 73 Mont. 272, 275, 235 Pac. 716.

11073. Regulation of seizure, of vehicles and destruction of liquor.

When an officer discovers a person in the act of illegally transporting intoxicating liquor he must, under this section, arrest the person in charge thereof, seize the liquor and take possession of the vehicle used as the means of transportation. State ex rel. Brown v. District Court, 72 Mont. 213, 232 Pac. 201.

This section, authorizing an officer to seize intoxicating liquor discovered by him while being conveyed, in a wagon, automobile, etc., or "other vehicle," has no application to a case where the liquor seized was being carried in a handbag, the words "other vehicle" being limited in their meaning to the same general character of vehicles as those particularly enumerated in the section. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

Cited in State v. Duncan, 74 Mont. 428, 431, 240 Pac. 978.

11075. Penalty for violation of act and false report.

The provision of this section, as amended by chapter 116, L. 1923, requiring the district court upon conviction of a person for an offense against the Prohibition Act to enjoin such person perpetually from thereafter violating any of its provisions, is void in so far as it authorizes the issuance of injunction against the commission of offenses not denominated nuisances in the act, as permitting substitution of a summary trial of the offender by the court in a contempt proceeding, for the trial by jury guaranteed by the constitution. State ex rel. Stewart v. District Court, 77 Mont. 361, 49 A. L. R. 627, 251 Pac. 137.

Section 11121, so far as it prescribes the punishment for the unlawful possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor, for which offense a special penalty is not provided, was impliedly repealed by this section which is in conflict with section 11121 and therefore is controlling. State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 220 Pac. 97.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574; State v. Duncan, 74 Mont. 428, 240 Pac. 978; State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 381, 237 Pac. 486.

11076. Self-incrimination no excuse—Exemption.

The immunity against prosecution for a violation of the liquor laws granted by this section, to one who in obedience to a subpoena has testified in a prosecution against another which arose out of the same transaction on which the charge against him was based, extends only to a witness who testified in behalf of the prosecution, not one who testified for the defense. State v. Archambault, 72 Mont. 259, 232 Pac. 1107.

11078. Joinder of offenses—Rules of pleading.

Where defendant in a prosecution for a violation of the liquor law deems the information insufficient as to certain details he may, under this section, apply for a bill of particulars; his failure to do so, the pleading being otherwise sufficient, bars him from raising the question on appeal. State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 229 Pac. 402.

Section 11581 provides that an act made punishable in different provisions of the code cannot be punished under more than one. Section 11078 declares that separate offenses against the Intoxicating Liquor Law may be united in the information in separate counts and defendant tried at one trial and a penalty for all offenses imposed. Held, that the procedure pointed out by the latter section is controlling, and that the contention that it is violative of the constitutional provision that no person shall be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense is without merit. State v. Marchindo, 65 Mont. 431, 211 Pac. 1093.

An information charging unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor need not specify the nature of the liquor, in view of the provision of this section authorizing the court to direct that defendant be furnished a bill of particulars when deemed proper. State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 211 Pac. 321.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 15, 249 Pac. 574; In re Pyle, 72 Mont. 494, 497, 234 Pac. 254; State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 299, 229 Pac. 402; State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 63, 220 Pac. 80; State v. Jenkins, 66 Mont. 359, 364, 213 Pac. 590; State v. Fredericks, 65 Mont. 25, 27, 212 Pac. 495.

11079. Possession prima facie evidence—Burden of proof—Compromise of actions.

Possession of moonshine whisky is unlawful and such possession is prima facie evidence that the whisky was kept for unlawful purposes. State v. Kepler et al., 77 Mont. 307, 250 Pac. 603.

The possession of intoxicating liquor is made prima facie evidence by this section, that it is kept in violation of law, and the burden of proving lawful possession is upon the possessor. State ex rel. Muzzy v. Uotila et al., 71 Mont. 351, 229 Pac. 724.

Under this section, as amended, possession of intoxicating liquor is prima facie evidence that the possession is unlawful and that it is being kept for the purpose of being sold or otherwise disposed of in violation of the law, and the burden is upon defendant to prove that his possession of it was lawful. State v. Sawyer, 71 Mont. 269, 229 Pac. 734.

An instruction offered by defendant in a prosecution for the illegal possession of intoxicating liquor that the burden was upon the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the liquor was possessed by the defendant with intent to dispose of the same unlawfully was properly refused, this section providing otherwise. State v. Rice, 73 Mont. 272, 235 Pac. 716.

Under this section, as amended by section 3, chapter 116, L. 1923, the possession of intoxicating liquor is presumptively illegal, and the burden of justifying its acquisition, possession and use is upon the possessor. State v. Breeding, 73 Mont. 30, 234 Pac. 1097.

In a prosecution under the Prohibition Act for maintaining a common nuisance, an instruction in the language of this section shifting the burden of proof to defendant to show that liquors found in his possession were lawfully acquired, possessed and used, was correctly given. State v. Lewis, 67 Mont. 447, 216 Pac. 337.

The legislature may prescribe that which shall be prima facie evidence of guilt and shift to the defendant the necessity of satisfactory explanation, in the absence of express constitutional inhibition; hence, there being no such inhibition in the constitution, it had the power to provide in this section that "in any action"—thus including both criminal as well as civil actions—for a violation of the Prohibition Act the burden shall be upon the defendant to prove that liquor in his possession was lawfully acquired, possessed and used. State v. Lewis, 67 Mont. 447, 216 Pac. 337.

Cited in State v. Charette, 75 Mont. 78, 80, 242 Pac. 343; State v. Duncan, 74 Mont. 428, 240 Pac. 978; State ex rel. King v. District Court, 70 Mont. 191, 200, 224 Pac. 862; State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 398, 211 Pac. 321.

11085. Appointment, oath and removal of special officers.

A special enforcement officer is qualified to act as such immediately upon taking and subscribing the oath required by this section, the filing of the oath within thirty days after notice of his appointment not being a condition precedent to entering upon the discharge of his duties. State ex rel. Muzzy v. Uotila et al., 71 Mont. 351, 229 Pac. 724.

The secretary of the state board of examiners which is empowered by this section, to appoint special enforcement officers, is the secretary of state and not the clerk of that board, and therefore a copy of the minutes of the board certified by the clerk instead of its secretary—the legal custodian of its records—in an attempt to show the appointment of a special enforcement officer was properly excluded from the evidence. State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 219 Pac. 1096.

This section makes no provision for the appointment of a deputy special enforcement officer, and therefore the action of the state board of examiners in attempting to ratify such an appointment as a special enforcement officer after he had made a seizure as deputy was a nullity. State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 219 Pac. 1096.

11086. Scope of act.

Cited as section 39, chapter 9, Ex. L. 1921, in State ex rel. Hansen v. District Court, 72 Mont. 245, 250, 233 Pac. 126; State v. Knilians, 69 Mont. 8, 13, 220 Pac. 91; State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 5, 11100. Act an exercise of police powers.

The Prohibition Enforcement Act, in so far as it relates to the issuance of search-warrants, is in pari materia with the sections of the Revised Codes upon the subject, and must be construed accordingly. State ex rel. Samlin v. District Court, 59 Mont. 600, 198 Pac. 362.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 15, 249 Pac. 574.

This and following sections of the act were cited as chapter 143, L. 1917, in State ex rel. Green v. Wright, 61 Mont. 115, 201 Pac. 316; State ex rel. Goodwin v. Dishmon et al., 61 Mont. 117, 201 Pac. 286.

11102. Prohibition against dealing in intoxicating liquors in person or as agent.

Cited in State v. Gardner, 77 Mont. 8, 14, 249 Pac. 574.

11104. Issuance and execution of search-warrant—Seizure of intoxicating liquors.

A search-warrant issued under this section is not required to contain the name of any person or that it be directed against any person, it being sufficient if it describe the premises to be searched; therefore where the name "John Doe" was inserted, it was surplusage and hence the fact that defendant did not answer that description did not vitiate the warrant. State v. Rice, 73 Mont. 272, 235 Pac. 716.

To meet the requirements of the constitutional guaranty against unreasonable searches and seizures and of the sections of the Revised Codes upon the same subject, the affidavit or complaint upon which a search-warrant is asked under the Prohibition Enforcement Act must be based upon something more tangible than mere hearsay or rumor. State ex rel. Samlin v. District Court, 59 Mont. 600, 198 Pac. 362.

A complaint filed in the district court under the Prohibition Enforcement Act stating, in the form of a conclusion, that affiant "has probable cause to believe and does believe" that on a given day intoxicating liquors were being unlawfully possessed, kept, etc., on certain premises, was insufficient to give the district court or judge jurisdiction to issue a search-warrant; the warrant issued in pursuance thereof was violative of the inhibition contained in section 7, article III, of the state constitution, against unreasonable searches and seizures, and the proceeding based thereon was void ab initio. State ex rel. Samlin v. District Court, 59 Mont. 600, 198 Pac. 362.

On application to a district judge for a search-warrant under this section, the facts upon which it is made must be stated under oath, whereupon it becomes his duty to determine their sufficiency to show probable cause for its issuance, without reference to the opinion or belief of the applicant in that regard. State ex rel. Samlin v. District Court, 59 Mont. 600, 198 Pac. 362.

Mullen*, 63 Mont. 50, 54, 207 Pac. 634; State v. Bowker, 63 Mont. 1, 7, 205 Pac. 961; as section 7, Enforcement Act, in State ex rel. Green v. Bird et al., 62 Mont. 408, 415, 205 Pac. 241.

11105. Hearing of return—Disposal of intoxicating liquor and other articles seized.

In the absence of the verified claim to articles seized under an alleged void search-warrant required by this section the claimant has no right to be heard at the hearing at which ownership is to be determined. State v. Rice, 73 Mont. 272, 235 Pac. 716.

An automobile had been sold by a dealer in a neighboring state under a conditional sales title reservation contract, providing that it should not be taken out of the state until fully paid for. Thereafter and without the knowledge of the seller, it was brought to Montana and used in the unlawful transportation of intoxicating liquor. Held that its forfeiture and sale under this section was unwarranted. State ex rel. Green v. Bird et al., 62 Mont. 408, 205 Pac. 241.

The provision of this section, authorizing forfeiture of personal property possessed with the intention of violating the prohibition law, was not intended to include the rights of innocent owners or encumbrancers. State ex rel. Green v. Bird et al., 62 Mont. 408, 205 Pac. 241.

Cited in State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 345, 229 Pac. 727; State v. Certain Intoxicating Liquors, 71 Mont. 79, 82, 227 Pac. 472; *State v. 11106. Duty of peace officers to arrest offenders and seize liquor.

Where officers detected a pronounced odor of fermented whisky mash and moonshine whisky fumes emanating from defendant's residence and on being admitted found a still in operation as well as a quantity of mash and moonshine whisky, they were justified under this section, to arrest defendant and seize the articles found without a warrant, as for an offense committed within their presence, and the court properly refused to suppress the evidence thus secured from being used at defendant's trial for a violation of the liquor laws. State v. DeHaven, 77 Mont. 299, 250 Pac. 615.

While under this section, it is the duty of an officer in whose presence the liquor law is being violated to arrest the offender, of his failure to do so the owner of contraband articles which were seized could not complain on motion to suppress evidence thus obtained. State ex rel.

Merrill v. District Court, 72 Mont. 77, 231 Pac. 1107.

That portion of this section prescribing the procedure to be observed by an officer making return upon a search-warrant is designed solely for the purpose of laying a foundation for a civil proceeding in rem for the forfeiture of the seized property, and therefore failure to make return does not affect the criminal prosecution or the admissibility of the evidence procured by the seizure. State ex rel. Merrill v. District Court, 72 Mont. 77, 231 Pac. 1107.

An officer who is appraised by any of his senses that the liquor law is being violated in his presence may, under this section, arrest the offender or make a seizure without process; hence an officer who on approaching an apparently unoccupied building detected a pronounced odor of fermenting whisky mash emanating therefrom was authorized to enter and seize contraband articles found therein, even though the search-warrant under which he was acting was void, the offense having been committed in his presence. State ex rel. Merrill v. District Court, 72 Mont. 77, 231 Pac. 1107.

Proceedings relative to seizure and forfeiture of liquors, fixtures, etc., authorized by this section where a violation of the prohibition law occurs in the presence of an officer, are of a civil nature, jurisdiction over which is lodged in the district court upon the filing of a properly verified complaint therein. State v. Johnson et al., 69 Mont. 38, 220 Pac. 82.

Where an officer had arrested an alleged proprietor of a soft-drink parlor for an alleged sale of intoxicating liquor to the officer and seized the fixtures found therein, he filing a complaint of a criminal nature in a justice's court which was dismissed, the subsequent filing of an unverified complaint in the district court, did not vest such court with jurisdiction, and its decree declaring the property forfeited was void. State v. Johnson et al., 69 Mont. 38, 220 Pac. 82.

Under this section, an arrest of an offender against the Prohibition Act or the seizure of intoxicating liquor or fixtures used in connection with its sale, without a warrant, is not justified unless the offense was committed in the presence of an officer. State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 219 Pac. 1096.

Where a forfeiture of intoxicating liquor and fixtures is sought under this section, the state must establish as jurisdictional facts that the person making the seizure was an officer and that the offense against the Prohibition Act was committed in his presence, and in such a case recourse may not be had to presumptions. State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 219 Pac. 1096.

A proceeding for the forfeiture of intoxicating liquors and property used in violation of the prohibition law and seized under this section, which proceeding is neither a criminal nor a civil action but is special in its nature, and in which the claimant was made a party defendant, costs may be awarded the claimant against the state when it is the losing party. State v. Rouleau et al., 68 Mont. 529, 219 Pac. 1096.

The proceeding authorized by this section, under which an officer may without a warrant arrest an offender against the liquor laws and seize the liquor, etc., is one in rem and independent of any criminal prosecution for the violation of such laws. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634; Westover v. Calder et al., 64 Mont. 264, 273, 209 Pac. 306.

Where a sheriff at the time he seized liquor being carried in a handbag from which protruded the top of a demijohn knew that a banquet was being given at a hotel where persons were under the influence of intoxicating liquor and had been informed that the offender was conveying whisky to his employer at the hotel, he was warranted in seizing it without a search-warrant. (Mr. Justice Galen dissenting.) State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

To authorize the seizure of intoxicating liquors under this section, by an officer where the offense is committed in his presence, he need not have actual, personal knowledge that the law is being violated, it being sufficient if he have probable cause, i. e., knowledge of facts, actual or apparent, strong enough to justify a reasonable man that he has lawful grounds for the belief that the law is being violated to proceed without a warrant. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

Where a peace officer, proceeding under this section, without a warrant seized intoxicating liquor being carried in a handbag, the offender was in no position on appeal from a judgment confiscating the property and ordering the liquor destroyed to complain that he had not been arrested or taken before a court or judge as required by that section. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

This section prescribing the method of procedure for the arrest of one illegally transporting intoxicating liquor and seizure thereof, where the offense is committed in the presence of an officer, was not by necessary implication superseded by section 11073. State ex rel. Neville v. Mullen, 63 Mont. 50, 207 Pac. 634.

11109. Duty of attorney general, county attorneys and others to issue subpoena and investigate violations of law—Punishment for contempt.

Failure of the county attorney to conduct the preliminary examination of witnesses authorized by this section, before filing an information by leave of court, is not a ground for setting it aside, the section being directory only, and designed to extend the scope of the prosecuting officer's authority to secure evidence, not to advise the defendant of the evidence he thus obtains. State v. Paine, 61 Mont. 270, 202 Pac. 203.

11111. What shall be stated and proved in prosecutions.

Under this section the information in prosecutions for violations of the liquor law need not allege the kind of liquor manufactured, sold, etc., a general description of the liquor by the designation "intoxicating liquor" being sufficient, whether the liquor in question be alcohol, brandy, whisky, etc., each of which is a beverage, or a liquid such as hair tonics, flavoring extracts, etc., containing one-half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume of which is fit for beverage purposes. State v. Sedlacek, 74 Mont. 201, 239 Pac. 1002.

An information charging the offense of illegal transportation of intoxicating liquors need not allege the time of day, the means of conveyance, the particular brand of liquor transported, nor the termini of the route over which it was carried. State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 229 Pac. 402.

The information in a prosecution for the unlawful sale and possession of intoxicating liquor need not allege the kind of liquor possessed or sold, the place where possessed or sold, or the name of the person to whom sold, this section specifically relieving the pleader from the necessity of alleging any of those facts. State v. Knilians, 69 Mont. 8, 220 Pac. 91.

This section was neither specifically nor in effect repealed by chapter 9, Ex. L. 1921, section 31 of the latter act, now section 11078, Revised Codes 1921, not being in conflict with the former section, and chapter 9, declaring that its provisions shall be deemed supplemental to and a part of the laws relating to intoxicating liquors. State v. Knilians, 69 Mont. 8, 220 Pac. 91.

11116. Duty of peace officers to make known evidence—Penalty.

This and the following sections were cited as sections 20 and 21, chapter 143, 11121. Punishment for misdemeanor.

This section, so far as it prescribes the punishment for the unlawful possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor, for which offense a special penalty is not provided, was impliedly repealed by section 11075, with which the former is in conflict, and therefore the latter section is controlling. State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 220 Pac. 97.

11122. Jurisdiction of district courts.

The district and not the justice court has original jurisdiction in criminal actions for violation of the Prohibition Act. State v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 65, 210 Pac. 752.

In a prosecution for maintaining a common nuisance under section 11066, made supplemental to and a part of the laws relating to intoxicating liquor, the court had original jurisdiction under this section, notwithstanding the offense is made a misdemeanor by section 11066. State v. Bowker, 63 Mont. 1, 205 Pac. 961.

11124. Certain buildings declared nuisances.

Sections 11124 and 11125 declare the maintenance of a house of prostitution or for wine-room purposes a nuisance and provide for its abatement. Sections 11066 and 11067 provide that buildings or rooms where intoxicating liquor is sold are a common nuisance and for their abatement, all other acts in conflict with their provisions being repealed. Held, that the latter act is not in conflict with the former one but simply supersedes it, and therefore does not supersede, it. State ex rel. Bourquin v. Morris et al., 67 Mont. 40, 214 Pac. 332.

11125. County attorney to abate nuisance—When warrant may issue.

CHAPTER 33.GAMBLING.*11159. Gambling games prohibited—Penalty.

A so-called mint vending machine which by the insertion of a nickel and pulling a lever will bring the operator a package of mint of the value of five cents, and which may or may not in addition bring to him trade checks good for five cents in trade (and which also may be operated by the insertion of a trade check, in which event trade checks but not mint may or may not be paid), is a gambling device; the machine appeals to the operator's propensities to gamble and lures him into continuing his play in the hope that he may gain an amount much greater than the amount risked. Marvin v. Sloan et al., 77 Mont. 174, 250 Pac. 443. See, also, State v. Mott, 72 Mont. 306, 233 Pac. 602, involving game of stud-horse poker.

11173. Losses at gambling may be recovered in civil action.

The complaint in an action to recover the amount of two dollars lost by plaintiff as an alleged bet on a horse-race, with exemplary damages, under this section, alleging in substance that defendant Fair Association had given notice that it would conduct horse-racing for purses, at which any owner or co-owner of a horse competing in the races would be required to pay an entrance fee of two dollars and that no person other than such owner or co-owners would be permitted to pay an entrance fee; that plaintiff representing himself to be a co-owner of a certain horse paid the required fee for that horse in a race to be run; that the horse did not win; that the purse plus an amount equal to the entrance fees for that race was paid to the owners or co-owners of the winning horse; that the purse was made up of funds belonging to the association and that the association did not have any interest in the outcome of the race, etc., did not state a cause of action and a demurrer thereto was properly sustained. Toomey v. Penwell, 76 Mont. 166, 245 Pac. 943.

11180. Racing bets unlawful.

The word "game" as employed in this section, providing that a person who loses at any prohibited gambling game may recover the amount of his loss, etc., is sufficiently comprehensive to include a horse-race run on a bet or wager.

CHAPTER 42.

FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING.

11355. Forgery of wills, conveyances, etc.

The essential elements of the crime of forgery are a false making of an instrument in writing; a fraudulent intent, and a writing which, if genuine, might apparently be of legal efficacy or the foundation of legal liability. State v. Alexander et al., 73 Mont. 329, 236 Pac. 542.

Alteration of receipt, canceled check or other voucher as forgery, note, 26 A. L. R. 1058.

Genuine making of instrument for purpose of defrauding, notes, 41 A. L. R. 229; 46 A. L. R. 1529; 51 A. L. R. 568.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 648 et seq.

CHAPTER 43.

LARCENY.

11368. Larceny defined.

Where the legal title to a bond was in a bank as trustee and in the possession of it in the cashier only by virtue of his office, a prosecution against the latter under subdivision 2 of this section, under a charge of larceny by bailee, could not be maintained. State v. Wallin, 60 Mont. 332, 199 Pac. 285.

Embezzlement and larceny distinguished, notes, 11 A. L. R. 801; 13 A. L. R. 319.

Larceny by appropriating money or proceeds of paper mistakenly delivered in excess of the amount due or intended, note, 14 A. L. R. 894.

Larceny as affected by purpose to take or retain property in payment of, or as security for, a claim, notes, 13 A. L. R. 142; 19 A. L. R. 303.

Appropriation of property after obtaining possession by fraud as larceny, note, 26 A. L. R. 381.

What amounts to asportation which will support charge of larceny, note, 19 A. L. R. 724.

Larceny by finder of property, note, 36 A. L. R. 372.

Purchase of property on credit without intending to pay for it as larceny, note, 35 A. L. R. 1336.

Retaking of property lost at gaming as larceny, notes, 35 A. L. R. 1461; 42 A. L. R. 741.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 884.

11369. Uttering fraudulent checks or drafts—Evidence.

Defendant was convicted of uttering a fraudulent check. The check was postdated and at the time it was given to the complaining witness he was advised by defendant that he did not then have sufficient funds in the bank on which it was drawn (located outside the state) but that by the time it was received by the bank it would be all right. Held, that the gist of the offense charged under this section, being fraudulent intent, the evidence was insufficient to show such intent and that the representation made was more in the nature of a future promise than that of a misrepresentation of an existing fact and therefore did not warrant conviction. State v. Patterson, 75 Mont. 315, 243 Pac. 355.

Cited in In re McCue, 77 Mont. 47, 53, 248 Pac. 187; Hawaiian Pineapple Co. v. Browne, 69 Mont. 140, 147, 220 Pac. 1114.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 481.

11371. Grand larceny defined.

Under this section, the value of a cow alleged to have been stolen is not a matter in issue; therefore refusal to permit a witness to be cross-examined as to the value of the animal was not an abuse of discretion. State v. McClain et al., 76 Mont. 351, 246 Pac. 956.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 889, 897, 904.

11377. Larceny of written instruments.

An instruction in a prosecution for the larceny of promissory notes that the amount of money due on the notes or secured to be paid thereby and remaining unsatisfied was their value was correct under this section, and one offered by defendant to the effect that evidence relating to the instrument should be disregarded because it has not been shown that they had any value was properly refused, where one of the notes was introduced in evidence and the value of the other was shown by books of account, thus making out a prima facie case for the state. State v. Cassill et al., 71 Mont. 274, 229 Pac. 716.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 898, 904.

11382. Conversion by trustee, larceny.

The facts incident to a fraudulent transfer of credit on the books of a bank were examined and held not to constitute larceny from the bank as charged in the information in State v. Rarey, 72 Mont. 270, 233 Pac. 615.

An information charging that while acting as cashier of a bank defendant feloniously converted a Liberty bond to his own use was insufficient for failure to allege that the bond came into his possession by virtue of his office. State v. Wallin, 60 Mont. 332, 199 Pac. 285.

11384. Claim of title, ground of defense.

CHAPTER 44.EXTORTION.*11389. Extortion defined.

In an action to recover money claimed to have been involuntarily paid, the complaint simply averring by way of conclusion that defendants by coercion, threats and intimidation and by putting plaintiff in fear, extorted from him, was insufficient to state a cause of action, in the absence of an allegation of facts constituting the legal basis for the charge of involuntary payment. Kozasa v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co. et al., 61 Mont. 233, 201 Pac. 682.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 374 et seq.

CHAPTER 45.FALSE PERSONATION AND CHEATS—FALSE ADVERTISING—FAKERS.*11410. Obtaining money or property by false pretenses.

Information charging the obtaining of money from a bank under false pretense held sufficient under this section and that there was no variance between the allegations and proof in State v. Mason, 62 Mont. 180, 204 Pac. 358.

Obtaining money for goods not intended to be delivered as false pretense, note, 17 A. L. R. 199.

May offense of obtaining money or property by false pretenses or confidence game be predicated on statement in writing concerning financial ability of one seeking a loan, note, 24 A. L. R. 400.

CHAPTER 49.

FRAUDS IN THE MANAGEMENT OF CORPORATIONS.

11443. Receiving deposits in insolvent banks.

Section 986, Penal Code of 1895, making it a crime for an officer of a bank to receive deposits knowing the bank to be insolvent, was impliedly repealed by section 5, substitute for Senate Bill No. 887, L. 1899, page 111, the two acts being so inconsistent as to render it impossible to reconcile them; that therefore the amendment of section 986 after such repeal, attempted by chapter 84, L. 1907, which amended section was brought forward into the Revised Codes of 1921 as section 11443, was void, and hence the indictment, based thereon, did not state a public offense, entitling complainant to his release from custody. In re Naegele, 70 Mont. 129, 224 Pac. 269.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 4 Cal. Jur. 205.

CHAPTER 51.

MALICIOUS INJURY TO RAILROADS.

11473.1. Penalty for careless deposits near tracks. Every person who, within the state of Montana while engaged in public or private road work, or otherwise, and whether wilfully, carelessly or negligently, leaves or deposits any earth, gravel, rock, or other hard substances, alongside of, upon, or between the rails of any railroad, where any public or private highway crosses such railroad which will, by filling the grooves for the flanges of the wheels or otherwise endanger travel on such railroad and which may tend to or does derail locomotives or cars thereon shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 41, L. 1927.

CHAPTER 52.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF GENERALLY.

11478. Use of automobiles without consent of owners—Punishment.

Defendant was charged with taking and using an automobile without the consent of the owner, under this section, which makes the offense punishable by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding five years. The information was not filed until fourteen months after the commission of the offense. Held, that the district court erred in sustaining a demurrer to the pleading on the ground that, the offense being a misdemeanor, the limitation of one year fixed by section 11724, within which the information could be filed had expired, and holding that it was without jurisdiction to proceed. State v. Atlas, 75 Mont. 547, 244 Pac. 477.

11482. Injuring fences, building fires and hunting on premises of another when forbidden.

Where land is inclosed a person who hunts thereon without the consent of one entitled to its possession is a trespasser, and where land is posted warning persons against hunting thereon, he who does so in disregard of such warning is subject to criminal prosecution under this section. Herrin v. Sutherland, 74 Mont. 587, 42 A. L. R. 937, 241 Pac. 328.

CHAPTER 53.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

11515A. What facts to be alleged and proved. In any prosecution for the violation of the provisions of section 11515 of the Revised Codes of 1921, prohibiting the malicious killing, maiming or poisoning of livestock, not the property of the defendant it shall not be necessary for the state to allege in the complaint or information or to prove the ownership of the livestock so alleged to have been killed, maimed or poisoned, but it shall be sufficient to allege in the complaint or information that the owner of such livestock is unknown and prove that the livestock killed, poisoned, maimed was not the property of the defendant.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 62, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 54.

MISCELLANEOUS OFFENSES.

11528. Penalty for leaving gates open. Every person who wilfully leaves open a gate, when found closed, leading in or out of any inclosed premises, whether inclosed by a lawful fence or not, is punishable by a fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars, nor more than two hundred fifty ($250) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than three (3) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. This act shall not apply to cities and towns.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 50, L. 1923.

11559. Unlawful entries in races.

The word "purse" as used in the Revised Codes is synonymous with "prize" or "premium," and the words "purse prize, premium, stake or sweepstakes" appearing in this section, permitting horse-races, mean some valuable thing offerred by a person for the doing of something by others, into the strife for which he does not enter and which thing he has no chance of gaining. Toomey v. Penwell, 76 Mont. 166, 245 Pac. 943.

11579. Defrauding inn and hotel keepers, etc.—Penalty.

CHAPTER 55.

PUNISHMENTS—ATTEMPTS AND OTHER GENERAL PROVISIONS.

11581. Acts made punishable by different provisions of this code.

In prosecutions under the intoxicating liquor law, section 11078, which provides that separate offenses may be united in the information in separate counts and defendant tried at one trial and a penalty for all offenses imposed, controls notwithstanding the provisions of this section. State v. Marchindo, 65 Mont. 431, 211 Pac. 1093.

This and the three following sections were cited as sections 8904 to 8907, Revised Codes, in State v. Stein, 60 Mont. 441, 446, 447, 199 Pac. 278.

11603. Convict competent witness.

The provision of this section, to the effect that the conviction of a person of any offense may be proved for the purpose of affecting the weight of his testimony, refers to conviction for a felony, and therefore refusal to permit cross-examination of a witness for the state as to his former conviction of a misdemeanor was proper. State v. Stein, 60 Mont. 441, 199 Pac. 278.

Where a deputy county attorney appeared in open court and orally moved for leave to file an information presenting at the same time a written request signed by the county attorney which was filed immediately upon granting of the request, the court properly overruled defendant's motion to quash the information based upon the ground that leave to file had been granted on oral request, contrary to this section. State v. Kacar, 74 Mont. 269, 240 Pac. 365.

11643. Effect of giving or refusing to give security.

Under this section declaring that an order of a justice of the peace committing one to jail for failure to give bond to keep the peace must specify the cause of commitment, the requirement to give security, the amount thereof and the omission to give it, a commitment which failed to state that the accused had not given security, and which was not directed to the sheriff and did not contain any direction as to what he should do under it (sec. 11790), was so defective as to afford the sheriff no protection in an action for damages for false imprisonment. Folsom v. Fisco et al., 62 Mont. 194, 204 Pac. 367.

Cited as section 8991 in State v. District Court, 61 Mont. 558, 562, 202 Pac. 756.

11688. Accusation to be presented by the grand jury.

An officer may not be charged with nonfeasance under section 11702, and convicted on proof of malfeasance, the prosecution charging which must be instituted under this section. State v. Beazley, 77 Mont. 430, 250 Pac. 1114.

Where wilful or corrupt malfeasance in office is charged, outster proceedings must be had under the provisions of this section, and the accused officer is entitled to a jury trial; where the charge is nonfeasance only, the proceeding is, under section 11702, triable summarily by the court without the intervention of a jury. State ex rel. Beazley v. District Court, 75 Mont. 116, 241 Pac. 1075.

Where removal of a county, district, township or county officer is sought for wilful or corrupt misconduct or malfeasance in office—acts of commission—the jurisdiction of the district court can, under this section, be invoked only by an accusation presented by the grand jury; where, however, the charge is wilful refusal or neglect to perform official duties, constituting nonaction, jurisdiction may be invoked by the filing of a verified petition by any person, under section 11702, whereupon the court may try the accused summarily without the aid of a jury. State ex rel. Hessler v. District Court, 64 Mont. 296, 209 Pac. 1052.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 21 Cal. Jur. 985 et seq.

11697. Trial by jury.

Hessler v. District Court, 64 Mont. 296, 298, 209 Pac. 1052.

11702. Removal of public officers by summary proceedings.

A sheriff was sought to be removed summarily under this section, under a charge of alleged nonfeasance in office preferred by the county attorney. The evidence introduced at the trial showed his active participation in the crime of bribery, demanding money to prevent official action on his part. Held, that his offense constituted malfeasance in office which was triable only, on accusation presented by the grand jury, with the aid of a jury, and that the trial judge was without jurisdiction to remove him on the proof submitted. State v. Beazley, 77 Mont. 430, 250 Pac. 1114.

Under the rule that one may not be charged with a specific offense and convicted of another distinct and nonincluded offense, an officer may not be charged with nonfeasance under this section, and convicted on proof of malfeasance, the prosecution charging which must be instituted in pursuance of section 11688. State v. Beazley, 77 Mont. 430, 250 Pac. 1114.

Active participation by a sheriff in the commission of a crime is malfeasance in office, an accusation charging which is triable by a jury, and the fact that the pleader in the same count also charges nonfeasance, to wit, failure of the officer to arrest his partner in crime, does not have the effect of bringing the accusation within the purview of this section, so as to make it triable by the court. State ex rel. Beazley v. District Court, 75 Mont. 116, 241 Pac. 1075.

One charging a district or county officer with an act of misfeasance or malfeasance in office, a matter of which the grand jury must take cognizance, cannot by pleading that after such act had been done the officer wilfully refused and neglected to undo it bring the accusation within the purview of this section, under which an officer may be tried summarily for such refusal or neglect, nor may he justify the procedure followed by the argument ab inconvenienti. State ex rel. Hessler v. District Court, 64 Mont. 296, 209 Pac. 1052.

An officer (county clerk) charged with wilful neglect of duty is not entitled to a jury trial in a proceeding for his removal from office. State ex rel. Bullock v. District Court et al., 62 Mont. 600, 205 Pac. 955.

Proceedings for the removal of civil officers under this section, are criminal in their nature, and therefore neither party has the right to file an affidavit disqualifying a district judge for imputed bias or prejudice under section 8868. (Mr. Justice Holloway, dissenting.) State ex rel. Houston v. District Court, 61 Mont. 558, 202 Pac. 756.

CHAPTER 9.

LOCAL JURISDICTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES.

11707. Offense committed partly in one county and partly in another.

Under the rule declared by this section, that where the acts constituting or requisite to the consummation of an offense occurred in two counties, trial may be had in either, held that where defendants, president and cashier of a bank, prepared an alleged false report to the superintendent of banks in P. county and transmitted it by mail to the superintendent in L. & C. county, the district court of the former county had jurisdiction. State v. Cassill et al., 70 Mont. 433, 227 Pac. 49.

CHAPTER 10.

TIME OF COMMENCING CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

11723. Limitation of five years in all other felonies.

Cited in State v. Atlas, 75 Mont. 547, 554, 244 Pac. 477.

11724. Limitation of one year in misdemeanors.

Under this section, providing that an information for a misdemeanor must be filed within one year after its commission, and under section 11725, declaring that if defendant after commission of the offense leaves the state the information may be filed within the time limited after his return, the time during which he was absent not being part of the limitation, the state's burden of proving that defendant, who had left the state with intention of going to Ireland, was outside the state for a period of at least twenty days was met by testimony a legitimate inference from which was that a trip to Ireland, where defendant visited a number of cities, and return must have involved an absence from the state for at least that length of time. State v. Knilians, 69 Mont. 8, 220 Pac. 91.

Cited in State v. Atlas, 75 Mont. 547, 550, 244 Pac. 477.

CHAPTER 11.

THE COMPLAINT.

11729. Duty to make complaint.

The provision of this section, that a person who has reason to believe that a crime has been committed and that a certain person has committed it, must make complaint before a magistrate, does not require one to disclose to a county attorney evidence within his knowledge tending to disprove the defendant's guilt, and an instruction that it does was erroneous. State v. Jackson, 71 Mont. 421, 230 Pac. 370.

For a general discussion of what constitutes an arrest and of the authority of a private person to arrest without a warrant, see State ex rel. Sadler v. District Court, 70 Mont. 378, 225 Pac. 1000.

To entitle a private person to make an arrest under this section, for a public offense committed or attempted in his presence, the facts and circumstances must be such that upon them alone he would be justified in making a complaint upon which a warrant might issue, i. e., the facts and circumstances must be sufficient to warrant the conclusion that there is probable cause for believing that an offense is being committed. State ex rel. Sadler v. District Court, 70 Mont. 378, 225 Pac. 1000.

CHAPTER 14.EXAMINATION AND COMMITMENT OR DISCHARGE OF THE DEFENDANT.*11776. On postponement, defendant to be committed or discharged on bail.

By a deposit of cash by one accused of crime, in lieu of bail, with a justice of the peace to assure his appearance at a preliminary examination, the accused enters into a contract with the state, which, in legal effect, impliedly contains all the terms of a bail bond, if given for the same purpose, the gist of the contract in either case being that he will appear in the justice court at a specified time and not in any other court, nor in the justice court at any other time than that specified. Hassan v. Earll, 61 Mont. 389, 202 Pac. 581.

RULES OF PLEADING AND FORM OF THE INFORMATION AND INDICTMENT.

11841. Form of and rules of pleading.

Cited in State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 527, 226 Pac. 519.

11843. Indictment, or information, what to contain.

Information examined and held sufficient as against the charge of the inadvertent use of the figures "19122" instead of 1922 in describing the year of the offense and the charge that it failed to allege that the crime was committed in M. county by the use of the words "then and there being," etc., in State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 226 Pac. 519.

Where two defendants, tried separately, had entered into a conspiracy to commit robbery, and in the perpetration of the offense an officer was killed by one of them, the information against the other charging a premeditated killing need not set forth the facts constituting the crime of robbery, or allege that in the attempt to commit the latter crime, the homicide was committed. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

Cited in State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 378, 237 Pac. 486; State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 298, 229 Pac. 402; State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 62, 220 Pac. 80; State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 395, 211 Pac. 321; as section 9147, Revised Codes, in State v. Paine, 61 Mont. 270, 273, 202 Pac. 203.

This section and section 11845 were cited as sections 9147-9149, Revised Codes, in State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 196 Pac. 992.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 20, 25, 45.

11844. Form of.

An information charging illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor in the language of this section, that defendant "at the county of M. did wilfully, wrongfully and unlawfully transport certain intoxicating liquors," etc., was sufficient as against the contention that it was fatally defective for failure to charge that the offense was committed within the jurisdiction of the court; if deemed insufficient it was the duty of defendant to apply for a bill of particulars in advance of the trial. State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 237 Pac. 486.

Cited in State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 329, 250 Pac. 613; State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 527, 226 Pac. 519.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 20, 21, 54.

11845. It must be direct and certain.

In view of the provisions of this section, requiring that the information must be direct and certain, inter alia, as to the particular circumstances of the offense charged when they are necessary to constitute a complete offense, an information charging one with seditious utterances should set forth the fact whether the words were uttered in private conversation with a single person or from a public platform, or were disseminated through the medium of printed articles. State v. McGlynn, 60 Mont. 416, 199 Pac. 708.

Cited in State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 299, 229 Pac. 402; State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 80, 212 Pac. 504; State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 62, 220 Pac. 80.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 25, 31, 47.

11847. Must charge but one offense and in one form, except where it may be committed by different means.

While under this section an information must charge but one offense, under section 11908 any number of offenses against the Prohibition Act may be charged in separate counts in one information and where defendant pleaded to the information in a liquor prosecution containing a number of counts, any informality in that respect did not tend to his prejudice and must, therefore, under section 11874 be disregarded on appeal. State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 250 Pac. 613.

Theft of property or receiving stolen property belonging to different persons, note, 18 A. L. R. 1077.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 64 et seq.

11848. Statement as to time when offense was committed.

Under the prohibitory act it is a public offense to possess liquor unlawfully at any time, hence time is not an ingredient of the offense within the meaning of this section, providing that the precise time at which it was committed need not be stated in the information, it being sufficient if it is alleged that its commission occurred at any time before filing thereof, except where the time is a material ingredient in the offense. State v. Terry, 77 Mont. 297, 250 Pac. 612.

Cited in State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 525, 226 Pac. 519.

11850. Construction of words used.

Sections 11850-11852 were cited in State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 62, 220 Pac. 80.

11852. Indictment or information, when sufficient.

Cited in State v. Redmond, 73 Mont. 376, 378, 237 Pac. 486; In re Lockhart, 72 Mont. 136, 145, 232 Pac. 183; State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 62, 220 Pac. 80; State v. Griebel, 65 Mont. 390, 395, 211 Pac. 321.

This and the following section were cited as sections 9156, 9157, Revised Codes, in State v. Vuckovich, 61 Mont. 480, 491, 203 Pac. 491.

11853. Not insufficient for defect of form not tending to prejudice defendant.

A deputy county attorney may present an information in his own name; hence the fact that an information was signed by him instead of by the county attorney did not render it invalid; at most his act, while perhaps improper from an ethical standpoint, was no more than an irregularity which could not affect appellant's substantial rights and was therefore insufficient to warrant reversal of the judgment under this section. State v. Larson, 75 Mont. 274, 243 Pac. 566.

Cited in State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 526, 226 Pac. 519; In re Lockhart, 72 Mont. 136, 145, 232 Pac. 183; State v. Hem, 69 Mont. 57, 62, 220 Pac. 80.

11870. Amendment followed on trial, when.

Power to grant permission to the county attorney in a prosecution under the liquor law to amend the information at the close of the state's case by changing the date on which the offense was charged to have been committed is conferred by this section, and said section is not open to constitutional objection. State v. Terry, 77 Mont. 297, 250 Pac. 612.

Cited in State v. Sedlacek, 74 Mont. 201, 208, 239 Pac. 1002.

11874. When not material.

Where a defendant pleaded to the information in a liquor prosecution, containing a number of counts, any informality with respect to the alleged failure of the defendant to plead to the offenses charged did not tend to his prejudice, and must therefore under this section, be disregarded on appeal. State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 250 Pac. 613.

ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEFENDANT.

11875. Defendant must be arraigned in the court where the indictment or information is filed or transferred.

Cited in State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 328, 250 Pac. 613.

11886. Right to counsel on arraignment.

Where defendant accused of crime did not make a motion to have the minutes of the court corrected to show, as he claimed, that he was arraigned before he was advised of his right to have counsel, contrary to this section, his affidavit contradicting the court minutes in that regard, held insufficient, in the absence of a showing of prejudice, to overcome the presumption that the court performed its judicial duty seasonably and with due regularity. State v. Murphy, 68 Mont. 427, 219 Pac. 629.

Cited as section 9188, Revised Codes, in State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 196 Pac. 992.

CHAPTER 19.

SETTING ASIDE THE INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION.

11891. Indictment, when set aside on motion.

Cited in State v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 65, 70, 210 Pac. 752; as section 9193, Revised Codes, in State v. Paine, 61 Mont. 270, 272, 202 Pac. 203.

11892. Defendant waives objections, unless he makes the motion.

By his failure to object to the information charging him with a violation of the Prohibition Act, before demurrer or plea, on the ground that it was filed prior to a preliminary hearing, defendant waived his right to challenge the foundation of the information. State v. Sorenson, 65 Mont. 65, 210 Pac. 752.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 14 Cal. Jur. 87.

CHAPTER 20.

DEMURRER.

11898. Grounds of demurrer.

The objection that several offenses are improperly united under separate counts in an information cannot be raised by a motion to require the prosecution to elect upon which count it would rely, but must be taken by demurrer. State v. Marchindo, 65 Mont. 431, 211 Pac. 1093.

tion 9208, Revised Codes, in State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 352, 196 Pac. 992.

CHAPTER 21.

PLEAS.

11907. The different kinds of pleas.

Defendant was charged with liquor violations in four counts; he entered a plea of not guilty "to the offense charged." Two counts were dismissed, and he was found guilty on the remaining two. Held, as against the contention that the conviction cannot be sustained because defendant never pleaded to the charges contained in the two counts on which conviction was had but had pleaded only to one offense, not ascertained, that his plea was to the information as a whole as authorized by this section, and therefore sufficient. State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 250 Pac. 613.

A court has no authority to receive a conditional plea from one charged with a criminal offense, to the effect that he pleads guilty provided the punishment imposed be not greater than that designated. State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 229 Pac. 402.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 994.

11908. Plea, how put in and its form.

Under this section, any number of offenses against the Prohibition Act may be charged in separate counts in one information. State v. Grasswick, 77 Mont. 326, 250 Pac. 613.

Court, 76 Mont. 222, 231, 246 Pac. 250; State v. Dow, 71 Mont. 291, 299, 229 Pac. 402.

CHAPTER 22.

CHANGE OF PLACE OF TRIAL.

11916. What petition to contain.

For sufficiency of allegations in affidavits for change of place of trial on the ground of local prejudice, alleged inflammatory newspaper articles, etc., see State v. Davis, 60 Mont. 426, 199 Pac. 421; State v. Bess, 69 Mont. 558, 199 Pac. 426.

CHAPTER 23.

MODE OF TRIAL—FORMATION OF JURY AND CALENDAR OF ISSUES—POSTPONEMENT OF TRIAL.

11931. When presence of defendant is necessary on the trial.

Under the constitutional and statutory provisions applicable, a defendant charged with crime must be present throughout the entire trial, including the rendition of the verdict, and the fact of his presence must be made to appear from the record. The accused cannot waive his right to be present at the trial. State v. Reed, 65 Mont. 51, 210 Pac. 756.

The word "trial" as used in this section means proceedings in open court after the pleadings are finished and it is otherwise ready, down to and including the rendition of the verdict. State v. Reed, 65 Mont. 51, 210 Pac. 756.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 928.

11932. Formation of trial jury.

Cited as section 9234, Revised Codes in State v. Showen, 60 Mont. 474, 478, 199 Pac. 917.

11935. Defendant entitled to two days to prepare for trial.

Under this section, the defendant is entitled to at least two days to prepare for trial; therefore where he had seven months from the day of entry of his plea to the day of trial for preparation, he had no cause for complaint in this regard. State v. Showen, 60 Mont. 474, 199 Pac. 917.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 200.

11936. Notice and affidavits for postponement.

An affidavit filed on the day set for trial, in support of a motion for continuance on the ground of absence of witnesses, which fails to disclose the date on which such witnesses left the state, is insufficient. Such an affidavit must also disclose specifically the facts expected to be proved by the absent witnesses and set forth that if such witnesses were present, they would testify to those facts. It must also disclose that the facts which the defendant expects to prove by the absent witnesses cannot be proved by other witnesses available at the trial, since a continuance for the purpose of obtaining cumulative evidence need not be granted. State v. Showen, 60 Mont. 474, 199 Pac. 917.

11939. Effect of failure to apply.

Cited as section 9241, Revised Codes, in State v. Showen, 60 Mont. 474, 477, 199 Pac. 917.

CHAPTER 24.

CHALLENGING THE JURY.

11956. Challenges by state. The state may challenge the same number of jurors allowed the defendant.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 4, L. 1925.

11957. Definition and kinds of challenge, for cause.

Cited in State v. Russell, 73 Mont. 240, 243, 235 Pac. 712.

11959. Particular kinds of challenge.

Where one had served as juror in a prosecution for rape, he was not disqualified as for actual bias from serving in the same capacity in a later case of the same character against another defendant in which the prosecutrix was the same as in the first, by the fact that on the former trial evidence of the guilt of the latter defendant had been introduced. State v. Russell, 73 Mont. 240, 235 Pac. 712.

Cited in State v. Vettere, 76 Mont. 574, 584, 248 Pac. 179.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 359, 366, 421.

11960. Ground for challenge for implied bias.

A juror who served on the trial of a rape case is not disqualified as for implied bias from serving as such in a subsequent one against another defendant for a like offense against the same prosecutrix. State v. Russell, 73 Mont. 240, 235 Pac. 712.

Cited in State v. Vettere, 76 Mont. 574, 584, 248 Pac. 179.

Relationship to prosecutor or witness for prosecution as disqualifying juror in criminal case, note, 18 A. L. R. 375.

Sitting as juror in trial of one person as disqualifying one to serve as juror in trial of another person for offense based on same transaction, note, 19 A. L. R. 1065.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 359 et seq.

11962. Causes of challenge, how stated.

The provision of this section, that in challenging a juror for implied bias one or more of the causes stated in section 11960, and in challenging for actual bias the cause stated in subdivision 2 of section 11959, must be alleged, is mandatory; hence where this is not done, denial of the challenge does not entitle appellant to allege error. State v. Vettere, 76 Mont. 574, 248 Pac. 179.

Where a juror on his voir dire stated that from newspaper reports and conversations with others he had formed the opinion that murder had been committed, but had no opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, that he would require the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the latter had killed deceased with malice aforethought before he would vote for a conviction and that he could fairly and impartially try him, he was not disqualified from serving. State v. Vettere, 76 Mont. 574, 248 Pac. 179.

A juror who on his voir dire stated that he had read in the newspapers an account of the homicide for which plaintiff was on trial; that he had formed an opinion therefrom which would take evidence to remove, but that in determining the case he would base his verdict upon the evidence and be bound by the court's instructions; that there was nothing known to him why he could not try the case fairly, etc., was competent. State v. Juhrey, 61 Mont. 413, 202 Pac. 762.

General challenges of jurors "for the purposes of the record" who while stating on their voir dire that they had read the newspaper account of the killing of the deceased, and were of the opinion at the time that he had been murdered, did not state that they had any belief that defendant had committed the crime, but did say that they would follow the instructions of the court and render an impartial verdict, were properly denied. State v. Bryne, 60 Mont. 317, 199 Pac. 262.

Cited in State v. Russell, 73 Mont. 240, 244, 235 Pac. 712.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 15 Cal. Jur. 369, 410.

CHAPTER 25.

THE TRIAL.

11969. Order of trial.

Where defendant, charged with burglary and three prior convictions, at the opening of the trial admitted the prior convictions, the court did not err in permitting knowledge of the prior convictions to go to the jury by allowing the county attorney to read the information charging such convictions, in overruling an objection to the question asked defendant on cross-examination as to the prior convictions, or in instructing the jury that if they found the defendant guilty of burglary they should then consider the matter of the former convictions, giving the provisions of the statute fixing punishment for that crime when aggravated by prior convictions of felonies, in view of the provisions of this section, requiring the county attorney to state the case and offer evidence in support of the prosecution, and the fact that without such knowledge the jury could not intelligently fix the punishment to fit the crime. State v. O'Neill, 76 Mont. 526, 248 Pac. 215.

An objection made at the settlement of the instructions in a criminal case that a certain paragraph thereof "is not applicable to the facts of this case" is insufficient, under this section, to warrant review of alleged errors urged under the specification relating thereto. State v. McClain et al., 76 Mont. 351, 246 Pac. 956.

Under this section, the supreme court is prohibited from considering any error in an instruction other than such as is specifically pointed out and excepted to at the settlement of the instructions. State v. Cassill et al., 71 Mont. 274, 229 Pac. 716.

Alleged error in an instruction not specifically pointed out and excepted to at the settlement of the instructions, as required by subdivision 4 of this section, is not entitled to consideration on appeal. State v. Sawyer, 71 Mont. 269, 229 Pac. 734.

Error in an instruction not specifically pointed out and excepted to in the trial court cannot be considered on appeal, under subdivision 4 of this section. State v. Dougherty, 71 Mont. 265, 229 Pac. 735.

Where a defect in an instruction given was not pointed out specifically by defendant at the settlement of the instructions, the supreme court on appeal may not, under this section, consider an objection not so pointed out. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

Under this section errors in giving or refusing instructions cannot be reviewed on appeal unless they, with the proceedings had at the settlement thereof, are incorporated in a bill of exceptions, even though they constitute a part of the judgment-roll or technical record, section 12043 providing otherwise, having been superseded by section 11969. State v. Carmichael, 62 Mont. 159, 204 Pac. 362.

Under this section, only those instructions to which objection was made at the time of settlement can be considered on appeal. State v. Evans, 60 Mont. 367, 199 Pac. 440.

An erroneous instruction given without objection, became the law of the case, the supreme court on appeal being precluded by this section from reversing a judgment for error in instructions not specifically pointed out and excepted to at the settlement of the instructions. Hawley v. Richardson, 60 Mont. 118, 198 Pac. 450.

Cited in State v. Richardson, 63 Mont. 322, 329, 207 Pac. 124; as section 9271, Revised Codes, in State v. Bess, 60 Mont. 558, 574, 199 Pac. 426; State v. Chronopoulos, 60 Mont. 329, 330, 199 Pac. 266.

11977. Rules of evidence in civil actions applicable to criminal cases.

Cited in State v. Hopkins, 68 Mont. 504, 509, 219 Pac. 1106.

11980. When burden of proof shifts in trial for murder.

In a prosecution for murder, where the fact that the defendant killed deceased was established, and there were no circumstances tending to justify or excuse the act, it was not error to instruct, in the language of this section, that, the commission of the homicide being proved, the burden of proving circumstances of mitigation, justification, or excuse devolved on defendant, unless the state's proof showed the crime amounted only to manslaughter, or that defendant was justifiable or excusable. State v. Bess, 60 Mont. 558, 199 Pac. 426.

The contention of defendant that since no one was present when the shot which killed deceased was fired, the court erred in giving an instruction in the words of this section, heretofore construed to mean that if the jury should find the fact that defendant did the killing, the burden of proving circumstances mitigating the offense from murder to manslaughter or justifying it devolves upon him, unless the evidence which proves the killing by the defendant also shows that it was manslaughter or justifiable, held without merit. State v. Davis, 60 Mont. 426, 199 Pac. 421.

Cited in State v. Lewis, 67 Mont. 447, 453, 216 Pac. 337.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 13, Cal. Jur. 734-737.

11987. Evidence of false pretenses.

For discussion of sufficiency of information and evidence necessary to support charge of obtaining money by false pretense, see State v. Brantingham, 66 Mont. 1, 212 Pac. 499.

Under this section, where defendant was charged with obtaining money by a false pretense that he had credit at a certain bank and could borrow the money there, testified to by one witness only, there was a total failure of proof, in the absence of any false token or writing employed by the defendant or corroborating circumstances. State v. Brantingham, 66 Mont. 1, 212 Pac. 499.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 12 Cal. Jur. 474.

11988. Conviction on testimony of accomplice.

The corroborating evidence without which a defendant cannot be convicted on the testimony of an accomplice, under this section, may be supplied by the defendant or his witnesses; may be circumstantial; need not extend to every fact to which the accomplice testifies; need not be sufficient to justify a conviction or to establish a prima facie case of guilt, or to connect the defendant with the commission of the crime, it being sufficient if it tends to do so, and whether it tends to do so is a question of law, the weight of the evidence—its efficacy to fortify the testimony of the accomplice and render his story trustworthy—being a matter for the consideration of the jury. State v. Cobb, 76 Mont. 89, 245 Pac. 265.

Evidence in a prosecution for the larceny of horses, corroborative of the testimony of two accomplices, examined and held sufficient as tending to connect defendant with the commission of the offense, and therefore sufficient to sustain his conviction under this section. State v. Cobb, 76 Mont. 89, 245 Pac. 265.

An accomplice need not be corroborated as to every material fact to which he testifies, nor is it necessary that the corroborative testimony be sufficient to make out a prima facie case against the defendant. State v. Ritz, 65 Mont. 180, 211 Pac. 298.

Evidence corroborative of that given by an accomplice need not be direct, but may be circumstantial, the statute being satisfied if the independent evidence tends to connect the accused with the commission of the crime of which he is charged. State v. Ritz, 65 Mont. 180, 211 Pac. 298.

Evidence corroborative of that of an accomplice need not be direct, but if the circumstances tend to connect defendant with the commission of the crime, it is sufficient to sustain conviction. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

An accomplice need not be corroborated upon every fact to which he testified, nor is it necessary that the independent evidence alone should be sufficient to warrant a conviction, it being sufficient if, unaided by that of the accomplice, it tends to connect with the perpetration of the crime. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

One accomplice cannot supply the independent evidence necessary to corroborate another accomplice. State v. Bolton, 65 Mont. 74, 212 Pac. 504.

CHAPTER 27.THE VERDICT.*12017. Return of jury.

This and sections 12018 and 12019 were cited in State v. Reed, 65 Mont. 51, 55, 210 Pac. 756.

12019. Manner of taking verdict.

Where on the poll of the jury one juror answered that the verdict of guilty of burglary was his verdict provided the sentence was suspended, but thereafter, upon inquiry by the court, unqualifiedly answered that it was his verdict, a motion for dismissal of the information on the ground that the verdict had not been rendered by a full panel was properly denied. State v. Asher, 63 Mont. 302, 206 Pac. 1091.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 410.

12020. General verdict.

Cited in State v. Polich, 70 Mont. 523, 528, 226 Pac. 519.

12023. Jury may find upon charge of previous conviction.

Cited in State v. O'Neill, 76 Mont. 526, 528, 534, 248 Pac. 215.

12026. To ascertain value of property.

In view of this section, providing that in a prosecution for an offense against the property of another, the jury must ascertain and declare in their verdict not only the value of the property taken but also the amount restored, refusal to permit defendant to introduce evidence to show the amount restored to the person from whom he obtained money by false pretenses was prejudicial error. State v. Mason, 62 Mont. 180, 204 Pac. 358.

12027. Jury may assess punishment.

One on trial for crime has the right to have the jury assess the punishment upon a correct statement of the law as to the penalty prescribed for the offense, and therefore, in view of this section, providing that when there is any alternative or discretion in regard to the kind or extent of the punishment to be inflicted, the jury may assess the punishment in their verdict, an instruction that the penalty for unlawfully possessing and transporting intoxicating liquor was a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, whereas under section 11075, for the first offense a fine of not more than $500 could be imposed, was prejudicially erroneous. State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 220 Pac. 97.

Cited in State v. O'Neill, 76 Mont. 526, 533, 248 Pac. 215; State v. Mark, 69 Mont. 18, 27, 220 Pac. 94.

12028. Court may assess punishment.

Where at the time of the verdict fixing the punishment of defendant for violation of the liquor law "at thirty days" he made no objection to it on the ground that the place of imprisonment was not fixed, and the court was not requested to require the jury to retire and supply the omission, he is in no position to complain of the defect on appeal. State v. Marchindo, 65 Mont. 431, 211 Pac. 1093.

Cited in State v. Miller, 69 Mont. 1, 220 Pac. 97; as section 9330, Revised Codes, in State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 196 Pac. 992.

12031. Court may reduce verdict.

The power given the district court by this section, to reduce the extent of punishment fixed by the jury in a criminal prosecution, must be exercised prior to or at the time judgment is pronounced, and that therefore an order reducing a fine and jail sentence after the judgment had been in process of execution for a number of days was void as in excess of jurisdiction, and an encroachment upon the pardoning power reposed by the constitution in the governor and the state pardoning board. State ex rel. Reid v. District Court, 68 Mont. 309, 218 Pac. 558.

This and the five following sections were cited as sections 9339-9345, Revised Codes, in State v. Carmichael, 62 Mont. 159, 160, 204 Pac. 362.

12045. Record on appeal in criminal cases.

On appeal by the state in a criminal cause from an order granting defendant a new trial, the affidavits used on the motion must, under this section, be incorporated in a bill of exceptions; if not so presented, the supreme court is without jurisdiction to review the order.

CHAPTER 29.NEW TRIALS.*12048. In what cases it may be granted.

For discussion of the proposition that under certain circumstances the supreme court is in a more advantageous position than the trial court to determine sufficiency of evidence on motion for new trial, as where defendant is charged with a heinous crime, such as might overcome the calm judgment of the court and jury, see State v. Wilson, 76 Mont. 384, 247 Pac. 158.

For discussion as to what constitutes cumulative evidence on an application for new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence, see State v. Gangner, 73 Mont. 187, 235 Pac. 703.

An affidavit in support of a motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence which shows that such evidence would do no more than to impeach the credit of a witness for the state, and does not show that the defendant would be able to produce the evidence on a retrial of the action, is insufficient. State v. Dougherty, 71 Mont. 265, 229 Pac. 735.

Rulings upon the admission or rejection of testimony and upon giving or refusing instructions may be reviewed either upon appeal from the judgment or on appeal from an order refusing a new trial, but any other questions arising under this section may be reviewed only upon appeal from an order denying a new trial. State v. Brantingham, 66 Mont. 1, 212 Pac. 499.

An application for a new trial on the ground that the verdict is contrary to the evidence or on the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the verdict is addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court. State v. Brantingham, 66 Mont. 1, 212 Pac. 499.

An affidavit in support of a motion for a new trial following a conviction for attempted rape that the prosecuting witness, some five months before the trial, said to affiant that, if defendant didn't "fork over," she "would send him over the road for the rest of his life," was not "newly discovered evidence" within the meaning of this section, that expression meaning evidence discovered since the trial. *State v. Defendant was convicted of a violation of the liquor law and sentenced to serve sixty days in jail and pay a fine. He at once perfected an appeal, secured a certificate of probable cause and was admitted to bail. Five months thereafter his appeal was dismissed and the trial court on the day the certificate of dismissal was received suspended his sentence. 12080. Effect of suspended sentence.

The effect of an order of the district court suspending the sentence of one convicted of a misdemeanor is to place him under the control and management of the state board of prison commissioners and subject to such rules and regulations as it may see fit to make. State ex rel. Foot v. District Court et al., 72 Mont. 374, 233 Pac. 957.

Under this section, the length of the period of probation of a convicted defendant cannot be more than the maximum term for which he might have been imprisoned. Defendant was convicted of a violation of the liquor laws and sentenced to the county jail for ninety days, the sentence being suspended. A year thereafter the court revoked the suspension and ordered him committed to jail. Held, on application for writ of supervisory control, that by its order suspending the sentence, jurisdiction over the person of defendant became vested in the state board of prison commissioners, that the court, therefore, was without authority to order him committed, and, the term of his imprisonment having expired, that the board could not do so. *State ex rel. Where, after judgment of death has been pronounced upon a defendant, there is good reason to suppose that he has become insane, the sheriff, with the concurrence of the judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, may summon a jury to inquire into the question of his sanity, in conformity with sections 12095 et seq.; but where during the course of the trial or before judgment of conviction is pronounced a doubt arises as to his mental condition, the procedure outlined by sections 12214 to 12219 is controlling. State v. Vettere, 77 Mont. 66, 249 Pac. 666.

An order denying a new trial in a criminal case is not reviewable on appeal from the judgment. State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 229 Pac. 727.

On appeal from a judgment of conviction only, an assignment of error for denial of defendant's motion for a new trial cannot be considered. State v. Ritz, 65 Mont. 180, 211 Pac. 298.

12108. In what cases by the state.

The record on appeal in a criminal case must, among other things, contain the judgment-roll in which must be included a copy of the judgment. The state, on the theory that an objection of defendant to the introduction of evidence on the ground of the insufficiency of the information is in effect a demurrer to the information and an order sustaining a demurrer constitutes the judgment, attempted to appeal from such an order as from the judgment, but the record did not contain a copy of the order in the form of a minute entry, which in such a case constitutes the judgment. Held, that the supreme court was without jurisdiction to entertain the appeal. State v. Nilan et al., 75 Mont. 397, 243 Pac. 1081.

12122. Judgment cannot be reversed without argument.

Where appellant in a criminal case fails to file his brief, and on the day set for the argument no appearance on behalf of either side is made, the judgment appealed from will be affirmed. State v. Cassill, 72 Mont. 381, 233 Pac. 908.

12125. Judgment without regard to technical errors.

The presence of defendant at his trial for crime is a matter which affects the substantial rights of both plaintiff and defendant and therefore the provisions of this section, requiring the supreme court to give judgment on appeal without regard to technical errors or defects not affecting the substantial rights of the parties, has no application. State v. Reed, 65 Mont. 51, 210 Pac. 756.

Under this section, the supreme court on appeal in a criminal cause must give judgment without regard to technical errors or defects or to exceptions which do not affect the substantial rights of the defendant. State v. McConville, 64 Mont. 302, 209 Pac. 987.

Howe*, 67 Mont. 195, 199, 215 Pac. 230; as section 9415, Revised Codes, in State v. Prouty, 60 Mont. 310, 199 Pac. 281.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 599.

12126. What may be reviewed on an appeal by the defendants.

On appeal from the judgment of conviction only, a specification of error based upon the order denying their motion for new trial on the ground of misconduct of one of the jurors, cannot be considered. State v. Maggert et al., 64 Mont. 331, 209 Pac. 989.

Under this section, the supreme court, on appeal from the judgment, may not review the sufficiency of the evidence to warrant conviction, in the absence of any intermediate order or ruling involving the merits or which may have affected the judgment. State v. Asher, 63 Mont. 302, 206 Pac. 1091.

CHAPTER 38.

BAIL ON APPEAL—DEPOSIT INSTEAD OF BAIL.

12154. Deposit, when and how made.

Where a prisoner for whom bail was furnished by plaintiff by a deposit of Liberty bonds was in court in the custody of the sheriff and released at once, the fact that a certificate of the deposit was not delivered to the officer as required by this section, as authority for releasing him, was immaterial. Kirschbaum v. Mayn, 76 Mont. 320, 48 A. L. R. 1425, 246 Pac. 953.

Where plaintiff in an action in claim and delivery against a clerk of the district court to recover possession of Liberty bonds deposited as bail for one accused of crime and subsequently declared forfeited, brought on the theory that the deposit was unauthorized under this section, under which the clerk could accept only money, had stipulated at the time bail was furnished that the bonds were substantially the equivalent of the amount fixed as bail in money or cash, she was estopped to assert otherwise. Kirschbaum v. Mayn, 76 Mont. 320, 48 A. L. R. 1425, 246 Pac. 953.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 3 Cal. Jur. 1052.

12156. Deposit to be applied to payment of judgment and fine.

Cited as section 9463, Revised Codes, in State v. Fowler, 59 Mont. 346, 196 Pac. 992.

CHAPTER 39.

SURRENDER OF DEFENDANT—FORFEITURE OF BAIL—RECOMMITMENT OF THE DEFENDANT.

12173. Form of the undertaking.

In an action on a bail bond in the form prescribed by this section, running to the state, the state and not the county is the proper party plaintiff, though, under section 12433, the money recovered goes to the county and not to the state.

County of Wheatland v. Van et al, 64 Mont. 113, 207 Pac. 1003.

CHAPTER 40.

WHO MAY BE WITNESS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

12177. When the defendant is not a competent witness, and when he may testify.

Where defendant did not testify in his own behalf, an instruction in the words of this section that if defendant does testify, the jury, in judging of the credibility and weight of his testimony, may take into consideration the fact that he is the defendant and the nature and enormity of the crime, though unnecessary, was harmless. State v. Stevens, 60 Mont. 390, 199 Pac. 256.

CHAPTER 44.

PROCEEDINGS ON INQUIRY AS TO THE SANITY OF A DEFENDANT.

12213. Insane person cannot be tried or punished.

Cited in State v. Vettere, 77 Mont. 66, 72, 249 Pac. 666.

12214. Doubts as to sanity of the defendant, how determined—Stay of proceedings on.

On appeal from an order of the trial court declining to summon a special jury to inquire into the sanity of one under sentence of death, defendant's counsel whose application for the order was based upon the provisions of this section, on the theory that section 12095 and following sections applicable to the situation were invalid, was not in a position to attack the validity of the latter sections, under the rule that one whose interests have not been or are not about to be prejudicially affected by an alleged invalid statute cannot question its constitutionality. State v. Vettere, 77 Mont. 66, 249 Pac. 666.

An application to have the sanity of a defendant convicted of murder determined under this section, is addressed to judicial discretion, the doubt mentioned in this section as to his sanity which must exist, being one arising in the mind of the trial judge, not necessarily presented by the assertion of defendant's counsel that his client is insane, and unless the record shows error on his part, its action will be affirmed. State v. Vettere, 77 Mont. 66, 249 Pac. 666.

Where during the course of the trial of one charged with crime, or before judgment of conviction is pronounced, a doubt arises as to the mental condition of the accused, the procedure outlined by sections 12214-12219 is controlling. State v. Vettere, 77 Mont. 66, 249 Pac. 666.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 195-199.

CHAPTER 45.

COMPROMISING OFFENSES BY LEAVE OF COURT.

12220. Compromise of offense for which civil action may be had.

Where one charged with an offense which, under this section, may lawfully be compromised, voluntarily pays the amount involved in the criminal case for the purpose of settlement and the charge is withdrawn or dismissed, the payment is a tacit admission that there was probable cause for instituting the criminal proceeding, and an action for malicious prosecution thereafter does not lie. Saner v. Bowker, 69 Mont. 463, 222 Pac. 1056.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 882.

CHAPTER 46.

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION OR OTHER REASONS.

12223. When action may be dismissed.

A defendant is not entitled to a dismissal of the charge against him on the ground that he was not brought to trial within six months after the information was filed if the delay was caused by a mistrial. State v. Turlock, 76 Mont. 549, 248 Pac. 169.

The postponement of a trial with the consent of the defendant constitutes a waiver of the right of the defendant to a speedy trial. State v. Turlock, 76 Mont. 549, 248 Pac. 169.

That the trial judge deemed it unwise, inexpedient and unnecessary to call a jury during the term at which a defendant should have been tried in order to come within the limitation of six months prescribed by this section, for bringing him to trial, held not the "good cause" contemplated by the section, upon a showing of which a motion to dismiss the information may properly be denied. State v. Arkle, 76 Mont. 81, 245 Pac. 526.

One charged with crime is, under this section, entitled to a dismissal of the information, whether he be imprisoned in the county jail or at liberty upon bail, if not brought to trial within six months after its filing, unless the state can show good cause why dismissal should not follow. State v. Arkle, 76 Mont. 81, 245 Pac. 526.

It is only by making timely objection before actively participating in the trial of a criminal prosecution against him that defendant can avail himself of the right to have the prosecution dismissed, under this section, because not brought to trial within six months after filing of the information; hence where motion to dismiss on that ground was not made until the trial had commenced and the jury had been sworn, he will be held to have waived the right. State v. Test, 65 Mont. 134, 211 Pac. 217.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 201 et seq.

12226. If action dismissed, defendant to be discharged, etc.

Cited as section 9533, Revised Codes, in Hassan v. Earll, 61 Mont. 389, 394, 202 Pac. 581.

12229. Dismissal a bar in misdemeanor, but not in a felony.

Dismissal of an information before defendant is called upon to plead or before the jury is impaneled and sworn does not bar a subsequent prosecution for the same offense. State v. Knilians, 69 Mont. 8, 220 Pac. 91.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 7 Cal. Jur. 944.

PARDONS—COMMUTATIONS—REMISSIONS—RESPITES—BOARD OF PARDONS.

12247. Power of governor to grant pardons—Board of pardons, how composed.

12263. May restore to citizenship.

Cited in State ex rel. Bottomly v. District Court, 73 Mont. 541, 550, 237 Pac. 525.

12264. Parole of prisoners in state prison.

The effect of a parole granted to a convict is to suspend the execution of the judgment until the end of the term of imprisonment or until the paroled prisoner is arrested for breach of the parole; hence when such a prisoner was not rearrested after parole and enjoyed his liberty from the time of his discharge until the end of his term, he was thereafter prima facie rightfully at large and not subject to further restraint for the crime for which he was committed to prison. Anderson et al. v. Wirkman, 67 Mont. 176, 216 Pac. 224.

CHAPTER 51.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DELINQUENT CHILDREN AND JUVENILE DELINQUENTS.

12275. Definition of juvenile delinquents.

In the absence of a statute to that effect, the marriage of a female minor, while releasing her from parental authority, does not change her status to that of an adult, and therefore under the juvenile delinquent law, a married female under the age of eighteen may properly be committed to the State Vocational School for Girls until she attain the age of twenty-one years. State ex rel. Foot v. District Court, 77 Mont. 290, 49 A. L. R. 398, 250 Pac. 973.

12276. What children deemed juvenile delinquents—Evidence, when used.

Cited in State ex rel. Foot v. District Court, 77 Mont. 290, 293, 49 A. L. R. 398, 250 Pac. 973.

12280. Procedure on arrest of juvenile delinquents—Detention—Jurisdiction of courts. When any child under eighteen years of age is taken into custody, or arrested under the provisions of this chapter, such child shall be taken directly before the district court, or, if the district court is not then in session in said county, it may be taken before a justice of the peace or police magistrate, who shall at once notify the chief probation officer of the county, who shall make investigation of such case as in other cases where complaint has been made or petition duly filed and after investigation, as herein provided, by the said chief probation officer, then the justice of the peace or police magistrate shall act as a committing and examining magistrate only; and it shall be his duty to proceed with the hearing thereof, after granting to the child, or such person as may be representing it, reasonable opportunity to obtain counsel, if counsel be desired by the accused child, and as soon as the said accused child can procure its witnesses. Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the officer arresting or taking into custody such child from detaining such child in the county or city jail, in a cell or room especially prepared for that purpose, and separate from any other prisoners detained in such jail, except that male and female children shall not be detained in the same cell or room, until such child can be taken before the court or magistrate as herein provided. In case the examining magistrate hold the child for trial in the district court, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to transfer the case to said district court and the probation officer having the child in charge shall take the child before the said district court, and the said district court shall proceed to hear and dispose of the case in the same manner as if said child had been brought before such court upon petition originally filed as hereinbefore provided; or, when necessary, when the delinquency charged would otherwise constitute a felony, may direct such child to be kept in proper custody until investigation, and an information may be filed as in other cases of felony or misdemeanor under the laws of the state; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to confer jurisdiction upon any justice of the peace or police court to try any case against any child under eighteen years of age. In any case the court shall require notice to be given and investigation to be made as in other cases under this act, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time for that purpose.

Amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 52, L. 1923.

CHAPTER 52.

JUSTICE'S AND POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS—APPEALS.

12302. Proceedings, must be by complaint.

Defendant, charged with wrongfully obstructing an alley, was proceeded against under the statute governing criminal procedure in police courts, convicted and appealed to the district court, where the complaint was dismissed. Held, on appeal by the city that, the statute not granting the right of appeal to cities in criminal causes tried in justice or police courts, the appeal did not lie. City of Miles City v. Drum, 60 Mont. 451, 199 Pac. 719.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 8 Cal. Jur. 660.

CHAPTER 53.

THE WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

12348. Who may prosecute writ.

This and the following sections of the habeas corpus law were cited as sections 9630-9662, Revised Codes, in State v.

State v. Belland, 59 Mont. 540, 548, 197 Pac. 841.

CHAPTER 55.

SEARCH-WARRANTS.

12394. Search-warrant defined.

The general provisions of sections 12394-12414, with reference to the issuance of search-warrants, were not amended or modified by the provisions of the Prohibition Enforcement Act. State v. Tesla et al., 69 Mont. 503, 223 Pac. 107.

Cited in State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 346, 229 Pac. 727.

Sections 12394-12413 were cited in State v. Certain Intoxicating Liquors, 71 Mont. 79, 86, 227 Pac. 472.

This and the following five sections were cited as sections 9676 to 9681, Revised Codes. State ex rel. Samlin v. District Court, 59 Mont. 600, 606, 607, 198 Pac. 362.

For text treatment of this subject see vol. 23 Cal. Jur. 182.

12396. It cannot be issued but upon probable cause.

12397. Magistrates must examine on oath, complainant, etc.

This section declares that a magistrate before issuing a search-warrant must take the deposition of any witness in writing. The warrant was issued upon an affidavit. Held, that the departure did not render the warrant illegal, the words "deposition" and "affidavit" having been used interchangeably in the chapter of the codes relating to search-warrants. State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 229 Pac. 727.

Where a deputy county attorney had presented a verified complaint for a search-warrant based upon the affidavit of another, and the district judge examined the latter under oath, the fact that he did not also examine the complainant himself, as required by this section, did not render the warrant illegal, since the only information the complainant had was that obtained from the affiant and an examination of the former would have been useless. State v. English, 71 Mont. 343, 229 Pac. 727.

Where probable cause for the issuance of a search-warrant was shown by the deposition of the complainant, disclosing time, place and manner of an alleged violation of the liquor law, the requirements of this section and 12398 were sufficiently complied with, and the fact that the complaint for the warrant did not set forth the time of the commission of the offense did not render the warrant illegal. State v. Tesla et al., 69 Mont. 503, 223 Pac. 107.

Cited in State ex rel. Stange v. District Court, 71 Mont. 125, 129, 227 Pac. 576.

trict Court, 70 Mont. 202, 205, 224 Pac. 866; State ex rel. King v. District Court, 70 Mont. 191, 224 Pac. 862.

CHAPTER 59.

DISPOSITION OF FINES AND FORFEITURES.

12433. Fines, costs and forfeitures, how disposed of. All fines and forfeitures collected in any court, except police courts, must be applied to the payment of the costs of the case in which the fine is imposed or the forfeiture incurred; and after such costs are paid, the residue must be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the court is held and if not otherwise provided by law, by him credited to the general school fund of said county; and at the time of payment of any such fine or forfeiture there shall be filed with the county treasurer, a complete statement showing the total of the fine or forfeiture received or incurred with an itemized statement of the costs incurred by the county in such action, which statement shall give the title of the cause and be subscribed by the person or officer making such payment.

PART III.

Penal and Reformatory Institutions.

CHAPTER 1.

THE STATE PRISON.

12447.1. Wearing apparel factory at state prison authorized. The state board of prison commissioners of the state of Montana is hereby authorized and empowered, and it shall be its duty, to construct, maintain and operate at the Montana state prison, as soon as may be possible, a factory for the manufacture of wearing apparel. In connection with the operation of such factory the warden shall make requisition to the purchasing department of the state for the purchase of all necessary materials used in the manufacture of wearing apparel and products as contemplated by this act. All wearing apparel so manufactured at said penitentiary and not required for use therein, shall be sold to the state for use by the state in any of the public institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, at and for such price as shall be fixed and determined by the state purchasing agent and warden of the state penitentiary, provided, however, that none of said wearing apparel shall be sold in the open market in competition with the products of free labor.

En. Sec. 1, Ch. 152, L. 1927.

12447.2. Supervision—Disposal of moneys. The warden of the Montana state prison shall be the superintendent of such factory and shall conduct the same under the supervision of the said board of prison commissioners; he shall keep accounts of all transactions. All moneys received by said warden from the sale of such wearing apparel shall be deposited by him monthly with the state treasurer and be credited to the prison factory revolving fund, hereby created. Out of such fund there shall be paid such claims as are approved by the warden and the state board of examiners for expenses incident to the operation of such factory. As often as there shall accrue in said fund any profits amounting to the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) from the operation of said factory, the same shall be paid into the general fund of the state.

En. Sec. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1927.

12447.3. Skilled labor may be employed. That for the purpose of operating said factory, there shall be used and employed the prisoners confined in said state penitentiary, and the warden is hereby authorized to employ such skilled laborers only as in his judgment and in the judgment of the board of prison commissioners, may be necessary for the feasible and profitable employment of the said prisoners, provided however, that no skilled laborers shall be employed if prison labor can be made use of.

En. Sec. 3, Ch. 152, L. 1927.

12447.4. Warden to execute contracts. The warden of the state penitentiary, with the consent of the state board of prison commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any agreement relative to state uses of the products of such factory.

En. Sec. 4, Ch. 152, L. 1927.

12447.5. Machinery for manufacture of auto number plates to be provided. That the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of the moneys received from automobile license fees for the purpose of purchasing and installing machinery and purchasing materials for the manufacturing of auto license number plates, auto name plates, chauffeurs' badges, road markers and street markers. The sums hereby appropriated shall be deducted from the fund received by the register of motor vehicles for automobile licenses before any distribution of such funds shall be made to the several counties.

En. Sec. 1, H. B. No. 124, page 526, L. 1927.

12447.6. Installation of machinery at state penitentiary. The registrar of motor vehicles is hereby empowered and directed to purchase and install, in a suitable building, owned by the state of Montana, and located at the state penitentiary at Deer Lodge, Montana, all the necessary machinery for manufacturing auto license number plates, chauffeur's badges, road markers, street markers. and auto name plates, to be used or distributed by the state of Montana.

En. Sec. 2, H. B. No. 124, page 526, L. 1927.

12447.7. Plates to be manufactured where. That after the passage and approval of this act, all auto license number plates, auto name plates, road markers, street markers and chauffeurs' badges used or distributed by the registrar of motor vehicles, on and after January 1st, 1928, shall be manufactured by the state of Montana at Deer Lodge, Montana, and such manufacturing plant shall be under the direction of the registrar of motor vehicles and the state board of examiners.

En. Sec. 3, H. B. No. 124, page 526, L. 1927.

12447.8. Employees, how paid. All paid employees necessary for the purpose of carrying out this act shall be selected and employed by, and the salary of such employees fixed by the registrar of motor vehicles and approved by the state board of examiners.
